MAJOR HANLON WOUNDED

Major John D. Hanlon of the U. S. Paratroops, is now wearing the Purple Heart medal in recognition of wounds received during the most recent invasion of Continental Europe by Allied troops. Major Hanlon, who is the son of Police Officer and Mrs. John E. Hanlon of Bridge street, participated in the D-Day invasion and was among the first of the air-borne troops to land in France. He came safely through that thrilling experience and returned with his unit to England.

"Steamer", as Major Hanlon was known in the days when he was a star fullback for Winchester High, wasn't as lucky on his second invasion try, though in a recent letter to his parents he himself figures his luck is still pretty good. His last letter was written Sept. 21 from a hospital in England and the Major expressed himself as feeling quite chipper after a turkey dinner.

He was wounded in the side and his luck lay in the fact that the thing missed being a very serious injury by a fraction of an inch. When he was hit he was beside the regimental surgeon, who according to Major Hanlon, was treating him almost before the latter hit the ground. Only 100 feet away was a jeep waiting to remove wounded to the hospital, and in five minutes Major Hanlon was in it. His admiration for the Medical Corps went to a new high as he found himself transported from a foxhole to clean sheets in the space of a few short days. In slightly over 24 hours he was away to the rear and out of danger.

In his letter home Major Hanlon assured his parents that he is quite all right and should be as he expresses it " ready to go again" shortly.

HOLIDAY FOOTBALL

Winchester High will play Danvers High on Manchester Field on Columbus Day, Oct. 12 at 2.30 p. m.

The local eleven has had some good games with Danvers since the schools resumed football relations three years ago, losing one game and winning two. Winchester seems to have the stronger club this season and should win on the holiday.

The game was originally scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 14, but was set ahead to the holiday by Faculty Director Ray Hayward to enable more people to see the local eleven in action.

MISS NEILEY WEDS

Announcements were issued this week by Mr. and Mrs. Geoffrey C. Neiley of 63 Yale street announcing the marriage of their daughter, Marion (USNR) to Ensign Galen Keith Benjamin, USNR, of Beeville, Texas. The ceremony took place Sept. 17.

LT. JOHN A. HARROLD

Winchester's first Police Lieutenant Lt. John A. Harrold, retired, died early Sunday, Oct. 14, at his home, 14 Myrtle street after a severe illness of nine weeks. He retired from the Police Department Jan. 1, 1936, but even previous to giving up active duty he had not been in good health and following his retirement his condition was often a subject for concern to his family and many friends. Flags on the Common and public buildings were at half-staff in his honor.

Few in the town's employment have exceeded the popularity enjoyed by John Harrold with the general public, an exceptionally genial personality, kindliness and liking for people winning him friends among persons of all walks in life, despite a calling in which popularity is not always easy to attain.

Following his retirement on Feb. 12, 1936, he was given with Mrs. Harrold a testimonial dinner in the town hall by a large group of his friends, the size and lavishness of which was only restricted by Lt. Harrold's health. People naturally liked John Harrold and "Mother Harrold," his wife and devoted helpmate through 57 years of happy married life.

For many years Lt. Harrold led the Memorial Day parade to Wildwood Cemetery, seeing the ranks of the G. A. R. dwindle away and finally himself having to give up his place at the head of the Police escort. Though he could no longer march, his Veteran friends remembered him always and each year his health would permit he rode over the route in an automobile, an honored guest, both for the parade and at the luncheons in the town hall. Only last Memorial Day he was in line and spent a happy time after the parade greeting old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald N. Hendey, with their son, Donald, and daughter, Judith, have returned to Arlington, Va., after visiting Mrs. Hendey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Humphrey of Elmwood avenue.

CAROLINE S. JACKSON

Caroline S. (Mrs. James F.) Jackson died Wednesday at her home, 6 Mystic Valley Parkway, after a long illness. She was born in Fall River 83 years ago. Her father was Dr. Thurston, for many years minister of the Central Congregational Church in that city. She married James F. Jackson, who had come to Fall River, as a young lawyer, attracted by the growing textile life, and who, besides building up a large law practice, served the city as city solicitor, and as Mayor. Mr. Jackson was appointed Railroad Commissioner, and later, by Governor McCall, as Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Boston Elevated. As his work in the Boston area increased, he and Mrs. Jackson, with their daughter, Edith, now Mrs. Theodore R. Godwin, left Fall River, and lived in Brookline. In the fall of 1922 Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, and Mr. and Mrs. Godwin came to Winchester to the home on the Parkway where Mr. Jackson died in April, 1937, and where Mrs. Jackson and her daughter's family have continued to live.

Theodore Parker once said that we should "live upon the past, in the present, and for the future." Mrs. Jackson lived "upon the past." She carried the best of the old day into the new; the dignity, the courtesy, the reserve. In appearance, and in character she was a "lady", in the fine sense of that much abused word. She was a minister's daughter who refuted the old saw about the futility of the sons and daughters of the parsonage; for religion was essential to her, and she believed it true that, without faith, men and nations perish. Tenacious of her friendships, and loyal to those friends of an earlier day, she looked forward, for many summers to life at Westport Harbor and, when the hurricane of 1938 destroyed this summer home, it was a real grief to her. Then too, she "lived in the present". Her keen mind read the latest books and followed the current of contemporary life.

With her children she "lived for the future." Their interests renewed her youth. Their friends were hers, and they found in the play of her wit and the glow of her humor, the fun that made her one with them.

She leaves, besides Mr. and Mrs. Godwin, two grandchildren, James Jackson Godwin, who has attended Harvard but is now engaged in war work in Washington; and Shirley G. Godwin a student at Edgewood Park.

Funeral services will be held today at 2.30, in the Central Congregational Church in Fall River the church served so many years by Mrs. Jackson's father.

OPEN HOUSE AT HIGH SCHOOL TUESDAY, OCT. 17

At a teachers' meeting this week, Acting Principal Samuel M. Graves announced plans for an open house at the high school on the evening of Tuesday, Oct. 17, commencing at 7.30. This second open house will give parents of sophomores, juniors and seniors an opportunity to become acquainted with the facilities at the disposal of their youngsters.

Doors will open at 7.15 and the parents will be welcomed in the home rooms from 7.25 to 7.30. After a brief home room period during which they will take part in opening exercises and make copies of the Tuesday schedule, they will follow a regular routine of classes.

The large number of enthusiastic parents who have attended similar open house meetings at Wadleigh has convinced Mr. Graves that the high school meeting will be well attended. Remember the time and the date, 7.15, Tuesday evening, Oct. 17.

JAMES JOSLIN, CHAIRMAN

Mr. James M. Joslin of 2 Wildwood terrace has been appointed Winchester chairman of the Mass. Republican Finance Committee and is busy building an organization to solicit the funds for the campaigns of national, state and local Republican candidates.

Mr. Joslin asks that all those interested in helping in a campaign way in the election of Republican candidates communicate with his organization at the Republican Town Committee Headquarters, 576 Main street or call Win. 0188 or 0088.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Lindrov Witham of Bacon street announce the birth of a daughter, Carol Greenleaf, on Sept. 14 at Richardson House.

RALLY WELL ATTENDED

Republican Candidates Here

Opening the program of the rally held for the Republican State candidates sponsored by the Winchester Women's Republican Club on Wednesday evening in the town hall, with the singing of the national anthem, led by Mrs. Isabelle Winship and accompanied by Guido Talone on his trumpet, a solo by Talone accompanied by Mrs. Anna Lochman, the first speaker introduced by Mrs. William W. Goodhue, president of the club, was Clarence A. Barnes, candidate for Attorney General.

Mr. Barnes told of the delight experienced when coming to Winchester as it is the home of two respected leading citizens whose memory he holds in great affection for the influence and help given him in his early years as a practicing lawyer. He referred to former Gov. Samuel W. McCall and to Hon. Samuel J. Elder brought a resounding applause which indicated that in the audience of 500 persons included many old Winchester residents who too, remember these former residents and their long years of work for good government and fair practices, now the paramount issues of the election of Nov. 7.

Mrs. Goodhue presented the candidates and guests who were on the stage and each in turn stated clearly their position and the importance of electing candidates on the Republican ticket to insure the continuance of good government for the Commonwealth.

Robert A. Bradford, Attorney General and candidate for the office of Lt. Governor urged all in his short talk to "read the news behind the news item" to uncover the meaning of certain legislation and happenings. He said the voter owed it to himself to be informed and weigh the value of what will mean good government under the re-election of the Republican candidates or the possibility of a return to the spending and waste of office holders who care little for their public trust.

Lt. Gov. Horace T. Cahill had been expected to be present until a few hours before the meeting when word came he could not come. His friend and associate, Judge Northrop was present and gave an intimate picture of the Lt. Governor's qualifications and training after 16 years at the State House to carry on the clean and honest regime of Gov. Saltonstall.

Others present and speaking in their own interest and in the interest of a successful Republican ticket election were Mrs. Addison B. Greene, member of the State Republican Committee; Mrs. Anna W. Roberts, Kingman P. Case, Victor A. Friend, Nathaniel I. Bowditch, Sen. Harris S. Richardson, Rep. William E. Ramsdell, Melvin G. Rogers, Mrs. William R. Baker and Fred Burrell.

A large committee of hostesses welcomed the audience with Mrs. Willard Hudson, hospitality chairman of the club, in charge. Cider and doughnuts were served by Mrs. George French and her committee following the meeting when those attending were asked to stay and meet the guests.

GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Dean of 60 Yale street celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Oct. 4. Many of their friends and neighbors called during the afternoon and they received congratulations from friends and relatives in the distance.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean have lived in Winchester for 34 years. They have two daughters, Mrs. Philip H. Bartlett and Mrs. Harry N. Squires, Jr., two grandchildren and one great grandson.

MISS McCORMICK—LT. PICKRAL ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. James C. McCormick of Wedgemere avenue announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Edna Moore McCormick, to Lt. George Monroe Pickral, Jr., USMCR, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Monroe Pickral of Chatham, Va.

Miss McCormick was graduated from Smith College with the class of 1944. Lt. Pickral was graduated from Hargrave Military Academy and from the Virginia Military Institute in 1943. He is now stationed at Cherry Point, North Carolina.

DAVID WALDRON FITTS

David Waldron Fitts, seaman, 1c USNR, son of Mrs. Caroline S. Fitts of Grasmere avenue, and former All-Maine football star at Bowdoin College, died Monday, Oct. 2 at Dobson General Hospital in Butler, Pa., after nearly a month's illness.

He contracted pneumonia Sept. 7 at Grove City College, Pa., where he was at Grove City College, a Naval Training Center, studying to be a radio technician. After a few days in the college sick bay he was removed to the Dobson Hospital, an Army institution at Butler, Pa. For several days his condition was grave and his wife was with him at the hospital. Then considerable improvement was noted and his wife went home, the improvement continuing until ten days ago when there was a relapse.

Last Friday Mrs. Fitts, Seaman Fitts' mother, flew to Butler, and her older son, Henry King Fitts, master of Morristown School in New Jersey also sped to the bedside of his brother. They were in time for the end did not come until early Monday morning.

Seaman Fitts was born in Winchester July 25, 1916, son of Mrs. Caroline S., and the late Henry King Fitts. He was educated in the Winchester schools and at Winchester High School, from which he was graduated in 1933, being president of the Athletic Association, on the tennis team and one of the outstanding members of the student body.

Although a football star in college, Seaman Fitts was prevented by illness from making the varsity team while in high school. At Holderness School in New Hampshire, from which he was graduated in 1934, he starred in football and track and was awarded the Harlem Cup for excellence in scholarship, sportsmanship and athletics.

At Bowdoin Seaman Fitts was one of the college leaders, being president of his class in both freshman and senior years, a member of the College Athletic Committee, member of the College Needs Committee, president of the Student Council, generally considered the highest undergraduate honor obtainable. At commencement in the summer of 1938, he was awarded the Lucius Hoyt Prize Scholarship "to the graduate of greatest promise as a citizen."

Seaman Fitts made the Bowdoin freshman football team and played three years of varsity football, serving as co-captain of the eleven in his senior year and as All-Maine end assisting materially in his team's winning the Maine State Championship. His coach, Adam Walsh, famous Notre Dame gridiron star, always maintained that his "Dave" could have made any college team in the country.

Besides football he won his letter in swimming, was a member of the college track and tennis teams and sang in the Glee Club. He was a member of the Alpha Delta Phi fraternity, serving as president one year.

After graduation Seaman Fitts went to work for Byrd & Son in Walpole, manufacturers of coated and floor coverings. He was associated with the latter department and for a time was on the road, covering territory in and around Haston, Texas, and in Louisiana. Shortly before entering the service last May he was recalled to the company's plant in Walpole and was making his home at that time with his family in Norwood. He was a member of the executive committee of the Bowdoin Alumni Association of Boston.

In April of 1941 he married the former Elizabeth Neale of Harrisburg, Pa., in that city. She survives with a son, David Waldron, Jr., Seaman Fitts' mother and brother, and two sisters, Mrs. Clifton Grant of Wallingford, N. J., and Dorothy Fitts, a WAC stationed at Chanute Field, Illinois.

Funeral services will be held this Friday afternoon at 2.30 at the Church of the Epiphany where Seaman Fitts was formerly a member of the choir and of the Servers Guild. His uncle, Rev. Frederick W. Fitts, rector of St. John's Church, Roxbury, will read the service, assisted by the rector of the Epiphany, Rev. Dwight W. Hadley. William Sawyer of Belmont, formerly of Winchester; Edward F. Chase of Cambridge, Jackson H. Taft of Lexington, Howard W. Stevens of Westbrook, Me., Allen Willis, S. 1-c, USNR, of New York; William Bohn of Norwood and Stanley Blackmere of Norwood will be honorary bearers. Interment will be in the Fitts family lot in Wildwood Cemetery.

A 50TH ANNIVERSARY

An interesting party took place at the home of Sumner T. McCall at Greenwich, Conn., on Tuesday evening. The occasion was the 50th anniversary of the association of Edward Crawford with the McCall family. Many Winchester people are well acquainted with both participants through the fact that they were born here and spent the larger part of their life here. Mr. McCall is the son of the late Governor Samuel W. McCall, and it was during the days when the Governor, then a member of the State Legislature resided on Park avenue that "Ned" Crawford entered his employ. Mr. Crawford continued to be associated with Samuel W. McCall during his lifetime and during the life of his wife. Following Mrs. McCall's death, Mr. Crawford became associated with his life-long friend and companion, Sumner McCall.

A feature of the celebration was the attendance of Mr. Crawford's twin brother, "Jack", who has for many years been a resident of the City of Chicago.

Winchester friends will be glad to learn that the twins, Ned and Jack, are out here in Winchester Wednesday for a fortnight's visit with friends and relatives.

WINCHESTER COUPLE CELEBRATE 50TH ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Allan J. MacDonald, residents of Winchester for the past 47 years celebrated their golden wedding last Saturday, Sept. 30 at their home on Main street. No formal observance of the day was planned, but they have been recipients of many congratulatory messages on the event.

HOW VERY EASY

it is to find fault with what some one else is doing, or neglecting to do, while the time thus spent could be utilized to greater advantage by doing some of the things others are blaming us for not doing.

Blood donors, surgical dressings workers, nurse's aides and those occupied in various war efforts don't have the time or the desire to criticize others. A class for Gray Ladies is to be started in the near future. All women who are interested may obtain further information by calling the Red Cross office.

The Red Cross Local Chapter is glad to curtail the space otherwise used for its publicity out of deference to the War Fund Drive which should have the whole-hearted support of all.

JOHN FRASER WEBBER

John Fraser Webber, well known carpenter and president of Carpenter's Local 991 in this district, died Friday morning, Sept. 29, at his home 19 Brookside avenue, after a short illness.

Son of William and Eliza (Webber), Mr. Webber was born Aug. 26, 1871, in Lakeville, N. S. His early life was spent in Lakeville and he was educated there, coming to this country and settling in Winchester as a young man in his early twenties. Besides the presidency of the Carpenter's Local which he held at the time of his death, he was regent of Abenjona Council, Royal Arcanum; a member of Waterfield Lodge, I. O. O. F.; and attended the Second Congregational Church.

On Dec. 31, 1904, Mr. Webber married Lottie Cornell of Woburn in this town. She survives with a daughter, Mrs. Warren Saunders of this town, and two brothers, living in Canada.

Funeral services were held on Monday afternoon at the Kelley and Hawes Chapel with Rev. Harland Lewis, pastor of the Second Congregational Church, officiating. Interment was in Wildwood Cemetery.

MRS. MARGARET BLACKHAM

Mrs. Margaret Blackham of 13 Salem street, widow of James Blackham and for more than half a century a resident of Winchester, died Sunday morning, Oct. 1, after a short illness which followed a long period of failing health.

Mrs. Blackham was born Aug. 26, 1859, in Armoy, County Antrim, Ireland. As a young girl she went to Scotland and lived her early life in that country, coming to Winchester from Glasgow in 1889.

She was married in that year and lived all of her married life in this town, having a wide circle of friends among older residents. She was a member of St. Mary's Church and of its Ladies' Sodality.

Mrs. Blackham's husband died in 1919. She leaves three sons, former Selectman James W. Blackham, Henry L. Blackham, both of Winchester and Joseph A. Blackham of Belmont; a sister, Mrs. Katherine Bader of East Orange, N. J.; and six grandchildren.

The funeral was held Wednesday morning from the Moffett and McMullen Funeral Home with high mass of requiem celebrated in St. Mary's Church at 10 o'clock. Interment was in Calvary Cemetery.

MRS. IRMA JOYCE DONEY

Irma Joyce Doney, wife of Norvell F. Doney, aviation and radioman, 1c, USN, and daughter of Theodore and Elsie (Thornquist) Birch of 14 Lebanon street, died Saturday afternoon, Sept. 30, at the Massachusetts General Hospital after a long illness.

Mrs. Doney was born Feb. 15, 1920 in Turtle Lake, Wis. Most of her early life was spent in Wyoming, Minn., where she was educated, and she had made her home with her parents in Winchester only for the past two years.

While employed as a stenographer in one of the Government bureaus in Washington, in 1942, she and Mr. Doney were married. She leaves, besides her parents and husband, an 18 months old son, Edward David Doney; a brother, Pvt. John Birch, USA, stationed in Madison, Wis., and two sisters, Telma and Joan Birch, both of Winchester.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Crawford Memorial Church with the pastor, Rev. Harris E. Heverly, officiating. Interment was in Wildwood Cemetery.

Lt. Harrold was the son of Charles and Catherine (Daley) Harrold. He was born in Boston Dec. 24, 1862, but came to Winchester as a boy of 5 years and grew up in this town, attending the Winchester schools and as a young man working in one of the local leather shops.

In 1889 he was appointed a special police officer and on June 1, 1902, became a regular patrolman under Chief William R. Murdock. He remained in the department from the old "rough and tumble" days when an officer was "on his own" to the present highly centralized conditions with cruising cars and radio. He was promoted to sergeant Feb. 3, 1919, and on March 10, 1924, became the first police lieutenant in the history of the Winchester Department. During the last days of his police service he was in charge of Police Headquarters at night.

Police Chief William H. Rogers, at the time of Lt. Harrold's retirement, wrote of him to the Selectmen:

"In recommending his retirement, I wish to pay tribute to him as a high type of police officer, honest and capable. His long record stands without a blemish, a credit to his family and the town."

Lt. Harrold was a member of the Winchester Police Relief Association, of the Holy Name Society of St. Mary's Parish, and of the Mass. Catholic Order of Foresters.

On Aug. 23, 1887, he married the former Agnes Beeson of Salem in that city. They observed their golden wedding anniversary in 1937 and this past summer, their 57th wedding day, though no formal celebration was attempted because of Lt. Harrold's poor health.

He leaves his wife, four daughters, Mrs. John J. Sullivan, Mrs. William M. Nostrom, Mrs. Charles A. Farrar, all of Winchester, and Pfc. Margaret Eckert, WAC, stationed at Camp Stoneman, Cal.; three sons, CPO Charles J. Harrold, stationed at Quonset Point, R. I., in civil life a sergeant in the Winchester Police Department; John F. Harrold of El Reno, Oklahoma, and Norman B. Harrold of this town. There are also 20 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

The funeral was held Wednesday morning from the late residence. An honorary escort of Police, headed by Lt. Edward W. O'Connell and Sgts. James P. Donaghey and Joseph Deveno, marched from the house to the church with the cortege. At the church the officers, under the supervision of Chief William H. Rogers, formed two files and stood at attention while the casket passed between them.

Pallbearers in the escort were Patrolmen James E. Farrell, John F. Horan, Archibald T. O'Connell, John E. Hanlon, John J. Boyle, Clarence E. Dunbury, James F. Noonan, William L. Callahan, James E. Flaherty, Herbert S. Mullen and Augustine W. MacDonald.

Solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. Fr. Francis J. Sullivan, with Rev. Fr. John P. O'Riordan, deacon and Rev. Fr. George F. Wiseman, subdeacon.

Following the mass the Police formed again and marched with the cortege from the church to Harvard street where they entered cars to proceed to Calvary Cemetery where the interment was made. The committal prayers were read by Father O'Riordan.

Winchester is included with Reading, Wilmington, Woburn, Wakefield and Stoneham in the Eastern Middlesex Division of the 1944 Jewish Appeal of Greater Boston which opened last evening with a special key workers' meeting at the home of Mr. Julius Starkman, 57 Emerson street, Wakefield. The combine appeal opens Oct. 15 and serves 33 national, international and overseas relief and rehabilitation centers.

INFORMATION PLEASE

Friday, Nov. 10, is the evening to reserve to see and hear your favorite radio program, enacted by local talent. Information Please, sponsored by the Winchester Mothers' Association scholarship fund, is to take place on that date. Mr. Robert Cummins, as the able master of ceremonies, will have a staff of eight experts, male and female, with a wide range of knowledge.

It's time now to start thinking up questions, on any subject whatsoever. A musical expert will be among those on the stage and any musical scores sent in will be played, provided the question is one chosen by the committee of judges.

Questions may be sent either to Mrs. Paul F. Elliot, 57 Wedgemere avenue or to Mr. Robert Cummins, 1 Yale street. Each question should be accompanied with complete answers, also the name and address of the person who sends it. Anyone submitting a question which is used will recieve a 25 cent defense stamp. If a question stumps the experts, the person sending it in receives $5 in war stamps.

Now is your chance to do something about the questions you always thought you might send to Clifton Fadiman but never did; your chance to try to trip the experts up on your pet fields of knowledge.

THE FORTNIGHTLY

In the days of Roman glory and luxurious living, Septime Geta, so history tells us, had served to him every day as many dishes as there are letters in the alphabet, each of them designated by a special letter.

In the same vein, the Fortnightly has prepared a lavish feast for its members this season, in regular programs and in the manifold activities of the committees, so many interesting dishes in fact that the alphabet just once around would scarcely suffice.

For the A attraction at the opening meeting, the club is very proud to present the Boston Symphonic Ensemble, through Mrs. Mary Ranton Witham, chairman.

The hour is conveniently early. Dessert will be served at 1 o'clock, followed by a reception to club members, Mrs. A. Stanley Kinsley, Sth district director and guest of honor, assisting the president. Mrs. Warren Whitman, and the other officers.

The hostesses will be directed by Mrs. Francis C. Bowes and Mrs. William Martens, and Mrs. Henry K. Foss and Mrs. Norman M. Mitchell will be in charge of decorations.

Monday, Oct. 9, an afternoon that will be pleasant to remember.

ENTERTAINED SATURDAY

James Kimball, son of Mr and Mrs. A. Allen Kimball of Cabot street, entertained last Saturday evening at his home a group of Winchester boys, many of whom were either home on leave from duty with the armed services or at home from college.

Among Jim's guests were Richard Coon, William Carey and Ted Atkinson, home on leave from the A-12 course at Norwich University; Richard Fenno and Gordon McGovern in V-12 at Williams; Kenneth Harvey, V-12 at Dartmouth; Phinehas Newton, V-12 at Middlebury; Stephen Greene, Yale; Philip O'Rourke, in boot training at Sampson Naval Training Station, Sampson, N. Y.; and Bert Moore, Sam Tompkins, Robert Gallagher, Jerry O'Neil, William McGrail, Herbert Mahoney, Arthur Twombly, Larry Smith and Alan Bugbee.

WINCHESTER ORCHESTRA PLAYED

Jean's Baytan Makers, a newly organized Winchester dance band made the headlines of Dennene Rotunda, played last Saturday evening for the dance held in K. of C. Hall, Woburn by the Warhawks baseball team of that city.

Besides Rotunda, the orchestra is composed of John Pietrantonio and Joe Gentile, saxophone; Christie Ferro, guitar; Samuel Figueia, drums; and Rudy Gentile, trumpet. The orchestra, despite its recent organization has many engagements lined up, including the Thanksgiving Day football dance.

THE WINCHESTER COLLEGE CLUB

The College Club is starting its fall and winter activities. As usual there will be two meetings of the club as a whole, an evening guest night later in the fall and an afternoon meeting in the spring.

Besides these two meetings, the College Club sponsors several study groups. There are two morning study groups which start in the fall and continue through the winter and an evening study group, in which husbands participate, which starts in January.

The subjects to be covered in the morning groups are History and Art. The History Group will discuss "Current Problems in the United States." Mrs. Charles L. Nichols of 14 Jefferson road is the chairman. The first meeting will be held at her home on Monday, Oct. 9 at 1:30 p. m.

The Art Group will study "Museum Treasures in Painting." This group will make six trips to the Boston Art Museum and hear lectures and see exhibits of paintings which have been hidden because of the war. Mrs. Kenneth Hall of 12 Winslow road is chairman of this group.

Both these study groups are open to members of the College Club with the payment of a small fee and to others with the payment of a slightly larger fee.

People eligible to join the Winchester College Club must have finished at least two years at a senior college accredited by the American Association of University Women. Anyone who is eligible and who is interested in joining may call Mrs. Harold Blanchard, Win. 2263.

HOME HOSPITALITY FOR SERVICEMEN

The Fortnightly Club had charge of placing servicemen in Winchester homes during the month of September. Mrs. Kenneth B. Hiscoe was chairman with Mrs. Rasmus K. Miller helping her.

Following is a list of the hostesses who entertained men during September:

Mrs. W. Dudley Cotten, Mrs. George A. Wilson, Miss Helen L. Rolfern, Mrs. Malcolm S. Nichols, Mrs. Frank M. Gunby, Mrs. John W. Thornton, Mrs. Marshall J. England, Mrs. William J. Coughlwell, Mrs. John Carrington, Mrs. Harry C. Goodhue, Mrs. Rowe A. Drake, Mrs. Theodore P. Messer, Mrs. John K. Converse, Mrs. Lyman B. Smith, Mrs. Howard G. Goodrow, Mrs. John M. Kingman, Mrs. J. Waldo Bond, Mrs. Harold F. Fuller, Mrs. George W. Elwell, Mrs. Cecil W. Pride, Mrs. F. Milne Blanchard, Mrs. Richard T. Morey, Mrs. Ferdinand H. Kelley, Mrs. Ralph T. Jope, Mrs. H. Arthur Hall, Mrs. Whitelaw Wright, Mrs. Alfred G. Nelson.

If anyone would be interested in entertaining servicemen for a midweek evening or Sunday evening or for Sunday dinner or for a weekend, please call Mrs. Lyman B. Smith, Win. 1802.

COUPLES CLUB PICKS OCT. 28

The Winchester Couples Club has selected Saturday evening, Oct. 28 for their first party of the year. This is the radio night when the mock radio program "Truth or Not, You Get the Consequences" will be presented as sponsored by the G. G. C. T. Co. The committee consists of Miriam and Bob Carruthers, Caroline and Bill Spaulding, Ann and Lindy Burnham, Gerry and Don Kroell and Georgie and Ted Whittemore.

The committee has announced that the management of the radio program has agreed to have no "consequence" of a nature that will in any way call upon brains, education, or wisdom, so that no person will be put in the position of seeming stupid to their friends.

The Couples Club is sponsored by the Unitarian Church, but is open to couples from 19 to 90 who attend any church or no church.

Those wishing their name put on the mailing list, or who would like any information may asked to call George or Ted Whittemore, Win. 0344.

TAKE GOOD CARE OF THE THINGS YOU HAVE

YOUR GAS WATER HEATER

HOW TO GET THE MOST FROM YOUR AUTOMATIC GAS WATER HEATER

Draw off a few quarts of water from faucet at bottom of heater about once a month. This prevents sediment from accumulating, saves gas, insures clean water. Insulation for hot water pipes holds heat loss to a minimum - saves gas. Dripping hot water faucets waste money. Good washers in faucets save water and gas. Shower heads (sprays) need not be large. Small shower heads permit ample water flow and cut needless waste of hot water. Clean outside of heater occasionally with damp cloth - wipe dry.

WINCHESTER 32—LEXINGTON 6

Scrubs Play Much of Game—Visitors Outclassed

Touring town "experts" who picked Lexington to beat Winchester last Saturday afternoon must have had pretty red faces when the dust finally settled on Manchester Field, for the locals swamped the Minute Boys, 32-6, with the last third and every fourth touchdown coming after the game was safely in the bag. Only Coach Knowlton's policy of never rubbing it in kept the score within bounds.

It was the sportsmanship of the same Coach Knowlton which permitted Lexington to score its lone touchdown early in the final quarter when he deliberately left a fourth string lineup on the field and after the Minute Boys had driven from their own 6 down the field and over the Winchester goal line. The first or second team would have had no difficulty stopping the advance, well short of pay dirt.

Just before the half Lexington almost tallied again, but at that time the fighting third-stopped the Minute Boys six inches from pay dirt after the Lexington quarter had run its plays in a row at the Winchester left tackle slot.

Winchester made 13 first downs and 259 yards on the ground, completing one of three passes for 11 yards and a touchdown. The locals lost 20 yards on penalties, including one 15 yards for unnecessary roughness, and had no fumbles. Lexington didn't fumble either and drew only one five yard penalty for too many times out. Ti Minuteboys rushed for eight first downs and 117 yards, completing two out of seven passes for 16 yards more.

Lexington kicked and with Tibaudo doing much of the carrying, Winchester worked the ball to the Lexington 21. A five yarder for off-side put the ball on the 26, Tibaudo picked up seven in two tries and then Roche faded to shoot a pass to left end, Faieta. The latter took the ball about the Lexington eight and lateraled it out to the left to Capt. Walsh who galloped over. A bad pass from center spoiled the conversion attempt though Tibaudo nearly drove over after picking up the ball.

Winchester's second score came on a drive that started at the Winchester 40 and was featured by an end around run which Faieta went 20 yards before being knocked out-side at the Lexington 6. On the first play of the second quarter Roche drove over off right tackle. Walsh converted perfectly from placement.

The seconds went in at this point and Bergquist soon intercepted a Lexington pass at the visitors 35. West and Bellino took the ball to the Lexington 21 when O'Rourke on a reverse scampered to the 11. O'Rourke then reached the 1 and Bellino exploded across the goal line at right tackle. O'Rourke failed to convert at placement.

With the third team in Lexington took Hannon's kickoff at its 11 and drove right down the field, only to be stopped by the swarming seconds six inches short of pay dirt as the whistle blew for the half.

The varsity opened the second half and Tibaudo ran the kickoff back 20 yards right down the middle to the Lexington 46. From there with Tibaudo, Roche and Walsh carrying, Winchester drove to the 18, where Haggerty on a reverse galloped to the 5. Sam took two shots at the line to go over and Walsh converted.

Here Coach Knowlton sent in a lineup of fourth string players and it was against this group the Minuteboys ultimately scored, Wennberg going over from the one yard line, after doing most of the carrying on the drive goalward. An attempt to rush for the extra point was no good.

With the seconds in again Lexington had to kick and Bellino whirled and drove from his own 25 to the Lexington 42. On a pretty end around Joe Errico reached the Lexington 11, lack of speed preventing him from going all the way. In two smashes at the center of the line Johnny West bulled his way over, but his attempted pass for the extra point was no good.

That ended the scoring, but not the excitement, the locals receiving a 15 yarder for unnecessary roughness following a loose ball at the Lexington 27 with the visitors in possession. Tibaudo and Faieta left the field, under the impression they had been ordered out by the Referee. The latter pair were peeved after the game he had ordered them out, but had merely ordered them away from the melee which was developing rapidly.

The summary:

Winchester—Faieta, Errico, Gallello, Prentiss, le; Latham, Morrison, Hannon, Antippas, Greene, lt; Bucci, Rutherford, Derro, McLaughlin, lg; S. Buzzotta, Bergquist, Merrow, Whittemore, c; Lovejoy, Herlihy, Flagg, Nichols, rg; Stevenson, Washburn, Grimes, Ferrari, Armstrong, Jacobellis, Riga, Samoiloff, re; Walsh, M. Buzzotta, Knights, McElhiney, qb; Roche, Bellino, Quine, Nolan, lhb; Haggerty, O'Rourke, McGlynn, Osgood, rhb; Tibaudo, West, Amico, Ayer, fb.

Lexington—Sullivan, le; Buzzel, lg; Alger, c; Anderson, rg; Oldford, rt, Vaughn, re; Moody, qb; S. Murray, E. Murray, McCarter, Shoemaker, lhb; Danks, rhb; Weinberg, Vienot, fb.

LOCALS FACE TEST TOMORROW

Winchester High's hopes of remaining undefeated in football competition this season will be put to the test tomorrow afternoon when Wilbraham Academy comes to Manchester Field for a game starting at 2:45.

Wilbraham has played two games and has split even, defeating Gardner Machine Shop 13 to 6 in their opening game and then losing to Springfield Y. M. C. A. 25 to 6. Springfield is the team that swamped Danvers 27 to 0, calling the Danvers team Winchester one night earlier, the first setback recorded to date when Manchester of the past few seasons isn't the Manchester that was among the cream of the schoolboy football crop when M. Gammess was coaching there.

On the other hand Coach Arnold Webster, who scouted Wednesday night's game, has been impressed with Wilbraham's performance and reports that the team has scouted since coming to Winchester. The visitors are a big team, fully as big as Win hester and they have in Neal a very shifty outback who went great guns against Danvers.

Now we've just how good Winchester is yet, because Coach Knowlton's boys haven't been tested. Swampscott never really threatened and Lexington offered no opposition at all. Tomorrow they will really have to go, and it is too bad for that reason that the varsity group didn't get more work last Saturday.

Coach Knowlton expects his club to give a good account of itself and will start the same lineup that took the field against Swampscott and Lexington. So far as this writer recalls Winchester has never met Wilbraham though the schools have competed regularly in basketball.

SWANSON TAKES LEAD IN ALDEN SHERMAN SERIES

By virtue of three successive wins, Ralph Swanson took a commanding lead in the six races series for the Alden Sherman Memorial Trophy. He won in 1942 by George Jones and last year by Jim Snow. All the races are handicapped with the exception of the first one and a system of handicaps has been worked out that gives every boat and skipper in the fleet an equal opportunity to win. Last Sunday's two races will be followed by a double header race on next Sunday and the sixth and final race on Saturday, Oct. 15. It'll be a close contest as the way and we wouldn't even hazard a guess as to who might win.

Fleet Races

The annual fleet supper will be held at the club on Sunday evening, Oct. 8 at 7 p. m. This is the affair where all the prizes are awarded and only fleet members, their families and guests may attend.

Club Chatter

The annual election meeting for club members and their families will be held at the club on Friday, Oct. 13. The entertainment committee has planned a chowder party for the feature of the evening and after the business meeting some thrilling movies will be shown. It's the last get-together of the season, so you'll both see be at hand to wish your friends a happy hibernation during the winter ahead.

CANTEEN TESTING AFTERNOONS

The Red and Black Canteen, opened a few weeks ago on Vine street as a club and rendezvous for the high school crowd has been attracting approximately 300 each Friday and Saturday evening it has been open. The juke box which proved to be not powerful enough to provide dance music for such a large group has been reinforced by a power amplifier on the wall, and dancing is now one of the features of evenings at the Canteen.

Starting today an experiment will be made in having the Canteen open Friday afternoons from 2:30 to 5 p. m. This is primarily so that the boys and girls of the lower high school classes, whose parents do not want them out late in the evening, can have an opportunity of using the Canteen facilities. Juke box, coke bar, lounge, game room, magazines, etc., will all be available just as for the evening hours.

The Canteen will be open tonight and tomorrow night according to the regular schedule. The program committee of the C. iteen Committee consisting of Libby Fenno, Roy Monson, Sam Buzzotta and Joe Errico are now considering suggestions for special events. An open or guest night at which friends of members will be admitted, and a stunt or talent night will probably be scheduled for the near future.

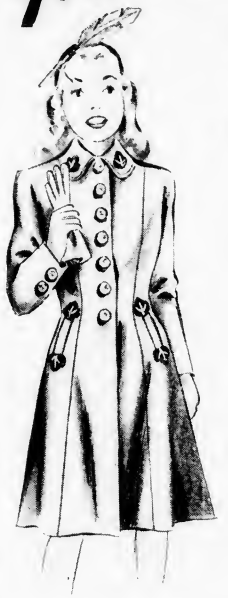

CURRY PRAISED

The Winchester Civilian Defense Salvage Committee is greatly indebted to Robert Curry of Boy Scout Troop 1 for his loyal service in waste paper salvage. Every Saturday morning for a period of several months he has kept the Air Raid Shelter open in order to give out boxes and twine for packing waste paper. In addition he has worked every Friday afternoon since last April collecting waste paper from the stores in the center.

Last week's Star carried an article concerning the work of Troop 1 in this Friday collection, but through an error Bob's name was omitted from the list of boys who have contributed so much to this war effort.

Staff Sgt. Michael Saraco of this town was an usher at the wedding of Pfc. John C. Carbond, Jr., of Chelsea and Miss Nina Mary Foti of Medford on Sunday. The wedding party included the groom's buddies from Guadalcanal as best man and ushers, with the Captain of their unit as an invited guest.

WINCHESTER COUNTRY CLUB

The golf course was thickly populated last week-end principally with members playing matches in the numerous tournaments which are now nearing conclusion.

The Maurice F. Brooks Memorial Tournament continues to arouse great interest. In the next matches in the championship flight semi-finals, Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Blackler play Mrs. J. L. Lynch and Dr. F. H. Gerry and Mrs. I. R. Hakanson and L. L. Williams play Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ferguson. In the second flight finals, Mrs. Richmond Ordway and F. H. Craven play Mrs. S. N. McNeilley and O. W. Leary. In the championship consolation semi-finals Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Howard play Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Conners, and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wansker play Miss Alelaid Homer and Evander French. In the second flight consolation finals, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fay each defeated Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Hayes one up.

Mixed foursomes who had unfortunately but cheerfully lost matches in the regular or consolation flights refused to be discouraged but eagerly sought further competition and Sunday afternoon.

Next match in the men's handicap tournament find D. F. Connors and F. R. Crockham playing G. A. Ferro and Evander French, and J. L. Knox and W. B. Plunkett playing R. F. M. Taghe and L. L. Williams in the semi-finals.

In the consolation four men, Ralph Wilde and Wm. Ferguson play the winner of A. F. Bullock and J. F. Carr vs. C. C. Lee and A. C. Warburton. In the President's Cup, D. F. Connors plays the winner of E. L. Hubbard vs. S. N. McNeilly and W. B. Plunkett plays H. H. Ford.

In the semi-finals in the Women's Fall Cup, Mrs. D. A. Tufts plays Mrs. R. B. Blackler and Miss Adelaide Homer plays Mrs. D. F. Conners.

A bulletin has been sent to members included the following:

"The club needs arm and leg work from now until the ground freezes. . . Why are we in such a situation? Want has to be done? . . . Try as best we could we have Lee Wildcraft and three men for all the work that must regularly be done in the fall plus any operative special work to effect the salvage of the Jap beetle. Regardless of the use that we may be able to save the members must contribute largely of their time.

Twenty-six workers have already spent a day removing the hurricane debris and generally cleaning up the course . . . Coming work includes the removal and storing of equipment, screening and other treatment of some 300 yards of loam for top dressing, draining water pipes, painting sheds in the parking space, etc.

The major job is treating 14 fairways for beetle control . . . We have on hand 10 tons of lead to be machine-spread . . . The lead must get on before the ground freezes or the damage to the fairways will run into hundreds of dollars, not to mention spoiling the golf course for play.

"The next month or so, members the selves must very largely provide by their own work the facilities for their own use this winter and must provide for the protection of the golf course for the next several years.

This bulletin is meeting with an enthusiastic response from the members.

With many members playing golf Sunday afternoons and with others spending Sunday evenings at the club there was a spontaneous suggestion that Sunday evening buffet suppers be provided by the club.

About 100 members participated in the inauguration of this arrangement last Sunday evening. The very informal gathering was in the lounge, the main dining room being closed.

This plan is to continue for such time as is warranted by the interest of the members.

CLEAVES GETS BATTLE BAPTISM

Receiving its battle baptism on a recent 8th Air Force bombing attack on the Focke Wulf fighter plane factory at Bremen, Germany, 1st. Lt. William G. Cleaves, 26 husband of Mrs. Elizabeth H. Cleaves of this town and pilot of a B-17 flying fortress, returned to describe his initial mission as "rather uneventful."

"That's not saying we weren't shot at," he added, "but only occasionally did the burst come very close and then it was mainly over the target. I didn't see any German fighters at all."

Lt. Cleaves is a member of the fortress group in England commanded by Col. Frank P. Bostrom of Bangor, Me., one of the many that are continuing to strike at Nazi war industries and troop concentrations even as Allied ground forces penetrate the borders of Germany it off. His group is a unit of the 3rd Bombardment Division which was cited by the President for its historic England-Africa shuttle bombing of Messerschmitt Aircraft Plants in Regensburg, Germany.

150 VICTORIES OVER NAZIS

1st. Sgt. George A. Drewson, USAAF, of Lawson road, a member of an 8th Fighter Command P-51 Mustang group which recently passed the 150-mark in victories over Nazi planes, becoming the third American fighter group in the European Theater of Operations to make such a record.

Sgt. Drewson's group established a record for American units in its theater when it destroyed 14 enemy planes on the ground and seven in the air on one mission. In four low-level attacks the group destroyed 118 German planes on the ground, an average of more than 29 a mission.

Sgt. Drewson is the top ranking non-commissioned officer of the quartermaster company stationed at his base in England. He was employed as a stock clerk by the Eastern Gas and Fuel Associates of Everett before he enlisted in the Army in October, 1940. His father, John Drewson, died only last week.

JUNIE AND BOB TREACY HOME

Two former Winchester High football players, "Junie" and Bob Treacy, sons of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Treacy of Water street, are at home on leave from the duties in the armed service.

"Junie" was on last Tuesday graduated from Naval Aviation School at Pensacola, Fla., receiving his wings and commission as ensign in the Naval Air Corps. He is home on 21 days leave and is looking forward to seeing the high school football team in action against Winthrop and Danvers.

Bob, wingback on the high school's State championship eleven two years ago, has 14 days' leave from his duties as a B Bazooka of the 730th Field Artillery at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

It has been our endeavor, in exercising our editorial privilege, to avoid expressing any opinions regarding the war. We realize that the present spout of commentators and radio seers is war prediction, and whether it be due to a phase of propaganda or the general acceptance of the war's end, at any rate it is more or less harmless. However, it is hard sometimes to refrain from some more or less military observation. We have the utmost faith in our military men—navy and army, and while our great ruler in Washington has shifted his title to commander-in-chief, we feel our military channels are largely free from politics and are largely responsible for the conduct of the war. To be sure there have been occasions, none too happy, when the political ability has apparently struggled for expression, but whether this can be tied to Pearl Harbor or the first bombing of Tokyo, only history can settle—at least until after election. We have therefore confined ourselves chiefly to a summarization of what our commander-in-chief has done here in America. And looking at this country we have been quite content to skip the war. But now, with all this propaganda filling the papers and the air over post-war settlements, and the incessant demand for candidate Dewey to "come out in the open" and to "tell what he would do" in a post-war world, we see the old political smoke screen rising at its best. So we are moved to make an observation. Our great ruler has in our opinions made a grand mess of America during the past twelve years. This has been solely through his unexcelled political management and a keen evaluation of the present day vote. But in post-war settlements he is going to find that, while our friends and allies are willing and eager to accept with thanks all the favors and materials, the foods and money, they can induce us to shell out, they do not have any regard for anyone but themselves in peace settlements. What their nationalistic millions here may do will not affect them when it gets right down to nails and a hard and fast settlement of what's to be done. And so in this case we stick our neck out in the observation that our great ruler will find out, as possibly he is beginning to already, that votes and politics in America are a different proposition than when applied to world affairs. We predict that our allies, without mentioning any specifically, will consider their own positions coldly and flatly from their own best interests. They will take anything to their advantage from America, but American politics will not prove of much advantage in the world at large. No doubt the New Deal would like very much to have candidate Dewey tell what "he" would do. Our great ruler stated flatly before the election that if he was elected he would keep America out of war; a foolish and impossible promise. That did not begin to approach the present situation, for while it did affect our allies, it was on the other side of the ledger. While our allies still have much they desire to get out of America, the coming period, when it does arrive, will see some decisions made in which our commander-in-chief will not be the indispensable man and will have little or no influence, either by directives or orders.

FOURTH TERM

To the Editor of the Star:

Fourth term? Who wants Mr. Roosevelt for a fourth term, the "Commander-in-chief of the army and navy" at the time of he unnecessary carnage and debacle at Pearl Harbor and therefore responsible for it, who wrecked the London Economic Conference of 1933 which was according to the Democratic Baltimore Sun "the most promising international effort to avoid world disintegration", who gave the United States a $50 billion peace time debt and who made organized labor a favored class exempt from the laws and the Constitution governing the rest of the people—a favored class when here should be no favored class, who wants the adroit and smiling politician four years more?

Consider these and ask yourself why. Mr. Churchill and Mr. Stalin want him. Is it for our good or theirs? Earl Browder and his ardent communists want him and so does Boss Kelley of Chicago, the "odorous" Frank Hague of Jersey City and the notorious James Curley of Boston. Sidney Hillman, "the C. I. O. political commissar," head of one department of the President's favored class, will spare no cash as well see to it that his boy fight for him tooth and nail. Harry Hopkins and Purgess. New York's Tammany Hall and all the unsavory big city bosses with their vocal cohorts will vote for him. A certain number of the intelligentsia replete with knowledge, devoid of wisdom want him for a fourth term as do those in favor of a labor administration with a long record of cockeyed communism at the head of it. All who want a Tammany type politician instead of a real statesman in the White House want not only a fourth term but term after term. Those who love the so-called New Deal which is nothing more or less than a hoary, camouflaged Old Deal, who see nothing wrong with its ineffable domestic administration and its equally bad foreign policies that have alienated every nation on earth, betrayed and almost ruined China by the scandalous silver policy and by supplying Japan her enemy and ours with munitions of war to subjugate her. China our best friend, the New Deal her worst enemy, all those New Dealers who can swallow this Administration does and more want Mr. Roosevelt for a fourth term. The thoughtless with no more steadfastness than to be swayed at the eleventh hour by the specious harangues of rabble rousing politicians and who are "betrayed by a lie" are working to perpetuate the party in power.

Petrillo, boss of the union of organized musicians who is reported to have said of himself, "I aint tough, I'm just a big hearted sap," he who would not allow the Boston Symphony Orchestra to broadcast its concerts or make recordings until it knuckled under to him and joined his union is of the same political stripe as Boss Kelley and Frank Hague, a top ranking New Dealer. A host of political appointees to federal positions incompetents who never did and never could succeed in private life and who are now fattening on government largess favor a fourth term for obvious reasons. Those persuaded to a laissez faire position by the half truths and specious arguments of political spellbinders and New Deal authors will vote for a fourth term.

How pertinently may the words of Disraeli to Gladstone spoken 65 years ago, be applied today to the head of the present administration. He said, "You have now had four years of it. You have threatened every corporation and every endowment in the country. You have examined into everybody's affairs. You have criticised every profession and vexed every trade. No one is certain of his property and no one knows what duties he may have to perform tomorrow. I believe the people of this country have had enough of this policy."

The President has sucked his New Deal lemon dry. His taste for it is sated. Sidney Hillman and his C. I. O. cohorts are now welcome to it. When a beguiled and credulous nation unwrapped the tinseled and perfumed package labeled the "New Deal" it found it was only a Raw Deal. Do the people of this country want to perpetuate a party whose administrative incompetence, extravagance and stupidity is almost beyond belief? Do they want to continue the New Deal's futile efforts of trying to manage the affairs of a great, capitalistic nation with a visionary, idealistic, socialist personnel? Do they want four years moreof Sidney Hillman, Petrillo, Madame Perkins, Harry Hopkins and Mr. Ickes?

Very truly yours,
Daniel C. Dermett, M. D.

SONS OF ITALY NOTES

Allah, Allah, (with accompanying salaams). Allah be praised. Everything is wonderful. At last letters and more letters, piles of them, anyhow there was seven. Boy its great to have letters and something to write about instead of just rambling. Therefore with many thanks and without further ado I shall tell you about them.

First of all we received a letter from Mary Tucci thus we learn in a roundabout way that Anita is still about. Of course we shall refuse to believe it until we hear from Anita direct. Mary I'm afraid that the errors you note in the column are due to my never having bothered to learn to spell correctly. I shall endeavor to do better. (Listen fellows Mary only wrote to thank me for not being too rough on her as I had threatened to say some awful things about her because she refused to say something cute for publication when she was recently home on furlough). That was also not for publication.

Next received was a V mail from Tony Chefalo who his been in Southern France for a month. There are some Italian natives there and also some German prisoners both of whom are interesting to talk to. Tony says "This place was also as heavily bombed as Cassino and what was left the Germans blew up as they retreated. There are still many booby traps and land mines to be cleaned up."

Sorry you haven't heard from Willie but he has been quite busy By the way, how come no digs at Willie's outfit this time? Are you slipping or going soft?

Francis Murnco writes from somewhere in France. Butter has a personal score to settle with Hitler for taking him away from his family just when he most wants to be with them. Chin up pop you can still brag about her anyhow.

Al DeMinico informs us that the weather in the Aleutians is still the same. He describes the very refreshing weather up there where the winds blow from 70 to 90 miles per hour, snow covers the huts and one walks at a 15 degree angle. Al tells us his boys would gladly relieve G Vespucci of his WAC's headaches as some of them haven't seen a woman in the flesh for a few years. Al's team will play another army team for the softball championship if the weather man would only co-operate. If you fellows are wondering about Al's new rank, same I have given it to him because he invariably starts his letters by apologizing of not writing sooner and always says he will try to do better next time.

Another interesting letter was received from Gabe Vespucci in which he describes the typical French weather. He also tells of rummaging through captured German hotels in spite of the danger from booby traps. Take it easy there. Gabe ran into Frank Donovan, whose folks live on Wendall street and they had quite a chat about mutual friends in Winchester.

Guess who else we received a letter from? Nope you're wrong it was Louis Giacalone. He was away buying fruits and vegetables for the army and while on one of these trips he ran into Fiume Marchesi who was decorated for bravery in action at Pearl Harbor and who was also wounded on that fateful Dec. 7. Louis who has been over-seas for 32 months is expecting to be sent home shortly. As per Louis' instructions we herewith send his regards to all the boys.

Sam Corbi writes from Camp Gordon about a seven weeks vacation at Camp Forrest, Tenn. He wants it thoroughly understood that the Army has its soft spells. Sam has acquired the knack of getting the almost enjoyment out of any otherwise tough situation. Yes Sam, the boys have already started the bowling competition. Everybody agrees that was a wonderful chicken dinner to won in the last match. You must agree that an imaginary chicken dinner is far better as one is not bothered by the bones and sticky fingers.

Home on furlough from Camp Wolters, Texas, is Pete Graziano. He reported to me the thrill of being able to visit his brother Ned at the Shoemaker California Naval Hospital. Ned a Marine sergeant with six and one half years service was wounded on Guam after 30 months overseas duty. He has a compound fracture of the thigh, but is doing very nicely. Ned has for the last few years made his home in Philadelphia, Pa. where his wife lives.

Also home on furlough were the following: Barney Vespucci, Peter Fiore, Domenic Cimeno, Domenic Guarino, Paul Lentine, Tony Saraco and Angelo Amico.

Jimmy Tibaldo was able to be present and see the team of which he was captain-elect, open their season by defeating Swampscott.

I should like to suggest to you fellows that when moving you send a change of address card to the Star Office thus assuring continuous receipt of the Star.

In close I give you the prayer of a southern soldier who knelt beside his bed at night and was heard to say, "and please Lord don't send anything my way tomorrow that you and I both can't handle."

POST STORY BY LT. WENTWORTH

"Routine Patrol" the story of Ski Troopers in the Aleutians published in the Sept. 30 Saturday Evening Post was written by 1st. Lt. Paul T. Wentworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy tal S. Wentworth of Calumet road, who was with the first unit to go beyond Dutch Harbor and was stationed in that area for over two years. Lt. Wentworth is now in Washington, D. C., attached to an Army intelligence unit.

WINCHESTER ROTARY CLUB

The Rotary Club of Winchester voted at its luncheon yesterday noon to omit next week's meeting. Next Thursday is Columbus Day, and although it was stated that the day is no longer a legal holiday, so many of the members consider it as such, the meeting will be omitted.

Winchester entertained one visiting Rotarian and one guest at yesterday's meeting. It was an open meeting for discussion, no scheduled speaker being present.

Lt. and Mrs. Bertram H. Dube (Priscilla A Parsons) of Xenia, Ohio, are visiting Mrs. Dube's parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. S. Parsons of Bacon street. Lt. Dube is stationed at Wright Field, Dayton, Ohio.

RECEIVED FLYING CROSS

1st Lt Ralph T. Collander, USAAF pilot who successfully completed 35 combat missions in the European Theater of war between May 22 and Aug. 25 of this year, is home on a furlough.

The lieutenant, who is 21 years of age, arrived in excellent health after his rapid combat bombing tour, which included the invasion of France on D-Day, combat missions to Berlin, Munich, Hamburg, Kiel, Leipzig, Brunswick and many other targets in Germany and Nazi occupied continental Europe.

Lt. Collander, a bomber pilot of the 8th Air Force based in England was presented the Distinguished Flying Cross for extraordinary achievement and exceptional skill. Previous to the D. F. C. he received the air medal, three oak leaf clusters and two stars. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gunnar Collander of 18 Forest street, his wife is the former Helen Saymer of this town.

BULL ON THE LOOSE

Wednesday afternoon shortly before 1 o'clock Sgt. Thomas F. Cassidy was notified by the operator of an Eastern Mass. bus that there was a young bull wandering around on Washington street near Governor's avenue. The sergeant, a quick thinker, decided to let headquarters worry over that one and phoned in from a box.

Motorcycle Officer Irving Reardon, an authority on cattle, was sent out to reconnoitre on his bike and soon found that the bull wasn't a bull at all but a heifer belonging to John Kilcoyne of 21 Chester street. Continuing his investigation, Officer Reardon learned that the heifer had been frightened from her pasture by a horse, owned by Salvatore Marchesi of 6 Holland street that had broken his halter and left the old Kerrigan lot on Swanton street, wandering through Chester street.

Special Officer Norman Harrold succeeded in lassooing the heifer and she was returned to her owner. Mr. Marchesi had to go to Highland avenue before recapturing his horse.

AFTERNOON RECITAL

On Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 4, a group of neighbors and friends spent a most delightful musical afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Rice on Mystic Valley Parkway.

The artist of the afternoon was Mr. Joshua Phippen, who rendered a Haydn piano sonata and single movements from sonatas of Beethoven and Schubert in a most artistic and sympathetic manner. Mr. Phippen's playing is most remarkable as this month he celebrates his 87th birthday.

He is planning to give a series of four or more of these delightful sonata programs during the season.

BURCHARD RECEIVES APPOINTMENT

Creation of a new post, Director of Libraries at the Mass. Institute of Technology, and appointment of Prof. John E. Burchard of Salisbury street now director of the Bemis Foundation, to this post has been announced by Dr. Karl T. Compton, president of the Institute. Professor Burchard will begin his new duties immediately, although he will continue for the duration to give a large portion of his time to the important war work on which he has been engaged for the past four years.

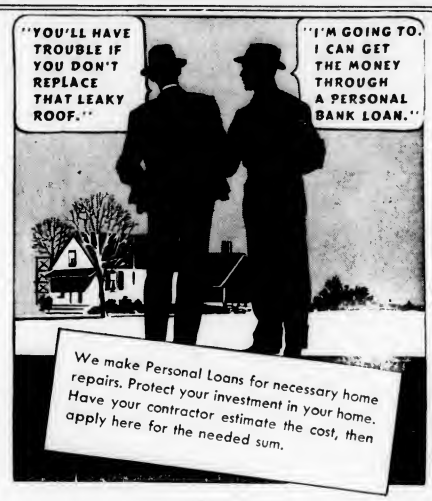

RECEIVES COMMISSION

Among the graduates at the Army Air Corps Navigation School at Selman Field, La. last Monday was Parker N. Blanchard of 5 Ravenscroft rd., who received his commission as 2nd lieutenant. He is now enjoying a few days at home before reporting for duty at Fresno, Cal.

Looking Into the Future

we see a world recovering from the historical consequences of violence, a world in which property losses and industrial casualties have exceeded anything heretofore known. Naturally, these losses, many of which are yet unknown or cannot be accurately determined until later, will have a vital effect on the financial stability of some insurance companies. We are alert to our postwar responsibilities to clients and are comfortable in the thought that we represent only strong and reliable underwriters.

Wednesday testimonial meeting 8 p. m.
Reading Room, 5 Winchester Terrace (off Thompson street). Open daily except Sundays and holidays from 11 a. m. to 4 p. m.

As Sin, Disease, and Death Real? is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in the Mother Church, the First Church of Christ Scientist, in Boston, and in all of its branches, on Sunday, Oct. 8.

The Golden Text, O Lord my God, I cried unto thee, and thou hast healed me. O Lord, thou hast brought up my soul from the grave: thou hast kept me alive that I should not go down to the pit. Is from Psalms 30:2.

Other Bible citations include, O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ (I Corinthians 15:55-57).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy: When it is learned that disease cannot destroy life, and that mortals are not saved from sin or sickness by death, this understanding will quicken into newness of life. It will master either a desire to die or a dread of the grave, and thus destroy the great fear that breeds mortal existence . . . Our Master fully and finally demonstrated divine Science in his victory over death and the grave (pp. 426, 15).

MRS. JULIA E. McGRATH

Mrs. Julia E. McGrath, widow of James H. McGrath, whose Winchester home was at 16 Rangely ridge with her son, Harry A. McGrath, died Saturday night, Sept. 30, at the Cardinal O'Connell House in Brighton after a short illness.

Mrs. McGrath was born in Manchester, England, March 17, 1861, the daughter of John and Ellen Smith. She came to this country as a child and was for many years a resident of Cambridge, having been married in that city. Her husband, a paint contractor, died years ago, and she had long made her home with her son, coming with him to Winchester 18 years ago.

Afflicted with blindness, Mrs. McGrath accepted her handicap with courage and the will to overcome her great obstacle. She learned Braille and both read and wrote in this language for the blind. At the age of 70 she learned the touch method of typing, and typed several letters on the morning she entered the hospital.

The funeral was held from her son's home Tuesday morning with high mass of requiem celebrated at St. Mary's Church at 10 o'clock. Interment was in the family lot in Holy Ghost Cemetery, Malden.

CHARLES FEINBERG

Word has reached town of the death of a former well known Winchester resident, Charles Feinberg, who died at his home on Intervale street in Roxbury, Friday, Sept. 22.

Mr. Feinberg made his home with his family in Winchester on Middlesex street. He was for many years engaged in the junk business in town and was widely known among residents of all walks of life. As a young man he learned the shoemaker's trade and was for a time in that business. He as at one time a town meeting member for Precinct 6.

Funeral services were held on the Sunday following his death. Interment was in Montvale.

REV. CHAPMAN TO PARTICIPATE

Rev. Paul Harmon Chapman, minister of the Unitarian Church, will participate in the South Middlesex (Unitarian) Conference to be held Sunday afternoon and evening, Oct. 8, at the First Church in Somerville. Mr. Chapman, who is vice president of the Conference, will lead the "Around the Table" discussion in the evening on the subject, "Denominational Projects for Our Conference."

WINCHESTER GIRLS BLANKED MALDEN

Winchester High School's inexperienced field hockey team got away to a good start Tuesday afternoon when the local girls blanked Malden 6-0, on Glan Field. The Winchester seconds won the preliminary game 2-0.

Malden fought all the way and although play was in their territory most of the time visitors succeeded in holding Winchester to a single goal in the first half, Jane Duffett finally banging one home from scrimmage.

In the second half the local girls began to capitalize on their scoring opportunities and tallied five times. Duffett scoring three times and Natalie Dickson and Virginia Lovejoy once each. Malden never really threatened, but to the visitors credit be it said that they never stopped trying.

Coach Fenton was especially pleased over the showing of the second team, most of whom were playing their first real game. The sophomore group in this contest looked especially good.

K. OF C. NOTES

On Tuesday night, Oct. 3, the newly elected officers of the Wakefield Council K. of C. were installed into office by District Deputy George Young of this town.

Assisting at the ceremonies were the Winchester Council installation team.

John Delay, master of the 4th degree K. of C., will be the guest speaker at the communion breakfast at the council rooms, following the Memorial Mass for the deceased members of the Winchester Council on Sunday, Oct. 8.

The mass will be held at the Immaculate Conception Church at 8:45 a. m.

There will be a regular meeting of the Winchester Council on Monday evening, Oct. 9 at the Council rooms at 8:30 p. m.

The Winchester Council, 210, K. of C., are now preparing for their annual retreat at Campion Hall in Axdover on the week-end of Oct. 13-15. These retreats is the past years have always been well attended by the members and this year's visitation will be no exception.

WAR PARENTS OF AMERICA

Winchester Chapter No. 16 is a going organization with an impressive list of members.

Precinct committee have been appointed as follows:

Precinct 1: Mrs. Maude Crowelli, Mr. and Mrs. Gaspar Assaro.

Precinct 2: Mrs. G. Campbell, Mrs Praedia O'Donahue.

Precinct 3: Mrs. Meriel Preston, Mrs. Alice Murphy.

Precinct 4: Mr. and Mrs. Robinson Whitten

Precinct 5: Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Kanton

Precinct 6: Mrs. Francis T. Conlon, Mrs. David Hammond

Every mother and father with a son or daughter inducted to serve, or serving, or having served in the armed forces of the United States during this war should join. Bureaucracy both governmental and private will promise these veterans, our sons and daughters, everything under the sun which they cannot deliver. It behooves those who are most interested in what becomes of these veterans after the war, to take an active part in the post war planning.

A boy in the service writes, "I think War Parents of America is an excellent idea. You have got to give us fellows something to come home to and it is easy enough to see that while we are away training and fighting, we cannot do much about our future." It is a tremendous trust placed in the hands of our fathers and mothers at home. We are depending on you."

The next meeting will be held in the K. of C. hall over Randalls at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, Oct. 11. All parents of boys and girls in the service are cordially invited

George A. Saltmarsh,
Temporary President

PRAISES WINCHESTER

Clement W. Barksdale was acclaimed by he young people inthe Metcalf Union as an advocate of true Americanism when he gave the opening address in the "Americans All" series at their meeting on Sunday night in the Unitarian Church. He spoke with pride of Winchester as his home town and paid high praise to the inter-racial co-operation in our town.

Mr. Barksdale gave a searching and comprehensive analysis of the problems of the "Negro Minority" in our country. He told of his experiences in the South as a student and later as a soldier in the U. S. Army. Although he witnessed some unpleasant inter-racial conflicts while in the service, he stated that he had not personally been involved in any such unfortunate experiences.

This he attributed to his having lived in the South previous to his Army service. It was evident to those who heard him that his own personality and attitude were important factors in his living peaceably.

Mr. Barksdale pointed out that the colored minority comprises one-tenth of our population, that the problem is a growing one and presented the challenge to the young people to keep in mind that we are "Americans All."

CHURCH SERVICE LEAGUE BEGINS YEAR

The Women's Division of the Church Service League of the Parish of the Epiphany will begin the church year 1944-45 with a Corporate Communion at 10:15 Tuesday, Oct. 10. The Rector, Rev. Dwight W. Hadley, will officiate at the Communion service.

Immediately afterward the usual all-day Tuesday activities will get under way in the parish hall. Mrs. Howard Richardson will be in charge of surgical dressings, which Epiphany women each year make by the thousand for the Winchester Hospital. Mrs. Bernard Saunders, who will direct the sewing for which this room will have varied kinds of work available for hand and machine workers. A gift shop under Mrs. P. Stewart Nealley will continue Red Cross sewing and a record of the hours which any worker gives will be kept, beginning with October.

At 12:30 a simple luncheon will be served under the leadership of Mrs. S. Lester Troast. New women members of the parish are especially urged to become a part of the busy, friendly group, for all day Tuesdays, or as much of the day as other responsibilities permit. The Red Cross sewing welcomes any woman, no matter what her church affiliation, who finds the parish hall a convenient place to reach.

Mrs. Harold H. Blanchard, re-elected head of parish women's activities, will preside at the lunch-n meeting and at the morning general meeting at 10:45 in the study. New members of the Council this year are those: Mrs. E. Phillips Walker, second vice president; Mrs. Herbert W. Kelley, secretary; Mrs. Frank E. Booth, treasurer; Mrs. R. E. Meehan, librarian; Mrs. Harry Jackson, the Jordan Group; Mrs. Francis Bowes, Symmes Corner Group; Mrs. Henry E. Moffette and Mrs. J. Warren Shoemaker, the Young People's Fellowship.

Mrs. Gerald Y. Hills and her co-chairman, Mrs. Elton Moffette, will report on plans for the parish fair, Nov. 3. And plans for Christmas messages from the League to men and women in service will be made.

Mrs. Alfred Denley will present the first work for the Diocese which the League will do this year, the tea on Oct. 2, which Epiphany women will provide for 100 men of sea services at the Seamen's Club.

SALVATION ARMY RACES FOR $100,000 GOAL

Figuratively speaking the "Red Shield Tanks" that have been tracking through the Metropolitan area, in support of the Salvation Army 1944-45 Greater Boston Maintenance Appeal for $400,000, converged at the Parker House on Monday.

It was the first over-all report of "captured" material, represented by cheerfully "surrendered" dollars contributed to the attainment of the real objective, $400,000 for use in support of the 30-odd institutions, departments and centers in Greater Boston.

Winchester reported a collection of 90 per cent of its quota, and the grand total collected, amounting to $246,206, is 61 per cent of the sum asked.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH WELCOMES NEW PASTOR

The First Baptist Church will welcome its new pastor, the Rev. Walter Lee Bailey on Sunday, Oct. 8, at 10:45 a. m. A large attendance is expected.

Mr. Bailey will preach on the subject, "The Best Things in the Worst Times." There will be special music by the senior choir. The subject of the children's sermonette will be, "Why We Go to Church."

Young children will be cared for during the church service.

An invitation is extended to all people in Winchester who are without church affiliations.

EPIPHANY TEA FOR NEWCOMERS

The Tuesday Luncheon Group will have newcomers to the parish of the Epiphany as their honor guests at their first tea, Oct. 10, Tuesday, at 3 o'clock. Mrs. John Lynch, chairman of the parish hospitality committee, has had the assistance of this committee in searching out newcomers. Mrs. Harrison Gray, Mrs. Herbert Wadsworth, Mrs. Webster, Mrs. Harry Sawyer and Mrs. Maxwell McCreery.

Guests will be received by Mrs. Maxwell McCreery, Chairman of the Tuesday Luncheon Group; Mrs. R. Allin Page, Mrs. Albert Buffum and Mrs. S. Lester Troast, co-chairmen; Mrs. Dwight W. Hadley and Mrs. Meyton E. Grush, who saw how serviceable to the parish an organization of younger women could be, and was the moving spirit in launching the Tuesday Luncheon Group.

Mrs. Jack Davison will welcome the Tuesday Group and their guests to her home, 20 Everett avenue for this first tea. Mrs. John Willis is in charge of the tea arrangements, assisted by Mrs. Herbert T. Wadsworth, and Mrs. Alexander Aitken.

WOMEN'S ALLIANCE

The Women's Alliance of the Unitarian Church will meet on Tuesday, Oct. 10. Luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock and the meeting will follow at 2 o'clock.

The theme for the year, "The Challenge of the Peace" is both timely and of vital importance and the organization is looking forward to a most interesting season. The initial speaker is the Rev. Raymond S. Johnson, his subject "Which Way Are We Looking?" Mr. Johnson received his A. B. from Rutgers in 1906 was graduated from Union Theological Seminary and received his A. M. from Harvard in 1926. He was an assistant professor of English in Harvard and Radcliffe; was for four years instructor of English in Lowell Institute School, became headmaster of the Blake School in Minneapolis in 1919 of the Utica Country Day School in 1922 and the University School in Cincinnati in 1941. In 1943 he became minister of the "Old Ship" Church, Unitarian in Hingham.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

High School pupils enjoyed an assembly sponsored by the Mass. Registry of Motor Vehicles last Wednesday morning. Speaker for the occasion was Mr. William Higgins, who represented Registrar Rudolph King.

After a short talk in which he urged young drivers to observe the four fundamental rules for safe driving and emphasized the fact that the automobile rates as America's number one killer, Mr. Higgins showed the Registry's technicolor film portraying the rights and wrongs of motor safety with animated cartoons, and another which gave a lesson in quick thinking and proper signalling while operating a motor vehicle.

HUSBANDS WANTED

Are you a husband? Have you seen that look on your wife's face that says "Why hasn't he taken me out lately?" Do you expect her to be a shirt-smoother and a mop-maider without ever seeing the bright lights? Remember your receptionist may look like Betty Grable and your stenographer like Hedy Lamarr but the milkman and the iceman don't make regular deliveries any more and life gets dull sometimes.

The answer? It's simple. It's the Couples Club. You don't have to dress in tuxedos or 12-ride tickets. You're supposed what a nice gang we have here in Winchester, and there are no membership fees or dues.

A few workers or times each time for the couples' club party of the year at Metcalf Hall. Winchester Unitarian Church.

Members, guests, friends and those who speak it will witness the radio performance of "Truth or Not. You Get the Consequences" over Station WUNI (you and I) sponsored by the world famous G. G. G. T. Co. The renowned announcers Boom Boom Burnham and Speed Snedding will be at the Mic. Grand Convener Carruthers at the event efforts as I Kid it Know, on or to be the people.

Because of the recognized limitations of Winchester audiences, the management has agreed to have no consequence that is any way calls upon knowledge, brains, education, or training. In other words you won't be put in the position of seeming dumber or stupid. That's a promise.

Save the date, Oct. 28. Remember, the Couples Club is open to any couple in Winchester who would like to belong.

NEW FILM AT METCALF UNION

On Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the Unitarian Church the high school group will see a new colored sound movie which is being shown for the first time in this vicinity. The film depicts the problems of the relocated Japanese American.

After seeing this important picture the Metcalf Union will have the pleasure of hearing Mrs. Mary Hata tell of her experiences as a relocated Japanese American. Mrs. Hata is in great demand as a speaker to youth groups in Greater Boston. She is a very able and interesting speaker. At the present time she is a secretary at the headquarters of the American Unitarian Association.

Last week Mr. Clement Barksdale gave an excellent talk on "The Negro Minority Group", which was followed by a full and free discussion.

Next week a young Jewish leader will address the Metcalf Union and tell something of the problem the Jewish people face in our country today. This will be the third in a series of talks entitled "Americans All", which has been planned by Mr. Alfred Henriksen, youth leader at the Unitarian Church.

Miss Betty Pride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Otis Pride of 37 Foxcroft road took a leading role in "The Piers of the Holy Ghost" given at Colby Junior College, on Wednesday evening, Oct. 4. Miss Pride is president of Rouge Pot, honorary dramatic society of the college.

WINCHESTER ART ASSOCIATION

The 1944-45 season of the Winchester Art Association opened on Tuesday, Oct. 3 in its gallery on Washington street. The exhibition for this month is one of annual paintings by Elisabeth Anne Philbrick, Philip Lincoln Martin and Wesley Dennis.

Mr. G. Russell Mayer, president, greeted the members and their friends and spoke briefly about the association. He gave credit for the exhibit to Mrs. Alfred Lawson and Mrs. Blanche Barnard who made arrangements for this current exhibition. Mr. Mayer then introduced one of the artists, Mr. Philip Martin, who spoke about art and painting. Although Mr. Martin was born and educated in Boston, he now makes his home in Vermont, as several stories about Calvin Coolidge were told and enjoyed by the gathering.

Mr. Martin spoke of Thayer's theory of shade and light, illustrating this with large pictures of a wood duck, skunk, long eared owl and deer. These pictures made apparent the clever camouflaging of nature, for the wild animal colorings so truly blended with their native backgrounds that the human eye might not detect their presence.

At the close of the short talk, refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Vaughn Harmon assisted by Miss Isabel Copland, Mrs. Richard Ashender, and Mrs. Earl Carrier. A very attractive fruit arrangement by Mrs. Harmon adorned the table. Mr. Russell Mayer and Mrs. Lyle Barpoured.

This exhibit will be open to the public through the month of October.

ANDY DEVINE

Endorsing the national Elks War Commission's "Write 'em a letter" campaign, which is being supported by 650,000 members of the B. P. O. Elks throughout the nation, star Andy Devine, in a letter to James R. Nicholson, chairman of the Commission, writes: "When we pray for the boys in the service, only we know that we are thinking of them, but when we write them, they know we are thinking of them."

Together with other stars of screen, stage and radio, who have also visited theatres of war in Europe, Africa and islands in the Pacific Ocean, Andy Devine urges that every one on the homefront write—frequently—to the members of our armed forces overseas. Mail call is the bright spot in a serviceman's day.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

I Don't Think That Would Be Fair

I walked down by the depot Tuesday evening and watched a company of troops get off the train and drill up and down Madison Street for a little leg-stretching.

Jeb Crowell, the storekeeper, was stepping right along with the younger men, just as spry as he was during the first World War.

We walked home together when the train pulled out and Jeb started talking about how things were when he came back home from France in 1919.

"It was pretty discouraging," Jeb said, "to come back and find out that Prohibition had turned our best people into law breakers and that our kids were sneaking down back alleys to buy bootleg. I hope our boys don't have to come back to that again this time."

From where I sit, I don't believe our folks will try to take away the rights of our soldiers while they are overseas fighting to preserve them. Time enough to settle that argument after we've won the big scrap that's ahead of us now.

TWO ACCIDENTS SATURDAY

George F. Wells, 80, of 37 Garfield avenue, sustained a broken leg and other injuries last Saturday forenoon when he was struck and knocked down by an automobile while walking a southerly direction on Washington street, between Marion road and Lincoln street.

The operator of the machine, a Studebaker sedan owned by Rudolph Kazudian of 49 Lincoln street, was Roger Latham, 17, of 81 Harvard street. He told the Police he was backing from a driveway at the property of Henry J. McInnis, 514 Washington street, and did not see Mr. Wells, his first intimation of any trouble coming when he felt the car strike something.

Latham took Mr. Wells to the Winchester Hospital where he was treated by Dr. Philip J. McInnis. He sustained a broken right leg, numerous abrasions and was found to be suffering from shock.

CARS COLLIDE ON CAMBRIDGE STREET

An Oldsmobile sedan, driven north on Cambridge street by Benjamin Syder of 1850 Beacon street, Brookline, was in collision last Sunday evening at 6.15 at Robinson park with a Plymouth sedan, also headed north and driven by 14 year old Mafie Husson of 46 Butterfield street, Lowell.

The Plymouth was registered to Mary M. Husson of 46 Butterfield street, Lowell, and James H. Mansur of 181 Varney street, Lowell, a passenger in the car, told the Police he had allowed the Husson girl to drive.

Both cars were damaged and several occupants of the Plymouth complained of being shaken up. In the Olds, Mrs. Rebecca Snyder, wife of the operator, complained of injuries to her chest and Anna Meister of 41 Harvard street, Dorchester, of injuries to her right foot.

ART EXHIBITION

Art Gallery. An exhibition of paintings by Mrs. Glenn Hall, Mr. Wesley Dennis and Mr. Philip W. Martin.

China Recognition Day Oct. 10

In observance of this day the library will feature a special exhibit of books on China and the Chinese people. A booklet has been prepared which will be of help in selecting some of the best books to read to know and understand this great Ally.

One of the latest novels on China is "West to the Chungking" by Helen Kirk whose autobiography "I've Come a Long Way" was so widely read last year. Those interested in learning the language will find Gale's "Short Cuts to Chinese" helpful. Two of the latest Chinese non-fiction are "Vixen from Unconquered China" by MacNair and "The Making of Modern China" by Latimore.

PACK 3 MEETING

Thirty-one Cubs under the leadership of Cubmaster H. Royal Brown opened their new season Thursday evening, Sept. 28 in the Parish House of the First Congregational Church. The meeting opened with the salute to the colors and the Cubs Candle-Lighting Ceremony. Cubs John Roray, Richard Wickerson, Elliot Hersey, Wright Keyes and James Loftus were graduated into Scouting.

Pack Committee Chairman Gordon S. Bird made an appeal for volunteers to serve as Den Mothers. He pointed out that the admission of new boys to the Pack was dependent on the number of ladies willing to serve as Den Mothers thus permitting the organization of new neighborhood groups. Scout Field Executive Francis MacFeeley offered the aid of Fellsland District Scouting Headquarters in assisting the new Den Mothers.

An official Cub sound movie entitled "The Cub in the Home" was shown, followed by movies of the Cub Day Camp held in Medford last summer, and new movies of the 1944 Cub model tank race.

Mrs. W. B. Hersey announced the continuance of the Cub and Scout Band for this season and issued an invitation to all interested registered Cubs and Scouts of Winchester to join this organization regardless of their Pack or Troop affiliations.

The date for the Fall outing was announced as Saturday, Oct. 21.

FELL ASLEEP AT WHEEL

The Winchester Police discovered a disabled automobile on Everett avenue last Sunday morning and it was found that the car had been driven by Charles N. Winship of 53 Wildwood street.

While headed east on Everett avenue early Sunday morning the car left the road and going over the curbing and sidewalk, damaged about 25 feet of lawn at the home of Mr. James S. Murray of 9 Everett avenue.

Mr. Winship told the police the accident occurred as he fell asleep at the wheel of the car. He agreed to take care of the damage done.

MISS HOWARD SHOWERED

Mrs. David W. Howard gave a surprise kitchen shower and bridge last week Wednesday evening for her sister in-law, Miss Priscilla E. Howard, at the home of Miss Howard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Howard, 345 Main street.

Miss Howard left her home on the evening of the shower with her fiance, Mr. Harold J. Hohwieler, to go to the movies, believing a few friends of her parents were coming in for bridge. Upon the pretext of having left his pocketbook at home, Mr. Hohwieler took Miss Howard back to the house where she found herself surrounded with friends and relatives and with many interesting packages to open.

After the gifts were displayed, bridge was enjoyed and refreshments served. Among the shower guests were Mr. Frank W. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Alan F. Howard, Mrs. Harrie Y. Nutter, Miss Muriel Howard, Mrs. Irene Davis, Mrs. Herbert L. Wood, Miss Barbara Hughes, Mr. Ralph E. Sexton, Dr. Richard Sexton, Mrs. G. Russell Mann and Mrs. John Buckley, Miss Nancy Nutter, all of Winchester; Mrs. Raymond W. Kruse of Wellesley Hills, with her mother, Mrs. Kinsley Van R. Dey and Miss Virginia Bott of Lexington.

SCHIMKE—McHALE

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Joan McHale, daughter of Mrs. John McHale of 36 Oak street and Tech. 4c Donald G. Schimke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Schimke of Fairview.

The ceremony took place Tuesday evening, Sept. 26 in South Hadley Falls. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Beaudry, Jr., were the only attendants.

The bride wore a powder blue dress, brown accessories and a corsage of pink Camellias and rose buds. The matron of honor was dressed in black and fuchsia and her corsage was of yellow roses.

Mrs. Schimke attended the Winchester schools and Bryant and Stratton Secretarial School. She is employed at the Little, Brown Publishing Co., Boston.

The bridegroom attended Bluefield College, Bluefield, West Va., and received his B. S. degree from the University of New Hampshire. He is a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. Schimke will live in Boston where the bridegroom is stationed.

DAVIDSON—RAY

There is much Winchester interest in the marriage which took place at the Second Congregational Church in North Conway on Saturday evening, Sept. 30, when Miss Frances Elise Ray, daughter of Mrs. R. Howard Ray of Auburn, Me., and the late Mr. Ray became the bride of 1st. Lt. George Thomas Davidson, Jr., U. S. A. A. F., son of Mr. and Mrs. George T. Davidson of Park avenue. The church was attractively decorated with white chrysanthemums for the 7 o'clock ceremony which was performed by Rev. William A. Lee. Arthur R. Rabethge, former organist at the Church of the Epiphany, played the bridal music.

Miss Ray was given in marriage by Ellis McKeen, headmaster of Kennett High School in Keene, N. H., of which the bride is head of the English Department. Miss Lynda Beifell of Newark, N. J., was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Thurzie Addison of Concord, Mrs. Francis Jackson and Mrs. Morton Cole, both of Auburn, Me. and Mrs. Ruth Davidson Hilton of this town, sister of the bridegroom. Miss Carol Eaton of Winchester was flower girl.

The bride wore a princess style gown of white brocaded satin, styled with a sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice with long sleeves coming to a point on her hands and a full skirt extending to form a court train. Her full-length veil of tulle was caught to a tiara of seed pearls and she carried a Colonial bouquet of white flowers centered with an orchid.

The honor maid wore a dress of pink peach chiffon with matching pom poms in her hair and carried a Colonial bouquet. The bridesmaids also carried Colonial bouquets and were dresses of powder blue chiffon with matching head-dress of flowers. The small flower girl wore a frock of pale yellow embroidered organdy with matching flowers in her hair.

Lt. Davidson had his father for his best man and the usher corps comprised Ens. William Treen of Conway, N. H., Cpl. David Miller of Lexingtos, Paul B. Eaton of Winchester and Robert Kennett of Conway, N. H.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the home of Rev and Mrs. Lee in Conway, N. H. and Mrs. Davidson went to Madison, Wis. on their wedding journey, stopping over en route at Niagara Falls, N. Y.

The bride is a graduate of Bates College and has done graduate work at Boston University. Lt. Davidson graduated from Winchester High School and from Bowdoin College where he was captain of the varsity baseball team and a member of the Alpha Delta Phi fraternity. He has done graduate work at Columbia, and is at present stationed at Truax Field, Madison, Wis.

Mrs. William E. MacDonald, 3rd, (Claire McGrath) of Elizabeth City, N. C., is in Winchester visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. McGrath of Rangely ridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy H. Messenger of Union Bluffs, York Beach, Me., announce the engagement of their daughter Miss Jean Messenger to Pfc. James L. Williams, USAAF, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williams of Durham, N. C.

Miss Messenger and her parents lived in Winchester for many years. She attended the George Washington School, then York High School and last year was a student at Cushing Academy in Ashburnham where she was elected to the Kappa Kappa Club as a result of her scholastic ability. Pvt. Williams attended schools in Durham, N. C. He is stationed at Mt. Agamenticus, Cape Neddick, Me.

JONES—WANSKER

At a candle-light ceremony in the Church of the Epiphany on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 30, Miss Jayne Wansker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Wansker of Cabot street, became the bride of Ens. Kleber Conway Jones, Jr., USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kleber C. Jones of St. Louis, Mo. The service was read at 4:30 o'clock by the rector of the church, Rev. Dwight W. Hadley, in an attractive setting of white chrysanthemums and greens. A reception was held after the service at the Winchester Country Club.

Miss Wansker was given in marriage by her father and had her sister, Miss Barbara Keyes Wansker as her only attendant.

The bride wore a gown of moonglow satin, which had a circular cathedral train and was trimmed with heirloom lace. Her fingertip length veil of silk illusion was caught to a Juliet cap of matching lace and she carried a bouquet of white orchids, stephanotis and chrysanthemums. The honor maid wore a portrait gown having a bodice of gold satin and a tulle skirt. Her flowers were bronze chrysanthemums.

Lt. Comdr. Samuel W. Raymond, Merchant Marine, of Mountain View, N. J., was Ens. Jones best man and the ushers were Charles H Wansker, jr., brother of the bride; Merritt W Cornwell, USMCR, and Sgt. Clifford Lindberg, USAAF, recently returned home after active duty abroad.

Ens. Jones and his bride went to Maine on their wedding journey. The bride attended House-in-the-Pines School in Norton and was graduated last June from Colby Junior College. Ens. Jones attended the University of Missouri and is in the U. S. Maritime Service, expecting to be recalled to active duty in about three weeks.

VOL. LXIV NO. 9 — THE WINCHESTER, MASS., STAR, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1944 — PRICE SEVEN CENTS

RECEIVING D. A. R. MEMBERSHIP AWARDS

(Left to right) Mrs. E. W. Norton, Worcester, first; Mrs. Nathaniel M. Nichols, Winchester, second; Mrs. Phillips L. Wheeler, Lawrence third; Mrs. Frederick G. Smith, past State Regent and present librarian general, who made the awards; and Mrs. Herman F. Robinson, State D. A. R. chairman of membership.

WINCHESTER D. A. R. RECEIVED AWARD

Winchester's Committee of Safety Chapter, D. A. R., received the second award for increased membership last Friday at the annual fall conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution at the New Ocean House in Swampscott.

Mrs. Nathaniel M. Nichols, regent of the local chapter received the award which was made by Mrs. Frederick Glazier Smith, national librarian and past State Regent of the D. A. R.

First prize went to Worcester but Winchester's proportion of increase is larger than that of the Worcester group which has a much larger membership. This year is the third in a row in which Winchester has been awarded a prize of $10 for having the largest increase in new members in proportion to membership, the local chapter having doubled its membership in the past three years.

A major portion of credit for this achievement goes to Mrs. William A. Purdy of Wilson street who has worked hard and effectively to this end.

CHOIR OF 100 VOICES

Next Sunday morning at 10.45, the usual hour of worship, a joint choir of 100 voices will furnish the music under the direction of Mr. J. Albert Wilson, organist and choirmaster.

The music next Sunday morning will consist of a two part anthem for Junior Choir, O Make Me Love Thee More and More, by Abel and Worship by Shaw sung by the Senior Choir.

Dr. Chidley will preach on "What Do We Mean by Salvation?"

WINCHESTER BOY INTERNED IN TURKEY

Among the many exciting experiences which Staff Sgt. Clifford Lindberg had while serving for the past nine months overseas with the U. S. Army Air Forces was being interned for six weeks in Turkey, that enigmatic country which both the Allies and the Nazis have tried to get into the war as an active belligerent.

Sgt. Lindberg, a graduate of Winchester High School, class of 1942, has been in the service for two years, going overseas in January of 1944. He wears the Air Medal with five Oak Leaf Clusters and the Presidential Citation bar. He returned home last week Wednesday on a 21 day furlough, after which he will report to Atlantic City for reassignment.

Sgt. Lindberg has a brother in the service, Pvt. Fred Lindberg, Winchester High School graduate in the class of 1943 and star high jumper on the high school track team. Fred has been in active duty in New Guinea since last November.

MISS THOMPSON ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. Christian W. Thompson of this town announce the engagement of their daughter, Carolyn, to Edward Emmett Holstrom, Jr., USA, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Emmett Holstrom, Sr., of Chicago, Ill.

Miss Thompson attended North eastern Law School and is at present secretary to Mr. William B. Stiles, assistant to the president of Liberty Mutual Insurance Co.

Mr. Holstrom is a graduate of the University of Chicago, and at present is attached to the Boston Port of Embarkation, Army Base, Boston.

MATHEW—TIBBETTS

In an attractive setting of fall flowers, tea roses and candles, Miss Althea Zoe Tibbetts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E Tibbetts of Sheffield road, was married on Saturday afternoon, Oct. 7, at her parents' home to Morton Pomeroy Mathew of Peach Point, Marblehead, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alan P. Mathew of Berkeley, Cal. Rev. Dwight W. Hadley, rector of the Church of the Epiphany, read the marriage service at 5 o'clock and a buffet supper and informal reception followed. The bride's sister, Mrs. John M. Alden (Martha Tibbetts) and the bridegroom's parents came on from California to attend.

Miss Tibbetts was given in marriage by her father. She wore a family wedding gown of silk with a long veil and carried mixed white flowers arranged in a shower bouquet. Miss Nancy Christensen of this town was the bride's honor maid and only attendant. She wore a dress of apple green tulle and carried rust colored chrysanthemums. George Luaff of Marblehead was Mr. Mathew's best man and the ushers were two brothers-in-law of the bride, John M. Alden of San Francisco, Cal. and Richard Russell Hildreth of Marblehead, formerly of this town.

Mr. Mathew and his bride went to Northern Maine for their wedding journey. Upon their return they will make their home in Swampscott.

The bride is a graduate of Winchester High School, class of 1941, attending Radcliffe and Smith Colleges and the Longy School of Music. Mr. Mathew, who is an electrical engineer associated with the General Electric Company, attended the Baltimore Conservatory and Cornell University.

WINCHESTER SOLDIER WOUNDED IN NORMANDY

Shell fragments from a Nazi 88 wounded Pfc. Thomas F. Gainey, 25, of 130 Sylvester avenue, during the battle of Normandy. He is now recovering at this U. S. Army general hospital in England.

Pfc. Gainey is progressing rapidly said his ward surgeon, Major Howard H. Curd of Beckley, West Virginia, and will return to duty as soon as he completes our rehabilitation program.

Veteran of the African and Sicilian campaigns, Pfc. Gainey hit the Normandy beach with his anti-aireraft unit on D-plus-four. It was during the assault on Marigny that he was hit in the right leg by shell fragments.

A former tree surgeon, Pfc. Gainey is the son of Mrs. F. Gainey, Sr., of this town.

WINCHESTER SISTERS CLASS PRESIDENT

Two Winchester sisters, Mary Lee and Anne Richardson, have the distinction of being presidents of their respective classes at Randolph-Macon College in Lynchburg Vt. Mary Lee is president of the senior class and Anne, of the freshman class. The girls are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Howard P. Richardson of Wedgemere avenue. Anne was one of the outstanding girls in last year's graduating class at Winchester High, being captain of field hockey, a member of the basketball team and leader of the girls vocal essemble.

BUGBEE—THOMPSON

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Thompson of Wilmington, Del., announce the marriage of their daughter, Hazel, to Cpl. Richard Milward Bugbee, Air Transport Command, son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Bugbee of Symmes road. The ceremony took place on Sunday, Sept. 10 at Wilmington, Del.

COUPLES CLUB INVITES SERVICE WIVES

Although the activities of the Winchester Couples Club are obviously planned for couples, the directors are planning to give an especially cordial welcome this season to those wives whose husbands are in the service.

The first party of the year will be in the Metcalf Hall of the Unitarian Church on Saturday night, Oct. 28 and will consist of a mock radio broadcast "Truth or Not, You Get the Consequences" as sponsored by the mythical G. G. C. T. Co.

It is hoped that any service wife will attend, alone or with a friend.

Any person or couples desiring information should call Georgie or Ted Whittemore, Win. 0344.

TO THE PARENTS OF WINCHESTER HIGH SCHOOL

You are cordially invited to come to the high school on Tuesday evening, Oct. 17, to participate in our "Parents' Night" program. This program is being arranged to help you become better acquainted with our faculty and the subjects which make up the school day's activities of your son or daughter. The doors will open at 7.15 and it is hoped you will be in your "home room" when the "last bell" rings at 7.30.

You will find your "home room teacher" ready with important notices and your program card for the evening. From then on you will follow a day's schedule as a student of Winchester High School.

We hope you will be among those present.

Sincerely yours,
Samuel M Graves,
Acting Principal

SCHOOLGIRL BADLY INJURED

Struck by Auto at Wyman School

Constance Ranlett, 10, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Ranlett of 17 Dix street, was seriously injured about 4:30 Monday afternoon when she was struck by an automobile while crossing Church street in front of the Wyman School.

According to the Police account of the accident Constance and Donna Jens, 10, of 1 Cottage avenue, had just left the school and the former was attempting to cross Church street when she was struck by the front bumper of a Chevrolet sedan, owned and driven by Nicola Lupo of 24 Brattle street, Arlington.

Lupo told the Police he was driving toward the center and did not see the Ranlett girl until his machine struck her. She was knocked down and received quite badly injured when the Police arrived.

Officer William E. Cassidy picked Constance up and took her to the Winchester Hospital where she was first attended by Dr. Sanford Moses. She sustained a fractured skull, fractured pelvis and multiple lacerations, contusions and abrasions. Her condition Tuesday morning was reported at the hospital as fair.

CANTEEN FLOURISHES

Now that the Red and Black Canteen has been in operation for a month it is doubly evident that such a club was really needed as a gathering place for the high school young people. Every Friday and Saturday night over 250 crowd the quarters on Vine street and the afternoon period on Fridays is also growing in popularity.

The Canteen Committee took advantage of the Oct. 12 holiday to hold a meeting to discuss various plans and problems, one of which was the question of open nights at which members may invite friends.

The Canteen Advisory Committee is also studying the possibilities of making some period open to the students of the Junior High School.

One of the highlights of the Canteen evenings so far was the appearance of a "live" orchestra on Saturday evening, Oct. 7. Composed of Winchester young men, the orchestra took the place of the juke box.

OPEN HOUSE AT HIGH SCHOOL TUESDAY EVENING

At a teacher's meeting this week, Acting Principal Samuel M. Graves announced plans for an open house at the high school on the evening of Tuesday, Oct. 17, commencing at 7.30. This second open house will give parents of sophomores, juniors and seniors an opportunity to become acquainted with the facilities at the disposal of their youngsters.

Doors open at 7.15 and the parents will be welcomed in the home rooms from 7.25 to 7.30. After a brief home room period during which they will take part in opening exercises and make copies of the Tuesday schedule, they will follow a regular routine of classes.

The large number of enthusiastic parents who have attended similar open house meetings at Wadleigh has convinced Mr. Graves that the high school meeting will be well attended. Remember the time and the date, 7.15, Tuesday evening, Oct. 17.

SELECTMEN'S NOTES

The town hall has been granted for the final report meeting and broadcast on Sunday, Nov. 12 by the United War Fund Committee.

HOWARD—HOHWIELER

Miss Priscilla E. Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Howard of Main street was married on Saturday afternoon Oct. 7 to Harold J. Hohwieler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hohwieler of Poughkeepsie, N. Y. The ceremony being performed in the Church of the Epiphany by Rev. Dwight W. Hadley.

The bride wore a gown of white brocade with scalloped neckline, tight fitting bodice, and full skirt with a long train. The veil was of illusion tulle, and the head dress was made with lace from the wedding gown of her mother, which had also been previously worn by her grandmother. She carried a shower bouquet of stephanotis, houvardia, baby's breath and white roses.

The matron of honor, Mrs. David W. Howard, sister-in-law of the bride, wore a lovely gown of rose faille with sweetheart neckline and full skirt. She carried an old fashioned bouquet and wore a head dress of tulle and rose chrysanthemums.

The six bridesmaids wore similar gowns of hyacinth blue faille, with bouquets and head-dresses of rose chrysanthemums. They were Miss E. Joanne Howard of this town, cousin of the bride, Mrs. Raymond Kruse, of Wellesley Hills, cousin of the bride, Mrs. Robert Hohwieler of Hartford Conn., sister-in-law of the groom, Miss Constance Bond of this town, Miss Virginia Bott of Arlington and Miss Rae Killinger of Flemington, N. J.

The best man was Robert Hohwieler, brother of the groom. The ushers were Lt Wallace F. Howard, USAAF, brother of the bride, David Kelsey of Auburndale, Roger M. Cole of Cambridge, Edward Lamson of Worcester, Frederick Sargent of Brookline and Capt. Ernest Kenyon, USA of Brookline.

Following the ceremony there was a reception at the Winchester Country Club.

The bride and groom were assisted in receiving by the bride's mother and father (Mrs. Howard in purple with gold accessories and yellow roses), the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Hohwieler in silver taffeta with fuchsia accessories and pink roses and the matron of honor, best man, and six bridesmaids.

Mr. and Mrs. Hohwieler left immediately for a brief honeymoon at Toy Town Tavern in Winchendon. They will make their home at 41 Hawthorne street, Cambridge.

Mrs. Hohwieler attended Skidmore College in Saratoga Springs, N. Y. and graduated in 1943 from Katharine Gibbs School in Boston.

Mr. Hohwieler graduated in 1938 from Park College, Kansas City, Mo., and spent three years in graduate study at Washington University in St. Louis. He is now a member of the Army of the United States assigned to Medical School at Boston University and stationed in Boston.

that although ultimate victory is assured, the war is not yet won and no one can tell how long it will continue, yet, in any event, even when hostilities finally cease and there is no further need for arms and munitions there still will be required a supply of blood plasma, surgical dressings, clothing, etc., for the needs of an extended post-war period, so we must not lessen our efforts but continue full speed ahead until advised officially that the emergency has passed.

Friends and relatives of the boys overseas will be glad to know that a new prisoner of war supply ship the "Henry Dunant" began her first voyage on Oct. 3 as a member of the fleet which carries supplies and prisoner of war mail on the first leg of the trip to Germany.

This newly acquired steam ship will carry a full cargo of standard American Red Cross prisoner of war parcels, more than 900,000 from Philadelphia to Barcelona. She also will carry some prisoner of war mail.

To Winchester Voters:-

To place honesty and integrity in the Government, both Federal and State, requires the election and return of the Republican party and its candidates. From all reports the race coming down the home stretch is nip and tuck! To put it over every Republican, Democrat and Independent Voter must work and support the Republican Campaign by going to the polls and voting the entire Republican Ticket, discussing the issues with your neighbor to secure his support and vote, voting for honest government and making your contribution to the Massachusetts Republican Committee, 576 Main Street, Winchester, Mass. Leave your cash contributions at the above address and secure your receipt, call Winchester 0188 for a solicitor to call. In any event all contributions will be receipted and acknowledged by the Massachusetts Republican Finance Committee.

Every dollar counts for radio broadcasting, transportation of candidates, organization expenses and advertising. All expenses are budgeted so that if your contribution is not received or is cut, so must the budget be curtailed. Because of lack of funds, your candidates for President and Vice-President, Dewey and Bricker, have not as yet had an entire national radio chain hook-up at any one time. This is important in order to have a properly informed electorate. Act at once — Election Day is Tuesday, November 7, 1944.

Arvil S. Barr

Arvil S. Barr, Professor of Education at the University of Wisconsin, is another of the well-qualified staff that is assisting Dr. John Guy Fowlkes in the Winchester School Survey.

He is a graduate of the University of Indiana in 1915, and later received his Doctor's Degree from the University of Wisconsin. In his earlier experiences, he taught and coached athletics in high school, and, in 1920, was appointed as head of the department of education at Indiana College at Evansville. He is a former assistant director in charge of supervision in the Detroit Public Schools. He has served in the capacity of instructor at the Universities of Chicago, Washington and Southern California. For many years he has specialized in the field of educational supervision, and he is doing his major study of our school system in this field. During his many years in Education, Dr. Barr has been the author or co-author of many texts that have found wide usage in school systems throughout the country.

Some of his better known works are as follows: "Visiting the Teacher at Work"; "An Analysis of the Duties and Functions of Special Supervisors"; "Supervision of Instruction"; "Characteristic Differences in the Teaching Performance of Good and Poor Teachers"; "An Introduction to the Scientific Study of Classroom Supervision"; "Measurement of Teaching Efficiency."

He has been associated with Prof. William H. Burton as Editor of the Appleton Series in Supervision and Teaching. He has been th Editor of the Journal of Educational Research since 1928, and is a constant contributor of educational articles in many magazines in the field. Professor Barr's extensive background and experience is characteristic of the excellent staff that is attempting a solution to our school problems.

Leo G. Bent

Mr. Leo G. Bent, assistant Principal and Director of Guidance at Wisconsin University High School, is in charge of the extensive testing program comprising over 5000 tests that are being given to the students as part of the comprehensive survey now under way in the Winchester schools under the direction of Dr. John Guy Fowlkes.

Mr. Bent studied at Northwestern University, Whitewater State Teachers College, Michigan State College, and the University of Wisconsin. He is a licensed psychometrist, and has assisted Dr. Fowlkes on other surveys that he has conducted. He served for several years as a high school principal at Mishicot, Wis., before coming to the University of Wisconsin.

Mr. Bent has an engaging personality that stands him in good stead in gaining the confidence and setting at ease the students who are being subjected to this testing program.

Dr. Burr W. Phillips

Dr. Burr W. Phillips, Associate Professor in the Teaching of History at the University of Wisconsin, is making a study of History and Social Studies in connection with the Winchester Public School Survey.

Professor Phillips is head of the Social Studies Department at the University of Wisconsin High School. He is also a member of the Board of Directors of the National Council for Social Studies, and, for several years, was chairman and editor of the Teacher's Section of the Mississippi Valley Historical Association. He has written extensively in the Social Studies field. A recent article entitled, "World History in PostWar Education", published in the April issue of "Education", has been well received and widely read.

Dr. Ira C. Davis

Dr. Ira C. Davis, professor in the Science Department of the University of Wisconsin for many years, and one of this country's outstanding authorities in this field, is assisting Dr. John Guy Fowlkes in the Winchester Public School Survey.

At present, he is chairman of the Department of Educational Methods at Wisconsin, and is also in charge of the Science Department at the University of Wisconsin High School. He has written widely in the fields of General Science, Biology and Physics. From 1935 to 1938, he was president of the Department of Science Instruction of the National Education Association. He is also a past president of the Central Association of Science and Mathematics Teachers. From 1939 to 1942, he held the high honor of being chairman of the National Committee on Science Teaching, sponsored by the National Education Association.

Dr. Davis is studying the teaching of Science in our school system, and is ably qualified to give us an intelligent and thorough study of this important field.

Dr. Robert C. Pooley

Dr. Robert C. Pooley is doing the English study in the Winchester School Survey under the direction of Dr. John Guy Fowlkes.

Professor Pooley is a graduate of Colorado State College, and received his Master's Degree from that institution in 1927. He later served as an assistant professor of English at this institution. He was granted a Ph. D. degree from the University of Wisconsin in 1932, and, since that time, has been a member of the faculty, being elevated to a full professorship in 1940. He is a past-president of the Wisconsin Association of English Teachers, and a member of the National Council of English Teachers, for which organization he is now Director of Publications. He is the author of the following textbooks that are used at the secondary school level. "Grammar and Usage in Textbooks on English", "Introducing Essays," "Growth in Reading Series" and "Handbook of English for Boys and Girls." In 1943 he was appointed as a Special Consultant in English to the War Department, and has been nationally commended for his work entitled, "Pre-Induction Needs in Language and Reading."

He has, in the past, been associated with Dr. Fowlkes on other surveys; the last being in 1942, when he made a study of the English Departments of the Louisville, Ky., Public Schools.

LOUISA F. PARKHURST, TEACHER OF PIANO

Pupil of Myra Hess

Miss Parkhurst desires to encourage the Study of Music and Piano by Adults. To be able to play one's favorite Symphony or a piece by a noted composer need not mean drudgery but real enjoyment. She would advise ensemble playing of all kinds.

It is a deplorable condition for young people of high school age to discontinue the study of an Art which means so much to them in later life.

HOW TO GET THE MOST FROM YOUR AUTOMATIC GAS WATER HEATER

Draw off a few quarts of water from faucet at bottom of heater about once a month. This prevents sediment from accumulating, saves gas, insures clean water. Insulation for hot water pipes holds heat loss to a minimum - saves gas. Dripping hot water faucets waste money. Good washers in faucets save water and gas. Shower heads (sprays) need not be large. Small shower heads permit ample water flow and cut needless waste of hot water. Clean outside of heater occasionally with damp cloth - wipe dry.

Locals Impressive Winning Third Straight

Winchester High emerged from its first real test of the current football season with flying colors last Saturday afternoon, beating a good looking Winthrop High team, 20-0, before a perspiring crowd of some 2500 on Manchester Field. With the temperature near the 90 degree mark the football was remarkably good and Winchester's showing especially impressive.

The visitors were physically a match for Winchester, but as the game wore on the locals' superior condition began to tell while Coach Knowlton's masterly handling of his players was such as to keep no boy in action after he was unfit to go at high speed. The Winchester second and third teams saw plenty of service against Winthrop and the game's final touchdown was made by Mario Buzzotta, second string quarterback, on a pass from reserve fullback, Johnny West.

Winthrop shot its offensive bolt at the beginning of the second quarter, passing and rushing the ball to the Winchester three yard line where the locals held for downs. This failure to score, plus the heat and the hard hitting of the Winchester players seemed to sap all the fight out of the big blue clad Winthrop boys and during the second half the Winchester seconds and thirds more than held their own with the opposition. Coach Knowlton had his fourth wave lining up for action when the final whistle blew.

Winchester made nine first downs and 186 yards by rushing, completing three out of seven passes for 44 yards and a touchdown. The locals drew one 15 yarder for holding and did'nt fumble once. Winthrop made six first downs and 91 yards rushing, completing three of eight passes for another 25 yards. The visitors had no penalties, but fumbled three times, recovering once.

Stevenson kicked off for Winchester and Winthrop had to punt right off. Tibaudo running the kick back ten yards to his 41 yard line. Tibaudo picked up six in two bucks, Roche added three and on fourth down Tibaudo broke through to the Winthrop 28 for a first down.

Jimmy Haggerty, running on a reverse, got some good blocking on the line and raced for the far sideline where he drove along to the Winthrop two yard line before being knocked outside. On first down Tibaudo sliced off his own right tackle for the score and Walsh converted perfectly at placement.

Shortly before the end of the first quarter Roche punted outside on the Winthrop 22 and the visitors started an offensive drive that was very impressive. A pass from Neal to Evans was good for eight, and after a buck was piled up, Neal slithered to a first down at his 38. Two bucks brought the ball to the 40 as the quarter ended.

Neal passed again to Evans for a first down at Winchester's 49 and Arnold got away off Winchester's right tackle for a first down at the 36. Neal picked up six and another pass from Neal to Howard made it first down on the 24.

Neal picked up nine in two tries and then Howard on a center sneak went to a first down at the 3. It looked like a score, but the fighting Winchester forwards stopped Arnold at the line. Neal was dumped for a four yard loss, and only got back two in a dance off tackle. With the ball on the 5, Neal faded back to pass but guard Charlie Lovejoy was through fast to dump the passer and although the pass reached its intended receiver the latter was hit so hard he muffed the leather and it was Winchester's ball at its 5.

Roche picked up a yard and then Capt. Walsh broke through to reach the 25 and from then on Winchester was in no danger.

Winchester scored again at the start of the second half. Roche ran the kickoff back to his 40 and Faieta on an end around made first down at the Winthrop 40, staying inside the touchline cleverly. Tibaudo and Roche made it first down at the 25, but here the attack stalled momentarily. On fourth down however with ten needed Tibaudo faded and shot off a screen pass to Walsh who really ran down the far sideline to the Winthrop 6. Tibaudo picked up five, Roche was stopped short and Tibaudo was piled up at center on third down.

On fourth down, Tibaudo drove off right tackle to score and once again Walsh split the uprights, with a perfect shot from placement.

Winchester's final score came toward the end of the final quarter. Winthrop punted short to Buzzotta who was downed on the visitors' 30. On fourth down O'Rourke reversed to the 20 and Errico picked up three. Bellino was stopped, but on third down West shot off a screen pass to Buzzotta and Mario legged it all the way. West's attempted conversion was blocked. The summary:

WINCHESTER HIGHLANDS MEN'S CLUB

The Winchester Highland Men's Club held its first supper meeting of the year on Thursday, Oct. 5, in the assembly hall of the Second Congregational Church.

A large and enthusiastic group was present and all enjoyed the chicken pie supper served by Emil Beauchamp, Donald MacFarlane, Milton Galucia, Frank Johnson, Danny Devlin, and Don Bucharme of Boy Scout Troop 10, sponsored by the club, acted as waiters.

Following the meal, there was a short and snappy songfest led by Jim Campbell with Neal Dowe at the piano.

Next came a short business session presided over by President E. Vern Chapman, who explained the workings of this year's organization.

Mr. Chapman presented Tom Grace, chairman of the Activities Committee. Tom revealed that his committee is already hard at work on plans for a social evening to be held some time in November and to which the ladies will be invited. He also announced the speaker for the regular November meeting, Rudolph F. King, new Commissioner of Motor Vehicles.

At the conclusion of the business meeting, Reinhardt Schulmann, introduced the speaker of the evening, Dr. M. P. Neterwala, whose subject was "India."

Dr. Neterwala, a native Indian, who has studied both at Bombay and Benares Universities in India, as well as at the University of Colorado and M. I. T. in this country, proved to be a most earnest and interesting speaker. He presented a first hand view of the feelings of the Indian people toward the political situation there.

The club wishes to extend an invitation to any resident of Winchester to hear Mr. King at the next meeting on Thursday, Nov. 2.

MEN'S CLUB, UNITARIAN CHURCH

The Men's Club of the Unitarian Church announces that its opening fall meeting is to be held on Monday evening, Oct. 23.

The usual supper is planned with assembly at 6.30 p. m. For this occasion the committee has obtained as guest speaker Mr. Herbert L. Baldwin, publicity and public relations manager for the Boston and Maine and the Maine Central Railways. He is an accomplished speaker and will talk on the subject of, "Railroads Today and After the War."

The Men's Club is departing from the custom of having its monthly supper meetings on the fourth Thursday of the month which it has found is a bad time for many of its members who travel or have mid-week engagements that conflict. Beginning with the coming meeting, the club will meet on the fourth Monday. At this meeting the committee is making an effort to have the presidents and secretaries of other Winchester Men's Clubs as its special guests with a view to the development of closer co-operative relationship and facilitating the consideration of matters of general public interest to laymen of all churches.

BADMINTON

The Winchester Badminton Club will begin its season on Tuesday evening, Oct. 17 at the high school gymnasium. Play is from 7.30 to 10. Call Win. 1862-W for information. New members are welcome.

Pvt. Angelo P. Amico, USAAF, son of Mrs. Petrina Amico of 3 Spruce street, is enrolled in the Army Air Forces Training Command's B-24 Liberator bomber mechanics school at Keesler Field, Biloxi, Miss., for a 17 weeks course.

FLEET DINNER FASHION PARADE

Anyone who had inadvertently stumbled in on the Winchester Boat Club's skippers and crews at their annual fleet get-together last Sunday night would have been hard put to recognize a familiar figure in the crowd. Not that the whole gang wasn't there, but simply because the familiar dungarees, beaten up hats, Bing Crosby shirts, slacks and sweaters that the gang wears sailing had been stowed for the evening.

The oldsters were decked out in their Sunday best and some of the younger members had even gone so far as to wash their faces (ears, too) and comb their hair. In fact, the Fleet Captain, was so stunned by the sartorial splendor, that he felt he was addressing a gathering of total strangers when he arose to make the presentations.

The fleet champion of 1944 is Don Simonds, who won first prize in the official races a handsome vase; gets his name on the Don-Jan Trophy for the third time in four years and wins the honor of being the first skipper to win the handsome new George Jones Trophy.

The Swanson brothers, Bob, Ralph and Roger took home a handsome second prize cup and George Jones was the third place winner.

In the handicap series Fleet Captain Freyer won first prize, a slick silver plate; Bill Tuck's father Leon accepted a handsome cup for Bill's second place; and Roger Curtis adds the third place cup to his rapidly growing collection of trophies.

The dinner was tasty and well served, the speeches were short and to the point, so all in all, everyone had a swell time.

Fleet Facts

The Swanson's still hold a slim lead in the six race series for the Alden Sherman Memorial Trophy. They are seriously threatened by both Bill and Jim Snow. The standings are so close it looks as though the final race of the season, this Sunday, will definitely decide whose mantel will be brightened by this coveted trophy.

Club Chatter

Don Simonds turned out to be the cribbage champion of the club, with Sid Burr the runner up. These two expert 15-twoers engaged in a four out of seven battle last Friday evening and Don after losing the first game, took four straight to win the handsome cribbage board . . As yet, the finalists in the women's tourney haven't done battle. We'll report on that one as soon as the smoke of battle clears away . . . Roger Swanson became the champion ping pong player of the club by beating Holbrook Bugbee four games out of seven in one of the most thrilling ping pong duels ever staged. Both players won three games apiece, each hotly contested, and in the final game battled to a standstill at 20 to 20 and then Roger came through with just a little something extra to beat Holbrook by the necessary two point margin. The boys will receive their prizes at the clam chowder party at the club tonight.

METHODIST MEN'S CLUB MEETS AGAIN

The first fall meeting of the Sherman M. Dodge Men's Club of the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church was held Monday evening, Oct. 9.

Mr. Chester B. Koontz, president of the club, opened the meeting by introducing the new chaplain, Rev. Harris E. Heverly, who succeeded Rev. Roger E. Makepeace, now a chaplain in the Army.

After a brief business meeting, the members of the club had the pleasure of hearing Dr. Jos. L. McCorison, Jr. Dr. McCorison is the Regional Director of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, and a former president of Yankton College, Yankton, S. D. The title of his talk was "Democracy — Our Unfinished Business." It was followed by a very interesting informal discussion.

WINCHESTER 47—DANVERS 0

Winchester High crushed Danvers High on Manchester Field on the holiday afternoon 47-0, despite the fact that Coach, Henry Knowlton sent in whole waves of substitutes in an effort to make a game of it. The visitors were outweighed, outmanned, and although they kept trying to the very end, were badly outclassed.

Winchester scored almost at will, two fumbles aiding in keeping the score down. Features were Capt Walsh's 60 yard run for a touchdown after intercepting a Danvers pass and Jimmy Haggerty's 35 yard scampet after a punt. Most popular score was Bellino's 20 yard off tackle jaunt and cutback.

Faieta went 15 yards on an end around for the first score and a pass from Tibaudo to Faieta to Walsh racked up the second. West passed to Errico for the third and Gallell went 23 yards on an end around for the fourth. Walsh, Haggerty and Bellino scored the others in that order. The summary:

Winchester: Faieta, Errico, Gallello, Prentiss, Heitz, lc; Latham Washburn, Morrison, Green, lt; Baer, Rutherford, Derro, McLaughlin, lg; S. Beware Welfare Governments

The slave state always starts out as a welfare state. It promises freedom from worry, want—as many freedoms as you wish, except freedom from the State itself. Whenever you are wholly dependent on anything, you are a slave to it. Ask the Germans, the Fascists, the French of the "Peoples' Front."

Sure you can have freedom from worry and want—at the price of freedom itself. Since time began, "reformers" have promised easy plenty, but these reformers, once they have you depending on them, always turn into dictators. Even the glib reformers don't promise freedom from work (hours in Germany went up to 60 a week) and the strange fact they hope you'll forget is this: If you and I and everyone work and work efficiently, we automatically have freedom from worry and want, without loss of our personal freedom.

Efficient work by everyone lowers all costs. Lower costs mean more people can buy what you and I make. The more people who buy, the greater the demand, and the more work for all of us. It is as simple as that, and it is the only way to freedom and plenty.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT CLUB

The Wednesday Night Club of the First Congregational Church is planning a Hallowe'en party and game night for Wednesday evening, Oct. 25 at 8 o'clock in the parish hall of the Congregational Church. Members will attend in costume or old clothes.

Lt. Eugene Burt is in charge of plans for the party. Mrs. Harold Jones heads the committee on games, with Henry Wheeler as master of ceremonies; Mrs. William Rodgers, Mrs. Robert Oxford, Mrs. Donald Davis and Mrs. Arthur Rogde assisting. Mrs. H. Kimball Archibald and Mrs. Aram Mouradian will arrange for decorations and refreshments.

The officers for this year are: president, Franklin McDermott; vice-president, Mrs. Wallace Snow; secretary, Mrs. Henry Wheeler; treasurer, Harold Jones.

The planning committee for this year's activities also include Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harmon, Mr. and Mrs. George Shafer, Lt. and Mrs. Eugene Burt, Mrs. Franklin McDermott, Mrs. Harold Jones and Henry Wheeler.

The vacant house on Swanton street near the corner of Florence street has been condemned by the building inspector and torn down. This house has been vacant with the windows boarded up for many years. It is reported that a man was found drowned in the house years ago with his head in an earthern vessel. The cellar has been filled in and a horse owned by Mr. Marchesi now grazes on the lot.

SYMPHONIC ENSEMBLE AT FORTNIGHTLY MEETING

A dessert at 1 o'clock, at which the officers held an informal reception, opened Winchester Fortnightly's 1944-45 season last Monday. Present in the receiving line, as guest of honor, was Mrs. H. Stanley Kinsley, 8th District Director.

The delicious refreshments were in charge of the social committee, Mrs. Francis C. Bowes and Mrs. William Martens, co-chairmen, with Mrs. Clifton S. Hall and Mrs. Walter W. Wiship as hostesses.

Gorgeous bouquets of brilliant Autumn foliage and berries, and a lovely mantel arrangement of yellow chrysanthemums, all arranged by Mrs. Norman H. Mitchell, brought colorful beauty to the stage.

Mrs. Warren C. Whitman, president in her opening message, spoke of the place of women's clubs in the community today.

Later in the program Mrs. Whitman reported on the National Convention.

Mrs. H. Stanley Kinsley of Stoneham, 8th District Director, graciously brought the greetings of the State Federation.

Following the business session the Boston Symphonic Ensemble under the direction of Boaz Piller presented a delightful hour of music.

Reginald Boardman, the accompanist, delighted with five short piano preludes by Shostakowitch.

Frank Francis Santo, a s of 10 East street has completed his recruit training at Sampson, N. Y.

BOOKS FOR SERVICE MEN

The Mass. Victory Book Committee has issued an urgent appeal for books for our armed forces. So far this year this committee has handled about 100,000 books but at the present time their supply is less than the demand for one week. The books are needed particularly for the Navy and the demand is expected to increase for sometime.

The small paper covered novels and comics are especially popular. Last week the Winchester Library sent in about 800 books but that is not enough.

Will you help by contributing a few books now. They may be left at the Public Library or at the Edison store in the center.

BETTY PARKER WON THE PRIZE

Betty Ann Parker, 12 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Parker, was Sunday's winner of the $1 prize given by the Boston Sunday Herald for the best letter on "What I Am Doing For My Country." Betty's letter was as follows:

Dear Editor:

I am doing all I possibly can for my country. I have four war bonds. Three of them are $25 bonds and the other is a $100 bond. I have almost completed my fourth $25 bond. Every Thursday, which is defense stamp day at school, I buy at least 50 cents or more in stamps. Sometimes I buy a bond.

This summer before I went to camp we collected 45 pounds of waste fat. We got about $1.80. We also collect a lot of scrap, which we sold to the junkman. We got over $2, which we added to the money we got from the fat and turned it in to the Red Cross. They were very glad to receive it.

We are saving all the old tin cans, flattening them out and turning them in to the government. We are also saving and conserving paper.

I am 12 years old and in the 7th grade.

Looking Into the Future

we see a world recovering from the historical consequences of violence, a world in which property losses and industrial casualties have exceeded anything heretofore known. Naturally, these losses, many of which are yet unknown or cannot be accurately determined until later, will have a vital effect on the financial stability of some insurance companies. We are alert to our postwar responsibilities to clients and are comfortable in the thought that we represent only strong and reliable underwriters.

The Golden Text, God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him, is from 1 Thessalonians 5:9, 10. Other Scriptural selections include, Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God (II Corinthians 5:20).

Also included in the Lesson-Sermon will be the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy. Jesus aided in reconciling man to God by giving man a truer sense of Love, the divine Principle of Jesus' teaching, and this truer sense of Love redeems man from the law of matter, sin and death by the law of Spirit, the law of divine Love (p. 19).

DEATH IN OLD WINCHESTER FAMILY

Word was received this week of the death of Paul Spicer, an old Winchester resident and a member of a family prominent in by-gone days. Mr. Spicer died in Santa Barbara, Cal., Oct. 9. He was the son of the late Comdr. William F. Spicer, USN, and Mrs. Spicer. One member of the family is still living, his sister, Miss Alice Spicer of Santa Barbara.

The Spicers for many years lived on the southern shore of Wedge Pond in the vicinity of the old Calumet Club. Following the death of Comdr. Spicer the family moved to Wolcott terrace. The remaining members of the family moved to California many years ago.

MRS. KATHERINE BOYNTON

Katherine (Blackham) Boynton, a former resident of Winchester, widow of the late Frank J. Boynton and sister of the late James Blackham of this town, died Saturday, Oct. 7, at London, N. H., in her 76th year.

Mrs. Boynton was born May 1, 1869 in Dunloy, County Antrim, Northern Ireland, coming to Winchester as a young woman. She moved to Meredith, N. H., in 1905, and was married in Laconia, Nov. 19, 1909, residing thereafter in Concord until her husband's death in 1938.

She is survived by a brother, John Blackham, of Belfast, Ireland; also by a number of nieces and nephews, including James W. and Henry L. Blackham of this town, and Joseph A. Blackham of Belmont.

The funeral was held Tuesday morning, Oct. 10, with a high mass of requiem at St. John the Evangelist Church, Concord, N. H., at 9 o'clock. Interment was in Calvary Cemetery, Montvale.

MRS. MARY S. HATCH

Mrs. Mary S. Hatch, widow of Edward J. Hatch of Concord, N. H., and mother of Comdr. Frederick S. Hatch, USN, of this town, and Comdr. Maurice E. Hatch, USN of Arlington, Va. died suddenly on Oct. 11 in Arlington, Va., where she had just gone to visit her son.

For many years Mrs. Hatch had spent winters in Winchester and summers at her farm in North Bow, N. H., where she was an ardent gardener. Although of a very retiring disposition she kept up a keen interest in all that went on locally and in the world at large.

She will be buried in the family lot in Glenwood Cemetery, Littleton, N. H.

MUSIC GARDEN

The 25th year of the club's activities began last Monday evening, Oct. 9 when a largely attended, delightful meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Budd, 81 Walnut street.

President, Mrs. George Lochman presided over the business session and co-president, Mrs. Frank H. Knight had general charge of the musical period.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Carroll of 207 Highland avenue announce the birth of a son, Robert James, born at the Winchester Hospital on Sept. 23.

ANIMAL PAINTINGS AT LIBRARY

The Winchester Art Association, for its opening show of the fall season, is sponsoring an exhibition of animal paintings by Philip L. Martin, Elizabeth Ann Philbrick and Wesley Dennis in the art gallery of the public library.

Sportsmen, as well as those who find reproductions of animals intriguing, will find much in the show to please them. There is for instance that study of a moose by Mr. Martin, the big antlered beast bulking black against pale evergreens above a light foreground. The same artist has also painted a big black bear, muzzle down, under a scraggly spruce emerging from the blue of a deep forest background. Hunters' pulses will quicken at the Martin water color of a red fox, poised in a bit of light against the bole of a forked evergreen before a high log fence. Massive elephants forcing their way through light and dark green jungle past a group of lesser animals around a water-hole is still another Martin study to which the sportsman will come back. On the more domestic side are the water colors, Ox Cart, Kedron Tavern and Delaware Pasture, the latter full of restful somnolence with its sleek cattle contentedly cropping lush grass between tall cedars.

Miss Philbrick, a former resident of Winchester and daughter of the noted artist, Otis Philbrick, shows several very lifelike sketches of dogs, those of Timmy, an old English sheepdog; Peter, the head of a fine English setter; and Heidi and Hesta, black and tan Dachshunds; having especial appeal. Miss Philbrick also shows two nicely modeled bronze dogs and a humorous little cochin bantam hen done in sandstone. In addition there are two studies of a jaguar, showing the powerful muscles of this beautifully proportioned beast.

Mr. Dennis, noted for his studies of horses, shows a fine head of a thoroughbred, among others and a fine charcoal study of a Percheron which is the original for one of his well known Esquire series. The massive neck and splendid head of the heavy animal are beautifully done.

The Old Sorrell by Mr. Dennis is another fine study of a horse cantering, a horse still able to feel his oats a bit while enjoying the twilight of his career in the paddock. Also full of appeal is the painting entitled, just "Horse", a study of a real old timer with sagging body lines, and head down cropping grass in pasture.

The show remains on exhibition at the Library through October and is open to the public.

STOLEN CAR RECOVERED AFTER CHASE

After a chase of several miles through Medford and Somerville last Saturday afternoon Patrolmen Henry P. Dempsey and William E. Cassidy recovered in the latter city a Chevrolet sedan which the Boston Police had reported stolen less than one hour earlier.

Officer Dempsey first had his attention attracted to the car which was headed north in traffic on Main street and which had stopped for a red traffic light in front of Hevey's Pharmacy.

Thinking the boy at the wheel looked too young to have a license, Officer Dempsey approached the machine, but as he did so the operator started his car and drove around Hevey's corner into Mt. Vernon street.

Officer Dempsey spotted Officer Cassidy nearby in Patrol 51 and the pair immediately gave chase through Border road into the Parkway and Mystic avenue in Somerville.

There were two boys in the machine, and when they finally got in to a line of traffic on Mystic avenue they stopped the machine and took to their heels, running into a side street and making good their escape.

Officers Dempsey and Cassidy returned the stolen car to Winchester. It was registered to Evelyn M. Emery of 36 Bromfield street, Wollaston.

A THANK YOU

Contributions to the Salvation Army drive currently being held in Winchester have already exceeded the quota set for this community.

On behalf of the organization, Mrs. Benjamin T. Marshall, Jr., chairman of the Women's Division, wishes to thank all the women volunteers whose enthusiastic support has helped so tremendously to make the drive a success.

Additional solicitors whose names did not appear in a previous Star are: Mrs. John R. Russell, Mrs. Harold Rainey, Miss Ann DiMinico and Miss Mary DeTeso.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Human nature don't change much

"Keeping store," Sam Abernethy says, "can teach a person plenty about human nature.

"Now coffee rationing's lifted, folks ain't a-breakin' their necks tryin' to buy all they can. Knowin' they can have it if they want it, they ain't so all-fired anxious to get it."

Sam's right, as usual. I don't crave that second cup half as much as when I couldn't get it.

But that's human nature . . . Like allowing moderate beer in the Army's post exchanges. Instead of leading to more drinking, the OWI report says it works out just the opposite—often as not the men choose soda-pop or milk, with beer right there and no restrictions on it.

But if it wasn't there, like in the last War, the story might be altogether different.

From where I sit, that's how it is with Americans. Tell 'em they can't have a thing and by golly, they'll find ways to get it. But admit their right to have it, and their own good sense will lead to moderation.

SALVATION ARMY DRIVE

The Salvation Army is still busily engaged in its 1944-45 Greater Boston Maintenance Appeal for $400,000 and gratefully announces that several towns in the Metropolitan area, have already gone "over the top" as regards their own quotas, while others are rapidly approaching the peak of the hill.

More than one-quarter of a million dollars has been raised thus far. This indicates that the over-all total should be realized. It will be, if every division, in every town, will do its full share and see every prospective contributor.

Of the total of $400,000 required to operate the Salvation Army's 30 institutions in Greater Boston, $75,000 has been set aside for war-time services to our armed forces.

Whatever you contribute will help the Salvation Army to help those less fortunate than yourself.

The top leaders of the Winchester Division are: William N. Beggs, chairman; Mrs. Benjamin T. Marshall, Jr., chairman of Women's Division; Donald J. Lewis of the Winchester Trust Company, treasurer.

The local workers have reported collections of $4,081.14 to date.

BRUSH UP LUNCHEON

Red Feather Magic, the new technicolor movie of the Greater Boston United War Fund was introduced to a large and enthusiastic group of the Educational Division at a luncheon Tuesday, Oct. 10 in the charter room of the New England Mutual Building, Boston. Mrs. Lucy J. Franklin, Dean of Women at Boston University, was the principal speaker.

The Winchester Educational Division was represented by Mrs. Alexander MacDonald, Mrs. Sears Walker, Mrs. Robert Holmes and Mrs. Joseph Butler.

Air mail stationery in pads and single sheets; also boxed paper. Winchester Star, 3 Church street.

Boys' and Girls' Library

The following fall and winter program is now being offered to the children of Winchester in addition to the regular services now rendered.

Movies

Children may register through the week for movies for the following Saturday. As a means of increasing the reading interests already stimulated by the movies a section of books will be set aside and added to weekly to be known as the "Books About the Movies Section."

New Read a Book a Week Club

To interest the children in reading voluntarily the better books a new and different reading club will be started on Oct. 16. Any child from the 4th-8th grades may become a member by registering and agreeing to abide by the rules of the club.

Story Hour

The first weekly story hour will be held at 3 p. m. on Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 25. It will be necessary to limit these programs to children of school age only. Children may register now if they desire to attend.

Music Hour

Programs of musical recordings will be played on stormy afternoons or at other times upon the request of the children. These programs have been used with great success with the older boys and girls and this is an effort on our part to reach the younger children who might enjoy such programs as "Peter and the Wolf" and "The Jungle Book."

Special Notices

Members of the Summer Reading Club who have read five or more books and have not received a diploma may have them by calling at the Library.

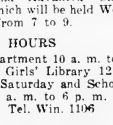

Teachers desiring books to be used by their classes in connection with their studies may have them for an unlimited time by applying through our school-loan service.

Spanish Classes in Winchester

If you are interested in learning Spanish from Latin American instructors, come to the Spanish Club meeting on Oct. 18 at 7.30 p. m. at the Library. At this meeting there will be opportunity to meet the instructors and to register for the Beginning and Advanced Classes in Spanish which will be held Wednesday evenings from 7 to 9.

TROOP 7 NEWS

Troop 7 started off well this year with almost perfect attendance of uniforms. Scoutmaster Casler built five patrol corner boxes for our five patrols. Each box is fully equipped with fire by friction sets, morse and semaphore signal flags and flint and steel kits.

Monday, Oct. 8, there were many new boys eager to pass tenderfoot requirements.

Jim McLaughlin proposed a troop newspaper which is now under way.

We think we can still hold our title, the best troop in Winchester!

Miss Joann S. Cavanogh of 6 David street and Miss M. F. Joyce of 2 Russell road spent the recent week-end in New York City. They were registered at the Hotel Victoria.

Winchester's Bill West, son of Mr and Mrs. John D. West of Wedgemere avenue, played Saturday in the West Point backfield against Brown. Big Monk, formerly a Naval Air Corps cadet, played last fall for Dartmouth. He is reported as well below his Dartmouth weight and about third string at West Point which would indicate that the "Kaydets" have a lot of superlative backfield players around. Bill is quite a halfback in his own right and the two boys playing ahead of him must be pretty good.

"Report to Judy" an exciting and informative short subject concerning the WAVES and their important work in the U. S. Navy will be shown at the Winchester Theatre on Oct. 15, 16, 17 and 18.

Former Selectman James A. Cullen has purchased a tractor.

Two hundred and fifty-five new names were added to the voting list on Monday and Tuesday of this week, bringing the total new voters added since June to 457. There are three more registration days next week, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, registration closing Wednesday at 10 p. m.

Miss Jessie Adams, a member of the family at the home for Aged People on Mt. Vernon street, is reported as ill at the Winchester Hospital. Mrs. Isabella Tufts, another member of the family, who is at the Winchester Hospital with a broken leg, is reported as getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Kelsea Moore, Jr. of 6 Oneida circle are the parents of a second daughter, Elizabeth Anne, born Oct. 6 at the Baker Memorial Hospital. Mrs. Moore was the former Margaret Taber Johnson. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Bascom Johnson of Pleasantville, N. Y. and Mrs. Hugh K. Moore of York Harbor, Me.

S-Sgt. Sam Elder of Cambridge street, is a radio mechanic with one of the first 9th Air Force medium bombardment groups to operate from French soil after the invasion. His group has been commended several times for its pre-invasion attacks, its precision bombing and for its current operations in support of ground troops. Sgt. Elder has been overseas for more than six months and wears the good conduct medal. Before entering the service he was an attorney.

Congratulations are being received by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Campbell of Boston on the birth of a son, Colin Woodrow Campbell on Oct. 8. Grandparents are Mrs. Alfonso S. Campbell of Ridgefield road and Mrs. Edward J. Deekman of Riverside Drive, New York City.

Mr. Henry A. Goddard of Wolcott road and son, Richard, returned Sunday from Manomet Bluffs where they spent the summer. The hurricane blew the roof from the sleeping porch of their cottage but fortunately neither Mr. Goddard nor his son was injured.

James F. Dwinell of this town is chairman of the meetings committee of the Boston Life Underwriter's Association which will hold a special meeting on Oct. 19 in the Hotel Statler.

MISSION UNION HOLDS SUCCESFUL MEETING

The Mission Union Guild of the First Congregational Church held its opening meeting on Tuesday, Oct. 10. In the morning work was continued on the projects for the November bazaar.

A delicious luncheon was served with Mrs. Warren Hersey and Mrs. Mitchael Kaknes as hostesses. Tables were set most attractively with green bowls of golden marigolds and green and gold candles. After lunch Mrs. Ralph Palmer of Arlington spoke briefly and effectively on the Community Fund Drive.

A business meeting, presided over by Mrs. Walter Winship, was then held in the ladies' parlor. Mrs. Erskine White announced plans for her white elephant table for the bazaar and asked for contributions.

Mrs. Lewis K. Snyder introduced the speaker of the afternoon who was the Rev. Earl W. Douglas, executive secretary of the Boston City Missionary Society. Rev. Douglas' subject, "Religious Social Work in Boston", brought to light interesting facts about the racial controversy. He was enjoyed by all as an outstanding speaker.

MR. BAILEY BEGINS A SERIES

Mr. Bailey begins a series of talks at the First Baptist Church on the general theme, "An Expanding Faith in a Contracting World."

The subject on Wednesday, Oct. 18 is "Enlarging Our Vision of the Kingdoms."

The period of friendly fellowship at the close of the service enables Mr. and Mrs. Bailey to become acquainted with the members of the parish more rapidly. Special guests Wednesday evening are those whose last name begins with the letters A, B and C inclusive.

All are welcome. Newcomers will find this an opportunity to meet many Winchester people.

WOMEN'S ALLIANCE

The Women's Alliance of the Unitarian Church held its first meeting of the season on Tuesday, Oct. 10. An appetizing luncheon was served at 1 o'clock under the chairmanship of Mrs. Richard Parkhurst and Mrs. Hollis W. Nickerson. The meeting followed at 2 o'clock with the president Mrs. Arthur G. Robbins in the chair.

The guests of the afternoon were our regional director Mrs. Oscar R. Frost of Beverly and Miss Stella P. Beard of Los Angeles, Cal., formerly of Boston.

The speaker of the afternoon, Rev. Raymond S. Johnson minister of the Old Ship Church in Hingham, gave a most enlightening and forceful address.

TWO FIRES SATURDAY

The Fire Department answered two alarms last Saturday, the first coming at 12.47 in the morning for a fire on Beggs and Cobb dump off Swanton street.

At 3.32 in the afternoon telephone box 65 was put on for a fire in the cellar of the home of Mr. J. Stanley Fudge, 19 Fairmount street. The fire was confined to some rubbish in the cellar and aside from that done by heavy smoke, there was little damage.

JUNIOR MRS. MEET

One of the interesting groups of women formed under the Special Interests Guild of the Women's Association of the First Congregational Church is a group known as the Junior Mrs. Members are mainly from the young married group and evening meetings are to be held in the hope that mothers of small children can come out for sociability and to make their contribution to church work.

Early in September a dessert meeting was held by Mrs. R. H. B. Smith, director of the Special Interests Guild, and plans were made by a small initial group.

Two weeks later a larger group met for evening coffee at the home of Dr. Howard J. Chidley. Mrs. Edwin R. Rooney presented plans for the bazaar and Mrs. W. Irving Plitt showed samples of lovely handiwork for the Junior Mrs.' table. A committee, headed by Mrs. Winslow Smith was appointed to nominate officers and further plans were made for this year's activities.

The first regular meeting of the Junior Mrs. was held Tuesday evening, Oct. 10 in the kindergarten room. Mrs. R. H. B. Smith presided at a short business meeting. Officers elected were Mrs. Arthur T. Rogde chairman and Mrs. George H. Gowdy secretary.

Those attending were: Mrs. Wallace Miller, Mrs. Richard Ashenden, Mrs. Wallace Snow, Mrs. Howard Wittet, Mrs. Q. S. Dearman, Mrs E. V. Burke, Mrs. G. H. Gowdy, Mrs. Wm. Speers, Mrs. Winslow Smith, Mrs. Irving Plitt, Mrs. F. M. Cooper, Mrs. Richard Emerson, Mrs. Walworth Williams, Mrs. Richard Lewis, Mrs. Dwight Bellows, Mrs. George Shafer, Mrs. Vaughan Harmon, Mrs. M. W. Mueller, Mrs. Richard Davenport.

Anyone is welcome to work with the group who feels like a Junior Mrs. Meetings will be held on the second and fourth Tuesday of each month.

Miss Margaret Ann Robinson of Springfield, Ill., has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Lobingier of Manchester road for the past 10 days.

MYSTIC MOTHERS' NOTES

At the board meeting held in the Mystic School on Tuesday, Oct. 10, it was announced that Mrs. James Willing will be the guest speaker of the Mystic Mothers' Association on Nov. 21. Her subject of discussion will be "Children's Books."

The sixth grade dancing class of which Mrs. Clinton Mason is chairman will have its opening date on Friday, Oct. 20 at 3.30 p. m. in the Mystic School hall.

It is hoped that every mother will be able to attend the outstanding event of the school year, the Autumn luncheon and bridge, on next Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 17 at 1.15 p. m. Plans have been made to have tables made up at the bridge for those who have not arranged for their own tables. The committees in charge of this affair have been working diligently to make it a success and they promise everyone who attends a most pleasant and enjoyable afternoon.

The Winchester Unitarian Church has recently installed mechanical stokers under their boilers.

TAKING SALVAGE PAPER

Men With Truck Caught by Police on Hancock Street

Two men with a 1½ ton truck, who the Police say were taking waste paper left on the sidewalk to be collected for the Civilian Defense paper salvage drive, were picked up by Patrolmen William Callahan and Augustine MacDonald at 7.15 Thursday morning on Hancock street in front of the residence of Mr. David McNeilly. The truck was about half loaded with waste paper and the Police say the owner admitted he had gotten practically all of it in Winchester.

At Headquarters the men gave their names as Peter Markiebitz of 180 Arlington street, Chelsea, and Constantine C. Troisi of 630 Main street, Wakefield. Troisi was driving the truck which was registered to Markiebitz.

At the District Court in Woburn Sgt. Thomas F. Cassidy asked for a complaint against the pair charging them with larceny from the Civilian Defense organization in Winchester. This was denied on the grounds that the waste paper taken had not gotten into the hands of the Civilian Defense and therefor was not its property. Another complaint charging the pair with larceny from persons unknown was also denied.

Finally a complaint was issued charging Markiebitz and Troisi with larceny of waste paper from David McNeilly. Markiebitz being held in $500 and Troisi in $300 for appearance in court next week Thursday. The pair were defended by counsel at Woburn on Thursday.

APPOINTED OFFICIAL TRAINER

At a meeting of the School Committee Monday evening it was voted to appoint Louis E. Goddu of Goddu avenue trainer for the high school football team.

Mr. Goddu has been serving as trainer for high school teams, especially for the football squad, for the past four seasons, without salary and in an unofficial capacity. It is not necessary to go into the amount of time, effort and actual cash he has put into the work. Those at all acquainted with athletics at Winchester High School know the fine job he has done with the boys, both in a physical sense and in the important field of character building.

Mr. Goddu's unofficial status was questioned by a member of the School Survey staff several weeks ago and certain legal aspects of his continuing to serve unofficially were brought to the attention of the School Committee.

As the result of the Committee's investigation and deliberations it was finally decided to appoint Mr. Goddu to his position as trainer officially, this action being taken after consultation with Henry Knowlton, director of athletics at high school, and Dr. Philip J. McManus, football squad physician.

SUNDAY TEA AT THE SEAMEN'S CLUB

Sunday, Oct. 22 at 5 o'clock, seamen from the seven seas will be eating Winchester sandwiches and cookies in at the Seamen's Club, Batterymarch street, Boston. Experience has taught that is prudent to make ready for a 100 guests. And these guests will be guests for whom home fare has a special flavor.

Mrs. Alfred Donley will be glad to have offers of sandwiches and cakes. Her phone is Win. 2320. Mrs. Whitelaw Wright is her committee on getting the food from Winchester to Boston.

Some ehore, a tea for 100, and seven miles from home. Can do, say these expert Winchester friends of men in uniform. But help will be cordially welcome on this tea for men ashore in a strange city on a Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Merrill have been spending the week in Montreal and Quebec.

"SUPPORT YOUR WAR FUND" SAYS WINCHESTER WAR HERO

Exclusive to Winchester Star

Ask any of the kids in town if they know Clifford Lindberg.

"Sure," they'll answer. We know Cliff! For it wasn't long ago, that this tall, brown-haired youngster was one of the coke crowd with rolled trousers and a pork-pie hat. He graduated from Winchester High with the class of 1942. His kid sister, Phyllis, is a junior there now.

Today, Cliff is a veteran back from the wars. He's Staff Sgt. Clifford Lindberg now. As a tail gunner on a B-24, he's seen ation during 50 missions over Germany, Austria, Yugoslavia, and many other countries. On his 18th mission, his plane was hit by flak over Rumania and was forced down in Turkey. He was interned for many weeks.

We talked with Cliff at the home of his grandparents, the Fred Langs at 5 New Meadows road. Like most of the kids that have come home on a furlough, he doesn't say much about what it's like over there.

After all, there's not much you can say to folks who have never seen war. You can't even believe it . . . unless you've faced its thundering terror for days on end. You go hour after hour without rest, without letup. You see your buddies go down, but you've got to keep going through the blaze and blackness to a point of nightmarish exaustion.

No, Cliff didn' do much talking about himself, but he had plenty to say about you.

"I've seen your United War Fund banners around town," he said. "I wish the folks who give their dollars knew how much it meant to us guys.

"Pin-up girls are okay," he said, "but when Ingrid Bergman, Mitzi Mayfair, Paulette Goddard or some other Hollywood beauty shows up with a USO camp show . . . well, for an hour or two Joe feels that maybe this isn't such a bad war.

"There are plenty of other kids, not big names, that have come over, too, and made the boys feel like the folks back home hadn't forgotten them. One girl named Louise Abritton, gave a USO show to some boys in a hospital ward. One fellow on a cot told her he had lost his right eye. The doc's coming soon to take out the other. You'll be the last thing I'll ever see in this world, if you could stay with me until, I'd be a lot happier . . .

"She didn't answer. She couldn't. She just held his hand until they came and wheeled him into the operating room and put him under.

"Then there are plenty of G. I.'s in prison camps, too. They'd go nuts if it wasn't for the books, games, instruments and things you folks send over."

Cliff had a lot to say about the help you've given to War Relief. "I've seen long lines of people who had been bombed out of their homes who wouldn't have had any food or clothing if somebody over here hadn't cared."

Cliff paused for a moment at this point. "I guess I've been doing a lot of talking about what's happening over there. But I know the United War Fund also helps folks over here. Lots of them are service families. You can't send home much on a private's pay, so I guess there are lots of people right here who'd be pretty much up against it if it weren't for your clinics, hospitals, and other relief agencies."

Well, that's about the sum and substance of our interview with Staff Sgt. Clifford Lindberg of Winchester High's class of 1942. It sort of made us think. We're wondering if it does the same to you.

ROSS—BACON

Miss Jeannette Bacon, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. Charles N. Bacon of Grove street and Lt. Robert Thomas Ross, USA, Signal Corps, son of Mr. Thomas Ross of Arverne, Long Island, N. Y., and the late Mr. Ross, were married Sunday afternoon, Oct. 8, at 2:30 o'clock in the rectory of St. Mary's Church. Only members of the immediate families attended the ceremony which was performed by St. Mary's pastor, Rev. Fr. John P. O'Riordan.

The double ring service was used and was followed by a reception in the home of the bride's parents. Assisting in receiving were the matron of honor and best man, the mother of both the bride and bridegroom and Mrs. Charles F. Bacon of this town, grandmother of the bride. The bride' father is on active duty with the Army overseas.

The bride wore a white gown having a boned satin bodice and full marquisette skirt. Her matching fingertip-length veil was caught to a Juliet cap embroidered with seed pearl and she carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums and stephanotis.

Mrs. Nancy Curtis Bacon of Interlaken, N. J., sister-in-law of the bride was matron of honor and the bride's only attendant. She wore a dress of pink marquisette with a sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice and full skirt. Her net headdress matched her gown and she carried a bouquet of pink chrysanthemums. Lt. Kenneth Forsberg of Minnesota was Lt. Ross' best man.

Lt. and Mrs. Ross are making their home for the present in Boston. The bride is a graduate of Winchester High School and attended Lasell Junior College. Lt. Ross graduated from New York University in the class of 1942. He was graduated from Officer Candidate School at Fort Monmouth and is now taking special courses at Mass. Institute of Technology.

SONATA RECITAL

Mr. Joshua Phippen of Myrtle terrace, eminent pianist, for the second in his series of piano sonatas Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr and Mrs. Walter L. Rice, on the Parkway, played the following program: Mozart, Kanteesia and Sonata; Beethoven, Adagio cantabile from the Sonata Pathetique; and Schumann, Sonata in G Minor.

A group of music lovers enjoyed a rare treat as they listened to Mr. Phippen's masterly playing. Adding to their pleasure were the artist's explanations of the background of the music played and the interesting highlights in connection with each selection.

OPEN HOUSE AT JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL OCT. 26

At a board meeting of the Junior High School Associates Monday evening, plans were made for open house at the Junior High School on Thursday, Oct. 26 at 7:30.

In former years the money raising project for the Scholarship Fund, took the form of a concert or play. This year, owing to the many activities in town this season, it was voted to ask for donations at open house instead.

Bring along some extra change to help the Scholarship Fund.

MRS. AITKIN XMAS SEAL CHAIRMAN

Mrs. Alexander Aitken was named chairman of the 1944 Christmas Seal Committee in Winchester this week. Names of other committee members will be announced later.

Mrs. Aitken hopes that the excellent spirit of co-operation shown by Winchester residents will be present again this year.

All activities which the committee will plan to make the Winchester Seal Sale successful will be announced as they are developed.

MISS PHELPS ELECTED

Miss Jeanne Phelps, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Phelps of Grassmere avenue, was elected to the executive committee of the Western Division of the New York Physical Education Association at a meeting of the organization held on Wednesday, Oct. 11. A graduate of Winchester High School and of Wellesley, Miss Phelps is teaching at Buffalo Seminary in Buffalo, N. Y.

Miss Ann Jennings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Jennings of 127 Church street, has entered House in the Pines Junior College, Norton.

CAPT. SNOW AWARDED SILVER STAR

Word nas just been received by Mr. and Mrs. L. Ellsworth Snow of 14 Glen road that their son Capt. George L. Snow (Bud) has been awarded the silver star for gallantry in action in Sicily on Aug. 5, 1943.

The order reads as follows:

"Under the provisions of Army Regulations 600-45, as amended, a silver star is awarded the following named individual:

George L. Snow 22nd. O-497284, Capt., (then 1st lieutenant), field Artillery, Headquarters Battery, 3rd Infantry Division Artillery, for gallantry in action. On 5 August 1943, near Sicily, when the 7th Field Artillery Battalion came under heavy counterbattery fire, Capt. Snow received the operator of a radio car in order that the latter might dig a foxhole. Although enemy shell burst within 6 to 20 yards of his elevated and unprotected vehicle, killing one man and injuring 11 in its immediate vicinity, Capt. Snow refused to leave the radio and for one and one half hours continued to service vital fire missions ultimately establishing communications with a reinforcing unit that enabled counterbattery fire to be brought to bear upon and effectively silence the enemy guns.

Capt. Snow attained his present rank at the age of 22. He has been overseas with the 3rd Division since 1942. This division has seen action in Africa and Sicily with the 7th Army under General Patton, in Italy, including the Anzio beachhead, with the 5th Army under General Clark; took part in the invasion of Southern France and is now fighting under General Patch.

HARRY GREEN BEYER

Harry Green Beyer of 27 Sargent road, Boston trustee and past grand chancellor of the Knights of Pythias, died suddenly Saturday morning, Oct. 14, at his summer home in Deerfield, N. H., following a heart attack. He had lived in Winchester for 15 years, coming here from Cambridge.

Mr. Beyer was born in Roxbury Jan. 12, 1867, son of John and Ellen Beyer. He was educated in the Boston schools and studied law at Northeastern University. As a young man he worked for financial and textile newspapers, but in 1902 he entered the office of Richard M. Saltonstall, father of Governor Saltonstall, remaining associated with the business interest of the Saltonstall family for more than 40 years. For a time he was associated with the late Leverett Saltonstall Tuckerman at 53 State street and at the time of his death shared this same office with John Saltonstall, the Governor's cousin, as a trustee for several estates.

Mr. Beyer was prominent in the Knights of Pythias, besides being past grand chancellor being past supreme representative of the order, going out of office last year. He was also a Mason, a member of St. Paul's Royal Arch Chapter, Boston Commandery, Knights Templar; and Aleppo Temple of the Mystic Shrine. He was past patron of Cambridge Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star.

On Feb. 18, 1901, Mr. Beyer married Jennie Heron of Cambridge. Besides his wife he leaves a son, Maj. Robert W. Beyer, formerly of this town, now in the Army Air Forces stationed at Aloe Army Air Field, Victoria, Texas.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Central Square Baptist Church in Cambridge. Rev. Chellis V. Smith of Hyde Park, supreme representative of the Knights of Pythias delivered the eulogy and favorite hymns were sung by the Milton Quartet. Interment was in Mt. Auburn Cemetery.

PARISH PLAYERS PRESENT "LADIES OF THE JURY" NOV. 3 - 4

The Parish Players of Winchester will open their 19th season in the Little Theatre Beneath the Spire, First Congregational Church, on Friday and Saturday evenings, Nov. 3, 4, with the famous comedy, "Ladies of the Jury." This comedy, a Broadway success played by Mrs. Fiske, Mary Boland, Alice Brady and other stars, is a classic of the theatre.

"Hilariously funny," N. Y. Times.

"The brightest comedy yet written about a trial," Chicago Tribune.

"A glittering, glamorous evening's entertainment", N. Y. Telegram.

"A delightful, sparkling comedy, the best entertainment given here this season", St. Louis Star.

RECEPTION FOR REV. AND MRS. WALTER LEE BAILEY

A reception was held at the First Baptist Church on Tuesday night for the Rev. and Mrs. Walter Lee Bailey. It was an event long to be remembered by those who attended.

Preceding the reception a service of Recognition was held in the sanctuary under the leadership of the Deacon Board.

A welcome was extended on behalf of the Town of Winchester by Mr. Elliott Cameron, chairman of the Board of Selectmen. In a few well chosen words he expressed on behalf of the community the desire to co-operate with the clergy and the opportunities which Mr. Bailey would have for service here.

The Rev. Clark T. Brownell, who served as interim pastor of the church for the past year, paid a tribute to the people of Winchester, referring to them as a forward looking and upward looking people and told Mr. Bailey he would find as fine a group of christian people as could be found anywhere.

The Rev. Dwight W. Hadley, rector of the Church of the Epiphany represented the Winchester Ministers' Association and stated that as a group they welcomed Mr. Bailey's fellowship and would co-operate with him in carrying on the work of the Kingdom.

A welcome to the Mass. Baptist Convention was extended by Rev. Isaac Bigginbotham, general secretary. Clasping the hand of Mr. Bailey he delivered a warm greeting, spoke of Mr. Bailey's ability as a minister and of the good of the Baptist Church in the community. He also informed the people of their responsibility to help the minister carry the responsibilities which have been placed on him.

The welcome on behalf of the church was extended by Lewis M. Foster, chairman of the Deacon Board. He spoke of his first contacts with Mr. Bailey and also of some of the reasons Mr. Bailey was called to his new field of service. Especially he called attention to the fact that our boys and girls are fighting throughout the world for us and it is necessary for the Church at home to keep America safe for them on their return. He extended on behalf of the people a pledge of co-operation in carrying out the expanded program of the church and expressed the desire of the people to share their joys, their sorrows, their triumphs and their defeats with Mr. and Mrs. Bailey as they come to serve the church and community. Under Mr. Bailey's dynamic leadership we look forward to a fruitful ministry which will increase the influence of our church in the community.

At the reception the receiving line was made up Deacon and Mrs. Lewis M. Foster, Rev. and Mrs. Bailey, and Mrs. F. Price Wilson and Mrs. Clark T. Brownell.

Music was furnished by Mr. Gunnar Ekman and Helen Palmer MacDonald.

Refreshments were served by a large group of women from the church headed by the co-chairmen of social committee, Mrs. John A. Finger and Mrs. Englebert H. Garrison.

FAIR PLAY

Would mean that if our boys have gone over there to protect our lives and sacred traditions we over here should be willing to do our part to protect their lives and guarantee them a safe return.

Wounded Amer can boys will be at the front unless an adequate supply of rare blood and plasma is available to meet the growing need in a great emergency.

Winchester is woefully behind its quota which must mean that many of our loyal citizens are missing an opportunity to fulfill a sacred obligation.

Anxiously waiting attendants are present at the blood donor office, 2 Mt. Vernon street daily from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. to arrange for appointments and necessary transportation.

When the history of the war is written may it be said that Winchester always was found ready to do its part in the great fight for victory.

FORMER WINCHESTER BOY MISSING

Lt. Lewis R. Pickering, a former Winchester boy and son of the late Harry J. Pickering who was for years associated with the New England Laundries in Winchester and Springfield, has been reported as missing in action in the European Theater of operations. He was attached to the field artillery.

Lt. Pickering spent his boyhood in Winchester, attending the Winchester schools. He graduated from Boston University and was living in Springfield before entering the service more than two years ago. He is married and was representing the Wadsworth-Howland paint firm in Springfield territory at the time he went into the Army. He is a nephew of Mr. Dana Pickering of Hemingway street.

FORMER WINCHESTER MAN MISSING

Pfc. William H. Russell, of Wilmington, formerly of this town, is reported as missing in action in France as of Sept. 21. Pvt. Russell, who was in the infantry, moved from Winchester about four years ago. His wife, the former Doris Mills of Washington street, makes her home in Wilmington, as does his brother, John J. Russell.

WINCHESTER DISTRICT NURSING ASSOCIATION

On Friday, Oct. 13, 23 directors and members attended a meeting of the Winchester District Nursing Association, held at the home of its president, Mrs. Harlow Russell.

Those present were Mesdames Chatfield, Coulson, Dwinell, Higgins, C. Russell, Huckins, Johnson, Jope, Kugler, Pond, E. Russell, Spaulding, Willing, Thompson, White, Young, Ayer, Blanchard, Brown, Greiner, Hood, Marshall, Snyder and Waldron.

The Nursing Committee reported on a study of personnel policies, which will be acted upon after further revision.

The main topic of the meeting was a discussion of Public Relations in the Public Health Nursing Field based on an article by Mr. Horace Hughes in the July issue of Public Health Nursing.

Mrs. James Russell conducted the discussion assisted by Miss Alice D. Peterson, R. N., of the Winchester District Nursing Association staff.

Through the generosity of En Ka, a hospital bed has been purchased. This bed is to be the property of the District Nursing Association, for rental at a nominal fee by residents of Winchester, and is housed by the Winchester Hospital.

The services of the district nurse are available to all residents of Winchester. Care is given under the supervision of a doctor. Calls may be placed through Win. 1900.

COASTER STRUCK CAR

Sunday forenoon while coasting on a cart from te walk on the easterly side of the Noonan School into Canal street, 5 year old Arthur MacArthur of 60 Canal street collided with a Plymouth sedan, headed west on Canal street and driven by Arthur B. Harron of 86 Middlesex street.

Mr. Harron told the police he swung his car to the extreme left of the street and stopped but that the youngster's cart ran into the right side of the machine. The cart tipped over throwing the boy to the street.

Apparently he was not injured. His mother, Mrs. Rosa V. MacArthur took him into his home and reported to the police that so far as she could ascertain he was uninjured

FLORENCE CRITTENTON CIRCLE

The first meeting of the Florence Crittenton Circle was held Monday in the spacious, newly decorated home of Mrs. Elisha G. Pierce. A large number of members came to greet the new president, Mrs. Walter W. Winship, on her first day in office. Mrs. Winship introduced the new minister of the Baptist Church, Dr. Walter Bailey, who offered the prayer. The president greeted the new members, Mrs. F. W. Allison, Mrs. Forest Barsley, Mrs. Frederick Calhoun, Mrs. Robert Cummins, Mrs. Thornton Cutler, Mrs. Paul Dunn, Mrs. J. George Gange, Mrs. William Goodhue, Mrs. C. M. Hamilton, Mr. H. A. Hill, Mrs. Alan Hovey, Mrs. Willard Hudson, Mrs. Harold M. Jones, Mrs. Harvey Macauley, Mrs. William E. Martens, Mrs. Stanley E. Monk, Mrs. Murray S. Moore, Mrs. Harry Murdock, Mrs. Curtis Nash, Mrs. Frederick L. Oliver, Mrs. W. L. Parsons, Mrs. Henry A. Poveleite, Mrs. Selwyn E. Prime, Mrs. J. W. Robertson, Mrs. Leon F. Sargent and Miss Mildred Stone.

Mrs. Harold Blanchard, bazaar chairman, announced that a pre-bazaar sale of handkerchiefs, aprons and hats would be held following the program and urged the support of the annual bazaar to be held Dec. 5 and 6 at the Copley Plaza Hotel, Boston. Miss Gretchen Stone spoke of the auction which is to be held at the bazaar. Mrs. Bogue described the gift page in the bazaar program which lists the Circle contributors. Mrs. John G. Pennimanconducted the first sewing meeting to be held Nov 10 at 10 a. m. at the home of Mrs. James R. Cove, 8 Fenway.

The social of the afternoon was the former president of the Circle, Mrs. Harold Blanchard. Mrs. Blanchard impersonated at the piano the lovely C Major Sonata by Scarlatti and delightfully ended the 14st Second Hungarian Rhapsody.

Mr. Edward E. Whiting, formerly writer of Whiting's Column in the Boston Herald, was the speaker. Mr. Whiting in his usual amusing fashion gaveh is own recipe for "What Makes People Act So." He gave many human interest examples of personality traits in people he has observed, both great and small.

Tea was served with attractively decorated sandwiches. Mrs. William C. Cusack and Mrs. Langley C. Keyes were the pourers.

Air mail stationery in pads and single sheets; also boxed paper. Winchester Star, 3 Church street.

MISS AVERY LECTURE

"At the Crossroads of the War" is the subject to be discussed by Miss Eunice Harriet Avery in the opening lecture of her Winchester series which will be given Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 25, in the Wyman School Hall.

This year the Winchester Smith College Club which sponsors the talks in support of its scholarship fund has announced a change of time from 2:30 to 3 o'clock and a shortened one-hour lecture. In this way the club hopes that more mothers dependent upon high school nurse girls will find it possible to attend.

Miss Avery spent the summer months traveling throughout Mexico, Canada and our Western United States and her comments on current problems will prove highly interesting to her ever-growing audiences. The other lecture dates are Nov. 8, Dec. 6, Jan. 3, 17 and 31, Feb. 14 and 28, March 14 and April 6, the final lecture to be given by Dr. Hans Kohn, noted modern historian.

Mrs. Benjamin T. Marshall, Jr., lecture chairman, will have assisting her Mrs. Oliver Andrews, Mrs. Robert B. Blackler, Mrs. Burton W. Cary, Mrs. E. V. Chapman, Mrs. James R. Doty, Mrs. Clinton E. Farnham, Mrs. Vincent Farnsworth, Jr., Mrs. Merton Grush, Miss Helen Hall, Mrs. Geoffrey C. Kelley, Mrs. Prescott F. Wild.

Ushers announced for the first lecture are Mrs. George Clark and Mrs. Oliver Andrews. Mrs. Benjamin T. Marshall, Jr., and Mrs. Robert B. Blackler will be at the ticket table.

Among the early subscribers are: Mrs. Frederic E. Abbe, Mrs. W. T. Adden, Mrs. E. Everett Arnold, Mrs. H. Bingham Ballou, Mrs. Elias S. Berlanger, Mrs. Clinton W. Bennett, Mrs. Leo Blaisdell, Mrs. F. Milne Blanchard, Mrs. M. C. Bouve, Mrs. Reginald Bradlee, Mrs. George M. Bryne, Mrs. A. C. Buffum, Mrs. George W. Bunnell, Mrs. Joseph L. NOBLE—NICHOLSON

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Christina Nicholson of Glace Bay, Nova Scotia, to Lt. Fred A. Noble, USA. Corps of Engineers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick F. Noble of Spruce street. The marriage took place at Glace Bay on Wednesday, Oct. 11.

A reception and shower for Lt. Noble and his bride was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents on Saturday evening, Oct. 14, with guests present from Woburn, Everett, Medford and Dover as well as from this town.

The house was attactively decorated with pink and white streamers, from which were suspended tiny umbrellas of the same colors. As a centerpiece for the living room there was a large pink and white umbrella which was filled with confetti. A buffet luncheon was served with a handsomely decorated bridal cake as the centerpiece for the serving table.

On the day following the reception Lt. Noble and his bride left for Spokane, Wash., where the bridegroom is on Army duty and where they plan to make their home.

ENGAGEMENT OF INTEREST

Mr. and Mrs. W. Franklin Stroud, Jr., (Gertrude Mayo) of Moorestown, N. J., announce the engagement of their daughter, Virginia, to the Rev. David McAlpine Pyle of Merchantville, N. J.

Miss Stroud, who is the granddaughter of Mrs. Marcus B. May of Sheffield road, is a graduate of the Moorestown High School and of Bucknell University, class of 1942. She is at present attending the Pennsylvania Hospital School of Nursing.

The Rev. Mr. Pyle is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David H. McAlpine Pyle of Far Hills, N. J. He is a graduate of Groton School and of Princeton University, class of 1936. He went to Japan with Ambassador Joseph C. Grew as private secretary, returning to this country in 1939.

Entering the General Theological Seminary in New York, Rev. Mr. Pyle was graduated in 1942, and was ordained to the priesthood on Oct. 10, 1942, by the Right Rev. Wallace J. Gardiner, Episcopal Bishop of New Jersey.

He served for a year as curate at Merchantville and has remained there as priest in-charge after the departure of the rector, the Rev. James Richards, for service in the Army Air Forces.

Miss Parkhurst desires to encourage the Study of Music and Piano by Adults. To be able to play one's favorite Symphony or a piece by a noted composer need not mean drudgery but real enjoyment. She would advise ensemble playing of all kinds.

It is a deplorable condition for young people of high school age to discontinue the study of an Art which means so much to them in later life.

GAS . . . THE WONDER COOKING FUEL

NOW SPEEDS WAR PRODUCTION

More planes, ships, tanks and guns, is the order of the day. Naturally, Gas, that wonder cooking fuel, is helping to perform miracles in turning them out. For Gas is clean . . . fast . . . accurately controlled and is low in cost. Gas readily adapts itself to heat treating metals and to other processes vital to war production. The same advantages which make Gas the American homemakers' favorite fuel, also make it the favorite of American industry in war or peace

WORD FROM AN "OLD TIMER"

The Star received this week a letter from Lt. Col. Robert M. Hamilton, former well known Winchester High athlete, now with the Army Quartermaster Corps somewhere in France. Bob was over there in the first World War and claims there surely is a great difference between the two conflicts.

The Colonel claims he will never want to go camping again as he has lived in either a tent or pup tent ever since he left the states and is by now very expert in living "out of a helmet" including the fine art of taking a bath. He was stationed at one of the large French seaports when he wrote, but did not expect to remain there long.

Among the highlights of his stay in England before going across the channel were three visits with his son, Lt Sheldon Hamilton, USAQMC, former Star linotype operator. Bob beat his son to France and claims you just naturally can't keep the old timers down.

STONEHAM HERE TOMORROW

Winchester plays its annual football game tomorrow afternoon with Stoneham on Manchester Field at 2:30.

Stoneham is one of the oldest teams on Winchester's football list, the rivalry going back for well over 30 years. While the locals have generally had the edge, Stoneham has always waged a stout fight, even against odds and has on occasion upset the local applecart when least expected to do so.

In this connection no fan of recent years will have forgotten the game of two seasons ago when the light blue from Stoneham threw away a victory over Winchester's unbeaten, untied Class "I championship team in the very last minute of play. Bill West pulled that one out of the fire, but he never should have had the chance to do so. We think no one will ever sell Stoneham short after seeing that game.

This season, of course, Winchester is favored. The locals have a big capable club with plenty of reserve strength. They should and probably will beat Stoneham, but the visitors can be depended upon to give the favored local boys a real run for their money.

Stoneham generally brings over a good crowd to Winchester, and this year with its unbeaten, untied team should be no exception. The local boys' fine play to date has built up quite a following and with Winchester one of the high scoring teams in Eastern Massachusetts quite a few will want to get down Saturday for a peek at the Red and Black.

Over the past 19 years Winchester has beaten Stoneham 13 times, lost four and tied two games. It beat Lexington 32-6, while Stoneham won from the Minutemen, 19-6. Everything points to a local victory, just as it did two years ago! The Star, however, looks for no repetition of that nightmare and figures Winchester to win by a comfortable margin.

BROWN TROPHY PLAY ENDS

The match play for the Maurice F. Brown Trophy at the Winchester Country Club ended Sunday afternoon. The winners of the tournament were Mrs. Ivar Hakanson and Mr. Lloyd Williams. They each received a sterling silver Paul Revere Bowl and their names have been engraved on the beautiful silver cup which is the permanent trophy donated by Mrs. Brown, in memory of her husband, who was one of the charter members of the Country Club.

The runners-up in the main event were Mrs. Fred Lynch and Dr. Frank Gerry. The winners of the consolation round were Mr. and Mrs. Alan Howard of Glen road, who defeated Miss Adelaide Homer and Mr. Evander French.

The winners of the second flight were Mrs. Charles Ordway and Mr. Fritz Craven, who won from Mrs. Stanley McNeilly and Mr. Otis Leary. The consolation round in the second flight was won by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fryer, who defeated Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Hayes.

There were 43 couples who played a qualifying round to enter the tournament. In this play Mrs. Donald Belcher and her partner Mr. George Farray won the low gross score with an 82. Mr. and Mrs. Irving Plitt and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wanskor tied for first net with a score of 68-67 and 86-67 respectively. Dr. and Mrs. Robert Blackler had the second net with a score of 86-69.

This tournament has created more widespread interest in golf among the members than any other tournament in years and the donation of the cup has filled a need that has long been lacking to stimulate mixed foursome play.

FORMER FOOTBALL PLAYER MET COACH IN ITALY

The Star received this week a letter from Dave Holmes, "Mr. Five by Five," former Winchester High School football lineman and son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Holmes of Lakeview road.

"Dave" is now playing a much bigger game with the 149th Bomber Group of the United States Army Air Forces somewhere in Italy and on Oct. 10 he was delighted to meet his old assistant football coach, Major Edward A. Bartlett, Winchester High School faculty member, who has been overseas with the Air Forces for quite a while.

Needless to state each was delighted to see the other and the resulting gabfest included old football days at high school and talking over mutual friends and acquaintances in and out of the service.

Of especial interest to the Star reporter is "Dave's" writing that Bart is looking swell and is sporting a very suave mustache. We feel sure that many of Major Bartlett's friends will be glad to know of this.

Dave writes that Italy may have been picturesque once but now gives a very vivid picture of poverty and despair. He has visited Naples, Pompeii and Mt. Vesuvius and found them very interesting places.

SGT. McFARLANE GOT HIS STEERS

Sgt. Donald J. McFarlane, supervisor of radio communications for the Metropolitan District Police and a resident of Bonad road, had a chance to put his markmanship to the test last Sunday. The sergeant is well known as a pistol shot and apparently he is equally good with a rifle.

As he was leaving the radio laboratory at the Speedway Station he was informed that two steers had broken out of the Brighton abattoir. Jumping into a Police cruiser, Sgt. McFarlane went in search of the animals and found them on Dyke road off Soldier's Field road. He brought them down with two rifle shots which for any one but Superman is par for the course.

RECEIVED SERVICE HONOR

Margaret Best of 16 Hillside avenue was among the 87 alumnae in the women's services to be honored Oct. 12 at Colby Junior College, New London, N. H., when a Colby service flag was unfurled at a special Founders' Day assembly. A member of the British Women's Auxiliary Territorial Service, Miss Best graduated from Colby in 1939 and is now stationed in England.

HERBERT L. BALDWIN
MEN'S CLUB OF UNITARIAN CHURCH

"Railroads—Now, and After the War" will be the subject of a talk by Herbert L. Baldwin, of 5 Ardley place, before the Men's Club of the Unitarian Church on Monday, Oct. 23. Baldwin, who is publicity manager of the Boston and Maine Railroad and the Maine Central Railroad, will be the supper speaker for the club that evening.

He will discuss the part which the railroads will play in the country's transportation picture after the end of hostilities, with particular reference to the thought of many that airplanes will replace the railroads as the country's principal and most important transportation system. He will also discuss the plans which the two largest Northern New England Railroads already have made for new railroad equipment and service at the end of the war.

A question period will follow the talk. Baldwin, an especially well-informed railroad executive, will answer queries as to railroads.

"INFORMATION PLEASE"

"Information, Please" which is to be presented Nov. 10 by the Winchester Mothers' Association, is to be a completely unrehearsed program. The proceeds from this entertainment will go to the Scholarship Fund.

Mrs. Paul B. Elliott is in charge of this event. Assisting her on the ways and means committee are Mrs. James H. Coon, Mrs. George A. Marks, and Mrs. Lyman B. Smith. Mrs. Dana D. Sawyer is in charge of tickets, with the following committee to help her: Mrs. K. Foster Cleaves, Mrs. Donald C. Davis, Mrs. Morris T. Freeman, Mrs. Robert A. Johnston, Mrs. Nelson T. Joiner, Mrs. John Lutes, Mrs. Ernest E. Parker and Mrs. W. Campbell Ross.

The program is being handled by Mrs. Robert W. MacArthur. On her committee are Mrs. Daniel R. Beggs, Jr., Mrs. Theodore H. Elliott, Mrs. James F. Dwinell, Jr., Mrs. Frederick M. Ives, Jr., Mrs. Thornton C. Jesdale, Mrs. Don R. Kroell, Mrs. John I. Lynch, Mrs. Frank W. Marshall, Mrs. Roger F. McTighe, Mrs. C. C. Peter, Mrs. Charles F. Wilson, Mrs. Edwin W. Zimmerman and Mrs. B. Edward Zinn.

Mrs. Arthur M. Jackson is in charge of ushers, and Mrs. Richard J. Clark of publicity. The piano will be played by Mrs. Marion Edwards and Boardman O'Connor is to be stage manager.

FIRST GUEST NIGHT AT CANTEEN TONIGHT

Tonight, Friday, the 20th, will be the first guest night at the Red and Black Canteen. Up to this time the Canteen has been open only to regular members who are automatically members because they are students at the high school. This has given no opportunity for girls to bring out of town boy friends, for boys to bring out of town girl friends and it has even closed the doors to the graduates of the last few high school classes.

Tonight therefore will be an experiment in that each Sophomore, Junior and Senior may bring a guest provided that guest is under 21 years. Because of the limitations of the size of the Red and Black Canteen quarters, it was necessary to take some measure to prevent over-crowding and for that reason freshmen are being left out of tonights affair, though provision will be made for them at some other time on a guest night.

Both the Canteen committee and the Canteen Advisory Committee have been meeting regularly to find ways and means of making the Canteen as useful and interesting to the members as possible, and also to protect the interests of the town people. It seems to be the general feeling that though no such project can hope to operate without some criticism, the first month of its existence has proven that the young people want such a club, and that it can be conducted for the benefit of many, and the inconvenience of a very few.

Through a misunderstanding a group of Junior High School students appeared at the Canteen with the understanding that membership had been extended to include them. It is hoped that this can be arranged, but such plans have not been completed as yet. First there must be a time found when the Canteen can be used for them and second there will have to be an operating or central committee of Junior High students.

NEWMAN RE-ELECTED COMMODORE

Jim Newman, Commodore of the Winchester Boat Club in 1943 and 1944, was unanimously chosen to continue in office for 1945, at last Friday's annual business meeting. This means a third term for genial Jim, but although he specifically stated in his acceptance speech that he didn't feel that he, too, was an indespensable man, the club members and directors know that he is.

Jim has all the necessary assets of a capable commodore. First and foremost, he's a swell guy. Members or strangers meet Jim and like him and feel he's their friend. Second, he's extremely clever with tools. If all the things that Jim has fixed up around the club this year from boats to barrels, were billed at Union carpenter's rates, the club's treasurer would have to write a mighty fat check. Third, Jim has "Birdie", his charming wife. Whether it's a clam bake, a Kaffee Klatch or a cribbage contest, Mrs. Newman is right on deck doing an amazingly efficient job of seeing that everything goes off smoothly.

And so, instead of congratulating Jim on his re-election, we congratulate the club on being able to have Jim and Birdie directing the club doings for another season.

The other officers elected were:
Vice Comdr., Everett Littlefield
Secretary, Thomas Hoover
Treasurer, Martin Swanson

Directors, John Allen, Sidney Burr, Carl Geyer, H. Arthur Hall, William Hall, Robert Hight, Stanley Howe, Jeffrey Nelly, Bartholomew Sullivan.

Snow Snares Sherman Trophy

For the second successive season, Jim Snow and his Salome won the Allen Sherman Memorial Trophy, but only after a bitter battle with Bill Hall.

As the series entered its sixth and final race, here were four boats virtually tied for first place, Snow's Salome, Hall's Rondie, Sullivan's Hawkeye 3rd and the Swanson brothers By-George. Sailing in the stiffest breeze of the season, Jim jumped to an early but slim lead over Bill Hall and Ralph Swanson and held his narrow margin for almost two laps. On the second windward beat, Bill Hall split tacks with Jim repeatedly and finally managed to round the marker for the third and final lap about three boat lengths to the good.

But Jim wasn't to be denied. On the next reach, he swept by Bill again and by virtue of some sensational tacking and covering, managed to beat Bill over the finish line by a mere five seconds.

Swanson's By-George found the heavy weather not to its liking and wound up a rather reluctant third.

Club Chatter

The chowder served at the annual club business meeting was prepared by the women of the entertainment committee. The mere fact that some 25 gallons of it were consumed in jig time attests to its tastiness. The women did a swell job and deserve a big hand. So, too, the many members who brought forth those beautiful apple pies . . . As is usually the case when there's food around Weenie Pratt was on deck for the business meeting . . . Most of the boats have been hauled out and stored and the only remaining chore is to bring in the rafts and docks. How about a few of you husky members showing up about 10:30 Sunday morning and lending a hand at the final tucking away of the club? We promise you'll be home in time for lunch . . . This is the last listless line of chatter for this season because yours truly is strictly a sun worshipper and as of this moment goes into hibernation for the duration of the winter).

BUNTEN AN LSM QUARTERMASTER

Bruce Bunten, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert T. Bunten of Wildwood street and former Tabor Academy football captain, has been chosen by the Navy to serve aboard an LSM (Landing Ship, Medium), the Speed Carrier Attack that has been especially developed for Pacific duty.

Now stationed at the Amphibious Training Base in Little Creek, Virginia, Bunten is going through the rigorous training program to prepare for duty as Quartermaster on the swift new invasion vessel.

Bunten joined the Navy in January shortly after he graduated from Tabor Academy. He was an outstanding football star for three years and during his last year was elected to captain the school's eleven.

JUST ONE LITTLE THING

We wished to place our usual order for paper this week. This could not be done without our signature to . . . (we found out it is the following):

The undersigned purchaser certifies, subject to the penalties of section 35 (A) of the United States Criminal Code, to the seller and to the War Production Board, that, to the best of his knowledge and belief, the undersigned is authorized under applicable War Production Board regulations or orders to place this delivery order, and to receive the item (s) ordered for the purpose for which ordered.

Read it again and digest it.

We have purchased paper of the International Paper Company for 20 or 25 years and have printed the Star (in Winchester) for the past 64 years, so our paper use is nothing new or unexpected. What intrigues us is how an advertising circular printed in another town and scattered about our streets, stores and even our Post Office, gets it: paper? At the time we were accused of printing this circular; not paying taxes or social security, it looked as though the New Deal was really out to get us, and we have not yet heard the outcome of the accusations. However ' we all know that the New Deal's foreign policy has been whitewashed to the polished bone. We suppose we still have to realize the benefits and unerring plan of its domestic policy.

"Save all your waste paper now."

CHANGE HORSES

It is said that the present election is significant because it preserves a democratic process in wartime. Yes, the election does preserve our democratic processes in wartime. But will the results of the election preserve the democratic process of Roosevelt wins? No.

For this reason we must change horses in the middle of the stream. Not to change horses is to continue an undemocratic process of government. If I were an ardent Democrat, an ardent supporter of President Roosevelt, I still would believe that we must change horses, and Now. If a Republican had been president for 12 years and I were an ardent Republican, I would still believe that we must change horses, and Now.

The democratic process demands that power change hands. The "ours" must be allowed to come to bat. The people who have been out of office, out of power, unsaddled with the responsibilities of government, must be given the opportunity to get, at first hand, the inside knowledge which is available only to men and women in office. They must be allowed the power which is wielded by the Administration, they must be chastened by carrying the responsibilities of dealing with foreign powers, dealing with international and domestic issues. The side which has been out of power for 12 years must not be allowed to continue its role of criticism, opposition, hostility, induced much of the time, not by real disagreement with the policies of the administration but simply because it is out of power.

This is not wholesome; it is not democratic.

Furthermore, other nations should observe us changing horses in the middle of the stream, and still continuing to be Americans. They should be shaken loose from the association of the name of one man with the name of the nation, Roosevelt is Not America. If Hoover had been president for 12 years, and foreign nations thought of America as "Hoover," the need of change would be exactly as imperative as it is today.

HIGH SCHOOL OPEN HOUSE SUCCESSFUL

Operating on a schedule of brief periods, Winchester High School, last Tuesday evening, welcomed more than 200 parents of pupils in the three upper classes. Doors were opened at 7.15 and by 7.30 the visitors were in their home rooms, ready for their evening classes.

After short home room programs, teachers conducted their usual order of classes, explaining the objectives of the courses and dealing with such other items as seemed appropriate. Whenever the parents found themselves with a study hall assignment, they went instead to the cafeteria, where refreshmens were served by the regular staff headed by Miss Gladys Nixen.

Regular traffic squad officers of the pupil organization helped out by directing the guests to the various rooms and senior girls assisted in the office and operated the bell schedule.

Comments by parents agreed with those of the teachers that Tuesday evening's session was worthwhile and that in the event of a repetition at some later date measures should be taken to insure an even greater attendance.

WINTER POND

Oct. 6, 1944

To the Editor of the Star:

The report of the Committee in regard to Winter Pond is enclosed. We think it might be of interest to the citizens.

As 1944 has been very dry, the pond has not recovered as hoped for. Up to Oct. 1, 1944 the rainfall was three inches below normal. In order for Winter Pond to be reasonably full of water it requires at least a normal rainfall, which is 42 inches in this district.

At the annual Town Meeting an appropriation of $1000 was made to drain a swamp by lowering a brook which runs into Winter Pond so that water might reach the pond and not be lost by evaporation. The Town Engineer has prepared plans for this work and the Town Counsel has prepared the necessary legal papers. There has been some delay in getting the necessary permits. The work is to start soon and it is hoped that the Fall rains will help the situation.

By Act of Legislature in 1929, the Park Department was given the control of fishing, boating, bathing, skating, and other recreational activities at Winter and Wedge Ponds. The State, through the Department of Public Works, still controls the pond as it is a great pond containing more than 10 acres. Any work performed on the pond must have the approval of the State. We understand the Selectmen are giving the matter careful consideration.

Yours respectfully,
Winter Pond Committee

To the Members of the Representative Town Meeting of the Town of Winchester:

On March 16, 1944, at the Annual Town Meeting of the Town of Winchester, it was voted that a committee of five residents of the Town be appointed by the Moderator to consider and report at the future Town Meeting some plan for allaying the present condition of Winter Pond.

Your Committee respectfully makes the following report:

Your Committee met for organization purposes on March 21 when Edmund C. Sanderson was elected chairman, and it has held two meetings and has made several surveys of the conditions pertaining to Winter Pond.

Winter Pond is a great pond and it is under the control of the Commonwealth. It covers an area of approximately 15 acres and its water shed consists of a rock formation extending from the cemetery land to Horn Pond Mountain, Horn Pond Mountain itself, the west side hills, a section of the west side plains adjacent to the Pond and a swamp situated on the Cambridge street base of Horn Pond Mountain.

By far the greatest source of water supply comes from this swamp.

The Water Department of the Town has in its files a very complete history of this Pond from the year 1870 to date, and these records fully show the Pond's water elevation throughout those many years.

It is definitely established that the water level in Winter Pond depends entirely upon the amount of surface water that gravitates to this Pond. The records indicate that during a dry cycle when there has been a deficiency of rainfall, the water level decreases to the point where the Pond becomes a decided menace to the health of the people living in that section of the Town, and with the development of the land for dwelling purposes around this Pond and the installation of catch basins on Cambridge street, the natural flow of surface water into this Pond has been materially diminished.

Your Committee is informed that Wildwood street from Wood-side road to Wedgemere avenue is to be rebuilt after the war and at that time the surface drainage will be carried into Winter Pond, whereas at the present time it is carried away by emptying into the town drainage system on Cambridge street; also, we are further informed that the surface drainage from Chesterford road and Chesterford terrace which now empties into Little Winter Pond is inadequate and is to be replaced after the war by an adequate draining system.

Your Committee approves of and recommends these two projects be carried out as soon as possible.

The brook that runs from the swamp area on Cambridge street at the base of Horn Pond Mountain is piped under Pond street emptying into a field, and has no direct connection with Winter Pond, and while eventually a part of this surface water finds its way into Winter Pond, a very large proportion of it is lost by evaporation and saturation.

Your committee recommends that the bed of this brook be deepened and the water encased in pipes and be delivered directly into Winter Pond, thereby establishing a quick run-off and eliminating the loss of this water. Your Committee is advised that the cost of conserving the water as outlined above will be approximately $1000 and recommends that this amount be taken from the Excess and Deficiency Acount and appropriated for this work to be carried out under the supervision of the Water and Sewer Department.

In view of the existing conditions, your Committee has undertaken to take advantage of all the natural conditions surrounding Winter Pond and is only recommending at the present time that these natural conditions be utilized to the utmost, and these recommendations can be carried out by the above appropriation of money.

Your Committee has taken up this subject with Mr. Arthur Weston, Director of Sanitary Engineering and Chief Sanitary Engineer in the Division of Sanitary Engineering of the Department of Public Health of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and we found that in 1930 the Commonwealth made an investigation at the request of the Board of Selectmen of Winchester and reported that the Woburn wells had little or no effect on the elevation of the water in Winter Pond. The State Water Department made it very clear that where the water shed of a natural pond was reduced by building and roads and the installation of sewers and storm drains, the water shed might be so reduced that it would be necessary to regulate the elevation of water in a pond by artificial means, and made the suggestion that if the recommendations made by this Committee did not relieve the situation in Winter Pond, consideration should be given to running a pipe line from Wedge Pond to Winter Pond so that water could be pumped from Wedge Pond to Winter Pond during periods of drought, Wedge Pond having more than an adequate supply of water at all times because of its water shed is so large that even during the periods of severe drought there is plenty of water in Wedge Pond.

Your Committee does not recommend this proposal at this time, but recommends the adoption of the two plans previously outlined for the conservation of surface water in this area

Respectfully submitted,
Committee on Winter Pond

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in the Mother Church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, and in all its branches, on Sunday Oct. 22, will be Probation After Death.

The Golden Text: The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live. (John 5:25, Other Bible citations include, Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power. But they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years. Revelation 20:6).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy. Error brings its own self-destruction both here and hereafter, for mortal mind creates its own physical conditions. Death will occur on the next plane of existence as on this, until the spiritual understanding of Life is reached Then, and not until then, will it be itemized and that the second death hath no power.

REV. GEORGE BROWNING SPURR

Rev. George Browning Spurr, a native of Winchester and minister emeritus of the First Universalist (Unitarian) Church of Yarmouthport, died Saturday, Oct. 14, at his home in Hyannis. He retired from the ministry in 1913 because of poor health.

Rev. Mr. Spurr was born in Winchester, Sept. 12, 1879, son of Thomas S., and Fannie B. (Wood) Spurr. The family home was on Grove street and his father was town treasurer from 1890 to 1910.

After receiving his early education in the Winchester schools, Rev. Mr. Spurr attended Meadville Theological Seminary, from which he was graduated in 1907. He was ordained to the Unitarian ministry the same year in Petersham, serving the church there for five years. From 1913 to 1918 he was minister of the New North Church in Hingham, after that serving pastorates in Nashville, Tenn., and Brewster. From 1928-30 he served as supply in Pittsfield and in 1932 became minister of the First Universalist Unitarian Church in Yarmouthport, remaining there until his retirement last year when he was made minister emeritus.

Rev. Mr. Spurr lived in Hyannisport where he owned property. Until her death last year his mother made her home with him. He was unmarried.

An outdoor enthusiast, Rev. Mr. Spurr did much hiking, camping and mountain-climbing, often taking with him groups of boys, in the welfare of whom he took a deep and active interest. He was a Mason, serving for 29 years as prelate of St. Bernard's Commandery, K. T., of Boston, and for five years serving as chaplain of Old Colony Lodge in Hingham. While serving as minister in Pittsfield he was sponsor of a community forum there.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday at the Doan and Beal Funeral home in Hyannis.

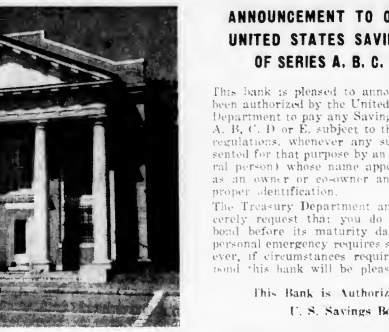

MISS JENNIE L. HAMLIN

Committal services were held at the family lot in Wildwood Cemetery Monday afternoon for Miss Jennie L. Hamlin, a former resident of Winchester whose home was in the old Stanton house at the corner of Main and Chestnut streets.

Miss Hamlin died early Saturday morning, Oct. 14, in Newburyport where she had been living since leaving Winchester in 1898. She was born in West Medford but spent her girlhood in Winchester, receiving her education in the Winchester schools. Her father, associated with the firm of Mason and Hamlin, piano manufacturers, built the house in which his family lived, later selling it to the Stantons.

SONS OF ITALY NOTES

Here it is Oct. 20 and another Columbus Day has come and gone. Yes Oct. 12 which used to be the date of our annual banquet and dance. Let me hasten to assure you that it didn't go by unobserved but the observance seemed so pitifully small as compared to other years. To you fellows it must indeed be difficult to be away on days such as this which had always been festive ones while you were at home. You can picture the banquet table and the joyful gathering which was always in attendance, and you miss it all. However, imagine how we feel, we who are forced to stay here, and in looking over familiar surroundings find so many faces missing. I dare say it is worse for us as we cannot conjure up a dream of yesteryear while faced with the stark reality of a heavy hearted group who are here more to keep up a tradition than to enjoy themselves.

In spite of this we had a sizable group gather who were served refreshments and sandwiches. Ven. Angelo P. Tofuri said a few words to fit the occasion and the rest of the evening was spent in an informal manner. Here's hoping next year we can revive the popular banquet and dance.

Now to acknowledge the mail. It gives me the greatest pleasure to inform you boys that Ex. Ven. Lt. S. G. Volpe has not forgotten our address. He could not let the occasion of Oct. 12 go by without a reminder of the good times we had together in the past. Thanks John and we knew you wouldn't mind the good natured ribbing this column saw fit to administer.

We also had a card from Gay Vespucci sent from Paris. Say! Guy is France all its cracked up to be, or is it just all cracked up period. Oh alright I know a pun is supposed to be the lowest form of wit but what can I do. Another thing Guy I chanced to see some snapshots you sent Chick and would like to have you admit in writing that you were, or are now reporting an awning over your lunchroom. Some mustache I'll say. Look whose talking says you.

Home on a 21 day furlough after 32 missions over Europe is Lt. Joe Russo. Joe, a bombardier, received training in various places including Nashville, Tenn., Sioux City, Iowa, California and Roswell, New Mexico, where he received his wings. He has been decorated with the air medal, three oak leaf clusters and the Distinguished Fying Cross. The Lieutenant as in on the invasion of France and says it was a sight he'll never forget. When his leave expires Joe expects to go into pilot training. His brother Frank, an Air Corp gunner is stationed at Charleston, S. C.

Word has been received by his parents that Peter Vizzella has been wounded in action. We do not know the extent of his injuries and can only hope that it is nothing serious.

E. Joseph Ficocielo, tail gunner on a B-24 writes from Italy where he has just landed after leaving Africa. Don't worry Joe your Italians in Italy can't be any worse than your Spanish was in Mexico.

While home on furlough Fred La-Torrella is to be married. Come on there's room for another. All kidding aside though I know you boys all join me in wishing Fred the best of luck.

And now boys come the "piece de resistance," the bowling scores. Two teams have been formed and for lack of any official name we shall call them the Greeps and the Gripes. You can take your pick. On second thought we could call the losing team each week the Gripes as they sure will do plenty of griping. The teams the first week were composed of Phil Muraco, C. Frongillo, S. Puma, A. Iacobellis and Leo Manoli who bowled in that order Their total pitfall was 1265 as compared to 1286 for C. DeMinico, F. Frongillo, F. Dattilo, A. Vespucci and A. P. Tofuri. The second week matters got worse and the same team won again by a score of 1321 to 1230. If space permits next week I shall try to give you the individual scores.

GUILD OF THE INFANT SAVIOUR

The opening meeting of the fall season of the Guild took place Oct. 10 at Lyceum Hall. Mrs. Michael Hintlian, president of the Chapter, greeted the members present after the long summer vacation. Guest speaker of the afternoon, Rev. William H. Doyle, Diocesan Director of Catholic Charities, gave a brief talk on the work of the Guild, in connection with the Charitable Bureau.

Dessert was served at 1.30 followed by the business meeting, after which auction and contract bridge were enjoyed. Co-chairmen of the dessert-bridge were Mrs. William Hevey and Mrs. John Gorman. The hall was beautifully adorned in autumnal colors, with large vases filled with fall flowers, asters, dahlias and chrysanthemums. The prizes were in keeping with the season also. Beautiful baskets of apples, grapes, pears and large pumpkins and squash flanked by gallon jugs of cider were among the prizes. Many of the members brought donations from their own victory gardens, as well as jars of home preserves and pickles.

On next Tuesday, Oct. 24, the first all day sewing bee of the season will be held in Lyceum Hall at 10:30 a. m. Come and bring needle, thimble and thread and a box lunch. Chairman of sewing, Mrs. Thomas Higgins, has many tiny garments cut and ready to be assembled by willing fingers.

The business meeting will directly follow at 2:30. Mrs. Hintlian will preside and plans for the coming season will be briefly outlined.

The National War Fund Committee will have a representative to speak to us at this meeting. We all know what the heroic people of the Allied Nations have endured during the bitter war. Let us all do whatever we can during this coming drive to alleviate their suffering and privation.

NEEDLE-WORK GUILD OF AMERICA

Winchester Branch

Members and friends of the N. W. G. are anticipating their annual meeting to be held this year at the Methodist Church on Wednesday, Nov. 8 at 2 p. m. William E. Spaulding and Lyndon Burnham will be Speed Spaulding and Boom Boom Burnham. Announcers; Robert Carruthers will be Croon Coaxer Carruthers at the Sound Effects; and Doa R. Kroell will handle properties as Kidder Kroell. Georgie and Ted Whittemore, presidents of the club will gladly welcome any new couples who may wish to come to the party. There are no rules of membership, dues or other formalities connected with the Couples Club Fun. For information call Win. 0314.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT CLUB

Don't forget the Wednesday Night Club Hallowe'en party and game night Wednesday evening, Oct. 25 at 8 o'clock in the parish hall of the First Congregational Church. Come in a costume or old clothes. There will be prizes for the best and most unique costumes. It will be an evening of fun with new and old games and dancing.

Young married couples and single people beyond college age of the parish or not affiliated with any other church are welcome.

EPIPHANY TUESDAY LUNCHEON GROUP WELCOMES NEW MEMBERS

Mrs. Jack Davison was hostess to the Tuesday Luncheon Group and their special guests at her home, 20 Everett avenue for the October tea, which ushered in their church year of 1944-45. The tea introduced to the group and to each other these new resident of Epiphany parish: Mrs. Charles Currier, 25 Calumet road; Mrs. J. Warren Downes, 6 Ledgewood road, Mrs. Stewart Lyford, 10 Maple road, Mrs. Allan Farquhar, 2 Black Horse terrace, Mrs. W. F. Hodges, 22 Oneida road, Mrs. Leslie Richardson, 18 Crescent road, Mrs. William M. Beal, 83 Wildwood street, Mrs. R. H. Weller, 122 Washington street, Mrs. Earle D. Owen, 5 Oneida road, and Mrs. C. M. Clifford, 221 Cambridge street, Woburn.

Mrs. John Lynch and Mrs. Briscoe Gray, of the parish hospitality committee, welcomed the guests.

The chairman of the group, Mrs. Maxwell McCreery, presided at the business meeting. A high light of this hour was the announcement of plans for the 1945 series of play-reading. Thanks to a committee that did not know how to take No for an answer, even from a very busy woman, Mrs. McCreery was able to announce that the series, to begin in January, would again be given by Mrs. Adele Hoes Lee, whose Friday reviews and readings of plays running most successfully on Broadway have been for three years a popular part of Winchester mid-winter recreations.

Mrs. McCreery had a surprise for this October meeting. She said it was the birthday party of the group, its tenth birthday, and she introduced its founder and godmother, Mrs. Merton E. Grush, who in 1934 had submitted her concept of such an organization to a group of young parish women at the home of Mrs. Warren Jenney. Mrs. Grush gave a delightful account of the group's beginning and of the years in which she has watched it grow in scope and in numbers.

With only one exception, all ex-chairmen of the Tuesday Luncheon Group were present; Mrs. Prescott Taylor, Mrs. J. Warren Shoemaker, and Mrs. E. Craig Greiner. Mrs. Warren Jenney, second in the 10 year series, in whose energetic administration the Friday play readings began, is lost to Winchester for the duration by reason of Mr. Jenney's war service, and could not help celebrate the 10th birthday.

At the tea following the business meeting Mrs. Dwight W. Hadley and Mrs. Grush poured.

The November tea will again have as honor guests new members and friends of the parish and Mrs. Lynch and the hospitality committee expect to welcome then an additional number.

MYSTIC MOTHERS' NOTES

The Autumn luncheon and bridge held in the Mystic School assembly hall on Tuesday afternoon was a tremendous success, both financially and socially.

The hall was beautifully decorated with autumn flowers and foliage, artistically arranged by our talented Mrs. Alexander Samoiloff and her committee. The pretty corsages which were offered for sale before the luncheon were also provided by Mrs. Samoiloff.

The unique bridge prizes were made up by Mrs. Adolph Johnson, president of the Mystic Mothers' Association and her committee.

The following mothers proved to be most efficient servers and waitresses: Mrs. John Keefe, Mrs. Reginald Wentworth, Mrs. Edward Madden, Mrs. Arthur Agnew, Mrs. Everett Tisdale, Mrs. Earl Carrier, Mrs. Richard Frazer, Mrs. Lester Moulton, Mrs. Don Kroell, Mrs. Henry Dellicker, Mrs. Rufus Somerby, Mrs. Albert Swazey, Mrs. Allan Farquhar, Mrs. Leslie Richardson.

Mrs. Prescott Taylor who worked tirelessly as general chairman of this brilliant affair, spoke modestly and briefly of her efforts and generously thanked all of those who helped and contributed to make the luncheon and bridge such an enjoyable and successful one.

EN KA FALL MEETING

Mrs. Clinton S. Mason graciously opened her home on Ridgefield road, Tuesday, Oct. 17, for the fall meeting of the En Ka Society. Mrs. Warren Shoemaker and her meetings committee, Mrs. Frank d'Elseaux, Miss Eleanor Dow, and Mrs. Francis Millett, served a delicious dessert to the 50 members present.

The president, Mrs. A. Allen Kimball called the meeting to order with an amusing message to start the year, and introduced Mrs. Harold H. Blake, hand an En Ka member, who gave an interesting account in support of the United War Fund.

The [illegible] Miss Grey and Miss [illegible] were announced as [illegible] Russian War Relief [illegible] United War Fund [illegible] Service Nursing [illegible]

The [illegible] will again devote many hours to making surgical dressings and sewing for the Red Cross each Monday from 10 to 1 at the home of Mrs. Alvin M. Litchfield, 8 Niles lane. Birthday cakes and cards will be sent to the Home for the Aged, and three tens will be given there during the winter.

Sponges will be made for the Winchester Hospital, defense stamps will be sold by the members at Wedgemere Station in the month of February, and credits given to those donating blood. All these activities are under the capable leadership of Mrs. Roland R. Carter.

An enthusiastic reception greeted Mrs. Forrest L. Pitman's announcement of a What-Not Shop to be opened Nov. 1 at 26 Church street and to be run in connection with the 1945 Street Fair.

The What-Not Shop

Mrs. Forrest L. Pitman, ways and means chairman announced at the first meeting of the En Ka Society, a new enterprise under the management of Mrs. Samuel D. Cole and Mrs. Herbert T. Wadsworth, the What-Not Shop.

This shop will cater to the needs of a public which either wants to buy or has something to sell. In these days of transportation problems, it will take the place of the old-fashioned auction or a fruitless trip in town in search of an article you want, but which just cannot be had. Here at 27 Church street, opposite the Winchester Trust Co., you will find only things which are desirable. It might be furniture, an outside garment in excellent condition, a stove or a demi-tasse, but without a doubt, either Mrs. Wadsworth, Mrs. Cole or one of their assistants will be able to help you with your problem.

The What-Not Shop will be open to receive goods for sale Monday, Oct. 23, through Friday, Oct. 27 from 1 to 4 p. m. and that Friday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock.

The purpose of the shop is to raise money for the various En Ka charities and to serve the public. Do come and help En Ka to help others.

COMMITTEE OF SAFETY CHAPTER, D. A. R.

The opening meeting of the Committee of Safety Chapter, D. A. R. was held at the home of Mrs. J. Albert Linton, 76 Arlington street, on Monday, Oct. 16, with the Regent Mrs. Nathaniel Nichols, presiding.

The Fall State Conference of the D. A. R. at Swampscott, held at the New Ocean House, Oct. 6 and 7, was reported by the delegate, Mrs. Earle E. Andrews.

The guest speaker of the afternoon Mrs. Herbert E. McQuesten, State Regent, of North Andover, told of past projects financed by the Daughters of the American Revolution, stating that the new National War Project was to be the construction of permanent libraries at Army General Hospitals throughout the United States.

For three years the U. S. Medical Society has strived to secure funds for the construction of these libraries and now only through the generosity of the D. A. R. could this be done.

Twelve hospital libraries have been planned by the National Organization; three of which have been approved by the Army Engineers with construction expected to begin in the near future.

The Library Project will require an initial outlay of $150,000. Plans worked out by the Surgeon General's office and the D. A. R. Executive Committee, call for two large reading rooms in each library, with books so arranged that a patient in a wheel chair can easily reach any of them. Ramps will lead to the various bookshelves, making them available to patients whether in chairs or on crutches. In addition, there will be office space for the librarian and a reception hall. The buildings will conform to the local hospital architecture and will stand as permanent memorials of D. A. R. War Service.

The first library will be erected at the General Army Hospital at Valley Forge.

There will be a marker on each library showing that it has been made possible by the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Care of the libraries will be under the Army Hospital Service.

Hostesses assisting Mrs. Linton were Miss Mary Alice Fitch, Mrs. Frank Ebens, Mrs. William Bottger, Mrs. William Cole, Mrs. Nestor Davis, Mrs. J. Churchill Hindes and Mrs. Elsie Tompkins; others assisting were the hospitality committee: Mrs. Geo. Hayward, chairman; Mrs. Marshall Symmes and Mrs. William Cole.

Miss Mary Alice Fitch poured at the coffee table.

Carmine J. Molinaro of Harvard street is one of the students at the Boston University College of Business Administration on the dean's list for the year, 1943-44, which means they have received a 5. academic average or better.

WAR PARENTS OF AMERICA, INC.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

A Stranger gets a lesson

Stranger spoke to me on a train the other day. "You're Joe Marsh, aren't you? Fellow that writes for the papers?" When I allowed as how I was, he said, "I thought I recognized you from your picture!"

"Well," he continued, "I read your pieces. But once in a while I get the idea you're tryin' to sell beer, and that makes me mad as a hornet." He pointed a skinny finger in my face. "Are you or aren't you?"

"Stranger," I said, "I'm glad you asked me that, and I'm glad to answer you. Fact is, I'm goin' to put my answer in the paper for folks to see.

"Mister," I told him, "I don't care a tinker's hoorah if you never take a sip of beer!

"I am interested in your right, as an American, to have one if you want one." And there's a powerful lot of difference.

From where I sit, Voltaire put his finger on it. He said: "I disagree with everything you say. But I'll defend to the death your right to say it!"

GIRLS SCOUT NEWS

Scouts Aid Rehabilitation of Children

The Girl Scout organization has loaned six of its skilled workers to UNRRA. All will do rehabilitation work among the children overseas, in countries devastated by war.

Swift Progress

It took 26 years, from its founding in 1912 until the end of 1928, for the Girl Scout national organization to gain its first half million members. The second half million came in six and one half years. The million mark was passed Aug. 11, 1944. There are 411 members of troops in Winchester. Two Million Hours to Hospitals

Girl Scouts have given more than two million hours of service to American hospitals since Pearl Harbor. Service to hospitals will be the theme of Girl Scout week, Oct. 29-Nov. 4. It was announced today by Mrs. Clarence Roberts, Commissioner of Winchester. Each of the seven service days, traditionally dedicated to special phases of the Girl Scout program, will be focused on the various ways in which scouts of all ages have been aiding local hospitals.

Girl Scout Week opens officially with Girl Scout Sunday. According to our plans the day will be observed by attendance of uniformed Scouts at church services. Plans will be made in the troops to go to Boston for the Cathedral services in the afternoon for Catholic and Protestant girls and synagogue services for the Jewish girls.

Will You be a Leader?

Or an assistant? If you would be interested call the Girl Scout office and talk to Miss Stansfield, the executive secretary.

Monday, Oct. 16, Troop 7 had a vesper service. The following awards have been made:

Clarence Nickerson completed his tenderfoot badge and received his registration card; Jason Dade, James McLaughlin and Charles McGowan received their patrol leaders' badges. Peter Huskins became a Senior Patrol leader and received a personal health merit badge. Neil Borden was elected scribe and given an assistant patrol leaders badge. James Quine was awarded life saving and reading merit badges.

Mr. Harding awarded the badges. The attendance was 38 boys and four committeemen.

The troop elected its staff for the newspaper and the Troop 7 Eagle will soon be published. The scouts and scouters are striving to make this the best year yet.

Air mail stationery in pads and single sheets; also boxed paper Winchester Star, 3 Church street.

Case No. 8281 Misc.
THE COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS LAND COURT

(SEAL)

In Equity

To Flora A. Mills, of Tewksbury, in the County of Middlesex and said Commonwealth, Addison E. Mills, as executor of the estate of Ida W. D. Mills, of Winchester, in the said County of Middlesex, and to all whom it may concern

Carolina V. Sable, of Boston, in the County of Suffolk and said Commonwealth, claiming to be the holder of two mortgages covering real property in said Winchester, on the corner of High and Arlington Street, and being lot 10 on a subdivision plan filed with Certificate of Title No. 22865, issued from the Middlesex County South Registry District, one given by Ida W. D. Mills to Florence R. McPhee dated January 22, 1918, being Document No. 150521, noted on Certificate of Title No. 5235, issued from said Registry District, and held by the plaintiff under an assignment duly noted on said Certificate of Title No. 5235, and one given by Ida W. D. Mills to Robert H. Jewell, being Document No. 153022, noted on Certificate No. 5235, and held by plaintiff by assignment duly registered, has filed with said Court a bill in equity for authority to foreclose said mortgages, being dated September 15, 1938, in the manner following: by entry and possession and exercise of power of sale. If you are entitled to the benefits of the Soldiers' and Sailors Civil Relief Act of 1940 as amended and you object to such foreclosure you or your attorney should file a written appearance and answer in said court at Boston on or before the eleventh day of December 1944, or you will be forever barred from claiming that such foreclosure is invalid under said act.

Witness, JOHN E. FENTON, Esquire, Judge of said Court this tenth day of October 1944.

ROBERT E. FRENCH, Recorder

FORTNIGHTLY NOTES

On Monday afternoon, Oct. 23, the Fortnightly will present Dr. Hugh Robinson, formerly of Tung Chow, China, where he spent many years in valuable medical service. He will tell of his experiences as a Japanese prisoner in the Santa Tunas Camp Hospital in Manila. An exchange prisoner, Dr. Robinson returned to America on the Gripsholm in January 1943.

The hostesses for the afternoon, 1 o'clock is the hour, are under the direction of Mrs. William C. Cusack, and include Mrs. Maurice C. Bird, Mrs. James H. Buzzell, Mrs. William W. Goodhue, Mrs. Harold E. Meyer, Mrs. Harris S. Richardson, Mrs. Conrad S. Rosander, and Mrs. Wilbert E. Underwood.

The 8th District Conference will be held at the Stoneham Town Hall on Thursday, Oct. 26, with the members of the Stoneham Woman's Club as hostesses. The morning session is scheduled at 10, luncheon at 12:30, and music at 1:30 followed by the afternoon session.

"Blessed Be Nothing!" The times we've heard our mothers and grandmothers say that! The times we echoed them when the regulations for civilian defense streamlined our attire! Luckily for all of us who tire of what we have and love another's bargain, rummage sales still flourish. Mrs. Clifton S. Hall and Mrs. Earle E. Andrews have arranged two full days of good fall hunting, Thursday and Friday, Oct. 26, 27, 10 to 4

NEW CUB PACK

Parents interested in Cubbing are invited to attend a meeting to be held Tuesday evening, Nov. 14, at 8 o'clock at the Church of the Epiphany for the purpose of starting a new pack in Winchester.

Those acquainted with Cubbing feel that there is a definite need for a new pack in town, there being at present a good sized group of boys of Cub age who can not be accommodated in the present program.

Any one interested in securing additional information about the proposed new pack should contact Mr. Gerald Curtis at 36 Oneida road, tel. Win. 1027-W.

L. S. N. G., R. W. Dover
R. S. V. G., Carl Morse
L. S. V. G., Henry Isaman
I. G., Elmer Ripley
O. G., Leigh Roberts

Following the impressive installation, a special Mitchell oyster stew was enjoyed by all. Many old friendships were renewed as Arthur Cameron of Waterfield Lodge had served seven rail terms as DDGM to Winnisimmit Lodge several years ago.

Tentative plans were discussed for indoor baseball matches to be held during the coming winter months.

Any member of the order will be very welcome to attend any of the regular Monday evening meetings which are held in A sociation Hall on Vine street.

STONEHAM LECTURE

Residents of Winchester will have an opportunity to attend a free lecture on Christian Science Friday evening, Oct. 27 at 8 o'clock in Stoneham Town Hall, Central street, Stoneham.

The lecturer will be Florence Middaugh, C. S., of Los Angeles, Cal., a member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston. She has chosen "Christian Science: The Way of Salvation and Healing" as her subject.

This will be the fifth in a series of lectures being given by Miss Middaugh, all under the auspices of The Mother Church. The sixth and last lecture in the series, on a different subject, will be given by Miss Middaugh in Milton Sunday afternoon, Oct. 29.

ENDORSED BY 179,000 GREATER BOSTONIANS

The Salvation Army, now working on its 1944-45 Greater Boston Maintenance appeal for $400,000 announces that in response to its appeal of last year it received 179,000 endorsements of the organization and its activities in the form of free-will contributions.

All who have not done so are invited to give a part of the $400,000 required for the coming year's activities. Checks may be sent to local treasurer

K. OF C. NOTES

On Sunday, Oct. 8, 75 members of the Winchester Council, 210, K. of C. attended the Memorial Mass for the deceased members of the Council at the Immaculate Conception Church. Following the services, Communion breakfast was served at the Council rooms. A very interesting talk was presented to the gathering by John Delay, master of the 4th degree K. of C. who pointed out the post war plans of the K. of C. for the returning servicemen and families.

The large group of members who attended the annual Columbus Day ball, celebrating the golden anniversary of the Mass. State Council K. of C. held at the Hotel Bradford in Boston on Thursday evening report a swell time was had by all.

On Friday night, a large number of members left for Campion Hall in No. Andover where they observed the Council's annual retreat.

Bart Conlon, chairman of the membership committee reports that the membership drive is now officially opened. Get the names to Bro. Bart, as soon as possible as we expect to have a degree before the end of the year.

Something new and different are the plans of Bro. Danny O'Donnell in regards to the ladies' night planned for Saturday, Nov. 4.

Charlie Yetter in charge of the Blood Donor group reports that 15 members have so far signed up, to visit the Blood Bank at Boston on Friday night, Oct. 20. The list is still open, so see Charlie if you want to make this worth while patriotic contribution to the war effort.

Bro. Joe Haggerty's final report on the victory garden revealed that a large variety of vegetables had been taken to St. Mary's Convent for the Sisters.

The Council expresses its deepest sympathies to Bro. Thomas Gilgun, on the death of his father

AIR SCOUTS WANTED

Air Scouting offers Senior Scouts the chance to go into different branches of aviation, short of flying. Any young man over 15 years of age may become an Air Scout and start immediately to obtain a thorough basic ground training. The demands for knowledge and skill in aviation are many. Begin now, read and study aviation, model building is a sound foundation.

The Air Scout program is so planned that the Scouts run their own meetings, elect their officers and committees, while the Scout leader sits on the side lines ready to advise and help make the whole program a success.

Squadron No. 7 meets every Monday evening at 7.15 in the social hall of the Baptist Church. If you are interested, we shall be glad to see you next Monday

Wendell Mansfield, former Winchester High School athletic director, now at Pomfret School in Connecticut after serving as head football coach at Bates and Springfield Colleges, has won both of his football games played thus far this fall. The current, "Pontefract," the Pomfret student paper, has an article on Mr. Mansfield telling of the improved conditions in the athletic department since his arrival at the school. The accompanying cut of the former Winchester coach is rather on the sober pedagogical side, but then "Manny" has his glasses on in the picture and after all it may have been taken before one of those Springfield-A. I. C. games when he had a lot on his mind.

VOL. LXIV NO. 11 THE WINCHESTER, MASS., STAR, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1944 PRICE SEVEN CENTS

WINCHESTER OFFICER AWARDED MEDAL

WITH U. S. ARMY FORCE IN FRANCE—Lieutenant Colonel Wallace M. Snow, executive officer of the movements division of the Office of the Chief of Transportation recently was awarded the Bronze Star Medal by Major General Frank S. Ross, Chief of Transportation, European Theater of Operations.

The colonel was cited for his planning for the mounting of cargo for the North African invasion and operations in that theater. Thoroughly acquainted with rail operations in England and the United States, he offered invaluable suggestions for the smooth flow of supplies along the rail lines.

Commissioned in May 1942, after the War Department learned he had spent a year in England studying English railroading with the London Midlands and Scottish railroad, he was immediately sent to London to start the Freight Branch in the Office of the Chief of Transportation.

A graduate of Hotchkiss School and Harvard University, he was employed by the New York Central Railroad before and after his trip to England.

His home is at 18 Park Avenue, Winchester.

LT. THOMAS O'KEEFE HOME

Lt. Thomas F. O'Keefe, USAAF, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene B. O'Keefe of Fletcher street, arrived home Wednesday afternoon for a brief stop before leaving to be officially interrogated about his adventures following the time he was reported missing by the War Department Jan. 31, 1944.

Lt. O'Keefe was co-pilot of the famous Liberator, "Brody's Gang", last seen following a bombing mission over Italy near the Italian Alps. The plane was forced down and at the time Lt. O'Keefe was reported missing two of the crew were reported killed and five prisoners of war.

On Sept. 26, Lt. O'Keefe's parents received a cable from him reporting that he was safe and hoped to be home soon. Mr. O'Keefe told the Star that his son was looking very well, having received no injuries during his thrilling adventures. No details can be given until after the official interrogation.

SURPRISE SHOWER

Mrs. Dorothy M. Lord of the Star Office gave a shower Monday evening at her home on School Street in North Woburn for Miss Bonney Wilson daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Price Wilson of Ramsey whose marriage to Pfc. Richard A. Hakanson, USAAF, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gustave O. Hakanson of Lincoln Street, is soon to take place.

The house was attractively decorated in pink and white and a lunch shower cake, topped with a bride and groom, the latter in army uniform, was decorated in the same colors. Each guest was given a clever and novel corsage combining miniature candied fruits and vegetables. Place cards were also unusual being nut-cups, topped with tiny pink parasols.

Miss Wilson received a number of handsome gifts, consisting of candlewick glass, and after the packages had been opened, refreshments were served.

55TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

On last Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Albert B. Bent observed their fifty-fifth wedding anniversary informally at their home, 1 Lewis Road. The couple were married at the home of the bride, the former Harriet Hamilton, in Brooklyn, New York. Later they moved to Somerville, and have for the past twenty-five years resided in Winchester. They have two daughters, Mrs. Alonzo D. Nicholas and Mrs. Charles E. Howe, both of Winchester, and two grandchildren, Major Robert H. Howe, now on duty in the North African theatre, and Mrs. Erland S. Wentzell of Bound Brook New Jersey.

WINCHESTER MAN COLONEL AT 30

Among the younger officers in the service is Col. Robert S. Blodgett of this town, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irving C. Blodgett of 1 Harrington Road who is on the staff of Lt. Gen. George C. Kenney as ordnance officer for the Far East Air Forces. As a matter of fact Col. Blodgett attained his rank at the age of 29, being promoted from Lt. Colonel to Colonel last January and attaining his 30th birthday May 15th.

Col. Blodgett is a regular Army man a graduate of West Point in 1936. From the Point he went to Hawaii where after a short time he was placed in command of Company L of the 27th Regiment of United States Infantry.

After two years in Hawaii, Col. Blodgett returned to the States and was sent to Fort Benning, Ga., to enter Officers' School there. While awaiting the opening of the school he decided to transfer to Ordnance and was sent to the Aberdeen Proving Ground in Maryland. From there he went to Langley Field in Virginia and from that place to the airport at Bangor, Me.

Col. Blodgett went overseas Feb 17, 1942, and has remained in the South Pacific Theatre ever since. Up until recently he had been in Australia. He became a major at the age of 28.

In December of 1938 Col. Blodgett married Jane Bradford Sutton, who is making her home for the present with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Sutton of West Roxbury.

BOY BEAN-BLOWER PUNCHED

A resident of the Winter Pond section complained to the Police Wednesday afternoon that the driver of a truck on Woodside road had punched her son.

The driver, an 18 year old Woburn youth, was contacted by the Police and came to the Station, claiming that a boy had chased his truck on a bicycle and had blown beans at him through a bean-blower. He admitted punching the boy, and seemed not at all contrite about it.

The complaining mother claimed that the truck driver had gotten the wrong boy and that her son had not been responsible for the bean-blowing. The truck driver agreed to go to her home and straighten things out, stating however that if the boy he found there was the boy who had hit him with the beans, all bets as far as he was concerned, were off.

ELEVATED TO PRIESTHOOD AND WED

Rev. Murray Wilder Dewart, son of the late Rev. Murray W. Dewart who was formerly for several years rector of the Church of the Epiphany, was elevated to the Episcopal priesthood on last Friday, Oct. 20 in Christ Church, Baltimore, of which his father was rector after leaving Winchester.

On the day following his ordination, Rev. Mr. Dewart was married in Emmanual Church, Baltimore, to Miss Clare Haxall Beirne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis F. Beirne of Baltimore.

His bride, whose father is a journalist with the Baltimore Sun, is a graduate of Smith and is now taking graduate courses there in social service. Rev. Mr. Dewart is curate at St. John's Church in Waterbury, Conn. He is a graduate of Johns Hopkins University and Virginia Theological Seminary.

MISS CAROLYN THOMPSON ENGAGED

Mr and Mrs Christian W Thompson of Highland Avenue, announce the engagement of their laughter, Carolyn to Mr Edward Emmett Holstrom, Jr USA, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Emmett Holstrom of Chicago, Ill.

Miss Thompson attended Northeastern University Mr. Holstrom was graduated from the University of Chicago, and is stationed at the Army Base in Boston.

TIMOTHY HENRY CALLAHAN

Timothy Henry Callahan, retired member of the Highway Department and native of Winchester, died early this morning at his home, 35 Oak street, after a long illness. He was 79 years old.

Mr. Callahan spent his entire life in Winchester, receiving his education in the Winchester schools. In the days of hand-drawn fire apparatus he was a member of the old Excelsior Hose Company. For many years, until his retirement nine years ago he was a team-ster in the employ of the Winchester Highway Department.

Mr. Callahan was a widower, his wife, the former Rose Etta Haggerty having died in 1925. He leaves a daughter, Mrs. John T. Sygles of this town; six sons, Edward L., Bernard F., and Lt. James E., of Winchester, the latter a member of the permanent Fire Department of the town; Timothy H., of Woburn, Sgt. John T., with the Army in France; and Joseph W. Callahan of Miami, Fla. There are also 16 grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

The funeral will be held Monday morning from the home of Bernard F. Callahan, 69 Church street. High mass of requiem will be celebrated in St. Mary's Church at 9 o'clock. Interment will be in Calvary Cemetery.

SGT. CAPUTO DECORATED

Mr and Mrs Anthony Caputo of 15 Irving Street have been notified by Lt Gen George C Kenney that their son Staff Sgt Angelo B Caputo (USAAF) has been decorated with the Air Medal in recognition of courageous service to his combat organization and country.

Staff Sgt Caputo was cited for meritorious achievement while participating in aerial flights in the Southwest Pacific Area from June 11 to July 27, 1944.

In his letter Lt. General Kenney wrote:—

"Your son (Staff Sgt Caputo) took part in sustained operational flight missions during which hostile contact was probable and expected. These flights included bombing missions against enemy installations, shipping and supply bases, and aided considerably in the recent successes in this theatre. I would like to tell you how genuinely proud I am to have men such as your son in my command, and how gratified I am to know that young Americans with such courage and resourcefulness are fighting our country's battles against the aggressor."

MARRIED ON SISTER'S ANNIVERSARY

Mr and Mrs. Arthur G Burtnett of Wildwood Street were the attendants on Sunday, Oct. 15, at the marriage of Mrs. Burtnett's sister, Miss Bernice Frances Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hall Parker of Arlington to Sylvester Levi Horne, son of Mr and Mrs Arthur R Horne of Somerville.

The ceremony was followed by a reception at the Burtnett home in Winchester, and it is of further interest that the marriage took place on the Burtnett's 20th wedding anniversary.

BOY THREATENED WOMAN

Monday afternoon an elderly woman while on Wakefield Road, was approached by a boy who told her that she owed him ten dollars and threatened to hit her if she did not pay him.

The woman pointed out the boy to Sgt. Thomas F. Cassidy and the youngster admitted his conversation with the woman and his threat to strike her. He gave his name to Sgt Cassidy and an address in Medford stating that he was 12 years old.

At Headquarters Chief Rogers questioned the boy and finally communicated with the Medford police. Captain Lennox and a special officer coming to Winchester. They identified the boy as belonging in Medford and as 12 years of age, but said he had given the local authorities a different name. The local police say the boy admitted that he had committed a similar offense in Medford. He was taken in charge by Captain Lennox of the Medford police.

LINNELL BROTHERS HOME ON LEAVE

Lt (J.G.) Robert C. Linnell of the Amphibious Forces and Donald J. Linnell of the Air Forces, sons of Mr and Mrs C. W. Linnell of 4 Lincolnshire Way, are both home on leave and with their wives enjoying a family reunion with their parents here.

Lt. Linnell is home on a 30 day leave after serving 18 months overseas with the Amphibious Forces. He was commanding officer of an LC I (L) in the Mediterranean Area and is entitled to wear the service ribbons with five major combat stars.

His brother, Don, is stationed at Robins Field, Ga. and is home on an 18 day furlough.

DR. J. HARPER BLAISDELL

Dr. J. Harper Blaisdell of 18 Brooks street, a recognized authority in the field of dermatology and formerly for many years chairman of the Winchester Board of Health met death by accident at noon on Wednesday, Oct. 25, in Boston, where he had offices at 15 Bay State road.

Dr. Blaisdell was widely known in Winchester, having taken for many years an active interest in civic affairs. He was a member of the Finance Committee from 1921 to 1924, serving as chairman for two years. He was a member of the Board of Selectmen from 1925-1928, serving as chairman in 1928, and for 18 years, from 1924 to 1942, he was a member of the Board of Health, serving as chairman for 17 of the 18 years he was on the Board. He was also a town meeting member-at-large from 1929 to 1943. Flags on the common and town buildings were displayed at half-staff in his honor.

Dr. Blaisdell was born in Providence, R. I., May 1, 1886, son of Albert F. and Mary Atwood (Emery) Blaisdell. His father was a physician and author, who was well known in both the medical and literary fields.

As a boy of 9 years, Dr. Blaisdell came with his parents to Winchester and grew up in this town, attending the public schools and graduating from Winchester High School in the class of 1903. He graduated in 1907 from Dartmouth College, where he was a member of the Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity, and from Harvard Medical School in the class of 1911, being a member of the Chi Phi medical fraternity.

ROTARY NOTES

President Harry Bigelow of the Winchester Rotary Club announced at yesterday's luncheon that Rev. John Nicol Mark of Arlington will be the speaker at next Thursday's meeting.

Yesterday's meeting had several visitors, including Rev. Walter Lee Bailey of the First Baptist Church and Mr. Clarence Peterson of Lexington. Also present was Mr. Sherman Russell, representing the Winchester committee on the sixth War Loan Drive, who spoke briefly on behalf of Winchester's efforts. Moving pictures were shown.

The committee on aims and objects presented through its chairman, Vincent M. Ambrose, a list of six projects which were recommended for Rotarian support. There was a brief discussion, and it was decided to consider the projects at a later meeting. It was, however, voted to send suitable Christmas greetings to members now in the service.

The singing was by Dr. J. Churchill Hindes, with Clarence Peterson at the piano.

A new innovation was undertaken at the meetings—the awarding of a war bond to one of the Rotarians present. Yesterday's award went to Tax Collector Nathaniel M. Nichols. From now on one bond will be awarded weekly.

S. S. NEWS

On Thursday morning, Oct. 26, the Local Selective Service Board sent a small group of men to Fort Banks to undergo their pre-induction physical examination. The majority of men who pass this examination will be forwarded for induction into the armed forces on Nov. 28, 1944.

The following men, having passed their physical examination on previous dates, will be forwarded for induction on Oct. 31:

John T. Horn, 28 Spruce street.
Arthur A. King, 891 Main street.

The usual going away ceremonies will be held in the Town Hall at 7.45 a. m. on that date and friends of the registrants and the public generally are invited.

INJURED SCHOOLGIRL IMPROVING

Constance Ranlett, 10 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Ranlett of 17 Dix street, is reported as recovering remarkably from the serious injuries which she sustained when she was struck by an automobile on the afternoon of Oct. 9 while attempting to cross Church street in front of the Wyman School.

Constance sustained a fractured skull and pelvis as well as multiple contusions and abrasions. The head injuries are reported to have cleared up nicely and Wednesday she was placed in a cast to correct the injury to her pelvis.

HENRY M. WOLL

Henry M. Woll of 7 Grasmere Road died early Saturday afternoon, Oct. 21 at his home after a long illness.

Mr. Woll was born July 6, 1870, in Oslo, Norway, son of Oscar and Marie (Carlson) Woll. He came with his parents to this country at the age of 11 months and spent his early life in Cambridge, being graduated from the Cambridge schools.

Mr. Woll was a member of the electrical engineering department of the Compton Pyrometer Co., and a similar position at the Simplex Wire Co. in Brookline. He was a Mason, having been for many years a member of Charity Lodge in Cambridge. He came to Winchester from Medford forty years ago.

On April 12, 1927, Mr. Woll married Olivia M. Humphrey, who survives, with his parents, living in Cambridge, a sister, Elsie, of Manchester, N. H. and a brother, George Woll of Wellesley.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the late residence with Rev. Dwight W. Hadley, rector of the Church of the Epiphany, officiating.

ROBERT STEPHEN PAINE

Stricken with a heart attack while visiting in Cambridge, Vt., Robert Stephen Paine, 55, of Briarwood Road died suddenly on Friday afternoon, Oct. 20.

Mr. Paine was the son of Robert S. and Ellen (Sweeney) Paine. He was born April 22, 1889, in Cambridge, but spent most of his early life in Somerville, being graduated in the Somerville schools and at Somerville High School. For 35 years he was associated with the United Fruit Company in Boston.

Mr. Paine came to Winchester 15 years ago from Somerville where his family long resided at the College Ave. He leaves a son, Robert S. Paine, 3rd, a daughter, Louise E. Paine, seaman, 2 c., USCGR, stationed in Brooklyn, N. Y., and a grandson Robert S. Paine, 4th.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Kelley & Hawes Chapel with Rev. Dwight W. Hadley, rector of the Church of the Epiphany, officiating. Interment was in Wildwood Cemetery.

Before Dr. Robinson's talk at the Fortnightly a most interesting report of the annual meeting of the Mass. State Federation of Women's Clubs in Swampscott was given by Mrs. Clifton S. Hall, Federation Secretary. And each member present had reason to be grateful to Mrs. Wilbert E. Underwood, chairman of legislation, for her clarification of the five referenda appearing on the November election ballot.

To Winchester Voters:-

There are many of you who have contributions for the Massachusetts Republican Finance Committee in your pockets, on the desk or possibly in the "Mean-to-" stage!

These steps toward actual contributing do not help to return "Honesty" and "Integrity" both to the Federal and State Govermnent. It is the contributions in the possession of the Massachusetts Republican Finance Committee that help.

We are now on the home Stretch! Every ounce of energy, resources and initiative, in votes and financial assistance is needed to win the Election and the Peace in the world and ta home.

Do your part and send in your contribution now to the Massachusetts Republican Finance Committee, 576 Main Street, Winchester, Mass. Call Win. 0188 or 0088 and a solicitor will gladly call on you.

We all shall appreciate much in our ivnestment in the return of Honesty and Integrity in Government on Jan. 20, 1945.

Thank you again for contributions made.

Vote on Tuesday, Nov. 7, 1944 for Governors Dewey, Bricker, Saltonstall and entire Republican ticket.

The Red Cross is a philanthropic organization equipped to perform acts of mercy more effectively and efficiently than would be possible if undertaken by its members individually.

In assuming this responsibility it is dependent primarily on its members for financial backing and in addition requires the services of willing workers to produce necessary supplies and equipment, to secure the donation of requested articles and to perform the many duties necessary to make possible the high standard of accomplishment for which the Red Cross is noted.

The Red Cross functions both in peace and in war and, being free from red tape and needless restrictions, acts immediately when an emergency arises so when you are requested to contribute of your means, time, talents or physical effort please consider that it is your conscience reminding you of your obligations and not some outside agency spurring you to action.

TAKE GOOD CARE OF YOUR GAS WATER HEATER

Wartime restrictions on new gas water heaters mean that we must take care of those we have, so they will serve better—longer. Wipe off outside of heater occasionally. Clean the burner periodically with stiff brush and keep heating coils clean. Draw off a few quarts of water from faucet at bottom of tank about once a month. This removes sediment, saves gas and insures clean hot water.

Miss Parkhurst desires to encourage the Study of Music and Piano by Adults. To be able to play one's favorite Symphony or a piece by a noted composer need not mean drudgery but real enjoyment. She would advise ensemble playing of all kinds.

It is a deplorable condition for young people of high school age to discontinue the study of an Art which means so much to them in later life.

It's Time For A Change

A change of less than 600,000 votes in 11 states for Governor Dewey and Bricker over the 1940 Republican vote will elect them.

This amounts to an average of only about 55,000 more votes in each of these states. It will give your candidates 290 Electoral votes, or 21 more than enough to defeat the Fourth Term candidate.

Since 1936 the national trend has been turning to the Republicans. From only 8 Governors, 17 Senators and 89 Representatives eight years ago, the Republicans have moved forward to 26 Governors (in states accounting for 342 electoral votes), 48 Senators and 212 Representatives.

These facts show that Dewey and Bricker will be elected next month, and they can win by the shift of only a small number of votes.

What must be done to win the votes?

Dewey and Bricker are engaged in the mighty task of presenting to the American people the reasons why "It's Time For A Change." They are winning new supporters every day. On Governor Dewey's return from his recent 6000-mile trans-continental tour, 37 of the 48 newspaper correspondents who accompanied him agreed that his fighting, fact-packed speeches had improved his chances of election. Both of your national candidates will continue to speak out plainly and vigorously to carry the facts to the voters until Election Day. Be sure to listen to them on the radio . . . and ask everyone you know to listen, too.

It is impossible, however, for Dewey or Bricker to talk to or write personally to the members of your family, your neighbor next door, or your social and business friends. They count on your help to do that.

EVERY SINGLE VOTE IN WINCHESTER is important in this election.

Take the facts you find in this article and put them into circulation among all those around you . . . family, friends, and neighbors. Talk to as many voters as possible, and WRITE NOW to those you cannot talk to . . . and help them to realize why "It's Time For A Change."

F. D. R. BLOCKED U. S. AIRPOWER

During his first seven years in office, Roosevelt spent over $59 billion—yet Pearl Harbor caught the U. S. with less than 500 bombers. One of Roosevelt's first official acts was to deal a crushing blow to the growing aviation industry by arbitrarily cancelling all airmail contracts, banishing 34 key executives from their own companies, and ordering the Army to fly the mail. Total net result of this action was the death of 12 Army pilots, and the eventual restoration of the contracts. In 1937, Major General Frank Andrews, then Army Air Corps chief, warned that "we lack fliers and planes not to mention bases and equipment . . . but funds for our personnel housing and technical buildings are lacking . . . We have no balanced program." While other nations were building powerful air forces, the U. S. slipped to sixth place in airpower, and Roosevelt did nothing. When Munich came after six years of the New Deal, the U. S. ranked SEVENTH. U. S. Ambassador Joseph Kennedy in London told Roosevelt that if Chamberlain had had 5000 first-line planes at home, Hitler would not have gone to war. "Send us clouds of planes," Frances begged as she went down, but the U. S. did not have them. Even when Roosevelt rushed in panic to the microphone in May, 1940 to ask for 50,000 planes, he had before Congress a resolution asking for ANOTHER BILLION DOLLARS FOR W. P. A. which declared: "None of the funds appropriatel by this joint resolution shall be used for the manufacture, purchase or construction of any Naval vessel, any armament, munitions or implements of war for military or naval forces."

DEWEY ON TWO-OCEAN NAVY

Five months before the fall of France, DEWEY called for a two-ocean Navy. Roosevelt called this suggestion "just plain dumb," adding that if there was any merit to the "theory" it became outmoded with the acquisition of California in 1887.

BRICKER VS TRUMAN

Contrast the record of Governor Bricker with F. D. R.'s THIRD NEW running mate. Truman was raised politically by Boss Pendergast, helped into the Senate by Boss Hannegan, and was tapped for the Democratic Vice-Presidential nomination after Hague, Kelly and Flynn persuaded Roosevelt and Hillman to change second-place horses in the middle of the campaign stream. On the other hand, Governor Bricker took over the Ohio government after a Democratic governor had brought it to the brink of financial disaster—with class conflict rampant, bereaucracy in the ascendency, and taxes and debts skyrocketing. Bricker threw out the incompetents, deflated the swollen state payroll, reduced expenses, wiped out the huge state debt, piled up a large surplus, strengthened every agency by appointing skilled administrators, and mapped out a program for bridging the transition from war to peace in the post-war period in his state.

F. D. R. BIGGEST SPENDER

Roosevelt spent MORE MONEY UP TO SIX MONTHS BEFORE THE U. S. ENTERED THIS WAR than the combined spendings of all the thirty previous Presidents except Wilson whose administration included World War I. Except for Wilson's spending of nearly $46 billion in his eight years, the other presidents spent altogether about $64 billion in 136½ years, while ROOSEVELT SPENT $69 BILLION IN LESS THAN NINE PEACETIME YEARS. The annual interest charges alone on the Federal debt at the end of this war will exceed the annual total of all Federal expenditures under any Republican president.

The President was far too busy trying to bend the Supreme Court to his will, inventing boondoggling projects, denouncing American industry, planning for an America which he announced had grown old and stagnant. No wonder our back was turned and we were pitched into a war ill-prepared physically, mentally, morally! For eight long years the foreign policy of the U. S. A. was conducted in the White House and State Department in far more secret ways than even the Dumbarton Oaks Conference."—Congresswoman Clare Boothe Luce.

Under the stress of war, we have thrown off the stupor and despair that seemed in the decade of the Nineteen Thirties to have settled permanently on our land. Today we know our strength and we know our ability. Shall we go back to the seven straight years of unemployment? Shall we go back to the corroding misery of leaf-raking and doles? Shall we continue an administration which invokes the language of our enemies and recklessly hurls charges of falsehood concerning things it knows to be the truth? I say the time has come to put a stop to everything that is summed up in that phrase 'the indispensable man.' If any man is indispensable, then none of us are free."—Governor Thomas E. Dewey.

WINCHESTER HIGH AT FRAMINGHAM

Winchester High's undefeated football team is due to receive a real testing tomorrow afternoon when the locals go to Framingham. A year ago Framingham beat Winchester 12-6 in the season's opening game for both schools, but this year the Blue and Silver has lost some of its last year's strength, while the locals are admittedly stronger this fall. Assistant Coach Andy Webster, who scouted the Framingham-Belmont game, brought back the report that Framingham is a good-sized capable club that will give Winchester a whale of a ball game.

Framingham hasn't been winning all its games this year. It was edged by Fitchburg, 13-12, and lost to Belmont, 2-0 a game from all reports it should have won. Beaten by strong North Quincy, it has won only from Norwood. This is on the average a lot stronger opposition than Winchester has faced this fall.

Framingham cancelled its game with Brookline, held over from Saturday, not wishing to play Monday with Winchester coming up tomorrow. Asst. Coach Mike Vodoclys, former Maynard coach, now at Framingham told Coach Knowlton after the Stoneham game that some of the Framingham boys are not in too good shape.

Going two weeks without a game makes it hard to hold a good physical edge as Framingham may find when it bumps the rugged locals tomorrow. Winchester came through the Stoneham game in good shape and the hard battle with the scrappy light blue was just what Coach Knowlton wanted his varsity to have.

While making no rash predictions the popular local mentor expects his boys to give a good account of themselves at Framingham tomorrow and the local boys themselves are definitely going up to the horse show town to win.

Time will tell. Winchester will line up with Faleta and Armstrong, ends; Latham and Stevenson, tackles; Buie and Lovejoy, guards; Buzzotta, center and Captain Walsh, Roche, Haggerty and Tibaudo, backs. Starting time 2:00 o'clock.

NEWS FROM "FRANKIE"

Now he is Technician Frank Provinzano, attached to Company A of the 819th Engineering Avn Battalion on duty somewhere in France, but to local sports followers he will always be "Frankie" Provinzano, former Winchester High School three sport athlete, who later starred at Wilbraham Academy and Boston University.

"Frankie" writes that he enjoys getting the Star and through it has been able to keep in touch with the whereabouts of many of his friends from home, now scattered all over the world in the armed services.

Though he has been in France for some time he has met only one Winchester boy there. Capt. William D. Barnes, who is in the Army Medical Corps. The pair met three times, previous to "Frankie's" outfit being sent ahead, and had a great time talking over Winchester and mutual friends.

"Frankie" writes that he has seen some unforgettable scenes in France including night displays of pyrotechnics which occur when the Nazi planes with their tracers encounter the shells of the Allied ack ack units. He found that the French were at first rather cool toward the allied troops but they are rapidly becoming friendly and now hail them as "liberators." Some German prisoners he has met quite frankly told him "the war can not last much longer, as we can not defeat you."

"Frankie" sends his best to his friends at home and hopes before long to be back in Winchester.

REPUBLICAN CLUB TO HOLD OPEN MEETING

An opportunity to hear an interpretation of the findings at the Dumbarton Oaks Conference, by an authority of note, is given to the members and guests at an open meeting of the Winchester Women's Republican Club on Wednesday, Nov. 1, when the education committee presents Dr. Norman J. Padelford, professor of International Relations at Mass. Institute of Technology.

Dr. Padelford, a resident of Winchester, will speak on the conference at Dumbarton Oaks, last month, and give an understanding summary of the delegates work and their conclusions, what they mean as a basis for further post-war legislation for a lasting peace.

The education committee has as its chairman, this year, Mrs. Ralph M. Sparks. She and her committee members will speak briefly at each club meeting, to call attention to items, stories and facts of current national interest. Those serving with her are Mrs. Leo W. Blaisdell, Mrs. William C. Cusack, Miss Eleanor Dow, Mrs. Warren C. Whitman, Mrs. Walter W. Winship, and Mrs. Philip Woodward.

The meeting is called for 2 o'clock. Dr. Padelford will speak at 3 o'clock.

Tea will be served following the meeting. This social hour will give many the chance to meet the new members who have joined the club this election year to support the fine organized work being done for the party candidates.

RECEIVED BROWN DEGREE

Edson M. Chick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis S. Chick of 5 Cambridge street was awarded an A. B. degree in Economics in Absentia, at Brown University's combined baccalaureate and graduation exercises Sunday afternoon Oct. 22.

Chick, a graduate of Deerfield Academy, received his commission as an Ensign in the Naval Reserve last February. At the same time he received a certificate of academic achievement from the University.

While at Brown, he was a member of the Naval Reserved Officer's Training Corps, the fraternity championship swimming team and Alpha Delta Phi fraternity.

He was also a desk editor on the Brown Daily Herald. His father graduated from Brown in 1922.

WINCHESTER FOOTBALL SYSTEM PAYING DIVIDENDS

Winchester High School apparently has quite a football team this fall, and although it is too early to talk about an undefeated season and Class C championship, it surely is permissible to advance the opinion that it will take a real good club to knock the locals off. Even playing against weak opposition Winchester has looked good and Coach Knowlton has enough depth this year to prevent any let-down on the part of his so-called first string. Indeed it is rather a moot question, after watching the second team in action, which is the better club, and the third wave is plenty good enough to keep the seconds on their toes every minute.

This highly desirable condition did not just happen. Coach Henry Knowlton is this year getting dividends on the building he has done ever since he took over at Winchester five years ago, when he commenced to keep every boy possible out for football during the entire season, providing inter-school and intra-squad games so that the scrubs could have actual playing experience. The boys who are doing so well on the varsity and second team this year are for the most part products of Coach Knowlton's system of development which is going on this year as it has in the past. It is quite a job to keep a squad of some hundred boys busy and happy playing football, but Coach Knowlton and his assistants are doing it and their efforts seem to be the difference between a good team and mediocrity.

In answer to those who are hollering for Winchester to play tougher teams it can be said that the locals are playing Class C teams and that the Winchester School Department is on record as against its teams going out of their class. The Faculty Manager would welcome replacing one or two of the weaker teams on the local schedule, but doing so is a difficult, if not impossible task. Most schools hereabouts have their schedules virtually filled for a couple of years in advance, and fitting any open dates which they might have into Winchester's list of games is quite likely to be out of the question.

Winchester is rated a Class C school and rightly so on its enrollment. That it could play some Class B teams on even terms is probably true. That it could compete week in and week out with Class B clubs is doubtful, and that it could regularly play Class A schools is a mistaken theory on the record.

Winchester used to play teams like Melrose, Arlington, Medford and Watertown. It stopped because those schools were too big to play regularly on even terms.

There is no question but what the local coaches and players would like some stiffer opposition this fall. In fact they would welcome it as much as the dissatisfied spectators. It is not the fault of the local boys that they happen to outclass the teams that they are meeting. Those whose business it is to separate schools into classes for fairness of competition believe Winchester is in the class of the opposition it regularly faces. Swampscott last season gave Winchester a 26-6 going over and Winthrop was taken on this season in an effort to give the local schedule more strength. It wasn't so long ago either that Lexington could not be laughed off, though the Minutemen of late have not been too potent. Danvers gave Winchester two good games in four including a defeat, and Coach Vye after the holiday meeting here, maintained his team is a whole lot better than it looked against Winchester, claiming that this year's local team is a mighty good outfit.

We'll know more about that when Winchester stacks up against such teams as Framingham, Belmont, Wakefield and Woburn; and Reading may not be any pushover. The local management is trying to improve the quality of the Winchester schedule, but getting just the right teams is not as easy as the grandstand coaches and managers seem to suppose.

The Star has received from time to time complaints about the activities of dogs at football games, and there is no doubt about them being a nuisance to everyone, spectators, officials and players. To the players the gamboling canines are an added hazard which can hardly be justified. The suggestion has been made that some of the army of assistant managers grab the dogs at the gates and tie them up so they can not get onto the playing surface of the field. Whether this could be done under the law we do not know, but it would be a lot easier as well as safer if the owners of the dogs would keep them at home on game afternoons. Surely that shouldn't be such an awful chore and it certainly would add a lot to everyones enjoyment of our football games.

FOR WHOM SHALL I VOTE?

To the Editor of the Star:

How shall I decide for whom to vote in the coming election? Wisdom knows but one way: be guided by the record and achievements of the individual, not by his speeches and writings. Actions speak louder than words, deeds reveal the character of the man. Has his administration of public affairs demonstrated ability, wisdom, prudence and steadfastness?

It is a waste of time to attend political rallies, to read the campaign speeches of the contestants fraught as they are for the most part with vain promises, blandishments and claptrap. Too often it has been shown that policies advocated before election are not carried out afterwards. To illustrate in the campaign of 1932, Mr. Roosevelt said in a speech at Sioux City, Iowa, Sept. 29, "I propose to discuss up and down the country, in all seasons and at all times, the duty of reducing taxes, of getting the most public service for every dollar paid in taxation. That I pledge you, and nothing I have said in this campaign transcends in importance this covenant with the taxpayer of the United States." At St. Louis, Oct. 21 1932 he said, "It is my pledge and promise that rigid governmental economy shall be enforced by a stern and unremitting administration policy of living within our income." After election these promises and others were broken, in a government splurge on borrowed money, that speedily created a national peace time debt of $50 billion.

Choice for President the kind of man you would trust to manage your business affairs, your investments and properties and as counselor for your family if you should die.

The people are weary of words. Take your fireside chats and New Deal ghost-written declamations have been enough. Called to speak freely, frankness and sincerity instead of expediency, steadfastness and honesty rather than duplicity—administrators with these attributes are needed if the trend towards totalitarian government and dictatorship in this country is to be checked.

For president vote for the steadfast man, one who has been proved by his deeds, by a record of sound and prudent administration, one who talks little and does much. I repeat, never mind what they say, let the record speak.

Mr. Dewey's record makes him far and away the wisest choice.

Very truly yours,
Daniel C. Bennett, M. D.

AIDS FERRYING SUPPLIES IN ITALY

WINCHESTER 26—STONEHAM 0

Tibaudo Star of Clean Cut Victory

Winchester High beat Stoneham Monday afternoon on Manchester Field, Winchester, 26-0 in a game postponed from Saturday because of rain. Stoneham came to Winchester undefeated and apparently with high hopes, but the visitors never really threatened after the first time they were in possession of the ball, when a long down-the-field pass just missed connecting for a touchdown.

The Blue and White scrapped as Stoneham teams always do and Winchester didn't find the going too easy the first team being able to stay in for most of the game.

Winchester made 11 first downs and rolled up 230 yards on the ground completing four of 10 passes for 71 yards and being penalized 15 yard. Stoneham made three first downs and 28 yards by rushing, completing two of 10 passes for 17 yards. The visitors drew one five-yard penalty and fumbled once.

Stoneham kicked off and Winchester scored without losing possession of the ball. Tibaudo ran the kickoff back 15 yards to his 43 and picked up six yards on first down. Haggerty reversed to a first down at the Stoneham 36. Rocho added five, Tibaudo five, and then Tibaudo made it first down again at the Stoneham 30. Rocho added five and Haggerty almost two before Tibaudo broke through to the Stoneham 12 for first down.

Rocho got seven and after Tibaudo was stopped, added two. With the ball on the three and fourth down Tibaudo sliced over off his right tackle. Walsh converted at placement.

Stoneham ran the kickoff back to its 31 and then on the very first play nearly cashed in. A long pass covering a good 40 yards fell just a bit short of the receiver, who stumbled and lost the leather all alone about the Winchester 20.

The visitors had to kick and Winchester's offense also failed to go anywhere. Stoneham taking the ball on downs at its 35 shortly after the beginning of the second quarter.

Once again Stoneham had to punt and Winchester made a one-clutch of Livingstone's short high one at his own 19. Tibaudo made a yard, and then on a quick opening play, broke through the Stoneham line, cut out and then in to race 50 long yards for a touchdown. Once again Walsh converted perfectly.

That ended the scoring for the first half, and largely through a nice kick out of bounds at the Winchester 10 by Livingstone, Winchester was unable to get anywhere in the third quarter.

Shortly after the teams changed places for the final period Stoneham gambled on a pass on fourth down and lost the ball to Winchester at the locals' 45 yard line.

The gamble proved costly for on first down Tibaudo faded and shot out a beauty pass down the alley just over the Stoneham safety man's head Jimmy Haggerty, Winchester wing back, came from nowhere to take the pass, making a corking completion about 25 yards. Without breaking his stride Haggerty was off to pay dirt, scoring without a hand laid upon him. Walsh failed to convert, his drive being low.

At this point Coach Knowlton sent in his second team, and shortly after Rod Hamon had kicked off for Winchester, Mario Buzzotta intercepted a Stoneham pass at the visitors' 30.

Johnny West hit center for two and Ted O'Rourke reversed for seven. With a yard needed, West found a big hole on the right side of the Stoneham line, was into it fast, and smashing past the secondaries, drove along for 21 yards and a touchdown, going over standing up. O'Rourke's try for the conversion was plenty high but also quite wide.

There was still a thrill or two left. Following the kickoff Stoneham completed a 12 yard pass for a first down at midfield. After two incomplete passes Bellino intercepted a pass to dodge and squirm 15 yards to his 16. Aided by a 5 yard penalty against Stoneham for too many times out Winchester made a first down at the Stoneham 42.

Here a buck and lateral went sour and Bellino finally made a spectacular recovery of the ball away back on his 35. An end around and reverse were pulled up and Johnny West's attempted punt, blocked, Stoneham taking over at the Winchester 25.

On first down Osgood intercepted a long Stoneham aerial at his five and the game was over. The summary:

After an internship in dermatology at the Massachusetts General Hospital, Dr. Blaisdell, in 1914, commenced to practice in Boston, specializing in dermatology. He had a profound interest in those diseases of the skin due to industrial occupation and he made nationally known contributions to the diagnosis and treatment of such cases, as well as toward their settlement under the workmen's compensation laws. He was recognized by the medical profession as an authority in his field.

His conception of sociological conditions with particular reference to obtaining the best possible medical care for the under privileged and middle class has seldom, if ever, been surpassed. He devoted many years of untiring labor that his conception might become a reality.

As the result of his research and personal effort he became the recognized leader in the foundation of the Massachusetts Hospital Service Corporation, known as the Blue Cross, which provides budgeted hospitalization. Similarly in 1942, through his ceaseless personal effort, he was solely responsible for the foundation of the Massachusetts Medical Service, or Blue Shield, which provides a budgeted plan for professional medical care and attention.

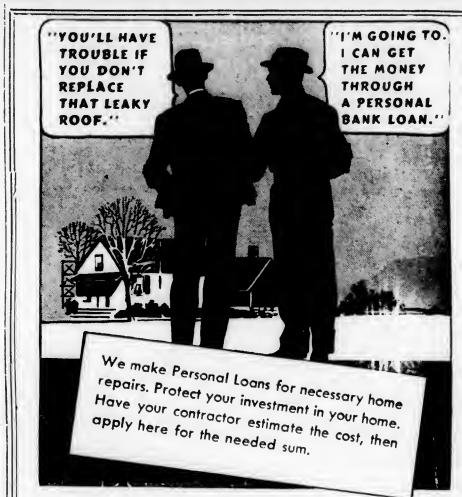

A teacher for many years in the Harvard University School of Medicine, he was a member of the staffs of the Massachusetts General Hospital and Boston Dispensary, as well as consulting dermatologist at the Winchester, Gale (Haverhill), Malden, Melrose and Exeter, N. H., Hospitals. Medical literature contains many original contributions of which he was the author.

Dr. Blaisdell was a member of the Massachusetts Medical Society, American Medical Association, past president of the Middlesex East District Medical Society, chairman of the Headquarters Committee of the Massachusetts Medical Society, and for many years a member of the Society's Public Relations Committee. He was also a member of the American Dermatological Association, Atlantic Dermatological Conference, past president of the New England Dermatological Society and one time chairman of the Section of Dermatology and Syphilis of the American Medical Association.

He was a member of the Harvard Club of Boston, a member of the Board of Directors of the Massachusetts Hospital Service Corporation (Blue Cross) and of the Massachusetts Medical Service Corporation (Blue Shield); and a former member of William Parkman Lodge of Masons and of the Winchester Country Club.

On Feb. 12, 1902, he married Inez Frances Kimball of Rockford, Ill., who survives, with two sons, Cpl. Elliott K. (Bill) Blaisdell, attached to the Army Air Forces as dispatcher at Avon Park, Fla.; J. Harper Blaisdell, Jr., and a granddaughter, Maryann K. Blaisdell, both of Hartford, Conn.

Funeral services will be held on Saturday afternoon, Oct. 28 at 2:30 at the First Congregational Church with the pastor, Rev. Howard J. Chidley, officiating. Interment will be in the family lot in Wildwood Cemetery.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Mrs. George W Cary, member of the Winchester Council of Girl Scouts, attended the Fall Meeting of the Public Relations Division of the Greater Boston Community Council at the Y W C A in Boston on Thursday. The campaign for funds is ready now to begin the gargantuan task of collecting $7,450.00 for this year's needs. Winchester Girl Scouts are members of the Red Feather Services.

The Mariners will meet Monday night to organize their crew. This first meeting will be at the Girl Scout office at 7 o'clock Mesdames Fineburg, Spofford and Treacy have started their troops and all the Brownie troops have gotten away to a wonderful start. There are still some troops waiting for leaders. If YOU can help please do. Miss Stansfield at the Girl Scout office, will be glad to talk with you. Girl Scouting is profit sharing fun. Let it be part of your war effort!

HOW TO VOTE ON BALLOT QUESTIONS

A Simple Explanation of Perplexing Points Requiring Simplification

The presidential ballot you will receive on Tuesday, Nov. 7, contains five perplexing and confusing questions. In accordance with present-day custom the questions are presented in a welter of words and phrases which make it difficult if not impossible for the average voter to mark his ballot intelligently. Through the courtesy of the Massachusetts League of Women Voters these questions have been boiled down to a simple wording giving you a clear understanding of what you are voting upon and how to express your opinion correctly.

QUESTIONS APPEARING ON MASS. BALLOTS IN 1944

The following five questions are simplifications of those which will appear on the ballot Nov. 7.

QUESTION NO. 1

DO YOU APPROVE A CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT SIMPLIFYING THE FORM AND WORDING OF QUESTIONS ON THE BALLOT SO THAT FUTURE QUESTIONS WILL BE BRIEFER AND MORE EASILY UNDERSTOOD THAN HERETOFORE?

A YES vote means that future questions will be more simply and briefly stated.

A NO vote means that future questions appearing on the ballot will be in the same form as they are now.

QUESTION NO. 2

DO YOU APPROVE A CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT WHICH WOULD ALLOW THE LEGISLATURE TO "PRESCRIBE THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS UNDER WHICH PARDONS OF OFFENSES WHICH ARE FELONIES MAY BE GRANTED?"

A YES vote means that the legislature would have the power to change the conditions under which a pardon may be granted.

A NO vote means that the pardoning power will continue to be vested in the Governor by and with the advice of the Council.

QUESTION NO. 3

DO YOU APPROVE A CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT PROVIDING THAT THE LEGISLATURE MEET ANNUALLY, INSTEAD OF EVERY OTHER YEAR?

A YES vote means that the legislature will meet every year as it did up to 1938 when a Constitutional amendment providing for biennial session was adopted.

A NO vote means that the legislature will continue to meet every other year.

QUESTION NO. 4

DO YOU APPROVE OF AN AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION "PRVIDING FOR ABSENT VOTING BY QUALIFIED VOTERS WHO BY REASON OF PHYSICAL DISABILITY ARE UNABLE TO VOTE IN PERSON?"

A YES vote means that qualified voters, who are physically unable to go to the polls and who are now unable to vote may vote by means of an absentee ballot.

A NO vote means that qualified voters who are physically unable to go to the polls will not be able to vte

QUESTION NO. 5

DO YOU APPROVE OF PROHIBITING BEANO WHEN PLAYED FOR PRIZES"

A YES vote means that you do NOT wish to allow beano to be played for prizes.

A NO vote means that you DO wish to legalize the playing of beano for prizes.

In addition to these five questions, there will also appear on the ballot of every city and town the questions pertaining to the sale of alcoholic beverages in the particular city or town.

Wherefore doth a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins? Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the Lord." This passage from the Bible, Lamentations 3:39,40, comprises the Golden Text to be used in the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, and in all of its branches, on Sunday, Oct. 29.

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be "Everlasting Punishment," and included in the Bible selections is, "Thin own wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the Lord thy God and that my fear is not in thee, saith the Lord God of hosts" (Jeremiah 2:19).

The following passages from the Christian Science textbook, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, by Mary Baker Eddy, will also be included in the Lesson-Sermon. "The way to escape the misery of sin is to cease sinning. There is no other way. To the physical senses, the strict demands of Christian Science seem peremptory, but mortals are hastening to learn that Life is God, good, and that evil has in reality neither place nor power in the human or the divine economy" (p. 327).

COUPLES CLUB RADIO PARTY

Tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in Metcalf Hall of the Unitarian Church, The Winchester Couples Club will hold their first party of the 1944-1945 season. Though sponsored by the Unitarian Church, The Couples Club is open to all couples in town from 19 to 90, and irrespective of what church they attend, or whether they attend any church.

The Radio Party will be a mock radio program as it presented by the G G C T. Co. over the imaginary radio station WUNI. The program is entitled "Truth or Not. You Get the Consequences" and will be conducted exactly as if it were an actual program going over the air. There will be the microphone, loud speaker, audience participation, commercials theme songs, prizes, and every other detail to make the program realistic.

Bill Spaulding as "Speed Spaulding" and Lyndy Burnham as "Boom-Boom Burnham" will be the announcers, and those who know their ability will recognize that plenty of fun is in store for those present. Bob Carruthers as "Croon-Coaxer Carruthers" and Don R. Kroell as "Kidder Kroell" will assist the announcers with Properties and Sound Effects. The Management of the Program has announced that through the audience will be asked to participate in the program, it is promised that no one will be embarrassed by questions that require any great wisdom or mental dexterity.

The Couples Club exists to provide pleasant evenings for Winchester Couples to permit greater development of friendships between those living in Winchester and particularly to afford new Winchester residents an opportunity to meet and make friends. For tomorrow night's party where nothing will be done specifically by couples, Service Men's wives will be welcome, whether alone, or with other wives.

A LONDON VIEW OF THE PRESIDENT

To the Editor of The Herald

The following is from the London Financial News, and of interest to readers at this time

"Of Mr Roosevelt, it may be said that he means well, but acts erratically. In a dark hour of his country's history his leadership was splendid his brave spirit was infectious. He is a man of principle without principles. But in public life he demonstrates the truth of Oliver Cromwell's saying that 'no one goes so far as he who knows not whither he is going.'

"The President's policies revolve with the swiftness of an aeroplane's propeller. One day an inflationist, the next a deflationist. A fixer of prices who denounces his own creations, a giver of what he calls 'the more abundant life' who orders the destruction of food, while millions of his fellow-countrymen are under-nourished.

"A great preacher of free speech who threatened the political ruin of the Senators who for the sake of principle opposed his Supreme Court 'reforms.' A bitter critic of bureaucracy who has created so many bureaus that Washington cannot contain them. A stern advocate of economy, who has spent more money than any President in the history of the United States.

"These are but a few of President Roosevelt's gyrations. They suffice to show that no one, least of all the President, knows what he will do next. In the light of these inconsistencies can it be denied that confidence and Mr Roosevelt go ill together?"

HOODLUMS AT MANCHESTER FIELD

Some time last Friday evening hoodlums visited Manchester Field and broke down the football goal posts, knocked down a part of the snow fence surrounding the gridiron and threw the long boards from the bleacher seats around the field. With the drenching rain of Saturday, Supt. McGowan of the Park Department wisely left the field alone until Monday when the damage was repaired in time for the postponed game with Stoneham.

NEW SHOP OPENING

Following the trend of changing times, En Ka has embarked upon a new venture, the What-Not Shop which is locatd at 26 Church street opposite the Winchester Trust Co.

For the last week or so, a group of En Ka members has been busy arranging a variety of articles ranging from bric-a-brac, table lamps, Boston rockers to musical instruments, bedroom sets and gas stoves. Of course, there also will be found antiques and woolen out-door garments in excellent condition. This attractive shop, under the management of Mrs. Samuel Cole and Mrs. Herbert Wadsworth, will serve two aims: to supply the public, at reasonable prices, such articles as listed above and to increase En Ka funds in order that their charities may benefit.

The What-Not Shop will open its doors to the buying public next Wednesday, Nov. 1 at 1 o'clock. In the meantime, articles which are to be placed on sale on a commission basis will be accepted Friday, Oct. 27 from 1-4 p. m. and 7-9 in the evening, also Monday and Tuesday, the 30th and 31st from 1 to 4 in the afternoon. For further information call Win. 0067.

Always in the past, En Ka Society has received the generous support of all and it is their earnest hope that in this new enterprise, history will repeat itself.

QUESTION NO. 1

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION

Shall an amendment to the constitution to provide for a Fair, Concise Summary, instead of a Description, of Each proposed Amendment to the Constitution and Each Law submitted to the People under the Initiative and the Referendum, and Certain Changes relative to the Filing of Initiative Petitions which is further described as follows:-

This amendment amends Article XLVIII of the Amendments to the Constitution by striking out section three under the heading "The Initiative. II. Initiative Petitions" and inserting in place thereof a new section, which provides:

That an initiative petition for a constitutional amendment or a law shall first be signed by ten qualified voters of the Commonwealth and shall be submitted to the Attorney General not later than the first Wednesday of the August before the assembling of the General Court into which it is to be introduced. It may be filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth if the Attorney General shall certify that the measure and its title are in proper form and that it is not, affirmatively or negatively, substantially the same as any measure which has been qualified for submission or submitted to the people at either of the two preceding biennial state elections and that it contains only subjects not excluded from the popular initiative and which are related or which are mutually dependent.

The Secretary shall provide blanks for the use of subsequent signers. He shall print at the top of each blank a fair, concise summary of the proposed measure as determined by the Attorney General as it will appear upon the ballot together with the names and residences of the first ten signers. All such petitions, with the first ten signatures attached, shall be filed with the Secretary not earlier than the first Wednesday of the September before the assembling of the Legislature into which they are to be introduced, and the remainder of the required signatures shall be filed not later than the first Wednesday of the following December.

Section 3 of that part of said Article XLVIII under the heading "The Referendum. III. Referendum Petitions" is also amended by striking out the second sentence of such section and inserting in place thereof provisions that the Secretary shall provide blanks for the use of signers of a referendum petition on a law requesting that the operation of such law be suspended subsequent to the first ten signers and shall print at the top of each blank a fair, concise summary of the proposed law as determined by the Attorney General as it will appear upon the ballot, together with the names and residences of the first ten signers.

Section 4 of that part of said Article XLVIII under the heading "The Referendum. III. Referendum Petitions," is also amended by striking out the third sentence of such section and inserting in place thereof provisions that the Secretary shall provide blanks for the use of signers subsequent to the first ten signers of a referendum petition asking for the repeal of an emergency law or of a law which takes effect because the referendum petition does not contain a request for suspension, and shall print at the top of each blank a fair, concise summary of the proposed law as such summary will appear on the ballot together with the names and residences of the first ten signers.

Article XLVIII is further amended by striking out subheading "III. Form of Ballot" and subheading "IV. Information for Voters" under the heading "General Provisions" and inserting in place thereof new subheadings III and IV which provide respectively:

III. FORM OF BALLOT

A fair, concise summary of each proposed amendment to the Constitution and each law submitted to the people, as determined by the Attorney General shall be printed on the ballot. The Secretary shall give each question a number and cause such question, except as otherwise authorized in said article of amendment, to be printed on the ballot in the following form:

In the case of an amendment to the constitution: Do you approve of the adoption of an amendment to the constitution summarized below (here state in distinctive type whether approved or disapproved by the general court and by what vote thereon)? Yes. No.

(Set forth summary here)

In the case of a law: Do you approve of a law summarized below (here state in distinctive type whether approved or disapproved by the general court and by what vote thereon)? Yes. No.

IV. INFORMATION FOR VOTERS.

The Secretary shall print and send to each registered voter the full text of every measure to be submitted to the people, together with a copy of the legislative committee's majority and minority reports, with the names of the majority and minority members and a fair, concise summary of the measure as such summary will appear on the ballot and in such manner as may be provided by law, other arguments for and against the measure.—

which proposed amendment was approved by the General Court and in a joint session of the two branches held July 8, 1941, received 201 votes in the affirmative and 2 in the negative, and in a joint session of the two branches held May 12, 1943, received 214 votes in the affirmative and 5 in the negative, — be approved?

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION

Shall an amendment to the constitution to provide that the General Court may prescribe the terms and conditions under which pardons of offences which are felonies may be granted which is further described as follows:—

This article of amendment to the Constitution of Massachusetts annuls Article VIII of section 1 of chapter II of Part the Second of the Constitution which vested the Governor, by and with the advice of the Council, with the full and unrestricted power of pardoning offences of which a person is convicted except such as persons may be convicted of before the Senate by an impeachment of the House, and adopts a new Article VIII in place thereof.

This new Article VIII vests the pardoning power in the Governor by and with the advice of the Council, but provides further that if the offence to be pardoned is a felony the Legislature shall have power to prescribe the terms and conditions upon which a pardon may be granted.

The new Article VIII contains the same provision as the old with relation to the ineffectiveness of pardons granted before a conviction.—

which proposed amendment was approved by the General Court and in a joint session of the two branches held July 8, 1941, received 199 votes in the affirmative and 1 in the negative, and in a joint session of the two branches held May 12, 1943, received 198 votes in the affirmative and 0 in the negative, — be approved?

QUESTION No. 4

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION

Shall an amendment to the constitution providing for Absent Voting by Qualified Voters who by reason of Physical Disability are unable to vote in Person which is further described as follows:—

This amendment to the Constitution of Massachusetts annuls Article XLV of the Amendments to the Constitution which related to absentee voting and adopts in its place a new Article XLV which authorizes the Legislature to provide for voting in the choice of any officer to be elected or upon any question submitted at an election by qualified voters of the Commonwealth who at the time of such an election are absent from the city or town of which they are inhabitants or are unable by reason of physical disability to cast their votes in person.

which proposed amendment was approved by the General Court and in a joint session of the two branches held July 8, 1941, received 171 votes in the affirmative and 30 in the negative, and in a joint session of the two branches held May 27, 1943, received 184 votes in the affirmative and 61 in the negative, — be approved?

LAW SUBMITTED UPON REFERENDUM AFTER PASSAGE

Shall a law described as follows. This law amends chapter 271 of the General Laws by striking out Section 22A as previously amended, and inserting in place thereof a new section 22A, which provides that conducting or promoting a game of whist or bridge in connection with which prizes are offered to be won by chance, or allowing such a game to be conducted or promoted, shall not authorize the prosecution, arrest or conviction of any person for such acts under chapter 271 of the General Laws, which deals with crimes against public policy, if the entire proceeds of the charges for admission to such game are donated solely to charitable, civic, educational, fraternal or religious purposes. This new section does not contain, as did the section now stricken out, provisions authorizing the licensing and conducting of the game of beano — which section was approved by both branches of the General Court by vote not recorded, — be approved?

LT. DONAGHEY HOME

Lt. (J.G.) James E. Donaghey, U. S. Naval Air Corps, son of Police Sgt. and Mrs. James P. Donaghey is home on leave from the west coast following an emergency operation for appendicitis performed some eight weeks ago on one of the islands of the South Pacific.

Lt. Donaghey was acting as first pilot of a Navy plane when he was stricken and despite an emergency landing on the Pacific island it was found that his appendix had ruptured. An emergency operation was performed by (of all things says Jimmie) a baby doctor. The incision gave considerable trouble and Lt. Donaghey was finally sent back to a west coast base to recuperate. From the west coast he was granted leave to come home.

Lt. Donaghey has seen plenty of service. He was stationed at Pearl Harbor for about a year and has been in New Zealand and Australia. He has also flown to Saipan, the Marshalls and Leyte. Despite the serious operation he underwent the former Winchester High and Millionaires first sacker looked in top shape when the Star reporter saw him Tuesday.

WATCH YOUR A BOOK

Regional OPA officials warned today that unless New England car owners speed up applications for new A books many of them will be stuck without gasoline.

OPA officials said they feared a jam at local War Price and Rationing Boards just before the deadline of Nov. 8 when the present A book expires.

The new A book becomes good on Nov. 9. Many boards have mailed application blanks within their area. Other boards have deposited applications at gasoline stations, post offices, fire staions, and other public places where applicants may obtain them.

Car owners are required to obtain an application blank, fill out the the questions and attach the back cover of the present A book to the application an mail it or bring it to their local OPA board. Autoists are urged to apply immediately to avoid a last-minte rush which may hold up their rations for days.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Victory Is Just A New Start

Jeb Crowell and I took the bus to town the other day and a friend of ours asked us to go with him to his Club luncheon and hear a prominent college president speak.

He made a mighty sensible talk on Peace after the War, pointing out in particular that you can't readjust things after Victory's won just by making laws! Most countries, he said, will have to work out their postwar problems themselves.

To emphasize his point, he reminded us how we Americans once thought we could keep folks from enjoying a moderate glass of beer, by legislation. And how we got fooled, bad.

Jeb and I agreed he was exactly right. You can't cram laws down folks' throats, especially if they interfere with their "rights".

From where I sit, moderate folks ought to be able to sit down and enjoy a friendly beverage like beer—with a home-cooked meal, in the company of friends, if they want to. I'm a great believer in moderation.

REUNION IN ITALY

Mr George W Franklin, clerk on Selectmen, received recently a letter from T 5 E C "Ernie" Smith, formerly of 35 Lebanon Street and now in the Army on active duty somewhere in Italy.

"Ernie", a member of the Winchester High School class of 1928, recounted in the letter a reunion which he had with his class president, one Russell Franklin, the "Squire's" son now a lieutenant in the United States Naval Reserve.

Lt Franklin learned that his old classmate, Technician Smith was somewhere near Rome and when he chanced to be in that vicinity he got in touch with him through an APO. The pair had lunch aboard Lt Franklin's ship and followed up with a long talk over old times and friends in Winchester.

Incidentally Technician Smith wrote that Lt. Franklin is a favorite with his men and an "ouvious Franklin" whatever that may mean.

POSTOFFICE EMPLOYEES ORGANIZE

At a meeting held Tuesday evening at the Postoffice the Winchester Postoffice Employees Association was organized with a Board of Trustees, including Carriers Charles McGowan and Daniel J. O'Leary, Custodian William Dunn and Clerks Thomas P. Connors and Clarence J. Chamberland. Clerk John Davey was elected treasurer of the organization, and Postmaster Vincent C. Ambrose is an honorary member.

The Association is in no sense a union, no is it affiliated with any other organization or group of similar organizations. Its purpose is to promote interdepartmental unity, to provide social and other benefits for the members and to act upon questions affecting the welfare of the employees of the Winchester Postoffice.

To Carrier Carl E. Morse goes much of the credit for the new Association's existence. He has been for some time interested in such an organization and has worked hard to formulate plans for its inception. He has been assisted in his efforts more recently by Clerk John Davey.

GUILD OF THE INFANT SAVIOUR

A large gathering was present at the meeting on Last Tuesday, October 24 at Lyceum Hall. Many new members were among those present and were greeted by Mrs. Michael Hinchion, president. These new members were Mrs. Leo O'Donohue, Mrs Frank Toomey, Mrs Robert McGlynn Mrs. Martin P. Higgins, Mrs John Donovan, Mrs James Maguire, Mrs Frank White and Mrs J. William Plunkett.

Mrs John Lennon was welcomed back once again after her very serious illness. Mrs. Lennon with the following hostesses served a very lovely Hallowe'en Tea: Mrs Harry Donovan Mrs Edward McElhinney, Mrs Thomas J. Drummond and Mrs William Murray.

The dessert bridge held on Tuesday October 10th, by Mrs John Gorman and Mrs. William Hevey was a great success.

A meeting of the Nominating Board was held at the home of Mrs. Edward Macdonald on last Thursday.

The sewing accomplished during the summer vacation by the members was on display last Tuesday. Sewing chairman, Mrs Thomas Higgins thanked those who returned finished garments.

A food sale was held at the meeting on October 24 by Mrs. Owen J. Logue. Many luscious looking cakes and pies as well as home preserves were on sale.

The Annual Bazaar will be held on Tuesday, December 12th, in Lyceum Hall. Many attractive tables are planned by the various committees. This will be an opportune time to purchase Christmas gifts. An apron table under the direction of Mrs James Carr will be a feature.

ADMIRAL NIMITZ ON "MEET YOUR NAVY" PROGRAM SATURDAY NIGHT

The Commander-in-Chief of the Pacific Fleet, Rear Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, will broadcast on the "Meet Your Navy" program Satruday, Oct. 28 at 5:30 p. m., over the Blue Network. This program will be heard locally on Station WHDH, Boston.

Although Admiral Nimitz will speak personally from a base somewhere in the Pacific, the broadcast, as a whole, will come from the huge Great Lakes Naval Training Station.

The "Meet Your Navy" program features talented blue jacket soloists, 65 Navy musicians, who, in civilian life, played for the best "name" bands in the country, a choir of 200 sailor vocalists, and Navy heroes recently returned from victorious Pacific battles.

The cast for the program totals up to over 275 and it is estimated that it reaches a listening audience of 3,500,000 persons in all parts of the country.

PRE-VIEW FOR SYMMES CORNER GROUP

From 3 to 5 o'clock Tuesday, Oct. 31, Mrs. Francis Bowes will have members of the Symmes Corner Group as her guest for tea at her home 40 Calumet road. All articles which the group has made for the Epiphany Autumn bazaar of Nov. 3 will be on display.

The occasion will be a preview, not a sale. But it will be a chance for all the Symmes Corner Group to see the whole result of their fortnightly sewing meetings and their hours of work at home and the good shopping of Mrs. Bowes, Mrs. Wm. Martens, and Mrs. R. E. L. Meehan.

In addition to members, guests at the tea will be Rev. and Mrs. Dwight W. Hadley, Mrs. Harold H. Blanchard, head of the Epiphany Church Service League; and Mrs. Elton Moffette, co-chairman of the bazaar with Mrs. Gerald Hills, who will be present in the double role of member of the group and honor guest as general chairman of the bazaar.

BAPTIST WOMEN'S LEAGUE

The Women's League of the First Baptist Church will hold their regular monthly meeting on Thursday, Nov. 2. There will be White Cross sewing in the morning. Luncheon will be served at noon by the Saturday group with Mrs. Lewis Foster as chairman. Mrs. Daniel Linscott will lead the devotions at the afternoon meeting.

The program will he a patriotic one act play entitled Girls of the U. S. A.

The members of the cast will be: Mrs. Allan MacLeod, Mrs. Davenport Davis, Mrs. Francis McCall, Miss Shirley Marchant, Miss Jean Alley, Mrs. Harley Dickie, Mrs. Lyman Smith.

The Fire Department was called Wednesday evening at 7:30 to take care of a fire that started in the hurricane brush at the town dump. Box 35 was put on for the fire by a boy living in the vicinity, who was lectured by the Police for sounding a needless alarm.

Richard Fenno, Jr., son of Mr. Richard Fenno, of Wildwood Street and a member of the Navy V-12 at Williams College is home on midshipmen's leave.

Monday afternoon men at the town dump burned up a huge amount of hurricane brush, brought down in the recent storm. The brush covered about half a mile of space and made a hot fire. Chief John J. Gorman had a piece of apparatus at the dump in case of trouble.

Andy Lentine, one of Winchester High School's great all time football centers, who later played on the varsity at Boston College and coached at both Barnes and Springfield under Wendell Mansfield, attended the Winchester-Stoneham game on Monday sitting on the bench with Frank Mara bella, a former Winchester High player now in the Marines. Andy is a petty specialist in the Navy and is stationed at Tufts. He's trying to make the Framingham game tomorrow and figures Winchester has quite a ball club.

The M. S. P. C. A. will conduct their annual sale at the home of Mrs. Richard S. Taylor on Thursday, Nov. 9.

The police received an S.O.S. call Sunday evening from a Winchester woman who got herself locked in Wildwood Cemetery with her automobile and several friends. The police made a trip to the home of Cemetery Commissioner Charles A. Gleason where a key to the cemetery gate was secured. The cemetery is closing now at 6 p. m.

A fire broke out in a Ford roadster owned by Gladys B. Nickerson of 1 Sachem road shortly before 10 o'clock at the corner of Church and Main streets in the center. The fire, caused by a short circuit in the heater wiring did little damage. Officer William E. Callahan notified the Fire Department.

WAR FUND DRIVE STARTS OCT. 30

October 30th is the official opening of the Winchester War Fund drive. The campaign will extend for two weeks until November 12th.

According to George Chatfield Winchester Chairman, the need for financ es is greater than ever. More young Americans are in the services. More are abroad. These men and women need more than food and a place to sleep to withstand the hardship; the loneliness and horrors of war.

The things which they receive through the U. S. O., United Seamen's Service, and War Prisoner's Aid are things which help sustain them . . . things which let them know that the people of this country are "In with them" and that they do not fight alone.

The need among our Allies is pressing, too. China, and many other countries look to us for seeds for their scorched earth. Medical supplies will be needed to fight the plagues that follow in the wake of war. Then, too, the coming Winter can be a killing Winter if greater supplies of clothing are not sent abroad. Money given to the United War Fund will help make this possible.

In addition to these needs, money is also needed for the many red feather services that are performed right in our own community.

For instance, right here in Winchester last year, 3265 members of our 3300 families received direct benefits from the War Fund. Here is the official box score of this amazing record:

Hospital Services	1,230
Health Services	671
Family Service and Relief	112
Employment and Institutions	42
Children's Services	21
Youth Agencies	1,189

CHILDREN'S MUSIC GROUP

The Children's Music Group will hold its first fall meeting on Sunday afternoon, Oct. 29 at 3 p. m. in the Episcopal parish house.

This year, as in other years, the programs will offer unusual opportunities to children in Winchester to see and hear the best of musicians and to become acquainted with various musical instruments.

On Sunday the guest instrument and the guest artist will be the harpsichord and Mr. Daniel R. Pinkham, Jr. The harpsichord is not a common instrument but its delicate tone and its historical interest make it an instrument lovely to hear and important to understand. Mr. Pinkham has played the harpsichord with the Boston Symphony Orchestra and this summer appeared with them at a concert which included Bach's Concerto for three harpsichords and orchestra. He has studied in both New York and Boston and is a pupil of E. Power Biggs whose organ concerts from the Germanic Museum at Harvard are nationally broadcast each Sunday morning. Mr. Pinkham will tell the children the history of the harpsichord, explain its relation to the piano and give them a short concert.

Since this is the first meeting of the year, the first part of the afternoon will be spent in registration. The group is for children between the ages of 8 and 14 who are studying some musical instrument. It meets once a month. The afternoon programs are divided into three parts. During the first half hour a music story is told and illustrated on the piano; then the children play for one another either alone or in ensemble groups and after very simple refreshments, they listen to the guest artist.

If any reader of the Star has a boy or girl interested in joining this group the committee would be very glad to make arrangements for him to be a member.

The committee consists of: Mrs. Robert Drake, Miss Ruth Hayden, Mrs. A. J. Higgins, Mrs. Robert Keeney, Mrs. Charles Livingstone, Mrs. Harvey Macaulay, Mrs. Leon Sargent, Mrs. Carle Zimmerman.

Mrs. Dolly Greene Peach, daughter of Mrs. Christine Greene of Highland Ave., was among the 62 students who received degrees from Middlebury College Sunday morning, Oct. 22 in Mead Memorial Chapel, following baccalaureate services. She received the degree of bachelor of arts.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Dodge of Grayson road announce the engagement of their daughter, Ruth to Cpl. Warren Larson, USAAF, son of Mr. Harold Larson of Reading, formerly of this town. Cpl. Larson has returned home after 21 months active duty in India and the Middle East.

THREE BROTHERS ENTER NAVY TOGETHER

Not often does a family have three brothers enter the service as the Horn brothers, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Gordo H. Horn of Wendell street did on Tuesday.

Robert and Richard Horn, 22 year old twins, finally made the Navy grade, after repeated trials and previous rejections because of a lack of weight. Happier young men than they were when they returned last week from their final successful physical examination it would be hard to find. Both went for boot training to the Naval Station at Sampson, N. Y., and with them went an older brother, John, 29.

The entrance of Richard, Robert and John into the Navy brings the stars on the Horn service flag to five, two brothers being already in the service. Pfc. Gordo Horn, Jr., 31, is in the Army stationed at Camp Atterbury, Ind., while Sgt. Creighton Horn, 23, is an instructor in the Chemical Warfare Division of the Army Air Forces. Gordo has been in the service for 18 months and Creighton since the war started.

Besides the five sons in the service, Mr. and Mrs. Horn have a son, Henry, 15, and six daughters.

TAX COLLECTOR HAS GOOD RECORD

The Town of Winchester has only $85,072.17 of 1944 Real Estate taxes uncollected and no previous years taxes on the books. This is ten and six tenths percent of the total commitment. Last year the town borrowed $100,000.00 in anticipation of taxes but at the same time bought $100,000.00 of government bonds at a profit of two percent on the investment. The town has only $143,000.00 of outstanding bonds and owns $200,000.00 of government bonds. As we are about $30,000.00 ahead of last year in collections it is hoped we will not have to borrow at all unless the town again invests in government bonds.

PADELFORD FOR DEWEY

Prof. Norman J. Padelford, professor of International Relations at M. I. T. while speaking Wednesday before the Women's Republican Club of Winchester, stated that as an "Independent" he has decided to vote for Dewey for President.

SNATCHED HANDBAG

A boy bag snatcher failed to keep his booty Wednesday after grabbing a bag, containing $30 and personal effects from Mrs. Nan G. Gudheim of 15 Calumet road:

Mrs. Gudheim told the Police she was walking west on Church street near School street, shortly after 12:30, carrying several bundles and her handbag. As she approached School street, a boy whom she described as about 15 or 16 years grabbed her handbag which because of the bundles she was carrying loosely.

The boy ran across the old Prince School lot toward Dix street with Mrs. Gudheim in pursuit. In front of the house of Mr. Mr. Herbert Gardner, 11 Dix street, a car was parked and the boy jumped into the back seat of the machine, covering himself with a coat.

As Mrs. Gudheim approached she saw that a blonde young soldier was at the wheel of the car and with him was a dark complexioned youth.

The soldier handed Mrs. Gudheim her bag and said, "I have nothing to do with this, madame." As he did so the boy leaped from the back of the car and ran towards the center, the youth with the soldier shouting, "He has my coat." The soldier said, "We will catch him," and the pair drove off.

Mrs. Gudheim secured the number of the car and telephoned Headquarters. The Police were not successful in stopping the machine, but it was registered to a Somerville man, and the Police of that city sent the owner to Winchester.

The owner of the car was accompanied by a Medford youth. They admitted having been in the car which the youthful bag snatcher entered, but insisted they knew nothing further about the boy or the theft of the bag, stating that the boy had stolen a coat when he left the machine.

In response to questioning, they said they had come to Winchester to see a girl, and had stopped on Dix street believing they had tire trouble. They said they had tried to catch th boy when he fled from their car, but had been unsuccessful.

DINNER TO LAW TEACHER

Attorney Bernard A. Marvin of 8 Chesterford road, was tendered a dinner and reception at the Hotel Manger, Tuesday night.

Mr. Marvin, an instructor at Boston University School of Law, also conducts a bar review preparing students graduating from all law schools for the Bar examination. This dinner was sponsored by his former students. Over 200 lawyers of both sexes attended.

The committee of 25 included Representatives Enrico Cappucci, Perlie Dyar Chase and William X. Wall and Francis M. Curran, Commissioners of Labor Relations.

The surprise of the evening was the unexpected announcement that Mr. Marvin had been appointed an Assistant Attorney General by Attorney General Robert T. Bushnell.

He has law offices at 11 Beacon street, Boston and is a former secretary of the Mass. Law Society.

VOTE NO ON QUESTION 3

HERE'S WHAT OUR PRESENT AND PAST GOVERNORS SAY:

Governor Saltonstall said publicly on April 3, 1944: "The most efficient method is to have a legislative meeting biennially and to have a special session, if necessary, in the off year." The biennial system was also recommended by Governors Cox, Fuller, Allen, Curley and Hurley. Let's take their advice on what is best for Massachusetts. Vote "NO" on Question 3.

LIBERATION DAY - NOVEMBER 7
End One-Man Government

GOV. THOMAS E. DEWEY

GOVERNOR JOHN W. BRICKER

Let's make November 7th Liberation Day from the Fumbling, Stumbling, Decrepit NEW DEAL.

Liberation Day from the Communists, with their Browders, and PAC's. Liberation Day from "Clearing-Everything-with-Sidney."

Liberation Day from crooked political city bosses—Hague, Kelly, Pendergast and Tammany.

Liberation Day from alphabetically-crazed bureaucrats with their crossword-puzzle bureaus and their nightmarish directives, counter-directives, repressions, suppressions—and their pushing you and me around.

Liberation Day from Hopkins, Ickes, Rosenman, Perkins, Biddle and Morgenthau—grown old, tired and quarrelsome in office.

Let's make November 7th the day we make a CLEAN SWEEP of this motley crew who wants 16 years in Washington.

MRS. BERTHA LEWIS BRADFORD

Mrs. Bertha Lewis Bradford, widow of Edward Fiske, died Tuesday night, Oct. 31, at her home, 103 Cambridge street, after a long illness.

Mrs. Bradford was the daughter of George and Mary (Billings) Lewis. She was born in Providence, R. I., Nov. 18, 1861, spending her early life and being educated in that city. She came to Winchester in 1901 and had since made her home here, being widely known among older residents of the town.

Mrs. Bradford was for many years actively associated with the First Congregational Church, holding membership in its various women's organizations. She was also a member of the Woman's Fortnightly Club, of the Florence Crittenton League and of the Winchester Reading Club, being especially interested in the activities of the last named group. A student and lover or art she painted, and also created a number of fine pieces of sculpture. She was also an accomplished pianist.

Throughout her long residence in Winchester she took a keen interest in civic affairs and in all matters which she believed of benefit to the town. It was not long ago that she wrote the Star, urging the extermination of the beetles threatening many of the fine old trees lining Cambridge street.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Dwight Cooke of New York City and Mrs. James Todd of Long Island, N. Y.; also a son, Dwight L. Fiske of New York City, widely known as an entertainer and composer; four grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Private funeral services were held at the late residence, conducted by Rev. John L. Lobingier of this town, a long-time family friend. Services are being held today in Providence and the interment will be made in that city in Swan Point Cemetery.

EDGAR F. RASSAT

Edgar F. Rassat, a former resident of Winchester, died Sunday, Oct. 29, in a government hospital in New York City.

Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., April 24, 1891, Mr. Rassat was an accountant. He was a veteran of World War I and during his residence here was a member of Winchester Post, 97, serving the post for a time as finance officer. He came to Winchester in 1929 and first lived at 11 Chisholm road, later living on Winthrop and Mt. Pleasant streets and last on Myrtle street, leaving Winchester last year. He was a member of William Parkman Lodge of Masons and of the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church.

Mrs. Rassat's wife, the former Gladys L. Kaufman, died here Dec. 29, 1935. He leaves a daughter, Miss Helen M. Rassat of Cambridge, and a son, Cpl. Bernard E. Rassat, stationed at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Chapel in Woodlawn Cemetery, Everett with the Rev. Harris E. Heverly, pastor of the Crawford Memorial Church, officiating, assisted by a former pastor, Rev. George A. Butters of Waltham. Interment was in Woodlawn Cemetery.

REV. SUTER INSTALLED

The Very Rev. John Wallace Suter, whose father, the late Dr. John W. Suter was rector of the Church of the Epiphany at the time the present church was built on Church street, was installed Nov. 1 at Dean of Washington Cathedral. The Rt. Rev. Angus Dun, Episcopal Bishop of Washington, and a clergyman well known to Winchester Episcopalians, officiated at the ceremony.

Dr. Suter is a native of Winchester and previous to becoming Dean of the Cathedral, was rector of the Church of the Epiphany in New York. His father was until his death rector honorarius of the Church of the Epiphany here.

Phillips Brooks calendars, now on sale at the Star Office, Star Building.

JOSEPHINE HOWARD ARROWSMITH

Josephine Howard Arrowsmith, widow of Dr. Hubert Arrowsmith of Brooklyn, N. Y., died at the Baker Memorial Hospital on Wednesday evening, Nov. 1, after a brief illness. Since 1931 she has lived in Winchester at 132 Washington street with her brother, Mr. Frank W. Howard.

Mrs. Arrowsmith was born April 25, 1867 in Milton, the daughter of Henry F. and Mary Cook Howard. During her early life she lived in Hyde Park. She was graduated from Boston University in 1890.

Mrs. Arrowsmith was a member of the Unitarian Church in Winchester and active in the Women's Alliance. She was also an interested member of the Fortnightly, this year serving as chairman of the Literature Group.

In addition to her brother, Mr. Howard, she is survived by three daughters, Mrs. John P. Baker of Brooklyn, N. Y., Mrs. Wayne E. Davis of Winchester and Mrs. Albert P. Nelson of Norwood and by a sister-in-law, Miss Edith Arrowsmith of Winchester.

Funeral services will be held at the Unitarian Church on Saturday, Nov. 4, at 2 o'clock with the Rev. Paul Harmon Chapman officiating. Burial will be in Huntington, N. Y. The family asks that no flowers be sent.

MRS. FLORENCE E. POTTER

Mrs. Florence E. Potter, widow of George W. Potter and a resident of Winchester for 50 years, died Tuesday morning, Oct. 31, at the home of her son, John H. Collins, 965 Main street. She was 81 years old.

Born in Nova Scotia, Mrs. Potter spent her early life and was married there to Fred B. Collins, who died before she came to the United States. In 1898 she married Mr. Potter who died May 10, 1921. She was active years ago in the Spanish War Veterans Auxiliary and in the Order of the Eastern Star.

Surviving are three sons, Fred B. Collins, Jr., of Whitefish, Mont., Harry A. Collins and John H. Collins, both of Winchester; a sister, Mrs. Fred Vemoit of Medford; a brother, Harry Boehner of Wakefield; seven grandchildren and one great grandson, John Borden Collins, Jr., of Whitefish, Mont.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at the Moffett and McMullen Funeral Home with Rev. Paul Harmon Chapman, minister of the Unitarian Church, officiating. Interment was in Brookside Cemetery, Stow.

BAPTIST CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR

The Christian Endeavor of the First Baptist Church, under the leadership of Mr. Edwin Jackson, held their first social Friday night in the recreation room of the church. There were 24 members present. Rev. and Mrs. Bailey were guests of honor for the evening.

The recreation room was colorfully decorated in orange and black. The Hallowe'en motif was used throughout the evening with jack-o-lanterns adding their color to the other decorations.

The program for the evening consisted of games which were enjoyed by all. After the games delicious refreshments were served. While these refreshments were being enjoyed, there was an election of officers. The officers elected for the coming year were Ernest Clark, president; Audrey Gibson, vice president; Martha Hodge secretary and Robert Abrahamson, treasurer.

Franklin Pynn and Ernest Clark were in charge of the program and the decorations for the evening.

ORDER OF THE EASTERN STAR

Winchester Chapter, No. 175 O. E. E. invites all members to attend the 234th stated meeting, Monday evening, Nov. 6 at 5.45 o'clock, at which time the degrees will be conferred on several canlidates.

All members of the order are cordially invited to attend.

PRE-NUPTIAL PARTIES

Miss Margaret Mary McDonald of 19 Hill street, who will become the bride of Anthony E. DeTeso, USNR, at Jacksonville, Fla., on Saturday morning, has been the guest at some very lovely pre-nuptial parties.

On Oct. 15, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Salvatore D. DeTeso, 12 Olive street, Miss Mary DeTeso was hostess to a group of 30 young friends of the engaged couple. Decorations were in white and a white parasol filled with confetti showered the future bride as she entered the living room. Before opening her gifts, which very appropriate and ranged from lingerie to blankets, she was given a corsage of white baby pons by Mrs. DeTeso. Her gifts included also, a sum of money. A delightful luncheon followed the gift opening.

Friday evening, Oct. 20, Miss Mary Jacqueline King of 891 Main street was hostess at a most attractive luncheon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. A. King. The long table, set diagonally across the dining room, was lighted with six tall pink candles set in silver candle sticks and in the center of the table was an attractive shower cake in white and silver. After the opening of the gifts 25 young friends of the bride to be enjoyed a delicious luncheon, with the Misses Peggy King and Margaret Costello assisting the hostess. Present at this function were several of Margaret Mary's classmates at Simmons College.

At a luncheon on Wednesday, Oct. 25, at the apartment of Mrs. C. L. Adams, Jr., of Brookline, Mrs. Adams and the other girl scientists at Lever Bros., Cambridge, entertained their fellow chemist at a delightful bridge party. Margaret Mary was given a complete set of finely matched towels.

Dr. and Mrs. Milton J. Quinn entertained Miss McDonald at dinner at the Cafe Rouge at the Hotel Statler on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Quinn's gift to her niece was fine table linen in the exquisite Dublin Rose pattern.

Miss McDonald will be married on Saturday morning, Nov. 4, in the Catholic Chapel at Cecil Field, Jacksonville, Fla., to Anthony E. DeTeso, last year's co-captain of Tufts College varsity football team. Tony is one of Winchester's best known athletes and was prominent scholastically at Tufts. Miss McDonald graduated from Simmons College in 1943 and is a chemist at Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. Francis H. Clark of 19 Carson street, Saugus are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Miss Maud J. Clark to Bradbury Gilbert, son of Mr. John C. Gilbert of this town.

Miss Clark is a graduate of Saugus High School and of the Cofren School of Boston.

Mr. Gilbert is a graduate of Winchester High School, College of William and Mary and Harvard Law School. He is a practicing attorney with the firm of Adams and Blinn in Boston where Miss Clark also is employed.

A December wedding is being planned.

MISS FIFIELD, LT. GANZ ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Forrest Fifield of Woodside road, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Muriel Madeline Fifield, to Lt. Edward Charles Ganz, Jr., Infantry, Officers' Reserve Corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Charles Ganz of Middletown, R. I.

Miss Fifield is attending the Jackson-Von Ludau School of Design. Lt. Ganz is a graduate of Staunton Military Academy, where he was first captain of the Corps.

"NEW ARRIVALS"

The following births are announced from the Winchester Hospital:

To Mr. and Mrs. Howard L. Palmer of 6 Hamilton road, Wakefield, formerly of Winchester, triplet sons on Oct. 28.

To Mr. and Mrs. Michael Donlon of 25 Park street, a son, born Oct. 29.

To Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hughes of 17 Clark street, a son, born Oct. 29.

To Mr. and Mrs. Vito Seaturo of 58 Oak street, a daughter, born Oct. 29.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS MEETING NOV. 13

The next meeting of the Winchester League is to be held jointly with the Fortnightly at Fortnightly Hall on Monday, Nov. 13. This is to be an all day meeting starting at 10.30 a. m.

Luncheon is to be served at the Methodist Church at 12.30. Luncheon speakers will be Miss Emily Everett, Foreign Policy Chairman of the Mass. League and Mrs. Harold C. Given, chairman of the Department of International Relations of the Mass. State Federation of Women's Clubs.

WINCHESTER WELLESLEY COLLEGE CLUB

The executive board of the Wellesley College Club of Winchester has met twice during the past month with the president, Mrs. Murray S. Moore, to plan for the coming season.

A fall meeting of the club is in prospect with a speaker from the college. Mrs. Wayne Davis stands ready to take a group of any girls interested in attending Wellesley to see the campus on a convenient date in November.

Mrs. Frederic E. Abbe has received our order of the Engagement Calendar for 1945. By calling her, Win. 1740-W, you may reserve as many as you wish while they last. The neat cover and convenient form are the same as last year with many new and beautiful illustrations.

715 VOLUNTEERS BEGIN UNITED WAR FUND DRIVE

Hundreds of little red feathers started out this week on their way to the hat bands and coat lapels of Winchester residents who, between now and Nov. 12, will "Show That They Care" by contributing to the United War Fund.

The feathers are being carried by 715 Winchester volunteers who will ring every door bell in town to help meet this town's share of the $7,650,000 that Greater Boston needs to put this drive over the top.

This goal will meet the 1945 needs of 267 Red Feather services, 22 National War Fund organizations, and of American War Community Services, Inc. In Winchester, alone, last year 3265 people received direct benefits from the fund.

Included among the 715 Winchester volunteers are people from every walk of life. Housewives are speeding their chores so that they can devote 11 strenuous days as full-time fund raisers. Business men are giving up their evenings to devote their "after hours" to help the cause. Young girls are on a two week "date strike" until the last dollar has been brought in. Society matrons have cancelled their social engagements to canvass neighbors.

Nov. 12 Red Feather Day

Although the Greater Boston drive continues until Thanksgiving Eve, the Winchester campaign is scheduled to reach its climax by Nov. 12, which has been set aside as Red Feather Day.

By that time it is hoped that every home will have been reached and every resident will have a chance to "Show That They Care."

During the next week, Winchester Boy Scouts and Cubs will call on every home to leave a booklet entitled "What You Need to Know About the 1945 Campaign." This booklet deserves a thorough reading for it tells a thorough story about those who deserve your help.

Radio Show to Climax Campaign

Climaxing Red Feather Day, will be a one hour radio show to be broadcast from Town Hall over WCOP. This program, details which will be announced later, will feature Big Name Hollywood stars and a local cast of 300.

During the program, reports from every precinct will be announced to let every resident know whether or not Winchester goes over the top.

If, by any chance, your home has not been solicited by 6 p. m. on Red Feather Day, Nov. 12, you can help your precinct make its quota by phoning Winchester War Fund Headquarters at Win. 0279. An emergency squad will be on hand to speed to your home and get your contribution in on time.

Remember, you live here, give here. Let's share together and wear the feather.

RAYTHEON DINNER PARTY

Night shift workers at Raytheon Manufacturing Co. will attend a dinner party at Hotel Gardner, Boston, Sunday, Nov. 5 at 7.30 o'clock.

Caroline Pike is chairman of the event and will be assisted by John Madden, Patricia Horne, Dorothy Melanson and Paula George. There will be music by Johnny Hanlon's orchestra and Guy Principato, a Raytheon employee who has a Hawaiian band, also will present numbers. Curtis Morrill, another Raytheon night shift employee, will sing.

LOUISA F. PARKHURST, TEACHER OF PIANO

Pupil of Myra Hess

Miss Parkhurst desires to encourage the Study of Music and Piano by Adults. To be able to play one's favorite Symphony or a piece by a noted composer need not mean drudgery but real enjoyment. She would advise ensemble playing of all kinds.

It is a deplorable condition for young people of high school age to discontinue the study of an Art which means so much to them in later life.

DARTMOUTH WOMEN'S CLUB

The Dartmouth Women's Club of Boston will hold a Scholarship day at the Hotel Vendome, Nov. 15. Pledges and donations will be accepted for the Dartmouth College scholarship fund.

The speaker for the afternoon will be the Rev. William English, Dartmouth 1908 and new pastor of the Congregational Church in Norwood. Mrs. Helen Bedford, harpist will conclude the program.

Tea will be served after the meeting with Mrs. Peter McGuire in charge of hospitality, Mrs. Allan L. Priddy as hostess, Mrs. James Pope and Mrs. Charles Barker as pourers.

Do It Now Calendar pads and Secretary pads for 1945 at the Star Office Star Building.

TWOMBLY COMMISSIONED

John F. Twombly of Stevens street was commissioned a 2nd lieutenant in the Signal Corps of the Army of the United States on Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 25, at Fort Monmouth, N. J. His mother, Mrs. E. J. Twombly and his sister, Miss Dorothy Twombly attended the graduation exercises, and on the day following Lt. Twombly accompanied them back to Winchester where he will spend his leave.

Lt. Twombly graduated from Winchester High School in 1935 and from Tufts College with the degree of B. S. in Chemistry in 1939. Before entering the service in February, 1941, he was employed as a chemist on the staff of the Texaco Research Laboratory at Beacon, N. Y.

Following his enlistment in the Signal Corps he was in the field from May to October in the Texas and Louisiana maneuvers of 1941. He went overseas in January 1942, through the Pacific to Australia, thence to India, serving in the CBI Theater for over two years.

Upon selction for Officer Candidate School in May, he returned to the United States by plane by way of Africa and South America, completing a round-the-world tour of duty.

Now, on completion of Officer Candidate School, at the end of his leave, Lt. Twombly will return to Fort Monmouth for further training at Officer School.

Mariyn Drake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Drake was welcomed into the largest freshman class in the history of the Women's College of Middlebury this week.

WINCHESTER GIRLS BEAT MEDFORD

Winchester High girls' field hockey team continued to win Wednesday afternoon, beating Medford High girls at Medford, 1-0, with Natalie Dickson scoring the only goal of the game in the first half.

The Winchester High seconds won the preliminary game, 2-1. The summary:

WINCHESTER BOY CITED

Joseph P. Perry, S-1c United States Coast Guard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jostph W. Perry, 727 Washington street, is home on leave after serving 17 months on a LST whose crew was cited by Gen. MacArthur in the Los Negros and Manus Island invasions and by Vice Adm. Barbee for the Cape Gloucester invasion. He has two other brothers serving in the U. S. Navy, Bernard F. Perry, Boilermaker, 2c, and Thomas W. Perry, ACEM. Both are serving in the Southwest Pacific.

WINCHESTER AT READING SATURDAY

Two unbeaten football teams will clash when Winchester High meets Reading at Reading Saturday afternoon at the Junior High School stadium, commencing at 2 o'clock.

Reading is figured to give Winchester quite a ball game, especially since beating Woburn last week Monday, 6-0. Besides Woburn, Reading has beaten Johnson High of Andover, 13-0; Governor Dummer Academy, 7-6, Wellesley 22-6, Punchard 18-0, and Lexington 19-7. The only team both Reading and Winchester have met thus far is hapless Lexington which the locals walloped 32-6, with the first team on the bench most of the afternoon.

This by no means proves that Reading will be a soft touch tomorrow and Coach Knowlton has been working hard to prevent any over-confidence on the part of his players. The only time Hennie racks up a victory is after the game has been won and he is counting no chickens in advance this week.

It's hard to figure how any one can pick Reading to beat Winchester on the record, but any team good enough to win all six of its games to date, with one of its victories over Woburn, rates a good club in our book, and Winchester will have to play ball tomorrow.

Reading is reported to be big enough to hold its own with Winchester, and it has good coaching from "Al" Kent, old Stoneham great, out of Bowdoin, and Ed Keverkian, who played with the famous Brown Iron Men.

Winchester will line up as it did for Framingham with Faieta and Armstrong at ends; Latham and Stevenson, tackles; Bucci and Lovejoy, guards; Sam Buzzotta, center; and Capt. Walsh, Roche, Haggerty and Tibaudo, backs.

WINS SWIM HONORS AT M. S. C.

Edith Dover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dover of Vine street, has been made a member of the "Nyaids," swimming club at Mass. State College. She was the only freshman in college to make the senior group and had the highest average of any who tried out for the club, upper classmen included.

"Edie," an all around athletic star at Winchester High last year and captain of the girls' unbeaten basketball team, is one of the town's best girl swimmers, having represented the town in A. A. U. competition for several years. She was among the town's first girl lifeguards and during the summer just past was head lifeguard at Palmer Beach.

ATHLETES DOMINATE W. H. S. CLASS ELECTIONS

Recently announced returns from the class elections held at Winchester High School show many names already familiar to followers of high school sports.

The seniors elected Sam Buzzotta, president; Kendall Way, vice president; Margaret Owen, secretary; and Warren Connor, treasurer.

Juniors chose Jim Haggerty, president; Marjorie Colliander, vice president; Phyllis Bucci, secretary and Joe Derro, treasurer.

Sophomores elected Dean Blanchard, president; Ed McGrath, vice president; Libbe Fenno, secretary and Bill Whittemore, treasurer.

RECEIVED WINGS

Capt. Frank O. Adams, USAAF, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Adams of 235 Mystic Valley Parkway, was among those receiving wings and commissions as aerial navigators on Oct. 23 when Class 44-44N officially finished its training under the AAF Training Command at Selman Field, Monroe, La. Following their graduation the officers received orders which will eventually put them in every theater of the war.

Sgt. Halvorsen is the left waist gunner of the 8th Air Force B-17 Flying Fortress "Our Buddy."

FALL SPORTS DANCE BIG SUCCESS

Amid colorful autumn foliage, the students of Winchester High School held their annual fall sports dance in the high school gymnasium last Saturday evening.

The decorations were under the supervision of Nancy Nutter and crew.

Patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. Philip O'Rourke, Mr. Charles Lovejoy, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Knowlton, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Huckins, Mrs. Lyman Matthews, Mr. Robert Card, and Mr. Samuel Graves. Several of last year's graduates were present in uniform.

WILL YOU BE THERE?

All connected with presentation of Ladies of the Jury tonight in the Little Theater Beneath a Spire eagerly await drawing of the curtains at 8.15. Well may they be on their toes in order creditably to maintain the tradition of years; a worthwhile play, authentically produced and ably presented.

The eagerness with which citizens of Winchester have been ordering tickets indicates the ever growing interest in these local productions.

WINCHESTER HIGH 20—FRAMINGHAM 0

Unbeaten Locals Scored Thrice in Second Half—Stopped Framingham Threat on Their 3

Winchester High continued among the season's football select by beating a good Framingham High team at Framingham last Saturday afternoon, 20-0 to rack up its six straight victory.

For the first time this season, Winchester failed to score before half time, a fumble halting one local threat at the Framingham 19 while another bogged down at the 15. Just previous Haggerty had reversed from the Framingham 30 to go all the way along the Winchester sidelines, but the officials called a holding penalty against the locals on the play and the ball went back to the Framingham 45. The only thing which prevented a score at the time Winchester advanced to the Framingham 19 was the fact that "Chucker" Roche just wasn't fast enough to outrun the Framingham safety in a 41 yard race along the sidelines.

After Winchester's failure to score from 16 yards out Framingham, aided materially by an interference penalty against the locals, staged its one offensive threat of the game.

On second down Brita, sturdy fullback, broke inside Winchester's right end for 13 yards and a first down at the 28. Once more Brita got inside the locals' right flank for five and then Chiappini faded and arched off a long pass far down the field.

Sam Tibaudo, playing safety, had to turn and run backwards a good 10 yards to catch the ball, which he returned by some pretty broken field running to the Framingham 45. With the stands still cheering the run, Referee Kilroy called an interference penalty against Jimmy Haggerty for allegedly bumping an eligible receiver about a quarter of a mile from where Tibaudo caught the ball all by his lonesome.

The infraction gave Framingham a first down at Winchester's 47 and two passes from Chiappini to Brita made first downs, first at the 19 and then at the 3 yard line.

Brita got a yard inside right end and a pass fell incomplete. On third down Brita hit the left side of Winchester's line and lost a yard. Before the teams could line up again the whistle sounded for the half.

An exchange of kicks with the resumption of play gave Winchester the ball at its 31. A 7 yard Tibaudo buck and five yard penalty against Framingham for off-side gave the locals a first down at their 47. Two bucks by Tibaudo and a lateral from Tibaudo to Roche went to the Framingham 41, where Roche got away off tackle for a first down at the 30. Tibaudo and Roche each picked up 4, after which the locals sprung a quick starting play, with Walsh scampering to the Framingham 9, where Umpire O'Connor ruled he went outside.

It didn't look even close from the press box, but the ruling didn't hurt, for Tibaudo drove to the 2 and an off-side aginst Framingham put the ball on the 1. On third down Tibaudo drilled over inside tackle, Walsh missed the conversion from placement.

On the following kickoff Faieta hit Morris hard and the Framingham ball carrier fumbled, Winchester recovering at the Framingham 35. Faieta got five on an end around and Tibaudo in two tries made first down at the 24.

Haggerty reversed for seven and Tibaudo drove to the 13 for another first down.

As the teams changed goals for the final quarter Bellino got a yard and Sam, another. Then Walsh muffed a sure-five scoring pass in the clear.

On the next play Sarto sent Haggerty on a reverse out to the left and Jimmy really drove the 11 yards between him and a touchdown, smashing through the Framingham secondaries like a mad bull. Walsh converted nicely at placement.

The locals' last tally came quite unexpectedly just before the end of the game when Framingham tried a pass from its own 19. Sammy Buzzotta and the Framingham receiver got to the ball together and Sammy emerged from the jam with the leather, scooting some 21 yards in impressive fashion for the touchdown. Once again Walsh converted and soon afterward the game was over.

Winchester made 12 first downs and 227 yards by rushing, completing four of seven passes for 37 yards, fumbling twice and drawing three 15 yard penalties. Framingham made five first downs and 42 yards by rushing, completing five of seven passes for 79 yards, fumbling twice and drawing 16 yards in penalties. The summary:

Notes

A corking good game with the better team winning. Much like the Winthrop game except that Framingham kept the locals from scoring in the first half. Both Framingham and Winthrop lost a lot of fire when they failed to score after getting inside the Winchester five yard line . . . That boy, Brita, for Framingham was good, both offensively and defensively. Sam Tibaudo had a hard time getting anywhere the first half because the hefty middle of that Framingham line didn't charge far enough to be trapped and were generally underneath the local forwards, tripping Sammy or stopping him so he could be grabbed from behind. When that one yard was needed for the touchdown, however, Samuel got it, driving through a solid yard of Blue and Silver to reach pay dirt . . . For our money Chucker Roche was Winchester's particular star, being the locals' ace-in-the hole offensive,y as well as playing a gee-whiz game on defense. A lot of the grandstand coaches have missed this boy's all around class . . . That Haggerty touchdown run reminded many of Bill West's T. D. jaunt vs Belmont two years ago. Neither Bill nor Jimmy was fooling and both were really going to score, or else . . You don't get into that Framingham press box unless you belong there, and for a time it looked like the local scribes were going to be out of luck. Even Mack wasn't having any luck talking his way by the grim-faced gate keeper. Fortunately good ol' Ray "V for Victory" Hayward happened by at the right time and passed the Fourth Estaters in. Next time we'll get our passes at the gate . . Anyhow there were no politicians nor visiting firemen in the press box, and everything was lovely, except for an inch or so of water on the floor which didn't add to anyone's pleasure. Fortunately "Mack" had on his policemen's specials with the double soles which we have often envied, and so got along all right . . "Mack" and the chappie running the public address system differed on the quality of the officiating and it is our opinion that "Mack" won the argument going away . . It was colder'n "you-know" at the game but Duck Hunter Lou Goddu didn't even have on the gray parka, let alone the big fur bennev. He may have had on the moceasin rubbers, we couldn't see from the press box . . . Far as we could tell the local cheer-leaders didn't call for that awful victory cheer, or if they did, we didn't hear it, which was quite all right with us! . . They evidently take their band seriously in Framingham. After a 20-0 shellacking the musicians marched a long mile to the center with a street-wide spread, all vehicular traffic crawling behind them. The local press was three cars from the bass drum and not too happy about it, everything considered . . Coach Daniels of Framingham told Coach Knowlton after the game that his boys had never been hit the way the local boys hit them. Both he and Mike Vodoclys, his assistant, have taken out membership in the select club of opposing coaches who think that Winchester has one heluva ball club this autumn.

Well, we think that at the "end of the third quarter" we have done a pretty good joh. Starting out at the first of the year we "guessed" how much money we would make (if any) during the twelve months and thus far we have paid our taxes on it. For three quarters we have paid our social security (which of course we will never get). We have paid out of our own pocket unemployment security. No one else pays this except ourselves, for we are the one who is hiring help in our business. We have thus far succeeded in collecting the government's taxes from all who work for us without being fined or imprisoned. We have also succeeded in paying for the privilege of using 24 gallons of gas in our car; having purchased all the stamps and stickers and paid for all the insurance demanded. Now we start the month by having paid our taxes to the Town. Of course we look forward to the first of the year with apprehension, knowing that there is plenty of room for error in all this collecting, bookkeeping and paying, but the mere fact that we have come along in 1944 thus far is certainly a relief. We have only had to add one more bookkeeper and of course we are jammed up all the time trying to decipher new government orders. Talk about th tired old administration! If any little business man isn't tired by now he must be a superman.

Rev. William S. Packer will be the preacher at the 11 a. m. services at the Church of the Epiphany on Sunday morning, Nov. 5.

An aftermath of Hallowe'en came to light Wednesday when Gordon Brennan, proprietor of the Little Shaker restaurant on Thompson street discovered that some time the evening previous some one had entered the cellar of ther estaurant and stolen a spiced ham and some calves liver. He reported the matter to the Police.

"BROKEN PROMISE"

The record shows, it seems to me that President Roosevelt has never been a great liberal leader but an extremely clever politician who has followed trends and who changes with every shift of public opinion. At times it has tempted him into the tricks of the demagogue and forced him into the long record of broken promises, not only to individuals working with him but to the people of the United States as a whole. There is no worse example of demagoguery in history than the now celebrated promises made again and again on the eve of the 1940 election to the mothers and fathers of America that 'your sons will never be sent into a foreign war."

In the first place Mr. Roosevelt knew that this was something that no man could promise. In the seennd he knew or was in a position tn know at that time better than any man in the nation, that war was virtually inevitable and that it would be a war in which our soldiers and sailors would be sent into every part of the world. Mr. Roosevelt made these promises deliberately to deceive the people of the United States so that they would elect him for a third term.

Mothers and fathers of (boys) and (girls) in service, are you going to be fooled and deceived again by Mr. Roosevelt? He bungled the Japanese situation by failing to heed Ambassador Grew's warning on Jan. 27, 1941, and also continued to appease Japan up to Dec. 7, 1941 the day we were attacked at Pearl Harbor. You should put your trust this time in Gov. Dewey and Gov. Bricker, who will never deceive the mothers and fathers of America and their girls and boys now fighting on foreign soil.

FORMER WINCHESTER BOY FOUGHT WITH BOLO BATTALION

Capt. Truman Hemingway, Jr., son of a Vermont Episcopal clergyman who was formerly rector of the Church of the Epiphany, is credited officially by Gen. MacArthur's headquarters with helping to destroy scores of Japanese ships.

Capt. Hemingway was an aerial photographer at Clark Field near Manila when the Japanese struck at Pearl Harbor in 1941. He fought with MacArthur on Bataan and escaped to join the guerillas at Mandanao, fighting with anti-Japanese units throughout the Philippines. For 18 months he operated a powerful secret radio station guiding American submarines, surface ships and planes. He also joined a bolo battalion which has since become famous for its prowess with the bolo, a big razor-edged knife. Once, Capt. Heminway said, the bolo men stripped off their clothes and crept into a Japanese barracks, beheading everyone found with clothing on.

Capt. Hemingway is married, his wife the former Catherine Cribbs and an infant daughter, living at Dinegat Hills.

Sunday services 11 a. m
Wednesday testimonial meeting 8 p. m.
Reading Room, 5 Winchester Terrace (off Thompson street). Open daily except Sundays and holidays from 11 a. m. to 4 p. m.

"Adam and Fallen Man" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, and in all of its branches on Sunday, Nov. 5.
The Golden Text, "Sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace," is from Romans 6:14. Other Bible citations include: "And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth . . . And God saw every thing that he had made, and, behold, it was very good" (Genesis 1:26, 31).
The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "With a single command, Mind had made man, both male and female, and then could a material organization become the basis of man? How could the non-intelligent become the medium of Mind, and error be the enunciator of Truth? Matter is not the reflection of Spirit, yet God is reflected in all His creation" (p. 521).

HOW TO VOTE ON BALLOT QUESTIONS

A Simple Explanation of Perplexing Points Requiring Simplification

The presidential ballot you will receive on Tuesday, Nov. 7, contains five perplexing and confusing questions. In accordance with present-day custom the questions are presented in a welter of words and phrases which make it difficult if not impossible for the average voter to mark his ballot intelligently. Through the courtesy of the Massachusetts League of Women Voters these questions have been boiled down to a simple wording giving you a clear understanding of what you are voting upon and how to express your opinion correctly.

QUESTIONS APPEARING ON MASS. BALLOTS IN 1944

The following five questions are simplifications of those which will appear on the ballot Nov. 7.

QUESTION NO. 1

DO YOU APPROVE A CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT SIMPLIFYING THE FORM AND WORDING OF QUESTIONS ON THE BALLOT SO THAT FUTURE QUESTIONS WILL BE BRIEFER AND MORE EASILY UNDERSTOOD THAN HERETOFORE?

A YES vote means that future questions will be more simply and briefly stated.

A NO vote means that future questions appearing on the ballot will be in the same form as they are now.

QUESTION NO. 2

DO YOU APPROVE A CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT WHICH WOULD ALLOW THE LEGISLATURE TO "PRESCRIBE THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS UNDER WHICH PARDONS OF OFFENSES WHICH ARE FELONIES MAY BE GRANTED?"

A YES vote means that the legislature would have the power to change the conditions under which a pardon may be granted.

A NO vote means that the pardoning power will continue to be vested n the Governor by and with the advice of the Council.

QUESTION NO. 3

DO YOU APPROVE A CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT PROVIDING THAT THE LEGISLATURE MEET ANNUALLY, INSTEAD OF EVERY OTHER YEAR?

A YES vote means that the legislature will meet every year as it did up to 1938 when a Constitutional amendment providing for biennial session was adopted.

A NO vote means that the legislature will continue to meet every other year.

QUESTION NO. 4

DO YOU APPROVE OF AN AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION "PRVIDING FOR ABSENT VOTING BY QUALIFIED VOTERS WHO BY REASON OF PHYSICAL DISABILITY ARE UNABLE TO VOTE IN PERSON?"

A YES vote means that qualified voters who are physically unable to go to the polls and who are now unable to vote may vote by means of an absentee ballot.

A NO vote means that qualified voters who are physically unable to go to the polls will not be able to vte.

QUESTION NO. 5

DO YOU APPROVE OF PROHIBITING BEANO WHEN PLAYED FOR PRIZES?

A YES vote means that you do NOT wish to allow beano to be played for prizes.

A NO vote means that you DO wish to legalize the playing of beano for prizes.

In addition to these five questions, there will also appear on the ballot of every city and town three questions pertaining to the sale of alcoholic beverages in the particular city or town.

SPECIAL "FUN NIGHT" AT CANTEEN TOMORROW NIGHT

Tomorrow night, Saturday the 4th, will start a new era in the life of the local Red and Black Canteen when from 9 to 11 p. m. there will be a very special program, the first of a series of special events.

Tomorrow night's program is called Fun Night, and as special guests of honor the Canteen will welcome Coach and Mrs. Henry Knowlton.

The two hours from 9 to 11 promise to be gay and funny ones with a series of stunts and events conducted from the stage by Coach Knowlton and Pop Whittemore, assisted by their wives and a committee of members headed by Frank Lambiase. In addition to the stunts there will be an award of special prizes to members of the High School football team who have that afternoon made a score against Reading.

Fun Night will be the first of a series of special events, the second following on Saturday, Nov. 11 after the Belmont game. This will be a Talent Night, also from the stage, and the committee in charge is the program committee of the Canteen committee, namely Roy Monson, Sam Buzzotta, Joe Errico and Libby Fenno.

Planning of the series of Special Events was one of many subjects discussed at a joint meeting of the Canteen Committee and the Canteen Advisory Committee held at the home of Pop and Mrs. Whittemore last Sunday afternoon.

Various other decisions were made, one of which was that the Canteen would not be open on an evening on which any special all-school activity was going on at the high school, such as an A. A. dance. It was also decided to give a special rank of lieutenant to the many students who are assisting the Central Canteen Committee in the operation and leadership of the Canteen, thusr ecognizing their special assistance.

WINCHESTER WAR VETERANS ADVISORY COMMITTEE

The War Veterans Advisory Committee of our town will meet with similar committees of the surrounding towns at a conference to be held in the Stoneham Town Hall on the evening of Thursday, Nov. 16, at 8 o'clock. In many towns or cities these committees are known as Veterans Rehabilitation Committees.

At the request of Leverett N. Saltonstall, the Governor of the Commonwealth; the Board of Selectman appointee, as the town's official committee, the War Veteran's Advisory Committee.

We all have a tremendous responsibility in seeing to it, that upon the return of World War No. 2 veterans they become self-supporting and independent citizens.

We are all vitally concerned with seeing that the veteran is, first of all, accurately informed of all his rights and privileges and what he must do to obtain them.

Mr. Samuel Graves, chairman of the Educational Committee and his sub-committee chairman on Councillors, Mr. Erskine White, have given a great deal of time and study to this problem.

The Public Library Trustees have very kindly given this special committee the use of a room in the Public Library building for an Information Center.

WAR FUND SPEAKER IMPRESSED STUDENTS

Last Monday morning in the high school auditorium, Mrs. Knout of Chestnut Hill, representative of the Greater Boston United War Fund addressed an urgent appeal for the students of Winchester High School to support this great community effort.

The moving picture in technicolor "Red Feather Marie" which followed Mrs. Knout's address illustrated the work of the Fund in caring for babies, sick people, crippled, and aged.

DUMBARTON OAKS CONFERENCE DISCUSSED

Both partisan and non-partisan phases of our country were under thorough discussion at the meeting of the Winchester Women's Republican Club on Wednesday.

Mrs. Wm. Goodhue, president of the club presided and following the business meeting, she presentd Mrs. R. M. Sparks, chairman of the Education Committee, who introduced her subject, dealing with the national ticket by means of an "Information Phase" program.

Questions concerning the domestic as well as foreign policy of our country from a Republican viewpoint were presented by Mrs. Sparks and answered by her so-called Board of Experts; Mrs. Wm. C. Cusack, Miss Eleanor Dow, Mrs. Warren Whitman, Mrs. Wm. Goodhue, Mrs. Theodore Godwin, Mrs. Harold Twombly and Mrs. Marshall R. Pihl.

The non-partisan part of the meeting was then turned over to the speaker of the afternoon, Norman J. Padelford, professor of International Relations at M. I. T., who gave the factual achievements of the Dumbarton Oaks Conference.

He presented the fundamental question as to whether the four great powers, United States, England, China and Russia, together with France can maintain the united front they have finally found in this war to prevent aggressor countries to make war with the rest of the world.

The meeting was concluded with tea, provided by Mrs. Geo. French and her committee, Miss Eleanor Dow pouring at the tea table.

WAR PARENTS

On Wednesday evening, Oct. 25, Winchester Chapter, 16, War Parents of America, held a very well attended meeting in K. of C. hall, when many new members were added to the list.

President George R. Saltmarsh conducted the meeting and called on Mr. William B. Wood of the executive committee to address the new members.

Mr. William Hodge, chairman of the chapter's post-war planning committee made a detailed report of the ground work he has covered in conferring with the chairman of the Town's Post War Plannig Committee, Mr. Donald Heath. Mr. Hodges stated there would be no duplication of effort in the work of these two committees but the fullest co-peration at all times.

Mrs. Mary McGrath, well known local soloist and a member of the chapter, furnished the music for the meeting.

The next meeting will be held in K. of C. Hall on Wednesday evening, Nov. 8 and all parents of service men and women are invited.

WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION ACTIVITIES

The Home Church Guild of the First Congregational Church meets on Friday, Nov. 10. At 10 a. m., members are urged to come to sew for the Merry-Go-Round Fair and to bring a box lunch. Coffee will be served.

At 2 p. m. in the ladies parlor Dr. Chidley will speak briefly on "Opportunities for the Home Church Guild." Other speakers of the afternoon will be Mrs. Wm. W. Goodhue and Mrs. Herbert T. West who will give a talk and demonstration with actual flowers on flower arrangement.

A social hour and tea will follow the speakers. This is the regular first Tuesday of the month meeting of the Home Church Guild which has been changed to Friday because of election Tuesday.

Junior Mrs.

At the Oct. 24 meeting of the Junior Mrs., Mrs. Richard Ashenden was chosen as chairman of the tea committee and Mrs. Alfred Nelson as chairman of the work committee. New members attending were Mrs. Arthur Cochran, Mrs. Wendell Keith, and Mrs. Ralph E. Lane.

HALLOWE'EN QUIET HERE

Police and firemen reported Wednesday morning that Hallowe'en the night before had been one of the most quiet for many years, with no false alarms and a minimum of malicious mischief.

Boys smashed down a street sign at the corner of Pine and Dix streets, and a gang of youngsters painted the front walk of a house on Prospect street, red, stoning and doing some damage to the front piazza for good measure. Police had to stop a crowd of girls who were pulling off manhole covers on the east side between Walnut street and Myrtle street. A gang of boys set fire to piles of leaves along the property of a resident of Wildwood street near Church street.

Sgt. Cassidy picked up a Winchester girl who was marking up the windows of the Vernon Shoe Clinic on Mt. Vernon street with soap. She was given a brush and a pail of water and had a pleasant time removing her artistic efforts.

Boys pulled a scarlet fever sign from a house on Cross street and another gang of boy broke a street light on Fletcher street. Two of the boys in the latter gang were picked up by Sgt. Derro and Officer Toland, and taken to Headquarters. One of the, 17 years old, lived in Winchester and the other, 15, lived in Woburn. The Winchester boy was taken home by the Police and the mother of the Woburn boy called for him at the Station.

Four small, and two large windows were smashed with stones in the old Hutchinson Building at 1021 Main street and seven lanterns, taken from the construction job at south Main street. At Ungerman's garage on upper Main street a stone was thrown through a skylight, landing on an automobile inside and breaking the windshield and a front window.

NEW GIRL SCOUT TROOP AT UNITARIAN CHURCH

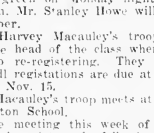

A group of mothers of girls of scout age met at the Unitarian Church on Tuesday afternoon to discuss the formation of a Girl Scout Troop at the church.

Mrs. Clarence Roberts, Winchester Commissioner and Miss Stansfield, the new executive secretary outlined the procedure to be followed in setting up a girl scout troop.

Rev. Paul Chapman presented Mrs. L. J. Michelsen who has generously agreed to become leader of the new troop. He also presented Mrs. Marion Reeves, president of the Girl's Club of the church and announced that the Girl's Club voted enthusiastically to sponsor the new troop.

Tuesday was chosen as the regular meeting day for the new girl scout troop and the first meeting will be held on Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 7 at 2.45 p. m.

The troop membership will not be confined to any one school grade. Girls of proper age will be welcomed regardless of grade. Like the Cub Scout, Scout and Sea Scout organizations meeting at the Unitarian Church this girl's troop will be a community affair and of course nonsectarian, girls of all the churches of the town will be eligible for membership.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Here's some real good news for the Wyman School sixth graders who have been so patient in waiting for their troop to start up. Mrs. T. T. Greenwood will be the new leader.

All the 7th graders will meet with Mrs. Ruth Dolan and we will send the notice of the time and place.

Mrs. Charles Fineburg's troop celebrate their 8th birthday this week. This is troop 11 and Noonan School.

The mariner ship will meet at 3 Central grove on Monday night at 7.30 p. m. Mr. Stanley Howe will be the skipper.

Mrs. Harvey Macauley's troop 9 go to the head of the class when it comes to re-registering. They are first. All registations are due at the office by Nov. 15.

Mrs. Macauley's troop meets at the Washington School.

At the meeting this week of the Leaders' Association the following officers were elected for the coming year:

President, Mrs. Ervin Tracy.
Secretary, Mrs. Foster Spofford.
Council Representative, Mrs. Harvey Macauley.

The training course for leaders starts on Nov. 15.

The Brownie training course has two more meetings, Nov. 2 and 9.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT CLUB DINNER AND MOVIE COMING

The Wednesday Night Club of the First Congregational Church will hold a home cooked dinner and old fashioned movie night Wednesday evening, Nov. 15, at the parish hall at 6:45 p. m. The dinner will be prepared by an able committee with Mrs. Raymond Dickman, chairman, also Mrs. William Sawyer, Mrs. William Rodgers, Mrs. Robert Oxford, Mrs. Charles Brown, Mrs. Harold Stevens, Mrs. Frank Connolly, Mrs. Ralph Swan, Mrs. Frank Hawkins, Mrs. Colver Dyer and Mrs. James Robertson.

Following the supper we expect a hilarious time reviewing some old time movies selected and shown by Mr. Franklin McDermott and Lt. Eugene Burt with by-lines by Mr. Harold Jones and music by Mr. Irving Plitt. The decorations will be in charge of Mrs. Samuel Graves and her committee.

SONATA RECITAL

Mr. Joshua Phippen, pianist, for the third of his Sonata recitals Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lincoln Rice on the Parkway, played the following program: Beethoven, Op. 14, No. 2; Mozart, excerpt from Sonata, No. 4; Schubert, Scherzo from Op. 42; and Brahms, Finale to Op. 1.

Following the Schubert number Mr. Phippen announced he would play a selection written 60 years after that music, adding that he would name the author after the selection had been played.

The selection he rendered proved to be his own composition, a delightful Scherzo with a beautiful melody and the necessary musical substance to lift it above the commonplace. As Mr. Phippen played it one was conscious of no letdown in the general high tone of the recital program.

Mr. Phippen really has to be heard to be believed. A finished pianist before most present-day pianists were born, he still plays with enthusiasm and the obvious enjoyment of a youngster newly acquainted with the great music of the old masters. To the technical competence of the more vigorous younger performer he adds the interpretive depth which can come only from years of familiarity with, and a sympathetic understanding of the classics of musical literature. No theme, phrase or scale, however unassuming, loses in his hands its importance to the successful performance of the entire composition.

The enthusiasm manifest by those who listened to Mr. Phippen on Wednesday seemed sufficient proof that good music well played is still greatly enjoyed.

N. W. G.

Long before there were alphabet organization sponsored by our government these initials had deep significance in many countries throughout the world.

The Needle Work Guild came to America from England nearly 60 years ago and Winchester's branch functions actively through its contributing membership of more than 200.

Governor Saltonstall was one of the 16 leaders in as many states who has encouraged the good work and membership week in October. Perhaps you heard the broadcast from headquarters in Philadelphia.

All branches are affiliated with the Red Cross and have often been of great assistance in times of emergency. The Home Service Department has many needs and the Guild this year will hear of this special work from Miss Jewett, Winchester's local director. Anyone who is interested will be welcomed at the annual meeting of the Methodist Church, Wednesday, Nov. 8 at 2 p. m.

LT. WHITELAW WRIGHT GETS THIRD OAK LEAF CLUSTER

Presentation of a third oak leaf cluster to the air medal to 1st Lt. Whitelaw Wright, Jr., P51 Mustang fighter pilot has been announced.

Lt. Wright has earned the decoration by "exceptionally meritorious service in aerial flight over enemy occupied Continental Europe."

The lieutenant is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Whitelaw Wright, Sr. of 14 Fletcher street. He was graduated from Winchester High School and attended Tufts College. He entered the Army Air Forces as a cadet in January 1943 and was commissioned at Williams Field, Phoenix, Ariz. in November of the same year.

COLLEGE CLUB FALL MEETING

The guest night of the Winchester College Club will be held on Wednesday evening, Nov. 8 at the Parish House of the Church of the Epiphany. President Leonard Carmichael of Tufts College will speak on "New College Plans for Post War Education." Coffee will be served at 7.30 with Mrs. James S. Allen pouring. All members of the College Club are urged to attend and to bring their husbands and friends.

Pfc. Abe Levine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Levine of 551 Main street, is home on leave from his army duties in Georgia. He is in the Signal Corps attached to the Air Forces.

SELECTMEN'S NOTES

Mr. Russell represented the Board at the conference of Planning Boards at Wellesley and returned with the feeling that the Town of Winchester is particularly well set on post-war planning and investments in war bonds, and in such plans is well in advance of most communities.

Bids for snow and ice removal are to be opened on Nov. 13.

Public Amusement Licenses

Organizations and owners of public halls are again warned that there is a heavy penalty for failure to obtain a license of the Selectmen for any public amusement where an admission fee of any kind is charged. This does not apply to public entertainments by religious societies in their usual places of worship for a religious or charitable purpose, or to entertainment given in school buildings by or for the benefit of the pupils thereof and under the supervision of the principal or teachers in charge of the school classes therein, or to entertainments given in a private dwelling, except in apartments thereof having a seating capacity of 400 or more.

This information should be posted for reference by all committees in charge of such entertainments.

PACK 6 NEWS

The November meeting of Cub Pack 6 will be held at the Unitarian Church on Friday, Nov. 3. A separate meeting of parents is planned under the direction of of Mr. John Foley, chairman of the Cub Pack Committee and Rev. Paul Chapman, Cubmaster of Pack 6.

Parents of boys in the Lincoln School district have been invited to the meeting to discuss the formation of new dens in that area. One new den of Lincoln School boys is to be welcomed and plans are being made to form others.

The great work of the Baldwinville Hospital for Crippled Children will be described and a splendid film of their work shown to the boys and the parents. Cubs of Pack 6 are taking as a project, again this year, the collecting and painting and repairing of toys to be sent to the hospitals at Christmas time. Cubmaster Bob Carruthers will be in charge of the boys part of the meeting and will be assisted by Stark Mills, Leo Garvey, Charles Nichols, George Pierce, and Samuel H. Griffin. Drill instruction will be in charge of Lt. Henry Dellicker of the State Guard. Singing will be led by Cubmaster Jim Coon. A special induction ceremony and presentation of badges will conclude the evening's program.

Last week the Cubs of Pack 6 enjoyed basketball practice under the direction of Mr. Leo Garvey.

Cubs of Pack 6 will meet on Saturday mornings in Metcalf Hall for basketball instruction and later for group games.

Den Mothers of Pack 6 are Mrs. Russell Symmes, Mrs. Walter P. Keyes, Mrs. Theodore Elliott, Mrs. A. F. Johnson, Mrs. A. Samoiloff, Mrs. E. G. Pierce, Mrs. Samuel H. Griffin, Mrs. Ross M. Cunningham, Mrs. Paul Forester. Den Chiefs are David Coon, Franklin Pynn, Fisher Wolfe, Charles Hart, Bob Edwards, Jack Wentworth, Peter Millett, Douglas McIlroy. The Pack now has a membership of 70 boys.

PACK 3 FALL OUTNG

Under the leadership of Cubmaster H. R. Brown, 31 Cubs hiked to Russell's Meadows for the fall outing on Saturday, Oct. 28. The morning was spent playing field games, Team 4 made up of Ronald Vernet, Russell Herrmann, Harry Brown, Charles Burnham, Jr., Kenneth Hiscoe, Roddy McCreery and Edward Jones were the champs winning the tug of war, the football throwing contest and the crab race. The wheelbarrow race was won by Team 1 which included Gordon Bird, Jr., Robert Loftus, Douglas Hamilton, Richard Wylie, Alexander Aitken, George DeCamp, Jr. and William Doughty. The fourth event was a relay race won by David Fessenden, Carter B. Tallman, John Gould, John Goodnoegh, John Bodman and Gerald Cox on Team 2.

Committeemen Gordon Bird and Donald Davis served seemingly limitless quantities of hot dogs, chocolate milk, doughnuts and apples for lunch. One Cub reportedly consumed seven large cups of chocolate milk.

Tag football was the sport of the afternoon. Pick up teams were coached by Committeemen Reginald Vernet, A. R. McLeod, Al Nelson and Roy Brown.

Who's Who in Information Please

The Master of Ceremonies:

Dr. Robert Cummins—Dr. Cummins received his A. B. degree at Miami University, in Ohio in 1919. He received an A. M. degree from Ohio State University, a Master of Religion at the graduate school of the University of Cincinnati, and a Master of Theology at the University of Southern California. He became a Doctor of Sacred Theology at Oxford University in England and a Doctor of Divinity at the University of California. Dr. Cummins has lived in Bangkok, Siam, as director of the Boon-itt Memorial Institute for Young Men. He has been pastor of churches in Cincinnati, Ohio and Pasadena, California. At present, Dr Cummins is General Superintendent of the Universalist Church of America. He is married and has three sons, one in the Wyman School, one in college, and one in the Army.

The Experts are:

Mrs. Charles S. Livingstone—Hildegard Livingstone is a graduate of Miss Porter's School in Farmington, Conn. She was the first prize graduate of the Brussells Conservatory of Music. She also studied violin under Auer in St. Petersburg. Mrs. Living-stone then became head of the violin department at the Conservatory of Music in Detroit. She has given recitals in Boston, New York, Hartford, and Detroit. Here in Winchester, Mrs. Livingstone started a Music Group for children which has been most popular. Mrs. Living-stone's three sons attended the Winchester public schools and are now in the armed services.

Mrs. Henry K. Spencer—Madge Spencer, the former Madge Hovey, has lived in Winchester most of her life. She graduated from Winchester High School with high honors in 1911 and from Smith College in 1915 with honors and a Phi Beta Kappa. Mrs. Spencer has served two terms on the Winchester School Committee and was chairman for one year. She has four children who attended the Winchester public schools. Of these two are in the armed services.

Mrs. Kenneth B. Toye—Gladys Toye received no formal education but was taught at home by tutors. She was born in Canada and lived five years in the British Isles. She is a cousin of Robert Louis Stevenson. In pre-war days she was very much interested in baseball and was President of the Ladies' Day Association in Boston. For the past eight years, Mrs. Toye has been leader of a group of women studying International Affairs in Winchester and as a consequence keeps herself very well informed on present day events in the world. She has one son in Winchester High School.

Mrs. Philip J. Woodward—Sally Woodward graduated from the Harcourt School and from Mount Holyoke College with the class of 1931. While in college she was a member of the debating team. After graduation Mrs. Woodward worked on Publicity for the National Economy League and later became New England director of it. She has recently been Foreign Policy Chairman of the Massachusetts League of Women Voters and is now president of the Winchester League of Women Voters. She has one daughter in the Wyman School.

Mr. James A. Cullen—James Cullen has lived in Winchester most of his life. He graduated from Winchester High School with high honors in 1924. He received the Washington and Franklin History Medal that year and the Fortnightly Club Scholarship. Mr. Cullen went to the Massachusetts Institute of Technology where he was captain of the Wrestling Team. He graduated from M. I. T. in 1928. Since leaving college Mr. Cullen has been in business in Winchester. Recently he served on the Winchester Board of Selectmen. He is married and has five children, four of whom attend the Winchester public schools.

Mr. John I. Donovan—John Donovan graduated from Lawrence High School in 1909 and from Harvard University cum laude with the class of 1913. He majored in History and Government. For the next fourteen years he taught in the Lawrence public schools—for five years as an English teacher in the High School and for nine years as master of a grammar school. During the school vacations from 1919 to 1926, Mr. Donovan arranged the New England Concert appearances of many famous artists such as Galli-Curci, Geraldine Farrar, Schumann-Heink, Louise Homer, John McCormack, and Fritz Kreisler. In 1926 Mr. Donovan entered the investment business of Draper, Corp. & Company. He served as a member of the Lawrence School Committee soon after that and he is a director of the Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway Company. Mr. Donovan and his wife moved to Winchester four years ago. They have two children in the Winchester schools.

James J. McGovern—James McGovern graduated first in his class from Hope St. High School in Providence, R. I. He received his A. B. from Brown University. He was captain of the debating team at Brown and was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. He received several prizes at commencement and was a commencement speaker. He attended Harvard Law School and graduated high in his class. After receiving his LL. B., Mr. McGovern was employed as an attorney for the United Fruit Company. He is at present its Assistant General Attorney. He has traveled widely in connection with his work. He has been in Columbia, South America and in most of the countries in Central America and the West Indies. He also made six trips to Europe for his company. Mr. McGovern is married and has three sons, two in the armed services and one in the Winchester Junior High School.

Dr. Lyman B. Smith—Lyman Smith has lived most of his life in Winchester. He attended Winchester High School for two years and graduated from Brown and Nichols School with honors in 1921. He received his A. B. cum laude from Harvard University in 1925 and his Ph. D. from Harvard in Biology in 1930. Dr. Smith has traveled on botanical collecting expeditions in the Gaspe Peninsula, in Southeastern Brazil, in Cuba, and in southern United States. He has done research study in herbaria in England, Belgium, Switzerland and France. At present Dr. Smith is curator of the Gray Herbarium of Harvard University. He is married and has three children who attend the Winchester public schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Langley C. Keyes will help Dr. Cummins select the questions to be used.

Mrs. Thomas J. Edwards will select the musical questions and will play the musical selections to be identified.

The Information Please Program for the benefit of the Winchester Mothers' Association Scholarship Fund will take place on Friday evening, November 10th. Please send questions and answers to try to stump the experts listed above. If your questions are used you receive a twenty-five cent defense stamp; if they stump the experts you receive a dollar's worth of defense stamps. Questions must be sent in before November 4th to Mr. Robert Cummins, 1 Yale Street, Mrs. Paul B. Elliott, 37 Wedgemere Avenue, or the Star Office. And please go to the High School Auditorium on November 10th to see if your questions stump the experts. Tickets may be secured from Mrs. Dana D. Sawyer, Win. 0463-M.

WINCHESTER ART ASSOCIATION

The Winchester Art Association will open its November exhibition with a gallery talk on Tuesday Nov .7 at 7.45 p. m. Galen Perrett, shore and marine painter, will be the exhibitor and will speak on, "Moods of the Sea."

Mr. Perrett was born in Chicago, Ill., in 1875, of parents who were anything but enthusiastic about Art as a career for their son. His father, a Somersetshire-born English sea captain had run away to sea when still a boy, which fact may account for the love and understanding his son has for the sea.

After college, the art 'esire was so strong, Galen Perrett managed to study at the Chicago Art Institute where he aeqired some skill in drawing, a little in painting, and a great deal of personal confidence. His work attracted attention and he was invited to New York to assist Albert Herter in the painting of some murals. This work broadened his scope and instilled new amhition within him. He learned much from Herter and earned enough money to go abroad and study at Julien's in Paris, at the Munich Academy and then to Laren in Holland. This was the center of 19th century school of Dutch painting and it brought him close to the sea and the picturesque Dutch coast and increased his interest in marine painting.

He acquired considerable skill in landscape and still-life painting while in Europe, as well as a finely developed sense in composition. He used these to good advantage in illustrating and advertising commissions and in teaching when he returned to New York.

Through his diversified talents he was a very busy and successful artist for it is not every man who can attract attention in so many fields . . figure work, still life, commercial advertising and landscape.

About this time he visited Rockport where he found that the call of the sea was stronger than over. This time he listened to it and was fascinated by the many moods of the sea, the sky and the rocky ledges of the coast. He returned to Rockport again and each time came earlier in the season and stayed later. Finally he decided to make Rockport his permanent year round home and there he found the peace which follows when one is doing what one most wants to do, and consequently, the ability to do it well.

On the rocky ledges of Lands' End they loved so much, he and his wife built the house of their dreams, a solid, three-story granite block house with a tower snuggled against one side, a house resembling a medieval Italian castle. His studio, which overlooks the sea and shore for miles around, is exceptionally large with a high timbered ceiling. On the window ledge, ever ready, wait the binoculars which help him observe the varying moods of the ocean. Mr. Perrett roams the Rockport coast, studying and sketching the rocks, the breaking waves and the foam at close range. He retains the image in his mind then transposes it for us on canvas.

The paintings of Galen Perrett have hung in the Paris Salon, the St. Louis Exposition, the Chicago Institute and the National Academy.

Mrs. Vaughn Harmon and her hospitality committee will be hostesses for the evening and Mrs. Truman Godfrey and Mrs. Robinson Whitten will pour. The table arrangement will be done by Mrs. Alexander Samoiloff.

HAVE YOU SEEN THIS POSTER?

Lots of folks have seen this poster, which as blossomed out in store windows around town this week.

Some people say: "What does it mean? Is it supposed to symbolize the idea that it's a feather in your cap to support the United War Fund?"

Actually, it means more than that.

In the Crusades, the Black Prince decorated his most valorous men with a red feather. Robin Hood, too, awarded this Red Badge of Courage to his most daring followers. Even our own Indians dyed eagle feathers red for their bravest. Thus, the red feather has come to signify a historic symbol of courage and devotion to a common cause.

And the hat? It's the Puritan Hat of our Massachusetts Bay Colony forefathers. It recalls that the early settlers had to practice community co-operation, a co-operation such as is expressed in the United War Fund today.

LINCOLN SCHOOL NOTES

WINCHESTER SCIENTISTS ATTEND LECTURE

In the audience which attended the lecture on Christian Science delivered in Stoneham last Friday evening, Oct. 27, wer many rsidents of Winchester and vicinity. The speaker was Florence Middaugh, C. S., of Los Angeles, California, and the lecture was given under the auspices of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, in Boston.

"It is safe to say," declared Miss Middaugh, "that practically everyone believes in a supreme being, a power greater than himself. Because the individual concepts of the creator may differ, some may say, There is no God, but by this they generally mean that they do not believe the concept of God which has been presented to them, or which they have formed in their own consciousness."

The speaker said that the widely diverging theories concerning God could not change His nature or being, nor would it be possible for Him to coincide with all the differing concepts. "Then," she said, "we must rightfully conclude tthat only one concept can be true, and it is necessary for us to find out which one is true and conform our lives in accordance with it.

"When you ask the question, How can I find God from where I am? the question follows, Where are you? Simply and directly answered, you are just where and what you are thinking about God. One of the most important things to understand about God, is that He made everything, but He did not make part of His creation good and part evil. Then the puzzled inquiror may ask, Well, if this is true, how do you account for evil, and how does man find himself in this material universe? A complete answer to these questions can be found only through growth in spiritual understanding.

"The Scriptures declare that God is 'of purer eyes than to behold evil.' Therefore man, made in His amage and likeness, could not behold aught that God does not know. The allness of God destroys the seeming actuality of evil and it is only as one gains a comprehension of God's allness that the unreality of evil becomes apparent.

"Surely you will be glad to know that God never made a sick or sinful man. He who believes there can be any man besides the one made in Gold's image and likeness should be willing to let go of it when he remembers that this false belief has brought nothing but discord and dismay."

Miss Middaugh is a member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church. The subject of her lecture was "Christian Science: The Way of Salvation and Healing."

K. OF C. NOTES

Bro. Danny O'Donnell in charge of the K. of C. ladies night on Saturday, Nov. 4 announces that it will be Patriotic party. The women will all wear house dresses, we hope, while the men will attend in their working clothes, no neckties allowed.

The war activities committee headed by Bro. Denny Collins, have done a swell job in getting the Christmas boxes into the mails for the members of the armed forces, which now number 87 men. First consideration was given to those in the Army with an APO address and 26 of these have been sent.

The newly formed inter-council card tournaments open their season on Thursday, Nov. 9. Winchester Council goes to Melrose and Medford plays at Stoneham. Deputy Grand Knight Sam Kinton has been elected president of the league. Forty five, bridge, whist and ribbage teams from the various coucils will vie for honors.

Grand Knight Henry Murray, announces that there will be a First Degree at the meeting on Monday evening, Dec. 4.

On Saturday, Nov. 11, members of our council will journey to Boston to participate in the Memorial Mass which will be celebrated by newly appointed Archbishop Cushing, at the newly renovated Holy Cross Cathedral, honoring all the K. of C members in Mssachusetts, all members who possibly can should attend the Mass.

On Monday night, Oct. 23, the members were treated to a fine talk by Bro. John Stygles, who recently returned from the South Pacific on a furlough. Bro. Stygles pointed out some of the good work the Missionary Fathers were doing both for the natives and the armed forces of the war torn islands.

Bro. Bart Conlon is very pleased at the good returns of the membership drive to date. He also urged all the members to get the names of applications of any prospective new member to him as soon as possible.

Bro. George Foley is confined to the Chelsea Soldiers Hospital, but late reports have him on the mend.

Bro. George Rogers is up and around again after his battle with pneumonia at the Chelsea Naval Hospital.

Bro. James J. Dolan of Medford has returned to work at the Noyes Buick in Boston, after a long seige of illness.

From all reports this year's retreat held at Campion Hall in North Andover was by far the best that the council has attended.

A letter from Bro. "Cheese" Haggerty from California, reveals that he is in good health and wants to be remembered to all the members. "Cheese" is now M.M.M. 1c in the U. S. Navy.

Next regular meeting Monday night, Nov. 6. There are some very important plans to be discussed, so make every effort to be there.

TWO MOTOR ACCIDENTS SATURDAY

The first of two automobile accidents reported to the Police last Saturday took place shortly before 8 o'clock, when a Dodge sedan, driven by Dr. Chester F. Wolfe of 19 Jefferson road was in collision on Main street at Madison avenue west with a beach wagon driven by Earl Moore of 1 Cook terrace, Woburn. The latter was going south on Main street while Dr. Wolfe was crossing Main street from Madison avenue to enter Madison avenue west. The Dodge was slightly damaged and the beach wagon badly damaged. There were no injuries reported.

Shortly after 2 o'clock in the afternoon a Chevrolet sedan, driven east on Forest street by John P. Davey of 18 Grant street, Stoneham, was in collision at the junction of Forest and Washington street with a GMC truck, owned by the Brawer Healy Co., Inc. of 152 Hampden street, Boston and being driven south on Washington street by Edmund J. Arsenault of 829 Albany street, Boston. There were no injuries reported. The front end of the Chevolet was badly damaged and a spare gas tank on the truck was broken, causing the loss of several gallons of gasoline.

TRIPLE CRASH ON BACON STREET

A school bus and two automobiles were in collision on Bacon street at the intersection of the Parkway west of the railroad bridge Monday afternoon shortly after 3 o'clock.

Everett Hambly of 2 Cutting street, driver of the school bus, owned by him, told the Police he he was driving toward Church street on Bacon street when an automobile, driven by Mary G. Lancaster of 226 Broadway, Cambridge, and headed in the same direction, stopped short in front of him.

In an effort to avoid a collision Mr. Hambly swung the bus to the left, but his machine struck the tail light or the left rear mudguard of the other car. The bus also collided with a Plymouth sedan, owned by Frank Dattilo of 56 Swanton street, and driven toward the railroad bridge by Frank Cirurso of 57 Swanton street.

The Plymouth, after the collision, left the road and struck the large elm on the triangular plot between the two entrances to the Parkway. The Plymouth was badly damaged but left the scene of the accident under its own power. Angelina Cirurso of 57 Swanton street, a passenger, complained of having been shaken up. The damage done the bus and the Lancaster car was reported as slight and none of the school children in the bus were injured.

INJURED AS CAR HIT UPRIGHT

James P. White of 62 Wedgemere avenue, vice president of the Boston Fruit Exchange, was painfully injured last Friday night when his automobile struck an iron upright on the Main street-Broadway bridge at the Boston-Somerville line.

Mr. White, who is also president and treasurer of Chapin and Adams, Corp., produce dealers, was on his way home from his office when the accident occurred. The cause is unknown, there being no witness and Mr. White being unable to account for the crash.

His car was wrecked and he was pinned in the wreckage until removed by Somerville firemen. He was given first aid by Pvt. Eugene Ingalls, a South Pacific veteran of 30 months.

Mr. White was first taken to the Central Hospital in Somerville and later the same night, removed to the Winchester Hospital. It was first feared that he had a fractured skull and internal injuries. Later reports were more reassuring and on Monday he was reported to be resting comfortably with injuries described as a broken collar bone and nose, a broken little finger and lacerated knee. He is being attended by Drs. Jost Michelson and Alexander Aitkin of Winchester and Dr. DeWolfe of Wakefield.

Mr. White is 47 and has lived in town for several years. He is married and has a son, James, Jr., serving in the Naval Air Corps.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

It's Still Town Meeting In a Big Way

I got to pondering the other day about the coming election.

Not about who or what was going to win but whether the voters themselves would win.

Lots of times the folks don't seem to appreciate their privilege of expressing their opinion secretly at the polls.

When I was a boy, town meeting was the event of the year, a man had to be sick abed to miss it.

From where I sit, all town, city, state—yes, federal, elections are nothing but the old-fashion town meeting on a large scale.

And believe me it's just as important for you and me to cast our vote on election day as it was for the old-timers to go to Town Meeting. And after all, the secret ballot is the essence of democracy—the form of government that makes America great.

So don't let America down. No matter what your politics are—no matter how you vote—go to the polls on election day and have your say. Rain or shine!

VOTE 'YES' FOR LICENSES TUESDAY, NOV. 7

- Prevent the return of Prohibition and continue in force orderly Government control of the sale of all alcoholic beverages.
- Prevent a substantial rise in your income tax. Continue the flow of millions of dollars paid to the State and Nation by the Alcoholic Beverage Industry.
- Over 200,000 persons casting ballots in 1942 did not vote on the 3 License questions. Don't permit your rights and privileges to be taken away because of your neglect to vote 'YES' for Licenses.

BE SURE TO VOTE 'YES' ON THESE 3 QUESTIONS . .

TOP OF LAST COLUMN ON BALLOT
QUESTIONS 1 • 2 • 3

Your failure to vote 'YES' on these 3 questions will give bootleggers and racketeers the opportunity to take advantage of your neglect and carry your State toward Prohibition and all the evils which it brings.

EVERY MONTH

Thomas Boulton Hoare, of Winchester, Mass., puts his feet on his desk in the Christian Endeavor Building in Boston and begins to dictate to his secretary a play by play account of what has happened to him and his family for the past month. When the lady has finished copying the dictation, Hoare has the works mimeographed and 6000 copies of his own personal newspaper go out all over the world to Hoare's friends and acquaintances. The publication, called "News For Youse," deals with odd bits of whimsy, such as the discovery that the first polar bear in the U. S. came to Boston in 1733, and red-hot bits of copy, such as the announcement of Hoare's son's first tooth. The idea of sending out this deathless prose came to Hoare because, as a social worker, he met so many people that he couldn't write letters to every one of them but he wanted to keep in touch with them with something more personal than Christmas cards. His list includes Jim Farley, an ostrich farmer in the Kalahari desert in South Africa, and the Mayor of New York.—[The American Magazine

CHRISTMAS BOOK FAIR

The Winchester Mt. Holyoke Club takes pleasure in announcing the Christmas Book Fair to be held in the library on Nov. 7 at 10 a. m. This is the second in a series of six talks on "Books and Authors" given by Mrs. Alice Dixon Bond for the benefit of the Mt. Holyoke Scholarship Fund.
Mary Spaulding's Bookshop will have books a display for which orders will be taken. The Mt. Holyoke Scholarship Fund benefits from all books ordered on that day.
The ushers who will also assist with taking orders for Christmas books will be Mrs. Adin Bailey, Mrs. Howard Morrison, Mrs. Winslow Smith, and Mrs. James Willing.
The committee in charge of arrangements for the course includes Mrs. S. Frederick Calhoun, chairman; Mrs. Gerald Barrett and Mrs. Harold Smith, tickets; Mrs. Waldon Hersey, posters; and Mrs. Winslow Smith, publicity.

SCHOOL SURVEY RECOMMENDATIONS TO BE PRESENTED

Public Meeting Nov. 21

Prof. John Guy Fowlkes of the University of Wisconsin will return to Winchester on Nov. 19 for a period of ten days to present to citizens of the town his findings and recommendations on the Winchester schools, which were surveyed by him and his staff in September and October. Numerous meetings have been arranged in order to permit his findings to be discussed by all interested citizens.

After a preliminary meeting with the School Committee, Dr. Fowlkes will meet with the Selectmen, Finance Committee, Planning Board, the Board of Health and the Park Commissioners on Sunday evening, Nov. 19.

On Monday evening, Nov 20, Dr. Fowlkes will address the Fathers Night meeting of the Wyman School Mothers' Association. On Tuesday evening, Nov. 21, in the high school auditorium he will address parents of the high and junior high schools. All interested are cordially invited to attend the Nov. 21 meeting.

Evening meetings for the other schools have been arranged through the Mothers' Associations for the week following Thanksgiving; on Monday evening, Nov. 27, at the Washington School; on Tuesday evening at the Lincoln School; on Wednesday evening at the Mystic School; and on Thursday evening at the Noonan School.

THE SIXTH WAR LOAN DRIVE

The new drive will start in Winchester on Nov. 24, the day after Thanksgiving and will end on Dec. 16. Our quota is $1,581,000 and there is an important difference between this and previous War Loans. This time, $779,000 or more than half of the total quota is based on purchases by individuals. This portion of the total consists of $227,000 in E Bonds and $552,000 in other issues to be bought by individuals.

In all the previous War Loans only a relatively small part of our quota consisted of sales to individuals, the rest being purchasable by local banks and other institutions. This trip, it is strictly up to every family in town to do its part. You, if you are a good American, cannot leave it this time to George or to Tom, Dick or Harry. Winchester simply can't come thru as it should without your help. We and Uncle Sam will need every dollar your family can scrape for investment in Sixth War Loan Bonds.

A volunteer solicitor will come to your door sometime during the three weeks of the Winchester drive. Every family will be thus solicited. Please be prepared to sign up for all the bonds your pocketbook will possibly permit. Alibis, however good, buy no bullets for the boys who are risking their lives that yours may be safe.

CHASE—PYNN

The marriage of Miss Florence Coleman Pynn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Pynn of Ridgeway, to Howard Edwin Chase, Jr., USA, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Chase of Webster Street, took place on Saturday evening, Nov. 4, at the First Baptist Church. Palms and candlelight made an attractive setting for the ceremony which was performed at 8 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. Walter Lee Bailey. Mrs. Frederick C. MacDonald, church organist, played the bridal music and Miss Doris Emery sang "O Promise Me" and "Because."

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Pynn wore a gown of chiffon over satin, styled with a court train. Her long veil of heirloom lace was caught to a crown of pearls and she carried a bouquet of lovely white chrysanthemums.

Miss Dorothy Chase of Winchester, sister of the bridegroom, was the bride's honor maid and only attendant. She wore a dress of baby pink brocaded taffeta with a sweetheart neckline and matching lace on the elbow length sleeves and around the bottom of the skirt. Her flowers were varicolored chrysanthemums.

Ronald E. Pynn of Medford, brother of the bride, was best man and the ushers were Franklin Pynn of Winchester, another brother of the bride and Norman Joyce of Winchester, a cousin of the bridegroom.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlor, the parents of both the bride and bridegroom assisting in receiving. Hostesses for the reception were Miss June and Miss Helen Chase, Miss Shirley Aitchison, Miss Rita Halligan, Miss Pauline Lindsey, Miss Helen Goodnough and Mrs. Edna Cyr Gibbons. Following the reception Mr. Chase and his bride left to spend their honey moon in New York.

Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of Winchester High School. Mr. Chase has only recently returned from 31 months Army duty in the Pacific theatre of war.

ROTARY NOTES

Winchester Rotary met yesterday noon with a good attendance and two rotarian guests, President Harry Bigelow presiding. The week's war bond was awarded to Mr. Charles E. Howe, he being the third lucky member to thus receive the prize. The meeting was given over to discussion of various aims and objects which have been brought before the club.

CORRECTION

The Armistice Day football game between Winchester and Belmont High Schools will commence at 2:30, not 2, as announced elsewhere in this issue.

NEFF—BOECKER

Miss Alice Allta Boecker daughter of Mr. Theodore J. Boecker of Wildwood Street, became the bride of Lt William George Neff, USA, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Neff of Alliance, Ohio, at a ceremony performed Saturday afternoon, Nov. 4, at 3 o'clock in St. Mary's Church by the pastor Rev. Fr. John P. O'Riordan.

Given in marriage by her father Miss Boecker was attended by Mrs. K. E. Banks, Jr., of Hope Ark., as matron of honor, and Miss Meredith Wallace of Akron, O., as bridesmaid. Bridesmaids were Miss Lillian Autonelli of Warren, O., and Miss Priscilla Jeffs of Melrose.

The bride wore a princess style gown of white satin with a court train and a conventional veil. She carried a white prayer-book with matching orchid and stephanotis. The matron of honor wore a dress of white satin and net with satin appliques on the full circular skirt. Her flowers were white carnations and stephanotis. The bridesmaid and bridesmaids wore dresses like the matron of honor and carried bouquets of white and yellow carnations.

Lt. Robert Lent of Lakewood, O. was Lt. Neff's best man and the ushers were Lt. Charles Klatt of Cleveland, O., and Lt. Richard Davis of Alliance, Ohio.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the home of the bride, an aunt of the bride, Mrs. W. H. Wallace of Akron, O., assisting in receiving. Yellow and white roses and snap dragons made attractive house decorations. Following the reception Lt. and Mrs. Neff left to spend their honeymoon hunting in Southern Ohio and Kentucky.

Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of Kent State University in Ohio. Lt. Neff also attending Mt Union in Alliance, Ohio. He is a member of the Sigma Nu fraternity and his bride of Alpha Omicron and Kappa Delta Psi. Lt. Neff is in the statistics branch of the Army.

WINCHESTER CAST RECORD VOTE

Town Republican as Usual. Strong Sentiment for Package Stores

Winchester voters apparently did not share the Nation's apprehension over changing horses in mid-stream, voting for the Republican presidential ticket of Dewey and Bricker over the successful New Deal Democratic standard bearers, Roosevelt and Truman, by more than two to one. The entire Republican ticket was favored in Winchester as the town cast the largest vote in its history, 7048 as opposed to the 7096 cast in the Roosevelt-Willkie election of 1940, and the 5712 cast in the Hoover-Smith election of 1928.

With a total voting list of 8912, including 847 service and absentee voter ballots, the town cast better than 80 per cent of its possible strength. Mr. Roosevelt polled 87 more votes this year than he did against Willkie four years ago. Although he beat the successful Maurice J. Tobin by more than two to one, Horace T. Cahill, Republican candidate for Governor, with a larger vote cast, fell behind Leverett Saltonstall's gubernatorial figures of four years ago, polling 5312 to Saltonstall's 5457. Mr. Saltonstall ran far ahead of John H. Corcoran, his Democratic rival for U. S. Senator, polling 6573 votes to Corcoran's 1315.

Featuring Winchester's referenda voting was the strength of the sentiment for package stores in town. Voting against bar rooms four and five to one on the other liquor referenda, the town defeated package stores by less than a thousand votes, 2858 voters being in favor with 3846 opposed.

Winchester overwhelmingly endorsed the proposal to have questions on the ballot worded in more understandable fashion, and by a close vote turned down the proposal to have the legislature change the terms under which a pardon may be granted. The town was opposed to annual sessions of the legislature two to one and emphatically favor d giving voting rights to those voters physically unable to get to the polls. Beacon lost out in Winchester 3911 to 1367.

Winchester's voting ran heavy all day with 3107 votes cast at 12:30 and 6060 at 6 p. m. The first precinct in was 5 at 11:10, the last coming in being 4 at 2:45 Wednesday morning. It was 1:25 in the morning when the Registrars had the vote finally tabulated and 1:55 when Town Clerk Mabel W. Stinson and her assistant, Miss Helen Stinson finally left the hall for home. For the first time the Selectmen enforced a no smoking order at the town hall after the closing of the polls, but whether this had anything to do with the inefficiency of some of the election officials is a moot question.

SGT. FARNSWORTH KILLED IN ACTION

Mr. and Mrs. Harold V. Farnsworth of Central green have been notified by the War Department that their son, Sgt. Richard Miller Farnsworth, USAAF, was killed in action against the Japanese in the Caroline Islands on June 15, 1944. Sgt. Farnsworth had been reported as missing in action since that time.

Sgt. Farnsworth was born in Winchester May 26, 1922. He attended the Winchester school and Deerfield Academy, entering Dartmouth College and transferring to Trinity College where he was a member of the class of 1944.

Sgt. Farnsworth left college to enlist in the Air Forces early in February of 1943. After training at Fort Myers, Fla., he went overseas to New Guinea in March of 1944. He was serving as a gunner on a bomber in New Guinea and also flew as a waist gunner on a Liberator bomber.

Besides his parents, he is survived by a sister, Mrs. Percy A. Goodale, Jr., of Winchester and by his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Farnsworth of Copley street.

SGT. HALVORSEN KILLED

Mr. and Mrs. Albert T. Halvorsen of 18 Acclestand avenue, received a telegram last night from the War Department reporting their son, Tech Sgt. Albert L. Halvorsen was killed in action in Germany Oct. 26. He was first radio man and left waist gunner of the 8th Air Force B-17 Flying Fortress, "Our Badly." He was making his last two mission before coming home on leave and his parents were looking for news of his homecoming when they received the telegram announcing his death.

Sgt. Halvorsen was 22 and born in Boston, graduating from Winchester High School in 1939. He had been on shuttle bombing from Russia and had been over Germany, the Balkans and Italy, also participating in the action at St. Loe, D-Day and during the Normandy push.

Besides his parents he leaves a brother, David, 18, who enters the service some time this month.

LESTER CLARK BILLINGS

Funeral services for Lester Clark Billings, Boston electrical contractor, who died early Friday morning, Nov. 3, at his home, 8 Manchester road, after a short illness, wereh held Monday morning. Requiem high mass was celebrated at St. Mary's Church by Rev. Fr. Francis J. Sullivan. Interment was in Oak Grove Cemetery, Medford.

Mr. Billings was president of the firm of James Wilkinson and Company in Boston, though latterly he had been partially retired. Born in Norwood Aug. 31, 1871, he was the son of Warren and Sarah (Clark) Billings. Following his marriage in 1894 he lived in Everett until he came to Winchester 21 years ago. He was formerly for many years a member of the Elks' Lodge in Everett and was also a member of the Electrical Contractors' Association, which he served at one time as president.

Mr. Billings leaves his wife, the former Mary E. Turck; a daughter, Mrs. Gladys Slesinger of this town; a son, David L. Billings of West Medford; a brother, Oscar W. Billings of West Moreland, N. H.; and two grandchildren.

NEEDLE WORK GUILD

The Winchester Branch celebrated its 35th birthday anniversary on Wednesday, Nov. 8 in the hospitable rooms at the Methodist Church.

The in-gathering of new garments and household linens brought together unusually attractive and useful articles. The final count of 760 is a high record and surpasses any previous collection.

Eighteen directors and members, with our social service workers gathered, to partake in the sharing and distribution of all these gifts to needy families in our community.

Of especial interest this year was the very illuminating talk by Miss Natalie Jewett, head of the Home Service Department of the Red Cross which so efficiently serves the men in service, and solves problems for their families.

New and younger members are carrying forward the work started so long ago by a few women who had a vision for useful service.

BAPTIST HARVEST HOME SUPPER

The members of the church and congregation of the First Baptist Church are looking forward to their all-church Harvest Home supper and planning conference, Tuesday evening, Nov. 14, at 6:30 o'clock.

The Philathea group of the church will serve a delicious supper, after which the correlated church program of activities for the year will be presented for adoption. Under the sole leadership of Rev. Walter Lee Bailey a full and worth while year of service is assured.

WOMEN'S ALLIANCE

On Tuesday, Nov. 14, the Women's Alliance of the Unitarian Church will hold its monthly meeting preceded by luncheon at 1 o'clock. Following the business meeting at 2 we are to have the pleasure and privilege of listening to Mrs. Mary Hata. Her subject being "Our Japanese Americans." She has been much in demand and has many interesting things to tell us. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

MISSION UNION GUILD MEETS TUESDAY

The Mission Union Guild of the Women's Association in the First Congregational Church will hold its regular meeting on Tuesday, Nov. 14 from 10 in the morning to 4 in the afternoon. At 12 noon there will be a board meeting.

Luncheon is being planned for 1 o'clock. Speaker of the afternoon will be Mrs. K. Paul Yphantis, wife of a missionary of the Greek-American Association, her subject, "I Was in Greece When Hitler Came'.'

CONSIDERING SCHOLARSHIP CHANGES

Mrs. J. H. Coon, president of the Winchester Mothers' Association, has announced that a committee appointed some months ago has under consideration possible changes in the basis of awarding its scholarships to students of the High School graduating class.

The main question being considered is whether to increase the number of scholarships so as to give wider recognition to high standing students, but to limit the cash awards attached to scholarships as in the past in accordance with the need of the recipient for financial assistance.

Since 1933 when it award d its first scholarship, the Mothers' Association has awarded 19 scholarships with cash stipends totaling some $7000. In recent years six awards of $150 have been made each year to six members of the graduating class desiring to continue schooling in college or vocational schools.

Funds for these scholarships have been obtained by the Mothers' Association primarily by individual projects given in each elementary school and the Junior High School. Each school has always raised a substantial sum to give to those yearly scholarships. A larger entertainment is also given each year by the Scholarship Committee of the executive board, which this year is to be Information Please, given Friday night, Nov. 10 in the high school.

In the past, scholarships have been awarded only to those applying for them. Award has been based on two considerations; scholarship and need.

In order to give wider recognition to scholarship, it has been proposed that Mothers' Association scholarships be awarded to high standing students, but that cash awards be adjusted in accordance with the need of the students for financial assistance.

The committee is considering this and other problems connected with the Scholarships in association with high school authorities. The committees' recommendations will be passed upon by the governing board of the Mothers Association, before this years awards are made. The officers are hopeful that the association can continue to award as much to promising boys and girls as it has in recent years.

THE FORTNIGHTLY

Of vital and timely interest is the program planned for International Relations Day, Monday, November 13th.

The morning session at ten o'clock in Fortnightly Hall is in charge of the Winchester League of Women Voters, Mrs. Charles B. Watson, Chairman. Mrs James Volkmann of Concord will speak on AMG (Allied Military Government), and the Community Film, showing the partition and use of funds raised in the current drive, will be shown.

Under the chairmanship of Mrs. Harold E. Bergquist, luncheon will be served at the Crawford Memorial Church at twelve-thirty. Mrs. J. Stewart Chaffee is ticket chairman.

Guests of honor speaking at the luncheon are Miss Emilie Everett, Chairman of the Foreign Policy Department of the Massachusetts League of Women Voters, and Mrs. Harold H. Given, Chairman of the Department of International Relations of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs.

At the afternoon session at two o'clock, Mrs. George G. Brayley, Chairman of the International Relations Committee of The Fortnightly, will present Professor Payson S. Wild, Associate Professor of Government and Associate Dean of the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, Harvard University. His subject will be "America's Foreign Policy Today."

Very careful plans have been made for this International Relations Day program. It promises to be stimulating and thought provoking.

Douglas M. Converse, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. John K. Converse of Dix street has enrolled in the class of 1946 at Admiral Billard Academy, an honor naval school, at New London, Conn.

LIZOTTE—DeTESO

Miss Marie Angela DeTeso, daughter of Mrs. Catherine DeTeso of Olive street, and Pvt. Daniel Lizotte, USA, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Lizotte of Oak street, were married Sunday afternoon, Oct. 29, at St. Mary's Church by the pastor, Rev. Fr. John P. O'Riordan.

Miss DeTeso was given in marriage by her brother, Anthony DeTeso. She wore a gown with a fitted bodice of lace and a satin skirt. Her lace trimmed veil was arranged with a high crown and she carried a bouquet of white roses centered with an orchid and tied with a white satin bow and orange blossom streamers.

Miss Catherine DeTeso was her sister's honor maid and only attendant. She wore a blue gown having a satin bodice and chiffon skirt. Her headdress was a crown of blue chiffon to which was caught a short veil and she carried a bouquet of pink roses tied with matching satin ribbon.

Jack Collins of Winchester was Pvt. Lizotte's best man and the ushers were Michael Gambino, Jr., of Winchester and Charles Lizotte, also of this town.

A reception was held after the ceremony at Christopher Columbus Hall, the mother of the bride and parents of the bridegroom assisting in receiving. After a honeymoon spent in New Hampshire Pvt Lizotte and his bride went to South Carolina where the bridegroom is stationed at Fort Jackson.

CARLBERG—GEOGHEGAN

Wearing the blue uniform of the United States Navy WAVES, Miss Barbara Louise Geoghegan, S 1 c, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Geoghegan of Hemingway street, became the bride of Wallace Leonard Carlberg, BKR, 2 c, USN, at the Immaculate Conception rectory on Thursday evening, Nov. 2. Rev. Fr. Joseph Kierce performed the ceremony at 7 o'clock and a reception followed at the home of the bride's parents.

In place of the conventional bouquet, the bride carried a white prayerbook. She was attended by Miss Florence A. Geoghegan of this town, who wore a coral colored suit with black accessories and an orchid corsage. Patrick J. Geoghegan of Woburn was best man.

The bride graduated from Winchester High School in the class of 1941, and is at present stationed at Fort Lauderdale, Fla. Mr. Carlberg, son of Mrs. Wallace Carlberg of Humboldt North, Minneapolis, Minn., graduated in 1935 from North High School in Minneapolis. He is now on leave after active duty with the Navy in the South Pacific.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS ALL DAY MEETING

On Monday, Nov. 13, the Winchester League joins with the Fortnightly in an all day meeting at Fortnightly Hall on Foreign Affairs. The morning meeting which starts at 10:30 is under the direction of the League Department of Government and Foreign Policy, Mrs. Charles B. Watson, chairman. The speaker will be Mrs. James Howe Volkmann on the subject, "Problems and Procedures of A. N. G., UNRRA, and Private Agencies." Mrs. Volkmann lived in Europe for 20 years and was from 1936 to 1938 president of the American Women's Clubs overseas. At present she is chairman of the Speakers Bureau for the United Nations Association.

Luncheon will be served at the Methodist Church at 12:30. Speakers will be Miss Emily Everett, chairman of the Department of Government and Foreign Policy fro the Massachusetts League, and Mrs. Harold C. Given, chairman of the Department of International Relations for the Mass. Federation of Women's Clubs.

Again at Fortnightly Hall at 2 p. m., the meeting will reconvene under the direction of Fortnightly. Mr. Payson S. Wild will speak on "American Foreign Policy Today."

K. OF C. NOTES

The members are reminded once more not to forget the annual corporate Communion Mass Saturday morning, Nov. 11, at the Cathedral of the Holy Cross Church. This will be a singular honor for all those attending as His Excellency the Archbishop will pontificate his first mass on this occasion.

Over 200 persons attended the K. of C. ladies night held at the Council rooms on Saturday night, Nov. 4. Bro. Dan O'Donnell and his staff who arranged the party, certainly went all out in making this party the success that it was. Little Bobby Coakley with his singing and dancing act brought down the house. Bro. Jimmie McClellan's songs were well received. Virginia Frotten's acrobatic dancing act revealed a very talented young lady, and Bro. Danny Noonan and his wife Marion's songs drew loud applause from the crowd.

Bro. Sgt. John Dolan now home on furlough from Camp George F. Meade in Maryland looking very fit doing the Virginia Reel with Mrs. Dolan at the recent ladies night.

The drawing of the winners of the chance books now on sale will be held at the Council rooms on Friday night, Nov. 17 at 8:30 p. m.

Congratulations are in order for Bro. Vito Scaturo and his wife on the birth of a daughter.

The inter-council card tournament got under way on Thursday night, Nov. 9 with Winchester going to Melrose. Brothers wishing to play on the team are asked to see Deputy Grand Knight Sam Kinton.

The Winchester Council 210, installation team will journey to Lowell, on Thursday night, Nov. 16 to install the newly elected officers of Lowell Council.

Next regular meeting on Monday night, Nov. 20.

WAUGH COMMISSIONED

Donald R. Waugh, Jr., son of Mrs. Marion L. Waugh of Park avenue, was graduated Nov. 1 from the Engineer Officer Candidate School at Fort Belvoir, Va. and is now a second lieutenant in the Corps of Engineers Army of the United States.

Lt. Waugh, 21, graduated from Winchester High School and had completed his junior year in the college of Hotel Administration at Cornell before entering the service April 5, 1943. He is married to the former Maida Sizer of Bridgeport, Conn.

SNOW GETS SILVER STAR

Capt. George L. Snow, 2d, whose father, Mr. L. E. Snow, resides at Glen road, has been awarded the Silver Star for gallantry in action while fighting with the Third Infantry Division in Italy.

WINCHESTER AT BELMONT ARMISTICE DAY

Winchester High's football team, smarting under that unexpected beating at Reading last week-end, goes to Belmont Armistice Day afternoon to meet what many believe is the best club the locals will have to play this season. Surely the Red and Blue has a much more impressive record than Reading, despite being twice beaten.

Belmont has played some strong teams this season, and after losing 19-0 to unbeaten, untied Marlboro in the season's opener, has done mighty well, beating Weymouth, 7-6, Norwood 20-6, Framingham 2-0, and Brookline, 26-9. Chelsea beat Belmont 12-0, two weeks ago, but it took a goal line stand on the one foot line to do it and from all accounts the Red Devils were glad to take an intentional safety to ensure their victory edge. Brookline was tumbled out of the unbeaten class last Saturday by Belmont and apparently given quite a going over for one of the season's big upsets.

All of which makes it look like the locals have quite a little assignment on their hands tomorrow, and it goes without saying that any repetition of the lifeless play they exhibited in the second half vs Reading will prove very disastrous indeed.

Winchester is away better than it looked at Reading. On the basis of what both teams showed against Framingham Winchester should at least have an even chance with the Red and Blue, Belmont beating Framingham 2-0, and lucky to do it, while Winchester outclassed Framingham, 20-0. Framingham coaches and players were of the opinion that the locals are the stronger club.

Coach Knowlton believes his boys will be ready for Belmont and looks for no repetition of their Reading-game form. Frank Faieta, rugged 172 pound end, will not face Belmont and his loss will unquestionably weaken Winchester, both offensively and defensively, as big Frank is a good pass receiver and ball carrier as well as a murderous blocker and hard tackler. Kickoff at 2 p. m.

TROOP 7 NEWS

Troop 7 had 27 scouts present at their meeting Nov. 6. We had four committee men at our meeting. The second troop Eagle paper was passed out to each boy at the meeting.

All of the boys were given leaflets on the all star radio show to distribute which they disposed of in a very ready and orderly fashion. They hope the Winchester residents will read them carefully.

The scouts also contributed a small but helpful part in the Greater Boston United War Fund drive by distributing their leaflets.

Troop 7 will challenge any other troop to a rally.

SONS OF ITALY NOTES

Hi fellers. I just can't restrain myself this week and must report on the bowling match first. The boys really had a "knock down drag out" match this week. The Greepes (F. Datillo, F. Frongillo, C. DeMinico, A. Vespucci and Musky Tofuri) eked out another win over the Gripes (Mingy Leo Manoff, Phil Muraco, Sam Puma and A. Jacobellis). Mingy got a strike and two spares in the last three boxes and the boys figured they could put this one out of the fire, but Musky came up with two spares on the last box and 14 pins on the spare to pull the match out by 3 pins. The individual scores follow:

F. Datillo	95	93	83	271
F. Frongillo	85	83	95	263
C. DeMinico	91	84	93	271
A. Vespucci	87	81	84	252
A. P. Tofuri	83	91	108	282
Totals	441	435	463	1342
C. Frongillo	92	82	101	275
Leo Manoff	77	91	88	256
Phil Muraco	90	78	82	250
Sam Puma	100	84	100	284
A. Jacobellis	88	94	92	274
Totals	447	429	463	1339

Ensign Carmine Molinaro and his brother Domenic were home on furlough this week. Didn't get an opportunity to speak to them so hope to have more particulars next week.

Also home for a few days before going overseas was Sam Corbi. He had plenty of advice for the losing team in the bowling match this week. I wonder if it will do any good.

We found out that at a formal parade at Ft. Benning, Ga., our own Frank Corbi was one of five men awarded the Combat Medal. We're all very proud of you, Frankie. Incidentally let's hear from the rest of you boys who have been decorated. Please don't be bashful, we'll eventually find out anyhow.

Your correspondent had the pleasure of a personal interview granted by none other than Barney Vespucci who is home from Camp Attac, Orlando, Fla. He says that the Mr Corps life in Florida is wonderful but being home and getting up at noon is wonderfuller (pardon me I think my grammar is showing and Mr. Hayward and Miss Bailey tried so hard.) Thus after one hour with Barney, 59 minutes of which was spent in arguing over who should take credit for the interview we decided nobody cared anyhow. He wanted to be remembered to all the boys but I naturally refused because he had been so stubborn. See Barney I told you I wouldn't publish the interview unless I got top billing.

Michael Nozzella, from Highland Ave., and Gaspar "Red" Galuffo were home over the week end.

Andy Lentini and Libby Gaudioso were seen at the football game this week. By the way fellers some team we've got this year isn't it? We ought to take Woburn this year.

A letter was received from "Reddy" Russo who is on one of the islands in the Marianas group. He had a pleasant trip over and made two stop-overs enroute. The first stop was Pearl Harbor and the second stop must remain a military secret. He does say however that it wasn't as beautiful as Hawaii.

In case you fellows are wondering about what our Lodges are doing about the United War Fund Drive I want to say they are very active. The Ladies' Lodge is holding a Bridge and Whist on Oct. 30th, the proceeds of which shall go to the War Fund.

The Men's Lodge has given its hall to a group who instructed solicitors Nov. 2. This group welcomes anyone interested in the work.

So long, fellows, see you next week I hope.

MADE ALL SCHOOL TEAMS

Two Winchester High School field hockey players, Capt. Luey Russo and Marty Jackson made the all-school girl teams chosen at the public school tryouts of the Boston Field Hockey Association last Saturday at the Winsor School in Brookline.

Miss Jackson, a center half, was chosen for the first all school girl team while Miss Russo, a left fullback, was chosen captain of the second team.

The Winchester varsity eleven went to Brookline and participated in the round robin games, winning two, losing one and tieing one. The local girls beat Derby Academy and Newton tied Belmont and lost to Cambridge High and Latin.

READING 19—WINCHESTER 9

Victors Score Thrice in Second Half Decision Nullified Local Score

Reading stunned Winchester with a 19-9 victory last Saturday as the two unbeaten untied teams met at Reading. There was a big crowd on hand and the game was a great one to watch with Winchester dominating play during the first half and Reading coming back strongly the second half to outclass the locals. Reading was "up" and razor sharp for the meeting while Winchester was off its game. That about sums the thing up.

Reading deserved to win. Any club that spots an unbeaten untied opponent 9 points and then comes back to win deserves its victory and the game was a great one for the yellow jackets to win, just as it was a tough one for Winchester to lose.

It took a referee's decision finally to put the locals out of the running midway through the final quarter. Roche, kicking deep in his own territory, had his kick blocked by one of his own team mates who was out of position and the ball zig-zagged back toward the far sideline with Chucker and a flock of Readings in wild pursuit.

Roche reached the leather first and looking far down the field, saw a single team mate. Leaping high in the air, Chucker rifled a long high pass over the heads of the streaming field to Jimmy Haggerty who made a sweet catch in the midst of several Reading defenders and outlegged the field to the Reading goal line with both stands in an uproar.

The Winchester stands went wild for the touchdown put the locals out in front 15-13 with less than half a period remaining. Their joy was short lived for Referee Turner ruled that Roche had stepped out-side on the play, and the ball was brought back, going to Reading on downs at the Winchester 12.

The decision was a difficult one to make for Roche was in the air when he threw the ball, and he himself contended that it was not until after he landed that his foot hit the touchline. If he was right, then the pass was good and what would have happened afterward, any one's guess. However, the Ref ruled against Winchester and his decision naturally went, hard as it was to take.

After the decision the locals snapped out of their defensive lethargy and hurled Reading back, finally taking the ball on downs at their 19. Reading was equally impressive and also stopped Winchester dead, a long pass from Roche, intended for Armstrong, failing to connect on fourth down.

Reading took over and quickly drove through the disheartened locals until Bloom dove through a huge hole in the right side of the Winchester line to score from a yard out. Webster's attempt to convert from placement was wide.

That put Reading ahead 19-9, and with the game lost Winchester came to life. Walsh ripped straight up the middle on the kickoff to his 15, Reading drawing a 15 yard penalty for roughing "Sarto." Tibaudo then faded and shot off a pretty pass to Haggerty who was downed on the Reading 26 as the final whistle blew.

Winchester started in impressive fashion. An exchange of punts following the kickoff gave Winchester the ball at its 39 where Tibaudo and Roche in two tries picked up six yards.

Walsh on a quarterback sneak broke through to the Reading 41 and then Tibaudo faded to shoot a pretty pass down the middle to Haggerty. Jimmy went into the air to knock down the ball, and making a spectacular catch of the re-bound was off to the races, running away from two Reading defenders to score standing up. It was a picture play and with Walsh's placement conversion put Winchester ahead 7-0.

Reading started a drive after the ensuing kickoff, rushing to Winchester's 25 where Sammy Buzzotta recovered a fumble. Winchester, aided by a 19 yard off tackle jaunt by Roche and a 16 yard screen pass from Tibaudo to Walsh, drove to the Reading 19, where Roche broke through for a first down at the 5.

It looked like another score and a touchdown for Winchester at this point would have made a world of difference. Tibaudo drilled through to within less than a yard of pay dirt, but Winchester was called for backs in motion and the ball went out to the 10. Tibaudo was stopped at the line and the second of two passes was intercepted by a Reading boy behind his goal line, the ball being finally downed on the Reading 3.

Tibaudo ran Reading's punt back to the 12, but the fighting Reading forwards stopped two thrusts at the line and on third down Nagle intercepted a pass to get out to the 4. On the next play Fisher was snowed under in the end zone for a safety.

Reading zoomed out to start the second half, Fisher on a fake reverse running the kickoff back to the Winchester 34 where he was knocked outside by Sam Tibaudo. Nagle picked up two and then Fisher on a delayed buck through a huge hole in the middle of the Winchester line and raced by the rooted secondaries to go 32 yards for a touchdown without a hand laid on him. Webster's try for the extra point hit the cross-bar.

Just before the final quarter Reading drove through the center of the Winchester line from its 35 to the locals 21. Fisher was dumped by Latham for a yard loss but on second down Nagle faked to pass to Fisher for a thrust at the center of the line and bounced off his own left tackle to get into the clear, racing 22 yards for the winning touchdown as things turned out.

Reading made 8 first downs and 186 yards by rushing, making 139 of these yards the second half. They completed neither of three passes, fumbled once and lost 20 yards in penalties. Winchester made 9 first downs, rushed for 155 yards, making 99 the first half, completed 5 of 12 passes for 86 yards, didn't fumble and lost 10 yards in penalties. The locals were without Faieta, rugged left end, who cracked three bones in his hand against Framingham. The summary:

Reading—R. Bloom, le; Quinlan, Robertson, Griffin, lt; Merritt, Leach, lg; Webster, Norwood, c; Mathieson, Dagdigian, rg; Currell, rt; Brooks, Merrill, re; White, qb; Fisher, lhb; Neagle, Powers, rhb; N. Bloom, fb.

Citizens, parents, tax-payers, and especially town meeting members, should not fail to attend the meeting in the high school auditorium on Tuesday evening Nov. 21 when Dr John Guy Fowlkes of the University of Wisconsin will present his findings and make the recommendations which he has decided upon as the result of his recently concluded survey of the Winchester schools. The town spent $10,000 to engage Dr. Fowlkes to make this survey, at the request of the School Committee. The School Committee was impelled to ask for the survey because of the repeated expression of dissatisfaction with our system of education which came to them from parents of children in the public schools. Now an opportunity is being provided for all interested to hear at first hand what Dr. Fowlkes believe to be the good and bad features of our school system. It would seem unnecessary to urge those interested in Winchester's public school education to attend the meeting on Nov. 21. Particularly should town meeting members hear Dr. Fowlkes' recommendations, that they may be better prepared to decide upon any appropriations which the School Committee may ask for as a result of them. Those who have been dissatisfied with the town's schools will very probably attend this meeting, and they should, but those who believed that the schools are doing an excellent educational job should also attend. If you are for the schools, or against the schools, or just want to find out what this school agitation is all about, set aside Nov. 21 and plan to hear Dr. Fowlkes. From what we know of him you will find him interesting. We promise you will not be bored.

NEW TELEPHONE DIRECTORIES

School boys, school teachers and housewives in their spare time between next Monday, Nov. 20 and early December, are going to deliver this year's new telephone directories serving the Greater Boston area. They are stepping in to pinch hit for about 300 full time delivery men who, but for the war time shortage of manpower, would normally do the job. They are receiving their know-how and guidance from the relatively few experienced distributors still available. Altogether, the corps of part-time delivery people will number between 700 and 800, according to Mr. D. J. Murphy, manager of the New England Telephone and Telegraph Co. The directories to be delivered are the 1944-45 issues of the Boston and vicinity directory, distributed to all telephone customers in the metropolitan area.

Richard I. Troast 15, son of Mrs. N. Lister Troast of Lloyd street has enrolled in the class of 1947 at Admiral Billard Academy. He is doing an excellent job on the Admiral Billard Academy soccer squad.

PICTURES SHOW ROCHE PASS GOOD

Motion pictures of last Saturday's Winchester-Reading football game, show conclusively that "Chucker" Roche did not step outside the playing field when he threw the long forward pass which "Jimmy" Haggerty completed for a touchdown midway through the last quarter. It wasn't even close, a Reading defender being nearer to the touchline than Roche, even after the latter had thrown the ball.

The play in question was easily the most spectacular of the game and one of the most spectacular the Star reporter can recall in recent schoolboy football. Roche fell back to punt on fourth down about his 30 and the ball struck a team mate, bouncing back and to the side toward the Winchester goal.

Roche retrieved the ball and ran back several yards, cutting toward the sidelines and jumping in the air to arch a long pass up the field to Haggerty whom he had spotted waving his arms behind the Reading deepfield defenders.

The pass reached Haggerty and Jimmy grabbed it, galloping some 40 yards for a touchdown that had it been allowed, would have put Winchester ahead 15-13 with about half a period of play remaining. The lift the locals would have gotten from the score would have made them hard to beat, while the Reading players were a sorry looking lot until Referee Turner ruled that Roche had stepped outside.

What the final outcome of the game would have been, had the Winchester score been allowed, no one knows of course; but that we all should have had a chance to find out, the pictures show clearly. Referee Turner erred in ruling Roche stepped outside and it is too bad that Chucker was robbed of the credit that should have been his for a mighty quick piece of thinking and for a beautiful pass. The same goes for Haggerty who also used his head in figuring Roche might pass on the play and getting into position to complete the heave if he did.

Referees are not infallible and they make mistakes of course. It is too bad, however, that Referee Turner had to make his big one on what the pictures show was a super-play that well could have meant the game for Winchester.

TROOP 10 NEWS

Troop 10 held its meeting Nov. 3 and on that night Donald McFarlane received his art and wood carving badges, Milton Galucia his gardening and poultry raising merit badges; Ned Moore his swimming, life saving and wood carving merit badges.

Donald Ducharme his wood carving and safety merit badges, Frank Johnson his first class badge and J. Giglioti received his tenderfoot. The awards were presented by Francis X. McCarley.

Last Saturday Milton Galucia and Frank Johnson, the only two boys from Winchester, attended the United War Fund drive in Boston.

Troop 10 is holding one of its many events planned for the troop this year. A supper on Nov. 10 at 6.30 at the Second Congregational Church.

BETTER HOMES GARDEN CLUB

The November meeting of the Winchester Better Homes Garden Club will be held Nov. 15, at the home of Mrs. Harold M. Twombly, 16 Lawson road. Mrs. Flora Graves Pease of Melrose will speak on "Holiday Decorations." She will give instructions as to how these may be made, and also show how to make bedside tray decorations.

REPORT OF RECREATION COMMITTEE OF JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

What supervised recreation do children of Junior High School age have in Winchester? This is the question which is occupying the attention of a committee of the Junior High School Associates, a branch of the Winchester Mothers' Association.

At the annual meeting last spring of the Associates some of the mothers expressed a desire for a committee which should study the opportunities for recreation in Winchester for Junior High School pupils. They felt something might be done to organize and supervise social gatherings for these boys and girls who come together in the Junior High School from the five elementary schools.

This fall, Mrs. Adin Bailey, president of the Associates, appointed Mrs. John Chipman as chairman of a Recreation Committee. The committee, composed of Mrs. Neil Borden, Mrs. Percy Bugbee, Mrs. Raymond Holdsworth, Mrs. Robert Keeney, Mrs. James Willing and the chairman, met at Mrs. Chipman's home Thursday afternoon, Nov. 2 discussed the findings of the committee and made definite plans for the winter.

They found the following opportunities in town open to all the pupils.

1. During the long noon hour on school days when many of the Junior High pupils do not go home, the Young People's room at the Library is open and Miss Mead and her staff of assistants arrange programs of music and reading. This is proving a very popular place at noon and the committee reported an attendance of 106 one noon last week.

2. Seventh and 8th grade dancing classes meet once or twice a month.

3. There is supervised gym work at the Junior High School certain afternoons during the week.

4. There are Boy Scout and Girl Scout Troops for these ages.

5. The Children's Music Group offers opportunities once a month to hear Boston Symphony Players and is making plans to form a Junior High Orchestra.

6. Church programs for this age.

Mrs. Chipman reported that all the ministers were extremely co-operative. Father O'Riordan at the Catholic Church said he would welcome to St. Mary's Band any child who can play a band instrument. Due to present conditions, he regretted their inability to purchase instruments for the members.

At the First Baptist Church a Junior High Christian Endeavor meets every Sunday evening at 6 p. m. and every other Friday evening this group has supper at the church, edits a small church paper and has an hour of supervised recreation.

At the First Congregational Church a Junior High School Club meets every Wednesday afternoon for service activities, basket ball and recreation and meets twice a month on Sunday afternoon.

At the Episcopal Church plans for a Junior High Club are in formation with promises of an open house after the Christmas holidays.

At the Methodist Church plans are also in the making.

At the Unitarian Church a Young People's Fellowship meets each Sunday afternoon and gives sponsored parties once a month.

Since none of these activities bring together all the boys and girls of the Junior High School at one time the committee decided to sponsor during the winter months one or two barn dances with square dancing. Mr. Albert Haynes, who has charge of the square dances at Wayside Inn which Henry Ford has made so popular, will be the caller. Announcement of these dates will be made later. A skating party and other parties will be arranged if the first ones prove successful.

The committee has not been able to contact any other groups which offer activities for this Junior High group but would welcome any information.

CONGRESSMAN ROGERS WELL INFORMED

"There are simply no words sufficiently laudatory with which to describe our American servicemen" declares the Hon. Edith Nourse Rogers on her return from seven weeks spent with the European forces in England, France and Italy.

The seven weeks, by airplane, took Congressman Rogers through base hospitals in England, advance hospitals in France, to the fighting fronts now reaching into Germany and into the mountains a few miles from the battle lines in Italy.

"I can think of no more worthwhile way I could spend the recess that Congress decided on", Mrs. Rogers said, despite the fact that her re-election was before the voters this fall. "I have obtained a first hand view of the conditions under which our men are now fighting, of the needs I feel that Congress can supply, and of the problems that are being created for the future. To my work on the Veterans Legislation Committee, and on the Foreign Affairs Committee, of the Congress, I can bring valuable knowledge to be acquired no other way. The courage, the fortitude and the patience of our wounded are an inspiration. More doctors and nurses are needed, they must be supplied, and I am sure they will be.

"The spirit of our fighting men is fine. They have done wonders, but they know much remains to be done, and they have no patience with the feeling at home that the war is nearly over."

Congressman Rogers is preparing a report to Congress of the conditions abroad, which will be presented when Congress meets again in November.

Reading Room, 5 Winchester Terrace (off Thompson street). Open daily except Sundays and holidays from 11 a. m. to 4 p. m.

In The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, and in all of its branches, the Lesson-Sermon will be read on Sunday, Nov. 12, on the subject, "Mortals and Immortals."

The Golden Text is: "As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly." (I Corinthians 15:48). Other Scriptural selections include, "For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God." (Romans 8:14).

Also included in the Lesson-Sermon will be the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, "Immortal man was and is God's image or idea, or even the infinite expression of infinite Mind, and immortal man is coexistent and coeternal with that Mind. He has been forever in the eternal Mind. God's but infinite Mind can never be in man, but is reflected by man. The spiritual man's consciousness and individuality are reflections of God. They are the emanations of Him who is Life, Truth, and Love. Immortal man is not and never was material, but always spiritual and eternal" (p. 336).

THE SIXTH WAR LOAN DRIVE

The new drive will start in Winchester on Nov. 24, the day after Thanksgiving and will end on Dec. 16. Our quota is $1,581,000 and there is an important difference between this and previous War Loans. This time $779,000 or more than half of the total quota is based on purchases by individuals. This portion of the total quota consists of $227,000 in E Bonds and $552,000 in other issues to be bought by individuals.

In all previous War Loans only a relatively small part of our quota consisted of sales to individuals, the rest being purchaseable by local banks and other institutions. This trip, it is strictly up to every family in town to do its part. You, if you are an American, cannot leave it this time to George or to Tom, Dick or Harry. Winchester simply can't come through as it should without your help. We and Uncle Sam will need every dollar your family can scrape for investment in Sixth War Loan Bonds.

A volunteer solicitor will come to your door sometime during the three weeks of the Winchester drive. Every family will be thus solicited. Please be prepared to sign up for all the bonds your pocketbook will possibly permit. Alibis, however good, buy no bullets for the boys who are risking their lives that yours may be safe.

Next week Maurice C. Bird, chairman of the Winchester War Finance Committee, will announce in these pages the names of the Precinct Chairmen and Co-chairmen who will be in charge of the house to house canvass.

OUR DEMOCRACY——by Mat

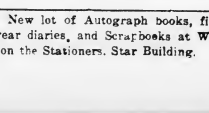

OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS

WILLIAM HOLMES McGUFFEY—1800-1887—PIONEER AMERICAN EDUCATOR, "GRADED" HIS PUPILS IN A CLEARING WHERE THEY SAT ON FELLED LOGS—COMPETED FOR HIGHEST HONORS BY TRYING TO GET TO THE "BIG END" AND HOLD IT AGAINST ALL CHALLENGERS.

FROM SUCH EARLY "CLASSES" TO TODAY'S GREAT MODERN EDUCATIONAL SYSTEM, THE YOUNG PEOPLE OF AMERICA HAVE HAD UNPARALLELED OPPORTUNITY FOR SCHOOLING, IN CHARACTER BUILDING AS WELL AS IN BOOK LEARNING.

WINCHESTER HISTORICAL SOCIETY

On Thursday evening, Nov. 2, the Winchester Historical Society sponsored a lecture by Dr. Charles H. Tozier on Colonial Williamsburg in the high school auditorium before a large and enthusiastic audience. The speaker was introduced by the president of the society, Miss Clara R. Russell, who said it was fitting at this time when so much history is being made to see re-created the life of an earlier period of American History.

The lecture was illustrated by both colored movies and stills, and before showing the pictures, Dr. Tozier gave a short history of Williamsburg.

Dr. Tozier's pictures, which are the last word in colored photography, were unbelievably beautiful. Many outdoor pictures were shown, and as Dr. Tozier has obtained special permission to photograph in color the interior of the buildings, we were privileged to see the grandeur of the Governor's palace and the Capitol, including the House of Burgesses and the Council Chamber.

This was the most largely attended meeting and the finest lecture ever given before the society, both for its educational value and the beauty of the pictures. The net proceeds are to be given to war services.

Mr. Alfred N. Denley was chairman of this lecture committee, assisted by Miss Corinne Mead, Miss Louise Bancroft and Miss Clara Russell.

BOB HOPE TO STAR ON WINCHESTER RADIO SHOW

The stars will shine brightly in Winchester on the night of Nov. 12, and we didn't get the prediction from the weather man.

These shining stars will be radio stars.

They'll be seen by more than 1000 United War Fund workers and their friends who will attend a glittering "Night of Stars" broadcast from Town Hall, which will be heard over radio station WCOP from 8 to 9 p. m. This gala event is scheduled to climax the United War Fund Drive in Winchester.

So set your dial and get ready. You're going to hear Bob Hope, Francis Langford, Jerry Colonna, Vera Vague and a Winchester cast of more than 300.

The Bob Hope troupe are scheduled to appear in a laugh-packed radio skit called "Let's Have a Party." Hope, who has just returned from a USO tour to the battlefields of the world, will also tell listeners what the boys in uniform would like to say to the folks back home.

Original Radio Drama to be Heard

Among the featured acts on Winchester's "Night of Stars" broadcast is an original radio drama, "The Last Will and Testament of Tom Smith." It was written by two local advertising men, Bud Green and Jack Baxter, and will be presented by the Parish Players of the First Congregational Church. This play tells the story of one of the American aviators who was executed by the Japanese when his plane was brought down in Jimmy Doolittle's Tokio raid.

In addition to this drama, a first-person story of the war will be presented when Cpl. Thomas F. (Jinx) Powers steps before the WCOP microphone on the stage of Town Hall to tell what it's like to fight from foxholes on the forgotten islands of the Pacific. Cpl. Powers, who was decorated with the Purple Heart, joined the marine raiders just 24 hours after the Japs struck at Pearl Harbor. Reported "dead or missing," Cpl. Powers crawled for four days in a jungle to rejoin his comrades after a burst of machine gun fire had caught him in the stomach.

You'll Hear the Girl Who Wakes 'Em Up

Also scheduled to appear on this star-studded lineup is a girl who thinks that G. I. Joes shouldn't be rolled out of bed at dawn by the blare of a bugle. "Wouldn't it be nicer," she thought, "if they woke up to music?"

So now every morning the girl forgets her beauty sleep and plays sweet music for the boys at Fort Devens and Camp Edwards. This girl's name is Ann Michaels. But the boys in uniform know her as Devy Edwards. She'll tell you all about herself when she's interviewed by Winchester's War Fund Chairman, George Chatfield.

The Night Shall Be Filled With Music

The night shall be filled with music on Winchester's "Night of Stars."

Among the leading acts to be presented will be the Mystic Glee Club, who will present Fred Waring's arrangement of "The Time Is Now."

And the rafters will ring when the 200 voices of the Winchester High Girls will be heard singing "Oh Come Ye Thankful People Come." This group will be directed by Alma Stoddard, who will also present the new Boys Glee Club in a special arrangement of "Stout Hearted Men."

On the novelty side, George McFadden of Ardley road will demonstrate that vacuum cleaner can be used to cut a rug as well as clean a rug. McFadden, who has appeared in the American Magazine's line-up of "Interesting People," has constructed a 20-keyed console on a vacuum cleaner that actually plays music.

Two local youngsters, Roy Monsen and Jeanne Bottnett, who are billed as "The Sweethearts of Swing," will be heard in a twin accordian act.

The program will close with the St Mary's Band playing a thrilling "Salute to the Services," under the direction of Prof. Frank Barone.

Time and Talent All Donated

All costs involved in this spectacular one hour broadcast have been donated.

The time and line charges were donated by Station WCOP, and the services of all the performers were given gratis. The Bob Hope show, which will be picked up by transcription, was furnished through the courtesy of the Pepsodent Company.

The program will be directed by Jack Baxter.

GEO. WASHINGTON SCHOOL NOTES

Many varieties of tasty home cooked foods will be on sale and the drawing of three turkeys will take place at the food sale to be held on Friday, Nov. 17, at the Arlington Gas Light Co. office under the sponsorship of the George Washington School Mothers' Association. Proceeds of the event which opens at 10:30 a. m. and continues until 3:30 p. m. will go to the Association's scholarship fund.

Cakes, pies, rolls, bread, candy, preserves and cookies all made by the mothers of the George Washington School will be offered, and the special feature of the sale will be the drawing of three turkeys at 2 p. m. Chances on them are still available and can be obtained at the sale Friday or now from committee members.

In charge of the event is Mrs. Benjamin T. Marshall, Jr., assisted by Mrs. Theodore Freeman, Mrs. Edward F. Herman, Mrs. Alfred J. Higgins, Mrs. Gordon Lorentzen, Mrs. Victor Moses, Mrs. Roderick Thomson, Mrs. William Urmson and Mrs. Frederic Whitney.

NEIGHBORHOOD STUDY GROUP

The neighborhood study group of Symmes Corner is preparing to resume it second season. Its opening meeting will be held Thursday evening, Nov. 30 at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Sanford H. Moses, Jr.

The speaker at this meeting will be Attorney Herbert B. Ehrmann of Boston. The usual question period will follow.

This study group was organized a year ago and five very successful meetings were held and speakers heard on Russia, China, Poland, Japan and India.

Members comprising the committee in charge are: Mrs. Charles Livingstone, Mrs. Roy N. Hallowell, and Messrs. Albert D. Swazey and John I. Donovan.

Mrs. Gordon (Yvette Yvett)	Louise G. Kelly
Evelyn Shaw	Janet N. Dalrymple
Susanne	Monte Jens
Clerk of the Court	Gustave F. Williams
Court Reporter	Suzanne Burr

The Players chose a good play to open their 19th season and their performance pleased large audiences on both nights. Especially was the pace of the performance good, there being no hint of dragging, and both lines and business were well handled, the laugh-studded lines being nicely pointed by the key-members of the cast, which was exceptionally well chosen, particularly for these times. The set for the court-room scene was as adequate as the size of the stage would permit, and little was asked for the setting of the laugh-packed jury-room scene.

The plot is concerned with the changing of the votes of 11 mixed jurors from "guilty" to "not guilty" by the one woman member who has had the insight to see that an ex-actress has been "framed" in the charge of murdering her husband for his money.

Mrs. Livingstone Baldwin Crane is the clever woman who is not fooled by the brow-beating tactics of the prosecuting attorney and the success of the show depends in large measure upon the capabilities of the actress playing this admittedly "fat" part.

So it was the Players were especially fortunate to have Mrs. Worthen cast as Mrs. Crane, for this talented young actress carried the play beautifully, combining a charming stage-presence with exceptional stage-deportment and speaking with a pleasing clarity that got her lines in their entirety across the footlights to the audience, where after all they belong. From her first entrance during the court-room scene Mrs. Worthen dominated the action, and her poise throughout was that of a much more mature performer, being even proof against an occasional slip in her voluminous lines.

Mr. Kelley as Jay J. Pressley, the pompous, self-righteous jury foreman, was an excellent foil for Mrs. Worthen, his bombastic style being in nice contrast to her telling calm while his volubility and the accuracy of his diction were things to wonder at.

Space forbids reviewing the work of the entire jury, but each made his or her particular contribution to the success of the play. Outstanding were Mr. Bond as the important-feeling, slightly fatuous Mr. Dazey ("real estate and insurance"), Mrs. Wills as the reformist-type Lily Pratt and Miss Worthen as Mayme Mixter, a hard-boiled young chorus girl. The last named did especially well with her pseudo swoon at the end of the performance.

Special mention should be made of the jurors' handling of their waking-up scene in the jury room after two days and two nights of wrangling. Their exhaustion, petulanee and generally blowzy appearanee were quite convincing and the whole thing very funny.

In the court-room scene Mrs. Kelly handled the exacting part of Mrs Gordon, the defendant, in a finished manner, tempering her vehemenee to avoid extravagence without sacrificing any of the intensity or appeal demanded by the role. Mrs. Dalrymple, as always, was very finished as the regretfully accusing maid and Lt. Gould, a very patient, but withal authoritative judge.

Mr. Hall, the coach, and Mr. Plitt did well as the rival lawyers, the latter advancing still another round on the histrionic ladder from the roles of butlers, chauffeurs and policemen to that of barrister.

BRITISH WAR RELIEF

London hospitals move in close to home in the feeling of Winchester people when a letter comes from a Winchester paratrooper who is in one those hospitals recovering from wounds received in France. And one kind of salvage which the British War Relief keeps up becomes even more appealing. It is your turning in your worn out white cottons, sheets, pillow cases, etc., to be torn into hospital squares.

You may bring these at any time to the Epiphany parish house.

Or you may take them to one of these neighbors, who will see that they are brought over to the work room: Mrs. Ernest Dudley Chase, 3 Lakeview terrace, Mrs. Malcolm Cook, 32 Kenwin road, Mrs. Gerald Hills, 2 Dartmouth street, Miss F. Louise Nardin, 8 Stowell road, Mrs. Frank D. Madge, 17 Glengarry, Mrs. George Budd, 81 Walnut street.

British industry is still busy, spinning and weaving material for the armed forces. Robot bombs still destroy. This simple salvage helps out in hospitals.

WINCHESTER ART ASSOCIATION

The Winchester Art Association met Tuesday evening to open the exhibition of marine paintings by Galen Perrett President C. Russell Mann greeted the members and read an announcement from the Guild of Boston Artists. He thanked Mrs. Alfred Lawson and Mrs. Blanche Barnard for preparing the current exhibition.

The artist, Mr. Galen Perrett, was then introduced to the Association members. He related many incidents in his painting career, outlined his method of preparatory study and his final work on canvas.

Because the sea is everchanging, it is impossible to paint it while viewing it the way a landscape painter might do. Therefore Mr. Perrett observes and memorizes his subject and then paints it later in his own studio When in Rockport first, he prepared for his marines by studying the construction of the rocks and noticing the reaction of the water to different rock formations. He soon learned that the resultant picturesque spray of breaking waves was caused by the formation and placement of the rocks with which they came in contact. The varied rock arrangements caused similarly varied patterns of spray His intensive study and observation have made his paintings as accurate as a photo from a fast camera, and therein lives their special characteristic of complete naturalness.

He pointed out that what we call "white" in breakers is never truly white, but rather is it the yellow of reflected sunlight or the blue, green or grey tones from the sky or ocean.

At the conclusion of the talk refreshments were served by Mrs Vaughn Harmon, Mrs. Fred Aseltine Mrs. Alonzo Nicholas, Mrs. Gerald Barrett, Mrs. Richard Ashendon and Mrs. Marshall Symmes. Mrs. Truman Godfrey and Mrs. Robinson Whitten poured. The attractive table arrangement of chrysanthemums, autumn leaves and blue spruce was done by Mrs. Alexander Samoiloff.

Mr. Perrett's paintings will be open to the public in the Library Gallery until the end of November.

George Chatfield, Winchester Chairman

Nicholas Danforth, Chairman, Metropolitan Division

Chairman, Metropolitan Division

In the above picture, Mr. Nicholas Danforth, Chairman of the Metropolitan Division, of the Greater Boston United War Fund, is congratulating Mr. George Chatfield, Winchester Chairman, on the successful conclusion of the 1945 Winchester Campaign. At the end of the Victory Broadcast last Sunday night, the Town had reached 104.8% of its goal. Since then additional contributions have swelled the total to $62,044, or 108.2% of our quota. A great final surge of effort of the 715 Winchester campaign workers and the cheerful giving of Winchester citizens put this Campaign over the top last Sunday night. The total number of gifts made by Winchester people is just short of $4,000 which is a remarkable record in a town having only 3,709 families.

All the separate divisions of the Campaign went over the top very handsomely. Here are the results.

Precinct 1—Frank Horne, Director	106.3%
Precinct 2—T. W. Harris, Jr., Director	109.5
Precinct 3 Harold A Smith, Director	106.1
Precinct 4—E. Ober Pride Director	113.0
Precinct 5 John C Willis, Director	104.0
Precinct 6 3 Co-Directors	107.4
Total all 6 Precincts Howard Bartlett, assisted by Warren Whitman and Maxwell Metzgers	107.4
Stores and Factories Stanley N McNeilly	123
Town Employees William J. Maag	120
Clubs and Organizations Ralph T. Pope	260
Special Gifts—James Nowell	105

Apologies are due Mr. Harold Smith and his Precinct 3 organization, who actually reached 106.1% last Sunday instead of the 100% figure that was announced

Winchester Receives Two Awards

At last Monday's Report Luncheon of the Greater Boston United War Fund held at the City Club, the Winchester Committee were given two awards for outstanding performance in the Metropolitan Division. The first was for the greatest gain of any town in the North Metropolitan area (57.5%), and the second award was for being one of the top five towns in the Metropolitan Division.

Mr. Chatfield Thanks Organization

The following statement was handed to the Star by Mr Chatfield, Winchester Chairman:

"To all Winchester people who contributed to this Campaign and showed that you cared" we, of the Winchester Committee, send this note of thanks. A special note of gratitude goes to all of the 715 workers in the organization, who not only gave their financial support but their time and effort as well. To all these and to all the Chairman and Precinct Directors as well as to the Women's Educational Division, I should personally like to add a sincere thank you for the splendid work and unstinted devotion you have given to this Drive."

WINCHESTER COASTGUARDSMAN WELCOMED BY FILIPINOS

Coast Guardsman Harold Kendall Batten of 15 Hancock street was a member of a Coast Guard Assault Transport welcomed by the Filipinos after the successful landing at Leyte.

He was among those who felt it was worth a year's pay to see the tired, happy little people come down out of the hills, most of them in rags, with smiles and salutes for their American liberators. In their joy the Americans began to see in a very personal sense what they are fighting for.

The Filipinos had suffered cruelly under the Japs. They received starvation wages and rations, lost most of their valuables and were subjected to unspeakable humiliations. Most of them looked very thin and poorly clothed, according to reports from Guardsman Batten's ship, but, the report continued, the Army soon had them housed and fed. All the Americans gave them food, tobacco and candy.

FULLER'S OUTFIT COMMENDED

Sgt. Harold Fuller of 56 Fletcher street, serving with the maintenance forces of a 7th AAF medium bomber group, has been commended, along with other members of his outfit, for outstanding performance of duty. He is a veteran of four major 7th AAF blows against the Japs, having participated with his group in the Gilberts, Marshalls, Carolines and Marianas campaigns. The commendation was issued by Col. Murray A. Bywater, commanding officer of the group.

Sgt. Fuller entered the armed forces on Aug. 29, 1942 and has been serving with the 7th AAF in the Central Pacific as a crew chief since October, 1943. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. Fuller.

WINCHESTER ROTARY CLUB

Glen Browning was the winner of the War Bond presented at the luncheon of the Rotary Club of Winchester yesterday, he being the fourth member to win the prize. The meeting was largely attended, with two visitors present. Mr. William G. Reed, field secretary of the Savings Bank Life Insurance Council was the speaker, his subject being, "Time Insurance." He gave an interesting and illustrative talk.

The meeting and luncheon scheduled for next week Thursday will be omitted, the date falling on Thanksgiving Day.

CHRISTMAS CHEER

Check Dec. 18 on your engagement calendar. That is the day each one has a chance to join with the Winchester Better Homes Garden Club to bring Christmas cheer to some sick or homesick soldier. That is the day to make Christmas decorations for the hospital, recreation rooms and chapel at Camp Devens.

WINCHESTER VS WOBURN THANKSGIVING

Hard Game Looms Despite Tanners' Record

Win hester High goes to Woburn Thanks-giving Day in range for its annual game with its traditional rival, Woburn, and another of those hard, pulse-quickening battles seems to be definitely in the offing. Neither team takes a clean slate into the contest, but that will make no difference to local fans. This is the game both clubs want to win. This is the game that makes or mars the season.

Woburn does not play again until Turkey Day and it goes without saying that the Orange coaches and players will be on the sidelines tomorrow when Winchester takes on rugged Wakefield. The Tanners beat Wakefield, 12-0, early in the season and if the Walton Fielders should take Winchester tomorrow will figure they can easily toss the local-' hides into their tanning pit.

No one knows how that Wakefield game will come out, but Winchester beat Stoneham, 26-0, and Stoneham took Woburn, 7-0, last Saturday. Reading beat both local teams, Woburn 6-0, and Winchester 19-9. Winchester beat Winthrop 20-0, and Winthrop beat Woburn, 7-6. Both teams beat Swampscott, Woburn 8-0, and Winchester, 13-0. In the Tanners' other games, they beat Watertown, 13-6, lost to Keith Academy, 7-0 and to Nashua, N. H High 32-0

The Tanners haven't played the rugged schedule of former years, the teams they have faced this fall being no better than those met by Winchester. Regardless of how that Wakefield game comes out tomorrow the locals will have the better record. They had a year ago, yet lost to Woburn, 7-6.

It doesn't seem, however, that any team twice in a row could have the luck the locals had last Turkey Day. They are away better this year than last. Woburn, too, is said to be better than a year ago.

The Tanners have a strong line, against which most teams have found it hard to gain by rushing. They have a good passer in Geannaris and are reputed to have a good kicking game.

Winchester has everything necessary to win this Thanksgiving Day game, a rugged line, plenty of good backs, and a lot of depth. Whether the locals can win will depend on the breaks, usually Woburn's 12th player against Winchester, and upon how well the boys come through that brawl with Wakefield tomorrow.

Woburn is resting up. Whether the Tanners will have their edge by their layoff only time can tell. One thing is certain Winchester can't rest tomorrow. We figure Thank-giving an even thing, but we HAVE been wrong!

NEW TIMETABLES

Timetables giving the new schedule on the steam railroad have just been issued and may be obtained of the following firms in convenient card size to fit your pocketbook: Franklin E. Barnes, Dry Goods; Ernest R. Butterworth, Jeweler; Winchester Cooperative Bank; Winchester National Bank.

LT. HARRIS DECORATED

Second Lt. Clifford H. Harris, 22-year-old pilot of Nashua, N. H., and Winchester, has won the Air Medal in recognition of "exceptionally meritorious achievement" while flying in a B-17 Flying Fortress in the air war in Europe.

Lt. Harris, a student at Hebron Academy at Hebron, Me., before entering the Army Air Forces, also attended Winchester High School. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford H. Harris of 88 Manchester street Nashua, N. H., formerly fo this town. Lt. Harris flies with the 100th Bombardment Group, part of the 8th A. F. Third Bombardment Division.

FOWLKES SPEAKING SCHEDULE

Dr. John Gin Fowlkes of the University of Wisconsin, who conducted the recently concluded survey of the Winchester schools will speak about school problems, meetings having been arranged as follows:

Monday, Nov. 20, Fathers' Night, Wyman School

Tuesday Nov. 21, Public Meeting, High School

Monday, Nov. 27, Washington School.

Tuesday, Nov. 28, Lincoln School

Wednesday, Nov. 29, Mystic School

Thursday, Nov. 30, Noonan School

All meetings commence at 8 o'clock and it is hoped by the School Committee that all parents of school children will make it a point to attend one or more of them, preferably those at the schools their children attend. The general public and especially town meeting members are urged to attend the public meeting at the high school on Nov. 21.

GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Preston of Madison avenue, widely known residents of the town, observed their 50th wedding anniversary on Monday, Nov. 13. Plans had been made for a fitting observance but these had to be cancelled because of Mr. Preston's being confined to the Winchester Hospital where he underwent an operation last week. He is reported recovering satisfactorily.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Preston, the former Vienna Goddu, were married in the old Goddu homestead on Madison avenue, now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Carter. They have spent all of their married life in Winchester, have one son, Burnham G. Preston, a chief warrant officer in the Navy, and five grandchildren, including Lt. Tom Preston, USAAF, stationed at Squantum, and Cpl. Dick Preston, USAAF, at Mariana, Fla.

SGT. BUGBEE HOME

Sgt. Richard M. Bugbee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Bugbee of Symmes road, arrived home with his wife for a ten day furlough last Friday along with notice issued the day before of his promotion from the rank of Corporal. He is serving with the 2nd Ferrying Group, Ferrying Division, Air Transport Command, with a base in Wilmington, Del. He is attached to the Group's operational squadron.

Sgt. Bugbee, who recently married a Wilmington girl, has been calling on many Winchester friends with his wife. They return to Wilmington today.

BRONZE STAR FOR WOLFE

Andrew Tully, Boston traveler reporter announced last Friday from the Moselle front in the European Theater that a Winchester boy, Gunner John E. Wolfe, son of Dr. and Mrs. Chester F. Wolfe of Jefferson road has been awarded the Bronze Star. Gunner of a tank destroyer of the 4th Armored Division, Wolfe left his vehicle to go to the aid of six men wounded by tank fire.

Wolfe was awarded the Purple Heart medal and citation on Sept 14. A graduate of Winchester High School and of Mass. State College, he has been in the service for two and one-half years and has been overseas since last March.

RECENT BIRTHS AT THE WINCHESTER HOSPITAL

Mr. and Mrs. James Moody of Stoneham, twin daughters, born Nov. 8.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Jensen of 23 Henry street, a son on Nov. 14.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wilson of 84 Dunster lane, a son on Nov. 5.

Mr. and Mrs. James J. Fitzgerald, Jr., of 123 Church street, a son born Nov. 16.

MISS EDNA F. HAWES

Miss Edna F. Hawes, kindergarten teacher in the Winchester School Department for more than 30 years, died suddenly at noontime on Armistice Day, Nov. 11, at her home, 7 Stevens street. Her passing was wholly unexpected and came as a shock to the entire community, she having taught as usual on Friday and having been out during the morning of the day of her death.

Miss Hawes was the daughter of Daniel Webster and Mattie M. (Gibbs) Hawes, her late father having been for many years a partner in the old law firm of Kelley and Hawes, who formerly conducted an extensive furniture moving and storage business here. She was born in Winchester on July 27, 1883, and was graduated from the public schools, graduating from Winchester High School in the class of 1901. After her graduation she attended Wheelock's Kindergarten Training School, from which she was graduated in 1905, later taking summer course at Hyannis Normal School.

After a period Miss Hawes first taught under Miss Helen Lowell, kindergarten at Central Grammar School, then located in Cross street, Lower Mills, and later in the Lincoln Street School. She was appointed a regular kindergarten teacher in the Winchester system in 1916, and for many years until 1925 she taught at the old Prince School building that then stood at the corner of School and Church streets. Commencing the school year of 1925 she went to the kindergarten at the new Wyman School building and was teaching there at the time of her death. The flag at the Wyman School was displayed at half staff in her honor during the whole of this week and the Wyman School was closed at noon on the day of her funeral.

Miss Hawes enjoyed great success as a teacher throughout her long career, being beloved by the children under her supervision and held in high esteem by parents of school children generally and by all who knew her. She was a member of the First Congregational Church and of the Women's Business and Professional Club of that church.

Surviving are two brothers, Austin W. Hawes of Rye, N. H., and Loring G. Hawes of Reading; a niece, Miss Evelyn Hawes, who made her home with Miss Hawes; and a nephew, Janeway Hawes of Reading.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at Ripley Memorial Chapel of the First Congregational Church with the pastor, Rev. Howard J. Chidley, officiating. J. Albert Wilson, church organist, played the Largo by Handel, the Bach Aria, and the favorite hymns, Abide With Me, Nearer My God to Thee and For All Thy Saints Who Fell From Labors Rest. Burial was in Wildwood Cemetery.

Miss Hawes

Many generations of Wyman School mothers wish to express their appreciation of the lifetime of devoted service that Miss Hawes gave to their children. These children have lost a good friend and a wise teacher whose gentle memory will always be a happy inspiration to mothers and children alike.

Tribute to Miss Hawes

The sudden death of Miss Edna Hawes brings sadness to young and old alike. She possessed a rare gift of understanding little children and was loved by successive classes of kindergarteners each year.

She had friends of all ages and stations, and with good reason, as she was entirely unselfish and spent most of her free time in helping others. This she did in a happy, simple way which made the recipient feel that the attention was a pleasure rather than a duty.

She was a real New Englander, up and out early in the morning, self-reliant, capable, dependable, interested in everyone, droll, shrewd, kind and generous. Her death is untimely, but so lived a full, happy and rewarding life and will be gratefully remembered by scores of pupils and friends.

generally means using thankful for what we have received and for the many blessings which have been bestowed upon us, whereas the true Thanksgiving spirit makes us thankful for what we have been able to do for others to make their lives broader and brighter and free from suffering and want.

The Red Cross is thankful that it has been enabled such a wonderful opportunity to bring comfort and relief to those in need and is also grateful for its many loyal supporters whose efforts make possible the realization of its heaven-born ambitions.

Our boys over there are thankful to those at home who give their blood to replace the blood they have given for the common cause.

BONITZ—TANNER

A marriage of Winchester interest took place at St. John's Episcopal Church in East Boston Sunday afternoon, Nov. 12, when Miss Marie Tanner of Lebanon street, daughter of the late Mr. ad Mrs. Elmer Tanner, became the bride of Sgt. Frank Richard Bonitz, USA, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bonitz of Medford. The rector of the church, Rev. Philip Antles, read the service at 2 o'clock, the altar being decorated with white pom pom chrysanthemums and snapdragons, and flanked on either side with candelabras. Mrs. R. M. Rosales of Beverly played the bridal music on the organ and the soloist was Miss Rose Avola of Medford, who sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly."

Miss Tanner was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Louis Tanner of East Boston. She wore a gown of white satin, styled with a sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice and long train. Her fingertip length veil was caught with orange blossoms to a halo cap and her only jewelry was a pair of heirloom pearls. Instead of the conventional bouquet she carried a white bible with a single white orchid and Ellicott-the-valley attached to long white streamers.

Mrs. Virginia Dyson of Winchester was matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Grace Tanner of Winchester and Miss Mildred Tanner of East Boston. Mrs. Dyson wore wine colored dress having a fitted bodice of transparent velvet and a full marquisette skirt of a lighter shade. Her headdress was a matching velvet crown and short veil and she carried lilac shaded chrysanthemums.

The bridesmaids wore dresses similar in style to that of the matron of honor, but in shades of light and dark blue. They also wore velvet crowns, of dark blue with matching veils and carried bouquets of small yellow pom poms.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the home of the bride. At its conclusion Sgt. Bonitz and his bride left on a wedding journey to Cincinnati, Ohio. From that city they will go on to Smyrna, Tenn., where they will make their home during the time that the sergeant is stationed there.

DURHAM—LAFEAN

At the Church of the Redeemer in Bryn Mawr, Pa., on the afternoon of Armistice Day, Miss Marcia Lafean of Bryn Mawr, daughter of Mrs. Wilbur Leroy Lafean of York, Pa., and Chicago, Ill., and the late Mr. Lafean became the bride of Lt. (jg) Willard Schenck Durham, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Conklin Durham of Oneida circle. Canon Ernest C. Earp read the marriage service at 3 o'clock.

Miss Lafean was given in marriage by her brother, Maj. Wilbur Leroy Lafean. She wore a gown of white satin and Valenciennne lace with a veil of illusion caught with orange blossoms and carried a white prayer book with gardenias and a shower of bouvardia.

Mrs. Margaret Batty, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Bette Morris and Miss Jane Myers. All three wore moss green faille dresses with headdresses of violets and matching veils, and carried bouquets of violets.

Miss Marcia Anne Batty, small niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a floor length frock of white damask with a band of sweetheart roses and violets in her hair, matching the flowers of her bouquet.

Richard Parry of Swarthmore, Pa., was Lt. Durham's best man, and the ushers were Ens. Bradford Darling, USCGR, of Winchester, and Lt. (jg) Jack J. O'Leary, USNR, of Edgewood, Arsenal, Md.

Lt. and Mrs. Durham went to Chicago for their wedding journey. Lt. Durham is stationed at Edgewood Arsenal in Maryland. He and his bride will make their home in Baltimore.

MRS. FRANCES A. WINTER

Mrs. Frances A. Winter, widow of Herbert Winter and a resident of Winchester for the past five years, died Wednesday, Nov. 8, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Carlson, 525 Washington street, with whom she made her home. A native of Belfast, Me., she was 91 years old. She formerly made her home for many years in Lynn where her husband was engaged in the shoe business. There are no immediate survivors.

Funeral services were held on Saturday, Nov. 11, at the Saville and Kimball chapel with Rev. Robert M. Rice of the Arlington Universalist Church, officiating. Interment was in Grove Cemetery, Belfast, Me.

MRS. ANNIE F. DUNBAR

Mrs. Annie F. Dunbar of 14 Mystic Valley Parkway, widow of Frank W. Dunbar, who was for many years a photo-engraver in Boston, died on Monday, Nov. 13, three years after the death of her husband, who died Nov. 13, 1941.

Funeral services were held at the late residence on Thursday afternoon with Rev. Dwight W. Hadley, rector of the Church of the Epiphany, officiating. Interment was in Oak Grove Cemetery.

ATTEMPTED BREAK

Officers John Murray and Edward F. Bowler took into custody on Tuesday a 14 year old Hyde Park boy whom the local authorities believe was interrupted in an attempt to break into the home of Mr. Harold F. Nichols, 79 Grove street. The youngster went to the house asking for work and remained nearby until Mrs. Nichols left the house. Forgetting something, Mrs. Nichols returned and found the boy in the porch. He ran away, but was picked up by the Police at Ginn Field.

In response to questioning he told Chief Rogers he wished to get onto a farm. He had been reported missing from his home since the previous Friday. He was found to have no record and was released in custody of his father, he and his parent being given some good advice as they left the station by the Chief.

WINCHESTER EXPERTS SHOW BRILLIANCE IN INFORMATION PLEASE

The erudition of Winchester was shown at the Information Please show given by the Mothers' Association before a capacity audience in the high school auditorium last Friday evening. The board of experts was made up entirely of Winchester men and women giving brilliant answers to the questions submitted to them by Winchester citizens.

A facile master of ceremonies was had in Dr. Robert Cummins who gave the judges just enough but not too many hints.

The experts distinguished themselves in various fields; Mrs. C. S. Living-tone shone in music; Mrs. Henry K. Spencer knew all the wives of Henry VIII; Mrs. Kenneth Tyce rattled off the commanders of the U. S. fleet as would Admiral King himself; Mrs. Philip J. Woodward knew all the modern tunes; Mr. James A. Cullen recited poetry like an author which he proved to be; Mr. John J. Donovan glibly recited athletic lore; Dr Lyman B. Smith proved himself a master of many question in many fields, but couldn't answer some questions on English literature submitted by his son, and Mr. James J. McGovern could tell how the baseball clubs stood, but he couldn't answer his wife's question on ration points, but neither could the others.

All in all, the experts did well, for missed questions cost the Mothers' Association only four dollars.

Mrs. Myra Coon, president of the Mothers' Association made a gracious speech of introduction, thanking the audience for its support of the Mothers' Association Scholarships for high school seniors which the show makes possible. But support or not, the audience got its moneys' worth in entertainment.

HIGHLANDS MEN'S CLUB HARVEST SOCIAL TONIGHT

The Winchester Highlands Men's Club will hold its annual Harvest social tonight at 8 o'clock in the assembly room of the Second Congregational Church at the corner of Washington street and Kenwin road.

The entertainment committee, headed by Chairman Tom Grace, has provided an interesting program of activities including square dances, group games, refreshments, door prizes and a victory garden auction. The highspot of the evening will be the drawing for four plump turkeys, fresh from a nearby turkey farm.

Dick Sullivan, genial master of ceremonies, will keep things humming and will be assisted by Ralph Jope during the victory garden auction.

An entertaining evening is assured all members, their families and their friends.

Playing cards at Wilson's.

MISS GREENE, LT. STUART ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett Greene of Marven Gardens, Margate, N. J., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Margaret Jayne Greene, to Lt. Robert Douglass Stuart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Stuart of Yale street. Lt. Stuart is a graduate of Wesleyan University, class of 1942. He is now stationed at Atlantic City, N. J.

CHRISTMAS MAILING

Only two weeks remain for buying and mailing Christmas gifts to all mid-Western and Southern states for assured Christmas delivery, according to Postmaster Vincent C. Ambrose. The final date is Nov. 25 for both military forces stationed in this area as well as civilians. Christmas cards for these states must be mailed no later than Dec. 1. Gifts and parcels for delivery in the Pacific Coast States must be mailed at least four days earlier than the above dates.

Mail your cards before Dec. 1 or for local delivery cards must be mailed before Dec. 13.

WINCHESTER 21—BEMONT 6

Roche Star of Clean Cut Victory

Winchester High School gave an impressive exhibition of spirit, stamina and sheer power Armistice Day afternoon at Belmont, beating a good, rugged Belmont High team, 21-6, before a big crowd of shivering fans. Conclusive as the score was, Winchester's superiority over Belmont was even greater than the score would indicate and the locals' showing against a team good enough to trounce unbeaten Brookline, 26-9 the week previous ought to effectively muzzle the croakers who had been selling Winchester short since its unexpected, and as things turned out questionable, defeat at the hands of Reading.

Winchester was one of the good teams of the Mystic Valley last Saturday, perhaps as good as any club in this neck of the woods. Disdaining to take to the air, the locals ran up 11 first downs and the amazing total of 357 yards by rushing, missing at least two additional touchdowns through an excusable fumble and some poor judgment in calling plays with the ball at the Belmont 10. The locals were set back 25 yards in penalties and fumbled four times, each time disasterously, though one of the fumbles was recovered by Mario Buzzotta.

Belmont made three first downs, one with the aid of a penalty, and rushed for 52 yards. Of the nine passes attempted, four were good for 42 yards, two of the heaves being completed for net losses of two yards each. Belmont lost ten yards in penalties and fumbled once.

Every last boy in the Winchester lineup played fine ball, but "Chuck-er" Roche was the star of the local victory, scoring the first two touchdowns on fine individual dashes of 19 and 40 yards. Roche gained consistently all afternoon, tackled hard and effectively and also kicked well, his all around play making him the outstanding player on either team.

An exchange of punts after the kickoff gave Winchester the ball at midfield. An offside penalty against Belmont and a five yard Haggerty reverse put the ball on the Belmont 40, where Tibaudo broke through the middle of the line for a dash to the 20. Roche picked up a yard at tackle and then, aided by some nice blocking up front, hit off tackle again, cutting back into the clear to outrace the Belmont secondaries to the goal line, going over standing up. Walsh converted at placement.

Belmont tried a reverse on the kickoff but Jimmy Haggerty sized up the play and brought down the runner on the Belmont 30. Belmont couldn't go and Wettlaufer kicked a rolling ball that stopped deep in Winchester territory. The locals were called for clipping on the play, and the ball was placed a yard from from the goal-line.

Tibaudo broke through to reach the 20 for a first down, and then hit the line for three, Roche adding seven for another first down at the 30. Tibaudo in two bucks was a foot short of first down and Walsh "sneaked" through for first down and ten at the Winchester 43.

"Sarto" was hurt on the play, getting a crack on the head and a badly lacerated eyeball. He left the game, being replaced by Mario Buzzotta.

Tibaudo in two bucks reached the Belmont 40 to start the new quarter, and then Roche once again broke off tackle to cut back over center and race 40 long yards for his second touchdown, again going over standing up. Tibaudo failed to rush the extra point into the score.

Belmont couldn't go after receiving the kickoff and Tibaudo ran Wettlaufer's punt back 20 yards to his 48. From there the locals drove to the 8 where a Haggerty fumble was recovered by Carroll of Belmont. Wettlaufer and Johnny West exchanged punts, the latter's going outside at the Belmont 15.

Here Belmont, aided by a five yard penalty against Winchester for too many times out made its first down of the game, but on the next play a fumble was recovered by Johnny Rutherford on the Belmont 19.

West was held at center, but on second down cracked off tackle and bulled his way to the 4. Once again John hit the center for a yard and then little Bellino scuttled over off tackle like a frightened jackrabbit. Walsh's try for the extra point was no good.

With the resumption of play after the half Winchester and Belmont exchanged punts and Tibaudo, after a nice runback of Wettlaufer's punt was hit hard and fumbled, Mario Buzzotta finally recovering back on Winchester's 22. Roche booting against the wind got a bad bounce and it was Belmont's ball at the Winchester 40.

A flat pass from Papazian to Shea lost two yards as Roche came up very fast for the tackle, but on the next play, Papazian threw a screen pass out in the left flat to Kelley and the latter galloped through the whole Winchester team to the 1 yard line before being brought down. On first down Shea went over, but Kelley failed to convert.

Roche had to kick after the kick-off, and Wettlaufer returned his boot, kicking across the goal line. Starting at his 20, Jimmy Haggerty reversed and broke through into the clear. He drove between two Belmont boys at his 40 but was hit hard on both sides. Off to the races, he was juggling the ball a bit as he recovered his stride, and hitting the ball with his knee, he lost it, Belmont recovering at the Winchester 47. There was a touchdown gone right there for you don't catch Mr. Haggerty from behind.

Starting the final quarter, Belmont advanced to the Winchester 25 where the locals held for downs. Tibaudo made first down at the 35, Haggerty added three and then Tibaudo broke through again for a good gain, only to fumble. A Belmont boy scooped up the ball and started for pay dirt, being hauled down from behind by Buzzetta on the Winchester 25.

Winchester dug in and stopped Belmont short of a first down at the 16, Tibaudo in two bucks reaching the 28. Haggerty added two and then Roche broke through the line, cut out and legged it down the sidelines to the Belmont 10 where he was tackled from behind.

Four times Tibaudo hit the center of the packed Belmont line, being stopped just short of a touchdown. Any sort of outside play would have surely gone with a third down on the three.

Belmont gambled on a "Statue of Liberty" play and Wettlaufer was tackled by Armstrong in the end zone for a safety.

Errico ran the short free kick back to the Belmont 34, Roche picked up three and West, two yards. Teddy O'Rourke, reversed nicely for 14 yards and a first down at the 15, but Bellino was stopped without gain. West smashed through to the 8, but the whistle blew to end the game at this point. The summary:

Winchester: Errico, Jacobellis, Gallivan, Prentiss, lc; Latham, Hannon, lg; Bucci, Herlihy, Rutherford, lg; Buzzotta, Bergquist, c; Lovejoy, Herlihy, rg; Stevenson, Washburn, Morrison, rt; Armstrong, Riga, re; Walsh M. WINCHESTER AND MELROSE GIRLS IN SCORELESS TIE

Winchester High and Melrose High field hockey teams played a scoreless tie at Melrose Tuesday afternoon, neither team being able to capitalize on its scoring chances.

The field was very sloppy and both elevens were handicapped, the Winchester girls perhaps the more so because thir pitch on Ginn Field is smooth and firm.

Melrose threatened early in the game, having the ball at the Winchester end of the field much of the time. The local defense proved equal to the emergency, Goaler Patty Root having several saves and one spectacular clear that went away out to the alley. Marty Jackson played a fine all around game for Winchester and as play wore on the local girls worked the ball deep into Melrose territory, but lacked the extra drive to get the ball through the uprights.

The Melrose seconds won the preliminary contest, 2-0 despite the strong game played in the local goal by Allison Welch.

The local girls, with an inexperienced lineup, did well for Coach Deborah Matthews this season, winning four, losing only to Arlington, 3-2, after leading 2-0 and tieing Melrose.

The summary:

WAKEFIELD HERE SATURDAY

Winchester High School plays its last home game of the football season Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock on Manchester Field, and a hard one it will be.

Wakefield High's big eleven comes over to play Coach Knowlton's power-house, and from the way the Walton Fielders have been going of late Winchester has a man's size job on its hands tomorrow.

As a basis for comparison between Winchester and Wakefield everyone will tell you Wak-field beat Reading 24-12 while Reading "decisioned" Winchester 19-0. That should make the visitors favorites on the basis of comparative scores, and Wakefield also beat Swampscott 21-0 against the 13-0 victory which the locals scored over the same team.

Comparative scores however, mean little and anyone who saw Winchester over-power rugged Belmont will hardly care to install Wakefield as any odds-on favorite to beat the locals. It will take a mighty good team to beat Winchester as the boys played at Belmont.

Wak field, in addition to Reading and Swampscott has beaten only Manchester, N. H., West, a very weak club, 47-7. Wakefield lost to Melrose 6-0, to Medford, 28-13, to Malden, 12-0, and to Woburn 12-0. Last Saturday Stoneham beat Woburn 7-0, if you are still interested in comparative scores.

Wakefield has a big rugged club and plays hard, rough football. Winchester can play hard football too, ask Framingham and Belmont. Tomorrow's game looms as pretty much an even thing with Winchester having an even chance to win.

The locals came through the Belmont game in good shape and with the exception of Frank Faleta, big end, will be at full strength for Wakefield. Garvey, referee; McCarthy, umpire; and Romano, linesman, are the officials.

Evidently frequenters of the center are fast forgetting the last tragic accident at the railroad crossing in the center. More and more people are dashing under the gates, and especially are youthful bike riders beginning to make something of a practice of taking their wheels under the gates with trains approaching. This is ever more dangerous than crossing the tracks alone, for there is always the possibility that the bike wheel will catch in the track and get out of hand with a train bearing down a lot faster than the youthful cyclist think. Parents would do well to warn their children of the danger involved, in going under lowered railroad gates, and while they are at it they might also heed the advice they are giving themselves.

"ALMIES" THANKED BY POLICE HEAD

Nov. 1, 1944

Mr. Robert A. Johnston
Auxiliary Police Chief
81 Washington Street
Winchester, Mass.

Dear Sir:

Speaking for myself as Chief of Police and also in behalf of the members of the Winchester Police Relief Association, I wish to thank you and all of the other Auxiliary Police officers who patrolled the town and manned Police Headquarters on the night of the Policemen's Ball.

It is indeed a pleasure to work in cooperation with such a fine body of public spirited citizens as the Winchester Auxiliary Police.

During the past few years I have watched the progress of your organization with increasing esteem and I trust that you will continue to perform your very valuable duties for many years to come.

Yours very truly,
William H. Rogers,
Chief of Police

WEDNESDAY NIGHT CLUB

The Wednesday Night Club of the First Congregational Church claimed tremendous success for their third gathering of the fall season, a home cooked dinner in the parish house of the church, Wednesday evening, Nov. 15, served by Mrs. Raymond Dickman and her committee of 15.

The high note of the dinner was the more than 350 home-made butter scotch rolls, hot from the oven, which were speedily devoured by the 150 men and women in attendance. Mrs. Dickman personally baked 150 patty shells for the creamed chicken and decorated 200 mint- with vari-colored frosted flowers.

Committee members were Mrs. Raymond Dickman, chairman; Mrs. Wm. Sawyer, Mrs. Wm. Rodgers, Mrs. Robert Oxford, Mrs. Charles Brown, Mrs. Harold Stevens, Mrs. Frank Connolly, Mrs. Ralph Swan, Mrs. Frank Hawkins, Mrs. Colver Dyer, Mrs. James Robertson, Mrs. Clarence Wickerson, Mrs. George Traut, Mrs. Carl Morse and Mrs. Allen Eaton. Mrs. Hawkins played familiar tunes on the piano.

The decorating committee, headed by Mrs. Samuel Graves, assisted by Mrs. Wm. Specrs, Jr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Ford, 2nd, used autumn colors.

Tables were cleared at 8 o'clock and Mr. Franklin McDermott, president of the club and Mr. Harold Jones, treasurer, and their co-workers, Lt. Eugene Burt and Mr. George Shafer furnished and presented stereopticon slides and old fashioned movie thrillers, while Mr. Irving Plitt accompanied on the piano.

Dr. and Mrs. Howard Chidley were in "langhing" and appreciative attendance and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wheeler, (Mrs. Wheeler as secretary of the club) were on hand to complete their job, as ticket-sellers in seeing that each guest was properly nametabbed and introduced so that the friendly spirit exuded by the club was maintained throughout the evening.

BELLINO OUT OF LINEUP

Sam Bellino, fiery little scatback on the Winchester High School football team, was yesterday declared scholastically ineligible and will not be able to play against either Wakefield or Woburn.

This will be sad news for local fans who have raved over Bellino's speed and gameness and his dodging explosive style. As a substitute for Roche, regular left halfback, Sam has seen a lot of service and his running on the field has always been the signal for a yell of delight from the stands. With Bellino benched Coach Knowlton will depend upon "Twiggy" Nolan to fill in for Roche and though lacking Bellino's color, Nolan is also what "Dawn" Stevens would call a good boy.

Everyone will want to see the Adventures of Tom Sawyer, Nov. 28 at the Unitarian Church.

POLICEMAN'S BALL

Big Crowd Enjoyed Show and Dancing

The usual capacity crowd turned out Monday evening for the popular Policeman's Ball in the Town Hall. Every seat was taken and the audience included visiting police officials and many town officers, headed by the Board of Selectmen and their ladies.

Jack Kaiser's New Yorkers played both for the dancing and for the show which preceded it, featuring professional talent from Waite Entertainments, Inc.

Gary Webb acted as master of ceremonies and introduced Helen Cross in a Mexican Dance number, followed by the Timpsons, a colored boy and girl from Dixie and Harlem who sang individually and in duet, the boy scoring especially with the ever-popular "Old Man River" from Show Boat.

Miss Cross returned to the stage paired with Lou Morgan, a funny man, offering songs and cross talk which commenced with Mr. Morgan on the floor of the hall as a peanut vendor.

As good an act as any at the ball in a long time was Muri Daniels, billed as "the Marvelous Makeup Man." Mr. Daniels who has been doing makeup for the Parish Players for years and also for the Winton Club initiated the audience into the mysteries of the faces they see across the footlights, explaining and illustrating such technicalities as dry and wet makeup and grease-paint.

Mr. Daniels was assisted by volunteers from the audience, including R. T. Brandt, Ken Lample, Thure Bomberg, Wendall Keith, Ed Farrell, Postmaster Vincent Ambrose and Vin Troast. Under Mr. Daniels' skilled and nimble fingers they blossomed into such characters as George Bernard Shaw, Mortimer Snerd and Old Bill, Cartoonist Bruce Bairnsfeather's famous character of "The Better 'Ol", popular during World War I. There was also a most realistic old grandma, a rum-dumb convict, a clown, a Hindu fakir, Indian Chief and last but not least, Miss Winchester. Ed Farrell was the victim for the last named and Postmaster Ambrose made a most impressive Chief Sitting Bull, though Mr. Daniels forced him to stand with arms folded.

This act was long but the audience thoroughly enjoyed it. Following it the Captain and the Pony offered a clever little Shetland adding and subtracting figures quite as well as many school children, enumerating the months of the year and giving other striking examples of animal intelligence.

The M. C. combined with Ruth Brooks, a comely accordianist in tunes and chatter, to be followed by the Opera Duo; Katherine Dean, soprano; and William Weigle, baritone, accompanied by Harold Pearson.

Both Miss Dean and Mr. Weigle have good voices and sang in a pleasing manner, offering such favorites as Thine Alone from Victor Herbert's Eileen, Because You're You from the Red Mill, I'll See You Again from Bitter Sweet by Noel Coward, Sympathy from The Firefly and Wanting You from the New Moon. Mr. Weigle sang as a solo the bizarre Song of the Flea by Mussorgsky. Mr. Pearson proved a very competent accompanist.

As a finale the entire company appeared on stage, minus the pony and sang God Save America, being joined by the audience. It wasn't until after 10:30 that the entertainment was over and the floor was cleared for dancing which continued until 1.

Following are the committees:

Chairman, James P. Donaghey
Floor Marshal, William H. Rogers
Asst. Floor Marshal, Edward W. O'Connell
Floor Directors, Thomas F. Cassidy, Joseph J. Derro.
Reception Committee, James E. Farrell, John F. Hogan, William E. Cassidy.
Chief Aides: Archie T. O'Connell, Henry P. Dempsey.
Aides: John E. Hanlon, John H. Boyle, James F. Noonan, Edward F. Bowler, John J. Murray, Clarence E. Dunbury, Daniel I. Reardon, William J. Callahan, James E. Flaherty.
Entertainment and Music Committee: Joseph J. Derro, Edward F. Bowler, Henry P. Dempsey, Daniel I. Reardon, William J. Callahan, John J. Murray, James F. Flaherty.
Decorations: John E. Hanlon, John H. Boyle, Clarence E. Dunbury, James F. Noonan.
Tickets and Invitations: Joseph J. Derro, Henry P. Dempsey, Edward F. Bowler.
Refreshments: Daniel I. Reardon, James E. Flaherty.
Program: Edward F. Bowler.

Marriage intentions have been filed with the town clerk by Lucien Adelard Bousquet of 63 Jefferson street, Lewiston, Me. and Catherine Aloise Shea of 19 Glenwood avenue.

"KNOW YOUR ALLIES"

Petty Officer J. Ronald Poulter of the Royal Navy is going to speak to the young people of the Unitarian Church this coming Sunday. Petty Officer Poulter, 24 years old, an amicable and entertaining speaker, will talk on "England at War" with the emphasis on British reaction to German robot bomb attacks. The young British Navy officer was in Britain during the height of the robot bombing assaults.

The current program of Metcalf Union is entitled "Know Your Allies." The object of this series is to acquaint the young people, through movies and speakers with the activities and attitudes of our major allies. The British sound film "Ordinarly People" showing the way the British people are taking the bombing was shown at the opening of the series on Sunday, Nov. 5. On Sunday, Nov. 19, following the worship service in the Meyer Chapel, Officer Poulter will speak at 4:30 p. m. to the Junior High School Fellowship, and at 6:30 p. m. to the Metcalf Union.

The Junior High School Fellowship is participating in a project to collect books for a Southern Mountain School, where the pupils have no library and few text books. Both the Fellowship and Metcalf Union will assist the Unitarian Service Committee in collecting clothing for the destitute people of Europe.

The Junior High School Fellowship announces a harvest dance for all junior high schoolers on Saturday, Nov. 25, from 6 to 10 p. m. It will start with a box supper.

FINAL PHIPPEN RECITAL

Mr. Joshua Phippen gave the 24th in his series of Sonata recitals Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lincoln Rice on the Parkway playing music by Mozart, Beethoven and Cadman.

This series has been unique in that few sonatas are heard nowadays outside the concert hall and there almost never is an entire program devoted to them. A master of his art, Mr. Phippen has been able to bring out all the melodic beauty and strength in the composition of this ageless music which is as vital today as when it was composed.

The Mozart number played on Mr. Phippen, was probably originally played on the spinet the Beethoven selection being composed later when the piano came into use. The Cadman music with its suggestion of the Indian, the wilderness vast prairies and broad rivers, made an impressive conclusion to a most enjoyable series.

MEN'S CLUB ANNOUNCES FAMILY NIGHT

Tuesday, Nov. 28, the Men's Club of Epiphany parish will have a speaker of such interest that they are making the occasion family night.

Mr. Maxwell McCreery and this month's steering committee for the club give their invitation thus early in order that high school long themes may be done to the last dot of an i by 7:30 that evening and social plans of older folks shifted to keep that date clear. "You'll be sorry next day if you don't," warns the committee.

Coffee will be served by the Women's Division of the Church Service League.

HIGH SCHOOL DRAMATIC CLUB ENTERTAINS

Playing before the assembled student body, on Wednesday, the W. H. S. Dramatic Society presented the one act play, "Such a Pleasant Meeting."

With such a popular young actress as Priscilla Morrill in the group, the supporting cast included Emily Hanson, Jennie Lou Elliott, Natalie Warsky, Susan Hight, Marilyn Campbell, Ellen Kemerson, Rosemary Drohan and Joan Robinson were to give an exceptional performance.

Miss Marion Bailey directed the production and Boardman O'Connor, Mark Strawbridge and Frank Strawbridge took care of stage details.

Garden Club members please note.

MYSTIC MOTHERS' NOTES

The annual reception for the new Mystic mothers will be held in the Mystic School Hall in conjunction with the first regular meeting of the Mystic Mothers Association on Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 21 at 2:45 p. m.

Our guest speaker will be Mrs. James Willing. Tea will be served.

An important date to keep in mind is Wednesday, Nov. 29, when Dr. John Fowlkes will speak on the findings of the School Survey at 8 p. m. in the Mystic School Hall.

WYMAN SCHOOL FATHER'S NIGHT

The annual Father's Night meeting of the Wyman School Mothers' Association will be held next Monday evening, Nov. 20, in the Wyman School assembly hall. Coffee will be served in the kindergarten room at 7:30 and at 8:15 Dr. John Guy Fowlkes will speak on the recent survey of the Winchester schools.

Dr. Fowlkes is the head of the school survey and has directed over 100 survey committees throughout the country in such communities as Pasadena, Cal., Racine, Wis., and Fort Worth, Texas. After his talk parents will have the opportunity of visiting the class rooms to meet the teachers and view samples of the children's work.

WESTERN UNION AGENCY NOW OPEN

A Western Union Telegraph agency has been established at 8 Common street (Winslow Press) which will satisfy a long-felt need for such a service in Winchester.

The agency is equipped to handle all regular Western Union services, including telegrams, cablegrams and telegraphic money orders.

Office hours will be 8:30 a. m. to 5:30 p. m. daily, except Sunday.

ELECTION FIGURE CORRECTION

Due to an error in copying election figures following last week's national election the total vote given Robert Bradford, Republican candidate for Lt. Governor, by Winchester was published as 3768. Mr. Bradford actually polled 3768 votes in Winchester.

MEN'S CLUB DATE ADVANCED

Due to the conflict of dates with the public meeting at the High School when the School Survey Recommendations will be presented, the first meeting of the Men's Club of the First Congregational Church will be advanced from Tuesday to Monday, Nov. 20 at 8 p. m. Dr. Norman J. Paddelford, professor of International Relations at M. I. T. will be the speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Gleason of Lawson road are in Schnectady, N. Y., where they are registered at the Van Curler Hotel.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST, WINCHESTER

Sunday services 11 a. m

Wednesday testimonial meeting 8 p. m.

Reading Room, 6 Winchester Terrace (off Thompson street). Open daily except Sundays and holidays from 11 a. m. to 4 p. m.

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, and in all of its branches, on Sunday, Nov. 19, will be "Soul and Body."

The Golden Text, "My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of the Lord: my heart and my flesh crieth out for the living God," is from Psalms 84:2. Other Bible citations include: "This I say then, walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh. For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would. If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit" (Galatians 5:16, 17, 25).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, "When what we erroneously term the five physical senses are misdirected, they are simply the manifested belief of mortal mind, which affirm that life, substance, and intelligence are material instead of spiritual. These false beliefs and products constitute the flesh, and the flesh wars against Spirit" (p. 274).

WAR-FUND BROADCAST PACKED HALL

Winchester's Community War Fund Broadcast, put on the air from the town hall by Station WCOP played to a packed house. Publicity Chairman Jack Baxter opened the program with humorous instructions to the audience about applause and also acted as program director. The local United War Fund Chairman, George Chatfield acted as master of ceremonies.

The Mystic Glee Club of male voices, directed by Donald Leslie Marshall, opened the broadcast with "The Time is Now". Following came the radio play, "The Last Will and Testament of Tom Smith", written by Sidney Longstreet and adapted for radio by two Winchester men, Jack Baxter and Brydon S. Greene.

The Parish Players of the First Congregational Church, coached by Frances R. Hart, did the show with a cast including W. Irving Pfaff as the Jap Captain Hayo, also as "Doc" Priscilla Morrill as Grace, Lt. Harold Hall as Gramp and Grant Burtnett as Tom. Briefly the play, which was done in a most finished manner, had to do with the thoughts of an American aviator, who has been captured after bombing Japan and is about to be shot. Incidental music for the show was done by the Mystic Glee Club.

Sweethearts of Swing followed the play and turned out to be Jean Burtnett and Roy Monson, playing accordions, and tunefully Dewy Edwards, named for Fort Devens and Camp Edwards and a radio favorite with the G.I.s whom she wakes up each morning with her program, was interviewed by Mr. Chatfield and told of her interesting adventures while entertaining soldiers in such remote places as Labrador and Baffin Land.

George McFadden of Winchester presented the broadcast's most interesting feature, playing on his calliope run by a vacuum cleaner and having a console of 20 keys. George, who lives on Ardley Rd., got a great hand for a most unusual performance.

The Winchester High School boys' glee club of 75 voices, led by Miss Alma Stoddart, director of music in the public schools, sang "Stout Hearted Men, after which Lt. Frank Sweeney, director of public relations for the First Naval District, interviewed Cpl. David Allen of the Marines, a veteran of Guadalcanal Bloody Ridge and Tulagi. The W.H.S. Girls' Chorus of 200 voices, led by Miss Stoddart, then sang "O Come Ye Thankful People Come."

Mr Chatfield read a telegram from radio star, Bob Hope, before a transcription of a Hope program, donated by the comedian and his sponsors, the Pepsodent Division of Lever Brothers.

St Mary's uniformed band of 35 boys and girls, directed by Prof Frank Barone, played a salute to the services, after which Mr. Chatfield announced that as of that time the drive in Winchester had gone over the top 101.8 per cent. Announcements of the success of the drive in the various precincts interspersed the numbers on the program with Precinct Chairmen.

GUILD OF THE INFANT SAVIOUR

Members of the board were entertained at a delicious luncheon on last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Michael H. Hintlian, president. After the luncheon, the regular monthly meeting of the board was held at 2:30. Many new members to the Guild were voted upon and admitted to membership.

The sympathy of the Guild is extended to our member, Mrs. Lester Billings on the death of her husband.

Hostesses at tea on Nov. 14 meeting were Mrs Raymond Gagen, Mrs. Carl Thomas, Mrs. George Kitchen, Mrs. Joseph L. Mullin. Pouring at the tea table were Mrs. Edwin Booth and Miss Josephine Brine.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Co-operating with more than a million Girl Scouts in the U. S., Girl Scouts of Winchester will work on a continuing plan of salvage collection with local WPB officials, Mrs. Clarence Roberts, Commissioner of Winchester Girl Scouts has announced.

Membership is still big news. We hit the million or more mark in August with 6644 more than the million and by September we had 1,016,064 to be exact. That figure makes the Girl Scouts the largest organization of girls in the world.

Winchester troops are busy now getting in their re-registrations, some of our troops have had perfect membership for 25 years.

Part of every girl scouts personal program is one for savings. Now she saves for war stamps and hurries to fill her book to turn it into a bond. The 6th war loan drive is starting now and every possible penny gleaned from taking care of "Mrs. Jones' children" or taking mothers' fat collection to the grocer, or just selling old newspapers will be turned over to this cause. Girl Scouts, too, will speed the day of victory and peace.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

Attention New Members

This year the Winchester League has returned to the policy of having study meetings to be announced from time to time. The first will be held next Monday, Nov. 20, at the home of Mrs. Maxwell McCreery, 4 Curtis road at 2:30 p. m. The subject for discussion will be "League Backgrounds," its perpose to acquaint members both new and long standing with League history, methods, procedure of program making, etc.

As there has not been such an Orientation meeting for quite a number of years, there must be many members who will welcome this opportunity and new members are especially urged to attend.

CHILD STRUCK BY CAR

Noreen Johnson, 7, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson of 6 Park road, was painfully injured shortly after 5 o'clock on Armistice Day afternoon when she was struck by an automobile while crossing Washington street near Park avenue.

The operator of the car, Blanche A. Moll of 5 Frost street, Cambridge told the Police she was driving a Studebaker sedan south on Washington street and did not see the little girl until her left front bumper hit her. The child was knocked down and dragged for a distance of about 11 feet according to the Police.

Noreen was picked up by Wallace B. Baron of 12 Park road and taken in Mrs. Moll's machine to the Winchester Hospital where she was treated by Dr. Richard W. Sheehy. She sustained a laceration of the left temple, contusion of the right arm, abrasions to both ankles, minor abrasions to the scalp and possibly other injuries.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS

William Parkman Lodge, A. F. and A. M. held its annual installation of officers at the Masonic Apartments on Tuesday evening, Nov. 14. Worshipful W. Allan Wilde was installing Master assisted by Worshipful Francis E. Booth as Marshal.

ALBERT O. WILSON GAVE TALK

Albert O. Wilson of this town, Swedish Consul at Boston, spoke on Swedish-American Relations on Nov. 16, at the Mary C. Wheeler School, a college preparatory school for girls in Providence, R. I.

In his address Mr. Wilson brought out the difficult position which Sweden as a neutral country has occupied during the war in being surrounded by Germany and her allies, or countries entirely under German control and being completely bottled up by a double blockade by Germany and the Allies. Sweden believes, he said, that her present government can go on after the war.

Mr. Wilson who makes his home in Winchester, has served as Swedish consul for nearly five years. He is married and has two son and a daughter. He has been engaged in the steel fabricating business in Cambridge for many years, his elder son, Albert O. Wilson, Jr., acting as manager of the plant.

Donald Bagge Wilson, his younger son, is a lieutenant in the Navy. A married daughter lives in the South. Mr. Wilson has ben active in civic affairs, participating in community drives in Cambridge where at present he is directing work in the Industrial Division of the War Fund Drive. He is a member of the Cambridge Rotary and Chamber of Commerce.

SUZANNE H. DRESSER OBSERVES 5TH BIRTHDAY

Suzanne Dresser of 82 Cambridge street, had her fifth birthday on Wednesday, Nov. 8, celebrating the occasion with a birthday party at her home.

Suzanne has as guests several of her kindergarten and neighborhood playmates, among whom were Ann Laitkiewicz, Jonathan Moulding, Dickie Robnett, Dorothy Ann Smith, and Kenneth Towle.

The Dresser home had been prettily decorated for the party and there were favors provided for each of the guests. Old and new games were played by all until it was time for the lighting of the birthday cake. After the ceremony, ice cream, cake and candy concluded the party.

Suzanne was born in Winchester on Nov. 8, 1939 to Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Dresser. She attends the Wyman School and the First Congregational Church Sunday School.

According to an item in the Boston Young Men's News, the grounds of the Boston Y. M. C. A. building at Huntington avenue, together with its surroundings, have been kept in fine condition during the summer through the efforts of Mr George Arnold, a resident of Chesterford road, this town. Mr. Arnold, a Mt. Hermon graduate and an expert on chimes and bells, has taken considerable pride in his work.

THANKSGIVING SERVICE

The annual Union Thanksgiving Service of the town's Protestant Churches will be held Sunday evening, Nov. 10, at 7:45 at the First Baptist Church.

Rev. Walter Lee Bailey, new pastor of the church, will be the preacher and other ministers of the town will participate in the service of worship. There will be an appropriate musical setting for the service and everyone is welcome.

An offering will be taken for the rehabilitation of Protestant Churches in war-torn Europe.

"There's a telephone in the house where I am moving Can you connect it for me?"

This is a perfectly natural question which is frequently asked of us today.

We wish we could say yes in all cases, but our answer must be qualified.

Yes — we can probably connect it if you already have service in the house from which you are moving, and if you are moving within the same exchange or immediate geographical area.

Yes — we can connect it if your use of a telephone is essential to the proper discharge of your duties as a member of one of the following groups: (1) armed forces and government; (2) war production and directly related activities; (3) public health and welfare.

No — we cannot connect it if you are moving outside of your present telephone exchange or geographical area, and we cannot connect it if you do not have telephone service at your present address, unless you are in one of the above listed groups that are entitled to immediate service.

You see, since there are not enough telephones to go around, we must distribute those that are available as fairly as possible. The telephone that is in the house to which you expect to move may be needed by a doctor or an essential war worker or by someone who has already been waiting many months.

Please understand, however, that your application will not be forgotten, and that it will be filled in its turn.

FORTNIGHTLY NOTES

In keeping with its generous philanthropic program the Fortnightly, at a recent meeting, voted $50 to the Greater Boston Community Fund.
That there is deep interest in postwar problems was shown by the splendid attendance at the International Relations Day last Monday in Fortnightly Hall, a joint meeting of the Winchester League of Women Voters and the Fortnightly.
Mrs. Charles B. Watson was chairman of the morning session under the direction of the League of Women Voters, when Mrs. James Volkmann of Concord spoke on Allied Military Government and a Community Fund film was shown.
At the afternoon session Mrs. Geo. G. Brayley, chairman of the International Relations Committee of the Fortnightly presented Prof. Payson S. Wild of Harvard who discussed World Security Council

FRANK ORCHARD

SPEAKS TO UNITARIAN MEN'S CLUB

Monday, Nov. 27

Frank Orchard, the New England advertising representative for the famous magazine, "Puck-The Comic Weekly," comes to Winchester on Monday to be the guest-speaker at the November supper meeting of the Men's Club of the Unitarian Church. He is known to be an accomplished and versatile speaker with an unusual knowledge of the historic antecedents of our present-day comic strips and funnies. He is a successful advertising executive, formerly a newspaper reporter with a vast insight into the human interest angles of his profession. He thinks his job outranks anything in the business world for fun and continuous inspiration; says "It calls for vision, creative ability, and an understanding of human nature. That means that you can't get rutty in your thinking. It is the nearest approach to the Fountain of Youth that I know."

A large attendance is anticipated by the officers of the Men's Club. The supper is at 6.30 o'clock in Metcalf Hall.

BACK ON DUTY

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Haulon of Bridge street have been notified by Major General J. A. Ulio, Adjutant General, in Washington, that their son Maj. John D. Hanlon returned to active duty with the U. S. Paratroopers on Oct. 27, after being hospitalized in England to recover from wounds received during the Allied invasion of Europe. Major Hanlon was also among those recently awarded the bronze star for service in the European Theater. Major Hanlon is a former Winchester High and New Hampshire University football star.

ENGAGEMENT OF LOCAL INTEREST

Mr. and Mrs. Philip W. Porter of Higganum, Conn., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Winifred Lucille Porter, to Mr. Charles Elder Rounds, son of Dr. and Mrs. Frank W. Rounds of Norwell and Boston and formerly of this town.

Miss Porter attended the University of Connecticut. Mr. Rounds was graduated from Andover and from Princeton, class of 1941. He is attending the Tufts College Dental School. The wedding will take place early in January.

ROD ELLIOTT FLEW SOLDIER IN IRON LUNG

"Rod" Elliott, former Winchester High student and brother of Mrs. W. B. Hersey of Wood-side road, as a captain-pilot in the U. S. Army Air Forces, got into the war headlines recently by flying a soldier all the way from India to Washington, by way of Cairo and Casablanca.

It was a three day grind through all sorts of weather, but Capt. Elliott got his man, Lt. Robert Wesselhoeft, of Wellesley, to Washington, D. C., for an immediate operation which fixed him up. Doctors say the man's life was saved as a result of the flying feat of Capt. Elliott.

The latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Elliott make their home at 203 Ballantyne avenue, Montreal. "Rod", after attending Winchester High, graduated from Catholic High in Montreal and attended University of Maine where he played football and was a star skier. He enlisted in the U. S. Air Forces shortly after Pearl Harbor and was awarded his captaincy this year. His wife and two children make their home in Wilmington, Del.

PARISH BACK ON DUTY

Sgt. Harold C. Parish, Jr., of 14 Winthrop street, was recently released from an army hospital in England where he was operated upon, and spent several weeks as the result of an accident on the California desert last winter when a medium tank, batch became accidentally released and fell on the back of his head. His helmet saved him from possible fatal injury. Sgt. Parish is now back on duty and reports that he is "feeling fine."

LT. CLARK PROMOTED

Lt. Robert S. Clark, USNR, of Norwood street, has been promoted to Lt. Comdr., and transferred from the Great Lakes Naval Training Station, where he was an instructor in navigation, to the receiving station at Peak's Island in Casco Bay, Me. Lt. Clark was in Winchester on a short leave last week-end.

61TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Parkhurst received the felicitations of their many friends last Saturday on their 61th wedding anniversary, which they quietly observed at their home, Oak Knoll. The Town unites in extending its congratulations to them both in their happiness and good health.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Church Building 90 Years Old

One of the oldest structures in Winchester is the First Congregational Church, which is 90 years old.

The building was begun immediately after the former church was destroyed by fire, March 20, 1853. The Building Committee of the present church consisted of nine members, who were unrestricted as to the cost of the type of the new church to be built. The church fas finished a year and a half later, October 1851. It may be of interest to give the itemized costs of those days:

Contractor of the building (contract	$16,000.00
Organ	2,500.00
Organ	1,950.00
Pews and upholstering same	2,320.00
Bell	812.00
Building sex dials and grading	856.00
Carpenter	196.00
Painting	274.00
Gas pipes	560.00
Blind holes and removal of bodies	187.00
Architect for plans and superintendence	700.00
Lumber for sexton	75.92
Labor on sheds	100.00
Insurance	137.05
Small bills	614.03
Total	$25,841.00

The original upholstery is still on most of the pews!

To be replaced at cost of the existing today is estimated to be at least $125,000. It must have taken courage on the part of the 237 members of that day to have assumed such a responsibility.

The steeple of the church is 182 feet high. The cross itself is seven and ah alf feet. Strangely enough, the clock in the church steeple does not belong to the church, but to the town. It was the anonymous gift of Ebenezer Smith, a member of the church choir, who stipulated that the clock was to be "the property of the town, cared for by the town, and under the control of the town at all times." So the matter stands to this day.

The church building was remodelled in 1925 by the addition of a chancel, which gave it additional dignity and beauty. The Parish House was built in 1926.

The present membership of the church is approximately 1700, or greater than the entire population of the village when the church was built.

THOMANN WINS AIR MEDAL

Another Winchester boy, Staff Sgt Donald A. Thomann, AAF, has been awarded the Air Medal for meritorious achievement while serving as an aerial gunner with the 15th Army Air Force in Italy, flying combat missions throughout Northern Italy, the Balkans Austria and Southern Germany. He flew his first mission in August when 15th Liberators bombed the railroad viaduct at Arezzo, Italy.

Sgt. Thomann is a member of a veteran outfit, one of the oldest in the Mediterranean Theatre and one that has already won two Presidential citations. A graduate of Winchester High he pitched on his high school team and also for the Millionaires. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Thomann, and is married. his wife Mrs. Margaret M. Thomann, and son Donald, making their home at 214 Washington St. He entered the service in October, 1943, and trained at the Tyndall Field, Fla., Gunnery School.

EPIPHANY ENJOYS ITS RED CROSS CHORE

Epiphany Service League briskly finished Tuesday the first three quarters of the cheerful job it undertook for the Red Cross, providing 75 Christmas packages for service men who will be out of touch with their mail on Christmas morning, in embarkation camps or on outbound ships. League members finished 57 packages, and after school a very young member of the parish brought in the 58th. She had used her imagination as to what a service man might need, and had put in a tube of a cream for windburn. Her package was most complete in another way too; she had made rhymes to go along with the gifts.

The remaining 17 packages will be done next Tuesday, Nov. 28. If any person would like the pleasure of making up a whole package, she may do so. The Red Cross suggests a value of about 75 cents. The League asks that a completed package shall be so marked.

LEGHORN WINS AIR MEDAL

An air medal has been awarded to Capt. Kenneth M. Leghorn, son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Leghorn of 42 Wedgemere avenue, for "meritorious achievement", according to an announcement by Brig. Gen. William H. Tunner, commanding general of the India China Division, Air Transport Command.

Capt. Leghorn has been serving with the division since Oct. 22, 1943, as a pilot, on the giant transport planes.

The citation making the award credited Capt. Leghorn with "more than 150 hours of operational flight in transport aircraft over the dangerous and difficult Assam-China air routes where enemy interception or attack was probable and expected."

GARRISON HONORED

Second Lt. Josiah D. Garrison, Jr., pilot of a B-17 Flying Fortress of the 95th Bombardment Group, has been awarded the Air Medal for "meritorious achievement" while participating in 8th Air Force bombing attacks on vital German industrial targets.

The lieutenant's wife, Mrs. Shirley C. Garrison, lives at 58 Washington street, Springfield.

CAPUTO GETS AIR MEDAL

Staff Sgt. Angelo R. Caputo has been presented the Air Medal according to a recent announcement of the 12th AAF.

Sgt. Caputo is an assistant engineer and gunner on a B-24 Liberator in the 12th AAF's famous "Long Rangers" now busily engaged in blasting the Japs out of the Dutch East Indies.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Sanford of Larchmont, N. Y., are in Winchester visiting Mrs. Sanford's sister, Mrs. Ernest W. Hatch on Cabot street. They are well-remembered as former Winchester residents and have made their home in Larchmont for the past 19 years.

As the Holiday Season approaches and the spirit of Christmas possesses us, our thoughts are being focussed on giving; but let's not forget that the boys at the front are giving their all to make it possible for us to live in peace and in plenty. Some of these boys, wounded in the supreme sacrifice, may be restored by the gift of your blood to return again to the fighting lines or to the loved ones who are waiting at home.

A Christmas gift of your blood makes a real Santa Claus of you and a new man out of him.

Like "the quality of mercy" the gift of blood "is twice blessed: It blesseth him that gives and him that takes."

WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Jr. Mrs. of the First Congregational Church will meet next Tuesday evening, Nov. 28, at 7.45 p. m. in the kindergarten room.

The Home Church Guild has made plans for its next meeting which will be held on Tuesday, Dec. 5. The women will gather at 10 in the morning to sew on choir vestments. At noon sandwiches, coffee and doughnuts will be on sale. At 2 o'clock, Mrs. Howard L. Chidley will speak on "The Pastor's Wife Looks to the Church." This will be followed by a social hour with Mrs. James Coon as hostess.

All who heard or heard about the speech of Mrs. K. P. Yphantis at the recent Mission Union meeting will be interested to know that the First Congregational Church office will receive contributions for the Greek Relief. Men's women's and particularly children's clothes are urgently needed. Bedding, and any article for the household will be appreciated to help relieve the homes stripped bare of comforts.

Checks should be made out to Mrs. K. Paul Yphantis who is in charge of the Greek American Missionary Association at 6900 Tremont Temple in Boston. The Mission Union reminds its members that this is Mission Sunday, the subject of Dr. Chidley's sermon being "Broad Horizons."

CHILDREN'S MUSIC GROUP

Mr. Ludwig Juht of the Boston Symphony Orhestra will be the guest artist of the Children's Music Group on Sunday, Nov. 26 at 3 p. m. in the Episcopal Parish House. Mr. Juht, who played for the group two years ago and is remembered for the beautiful music he made on his big bass viol, will tell the children about the instrument and play several selections for them. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Leon Sargent.

During the first part of the afternoon's program, some of the lovely old Christmas carols will be sung. These carols are the ones used every other year in the French Festival which the group has held at the Country Club. This year there will be no December meeting.

The boys and girls, who will play for the group on Sunday, are Donald Folkers (2nd grade), Joan Moore, (4th grade), Dianthe Lamb and Carol Hawkins (6th grade), and a trio from the 8th grade composed of Emily Hood, (piano), Patsy Willing (violin), and John Sargent (Cello).

WHERE NATURE REIGNS SUPREME

Rivers, mountains, geysers, canyons in all their wild and natural beauty will be shown by Dr. Charles H. Tozier in his newest and most spectacular pictures, "Where Nature Reigns Supreme." Taken in the summer just past in the western part of the United States and Canada, Dr. Tozier has spared no effort to make these the best in artistic beauty and grandeur of all his outstanding pictures. All his followers are invited to come to the first public showing at the First Congregational Church on Wednesday evening, Dec. 6.

Coffee will be served at 7.45. Everyone will be welcomed and there is to be no admission charge. A collection will be taken during the evening for the work for our service men and women.

OLD FARMER'S ALMANACS at Wilson the Stationers.

FROM THE PACIFIC

He was there. For 21 months he was with the 1st Marine Parachute Regiment at Guadalcanal and on Bougainville. At 8 o'clock, Tuesday evening, Nov. 28, he will speak in the Epiphany parish hall, Chaplain R. E. Tupper, on "The Experiences of a Marine Chaplain in the South Pacific.

Winchester people who heard Chaplain Tupper speak recently in Boston are enthusiastically telling their friends of his engagement to speak here, and the Men's Club, who sponsor the meeting, have opened it to the whole parish, making it Family Night. The Young People's Fellowship and those in Junior High School are included in the invitation.

Only three years ago these islands were to all of us only specks on a map. Now even our own Winchester has its special reasons, proud and sad, for remembering those islands, and for hearing with interest intimate news of them. The war bulletins and the newspapers have told us what our men did there. What they felt and thought and believed there, no one so well knows as one who was their chaplain.

Mr. Tupper is a clergyman of the Lutheran Church, but denominational lines vanish in a combat zone and his ministry was to all.

Coffee will be served by the Symmes Corner Group, with Mrs. Francis Bowes as chairman.

FORTNIGHTLY NOTES

At the regular meeting of the Fortnightly on Monday afternoon, Nov. 27, Mrs. Virginia Anderson, traveler, photographer and author will present an illustrated lecture: "The Romance of a Gypsy Trip Through New England." These days, our reading and seeing and hearing are filled with strange lands, it will be a welcome respite, perhaps, to enjoy familiar haunts for an hour.

Coffee will be served at 1, with Mrs. T. Parker Clarke, as hostess.

No matter how strong the impulse to recall that though the spirit may be willing, the flesh is weak, whenever the need arises, the response is always forthcoming. The Red Cross is asking all the women of Winchester to include in their holiday plans a gift for a serviceman. It's particularly difficult for a boy to go away just before Christmas, and that the day may be a little brighter for him, it is planned to have a gift for him on shipboard. These gifts will be assembled at the port of embarkation in mid-December, and several thousand are needed.

Each one of us is asked to wrap a gift for a serviceman and to bring it to the Dec. 11 meeting, or to lay aside a dollar which may be used for the purchase of such a gift. The committee on co-operation with War Veterans is taking charge of this very good work, and the chairman, Mrs. Rasmus K. Miller, Win. 1969-J, will be glad to give any further information and to make arrangements for the collection of gifts and money.

We all know about the work of the Blood Donor Committee in our town, but perhaps we forget. To be reminded of the great need of plasma, and the almost miraculous help that it gives to our wounded servicemen, won't you bear in mind a most interesting meeting at the Winchester Public Library on Monday evening, Nov. 27 at 7.30? Miss Anastasia Kirby, assistant director of the Boston Blood Center, and a member of the Lovell General Hospital at Fort Devens will be the speakers, and we'll have the opportunity of seeing an uncensored Army Signal Corps moving picture.

S.Sgt. Edward D. Lynch, aerial photographer on a B-24 Liberator bomber, has been authorized to wear the Distinguished Unit Badge with one cluster as a member of a veteran group which has twice been cited for outstanding performance of duty. One citation includes action over Regensburg and the other Ploesti. Sgt. Lynch is a veteran of 28 missions. His wife Mrs. Lillian S. Lynch, resides in Winchester.

THE YANKEE HARVEST FAIR

Are you making out your Christmas list? Why not visit the Yankee Harvest Fair on Friday, Dec. 1 at the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church and inspect the many handsome gifts.

Mrs. Raymond Bancroft is the very capable general chairman for the fair. Miss Reba Griswold, Mrs. Leigh Roberts, Mrs. Harris LeRoy and Mrs. Jerome Foster are planning very attractive decorations.

Both the "Alerts" with Mrs. Paul White and Mrs. Stanley McNeilly as leaders and the Friendship Circle under the leadership of Mrs. Fred Dodge have been working for months to prepare many tempting gifts. For the Alerts Mrs. Howard Bowie and Mrs. Norman Hitchcock are in charge of the apron table. Baby gifts may be purchased from Mrs. Lewis Curtis, Mrs. Roger Burgoyne, and Miss Mary Hodge. Mrs. Edna Delorey, Mrs. Elizabeth Whiting, and Mrs. Stanley Roberts have many toys and books for sale. Delicious baked goods and food have been prepared for Mrs. William Seaton and Mrs. Frank Herrick's table. Mrs. Stanley McNeilly and Mrs. Paul White are chairmen for the grab and white elephant table. You may find refreshment in the cider and pop corn sold by Mrs. Leonard Griffiths and Mrs. Clarence Hamilton.

Plan to have lunch with us from 12 to 1 o'clock. Mrs. Henry Roberts and Mrs. Louis Moore are co-chairmen, with Mrs. Wilson Armstrong and Mrs. George Needham assisting. The Friendship Circle have chosen Mrs. Stephen Burgoyne and Miss Fannie Young as chairmen for the general store. Toys are on sale by Mrs. Windsor Robinson while Mrs. Frank Marshall and Mrs. Ralph Hatch will display many baked goodies and home cooked foods.

Mrs. George Needham is in charge of the flower and candy table. The Friendship Circle hasn't forgotten the children. Mrs. Lewis Moore and Mrs. Chester Koontz will have many novel grabs for them. Movies will be shown in the afternoon at 4 o'clock under the direction of Mrs. Alonzo Nicholas. The dinner committee with Mrs. Norman Hitchcock, Mrs. Arthur Fay and Mrs. Milton Galacia is hard at work on another delicious dinner to be served at 6.30 p. m.

Come at 10 a. m. and spend the day at the Yankee Harvest. Everyone is welcome.

BRITISH WAR RELIEF

The occasion certainly called for a party and the Winchester Unit of British War Relief rose to the occasion. Mrs. Frank Madge, who keeps the statistics on knitting, knew that Mrs. Minnie Fletcher's 100th pair of sweater stockings had been turned in and that the day was at hand when this unwearying knitter would be walking in and modestly putting on the knitting table her 100th pair. So she and the Unit's official artist of beautiful cakes, Mrs. Blanche Hill, were ready, when Mrs. Fletcher turned in that 100th pair Nov. 15, and at the luncheon pause the garlanded cake with its 100 was presented to the surprised honor guest. A 100 marching men in her 100 pairs would make an impressive show, if one could see them. But in these three years the white stockings have scattered to various corners of the earth.

Over a screen at Mrs. Fletcher's surprise party hung an afghan, the 58th that Miss May Wilson has assembled and finished. The composing squares in it had most of them been knitted by Mrs. Fletcher. And one remembers the 50 pair of gray socks she made for British War Relief before she began specializing in the long seaboot stockings.

Mrs. Ernest Dudley Chase, head of the Winchester Unit, put the crowning touch to the merry little party when she presented Mrs. Fletcher the largest of big red apples, duly polished.

MEXICAN BAZAAR

A Mexican Bazaar will be held at the Unitarian Church, Nov. 28 from 11 a. m. to 10 p. m.

There will be Mexican baskets, children's chairs, glassware and homemade articles such as baby clothes, aprons, bags and many interesting and useful things.

Luncheon, with some Mexican dishes, will be served from 12 noon.

The children as well as the adults will enjoy the movies at 4 p. m. Grabs and ice cream for the children.

Tea will be served in the ladies' parlor during the afternoon.

Dinner at 6.30 p. m. Only a limited number can be served.

A comedy after dinner will end the happy, jolly day.

Come one, Come all.

SEND GIFT PACKAGES BEFORE DEC. 1

Those who delay sending their Christmas gift packages until after Dec. 1, may find, too late, that gifts have not reached their destinations in time for the Christmas celebration.

"Transportation facilities, retail and other connected services will be subjected to peak demands the weeks just prior to the holidays, unless all of us recognize our mutual responsibility by purchasing and mailing gifts this month."

"Additional equipment is not available to provide public transportation or shipping space for a last minute rush, which has been the usual pre-Christmas experience. The Christmas package load on all delivery systems must be distributed over a longer period of time to avoid a breakdown of services.

It is also necessary to shop early and send early to avoid jamming transit systems and disrupting the schedules of those engaged in essential industries.

NEWS OF THE MERRY-GO ROUND FAIR

A special feature of the fair at the parish house of the First Congregational Church, Wednesday, Nov. 29, will be the children's Merry-Go Round from 3 to 5. Here the children will have a chance to see several varieties of live and toy animals, including some charming animal dish gardens and Cinderella's coach with real live footmen. Refreshments will be available and at 4 o'clock Professor Bugs an expert magacian will give a half hour's entertainment. Mrs. Howard A. Wittet is planning all this fun and will have helping her at the Merry-Go Round, Mrs. Colver P. Dyer, Mrs. Alfred J. Higgins, Mrs. Wallace M. Snow, Mrs Allen O. Eaton and Mrs. Charles J. Jens.

Of interest to the mothers will be the Clothes Shop, a used clothes exchange upstairs in the kindergarten room. This shop will have every kind of good used clothing and is a chance to get things of real quality that cannot be obtained easily now. Anyone may contribute to this shop and is asked to leave articles on Monday, Nov. 27 in the primary room, marked with name and address and maximum and minimum price desired.

Mrs. James McGovern heads the exchange with her helpers Mrs. John M. Murray, Mrs. Gilbert H. Hood, Jr., Mrs. Frank R. Creelman, Mrs. John H. Joy and Mrs. Gilbert H. Tapley.

The complete list of shops and their chairmen is as follows:

Mrs. Edwin Rooney, chairman

Mrs. Earle F. Spencer, vice chairman

Mrs. Vincent Farnsworth, Jr., Publicity.

Mrs. Fred W. Redding, decorations

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred A. Nelson, miniature merry-go-round

Mrs. Sydney Burr, luncheon, soup and snack bar

Mrs. Wilfred McKenzie, supper

Mrs. Bertram A. Albro, household

Mrs. Fred E. Hollins, bags

Mrs. Earle E. Andrews, food and candy

Mrs. James J. McGovern, clothes shop

Mrs. W. Irving Plitt, gifts

Mrs. Shepard Pond, paper

Mrs. Winslow Smith, babies and children

Mrs. R. H. B. Smith, plants

Mrs. Charles H. Tozier and Mrs. Clinton Farnham, decorative household accessories

Mrs. Erskine White, white elephant

Mrs. Howard A. Wittet, children's merry-go-round.

SONS OF ITALY NOTES

Ho! Hum! Time for yoru nap boys, what man is here again with a lot of silly prattling. What! you're not sleepy?

First of all the bowling match. Owing to a slight omission (two weeks to be exact) we have two scores to report on this week. On Wednesday Oct. 25 the Gripes retained their title by losing 1213 to 1394. On the following week, however, they shook off the mantle of defeat they had been wearing and finally broke into the win column by a score of 1420 to 1364 thus becoming the Greeps for this week. Now the Greeps and Gripes stuff has got even me dizzy, or should I say dizzier. In order to confuse things still further I shall rename the teams. They shall henceforth be known as Manoli's Marauders and Tofuri's Terrors. The individual scores of the Nov. 1 match follows:

Leo Manoli, 80, 123, 112, 315; A. Jacobellis, 95, 88, 100, 285; Phil Muraco, 65, 102, 89, 257; Sam Puma, 107, 88, 94, 289; C. Frongillo, 92, 101, 81. Ort. 25 the Gripes retained their 274; Totals: 141, 503, 476, 1420.

F. Dattilo 87, 83, 86, 256; F. Frongillo, 90, 96, 74, 260; A. Vespucci 86, 87, 99, 272; E. DeMinico 82, 91, 84, 260; A. P. Tofuri 103, 113, 100, 316. Totals: 448, 473, 443, 1364.

The rate of incoming mail has changed. It has gone from slow to very slow. We have a card from Tony Gilberti, Jr. Terry sends his regards to all the boys. Yes we have renewed your subscription to the Star and you are paid up in full as are the other 40 members of our lodge who are in the armed forces, each one of whose subscriptions we renew immediately pon the expiration of the old.

Frank Penta writes from India. He had quite a time of it during the Bombay fire about six months ago. They fought the conflagration day and night, saving most all of the army supplies endangered. He says many lives were lost, none of which were American. Thank God. Frank was able to contact James Joyce who is also in India. They have exchanged letters and are trying to arrange a meeting soon. If you succeed Frank don't fail to let us know.

On Wednesday, Nov. 1, Rugged Muraco dropped in on a surprise visit with Jerry Bachman, a buddy from Minneapolis. They were on route to Patterson, N. J., where they will undergo a six weeks specialized training course. Rugged and his buddy went along to watch the bowling match and got quite a kick out of it.

Allan Ronzio who has spent several months in the So. Pacific has notified his family that he is back in this country. He is eagerly awaiting the first opportunity to say hello to good old Winchester again.

Seen at the Belmont game were Andy Capone, Mike Saraco, Peter Fiore, Pete Galuffo, Joe Ranieri, Pollock and Mike McCormack.

The children's Christmas party committee for this year met and elected the following officers: F. Reccy, chairman; A. Cafarella, co-chairman; A. Barbaro, secretary; J. Diforio, treasurer.

The balance of the committee follows: F. Dattilo, A. Derro, C. DeMinico, C. Frongillo, L. Manoli, P. Muraco, A. Vespucci, V. Ghelfetti, A. Jacobellis, A. Gilberti, A. P. Tofuri, Ven. In spite of anticipated difficulties the committee is planning on having the usual entertainment, refreshments and gifts. I know many of you fellows will be glad to hear that we shall not forget the youngsters.

K. OF C. NOTES

The winners of the K. of C. chance book prizes drawn Friday, Nov. 17 at the council rooms were:

George Rogers, Grayson road, Winchester, turkey dinner.

John Sullivan, Middle-ex street, Winchester, $25 war bond.

Joseph Fink, Commercial street, Lynn, turkey.

Ruth Ann Garvey, Watson place, Winchester, turkey.

Hugh Bradley, Roxbury Steel, Roxbury turkey.

Bro. Dan O'Donnell and Dan Noonan provided the music and entertainment and as usual everyone attending had a good time.

On Saturday, Nov. 11, a large group of brothers journeyed to Boston to witness the Pontifical Mass of the new Archbishop Cushing. This event was by far the most outstanding event ever seen by the local brothers.

The Winchester Council, 210, installation team went to Lowell to install the newly elected officers of Lowell Council, 72. District Deputy George F. Young presided over the ritual. From all reports the local installation team is one of the finest in the state.

Chaplain Fr. James F. Fitzsimons went to Lowell to witness the local installation team in action. He also was one of the guest speakers, speaking on Spain's neutrality in the present war. His talk was well received by the Lowell Brothers.

The Council Activities Committee meets this Friday night to formulate plans for a New Year's party. These parties in the past years have proven very successful, and this year's party will be no exception.

Grand Knight Henry P. Murray wants to remind all members to be present at the next regular meeting on Monday night, Dec. 4. As a large number of new candidates will take their first degree.

Bro. Jerry McCarron now home on furlough looking very fit, attended the meeting on Monday night. Jerry expressed that he had enjoyed following the activities of his own council through their weekly column in the Winchester Star.

The members were treated to a special treat at the meeting on Monday night, when Bro. Dan O'Donnell had Head Coach Henry Knowlton of Winchester High School as his guest. Moving pictures of the much discussed Reading and Winchester football game were shown. The two plays over which much talk has been heard can both be seen very clearly and both showed that Winchester was deprived of two touchdowns.

Next regular meeting on Monday night, Dec. 4.

BOWES PROMOTED

Sgt. Arthur T. Bowes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis C. Bowes of 40 Calumet road, after a year's service in India, was recently promoted to former rank of Corporal. After his graduation from Wilbraham Academy, he enlisted in the Air Forces in October 1942, and has been serving in the India-China wing of the Air Transport Command.

Last March, with other members of his wing, he received the Presidential citation for an exceptionally outstanding performance of duty in the large amounts of vital supplies transported over the North Burma "hump" to China. He has recently been transferred into China to an advanced base as ground crew chief on transport and other types of planes.

WINCHESTER 7—WAKEFIELD 0

Tibaudo Touchdown Overcomes Rugged Foe

Winchester High gave added evidence that its Reading defeat was just one of those things when it won the last Saturday afternoon on Manchester Field from Wakefield, the team that knocked Reading from the unbeaten class the previous week-end, 24-12. A big crowd saw one of the hardest fought and most spirited games played on Manchester Field in many years.

Winchester beat the best team it has faced this season last Saturday, and local fans have every reason to be proud of their boys, both as football players and sportsmen. The visitors play at times was not the sort you like to see employed by neighboring schoolboys, yet the Winchester players did not resort in kind, keeping their heads and toeing strictly to their football in the face of some real provocation to start swinging.

Winchester outrushed Wakefield 159 to 119 yards, making 11 first downs to their 10. Wakefield complet. 1 four of seven passes for 38 yards while Winchester made one of four good for four yards. Winchester drew on 15 yard penalty to 50 yards for Wakefield, Wakefield fumbled twice and Winchester once.

The nearest thing to a score during the first half was when Wakefield punted across the goal line and Tibaudo, believing the ball had hit Haggerty, picked up the leather and managed to get out to his two yard line. Roche's punt was short and Wakefield had a first and ten on the Winchester 39. A 15 yarder for clipping and a 5 yard Winchester offense stalled the drive.

Shortly before half time Wakefield got a first down on the Winchester 11 on the referee ruled interference on a pass play, but Tibaudo intercepted a pass a minute later at the goal to stop that threat.

With the resumption of play after the half the teams exchanged punts and Tibaudo made a corking catch of a Wakefield boost, hanging onto the ball as he was hit hard by Haggerty who was running back also trying to make the catch.

Sam's retaining the ball was a real life-saver for he was downed on the Winchester 28 and there were plenty of Wakefield boys around to pounce on a loose pigskin.

Starting at their 28 the locals went all the way, plugging along with short gains until a 15 yard penalty against Wakefield for roughing gave them a first down at the Wakefield 40.

Tibaudo and Roche made it first down at the 30, Roche picked up seven and then Tibaudo smashed through to reach the 17 for first down. Twice more the driving Tibaudo smashed into the sagging Wakefield frontier to reach the Wakefield 7 and first down as the third quarter ended.

The visitors braced and stopped Tibaudo at center, but Roche slid off his own right tackle to fight his way to the 2 and on the next play Tibaudo drove through inside the Wakefield right tackle for the touchdown as the Winchester stands became a bedlam. Walsh converted with a long low shot that barely cleared the crossbar.

Roberto ran the kickoff back to his 38 but on first down the visitors fumbled and Walsh and Washburn recovered for Winchester. Starting at the 40 Winchester drove to the 22 but lost the ball on downs.

Then Wakefield nearly went to town. With Rich ripping through the Winchester line for several good gains, an eight yard pass and a 16 yard run by Skillings, Wakefield reached the Winchester 40, where Rich got away for a whirling, driving run to the locals' 14.

Here Errico got Skillings for a yard loss and then the visitors fumbled, Johnny Stevenson recovering for Winchester. Winchester lost 15 yards for clipping on the play, putting the ball on the 1 yard line, but Tibaudo and a five yard penalty for offside against Wakefield got it out to the 11. Sam added three and then Roche broke through for 21 yards to take the leather out of danger just before the final whistle. Walsh was injured on the Wakefield drive, sustaining a concussion, and had to be replaced by Mario Buzzotta. The summary:

Winchester: Errico, le; Latham, lt; Bucci, lg; S. Buzzotta, Bergquist, c; Lovejoy, Herlihy, rg; Stevenson, Washburn, rt; Armstrong, re; Walsh, M. Buzzotta, qb; Roche, lhb; Haggerty, rhb; Tibaudo, fb.

SELECTMEN'S NOTES

The Board was much pleased to receive a letter from the Hugh Nawn Co. expressing their appreciation of the help and co-operation given them by the town engineer and the inspector, Howard Ambrosey, on the recent job of laying conduit in south Main street. The town is fortunate in having such an engineer as Mr. Hoobrook in charge of its highways.

Blue Cross

Town employees will be interested in the most recent ruling of the Blue Cross regarding new memberships, which is that new employees may join quarterly from July, that is January, April, July and October; but all other employees who have failed to take advantage of this service since it was installed may join only in July. For further information call the Selectmen's office.

PALMER BEACH NEWS

There were barely enough for a quorum present last week-end, but President Royal P. Teele of the Palmer Beach Horse-shoe Association did his best to have regular matches played on the beach courts, turning out himself and getting Herb or "Garrulous" Gardner over to compete. The Secretary reported late, but for reasons best known to himself refused to play and as none of the other members showed up Mr. Teele and Mr. Gardner played singles with only ringers counting. Mr. Teele finally winning five games to four.

Considering his long layoff and the handicap of getting sand in his mouth and on his "googles" while digging for one of Mr. Gardner's submarine shoes, Mr. Teele did well. He has acquired a khaki-colored fishing hat, complete with colored fly in the band (a strange bit of apparel for one having so strong an aversion to fishing) and with this chapeau and a pair of matching khaki britches eked out with a blue flannel shirt and tan shoes, he presented a natty appearance. Mr. Gardner ran on his usual red and black lumberman's shirt, blue stripped pants and moccasins. Both cast curious eyes at the sporty red and black rig modeled by "Chuck" Huckins who claimed to be fishing in Wedge.

Mr. Gardner had little to say about his own showing, but it is safe to say that his total of fingers was considerably higher after the arrival of the Secretary than it was when Mr. Teele was sailing down by himself.

PROUD OF WINCHESTER THEN AS NOW!

Oct. 26, 1944

To the Editor of the Star:

In yesterday's mail I received from one of father's old cronies the attached clipping from the Winchester Star as published in that paper on Oct. 12, 1900.

Even as residents of the town in that period were proud of Winchester so are most of us today.

Yours very truly,
Franklin J. Lane

Pleased With Winchester

A few days since, it was my pleasure to entertain for a day an old friend who is a representative from one of our neighboring towns. As it was his first visit to Winchester, and he being especially interested in public matters, expressed a desire to see something of our town, its roads, school houses, public buildings and fire department.

After planning how I could best impress him, we set out for the boulevard by way of the new state road (Cambridge street) to Arlington, W. Medford, then over the boulevard to the Fells and thence over some of our town roads, (being careful to select those most likely to give the desired effect.) He thought their condition and method of construction reflected great credit upon both the town officials and Superintendent of Streets.

I told him that I would not take him to all of the school houses in town but would show him the one we happened to be nearest at that time, which, of course, was the new "Central" school house now being erected. It is not necessary here to define the impression which this beautiful building made upon him. Our Town Hall and library naturally came next in order and after a careful survey of these buildings, his exclamation, "the most attractive, most beautiful," left no doubt in my mind that he was convinced of what I had always told him of our town.

He was not, however, quite satisfied until he had seen our fire department, so we visited the engine house in the center. On arriving there, we were most cordially welcomed by Mr. Thomas Quigley who spared no pains to show us all.

It is here that I wish to say a few words of praise to the Winchester Fire Department. Little did I know and, I believe I am safe in saying that but few of our citizens know the almost perfect system with which this department is conducted. Every man stationed at the house knows his duty and it only requires a visit from any citizen to prove that the apparatus, harnesses, sleeping apartments and floors are cared for by men who love their work and are proud of the result of their labors. Those six noble horses which stood there, as if waiting for a chance to show what they could do if given an opportunity, have been most carefully trained and the attention which they receive from their masters proves conclusively the love the men have for them.

The house is a network of electric wires conveying that spark which gives to these men and horses that same inspiration which the cry of "Fire" did to the firemen of 30 years ago.

In fine, all that I saw there that morning so impressed me that I felt it my duty to say these few words to those who have so many times in the past and will undoubtedly in the future, risk their lives in trying to save our property.

As to my friend, well, he will not soon forget his visit here and on arriving home he was to look up Winchester on the map, draw a circle around it in order to point out the exact location of one of the best towns he ever visited.

TO CORRECT MISSTATEMENT

To the Editor of the Star:

In the Star of two weeks ago there appeared a squib including my name in connection with some International Forums to be held in Boston.

I have not met the people mentioned in the squib, nor have I authorized anyone to use my name in connection with these Forums about which I know nothing.

Very truly yours,

FIRST WINCHESTER BOY TO LAND IN FRANCE

To the Editor of the Star:

A recent article in the Star in answer to a statement I was alleged to have made certainly has precipitated a movement which may eventually reveal who actually was the first Winchester boy to land in France on D-Day.

It may be said at this time that somebody misquoted my statement relative to Sgt. Patsy Guarino who was the first Winchester boy I met in France that landed on D-day. Since then I encountered another and learned of others accomplishing the same.

I trust Maj. John D. "Steamer" Hanlon didn't actually get teamed up over the misquote.

Personally I believe Winchester was very well represented on D-day even more than we realize. In fact it gives me considerable personal satisfaction each time I read in the "Star" of some Winchester boy "in there" doing his part.

I feel that a simple statement in a letter to an acquaintance has resulted in a local newspaper controversy which reveals to the home folks how prominent a part Winchester boys have played in the invasion of Hitler's Europe.

Regardless of whether a man came in on D-day or D plus 91, whether he is from Winchester or Kalamazoo—he is equally deserving of honor when the last battle is won and victory is ours.

SOCIAL SECURITY BOARD ISSUES WARNING

Spurred by complaints that unauthorized persons have represented themselves as employees of the Social Security Board in asking for information from citizens, Mr. James T. Phelan, manager of the Cambridge field office of the Board, this week pointed out that all Social Security Board employees carry official identification cards and will be glad to show them upon request.

Mr. Phelan also asked that any instances of misrepresentation be reported to his office at 1218 Mass. avenue, Cambridge. As a result of one of the most recent complaints, he said a Federal Grand Jury in New York indicted a woman investigator for a bus company on a charge of impersonating a Social Security representative. This woman, he said, was reported to hae posed as a Social Security Board employee while seeking information concerning medical treatment and other expenses incurred by the person upon whom she called. She pleaded guilty.

"Sometimes Social Security Board employees find it necessary to make official calls upon people in their homes, but these calls relate only to social security business," Mr. Phelan said. "Our transactions with individuals are confidential and we want to help prevent imposters from obtaining personal information by using the Social Security Board's name. Consequently, any Social Security Board representative will be glad to show credentials whenever asked to do so. We also will welcome reports of instances where a person claims to be a Board representative and refuses to show an identification card."

To the People of this Community

Five billion dollars of the 14 billion dollars our country needs to press the war against our enemies must come from individual investors. That sounds like, and is, a lot of money. Actually success or failure of the Sixth War Loan is up to each individual American.

Every war loan has been oversubscribed because Americans by the millions have shared its responsibility. Americans such as you have recognized the need of extra War Bond purchases over and above their normal payroll savings.

There is no such thing as a little fellow in a War Bond drive. Your War Bond purchases, multiplied by the War Bond purchases of your friends and neighbors, become fighting power which saves lives of Americans on the battlefronts and brings us nearer our common objective.

THE EDITOR.

Don't put your pen down yet. Now figure this out: How much will you have to save every month in order to have the total indicated above in the desired year?

Don't forget that every $18.75 you put in War Bonds today will be worth $25 in ten years. That means your money will accumulate faster. Don't forget too that the money you save in your bank will be increased by the interest it will earn. That speeds the saving process, too.

Then if you will plan to cut down on unnecessary expenditures today, when prices are high, your extra dollars will buy more later on. That helps to build up the savings total.

All this arithmetic represents a type of planning which your government earnestly asks you to follow. If all of us will plan our spending and plan our saving we will help in winning the war and help to assure a prosperous peace.

Help the nation's efforts to keep your living costs DOWN, the buying power of your dollar UP.

WE MUST HAVE YOUR HELP TO WIN ON THE WINCHESTER FRONT

This Sixth War Loan is different. It is directed not at banks or institutions but at the American family and individual citizen. It is directed at YOU. It says plainly that we here in Winchester have no right to be proud unless every family buys Bonds to the limit of its capacity. Forego other spending. Dig deep into your pocket. Let your Christmas presents be Bonds!

The Winchester Drive is from Nov. 24 to Dec. 16. During that time a volunteer solicitor will come to your door for your Bond application. Be prepared to do your part. Your postman will bring you, during the next day or two, a booklet explaining more about the Sixth War Loan.

PACK 6 NEWS

There was a big turnout of Pack 6 Cubs on Nov. 3 at the Unitarian Church, 76 boys were present with many of the parents.

While Cubmaster Rev. Paul Chapman talked to the parents regarding Christmas toys for the Baldwinville Hospital children, and the prospects of a new den for the Lincoln School boys; the assistant Cubmaster Robert Carruthers and Lt. H. Dellicker of the State Guard drilled the boys in the gymnasium. Both parents and boys later joined in, singing led by Mr. Coon, assistant Cubmaster.

The following boys received rewards:

Bobcats: Ted Wallace, Earl Carrier, Jack Donovan.

Wolf: Earl Carrier

Gold Arrow: Langdon Smith

Silver Arrows: Peter Sharon, Robert Trumbull Scott Cunningham, Tom Sawyer, Decky Dellicker, Dudley Samoiloff.

Bear: Dick Fernandez

Gold Arrow: Ed Hammond Peter Johnson, Yost Michelson

Silver Arrow: Ed Hammond

Three Years: Goddard, Webster

Two Years: Pierce, Mason, Hussey, Mills, Ed Hammond, Stowell and Symmes

One Year: Dudley Samoiloff, Ed, Dick and Tom Drohan, Dick Fernandez, Peter Johnson, Decky Dellicker, Prescott Keyes, Jack Garvey, Hiram Moore.

Pack 6 wishes to thank the Winchester School Committee for allowing the use of the Lincoln School for a newly established den. Mrs. MacNeill and Mrs. Meckell will open Den 10 in the Lincoln School. Mrs. Woodward and Mrs. Jones are opening Den 9 in the Ledyard road area.

Pack 6 committees efforts are greatly appreciated in making it possible for more boys to enter Cub Scouting in Pack 6.

Fourteen new boys were admitted at the November meeting. The Pack has boys from all Winchester public schools, from St. Mary's School and Den Chiefs from a number of Scout Troops.

With the two new dens formed last week Pack 6 now has 10 dens meeting in various parts of the town. New Den Chiefs are Clinton Mason, Richard Joslin and Daniel Boggs.

CHURCH SERVICES

SUNDAY, NOV. 26, 1944

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST, WINCHESTER

Sunday services 11 a. m.

Wednesday testimonial meeting 8 p. m.

Reading Room, 6 Winchester Terrace (off Thompson street). Open daily except Sundays and holidays from 11 a. m. to 4 p. m.

In the multitude of dreams and many words there are also divers vanities; but fear thou God. This passage from the Bible, Ecclesiastes 5:7, furnishes the Golden Text to be read in the Lesson-Sermon which will be from the Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, and comprises the branches on Sunday, Nov. 26.

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be "Unreal and Modern Is remarkably clear Materialism and Hypocrisy, Detrimental and unbiblical as the Bible terms is, Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour. Whom resist steadfast in the faith knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world." Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness." II Peter 3:17).

The following passages from the Christian Science textbook, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, by Mary Baker Eddy, will also be included in the Lesson-Sermon. Yet most contrary shall thoughts in the first instance, or shall we suffer you in the second. Evil thoughts and sins reach no farther and do no more harm than one's belief permits. The subtle darts and malicious purposes cannot go forth, like wandering pollen, from one human mind to another, finding unexpected lodgment, if error and truth build a strong defence against it.

GOD'S HORIZON

Special Sermon by Dr. Chidley

At the First Congregational Church Sunday morning, at 10.45, Dr. Chidley will preach a special sermon, on God's Horizon, in which he will give a world picture of Christianity at work, especially in its effect on the lives of former cannibals and savages in the Pacific Islands, and what this has meant in the treatment of our soldiers who have recently fallen into the hands of these natives.

This is the first of two sermons dealing with the Every Member Canvass of the church for its 1945 budget, which will be held Sunday, Dec. 3. At this service, Mr. Gilbert H. Hood, Jr., chairman of the Budget Committee will also speak briefly in regard to the canvass.

The second sermon, a week from Sunday, will be on The Lost Secret of Power. A choir of 100 voices will sing at this service.

WYMAN SCHOOL FATHER'S NIGHT

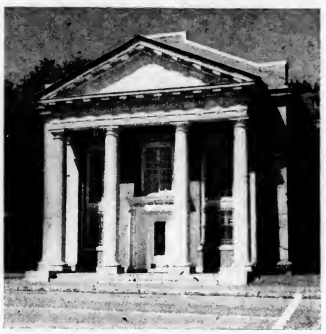

The annual Father's Night meeting of the Wyman School Mother's Association was held Monday evening, Nov. 20 in the auditorium of the Wyman School. Coffee was served from 7:30 in the kindergarten room and at 8:15 Mrs. George Marks, president of the Mother's Association introduced the speaker of the evening, Dr. John Guy Fowlkes, head of the recent school survey.

The prospect of hearing Dr. Fowlkes brought a record attendance of parents who filled the hall and overflowed into the kindergarten room. The speaker gave a comprehensive and outspoken report of the findings of the survey group of 12 workers who have made an exhaustive study of the conditions in the Winchester schools over a four months period. These findings and the 42 recommendations made as a result will be made available shortly in printed form. The audience expressed keen enthusiasm for Dr. Fowlkes frankness and zeal and there was a long and interesting question period at the end of his report.

At the close of the evening parents had the opportunity of visiting the children's classrooms where they could see samples of their work and meet and talk with the teachers.

Mr. and Mrs. Jose Trias-Monge of San Juan, Puerto Rico are the parents of a son, born Nov. 14, Mrs. Trias-Monge is the former Jane Grimes of 21 Stone avenue. Her husband is a member of the faculty of the University of San Juan.

75TH ANNIVERSARY

The Western Electric Company which during the war has become this country's largest producer of communications and electronic equipment for the Armed Forces, is observing its 75th anniversary this month. A sidelight on the company's age is that it is older than the telephone business in which it plays a major part as the manufacturing and supply unit of the Bell Telephone System.

Participating in a variety of events marking the anniversary are nearly 100,000 employees throughout the country, including those in the company's manufacturing plant in Haverhill, and in its regional distributing houses in Watertown, and New Haven, Conn. A feature of numerous employee gatherings, one of which will be in Boston on Nov. 25, will be preview showings of a motion picture dramatizing the company's history.

The film in tracing the company's growth from its founding in 1869 in Cleveland, Ohio, by Enos M. Barton and Elisha Gray to its present day stature, reveals why the Western Electric ante-dates the telephone business, which, it is recalled, made its world debut in Boston in 1877. In that year the company, then located in Chicago and known as the Western Electric Manufacturing Company, was noted for its production of fine telegraph instruments and other kinds of electrical apparatus. It was a natural step in the company's evolution to take on the manufacture of telephone equipment. A few years later, in 1882, the Company became an integral part of the Bell System, adopting then the name it now carries.

The New England Telephone and Telegraph Company which is itself somewhat of an offshoot in the nationwide group of Bell System companies, having been founded in 1883, is one of Western Electric's many well wishers on its anniversary. With memories of abundant supplies the Western Electric rushed with unusual speed to the New England area after the hurricanes of 1938 and 1944, and in many another lesser emergency, the New England Company has a particularly warm regard for its Bell System associate, according to Mr. D. J. Murphy, local telephone manager.

"The Western Electric," Mr. Murphy said, "is in somewhat the same position as the lineman on a football team who often does heroic work but seldom reaps the glory. I say this, because very often when we in the telephone company win praise for recovering quickly from a devastating blow to our lines it is the Western Electric Company back of us, supplying all the equipment and tools we use, that deserves a large share of whatever credit is due for a job well done. We simply couldn't make the touchdowns if Western Electric were not also in the game clearing the field for us. What it does for us in operating a telephone system is outshone only by what it is doing today in furnishing an abundance of telephone and radio communications equipment to the Army and the Navy."

SMACKS SEND BOXES

"SMACKS", as they are known to Service Men's Aid Committee of the First Congregational Church and they really are doing a great job keeping up the morale of the 200 or so service men and women of that parish on duty in this country and at the far-flung corners of the earth.

Right now these energetic women, headed by Mrs. Howard J. Chilly, are busy and have been, getting out their Christmas boxes. One hundred and twenty were sent overseas by Oct. 10 and 180 more are now being sent out in this country.

The whole job is done by specialized groups, who gather the contents of the boxes, wrap the items, prepare the boxes for packing, pack them on an assembly line and finally seal and address the finished package. By now the women have become really efficient and the boxes are something to see just before they are closed up.

In them are Jeep Boards, clever little game boards that strap to the knee; crackers, deviled ham, bags for personal belongings to go in barracks bags, address or autograph books, cigarettes, self-sealing writing pads, Planter's peanuts, razor-blades, bullion cubes, pound and a half slabs of fudge in tin, fruit cake, cigarette lighters, Jordan almonds, toffee, life savers and clever candy "dog-tags" signed by the "SMACKS."

There is also a Christmas greeting-card and for the 12 girls of the church in the service there are also lipstick, face powder and a lawn hanky in a small bag.

The Church's Christmas card to its service members is a cleverly illustrated map of the town done by Ernest Dudley Chase, and already plans are afoot for a Valentine that is sure to be most appreciated.

REPEATED SONATA HOURS

Mr. Joshua Phippen, pianist, who recently concluded a series of Wednesday afternoon Sonata hours at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Rice on the Parkway, repeated the series in the evening so that more men could have an opportunity to attend.

The first and fourth in the evening series were held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Wills on Wolcott terrace, the second at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William S. Phippen, also on the Parkway. The meetings, in addition to their musical worth proved very pleasant social occasions.

FIRST BAPTIST HARVEST HOME SUPPER

Nearly 200 members of the church and congregation gathered around the attractive tables in the Social Hall of the First Baptist Church, Tuesday evening, November 14th, in an all church Harvest Home Supper and Planning Conference. The Philathea Class of the Church served a bountiful supper-cooked supper which was thoroughly enjoyed.

After the supper the Planning Conference was presided over by Mr. Frederick S. Emery, Church Moderator, and Mr. Davenport Davis, Chairman of the Executive Board. The following committees and organization of the church reported and briefly outlined their individual programs: Board of Christian Education, Miss Doris Richardson; Church School Superintendent, Mr. Frederick Parks; Missionary, Rev. Bailey; Finance, Mr. Martin Swanson; Treasurer Mr. Stanley Kinsley; Women's League, Mrs. Frank McCullough; Thrift Shop Mrs. E. H. Garrison; Property, Mr. George Morse; Music, Mr. C. Elliott Ward; Social, Mrs. E. H. Garrison; C. E. H. Mrs. Vernon Jones; Philathea, Mrs. Davenport Davis; Boy Scouts, Mr. J. W. Hayden; Men's Brotherhood, Mr. Malcolm C. Wilson; Young People's Society, Miss Barbara Barrett. Chit and Chat, Miss Joan Bide; Fi Ba Taos, Dr. Cecil W. Pride. Junior High Christian Endeavor, Mr. Franklin Fynn; World Wide Guild, Mrs. Otis Leary; Deaconate Board, Mr. Lewis M. Foster. The programs presented showed a very busy and interesting year ahead.

At the close of the reports Mr. Lewis M. Foster, Chairman of the Deaconate Board, in an enthusiastic summary, stated that the Church stands firmly behind the program and will support it 100%.

Rev. Walter Lee Bailey, Minister, gave a forceful and inspiring talk on the church goals, giving as the key word "Participation". This key word was centered on a large banner with the accompanying biblical injunctions "Come Unto Me," "Follow Me," "Abide in Me" and "Go, Work."

INFANT SAVIOUR GUILD

The annual bazaar will take place in Lyceum Hall on Tuesday, Dec. 12, starting at 10 a.m. Many attractive tables are planned. Mrs. Carr is in charge of the apron table has 100 aprons made. Mrs. Logue who has Little Bo-Beep table, has made many beautiful little pinafores ranging in sizes from 2 to 12. The Sandwich Bar under supervision of the Margarets and Marys of the Guild, will serve luncheon. Already turkeys and hams have been donated by various members, so there will be plenty of generous sized homemade sandwiches. Afternoon tea will be served and fortune telling will be told by cards.

There will also be a country auction. The Boston bazaar will take place on Dec. 7 at Copley Plaza Hotel. There will be a Winchester table on that day conducted by Mrs. Hinman, assisted by members of the board.

At our next meeting on Nov. 28, Mrs. Virgil Ghirardini will give a talk on flower arrangement. Members who still have late fall flowers or evergreens are invited to bring specimens for display.

GEORGE WASHINGTON SCHOOL NOTES

The food sale and turkey raffle sponsored by the Mother's Association and under the able chairmanship of Mrs. Benjamin Marshall was a great success.

The three turkeys were won by Mrs. Jessie L. Bemis, 201 Montvale avenue, Woburn; Mrs. R. J. Meskell, 8 Bridge street, Winchester and Mrs. Bruce Johnson 18 Lakeview road, Winchester.

On Monday evening, Nov. 27, at 8 o'clock in the assembly hall of the George Washington School, parents will be given an opportunity to hear Dr. John Guy Fowlkes report on his recently completed survey of the Winchester schools. Fathers and mothers are urged to attend this meeting on a subject so vital to all of us. Refreshments will be served.

It will be appreciated if the purchasers of pies at the food sale will return the tin pie plates at this meeting.

SPECIAL FOR SERVICEMEN AT EPIPHANY

He never remember a Christmas morning when there hasn't been some gay-colored package to open. But this year 5000 boys in good old uniform, the kind a soldier gets when he is going on a long, long trip, face an absolutely black Christmas morning unless Winchester and other near Boston towns find and wrap 5000 cheerful little Christmas packages by Dec. 1. The home folks from Oklahoma and Indiana and Tennessee may have sent plenty of packages and some day, somewhere each of these combat-bound soldiers will get them. But about 5000 of them will be near there in that unavoidable period when there is no mail.

Something on shipboard or in embarkation camp will be better than just nothing. And so women mean to supply those 5000 packages.

Epiphany League women want the makings and the wrappings for at least 75 packages on Nov. 21. Many will pool their gifts, just bringing such things as air mail stamps or stationery, lead pencils, playing cards, razor blades, hard candy, some of those light little books, which range in substance from a who-dun-it? to a collection of poems, anything your own lad would use and like. Those who wish may give money for committee purchases. Some women may like to make up a whole package. To them the Red Cross suggests that the value of the articles should be about 75 cents.

League members are reminded to bring also Christmas wrappings. The parish hall will look on Nov. 21 like an old-fashioned day before Christmas.

EPIPHANY SERVICE LEAGUE

At 1.15, Tuesday, November 21, immediately after luncheon, women of the Epiphany Church Service League heard the first speaker of their league year. He was the Rev. Victor Satthianadhan, a native of Ceylon, on his way home to serve the Christian Church on that island, after three years' study in Toronto, Canada.

He was the first representative of Ceylon that the league has had an opportunity to hear, and Epiphany is fortunate in having a portion of his very brief stay in the East as it is. They owe it to the hard work of Miss Ethel Davis and Mrs. Ethel Roberts keep for us such visitors and good speakers as the Parish horizon.

In Mr. Satthianadhan the League met an example of a policy which the British Church is following now in the use of money given to build the universal church, free from any imperialistic assumption that there are nations and colors who will always lead and teach and other peoples and colors who must always be led and be taught. Instead of building some pompous and devoted Christian from another land to go in from the outside of the Anglican Church, this young Ceylonese clergyman was given the period of special study and will return to his own people, whom he knows and understands. To people here he is giving a lucid and appealing interpretation of the Ceylonese Christian mind.

This visitor has an important interdenominational and international affiliation. He is a traveling secretary of the Student Volunteer Movement, which for half a century has been developing leaders who saw clearly that this little planet must become one world.

Mrs. Harold Blanchard presided at the League meeting and introduced the speaker.

SENIOR FORUM HAS RUSSIAN NIGHT

The Senior Forum high school students of the First Congregational Church climaxed their study of Russia with a Russian night on Sunday evening at 5:30.

"The Russian Front," a motion picture taken by the Russian army air force was shown to the group. Recordings of Russian music were played on the juke box, during the dinner which was served by Marion Horwood, Teddy Greene and their committe. Mrs. Eleanor Lane of Weston sang Russian Folk Songs in costume and in the language of Russia.

Each member who went to the dinner was asked to bring a gift for a kit, and the special service group will pack the kits.

It is anticipated that the Forum will pack six Russian kits on Sunday evening. These will be given to the Winchester Russian Relief Committee.

The evening closed with a brief candlelight vesper service in the chapel. The service, "One Fellowship" was led by Patsy Eberle.

There will be a board meeting of the Florence Crittenton League at the home of Mrs. Walter W. Winship on Friday, Dec. 1 at 10 o'clock.

WYMAN 6TH GRADE DANCING SCHOOL

The third in the series of the 6th Grade Dancing School classes was held Monday of this week at Wyman School Hall. Again Russell Curry, of the Curry School of Dancing in Arlington, was chosen as the instructor in ballroom dancing, this being his fifth consecutive year.

All but six pupils of the Wyman sixth graders are enrolled in this year's class, which speaks well for the approval and pleasure experienced by both parents and pupils.

At each meeting of the class, two mothers act as hostesses, receiving the pupils individually. Hostesses so far this year have been Mrs. Talma T. Greenwood, Mrs. Edward Zinn, Mrs. Malcolm Burr, Mrs. Marshall R. Pibl, Mrs. Rangar Brandt and Mrs. Kenneth Lamprey. The committee in charge of these classes at Wyman School include Mrs. Talma T. Greenwood, Mrs. Malcolm Burr and Mrs. Marshall R. Pibl.

SEA PAINTINGS AT LIBRARY

Lovers of the sea should not miss the exhibition of marines by Arthur Perrett which the Winchester Art Association is showing this month at the Library art gallery.

Mr. Perrett's evident love for the sea and understanding of it shows clearly in his canvases. He is able to portray convincingly the surge and sweep of big green waves, the depth of blue water far from shore, the creaming foam and spume of breaking waves, the hiss of water rushing through an row channels in the rocks and to choose the proper settings of ledges, shore and sky for his studies of the sea.

Outstanding in the local show are two large studies, "The Atlantic" and "The White Roller". The first shows a big blue-green white-capped wave full of motion, heaving along under a cloud effectively painted sky that lightens along the water-line from a sullen blue-gray.

"The White Roller" is a huge emerald green white-green wave, painted against a suggestion of blue water, and about to break into a churning narrow channel between rugged black brown rocks. The study is cleverly lighted from the side and the blue-green sky most effective.

"Clouds Over the Sea" has an unusually fine sky treatment, the cloud being painted with great delicacy above rugged water with a deeper blue sky above. "She Crossed On Bow" is a sombre study of a small boat high on a huge blue-green wave under cloudy skies, a picture that carries with it a world of suggestion.

"Straitmouth Point" is one of the more tranquil of the Perrett pictures with its long, light-horse crowned spit of land jutting into deep blue water framed with autumn foliage. "Surf, South Shore" shows a big oncoming curler dashing against brown rocks with deep blue water off-shore. "High Tide, No. 2", is full of action with its heaving breakers throwing their spume and froth high over jagged rocks.

In addition to his larger studies Mr. Perrett shows a number of small pictures, all marines with the exception of "Coast Guard Trail", an interesting study of some rugged terrain away from the water-line.

The show will remain at the gallery through November and is open to the public.

4-H ACHIEVEMENT WEEK

This week is National 4-H Achievement Week, set apart to acquaint our people with the objects and scope of this national youth movement under the direction of the United States Department of Agriculture.

The organization of 4-H Clubs started in 1914 and has spread extensively all over the country particularly in rural communities.

The object of the movement is to develop interest and skill in good living and citizenship and in any of a wide lot of subjects including foods, clothing, handicraft, home furnishing, canning, gardening, etc.

In Middlesex County alone 1,200 boys and girls are enrolled in food producing projects. Four hundred of these members put up 222,000 jars of food products.

The 4H Club in Winchester is a small group of some 20 members who had victory gardens and did canning of fruits and vegetables. They made a very creditable showing at the Winchester Town Hall last September.

They hold two evening meetings each month in the conference room at the Winchester Public Library.

They are just starting the study of trees for their next series of meetings.

CANTEEN NEWS

Director Appointed

Rolling along in its third month of activity, the Red and Black Canteen is now taking definite steps to make this club for the high school students even more interesting.

The Canteen Advisory Committee announces the employment of Mr. Roland Magee as Canteen Director. Mr. Magee has had a great deal of experience with young people, having been a school teacher, a social service worker in charge of co-educational programs of all kind- and a camp director.

The employment of Mr. Magee was made possible by the Civilian Defense Committee. Money raised by various salvage drives in Winchester will be used for Mr. Magee's salary. Mr. Magee is now living in Winchester.

Tomorrow night, Nov. 18, will be Talent Night. Headed by Roy Monson, a committee has organized an informal type of Major Bowes amateurs.

Other events including a Night of Magic are now being planned.

Parents or other interested citizens who would like to see just what the Canteen is like, are invited to drop in any Friday or Saturday night, but should know in advance that such visits are limited to five minutes.

LINCOLN SCHOOL NOTES

Father's Night, Tuesday, Nov. 28. Parents are invited to visit the class rooms between 7 and 8.

HIGH WIND AND RAIN

Yesterday's Storm Wrecked House and Wires

Yesterday's violent rain and wind storm did some damage about town, but comparable with the Cape and other places Winchester escaped lightly. The day opened with one of the heaviest rains of the whole year. Whipped by high winds, the rain found every crack and cranny, and morning pedestrians were wet to the skin. Many automobiles were also put out of condition by the driving rain.

With the clearing of the storm in the afternoon the wind reached almost hurricane proportions. It was at this time, shortly before 4 o'clock, that one of the giant elm trees at Symmes Corner went down, wrecking the home of Amory Prentiss, a Medford police officer. This house, listed at 1a Bacon street and 222 Main street, was seriously damaged, the tree crashing through the roof and side of the dwelling. Electric feed wires taken down with the tree, cut service for a portion of the town.

Another tree branch on Grove street also carried wires down with it, further cutting out the electric circuit. Wires on Yale street were also down.

The schools were closed during the morning sessions, the no-school signal being sounded, and in the afternoon, while no signal was sounded, the pupils who attended school found the buildings closed.

FIVE PROVISIONAL MEMBERS PRESENTED AT EN KA TEA

Mrs. Alvin M. Litchfield is opening her home at 8 Niles lane today, for a tea given by the En Ka Society to meet the newly elected provisional members: Mrs. Charles W. Lovejoy, Mrs. John G. Penniman, Mrs. Irving W. Plitt, Mrs. Dana D. Sawyer and Mrs. Philip J. Woodward.

Mrs. A. Allen Kimball, the president, will welcome and introduce them to the members of her board; Mrs. Murray S. Moore, Mrs. E. Ober Pride, Mrs. James R. Doty, Mrs. Forrest L. Pitman, Miss Gretchen Stone, Mrs. Roland R. Carter, Mrs. Alvin M. Litchfield, Mrs. J. Warren Shoemaker, Mrs. Fred E. Ritchie, Mrs. Francis Booth, Mrs. W. Campbell Ross, Mrs. Harold F. At 4 o'clock the members of the Society will greet the new provisionals and tea will be served by Mrs. J. Warren Shoemaker and her committee; Mrs. Frank C. d'Elseaux, Miss Eleanor Dow, Mrs. George A. Marks, and Mrs. Francis Millett. Mrs. Guy B. Howe and Mrs. Harold F. Meyer, past preidents and Mrs. Forrest L. Pitman, chairman of the 1945 Street Fair, will pour

RECEIVES COMMISSION

On Nov. 3, "somewhere in the Philippine Islands", Thomas I. Harkins of Eaton street received his commission as lieutenant in the U. S. Army Signal Corps.

During the Marshall Islands campaign, Lt. Harkins recevied a citation for serving on a secret mission of war, on the U. S. S. Rocky Mount during bombardment and assault landings on Kwajalein atoll.

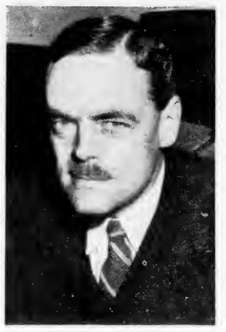

Based on concentrated and successful work during this campaign, Lt. Harkins was recommended for Officers Candidate School. His commanding officer however, wished to use his experience in their own theater without delay and after passing various examinations successfully, he received his lieutenants bar of gold, without attending officers candidate school.

Before entering the service, Lt. Harkins was a practising attorney with law offices at Beacon Hill, Boston.

GEORGE W. HAYDEN RESIGNS

Mr. George W. Hayden, clerk of the Selective Service Board for the past two years, severed his connection with that body yesterday. Mr. Hayden tendered his resignation some time ago, but agreed to continue with the board up to now. He is planning to leave Winchester in the near future and will make his home probably in New Hampshire.

The wedding of Ensign B. Thomas Preston and Miss Rose Crowley will take place on Dec. 6. Ens. Preston will be best man at the wedding of Miss Bonney Wilson and Cpl. Richard Hakanson this Saturday evening

CARLTON F. HEARD

WINCHESTER MAN PROMOTED BY BOSTON AND MAINE

Promotion of Carlton F. Heard of 10 Summit avenue to be assistant to the vice president—traffic, of the Boston and Maine Railroad and the Maine Central Railroad was announced today. He will assume his new duties immediately.

Mr. Heard, who was graduated from Amherst in 1921 and from the Harvard Engineering School in 1923, has been with the Boston and Maine since Sept. 10, 1923. In April 1928, he was appointed assistant general freight agent and on Nov. 2, 1942 was named general freight agent.

His headquarters in his new position will be in Boston, but he will also maintain an office at the Maine Central's headquarters in Portland, Me.

CUNNINGHAM NOW CAPTAIN

1st Lt. Clifford Haynor Cunningham, son of Mrs. Ruth Cunningham and the late Clifford Haynor Cunningham formerly of 3 Manchester road has been advanced to the rank of captain in the 414th Arm'd Field Artillery Battalion, 20th Arm'd Division, Camp Campbell, Kentucky.

Capt. Cunningham attended Winchester High School, Kents Hill Preparatory School in Maine and Duke University. He entered the service four years ago and graduated from Officers Candidate School, Fort Sill, Oklahoma in August 1942 as a second lieutenant. In March 1943, he was advanced to 1st lieutenant while serving with the 12th Arm'd Division. He graduated from Officers Survey course Fort Sill, in January, 1944. Capt. Cunningham has just returned to Camp Campbell after graduating from Army Intelligence School, Camp Ritchie, Maryland.

Capt. Cunningham married the former Betty Beam of Waban in March 1942.

WINCHESTER SKIPPER COMMANDED PRINCETON

The valiant but futile fight to save the USS. Princeton on Oct. 24 last after she was set afire by a Japanese bomb was related at a recent press conference by Capt. William H. Buracker, skipper of the light carrier which crammed a brilliant action record into her short life of 21 months.

Capt. Buracker, whose wife and two daughters live at 94 Church street, said that at first he didn't believe the damage was serious, but that half an hour after the bomb hit, torpedoes started exploding in the Princeton's hangar. The fire built up quickly among the gas-loaded planes.

MISS COLLINS ON DUTY AT MASS. GENERAL HOSPITAL

Miss Rita Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Collins of Main street received her R. N. this past week and has returned to duty at Mass. General Hospital after spending a few days in New York with a former classmate, Miss Martha Addison of Gramercy Park, N. Y. While there she attended Army-Notre Dame football game and also Thanksgiving at West Point as guest of Cadet Edward F. Crowley. Cadet Crowley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Crowley of Cambridge.

83RD BIRTHDAY TODAY

MISS AMY ROBINSON

Miss Amy Robinson, aged 71 years, and a resident of this town since 1900, died yesterday at the Winchester Hospital where she was taken three days previous. She made her home at 32 Wildwood street with her sister, Miss Alida Robinson.

Miss Robinson was born in Beaufort, N. C. and for many years was secretary for Dr. Robert Lovett of Boston. Upon his death she took a similar position with Dr. Frank R. Ober, also of Boston, retiring in 1940.

She was a member of the Unitarian Church and a member of the Zonta Club of Boston since its inception in 1904.

Besides her sister she is survived by two nephews and a niece, Lt. John B. Robinson, 2d Lt. Nancy Robinson, U. S. Signal Corps and Staff Sgt. Edward S. Robinson, now in Montana.

The funeral services are to be held this Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence and will be conducted by Rev. Paul H. Chapman, minister of the Unitarian Church. The interment will be in Wildwood Cemetery.

MRS. FLORENCE E. BOONE

Mrs. Florence Evelyn Boone, widow of the late Allan E. Boone, Winchester architect, died at her home, 31 Church street, on Wednesday evening, Nov. 29, after a short illness.

Mrs. Boone was born in New York City Sept. 5, 1866, the daughter of Francis E. and Rachel Bray Reon. During her early life she lived in Red Bank and the Phalaux, New Jersey.

Since her marriage on Oct. 26, 1898, Mrs. Boone had been a resident of this town, taking an active interest in its development and having many friends here.

She leaves a son, Philip, just returned from active duty in the Navy and a grandson, Robert Harvey Boone.

Funeral services are being held this afternoon, Dec. 1, at the Church of the Epiphany, with the Rev. Dwight W. Hadley, rector, officiating. Interment will be in Cypress Cemetery, Old Saybrook, Conn.

MARY E. HODGE

Mary E. Hodge of 5 Sentry Hill place, Boston, a former resident of Woburn and Winchester, passed away on Friday, Nov. 17 at the age of 73.

Miss Hodge was born in Woburn, the daughter of the late John E. and Mary (Rooney) Hodge. She was a sister of Mrs. Alice V. Keehn of 23 Hancock street, Winchester, who survives her.

The funeral was held Nov. 20 at 9.15 a. m. from the Moffett and McMullen Funeral Home, Winchester. High mass of requiem was celebrated at St. Mary's Church at 10 o'clock. Interment followed at Calvary Cemetery.

WILLIAM M. VAYO REPORTED MISSING

William M. Vayo has been reported missing in action over Germany since Nov. 4. He was attached to a bomber group and failed to return from a mission on this date and has been listed as missing by the War Department. He is the son of William H. Vayo of Myrtle street and before his enlistment had been employed at Beggs and Cobb and also by the Town of Winchester Highway Department.

SELECTMEN'S NOTES

The following jurors were drawn: George A. McFadden, 20 Ardley road, first session Superior Criminal Court.

Francis H. McCall, 8 Alben street, first session Superior Civil Court.

Frederick W. Cole, 196 M. V. Pkwy. second session Superior Civil Court.

All to report at Cambridge on Jan. 2, 1945 and John J. Keefe, 27 Allen road, for the Grand Jury.

Budgets for 1945 are well under way, many having been approved and sent to the Finance Committee.

Some thought has already been given to the kind of celebration to be held at the conclusion of peace with Germany. In all probability it will be a religious observance in the nature of a thanksgiving service for what has been accomplished to date.

John M. McKenzie of Banes, Cuba, is visiting with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Edward McKenzie of Hemingway street. Mr. McKenzie is here in the North on business for the United Fruit Company.

CHILDREN'S CHOIR TO SING SUNDAY

At First Congregational Church

Mr. J. Albert Wilson, Organist and Choirmaster of the First Congregational Church, has done an unusual piece of work in the training of the Junior Choir of 75 voices. These children sing at the morning service once a month, always to the delight of everyone in the congregation.

Aside from the service they render the church in this way, they are being trained in musical appreciation and the correct use of their voices in tone production. Mr. Wilson has had experience with boy's choirs in Episcopal Churches, which has made him unusually successful in his work with this Junior Choir.

BOUSQUET—SHEA

Miss Catherine A. Shea, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Shea of 10 Glenwood avenue and 1st class Petty Officer Lucien Bousquet, USCG, son of Mrs. Samuel Bousquet of Lewiston, Me., and the late Mr. Bousquet, were married on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 23 at the Immaculate Conception Church, the Rev. James F. Fitzsimons, pastor, officiated at a 3 o'clock ceremony.

Miss Shea and her sister, Miss Frances M. Shea, as maid of honor and Mr. Emil Bousquet of Lewiston, Me., was his brother's best man. The ushers were Mr. Harold J. Bishop of Medford and Mr. Joseph P. Gill of Woburn.

Miss Shea was unusually lovely wearing a gown of satin and chantilly lace. The bodice of her dress was of satin designed with a sweetheart neckline, long sleeves and her full skirt of lace formed into a train. Her fingertip veil of misty tulle fell from a tiara of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white snapdragons and white pom poms.

The maid of honor's gown was of pink moire designed with a fitted bodice and full skirt. Her colonial headdress was of the same material and she carried an old fashioned bouquet.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Little Shaker House on Thompson street. They will make their home in Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

The bride was graduated from the Winchester High School and was employed at the local telephone exchange.

The groom attended the Sacred Heart Academy and was graduated from the Robert's Business College in Lewiston, Me.

HARSTEDT—REEVES

Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Reeves announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Elinor May Reeves to Lt. George Worthington Harstedt, Jr., USMC, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Harstedt of Hewlett Harbor, New York.

The wedding took place in the Marine Chapel, Quantico, Va., on Nov. 18 at 6:30 and was followed by a wedding supper at the Hotel Hamilton, Washington, D. C. for members of the immediate families.

The bride, who attended by her sister, Miss Carolyn Reeves, wore a teal blue with beaver trim, and a corsage of orchids. Mr. Stephen Harstedt was his brother's best man.

Miss Reeves attended the Walnut Hill School, Smith College and Garland School. Lt. Harstedt was graduated from St. Paul's School, Garden City, Long Island and attended Amherst College, leaving to join the Marine Corps. After serving six months in the Pacific he was returned to this country to attend officers school, receiving his commission at Quantico.

FORMER WINCHESTER GIRL ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. John Hart Taylor of Melrose, formerly of Winchester announced the engagement of their daughter, Patricia, at a tea given in their home Saturday, Nov. 25 to Pfc. Donald G. Buckpitt, son of Mrs. Luella Buckpitt of Branson, Mich., and the late Fred W. Buckpitt.

Miss Taylor, graduated from Melrose High School, in the class of 1944 and is now employed by the Pilgrim Trust Co. of Boston.

Mr. Buckpitt graduated from Melrose High School in the class of 1942 and attended Severn Academy in Maryland where he was a member of the Alpha Delta Chi fraternity and is now with the American Infantry in Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Smith are at Bradenton, Fla., for the winter.

WINCHESTER PUBLIC SCHOOL SURVEY REPORT SUBMITTED TO CITIZENS

Summay of Text of School Findings

Dr. John Guy Fowlkes, Professor of Education at the University of Wisconsin, has submitted to the Winchester School Committee and to citizens of the town his report on the survey of the public schools made under his direction by a group of educational experts during September and October. The report recommends important changes in curricula, administration, organization and school plant.

At a series of meetings, which started last week and continued for ten days, Professor Fowlkes discussed his findings with town officials and groups of parents.

A part of Professor Fowlkes' summary of his findings and a digest of his recommendations follow.

Summary and Conclusions

The Community

Winchester is a community which rather sharply symbolizes a relatively large number of suburban centers throughout the country and particularly throughout New England and the East. The absence of any considerable industrial activity in the town indicates that no sharp change in the population may be expected in the near future.

The School Population

As would be expected from the parentage of Winchester the children of the public schools are considerably superior to the school population usually found in the average community of this size throughout the United States.

On the basis of the Pintner-Cunningham Primary Intelligence Test approximately three-fourths of the first graders of Winchester have intelligence quotients of 100 or more. Further evidence of the superior quality of the Winchester children is found in the facts that approximately 62 percent of the fourth grade children have intelligence quotients of 100 or more, that 89 percent of the seventh grade children have intelligence quotients above the average, that 99 percent of the tenth grade pupils have mental maturity above the average and all of the twelfth grade pupils have mental maturity above the average.

The social characteristics of the student population of the Winchester schools are conspicuously pleasing and gratifying. Throughout the system the children seemed natural, active and at the same time courteous and thoughtful. Lines of social distinction which are emphasized rather severely by a considerable portion of the adults of Winchester seemed to be rather generally ignored by the children. This observation is particularly true in connection with the selection of student representatives of various classes and organizations in the junior and senior high schools.

The vocational interests of the student body are diverse and cover a much wider range than is reflected in the curricula of the junior and senior high schools.

More than 40 percent of the children in the Winchester schools are of the first generation of residents in this country. Furthermore, during the past 10 years there has been a considerable influx of foreign born or first generation families into Winchester.

Educational Needs

It is clear that the educational needs of Winchester are highly varied and complicated. College entrance is the strong desire of a considerable block of the Winchester High School students and an even stronger desire of the parents of such children. On the other hand, the vast majority of the students of the Winchester High School for years have never attended college. It is therefore evident that the Winchester schools have the problem of offering the best possible general educational opportunity for citizenship and at the same time meeting the demands of a considerable minority who expect to go to college.

Educational Opportunity Provided

In trying to reach judgments about the program of studies as a whole we have asked the following five questions:

1. Does the program provide for direct and adequate instruction in the major divisions of everyday human living? Here we are thinking of (a) home and family, (b) earning a living, (c) citizenship, (d) esthetic creation and appreciation, (e) health, (f) recreation, (g) communication, and (h) personal improvement.

2. Does the program give enough special attention to learnings which are common to all or more of the major divisions or areas of living? Here we are thinking chiefly of language (reading, writing, speaking, listening), mathematics (especially arithmetic), science, social studies, and practical skills.

3. Is the program set up and administered in such a way that all pupils may get the learning experiences they need?

4. Does the program provide for continuous and advancing learning experience in the divisions of living and in the common fundamentals?

5. Insofar as the program of studies does not provide for kinds of learning needed for modern living, are these adequately taken care of by extra-curricular activities, the guidance services, the community outside, and by subsequent education in higher schools?

WAR VETERANS ADVISORY COMMITTEE

The following appointments have recently been made:

Mr. Samuel M. Graves, chairman of the Educational and Councillor Assistance Committee, has assigned Mr. Harry L. Jones, a member of his counsellor group, as secretary. Mr. Jones has been director of the Vocational Education and Principal of the Vocational Schools of the City of Somerville which was under the direction of the State Board of Education of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. He held this position from 1914 to 1941. He has also been instructor of apprentices in the Ordnance Department of the Watertown Arsenal.

Mr. Malcolm S. Nichols, chairman of the Family Assistance Committee has created a sub-committee, Family Advisory Committee. The appointments to this committee are as follows:

Mrs. Robert S. (Esther C.) Clark
Mrs. Wayne E. (Miriam A.) Davis, representing Red Cross
Mrs. Ralph T. (Florence C.) Jope
Mr. Edward J. (Maryrose B.) McDevitt, Jr.
Mrs. Eugene M. (Elizabeth H.) Pollard
Mrs. Angelo W. (Margaret F.) Ghirardini

Mrs. Pollard has been social worker for 11 years at the Veterans Administration, Bedford.

A number of the members of this committee have been attending the Conference Institutes at the Hotel Statler, Boston. Institute A, which was held Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 27, 28 covered the subject "Understanding the Returning Serviceman."

When leaving the Congregational Church Wednesday morning, Miss Elise Belcher had a bad fall, breaking her arm. She was taken to the hospital. The break, while serious, is not expected to hold any complications.

A Blood Donor Office, Edison Store, 2 Mt. Vernon Street, 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. Tel. Win. 2327.

On Monday evening, Nov. 27 the Blood Donor Committee of the local Red Cross Chapter staged a most interesting and instructive get together in the art salon of the Public Library.

In addition to the members of the committee there were present representatives of various organizations who have shown an interest in stimulating the giving of blood to meet the war need.

Mrs. Ruth Hilton, local committee chairman, opened the meeting and introduced the speakers in a very effective manner.

Miss Anastasia Kirby, assistant director of the Boston Blood Donor Center, stressed the great need for whole blood and plasma and stated that Winchester was being depended upon to do its part in this humanitarian work.

Capt. Alfred Mihachik, a physician, who had been wounded at the front and is now stationed at Lovell General Hospital at Devens, related some very thrilling incidents which took place under his observation and a most striking film entitled "Battle of Rendova" proved most conclusively what an important role is being played by whole blood and plasma in the restoration and preservation of our fighting men.

All of those present were convinced more than ever of the increasing need for this branch of the work on the home front.

MYSTIC SCHOOL NOTES

On Tuesday, Nov. 21, the first regular meeting of the Mystic School Mothers' Association was held in the school auditorium. Before the business meeting there was a reception for the new mothers and in spite of inclement weather, most of these new mothers were present and were warmly welcomed by the older members.

Following the business meeting which was presided over by the president, Mrs. Adolph F. Johnson, the program chairman, Mrs. Albrt Swazey, introduced the speaker of the afternoon, Mrs. James B. Willing, who gave a clever and informative book-talk entitled, "Reading Is Fun." Mrs. Willing is a Mystic mother and has entertained the group before so successfully that a return engagement was much in demand.

During the meeting, Mrs. Prescott Taylor reported that her ways and means committee which had charge of the luncheon-bridge in October had raised $177.23 through this single function. It was voted to send $25 to the Greater Boston United War Fund.

The meeting was adjourned at 4.15 and tea under the supervision of Mrs. Paul Dunn and her committee was served to members and guests.

The new mothers in the receiving line were: Mrs. Daniel C. Dennett, Mrs. Alfred C. Doherty, Mrs. Arthur H. Haines, Mrs. Philip B. Hoppin, Mrs. Clifton J. Keane, Mrs. Charles A. Myers, Mrs. Herbert P. Preble, Mrs. Raymond C. Thomas, Mrs. Paul G. DesOrmeaux, Mrs. Donald Pooler, Mrs. Leslie E. Richardson, Mrs. John S. Morgan, Mrs. Robert Morrison, Mrs. J. George Gange, Mrs. William Davies, Mrs. Allan Farquhar and Mrs. Loise Meacham.

Dr. John Guy Fowlkes addressed a large audience of Mystic School parents at the school on Wednesday evening, Nov. 29. The results of the recent survey were presented by Dr. Fowlkes and parents had an opportunity to ask questions afterwards.

Mrs. Johnson introduced Mrs. Charles Greene, former member of the Mystic School Mothers' Association who is now on the school committee, who explained briefly the aims of the survey, and then turned the platform over to Dr. Fowlkes.

Following the question period, refreshments were served in the kindergarten room.

On Tuesday, Dec. 5, at 3:30, there will be a tea in the kindergarten room for the fifth grade mothers of the Mystic School.

Mrs. Robert Traut and her committee hope that all mothers will come to meet the new fifth grade teacher, Miss Doris Locke, who is a newcomer to Winchester.

FLORENCE CRITTENTON LEAGUE BAZAAR

The annual bazaar held by the Florence Crittenton League of Compassion will take place on Tuesday and Wednesday, Dec. 5 and 6, at the Copley Plaza Hotel, Boston. The chairman is Mrs. Guy Currier and Mrs. Harold Meyer is the co-chairman. There will be a fashion show Tuesday afternoon.

An auction will be held Tuesday evening. Mrs. J. Maxwell Coburn is the chairman and the Winchester chairman is Miss Gretchen Stone.

The Circle suggest that a share of your Christmas shopping may be pleasantly done at the bazaar.

FLORENCE CRITTENTON CIRCLE MEETING

A meeting of the Circle will be held on Friday, Dec. 8 at 2.30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Leon Sargent at 8 Central street.

The speaker will be Nicholai P. Vakar on the subject, "New Trends in Russia." Mr. Vakar, a resident of Boston, is a lecturer in Russian literature and language at Wheaton College and the Cambridge Center for Adult Education. He is a graduate of Moscow and Kiev Universities, and has been prominent as a columnist, editor and author, his articles having been published in 12 languages in at least 20 different countries. He is the author of "Peoples of Russia" and "The White Russians."

The musical part of the program will be furnished by Kathryn Hall Sibley, contralto, accompanied by Mary Ranton Witham.

MISS AVERY'S LECTURE

"Behind the Scenes in Argentina, Crisis of the Hemisphere" is the title of the next lecture in the Winchester "Today As History" series to be given by Miss Eunice Harriet Avery at 3 o'clock, Dec. 6 in the Wyman School Hall under the sponsorship of the Winchester Smith College Club for the benefit of its scholarship fund.

The subject will be of particular interest since there is so much speculation as to the future course of Argentina, a country which could prove to be a definite setback in keeping peaceful relations with our other South American neighbors. Miss Avery, by her personal trips and her contacts with American business leaders, is well prepared to talk on this subject.

The ushers have been announced and will be Mrs. William Davis and Miss Adelaide Homer. Mrs. Benjamin T. Marshall, Jr. and Mrs. Robert Blackler will take tickets at the door.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

Joseph C. Harsch to Speak

The executive board of the Winchester League met at the home of Mrs. Philip Woodward on Wednesday of this week and completed plans for this year's evening meeting.

On Saturday evening, Dec. 16, at Wyman School auditorium, the League will bring a speaker of high standing and rare ability. Mr. Joseph C. Harsch is a staff writer of the Christian Science Monitor and daily radio commentator of "Background for the News". He will come to Winchester from Washington especially for his talk that night.

Mrs. George G. Brayley was in charge of arranging for the speaker, Mrs. Robert Cummins will make arrangements for the meeting and Mrs. Rowland Patrick will be chairman for hospitality.

COMMITTEE OF SAFETY CHAPTER, D. A. R.

The Committee of Safety Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, held their November meeting at the home of Mrs. George B. Hayward, 35 Everett avenue.

Mrs. Nathaniel M. Nichols, Regent presided and presented the guest speaker, Mrs. Emmanuel Stamm, State Vice Chairman, National Defense Committee, who gave a birds-eye view of D. A. R. War Service. Mrs. Stamm announced that the Massachusetts Daughters, through Chapter contributions, were supplying a much needed Mobile P X Unit for the Cushing General Hospital.

Mrs. George Peckham, chairman of the Red Cross Committee of the Winchester Committee of Safety Chapter, announced that 5000 Christmas gifts are needed to send to the boys at sea, who will not otherwise receive gifts from home and she read the following notice from the Winchester Chapter American Red Cross:

"The Army and Navy suggest the following packages for service men who will be at points of embarkation, or on the high seas on Christmas: cigarettes, playing cards, writing materials, air mail stamps, soap, tooth powder, shaving soap, small games, pocket, sized books, razor blades, hard candy and wallets. All articles must be new. Please wrap as a Christmas package. A card may be included. Please do not include gum. Packages should be left at the Edison Electric Office in Winchester or at Red Cross Headquarters in the Town Hall. Deadline Dec. 1.

A social hour followed the meeting and refreshments were served by Mrs. Hayward, assisted by Mrs. George Bryne, Miss Louise Barr, Mrs. Cutler Downer, Mrs. John Joy, Mrs. Harry Parsons and Miss Dorothy Joy.

Mrs. Florence Scales and Mrs. Howard Wright poured at the coffee table.

WINCHESTER FORTNIGHTLY

Those who braved the rain last Monday to see Mrs. Virginia Anderson's colored pictures of scenic spots in New England through its varying seasons were amply repaid, for the pictures were most lovely and opened to many new vistas of the wealth of beauty that is to be found not far from one's own doorstep.

One hundred Christmas packages from the Fortnightly for the boys who leave our shores between Dec. 20 and Christmas is the goal set by Mrs. Rasmus K. Miller, Jr., chairman of the committee for co-operation with war veterans, and Mrs. John W. Haines, chairman of the social service committee.

If you would enjoy making up a package yourself to the value of 75c or $1 the Red Cross suggests the following articles which are always pleasing to the recipients: cigarettes, playing cards, writing materials, air mail stamps, soap, tooth powder, shaving soap, small games, pocket-sized books, razor blades, hard candies and wallets. Please do not include gum. All things should, of course, be new and attractively wrapped. A card may be included.

If you don't have the time or would like to have your money stretched by advantageous buying, Mrs. Miller or Mrs. Haines will be glad to receive cash contributions and prepare the package for you.

Such packages and contributions should be received not later than the next Fortnightly meeting, Dec. 11. These packages will be doubly welcome to those boys as their own personal mail and gifts will not have caught up with them at that time.

UNITARIAN MEN'S CLUB

There was a good turn-out at the dinner and meeting of the Unitarian Men's Club on Monday evening notwithstanding the extremely stormy weather. A most appetizing dinner was served, followed by an interesting talk by Mr. Frank Orchard, N. E. advertising mannager for the magazine Puck. A feature of the evening was a Chinese auction, which netted the club a generous return on several packs of cigarettes.

FIRST SHOWING OF NEW TOZIER PICTURES

Congregational Parish House Next Wednesday

If you want to get away from it all by spending an evening in the wide open spaces, the Servicemen's Committee of the First Congregational Church invites you to enjoy Dr. Tozier's marvelous new colored pictures of the Great West, next Wednesday evening in the parish hall.

In taking these pictures Dr. Tozier used a new three-dimensional lens, which gives you the feeling of hearing the roar of geyzers, the bleating of thousands of sheep, the growl of bears in the open and the tumult of water falls.

You will hold your breath at the sheer beauty of these scenes and sit entranced by the wonders of God's great out-of-doors.

There will be no admission. Coffee will be served at 7.45. Lecture begins at 8.15.

Dr. Tozier is giving this lecture for the work of the servicemen. A collection will be taken for this purpose.

K. OF C. NOTES

Bro. Francis R. Murphy, formerly of Clark street, but now residing in Portland, Me., was in town over the week-end to visit his brother Robert (Sam) Murphy who is home on furlough from the Navy. Bro. Murphy wants to be remembered to all the brothers of the local council of which he has been a member for the past 22 years. Bro. Murphy is now head of the Associated Press for the State of Maine, and extends an invitation to any of the local brothers who are visiting Portland to pay him a visit at Cape Elizabeth.

The Winchester third degree team headed by Capt. Harry Chefalo will journey to Manchester, N. H., on Sunday, Dec. 10 to officiate at the third degree of the Manchester, N. H. Council K. of C.

Eighteen new candidates will take their first degree in the council chambers on Monday night, Dec. 4. All brothers should make it their duty to attend this meeting.

Congratulations are in order for Bros. Walter (Jocko) Prue and Bro. Fred McCormack both who became proud fathers of baby girls the past week.

Bro. John (Big) Dooley who is enjoying his first furlough in 16 months from Camp Polk, La., visited the council rooms over the week-end and from all reports his visit was very enjoyable.

Plans for the K. of C. New Year's party to be held by the council are rapidly taking form and from all reports this year's party promises to be tops.

Next regular meeting next Monday, night, Dec. 4. Be there.

PROGRESS OF SIXTH WAR LOAN

House-to-house canvassing for the Sixth War Loan began in Winchester on the day following Thanksgiving and will continue until the drive ends on Dec. 16.

Much as we would like to say that satisfactory progress has been made, that unfortunately is not the case. The principal stress in this drive is on bond subscriptions by individuals. To date our showng in this direction is not a matter for pride.

However, it is to be hoped that as solicitors hit their stride in the next two weeks and Winchesterites realize their moral obligation to buy these bonds our showing may look much better.

The new chairman and co-chairman for Prec. 2 are, respectfully, Everett W. Gray, 39 Kenwin road and Mrs. Leo V. Manoil, 34 Hillcrest parkway.

XMAS SEAL SALE

The 1944 Christmas Seal Sale opened on Monday, Nov. 27. On that day many residents of Winchester found a letter containing Christmas Seals in their mail.

For the first time, the Winchester Christmas Seal Sale Committee has included an educational insert in the envelope with the letter and seals which are sent to old and prospective contributors. It was decided that since so many people are reached at the time of the Seal Sale, this would be an excellent time to spread the facts about tuberculosis prevention and control.

The letter from the Christmas Seal Sale Committee, explains that although real progress has been made in the past, a great deal remains to be done before tuberculosis can be brought under control.

ALLEN GETS DISCHARGE

Mr. William J. Allen of 26 Vine street recently received his discharge from the USA Air Corps. He was in the service just one year and was transferred to the enlisted reserve July 30, 1943. Since that time he has been employed at the Carr Fastener Co. in Cambridge.

Mr. Allen was for 26 years a drug clerk at Hevey's Pharmacy previous to his entering the service. His many friends will regret to learn that he does not expect to return to Hevey's Pharmacy.

B. P. O. Elks Medal of Valor

Michael F. Grant, Exalted Ruler of Winchester Elks Lodge has announced that at the annual Memorial Services to be held at the lodge on Sunday, Dec. 3, at 7.30 p. m. the Elks Medal of Valor would be presented to the next-of-kin of the following member who made the supreme sacrifice in the present World War: Robert Lynch Laton G. Armington, Esquire of the lodge, will present the Medal.

Long a tradition in Elkdom, this annual ceremony will have as a feature an address by Leo F. Garvey, P. E. R. of Winchester Lodge. An appropriate musical program has been arranged for the occasion, to which the public has been invited

Well over half-a-million Elks in more than 1400 other lodges from coast to coast will hold similar ceremonies on Memorial Sunday, and tribute will also be paid to the memory of civilian members who died during the year.

In a report from the Elks War Commission it was stated that over 300 lodges would present Medals of Valor to the next-of-kin of the Elks who died in service during the present war.

On the eve of the annual Christmas bazaar of the Women's Association of the Mass. Osteopathic Hospital, its major undertaking of the year, to be held Wednesday, Dec. 6 in the Copley Plaza, the president, Mrs. Kenneth B. Hiscoe of this town, has expressed to the various Auxiliaries comprising the association her thanks for their efforts in making the forthcoming affair a success.

News for Knitters

In the near future there will be no additional wool for seaboot stockings and what is now on hand Mrs. Madge is keeping for those who have a pair of these on the needles. It will be well to make sure of the needed amount at once.

Knitters are asked also to return to the Epiphany workroom on Wednesday any portions of this wool that they may have left over.

In place of this knitting for seamen, the Boston headquarters is now supplying soft white wool for baby garments and directions for them.

Blue wool, too is available for gloves, mittens or helmets.

YOUNG PEOPLE OF THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

The Young People of the First Baptist Church met in the game room last Friday evening at 7.30 for an evening of entertainment under the leadership of social chairman Barbara Barrett. The fun began with an exciting scavenger hunt which took the couples among other places, to the fire station for a signature, the last straggler of the group had returned to the church by 9.15.

All soon became engaged in games of ping pong, basketball and bean bags. Excellent record plays were furnished and a few couples danced until refreshments were served. The party was a great success. We only want to add that we could have entertained many more young people. Would you like to be counted in on our fun?

WINCHESTER HIGHLANDS MEN'S CLUB

The regular monthly meeting of the Winchester Highlands Men's Club will be held on Thursday, Dec. 7 at 7 o'clock in the assembly hall of the Second Congregational Church. Emil Beauchamp will serve another of those fine dinners which the men always enjoy.

Through the courtesy of the Boston Fire Department, the activities committee has been fortunate in obtaining Capt. Coughlan as the speaker of the evening. Capt. Coughlin will supplement his talk with moving pictures of some of the big Boston fires of recent years. Following the talk, there will be a question period. It is hoped to have Chief Gorman of the Winchester Fire Department as a guest.

President E. Verne Chapman will conduct the business meeting. Among the reports to be presented at the meeting is that of new Scout Committee and also a financial report on the harvest social by Tom Grace, activities chairman. It would appear that Tom and his committee will be deserving of a hearty vote of thanks from the membership when the final figures on this very successful affair are submitted.

Mrs. C. H. Cunningham, formerly of this town and now of Durham, N. H., spent Thanksgiving week-end in New York City with her son Capt. C. H. Cunningham who has just completed a special course in Intelligence training. Capt. Cunningham returned to Camp Campbell, Kentucky on Sunday.

The results of the survey of our public schools, while not having been distributed throughout the town in printed form, have nevertheless been widely publicized among parents and the public through the group meetings now completed. The townspeople have thus largely become familiar with the findings and recommendations. As might be expected, such a survey is critical. It could hardly be thought that the results would hold nothing but praise. On the other hand the findings seem to hold nothing but what may readily be considered and remedied, and are to a great extent along lines which have previously been more or less subject to criticism, and the fundamentals of learning, including arithmetic, writing (and spelling) are—as might be expected, discussed in not too complimentary terms. That much of the criticism should fall upon the head of our Superintendent is but natural, since he is the head of our school system and under whose guidance it rests and under whose direction our educational system is carried out. Suggestions are also made with regard to our School Committee, but with a body made up of six persons it might be considered difficult to consider all subjects as with one mind. By and large it would seem that the survey has brought forth, not so much any new facts regarding our schools, as the opportunity to correct those defects which have previously been recognized. The suggestions made regarding new buildings and equipment seems to be largely in the minds of those who have heard the report, rather than the facts pertaining to the educational end, but it should be born in mind that this phase is incidental and something which the Town itself would carry out or not after due deliberation. While critical, the report is constructive, and apparently every effort has been made to present facts, which if carefully considered, will undoubtedly benefit our school system. Whether our School Committee will deem it advisable after sufficient study to make a public statement on its attitude regarding the findings is not known, but it may do so. At any rate, it appears to us that the report has produced facts well worth the money spent and that we have an excellent and comprehensive survey which will furnish the ground work for an apparently much desired renovation of our school system.

RED CROSS NOTES

The following is a copy of a letter and editorial recently received from a Winchester boy in England.

(Copy)
Tuesday, Oct. 31, 1944
England

Dear Friends:

Enclosed is a copy of the London edition of the "Stars and Stripes" with an editorial that I am sure will be of interest to the folks at home. I have read in the Star of the grand job the people at home are doing in giving their blood and hope that perhaps this editorial may help them to give "just a little more."

Sincerely,
R. S. Hamilton,
1st Lt. Q. M. C.

Editorial

It takes blood to win a war. We wish some people back home in the States could see a picture of a group of British girls who are regularly giving their blood to help save the lives of wounded American soldiers. "It's a pleasure" they tell the American Medic "and an honor."

Stack this against what medic HQ reports about blood shipments from the U. S. to the ETO. The medics have a quota of five pints of blood for every GI in combat. Thus far they have been able to store up only two pints for every man in action.

There just isn't enough blood being given by the folks back home, and for lack of that blood some suffering GI, many suffering GI's will die.

Strangely enough, blood donations in the States rise when the news is bad, and fall when it's good.

But when the war news is good is when blood is needed because it costs blood, lots of blood, to make it good.

These British girls evidently realize that perhaps it's because they're closer to the battle, for a good part of the battle was fought right here, in England.

But distance from the battle should make no difference. Far from home, our men are never closer to their people than when they are wounded. That's when they need blood, lots of blood, American blood.

All honor to these patriotic British girls.

American patriots, please copy.

AUXILIARY FIRE DEPARTMENT

The fourth annual meeting, held last month, unanimously re-elected all the officers for the ensuing year. The list of them is as follows:

Chief, Chief John J. Gorman
Deputy Chief, Division 1, T. Parker Clarke
Deputy Chief, Division 2, Clarence W. Russell
Drill Master, Fire Capt. J. Edward Noonan
Company 1, Capt. Henry E. Simonds, Lt. Samuel R. Roberts
Company 2, Capt. Theodore E. Chilcott, Lt. Norman J. Padelford
Company 3, Capt. Donald E. Woodward, Lt. Edwin L. Noble
Company 4, Capt. Harry P. Hood, Jr., Lt. Paul W. Walton
Company 5, Capt. Elmer D. Ripley, Lt. Alfred G. Nelson

It was voted to have a social meeting each month until outdoor drills can be resumed, and to have all members continue answering all town alarms as usual.

On Monday of this week, a very enjoyable meeting was held in lower Masonic Hall, at which some excellent sound pictures were shown through the courtesy of Lt. Richard K. Gould of Dix street and B. M. Thomas Moran of the U. S. Coast Guard, followed by refreshments. The committee in charge consisted of Chief Gorman, Deputy Chief Russell and Capt. Simonds.

Any able-bodied citizen who can meet the physical and Federal requirements may apply for membership in the Auxies by telephoning to Deputy Chief T. Parker Clarke, Win. 1500.

DID NOT FLY TO CANADA

Seven members of the Winchester Rotary Club planned to fly to Montreal on Tuesday and attend the meeting of the Rotary Club of that city. Some of the party were to return on the evening plane and others had decided to stay over night and return on Wednesday. Tuesday however, opened very stormy, and as the party was to take the early morning plane, the trip was given up. Plans are now being made for a group to fly up next Tuesday.

Miss Sarah Browne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore C. Browne of 37 Calumet road has just been elected fire captain of Briggs Hall, Radcliffe College, Cambridge.

LANDING ON LEYTE

The following is an interesting account of the landing recently made on the Ja held island of Leyte. It is an extract from a letter written home by a well known Winchester boy who was a member of the crew of one of the four boats in the first landing wave.

"Today they told us that censorship regulations have been eased up, so that I can now tell you a lot that I couldn't before.

As you have probably guessed by this time, I was in on the invasion of Leyte in the Philippine Islands. We moved in on Oct. —, after rather an exciting night entering the Gulf of Leyte. We sailed in under the cover of darkness, but several times Japanese torpedo-boats tried to get at us. About 2 in the morning things quieted down again and no more attacks were made.

Just as dawn broke we could see and hear the terrific Naval bombardment going on ahead. Suddenly, anti-aircraft fire went up from the ships behind us, as two Jap planes tried to come in. However, they soon gave up and flew away into some clouds.

For the next few hours we moved in slowly, and finally we got the word to attack. There were four of us in the first bombardment wave, and we four ships were the first ones in. I don't mind saying that I was plenty nervous when we started in, but strangely enough, when we started firing, I felt a lot better and more or less forgot to be worried any more. These ships may be small, but we really laid a barrage down on them, and we later were credited with knocking out several machine gun nests and one pill box. Soon the Japs began firing at us, and we were forced to move back a little, as shells were hitting all around our stern. None of them hit us directly, though, and soon we were in safe waters again. Then the first landing wave started in and so back we went to strafe the beach again. This time the Japs retreated, and those American soldiers really made a beautiful landing. Those boys deserve an awful lot of credit, as I don't believe there was a Jap left alive on the beach. We spent the remainder of the day strafing and shelling a Jap gun positions, but this time not a shot was fired back at us.

That night, just at sunset, the Jap planes came in again, but this time they didn't drop any bombs. The night passed peacefully, except for artillery on the shore, but when morning came the Jap planes came back in force. One flew so low past our bow that we could see the red ball on its side. The raid lasted about 20 minutes, but it seemed longer.

That day was our hardest as we were ordered to go in and shell some Japs hiding in a native village on the beach. A large number of us went in, and we really ruined the place. In a few minutes we had set fire to many grass shacks and bombed and shelled others. About 50 natives ran to their boats and came aboard several LCI's. They had been warned before hand and had gotten safely away before the attack. They were very friendly and had useful information.

In the meantime some Japs had started firing at us with machine guns, but their aim was bad. However, there was one comical incident too. There was a Jap sniper that we couldn't locate and all day long he kept us ducking down behind the edge of the conn. I don't think he ever came close, but he certainly made a nuisance of himself. We went right up to the edge of the beach and strafed every tree in sight but he still kept sniping at us. For all I know he's there yet, and I hope he's hungry and uncomfortable as blazes.

That night we had a bad air raid, and we threw everything we had at them. We were hit by shrapnel several times, but nobody was hurt badly. Just as the raid ended the Japs opened up on us from the shore with their artillery, and since we were anchored, we spent some anxious moments getting underway. Shells landed near us but again we took no hits. The next day we left Leyte during a heavy air-raid, but we escaped under a smoke screen."

SELECTIVE SERVICE NOTES

NEW SHOE STORE OPENS

Wilbar Shoes, nationally famous for "Frenchies" smart short vamp women's footwear, opens a Winchester store tomorrow at 10 Thompson street, in the heart of the Winchester shopping section. The new store will feature shoes, hosiery and handbags and will offer residents of Winchester and vicinity all the facilities of the Wilbar Boston store, including charge accounts.

The new addition to Winchester's shopping center is an attractive background for the fine footwear that has been featured for years by Vogue, Mademoiselle, Charms, Glamour and other fashion magazines.

The opening collection of shoe styles includes such "Frenchies" favorites as genuine alligator in all the new models, saucy square toes with very short vamps; sling pumps in tissue suede, calfskin and simulated alligator; daring sandals with high, high heels; the new nailhead shoes and all the other new things in dress shoes.

It also includes the full line of "Frenchies" school shoes featured by the Wilbar college shops at Wellesley, Smith and Vassar. There are genuine hand sewn moccasins, brown and white saddles, Penaljos, Ropesters and all the other walking shoes popular on the college campus.

A full line of better grade leisure slippers and storm footwear is also featured, including that scarcest of all items, rubber boots.

The hosiery department carries the "Frenchies" line of better stockings including everything from ankle socks and inexpensive barelegs to the finest 51 gauge rayons. The handbag selection ranges from popular price styles to finest genuine alligators.

H. P. Bluestein, president of Wilbar's, Inc., visited Winchester yesterday and was enthusiastic about the new store. "I am sure the women and girls of this area will appreciate the convenience of having a Wilbar store right at their doorstep," said Mr. Bluestein, "and we will do everything possible to serve their footwear needs completely. I believe 'Frenchies' are the grade of shoes Winchester women want and wear because a great many are now customers of our Boston store, while many others purchase through our mail order department."

"While we cannot, of course, carry the complete 'Frenchies' style and sizer ange here at Winchester because of space imitations, we have installed a direct telephone connection with our Boston warehouse, so that any style or size in 'Frenchies' can be in Winchester within 24 hours."

Miss Barberie Harmer, daughter of Mrs. Torr W. Harmer of 4 Lakeview terrace has been elected treasurer of the freshmen class of Wheaton College, Norton. Miss Harmer prepared at Wincehster High School and Brimmer and May in Boston.

"God the Only Cause and Creator" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, and in all of its branches, on Sunday, Dec. 3.

The Golden Text, "In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth," is from Genesis 1:1. Other Bible citations include, "Thus saith the Lord, the Holy One of Israel, and his Maker, Ask me of things to come concerning my sons, and concerning the work of my hands command ye me. I have made the earth, and created man upon it: I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and all their host have I commanded" (Isaiah 45:11, 12).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, "Mortals are egotists. They believe themselves to be independent workers, personal authors, and even privileged originators of something which Deity would not or could not create. The creations of mortal mind are material. Immortal spiritual man alone represents the truth of creation . . . . There can be but one creator, who has created all . . . . The multiplication of a human and mortal sense of persons and things is not creation" (p. 263).

SCHOOL SURVEY

Though there are no conspicuous ommissions of any of the requirements of a good curriculum reflected in the criteria, there are conspicuous deficiencies in the present educational opportunity and services rendered to the boys and girls of Winchester. Conspicuous examples of such deficiencies are health, recreation, science, geography, art, music, literature, guidance, and applied arts.

The existing curriculum in the elementary schools in the fields of reading and arithmetic, particularly in the first three grades, leaves much to be desired. The curricular content of these basic areas needs much more detailed and specific definition. The accompanying methods also need much improvement. Science is practically ignored and geography on the whole is treated casually.

In the teaching of reading, while it is entirely proper that actual reading be attempted not too early and that excessive work on phonics and word analysis should be avoided, a goodly amount of these attacks is essential. There is much evidence of a conspicuous lack of enough work on phonics, word analysis and dictionary use throughout the elementary school.

In the teaching of arithmetic the existing curriculum is unbalanced. The content assigned in the first two grades is not sufficient while the third grade is over-loaded. As a consequence, there are many cases where the same content in arithmetic is being presented in grades one through five.

Contrary to what some well meaning citizens of Winchester have believed, the schools did not make the mistake of wholly going over to what is usually called an "activity curriculum" and at the same time giving up special attention to the basic learnings. But they seemed to have made a mistake equally bad. The impossible has been attempted; namely, an effort has been made to introduce a little bit of everything new and to retain very bit of the old. Such a condition is due in part to an unfortunate organization for supervision in the elementary schools which will be treated more fully later.

The junior high school curriculum is pointed too heavily toward the traditional college preparatory course of the senior high school. However, the junior high school principal and staff have in recent years done considerable good work on curriculum revision which unfortunately has not been put into practice.

The high school program of studies is organized under four courses called respectively the College Preparatory, the Technical, the Commercial, and the General. The first three courses have fairly definite and understandable purposes. The General Course does not. The General Course is merely a conglomeration of subjects for pupils who are assumed to have no definite educational and vocational objectives and for whom the school similarly apparently also has none.

It is interesting to observe the various groups of students who elect the various four high school courses. Although students enrolled in the General Course in the high school as a group are slightly lower in general mental ability than the students who elect the other three courses, in terms of a large number of individual children, such is by no means the case. Examination of the children in the four high school courses reveals there is strong ground for suspecting that parentage and place of residence play far too large a part in the particular course a child enters. The extra-curricular program throughout the Winchester schools on the whole seems to be incidental and casual rather than having been well planned.

Thus it can be seen that a thorough over-hauling of the curricular of the Winchester schools is badly needed. Language, arithmetic, history, science and geography in the elementary schools and most of the subject areas of the high school need considerable revision.

In connection with the desirable revision of the curriculum, marked attention should be given to the integrating of the three different levels of the school system, namely, the elementary, the junior high school and the senior high school. At present the three schools are strangely apart. In a very real sense neither knows what the other is doing from a curricular standpoint. This isolated status of the three different schools undoubtedly is partly responsible for the undesirable status with respect to student learning in the schools.

The Materials of Learning and Teaching

Learners and teachers must have the basic tools essential for effective achievement. The Winchester schools are sadly deficient in this respect. With the exception of the sixth grade the elementary schools have far too few supplementary books. Audio-visual aids such as sound films, maps anl charts are generally conspicuous by their absence. There is not a typewriter nor an adequate duplicating machine in any elementary school in the system. Much improvement in the tools of learning and teaching is needed in the Winchester schools.

Student Achievement

On the whole the students of Winchester are not enjoying the satisfaction of educational development that should be theirs in terms of their mental capacity. On the basis of the Gates Reading Readiness Test, in terms of the scores of 183 first grade children along with the Pintner-Cunningham Intelligence Test, the children are distinctly ready to learn to read but when the results of tests on paragraph meaning, word meaning, average reading and spelling are analysed it is seen that for the system as a whole, the children of Winchester schools are below the average grade norms for the country as a whole and even still further deficient when their superior ability is considered.

The results of arithmetic tests for the fourth grade children show even greater retardation in arithmetic reasoning and arithmetic fundamentals than is the case in reading.

By the beginning of the seventh grade the retardation in reading and other language arts has been partially removed although even at the beginning of the seventh grade for the system as a whole there is still nearly a grade of retardation.

Similarly, at the beginning of the seventh grade in elementary science, the social studies, and arithmetic reasoning and fundamentals there is still found a marked deficiency in terms of not only average grade standards, but also ability of the students.

In grammatical usage, sentence structure, punctuation and capitalization the tenth grade students show an achievement equal to or slightly above the national average norms but are still deficient in terms of their ability.

In science and literature the tenth grade pupils are definitely retarded.

In arithmetic reasoning and arithmetic fundamentals the tenth grade college preparatory students are up to the national average norms but still deficient in terms of their ability while the non-college students are somewhat below the national average norms.

Similarly in the social studies the college preparatory tenth grade students are up to or somewhat above the national average norms while the non-college preparatory students are somewhat below.

The achievement of the twelfth grade students on the whole compares more favorably with what is to be expected of them both in terms of their ability and in national average norms than any other group tested in the school.

The attainment in mathematics was particularly gratifying. Such a result is not surprising when it is remembered that there is a sharp drop in the enrollment between the tenth and eleventh grades of the Winchester High School. In other words, the eleventh and twelfth grades of Winchester High School are highly selected groups out of a basic population superior to what is usually found in high schools of this size.

On the whole the graduates of the Winchester High School who have taken the college preparatory course are recognized as well qualified to enter college and have for many years been admitted in good standing to a wide list of the better colleges and universities. Furthermore, children who have partially finished the Winchester school system and for some reason or other desire to go to private schools, for years have been recognized as qualified to enter such schools.

Teachers and Teaching

The teaching staff of Winchester on the whole is a group of fine men and women. The elementary school teachers average approximately four years of professional training and the high school staff averages approximately four and a half years of professional training. They are above average in teaching skill. They are a personable, courteous group of people.

However, they do not impress one as being on fire. Furthermore, there seems to be an atmosphere of apprehension and uneasiness. All members of the survey gained the impression too that many teacher were trying to give the answer "that they should give" rather than attempting to give accurate and unprejudiced answers to questions.

The actual classroom practices of the teachers reflected a good deal of individual teacher initiative but indicated a need for constructive professional supervision.

The School Committee

An analysis of the membership of the school committees of the past indicates that the committees on the whole have come nearly exclusively from certain sections of the town. Since a school committee should be truly representative of a community, it seems desirable in choosing school committee members that over a period of years all sections of the town be represented.

The minutes of the school committee are invaluable and therefore should be recorded with marked care and precision. The minutes of the school committee should be a record of policy and action, well organized, classified, and cross indexed. Unfortunately, such is not the description of the minutes of the school committee of Winchester. The minutes of the Winchester school committee are replete with trivia, reflecting the opinion of the secretary and are poorly organized and indexed. Standard practice of administration boards demands that agenda of such board meetings be forwarded to the individual members of the board prior to the board meetings. Such is not the practice in the Winchester schools despite the fact that the school committee has repeatedly requested that such be done.

Personnel policies of the School Committee leave much to be desired, particularly with respect to salaries of both the instructional and the non-instructional staff. The School Committee has always accepted the salary recommendations of the Superintendent or has voted higher salaries than those recommended but unfortunately, no salary schedule specifying pay as related to training and experience has been established for either staff in the Winchester schools. Furthermore, the salaries of new teachers to the Winchester system seem to have been in far too many cases a matter of barter rather than a matter of policy. The same practice applies with respect to the non-instructional staff. Such trading tends to destroy the morale of the staff and encourages the exertion of pressure of individual teacher salary increases. Unfortunately, there is evidence that such pressures have been exerted by both members of the instructional and the non-instructional staff in the Winchester schools.

A school committee is definitely and exclusively a policy forming body. It is the function of the school committee to see that things are done —not to do them. It is an advisory and not a supervisory body. There is evidence that this conception of the function of the school committee has not always been observed in Winchester. Violation of this principle is sometimes justified by members of administrative bodies on the grounds that it is necessary to get things done. This is no justification for the assumption of administrative functions by member of a school committee.

There is also evidence that detailed oral reports of committee meetings are given to both laymen and members of the school staff. Policies and actions of the committee should be made known in a regularly established manner.

It is imperative that a school committee have a carefully formulated, clearly stated, up to date, printed set of rules and regulations. Such rules and regulations should set forth the functions of the committee, the various administrative officers, and all staff members of the school system. The rights and privileges of staff members should be included in such rules and regulations.

The last printed edition of the rules and regulations of the school committee of Winchester found by the survey commission was published in 1926. It is not surprising that evidence of misunderstanding on various matters of policy has been found under such circumstances.

Educational Organization

The school system of Winchester includes five operating elementary schools, an incomplete junior high school which houses the seventh and eighth grades, a ninth grade building, and a building for the tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades. Obiously the organization of the school for grades seven to twelve is extremely unfortunate, prevents the right type of organization of these grades and contributes greatly to the present situation of separateness and non-integration.

The daily schedules of the elementary schools are of the usual length and frequency save that all the students in the elementary schools are not required to attend Wednesday afternoon. The theory back of this arrangement is that Wednesday afternoon be devoted to special work for those who need it or professional activities. Although there is something to be said for such a plan, it is exceptionable questionable whether this half day is being utilized sufficiently effectively to justify it. Furthermore, the question can well be raised as to whether, if there is need for special work for a large group of pupils (which should not be the case) that such special work along with educational professional activity should not be conducted on Saturday morning.

The pupil-teacher ratios in the Winchester schools are on the whole in keeping with sound educational practices. At the high school level there is great need for free periods for the teachers in order that their work can be more effective.

Educational Administration and Supervision

The focal point of administrative responsibility in a school system are the administrative board, namely, the school committee in Winchester, and the Superintendent of Schools. As previously stated, it is the responsibility of the school committee to formulate policies. Conversely, it is the responsibility of the superintendent to execute policies. It also is the responsibility of the superintendent of schools to act as a technical advisor to the school committee toward the formulation of sound policies. As previously indicated, much is to be desired in these connections in the Winchester schools.

One of the most important functions of a superintendent of schools is that of recommending new members of the teaching staff. During recent years there are repeated evidences of disagreement between recommendations of the superintendent of schools with respect to staff members and the judgment of the school committee. There have been reversals of recommendations of the superintendent on the one hand and the action of the committee on the other with respect to appointment of members of the instructional staff. Such a situation has inevitably led to tenseness and lack of confidence between the school committee and the superintendent.

There seems to be some dissatisfaction on the part of the School Committee with the way in which recommendations of the staff are made by the Superintendent. Recommendation of staff is one of the basic functions of the Superintendent's office and the quality of the teaching staff of Winchester proves that wise selection has been made. Care should be exercised by the Superintendent to present full information concerning his study of available qualified staff members along with data supporting his recommendations.

It was impossible to find any provision for continuous and continuing co-operation between the teaching staff, the principals and the superintendent jointly. The very reports filed by the superintendent in the minutes of the school committee indicates the superintendent's visits to the classrooms in the various schools are of the inspectional rather than the supervisory type. There seems to be strange atmosphere of aloofness between the superintendent of schools and the principals. There is also a strange atmosphere of aloofness between the superintendent and the teachers. Staff members throughout the system seem to look upon the superintendent as the man who gives them the orders.

The furnishing of books, supplies, and teaching equipment seems to have been one of personal discrimination rather than having been based upon a universally applied policy. There are instances of requests for such items as book shelves, maps, and teaching apparatus which have been made repeatedly year after year but have never been received. Furthermore, the principals indicate that no explanation has been given as to why requests and requisitions for needed teaching materials have not been granted.

In a very real sense the elementary schools of Winchester at present receive very little supervisory and administrative direction. All the elementary building principals have a full time teaching load, have no clerical assistance, and indicate that they have been given to understand that they are to express no judgment and exert no influence on any educational matter in the schools.

One of the most important functions of the superintendent of schools is that of establishing and maintaining an up-to-date interpretation of the schools' policies along with exhibits, demonstrations, and examples of how the school system is carrying out its adopted purposes and policies. There is no evidence of such a program of interpretation of the schools' progress in Winchester over the last 20 years. To be sure, a small report on the schools is included in the annual town report. This, however, is limited and the largest single section consists of the names of high school students who have gone to college.

The School Plant

Although it was not within the assignment of the survey commission to make a detailed study of the school plant of Winchester, the following observations seem valid.

The elementary school buildings, on the whole, are above average although by no means luxurious for the community. Schoolhouse provisions for grades seven to twelve are pitifully inadequate and unsatisfactory. The Wadleigh School is nearly completely ill fitted for the educational program which is being attempted in it. It also is highly hazardous with respect to fire. As was previously stated, the junior high school at present is nothing but a few classrooms and the senior high school is entirely out of keeping with the educational needs of the community.

The Financial Ability and the Financial Effort Exerted to Support Public Education in Winchester

It similarly was not the assignment of the survey commission to make a detailed financial study of the Winchester schools. Here again, however, the following observations seem valid.

Winchester is well able to spend considerably more money on public education than it is now doing. The salaries of all staffs including the custodial, instructional, and secretarial are far too low both in terms of prevailing economic circumstances and the community's ability. Within very modest limits, education is like any other service or commodity. Adequate educational opportunity of a high quality costs money. Since the whole resources of any group of people whether large or small is its youth it would seem that Winchester can ill afford to continue to exert as little financial effort in the support of public education as is the case at present.

Recommendations

It is recommended that:

1. The entire curriculum of the Winchester schools be thoroughly revised with particular attention being given to reading and arithmetic in the first three grades, spelling and literature throughout the school, science in the elementary school and the general course in the high school. The fields of practical arts and fine arts especially in the high school also need marked attention including the establishment of school bands. Health services throughout the system should be greatly expanded. In connection with the revision of the curriculum great care should be given to the integration of the curricular of the three levels of schools namely elementary, junior high school and senior high school. This should be done not by the appointment of heads of subject matter areas having jurisdiction throughout the school system but through direction by the superintendent and the building principals working with overall committees of teachers.

2. The extra curricular program throughout the school be studied and revised.

3. A real guidance and advisory service along with a full testing program be established and maintained.

4. Student personnel records be kept in the schools in which children are in attendance and utilized in guidance and advising.

5. Many more supplementary books be added especially in grades 1-5.

6. Necessary office equipment such as typewriters and duplicating machines be furnished to all schools.

7. Much richer provision be made for badly needed learning and teaching aids such as sound films, film strips, maps and charts.

8. Supervising principalships be established in all the elementary schools with possibly some but not full time teaching being done by such supervising principals in the smaller schools.

9. The position of building assistant be abolished.

10. The title of special teacher of reading be changed to Reading Consultant and the work of such a post be devoted largely to the teachers rather than to pupils. The salary for this position should be between $3000-$3500.

11. The rules and regulations of the School Committee be revised, rewritten, published regularly up to date.

12. The School Committee always act as a committee of the whole save in cases of special assignment.

13. The minutes of the School Committee be kept in accordance with suggestions made elsewhere.

14. Agenda of School Committee meetings be issued in advance of such meetings.

15. Actions and new policies of the School Committee be published and otherwise publicized regularly throughout the community.

16. Individual School Committee members refrain from discussing details of committee meetings promiscuously.

17. The School Committee refrain from attempting to prescribe teaching methods. This is a matter to be handled by professional educators—not laymen. It is the function of the School Committee to be concerned with results and efficiency, not technical techniques.

18. The School Committee desist from campaigning in behalf of candidates for appointment to any of the staffs of the Winchester schools.

19. The number of "home-teachers" be limited to 20 per cent of the total teaching positions exclusive of principals and any other administrative or supervisory officers.

20. No resident of Winchester be employed as a teacher in the Winchester schools unless he or she has had at least three years of teaching experience elsewhere.

21. No teacher be kept on a temporary basis longer than two years.

22. The superintendent spend much less time on certain details of administration which can be handled by secretaries; much less time himself on plant maintenance and considerably more time on supervision and curriculum revision.

23. A head janitor who shall be building maintenance man, responsible to the superintendent of schools, be appointed.

24. The elementary and secondary principals be recognized by the superintendent as a professional cabinet and regular meetings be held by the superintendent of schools with the principals.

25. A continuing and continuous program of interpretation of the philosophy and operation of the school system including an annual report appropriate to its significance be established and maintained by the superintendent.

26. Various principals, teachers and other specially selected members of the school staffs be invited by the superintendent to make periodic reports of their work to the School Committee.

27. Provision be made for teacher participation in the formulation of plans and policies of the school system and that consideration be given to the recommndations of the teaching staff.

28. A budgetary procedure be adopted under which definite plans are made for carrying out teacher requests for necessary teaching equipment and materials.

29. All parties who handle extra curricular funds be bonded.

30. Payment to teachers for certain extra curricular assignments such as selling tickets and indeed other so-called extra work be stopped.

WINCHESTER ART ASSOCIATION

The December exhibition of oil paintings by Mr. Frederick J. Mulhaupt will open on Tuesday Dec. 5 at the Library Art Gallery. The preview and gallery talk for Association members will be at 7.45 in the evening.

Mr. Mulhaupt was born in Rockport, Missouri in 1871 and studied at the Kansas City Art Schools, Chicago Art Institute and Paris Art Schools.

He was the holder of many prizes, including the Evans $1000 first prize of the Salmagundi Club in 1907, the Allied Artists Prize in New York in 1925, and the Marine First Prize in Rochester in 1934. His Art Clubs were the National Academy, National Arts, American Art Association of Paris and North Shore Arts Association of Gloucester.

Prior to his death in 1938, Mr. Mulhaupt painted in France, England, Spain and Canada as well as in this country. New England and especially Gloucester, were most popular subjects of his oil paintings. His work has been exhibited in many of the most famous galleries in this country ond abroad and hang permanently in public and private galleries and museums throughout the country.

The speaker for the evening will be Miss Eleanor Randall, instructor in the Division of Education at the School of the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston. Miss Randall was formerly with the Art Department of Wheaton College. She will speak on, "Trends in Museum Education and Activities."

Hostess for the evening will be Mrs. Harlow Russell while Mrs. James Russell and Miss Corinne Mead will pour. Mrs. Alfred Lawson will prepare the table flower arrangement.

Hospital Service

One of the newest and most promising activities of the Winchester Public Library is the Hospital Service. For the past three years a staff member has spent one afternoon a week at the Hospital taking books to the patients. These books range from light love stories, westerns, and mysteries to best sellers, travel and biographies. Also included are children's books which are enjoyed by bed-ridden little ones. A deposit of about 200 library books is kept at the hospital in a book case on the third floor in addition to current books which are purchased occasionally through the kindness of the En Ka Society and the hospital authorities.

Every Tuesday afternoon a selection is made from these and placed on the book truck, designed especially for this purpose, and also given by the En Ka Society. Thus the weekly round of cheer begins. There is no limit to the number of books which may be taken by one person and frequently five or six are left for an enthsiastic reader to enjoy during the following week.

Near the book case stands an attractive blue hamper, on which is a sign, "Please Rturn Books Here" into this the nurses put the books when the patients have finished with them.

At present the weekly circulation is 18 to 40, and this has been increasing ever since the service was begun. If a person expects to be in the hospital for a length of time special requests can be made and will be filled whenever it is possible.

To supplement this service a deposit of about 40 books is kept at the Nurses' Home and changed at intervals. Many of the new books at the hospital are duplicated at the Nurses' Home for the convenience of the nurses.

Child war victims overseas, as well as under-privileged children in disadvantaged rural areas of America, will be aided through a clothing collection in the public schools of Winchester on Dec. 11, according to an announcement by Mr. James J. Quinn, Superintendent of Schools.

Miss Marilyn Campbell and Miss Corinne Marvin of this town were in charge of arrangements for the Camp Andover group attending the party for counsellors of the City Missionary Society's two summer camps Friday evening at First Congregational Church. Scott Daub of this town represented Camp Waldron, which adjoins the sister camp on Lake Winnisquam, near Meredith, N. H.

When the Puffer Soda Co. plant burned about a year ago that company left behind on its property numerous slabs of marble of various colors and sizes. Since that time the town has purchased the property and boys have broken nearly every piece of marble. It looks like the old story of making little ones out of large ones.

We Are About To Close Our Third War Year In The Automobile Business

It has been a difficult year. Cars have needed more repairs than average. Many items of replacement parts have been difficult to obtain. We have been short of mechanics. I spite of these conditions, you have been patient and co-operative. For this, we want to "thank you."

Next Year

Replacement parts are coming through much better now, and we are assured by our factory that the improvement will continue. Let's hope that during the coming year the war will be over, our boys will be back, and our company is building cars again.

PRIZE ESSAY ON PRICE CONTROL

An essay submitted by Charles W. Burnham of 125 Church street won first prize in a contest conducted by Miss Corinne Mead, Winchester librarian, it was announced last week. The contest was open to all Junior High students and the subject was, "Price Control and Rationing." Second prizes were awarded Margaret O'Leary and Paul Riordan and third prizes to Barbara Dunbury and Joan Walsh.

The essay by Charles Burnham was as follows:

"Prices Unlimited."

Rationing and Price Control have been worked out by our Government to let us all have equal amounts of food at proper prices.

If there were no rationing or price control there would be no equal distribution of food for civilian use and prices would be too high. This is because the Army and Navy use so much food, and so much more is sent to our Allies that there is not enough left at home for everyone to have all he would like.

Some people with lots of money to spend would be running into stores and offering to pay high prices for all the food they wanted, leaving nothing for those who could not afford to pay sky-high prices. Bread might even be a dollar a loaf compared to our present 10, 12 or 16 cents, depending on the size and make.

Rationing and price control work together. Rationing makes food available to all and price control keeps prices [illegible] each can afford to buy his fair share.

Let us, this November, 1944, be grateful that we have rationing and price control, that we have America with its "Four Freedoms." Let us all resolve to buy nothing without our proper ration points and to pay no more than ceiling prices. Yes, let us be ever grateful and may "God Bless America."

SALES AND SPEAKER AT EPIPHANY

Tuesday, Dec. 12, will be an especially busy day at Epiphany. It will begin, as usual, with the quiet and attuning service of Holy Communion. But immediately after that service, the activities will get under way.

First, the yearly follow-up sale of articles from the bazaar of Nov. 3, left unsold when tables had to be cleared in readiness for the parish dinner. The articles are not left overs.

Wares range widely in price, but all will be bargains. The sale will begin at 11 o'clock.

At 12 o'clock a sale of home-cooked foods will open, sponsored by the Evening Branch, supplied by the whole parish, managed by Mrs. Ernest Barron and Mrs. Henry Horn.

At 1:15 the League will hear Mrs. Homer Stoddard speak of work which women of this diocese do for men of the sea. Mrs. Stoddard is chairman of Hospitality for the Seamen's Club, Women's Aid.

Every Wednesday women of her visitors' committee visit 330 patients. On Dec. 20 they will take a Christmas present for each. The Tuesday Luncheon Group is supplying gifts for 35. Mrs. Maxwell McCreery and Mrs. John Willis will make the purchases, advised by Mrs. Stoddard, who knows what will be liked.

Mrs. Harold H. Blanchard will preside at the morning meeting of the Council and at the luncheon.

WINCHESTER ART ASSOCIATION

The December show of the Winchester Art Association opened Tuesday. It is an exhibition of oil paintings by Mr. Frederick J. Mulhaupt and was arranged by Arthur Herrick assisted by Vaughn Harmon.

Miss Eleanor Randall of the School of the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston spoke on, "Trends in Museum Education and Activities."

The first museum in this country were started in the 1770's and were for articles collected by sea captains during their world wide travels. The first museum for objects of art was almost a century later and was located in Philadelphia. Boston's museum did not open until 1870.

By 1931 over 1000 museums of different types were in this country, 210 of which had regular educational activities.

Miss Randall told of the diversified branches in our Boston Museum, the many educational projects, and stated that there are 350 young people between 8 and 18 years of age, enrolled in the free Saturday afternoon art classes. Fifty more are on the waiting list. This proves that interest in the fine arts starts early and its influence is felt in unnumbered homes.

In 1933, radio talks on special exhibits were initiated and it is hoped that with television, even more interesting results may be obtained along this line.

After the talk, refreshments were served by Mrs. Harlow Russell's committee consisting of Mrs. Arthur Herrick, Miss Dorothy Gove, Mrs. Malcolm Shaffner and Mrs. Roger Burgoyne.

Mrs. James Russell and Miss Corinne Mead poured.

The most attractive and unusual table decoration was a wooden Swedish Christmas tree, hand carved and gayly colored, with lighted white candles. This was loaned by George MacFadden.

The exhibition will be open to the public through the month of December.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

There are two December dates for League members to keep in mind.

The final story group meeting under the Department of Government and Its Operations, Mrs. Harold O. Hall, chairman, will be held at the Library next Tuesday, Dec. 12, at 2:30 p. m. There will be a debate on the issues involved in the Equal Rights Amendment.

On Dec. 16 at Wyman School Hall will be the Evening meeting, an important event on the League calendar any year but this year, with Joseph C. Harsch speaking, of exceptional interest. Those of us who were fortunate enough to hear Mr. Harsch several years ago at the Fall Conference of the Massachusetts League can assure members that he is an outstanding speaker.

WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Mission Union Guild of the First Congregational Church will have Mrs. G. Ross Thomas, their own Church Missionary from Bombay India, as guest speaker at their Christmas party program, Tuesday, Dec. 12. Sewing at 10 a. m., board meeting at 12 noon, Luncheon at 1 p. m. with Mrs. Marshall W. Symmes Win. 1926 and Mrs. Harold M. Jones Win. 1821-R as hostesses. The program follows the luncheon. All women of the church are welcome.

Mrs. Thomas brings us news of India today with a background of 20 years service there.

The Women's Association wishes to thank all those who helped to make the Merry-Go Round Fair such a success. All who participated were generous givers of time, money and effort.

WILLIAMS—MESSENGER

There is Winchester interest in the marriage which took place in the Union Congregational Church at York Beach, Me., on Friday afternoon Nov. 17, when Miss Ruth Jean Messenger, daughter of Mr and Mrs Guy H. Messenger of York Beach, formerly of Winchester, became the bride of Pfc. James Leon Williams, son of Mr and Mrs Charles Williams of Durham N. C. Rev. Wallace Harris, pastor of the church, performed the double ring ceremony at 4 o'clock.

Given in marriage by her father Miss Messenger wore a gown of white chiffon having a lace yoke. Her fingertip-length veil was edged with lace and caught to a coronet of pearls and she carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums, white roses and bouvardia.

Miss Dorothy Rehberg of York Beach was maid of honor and the bride's only attendant. She wore a colonial style pink chiffon dress with ruffles at the neck and sleeves. She carried a Colonial nosegay and her small headdress was edged with aqua feathers, matching the ribbon of her bouquet. Guy H. Messenger, Jr., brother of the bride, was best man.

Immediately after the ceremony an informal reception was held at the rear of the church, the bride and bridegroom receiving with the mother of the bride. Mrs. Messenger wore a gown of soft blue combined with figured crepe in which fuchsia tones predominated. Her small hat was of the same blue as her gown with fuchsia trimmings and her corsage was of small white chrysanthemums.

Following the reception the bride party and a few intimate friends gathered at the Messenger home for refreshments and the cutting of the wedding cake, topped with a miniature soldier and his bride.

After a short wedding journey Pvt Williams will return to his Army duty at Mount Agamenticus in Maine and Mrs Williams will return to York Beach to make her home with her parents for the duration.

The bride attended York High School and Cushing Academy in Ashburnham.

GUILD OF THE INFANT SAVIOUR

The annual bazaar of the Chapter to be held on next Tuesday, Dec. 12, should be an opportune time to purchase many beautiful articles for Christmas gifts at reasonable prices. The bazaar will open at 10 a. m. and continue all day until closing at 6 p. m.

The country auction under chairmanship of Mrs. Joseph McGaragle promises to be an attractive feature of the bazaar. Mrs. Robert Cavanagh will be auctioneer.

President Mrs. Michael H. Hintlian is general chairman assisted by a large committee.

We are all saddened this week to learn of the death of our beloved member, Mrs. George McGoldrick in Roslindale. Mrs. McGoldrick, a charter member of this Chapter and one of our most popular and best loved members. Her sunny, happy personality and warm heartedness made many friends among old and young alike. We shall always remember her and our heartfelt sympathy is extended to her son, Mr. Cecil McGoldrick, in his great loss.

SERVICEMEN'S HOSPITALITY

During November, Winchester's Home Hospitality for service men provided dinner, evening and weekend homes away from home for more than 350 soldiers, sailors, marines and fliers of the United States and British Empire, according to the report filed by Mrs. Fred B. Chamberlin, hospitality chairman for the Hostess Club, which sponsored the activity for the month.

One sizeable event was a supper party with games, dancing and singing, arranged by the Forum of the First Congregational Church, with Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Feller in charge, but most of the entertaining was in small family gatherings, intended to furnish the homelike atmosphere and surroundings not to be found in the usual functions available to servicemen.

Hostesses during the month were Mrs. J. Waldo Bond, Mrs. Peter Boshco, Mrs. John Carruthers, Mrs. Will C. Cusack, Mrs. William L. Davis, Mrs. Frank Gumby, Mrs. H. Arthur Hall, Mrs. Fred L. Hicks, Mrs. Richard T. Morey, Mrs. Clarence A. Perkins, Mrs. Thomas P. Salmon, Mrs. Ralph Sexton, Mrs. Lymon B. Smith, Mrs. Leslie A. Tucker, Mrs. Walter W. Winship, Mrs. C. W. Wolfe, and Mrs. Edwin W. Zimmerman.

The number of men to be entertained in homes is unpredictable, although it is possible that there will be more than usual during the Christmas holidays, and it is desired to have as many hostesses available as possible. Those interested are requested to call Mrs. Lyman B. Smith, Win. 0802.

FINAL RESULTS OF WINCHESTER'S UNITED WAR FUND CAMPAIGN

A final tabulation of the 4012 contributions made during Winchester's recent Red Feather campaign in behalf of 26 Community Fund and 22 National War Fund Agencies, showed that Winchester people gave a total of $64,135.39. This put the town over the top 111.8 percent.

Here is the way each of the divisions finished:

Precinct 1, Frank Horne, director, 112.2 percent.

Precinct 2, T. W. Harris, Jr., director, 109.6 percent.

Precinct 3, Harold A. Smith, director, 109.1 percent.

Precinct 4, E. Ober Pride, director, 112.5 percent.

Precinct 5, John C. Willis, director, 107 percent.

Precinct 6, Doris Withrow, John Cassidy, Edw. McGrath, co-directors, 126.8 percent.

All Precincts, Howard R. Bartlett, assisted by Warren Whitman and Maxwell McCreery, 110.1 percent.

Special Gifts, James Nowell, 109.2 percent.

Stores and Factories, Stanley N. McNeilly, 129.0 percent.

Town Employees, William J. Maag, 129.0 percent.

Clubs, Ralph T. Jope, 280.0 percent.

In announcing the above results, Mr. George Chatfield chairman of the Winchester campaign, called particular attention to the corrected figure for Precinct 6. "Every division did a magnificent job," said Mr. Chatfield, "but Precinct 6 was the first precinct to reach 100 percent of its goal and their figure of 126.8 percent deserves real congratulations." High praise is also due every one of the 715 workers who made this success possible."

PACK 6 NEWS

There was a big turnout of Pack Six Cubs on December 1st at the Unitarian Church—some eighty boys were present with their parents.

They were led in singing Army Navy songs by Mr. Coon, Asst. Cubmaster, in honor of the Army-Navy game. The ten dens in Pack Six will collect salvage paper and an award will be given to the den with the best collection.

Advancements awards were presented to 15 Bobcats, 4 Wolves, 5 Wolf gold arrows, 1 Bear gold arrow, 2 Bear silver arrows, and 1 Lion badge. There were 12 registrations, and 8 new boys applied for registration.

Mrs Simmes and Mrs. Keyes of Den 1 with a percentage of 95.6, received the silk flag for best of achievement of their den for the month.

The boys enjoyed a sound movie which pleased the parents as well.

The Den Mothers of Pack 6 and their Den Chiefs will have a buffet supper on 7 December at the Unitarian Church where they will receive instructions in handicraft from professional experts.

Pack 6 will try and equal their last year's inspection by the Commission of Winchester at their January meeting. Their percentage last year was 99%.

The high score was achieved because of the splendid work done by the boys and the wonderful cooperation between Den Mothers, Den Chiefs and the Cubmaster and Committeewomen.

Sgt. Thomas C. Laigaie, 24, of Philadelphia, Penn., and Cpl. John F. Wolfe, 25, of this town, gun commander and gunner respectively in a tank destroyer battalion, have been cited for meritorious achievement in combat and awarded Bronze Stars by order of Maj. Gen. John S. Wood, commanding the 8th Armored Division.

The citation reads in part: "On Sept. 12, 1944, near Montecourt, France, while in an assembly area, approximately seven enemy tanks took the platoon, under fire. The first rounds wounded six men of the platoon. There was a heavy fog and targets could not be seen. Sgt. Laigaie, gun commander and Cpl. Wolfe, gunner, of one of the tank destroyers, dismounted from their destroyer, sent it to the rear, and went to the aid of the wounded men. Ignoring the high explosive rounds bursting all around them, Sgt. Laigaie and Cpl. Wolfe gave first aid to the six wounded men and evacuated two of them to an aid station 200 yards to the rear.

"Sgt. Laigaie was struck by a shell fragment but the fragment did not penetrate. Throughout this time, artillery and tank fire was landing all through the area. Sgt. Laigaie and Cpl. Wolfe showed the highest courage under fire, voluntarily leaving the protection of their tank destroyer to go to the aid of the wounded men in spite of the heavy fire and consequent danger to themselves. Their action is deserving of the highest praise."

Cpl. Wolfe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wolfe, 19 Jefferson road, was inducted on March 25, 1942.

GRADUATED FROM NORTHEASTERN

Robert C. Twombly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Twombly of 16 Lawson road, was among those graduated from the three day colleges of Northeastern University Sunday afternoon at Bates Hall in Boston.

Twombly, a graduate of Winchester High School, has been active at Northeastern, having been editor-in-chief of Cauldron, student publication, a member of the Husky Plus Committee, and of the Senior Week Committee. He was also a member of Nu Epsilon Zeta fraternity, of the Interfraternity Council, American Society of Mechanical Engineers and of the Society for the Advancement of Management. On the Deans' List, Twombly was listed in "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges." He did his co-operative work at Northeastern with the Amory Foundry Co. in Boston.

LT. JOHNSON'S DOGS AIDED INVASION

The Saturday Evening Post of Nov. 25 contains an article on the K9 Corps, better known to most Americans as the trained dog group. The armed service particularly the Army and Marine Corps have been using most of these dogs and with good results. In this article it speaks about the Marine Raider outfit which went ashore at Cape Gloucester in the Pacific with Lt. Robert Johnson of Ledyard road, Winchester, and these dogs operated until the island was secured and did all that was expected of them. Lt. Johnson now is making his home in Nebraska, but has been ordered to Hollywood by the Army to make a picture for MGM with the noted movie dog "Lassie."

"RUSTY" DONAGHEY HOME

Staff Sgt. Robert L. Donaghey, USA, Medical Corps, son of Police Sgt. and Mrs. James P. Donaghey of Washington street, is home on leave after 21 months service in the Pacific Theater.

"Rusty", as he is known to local sports followers who liked his aggressive play and hard hitting when he was catching for Winchester High, the Millionaires and the Elks, arrived in Winchester at 11:30 last week Thursday night, delighted to be in the old home town once more.

He came to this country from Hollandia in New Guinea after participating in four campaigns, those of the Netherlands East Indies, Papua, New Guinea and the Dutch campaigns. Attached to a portable hospital unit as supply sergeant, he has kept on the jump and is down to a mere 150 pounds which is away below his usual baseball weight.

"Rusty" claims it wasn't all work that pulled him down. He has had Malaria nine times and after his first attack nudged the scales at only 128. He went overseas with a station hospital in April of 1942, transferring to a portable unit in July because of the greater chance for action with the smaller group.

He apparently found the action he craved for his outfit was awarded the Presidential Citation for outstanding service.

WEEK-END FIRES

The first of several alarms over the past week-end came in at 1:10 Friday afternoon when Box 18 was sounded for trouble with an oil burner on a kitchen range at the home of Mr. George Fearnley, 59 Hemingway st.

Sunday at 9:11 a. m. a gas leak in a refrigerator called the department to the apartment at 9a Cabot street occupied by Mr. Thomas H. Howe. Donning gas masks, the firemen carried the refrigerator from the apartment into the air.

Box 14 came in at 2:15 Sunday afternoon for a brush fire west of Fairmont street in the north end. At 1:30 the Police Department notified the Central Station of a brush fire on Ridge street near Dunster lane.

Sunday's first alarm came at 10:22 p. m. when an oxygen tent in the Boston and Maine switch tower called the Central Station reporting a fire on Thompson street. The firemen found upon arrival that the fire was confined to an awning at the Winchester News Co.

HOME FROM PACIFIC

Pfc. Howard S. Hughes, nephew of Mr. Leon D. Hughes of 10a Winthrop street, arrived in Winchester last Friday on leave after 31 months service in the Pacific theater with the 182nd Infantry. He saw action at both Guadalcanal and Bougainville and returned to this country from Caledonia, delighted to be home. Pvt. Hughes will stay in Winchester until Dec. 15 when he will visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Hughes, in Scranton, Pa. He came to Winchester in 1937 and before entering the Army three and one-half years ago worked for the New England Confectionary Co in Cambridge. After his leave he will report to a redistribution center at Asheville, N. C.

THANKSGIVING DAY DINNER OVERSEAS

"Thanksgiving Day in France," remarked Pfc. Elmer V. Josephson, a member of the 36th Texas Division, fighting in Eastern France. "Plenty of mud and rain, but I'm certainly thankful to be here. That dinner was great. Had all I could eat."

Pfc. Josephson joined the 36th Division on Aug. 15, 1942. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Josephson reside at 65 Brookside avenue.

LARSON PROMOTED

Lt. (jg) C. S. Larson, USNR, son of Mrs. C. S. Larson of 4 Maxwell road has recently received a promotion from Ensign, USNR.

Lt. Larson received his wings at Corpus Christie, Texas and is now stationed at the U. S. Naval Air Station at Atlanta, Ga.

"Connie" was graduated from the Winchester High School with the class of 1942.

Edward N. Winship, Jr., 53 Wildwood street has been awarded his letter in football at the Fessenden School, West Newton. Edward who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward N. Winship, was a member of the mid get team.

WINCHESTER WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

Extends Christmas Greetings to All Its Friends

1944—"The Hopes and Fears of All the Years are Met in Thee Tonight"

These are the words with which Phillips Brooks wrote of that "Little Town of Bethlehem," where was born in far-off Judea, nearly 2000 years ago, the Child whose birth gave us our Christmas. And still today the hopes and fears of all the years meet in Him as they did that night in the lowly manger where He lay.

Christmas comes, we say, but once a year. But He is ever coming — coming to the hearts of men with the divinest message humanity has ever heard.

No wonder Christmas Day is the Day of Days. Whatever it may bring us this year of joy or sorrow, it is our assurance that "Peace on Earth and Good Will toward Men" is still life's final goal.

Dear Santa, I have heard folks say
That every dog should have its day,
And so I dip my paw in ink
To say the ideal gift, I think,
Would be a master who can run
From dawn until the setting sun.
Some one who's good at signal talk,
Who knows the woodlands like a hawk.
Some one who likes to feel a nose
Just slightly moist against his toes.
So Santa—don't bring me a toy
But just give me an average boy!

THE U. S. SECRET SERVICE WARNS OF CHECK THIEF AND FORGER

Check thieves and check forgers will do their Christmas shopping with stolen and forged checks if merchants and housewives aren't particularly careful, according to the U. S. Secret Service, Treasury Department. "The government mails out nearly one million checks every day," and about eight million go each month to dependents of men in the armed forces. Check thieves steal as many as they can from hall and porch mail boxes. Then they forge the endorsements and victimize retailers who are so anxious to make sales that they fail to consider the losses they may suffer through carelessness.

The Secret Service offers some simple precautions to help fight the forgery racket. If you receive checks by mail, be at home or have a member of your family at home to receive the checks when they are due. Then they can't be stolen from your mail box.

If you are a retailer or cashier, don't cash checks for strangers without proper identification. Know your endorsers! Before cashing any check ask yourself this question: "If this check is returned as a forgery, can I locate the forger and recover my loss?"

SEVENTH GENERATION

Lt. George R. Dunning, Jr., USAAF and Mrs. Dunning, the former Shirley Lewis Cook, granddaughter of the late Mrs Fiske Bradford, of Cambridge St announce the birth of a son, Dwight Whitmore Dunning, Dec. 3, at the New Rochelle Hospital, New Rochelle N. Y.

Grandparents are Mr and Mrs Dwight Whitmore Cooke (Katharine Fiske) of Reading, Vt. and Mr. George Ray Dunning and the late Mrs Dunning of Boston.

Lt. Dunning is stationed at Page Field, Fort Myers, Fla., receiving final fighter pilot training before going into combat in January. His son is the seventh generation of the Cooke-Whitmore family at "Barnleigh", the family homestead in Reading, Vt. where he and his mother are living for the duration.

AWARDED PURPLE HEART

Pfc Richard W. Aitchison, USA, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Aitchison of Governor's Ave., has been awarded the Purple Heart medal and citation for wounds received in action on Oct 21 at Aachen in France. He was first taken to a hospital in Italy, after which he was flown to a hospital in England, where he is now receiving treatment.

A member of the infantry of the 79th Division, Pvt. Aitchison has been in the service since August, 1943, and has been overseas since early in April. He is married and makes his home in Lewiston, Me., where his wife is a school teacher.

Work was started this week at the rear of the Boggs & Cobb tannery in raising the level of the town dump. A second layer of dumping will raise the level by several feet.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LECTURE

In Winchester Theatre last Sunday afternoon Florence Middaugh, C. S., of Los Angeles, California, lectured on Christian Science. The Science of Divine Mind, under the auspices of First Church of Christ, Scientist, Winchester. Miss Middaugh is a member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, Boston. She was introduced by the first reader of the Winchester church, Ernest J. Wright.

The lecture spoke, in part, as follows:

The Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, Mary Baker Eddy, stood on a mount of revelation, and came down to give to the people the same truth, the same Christ, and the same God which Moses saw face to face as "I AM THAT I AM," and of whom Jesus said, "I and my Father are one." Mary Baker Eddy received the final revelation of the Principle, which is divine, and the rule by which man utilizes this divine power. Christian Science teaches one God, one Christ, and man as God's reflection. It reveals God, divine Mind, as the source of man's true being, and demonstrates that in proportion to the understanding and utilization of this revelation are the sick and sinning healed and awakened to Life eternal.

It is not easy to state spiritual truths, scientific facts, in a language which all can understand, but Mrs. Eddy accomplished this task. The truth of her revelation can be applied to the everyday needs of humanity.

Her love for man was augmented by her love for God. She worked tirelessly, without faltering, in the face of terrific opposition, and with little human aid, to give us this "Spirit of truth," refusing to be turned aside or discouraged. The full expression of this revelation is found in the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," which she wrote.

In Science and Health there is a chapter entitled "Recapitulation," which Mrs. Eddy has devoted to questions and answers. To the question (p. 165), "What is God?" she answers, "God is incorporeal, divine, supreme, infinite Mind, Spirit, Soul, Principle, Life, Truth, Love." These seven synonyms have become familiar to students of Christian Science and indicate the wholeness and completeness of Deity.

Jesus explained the Christ and proved himself to be the Son of God. He knew that the Christ is divine, and incorporeal—the idea of Truth, the principle of which is divine Love. It is through this same redemptive Christ, Truth, that we too today are finding our true spiritual being as revealed in Christian Science.

Knowledge of the allness of God is a law of elimination to every thing unlike good. Mrs. Eddy writes (Miscellaneous Writings, p. 24), "This knowledge is practical, for it wrought my immediate recovery from an injury caused by an accident, and pronounced fatal by the physicians." Religion is Christlike only when it repeats the works, as well as the words, of the Wayshower, Christ Jesus, and this is what Christian Science is teaching us to do.

Whether it appears as a sick body, a sick business, or a bad disposition, in harmony is a belief in the absence of good. Destroy the false belief with Truth, and the effect disappears, for the belief and its effect are one. Awaken a dreamer, and the dream vanishes, together with complications and distressing situations.

Recognizing the universality of good, Mrs. Eddy founded the Church of Christ, Scientist, to bless all mankind. Its Rules and By-Laws are designed to awaken not only faith in Christianity, but to establish in thought and practice a demonstrable understanding of Christ, Truth, in human experience.

The Christian Science church is founded upon the spiritual truth enumerated on page 497 of Science and Health. They form the Tenets of the church, and a careful study of these Tenets reveals the spiritually mental nature of Church and how to uphold the institution whose mission is to heal and save mankind.

Jesus spoke to his disciples of conditions times to come, when there would be "upon the earth distress of nations . . . men's hearts failing them for fear," but that "when these thing begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads."

So now is the time to lift our own thought above sense testimony to spiritual reality.

WAR VETERANS ADVISORY COMMITTEE

A conference of the recently appointed Family Advisory Committee was held in the Public Library on Thursday afternoon. The meeting was conducted by Mr. Malcolm S. Nichols, chairman of the Family Assistance Committee. Miss Polly De Weese, director of the Metropolitan Service of the Family Society participated in the conference.

CHURCH UNITY?

The news that the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America had refused the application for membership of the Universalist Church of America came as a shock to liberal Christians of all faiths.

There was particular concern in Winchester because Dr. Robert Cummins, the president of the Universalist Church is a fellow-townsman.

Though there is no local Universalist Church the Unitarian Church here has a close connection with this sister church as its youth leaders assisting the minister have for some years been students of Crane Theological School of Tufts College.

Rev. Paul Harmon Chapman, minister of the Unitarian Church here was asked his reaction to the Federal Council's action.

He said in part:

"I wonder what the men and women of the Armed Forces will think of such a demonstration on the part of a group of churches? The principles back of this undemocratic, unchristian and exclusive action are just what our loved ones in the services are fighting against and we are pouring out millions to prevent. The only religious distinctions of the Army and Navy are Protestant, Catholic and Jewish. Even these groupings are to be disregarded in time of stress. Every chaplain is instructed to serve every man who needs his help no matter what his faith may be. All Protestants are classed together and services are conducted without regard to denominational difference.

"The young people in the service like it, they think it's great. I do hope it will extend to the time when comes an action like this one the Federal Council's on the home front! How can these fine young people help feeling that the churches have let them down? The fact that there are over 200 Protestant denominations and only 26 of them are in the Federal Council makes this action all the more deplorable.

"It comes as a direct challenge to Massachusetts. Our Massachusetts Council of Churches has long included in its membership Universalists and Unitarians and other denominations not in the Federal Council. Members of these several faiths are serving as officers and on many state Council committees.

In most of our towns and cities there is full co-operation of all churches in inter-church activities. For example, in our neighboring town of Lexington, united church action was begun in 1900 by the Unitarian and Congregational ministers. This cooperation has developed until today it works through a council of Churches composed of ministers and laymen. It not only conducts union services but a United-Every-Member-Canvas; periodic religious surveys of the town and provides a united church backing for anything which is of spiritual and ethical value to the town. This is typical of many cities and towns in the state.

... of this town wish to assure Dr. Cummins and the Universalists of our determination to join hands with all who are striving to break down the barriers which put our intelligence to shame, and "to bring Christians together in closer affiliation."

MISS KNOWLTON HOSTESS

Miss Ethel Knowlton, teacher of French in the local high school served as hostess at the final lecture and tea of the France Forever Group last Saturday afternoon at the College Club.

The meeting which was conducted entirely in French was addressed by Prof. Rene Messieres of the Wellesley College faculty.

OLD FARMER'S ALMANACS at Wilson the Stationers.

To the People of this Community

The best way to observe the defeat of Hitler is to buy an extra War Bond. In thousands upon thousands of American homes today there is pride and sadness. From these homes have come fighting men who died to bring us this far on the road to decisive victory over all our enemies. It will take more sweat, more tears, more toil, more and greater individual War Bond buying before we see Japan in the ruins these barbarians of the Pacific planned for us. How much more blood and tears depends on every individual American war worker and Bond buyer.

The Sixth War Loan symbol—a bomb hurling down on the Rising Sun—can only come to reality with your individual help. Buy at least an extra $100 War Bond above your normal payroll savings. That's the least you can do to back up your fighting men.

THE EDITOR.

THE FORTNIGHTLY

Christmas means home to all of us, actually or in memory, and it is particularly fitting that the December meeting should be devoted to home talent.

The afternoon program will include The Fortnightly Singers in Carols of many Countries directed by Mary Ranton Witham, and a Christmas play of beauty and deep significance, "Dust of the Road." Mrs. Stanley D. Howe, Mrs. William C. Hultgren, Mrs. Warren C. Whitman, and Mrs. John B. Wills are in the cast, and Mrs. Henry A. Hill is directing the production.

The hour is two o'clock. Mrs. Francis C. Bowes and Mrs. William Martens serving as hostesses for the tea following the program.

Psychologists recommend the positive approach, so we won't suggest don't forget, but remember the gift for the servicemen whose Christmas Day will be happier because you have shared in it. Mrs. Rasmus K. Miller and Mrs. John W. Haines are the chairmen, and are at your service for information or suggestions.

ABERJONA STAFF ELECTED

The class of 1945 at Winchester High School has announced that Betty A. Connor will be editor-in-chief of the next Aberjona.

SGT. McFARLANE REPRESENTS POLICE RADIO SYSTEMS

Sgt. Donald J. McFarlane of the Metropolitan Police, who makes his home at 2 Bonad road, has been for the past ten months making flying trips all over the country, the mystery of which has at last been solved.

Last January a meeting of all the radio engineers of the United States was called in Chicago, Ill., for the purpose of forming a Radio Technical Planning Board to correlate all the data possible, based on good engineering practice, for a sound and economical basis on which to recommend to the public and government all decisions reached by this planning board for the reallocation of frequencies in the radio spectrum after the war. These recommendations, if accepted, would then be a foundation on which to base our international agreements on radio, usually arrived at in one of the foreign countries. As radio signals have no boundary and travel with the speed of light it can easily be seen why international agreements have to be in accord.

At the Chicago meeting in January, Sgt. McFarlane was selected to represent the police radio systems of this country as he is not only the radio supervisor of the Metropolitan District Commission but is president of the Eastern States Police Radio League, a post he has held since its formation in 1938. It is the work of this league to allocate all the frequencies for the New England States before the Federal Communications Commission will accept a construction permit for a police radio system. This formulating of plans made it necessary for Sgt. McFarlane to make four trips to Chicago, one to Indianapolis, one Toledo, eight trips to New York and New Jersey and finally to go to Washington, D. C. Many side trips were made at the expense of the New England Police Chiefs, such as a trip to Poland Springs, Me., to the Poland Spring House, to address the New England Police Chief and inform them of all plans to date.

Many dinners and conventions held by Police and Fire organizations were also attended. It can be seen by all this traveling, mostly at the expense of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts through the foresight of Governor Leverett Saltonstall and Sgt. McFarlane's Commissioner, Eugene C. Hultman, a renowned signal engineer, that Don has been a very busy man, having been at home about one month since last January.

Services closely associated with Sgt. McFarlane and his police and fire radio systems are all the power companies of the country, transit, bus, taxicab, public utilities, highways, railroads and the telephone company, together with broadcasters, television, interstate navigation and all other radio services of this country.

The final meeting of the Radio Board was held at the Hotel Roosevelt in New York and most of these services reached an agreement as to their needs and harmonious relations were arrived at.

The Army, Navy, Marine Corps and other governmental groups were represented at this meeting by a board appointed by President Roosevelt, known as the Interdepartment Radio Advisory Committee. They made their recommendations to the government at the presentation in Washington, D. C. The members of the Radio Technical Planning Board made their recommendations before the full board of the Federal Communications Commission, on Nov. 18 to 24.

Sgt. McFarlane presented the police and fire departments recommendations and explained the necessity of radio in these departments in such a noteworthy manner that upon completion of the police testimony the chairman of the Federal Communications Commission commended the Police for the presentation and openly praised the police for their public spiritedness and patriotism in working so hard to bring before the government such a strong and honest case.

Sgt. McFarlane's work is now completed and although rather tired after such an experience he feels proud that a really good job has been done. With his usual modesty he refuses to accept self praise, explaining his feeling, saying that it would not have been possible to work on this problem had not his boss, Eugene C. Hultman, been behind him 100 percent in all his endeavors.

WINCHESTER ARMY DOCTOR COMMENDED

Capt. William D. Barone, M. C., flight surgeon serving with the Armed Forces overseas, recently received a noteworthy commendation for his work.

The Captain has been commanding officer of a mobile hospital unit with the 9th Air Forces, attached to a fighter group. The hospital has been set up in fields, chateaus, hospitals, etc., in various parts of France, close by or within the area of the Fighter Group. Besides caring for the patients evacuated by the squadron and group surgeons, the hospital services all groups that service the fighter group, anti air craft, repair units, service groups, etc. and oftentimes French civilians and prisoners of war. When the unit first located in France in July, it was the only hospital installation within a 100 mile area. Almost as fast as the front lines clear an area for an air strip, the unit moves up.

The commendation follows:
Headquarters 358th Fighter Group
Office of the Group Commander
APO 111, U. S. Army,
Nov. 5, 1944

201-Barone, William D. (O)
Subject: Commendation.
To: Capt. William D. Barone, O-2000082, MC, Surgeon, 155th Medical Dispensary (Avn), APO 111, U. S. Army.

1. The under-signed has observed with pleasure and satisfaction the efficient and highly commendable manner in which you have carried out your duties as surgeon of the 155th Medical Dispensary (Avn) since you became associated with this Group 1 July 1941.

2. The excellent medical care provided by your organization and the complete co-operation you have given the medical staff of the 358th Fighter Group, have made possible a high standard of medical care for the entire organization.

3. The manner of performance of your organization reflects great credit to yourself and to the men who have served with you.

4. This letter of commendation will be made a matter of record and a copy will be placed in your 201 file.

PFC. ORR KILLED IN ACTION

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest W. Orr of 21 Winslow road have been notified by the War Department that their son, Pfc. William A. Orr, was killed in action in France on Nov. 17 while fighting with the 104th Infantry of the 26th Division under General Patton.

Pvt. Orr was born in Providence but spent practically all of his life in Winchester, attending the Winchester schools and graduating from high school in the class of 1942. He was a member of the First Congregational Church.

After completing his freshman year at Tufts College he entered the service in August, 1943, receiving his basic training at Fort Benning, in Georgia. From there he was sent to the University of Maine for several months of engineering training in the AST.

When the AST was discontinued last April he was assigned to Fort Jackson, N. C., where he became a member of the Y. D., and was awarded the Expert Infantry Medal.

Pvt. Orr went overseas early in the fall, landing in France Sept. 9. He joined Patton's Army Oct. 1 and had been in action since that time. Besides his parents he is survived by a sister, Esther, a freshman at Winchester High School.

SPORTS BANQUET SATURDAY

Winchester High School's All Sports Banquet will be held in the school gymnasium Saturday evening with the members of all the boys' and girls' squads in attendance together with their coaches, faculty directors and invited guests.

The Mansfield and Wheeler Sportsmanship Cups will be awarded and the captains of next year's football and hockey teams announced. Pictures of the Woburn and other football games will be shown. There will be no guest speaker.

It is reported that the cause of so many trucks passing through town with baled hay is that Canada has placed an embargo on the shipment of hay.

LT COMDR RICHARD W MacADAMS

Mrs. Richard W MacAdams of Kenilworth road received official notification from the Navy Department this week that her husband, Lt. Comdr Richard W MacAdams is now presumed to be dead, after having been missing in action for a year following the sinking of the carrier U. S. S. Liscome Bay which was participating in the capture of the Gilbert Islands, Nov. 24, 1943.

Joint Navy, Elks and Legion Memorial Services, arranged by Winchester Post, 97, are to be held for Lt. Comdr. MacAdams on Sunday, Dec. 10, at 2:30 p. m.

Since the Legion Headquarters is not adaptable for this purpose, Rev. Paul Harmon Chapman, Chaplain of the Legion, has offered the use of his church, and the services will be held at the Unitarian Church on Mystic Valley Parkway.

Following the church service, a Memorial stone will be dedicated in honor of Lt. Comdr. MacAdams at Wildwood Cemetery. All who wish to do so are invited to attend both services.

PICKERING PRISONER OF WAR

Word has been received that Lt. Lewis Pickering, former Winchester boy, reported missing in action in the European Theater, in October, is now a prisoner of war in Germany.

Lt. Pickering is the son of the late Harry J. Pickering, formerly associated with the Winchester and Springfield plants of the New England Laundries. He is the nephew of Mr. Dana C. Pickering of Hemingway street. Attached to the field artillery, he entered the service more than two yeargs ago. He is married and was living in Springfield before entering the army.

Mr. and Mrs. Erskine N. White and Mrs. Maurice F. Brown gave a dinner to the wedding party on Saturday night previous to the Hakanson-Wilson ceremony.

PRESTON—CROWLEY

Miss Rose Ann Crowley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard F. Crowley of Forest street and Lt. (jg) B. Thomas Preston, son of Mrs. Meriel T. Preston of Mt. Pleasant street, were married Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 6, at a 4 o'clock ceremony performed in St. Mary's Rectory by the pastor, Rev. Fr. John P. O'Riordan.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Crowley was attended by her sister, Miss Mary K. Crowley of this town.

The bride wore a period gown of traditional white satin styled with the new off-the-shoulder neckline, basque waist, long pointed sleeves, a hoop skirt and a full court train. Her fingertip-length veil of imported illusion was caught to a Juliet cap of white satin and she carried a matching satin-bound prayer-book with a single orchid and satin markers with stephanotis.

The honor maid wore an ice blue dress having a satin waist with a sweetheart neckline and a bouffant skirt of marquisette with satin appliques. Her shoulder-length veil was caught to a half hat of marquisette to match her dress and she carried an old fashioned nosegay.

Franklin Evans of Winchester was Lt. Preston's best man and the ushers were Lt. (jg) H. S. Strawn and Ensigu J. Koerber, both attached to the Naval Aviation Squadron at Squantum.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Hotel Commander in Cambridge, the parents of the bride assisting in receiving with the mother of the bridegroom, the maid of honor and the best man. At the conclusion of the reception, Lt. Preston and his bride left on a wedding journey through the White Mountains.

The bride is a graduate of Fisher College and a member of Alpha Iota sorority. Lt. Preston attended Northeastern University and is a Navy flyer at Squantum.

She took special training in Machinists Drafting and prior to her enlistment worked for Transit Machine Works, Sperry Gyroscope Brooklyn, New York, and also for the Webster Engineering Company.

GREAT FOOTBALL SEASON

Reading Thing Prevented Unbeaten Record

When Winchester beat Woburn, 13-0, on Thanksgiving Day at Woburn, it completed one of its best football seasons in many years, despite the fact that officially it did not attain the unbeaten, untied status of Bill West's Class C championship team of 1942. The 1941 team equalled this year's record of nine wins in ten starts, losing only to a good Danvers team, but we would rate this season's eleven better than the 1941 club and even superior to the championship team of two years ago. As a matter of fact it is the Star reporter's opinion, for what it may be worth, that the current club is the best Coach "Henny" Knowlton has produced here and fit to rate with the best in the school's history. In the matter of combined weight, balance and depth we can recall no Winchester club to equal it.

The 1937 team captained by Ficociello and Sibley probably came the nearest to having depth comparable to this year's team, but even that club had no such subs as those in the second and third waves of this year's great squad. Nor did it have the weight this year's husky boys averaged between 172 and 175 lbs. with no one over the 200 pound notch. That average makes this year's club, so far as we recall, the heaviest in the history of the school.

Dana Kelly's great team of 1922 had a good influence as this year's team, but no reserves at all to speak of and it's team average was 159. That 1922 club had a lot of luck in not having injuries to key players for whom there were no replacements. Also it was away better coached than most of the teams it played which probably helped a lot in running up the huge scores it amassed against teams like Arlington, Melrose, Watertown and Belmont. We aren't deprecating that 1922 powerhouse, but we wouldn't want to have the family plate riding on it to beat the locals of this year. Glen Kendrick's passing might have turned the trick. He is the best for our money in Winchester's history.

Coach Knowlton's 1927 team, last to win a Mystic League championship and the best team Mansfield coached, had neither the depth, balance nor weight of this year's team. Neither did the team of 1916 captained by Brooks Jakeman though that was a heavy team, heavier than either the 1922 or 1927 teams and probably heftier than the 1937 club. It had no 172 pound average though and its record was not nearly as good as those of the other teams. The 1922 team had the best record, winning all its schoolboy contests and being tied only by Milton Academy. The 1927 team lost one in 10, including a post season game and the 1937 team dropping two contests. The 1916 team dropped three.

Only the team of 1942, so far as records are available has gone through its season unbeaten and untied. Good as Bill West's club was, it needed a big big nod from Lady Luck to turn the trick as any one who saw the Stoneham game that year will agree. Stoneham literally handed that one to the locals. There was no such presentation when Winchester had the Reading game taken away from it this season.

We will admit freely that the locals had their bad day at Reading. They were sharp only during the first half and even then were below the form they showed against such teams as Wenthrop, Framingham, Belmont and Wakefield. Most clubs have at least one off day during a season. In fact they are lucky to have only one. Winchester was below par for Reading, having been thinking in terms of Framingham and then ahead to Belmont, teams that respectively beat and tied the locals the year previous.

Reading on the other hand was "up" for Winchester and especially the second half played inspired football, hard football for a below-par team to beat.

Good as Reading was, it took a couple of decisions by the referee to give its team the ball game, one a decision very much open to question and the other a decision as wrong as they make 'em and proved so by the motion pictures of the game.

The first decision nullified a touchdown by Tibaudo on a back-in-motion penalty just before the half. The pictures show the back specified as steady as the Rock of Gibraltar. The second decision took away a touchdown with five minutes of the final quarter remaining when the referee ruled "Chucker" Roche had stepped outside as he threw a 50 yard pass which Jimmy Haggerty converted into a touchdown. The pictures show Roche well inside the touchline after getting rid of the ball which is shown in the air on its way to its receiver. That touchdown was legal if ever there was one, and had it been allowed, Winchester would have led 15-13 with five minutes left. Those remaining five minutes would never have been played as they were after that score was nullified.

Reading never would have scored its third touchdown while the lift Winchester would have gotten from the score and Reading's disappointment could easily have permitted the locals to have scored another. Anyone who saw them against Belmont will believe that they darn well could.

The point to all this is that you can't have two touchdowns taken away against as good a club as Reading and still win, so though the official record will list that game as a defeat local fans needn't feel too badly about it.

Statistically this year's club did pretty well, scoring 208 points while giving up 31 to the opposition. Running up 111 first downs it rushed for about 2246 yards and completed 22 of 50 passes for 332 yards, making a total of 2572. The yardage figure is approximate because the Star did not have its own statistics for the

MRS. CHARLES N. HARRIS

Mrs. Charles N Harris (Sarah W Bird) widow of Judge Harris, formerly of the Middlesex Probate Court died at her home 18 Hillside avenue last evening, Dec. 7, in her 89th year. Mrs. Harris was born in Foxboro Nov. 16, 1856, daughter of Henry M. and Sarah Clark Bird. Her early years were spent largely in Somerville and Cambridge. During her school days in Somerville she formed a life long friendship with Helen H. Bowers, later Mrs. Edwin N Lovering. They were classmates at Allen Academy and later lived in adjoining houses on Hillside avenue for nearly 40 years.

Mrs. Harris entered Wellesley College in 1875, in the first class to matriculate there when the college opened. She married in 1880 and six years later moved to Winchester.

During her long residence here, she was active in the work of the First Congregational Church, of which she had been a member since 1897. Of a deeply religious and spiritual nature, she was devoted to her church and its various missionary organizations. She was also, until a few years ago, keenly interested in painting and those who have seen her oil, china or water-color paintings have been impressed with her artistic skill.

She leaves two sons, Arthur S. Harris and Henry B. Harris, both residing on Hillside avenue; a brother, Robert C. Bird of Arlington and four grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted in the Ripley Memorial Chapel of the First Congregational Church by its pastor, Rev. Howard J. Chidley, D. D., Saturday at 2:30 p. m. Interment will be in the family lot in Wildwood Cemetery.

JOHN J. McKINNON

John J. McKinnon of 42c Highland avenue died suddenly Friday afternoon, Dec. 1, while on his way home from his business in Boston. He was stricken with a heart attack after boarding an outbound train at the North Station and died before his arrival at the Boston City Hospital.

Mr. McKinnon was associated with the City Ice and Fuel Company in Boston as a superintendent. He was the son of Frank and Jennie (Moffatt) MacKinnon, and was born Nov 14, 1897, in Pawatuck, Wis. He came from Reading to make his home in Winchester three years ago. His wife, the former Olive M Manley, survives.

The remains were sent Sunday afternoon to Toledo, Ohio, where the funeral took place and requiem high mass was celebrated on Wednesday morning Interment was in Toledo

Marine Sgt. David P. Cameron, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cameron, of 90 Church street has been promoted from corporal to his present rank. Sgt Cameron is now serving as an aviation machinist mate with the 9th Marine Aircraft Wing, which is in combat training at the Marine Corps Air Station at Cherry Point, N C He enlisted on Feb. 13, 1943.

Thoughts that Heal and Prevent Disease

The growing recognition among physicians and others of the value of thought in the treatment of disease, Christian Science shows to be a development of much significance and promise.

It is a step toward the universal adoption of a healing practice like that of the Founder of Christianity. For, as Christian Science shows unmistakably, a scientific method of thought was responsible for the superb healing work of Jesus. The same method, fully explained in this Science, accounts for its own remarkable cures today.

What often remains as a problem in medical practice after it has been seen that improvement in thought can improve the body, is the apparent impossibility of improving thought. This problem is solved by Christian Science, which discloses and proves that the kinds of thoughts which overcome and prevent disease are really natural for everyone.

The complete explanation of Christian Science and its method of healing and preventing disease is given in

Let's make this a Red Cross Christmas!

Give Winchester an enviable name for Christmas by exceeding, this month, its quota for whole blood and plasma.

What a grand Holiday feeling we may experience when we know that we have adequately provided for the needs and comfort of our boys in service

On behalf of the boys on their way to the front we wish to express our thanks and appreciation to the many loyal citizens who have donated packages to add to their Christmas cheer.

You are entitled to the thrill resulting from a mental picture of some boy opening his package on Christmas morning and, by his happy smile and sparkling eye, thanking you for remembering him.

P. O. MONEY ORDER SERVICE

Postmaster General Walker announced that a contract was awarded this week for the manufacture of 100,000,000 Postal Notes and efforts are being made to place this new and inexpensive type of money order on sale at all of the 1555 First Class Post Offices by approximately Jan. 1.

"The Postal Note epitomizes what we are attempting to accomplish in the entire administration of the Postal Service," Mr. Walker said. "We want the Postal Service to be characterized by efficiency and economy."

The new type of money order will be made available to post offices other than of the first class as rapidly as adequate stocks of Postal Notes come from the presses. However, from the beginning they may be cashed at any post office in the United States.

Eighteen denominations of stamps will be issued in connection with the Postal Notes. They are: 1c, 2c, 3c, 4c, 5c, 6c, 7c, 8c, 9c, 10c, 20, 30 40 50, 60, 70, 80, 90, cents. There will be 11 denominations of Notes: 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, $10.

The new Postal Note is designed as a safe, convenient and economical way of sending through the mails amounts of money not exceeding $10. Simplified methods of sale and accounting makes it possible to handle the Notes at a uniform fee of 5 cents. The conventional money order is not being displaced by the new Note.

This is the procedure that will be followed when Postal Notes become available. A person who wants a Postal Note for $2.93 will go to the money order window. The clerk will affix a 90c and a 3c stamp to a $2 Postal Note and exchange the Note for 2.98. There are no applications for the purchaser to fill out, no writing to be done by the clerk. The purchaser leaves the window, writes in the name of the payee on the Note, detaches his record stub on which he records the payee's name, and mails the Postal Note. The Notes itself is a pre-punched calculating card form.

ENTERTAINED AT SUPPER

Dr. and Mrs. Howard J. Chidley entertained 30 friends at a buffet supper at their home on Myopia Hill on Wednesday, Dec. 6.

This preceded the showing of Dr. Tozier's beautiful pictures, "Where Nature Reigns Supreme", given at the First Congregational Church for the benefit of the work for the church's men and women in the armed forces.

Mrs Edith J. Low of Wildwood St has left for Winter Park, Florida where she will spend the winter

IT STARTED FROM SCRATCH

By Ethel M. Eaton

They wanted a garden, so here's what the Willard Hudson's of Winchester, Mass., did to a bare, unpromising lot. There was nothing but the house on it when they took over.

"I wanted a pool somewhere," says Mrs. Hudson, "so I went through the house looking from the windows of all the first floor rooms. I wanted it where it could be enjoyed from indoors as well as out. Finally, from the side dining-room window I could visualize a pool edged with rocks interspersed with the cool green of leaves, and gay with blossoms. That's how we began."

A low rock wall laid dry and well chinked with ingratiating rock plant takes care of the fall between the pool garden and the colorful little circular garden in the corner, while still another wall has been built to help make the boundary line.

The snare drop in grade back of the house gave reason for the big rock garden which lies house to garden on that side. It also provides choice pockets and plateaus for daphnes, coral-bells, bleedinghearts, and smaller fry like ajuga, sedums, sempervivums, and sweet-smelling thymes.

Willard Hudson, let it be known, is one of those "handy men." He built the birdhouse, the cupola that tops the garage, a waterwheel for the pool, and the copper lamp that lights the way to the fireplace shelter on moonless nights. A handmade garden it is literally—for it all started from scratch.—| Better Homes and Gardens

ELKS IN MEMORIAL SERVICES

Winchester Lodge 1445, B. P. O. E., is assisting in the Memorial Services to be held Sunday at the Unitarian Church in honor of Lt. Comdr. Richard W. MacAdams, USNR, a member and former esquire of the lodge. Following the church service a memorial stone will be dedicated in Wildwood Cemetery.

John F. Donaghey, P. E. R., is chairman of the Elks' committee of arrangements, assisted by Fred H. Scholl, P. D. D. G. E. R.; Howard Brownell, P. E. R., Exalted Ruler Michael E. Grant, Dr. James H. O'Connor, secs.; and Joseph Peel.

Cones are needed in making the Christmas decorations for the hospital at Camp Devens. If anyone is able to supply some for that purpose, will he call Win. 0484 and notify Mrs. H. M. Twombly of the Winchester Better Homes Garden Club.

CAPACITY AUDIENCE

A highly appreciative audience filled the social hall of the Congregational Church to capacity on Wednesday evening to see and hear Dr. Charles H. Tozier's newest pictures and lecture, "Where Nature Reigns Supreme."

Wild animals friendly and curious because they know only friendliness, inspirational monuments untouched by man, geysers spouting from mountains in phenomena beauty, canyons, falls, lakes and mountains in breathtaking splendor, all combined to carry the audience completely out of this world. The use of natural coloring and three dimensional films completed the illusion of being part of the picture, and Dr. Tozier's dry wit and references to his chairman of the board of directors and his disparaging comments on Dr. Chidley's fishing ability were keenly enjoyed by his listeners.

That it was truly appreciated was indicated by the generous response to the collection which was taken at intermission after Mrs. Cutler Downer of the Servicemen's Committee had read excerpts from letters written to the committee by men from the church now in the service.

Coffee was served before the lecture by members of the Service Men's Committee with Mrs. William Parsons and Mrs. James Nowell pouring.

JUNIOR C. D. OF A. REGISTRATION

On Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in Lyceum Hall there will be a registration for membership in Santa Maria Court, 150, Junior Catholic Daughters of America.

This registration is in connection with the membership drive that is being conducted under the direction of Miss Helen Reagan, Winchester Junior Chairman. Miss Rita McCormack, junior counsellor, is in charge of registration and will be assisted by Miss May Mulhern and Miss Clair O'Loughlin, also junior counsellors.

FRANK PROCOPIO

Frank Procopio, 85, father of John Procopio of 18 Olive street, died Sunday, Dec. 3, at his son's home. A native of Italy, he had lived in Woburn and Winchester for the past 16 years and was retired. Besides his son in Winchester, he leaves a son, Frank Procopio of North Woburn, and several grandchildren.

The funeral was held Wednesday morning from the late residence with requiem high mass celebrated at St. Mary's church. Interment was in Calvary Cemetery.

WINTON CLUB MEETING

The Winton Club met on Monday for its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Erastus Badger. Mrs. James Russell gave a talk on the early days of the hospital which was informative and full of human interest stories. She said you cannot hear about the hospital without hearing about the District Nursing Association, which was founded in 1898 and worked from its beginning for the opening of a hospital in Winchester.

It was true pioneering in those early days with no rules and regulations for guidance.

To quote Mrs. Russell: "The women of this town suffered to give you the hospital you have today."

They even made the uniforms for the nurses!

The Winton Club started sewing for the hospital at the opening of that first "cottage hospital" on Washington street and has continued this work ever since.

When the present hospital was built several years later the women agreed in six months time that it was not big enough!

Some authority has said a hospital is out of date the day it is opened.

And so you see why our hospital now has post-war plans for an addition of a new maternity and children's ward.

Tea was served following Mrs. Russell's talk.

New York, N. Y., Nov. 24. Maybe the Army-Navy E she wears around her neck doesn't spell success in the limited world she knows.

But Zandra's master, Lyle T. Hammond, 56-year-old sightless war worker in a New England plant, swears her steps are snappier and her responses more alert since the day she became the first member of the animal kingdom to be so honored.

Zandra, sturdy German boxer, is not just any Seeing Eye dog.

Because she helps her master hold down a vital job in a vital war plant, the nation's industrialists will pay her tribute next month when the National Association of Manufacturers holds its three-day War and Reconversion Congress of American Industry, NAM's 49th annual meeting, on Dec. 6-8 in New York City.

Hundreds of Hammond's fellow workers crowded around his work bench in the Raytheon Manufacturing Co., plant at Waltham, on the day they gave Zandra her E for excellence. The dog froze to attention, Hammond sought out Zandra's head, patted it, said: "Good girl. Good girl."

The story of the dog is the story, too, of a man climbing out of a pit of despair.

ADDRESSED HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

Declaring that creative work may be a result of training rather than an inherited attribute, Dr. Alan Furber, president of the Mass. School of Practical Art, provided material for thoughtful consideration last Wednesday morning at a meeting of all high school juniors and seniors.

Dr. Furber made practical art so attractive that several students have already signified their intention of taking a prognostic test to determine their capacity for creative art. While no claim is made that prognostic tests can forecast success, it is apparent from results that a fair indication of potential ability is shown.

Speaking on the importance of commercial art, Dr. Furber drew attention to the advertising necessary in the post war period. He advocated free lance work for those who seek opportunity to make money and staff work for those who want security. Students rated Dr. Furber high as a convincing speaker.

BRONZE STAR TO FARLEY

Staff Sgt. James A. Farley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Farley of 8 Indian Hill road, has been awarded the Bronze Star medal for meritorious service performed while serving with an infantry regiment of the Americal Division in the South Pacific.

Sgt. Farley graduated from Winchester High School in 1935. He entered the service in 1940 and went overseas in January of 1941 after training at Fort Devens, Camp Edwards and in North Carolina. He has a brother, Pvt. Frank Farley, who is with the Field Artillery on active duty in Italy, having been overseas for more than a year.

PROGRESS IN THE SIXTH WAR LOAN DRIVE

In some respects Winchester is doing well nd in others we rate a poor report card.

Progress toward our total quota is excellent but on E Bond sales, the most important feature of the drive, our showing on Dec. 1 was only 33 per cent of quota. On ther sales to individuals we had covered 73 per cent of quota.

More than 500 people in Winchester are hard at work in this drive and it is expected that all homes will have been canvassed by the end of next week when the drive ends.

If your home has not yet been canvassed, be sure that it will be and please be prepared to sign up for all the war bonds you can by when the solicitor calls.

WINCHESTER BOYS HAD RE-UNION

Two Winchester boys, both in the Navy and both sons of Winchester firemen, met in the far-away Pacific having a most enjoyable reunion and comparison of notes on the old home town. The boys were "Jackie" Kimball, son of Fireman Everett W. Kimball of Westley street and "Eddie" Noonan, son of Capt. J. Edward Noonan of nearby Nelson street. Needless to say their dads were almost as happy to learn of the meeting as their sons were to get together

HOOP CANDIDATES REPORT

Coach Henry Knowlton has a squad of more than 60 candidates working out for positions on the current Winchester High School basketball team. Only two veterans are available to start the season, Pat Patterson and Joe Errico.

Winchester's first game is Friday evening, Dec. 15, with Newton coming to Winchester as the attraction.

Ensign and Mrs. Stuart B. Barnard are the parents of a son, Curtis Thayer, born Dec. 1.

MISS NANCY WYMAN MARRIED TO MR. HOMFELD

At a candlelight ceremony on Saturday, Dec. 2, at 4:30 o'clock in the Church of the Epiphany, Miss Nancy Remaud Wyman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elsidge W. Wyman of Lowell, formerly of Winchester, became the bride of Mr. Max Homfeld, son of Mrs. Homfeld and the late Mr. Albert E. Homfeld of Valparaiso, Ind.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dougla W. Hudley, assisted by the Rev. Lawrence H. Bliss, rector of St. Anne's Church. Lowell. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore over the traditional white satin, a lace cape and train. Her veil, an heirloom, was held by a tiara of pearls and lace and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and bouvardia. The maid of honor, Miss Elizabeth L. Washup of Winchester, wore a gold brocade gown with cap of green tulle. Her arm bouquet of bronze snapdragon was tied with gold and bronze ribbon. Mr. Richard Burandt of Bridgeport, Conn., a college classmate of the groom, was best man.

The mother of the bride wore a gown of Royal Blue crepe with hat of American Beauty shade, and a corsage of matching roses. The groom's mother was gowned in black and gold and wore a corsage of Talisman roses.

A small reception for the family and intimate friends, in the library of the parish house, followed the ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of Connecticut College, New London, Conn., and the groom of the Engineering School of Purdue University, Indiana. After a short wedding trip, they will reside in Milford, Mich., where Mr. Homfeld is an engineer with the General Motors Corporation.

RETURNED TO DUTY

Lt. (jg) John McPartlin, son of Mr. Thomas F. E. McPartlin of Holland street, returned to his ship in Seattle yesterday after being in Winchester on a furlough. John will be remembered by local track followers as a good distance runner both at Winchester High School and B. U. He has been on sea duty in the Aleutians.

Pfc. and Mrs. Charles L. White of Sheridan circle are the parents of a second son, born Dec. 3 at the Choate Memorial Hospital, Woburn. Mrs. White, the former Frances Parsons of this town, recently been notified that her husband, previously reported missing in action in France, is now safe and back with his old outfit, the 315th Infantry.

WIN HONORABLE MENTION

Several Winchester players were among those selected by the Boston Globe for honorable mention in connection with the recent announcement of its honorary interscholastic football teams.

Backs Sam Lebanks and Charlie Rocher, Frank Faieta, end; Roger Latham, tackle; and Tony Bucci, guard; were the local boys chosen. Few will quarrel with picking these boys for honorable mention at least, though we imagine that those who have had to try to stop "Sam Tibaldi" on his vicious hurdles would figure the local fullback a way better rating. Every coach on whom the Star kept a close eye this season rated Tibaldi's power to Rocky Rocco fast toward the end of the season in dodging, fine running back with possibly the largest average of yards gained per rush of any one on the local squad. In addition to this "Chucker" has been a great defensive player as well as a fair passer and kicker.

An injury kept Faieta out of the last four games of the season but he showed enough previous to that to rate with Winchester's best ends of recent years. Latham and Bucci have been consistently good at their positions all season, their first as regulars.

One of the reasons for the riot of convicts in the Atlanta prison, we read was dissatisfaction over the rates of pay. Well, a murderer certainly should be paid at a higher rate than a simple "con" man, but these prisoners apparently went at the matter in the wrong way. They should have formed a union and struck; then while the alphabet was considering their case, they could draw their social security. However, these incidentals will probably be taken care of in due time.

The past football season has shown clearly that local athletic fans like to attend games on Manchester Field. Even the makeshift conditions in effect there this fall have proved more popular than those on Shore road field, especially to adults, of whom there have been more at the games this year than for some time. Even Winchester's winning team does not entirely explain the increased adult attendance, for our high school teams have been doing well right along under Coach Knowlton. The fact seems to be that most folks like their sports on Manchester Field and hope they will continue there. If they are to so continue steps should be taken so that the field can be fenced in and adequate seating facilities provided, together with a field house. Winchester's athletic plant, by comparison with those of most communities with which its high school competes is nothing in which the town can take the slightest pride. Manchester Field, prior to 1900 was deeded to the State for 99 years. Why, or by whom, no one seems to know. Eventually the control of the field returned to the Park Commissioners and at the present time the field is held by the town for park purposes. Being so held carries with it certain restrictions, such as a definite limit to the size of any building which may be placed on its surface without special permis-

[illegible] that no one [illegible] be excluded [illegible] the charging [illegible] open to ques-[illegible]. Any radical change in the use of the field can apparently be only by an enabling vote of the Legislature. To secure such a vote it becomes necessary for the town to vote to instruct the Selectmen to petition the Legislature for such action. It ought to be some one's business, we suppose the School Committee's, to see that an article is inserted in the warrant for the coming March meeting to start the requisite procedure in motion. Getting a bill through the General Court to permit the Town of Winchester to use an acre or so of ground within its borders for a suitable athletic plant for its high school teams ought not to be too difficult. We can't imagine the Legis[illegible] unfavorably upon such a bill, not with Harris Richardson and "Bill" Ramsdell on the job.

Interest in the Fowlkes school survey seems to be quite general if one is to judge by the informal discussions and the many questions asked the Star about what is likely to be done with the recommendations of the Doctor and his staff. Not being gifted with second sight, we cannot predict what action the school authorities will take, but that they must do something should be apparent to everyone. The School Committee asked for the survey and insisted upon an appropriation large enough in its judgment to get the sort of investigation believed to be necessary to form a basis for continuing the present school system or making those changes for which many in town have been clamoring for some time. Now the evidence is in and is unmistakeable. The School Committee has what it asked for and it is difficult to see how the inertia which has so often characterized past committees can serve as an approach to Dr. Fowlkes findings. The town will not be inclined to let the whole matter drop after paying $10,000 for professional advice on school matters at the School Committee's behest. Surely no one can question Dr. Fowlkes motives, ability or the competency of his staff. So far as they were able they examined the local schools and presented their findings in forthright fashion. The diagnosis has now been made, but the patient is far from cured. Nor will any rest-cure suffice to get the desired results. Positive resolute action will be necessary if any benefit is to come from the survey and the attendant expenditure of $10,000 of the taxpayer's money. That such action will be easy to take or universally popular when it is taken no one believes. Nor is it especially pertinent. The School Committee now has what it has needed for some time, an expert impartial appraisal of the system the town elected its members to run. The succeeding steps are up to them. Careful study of the entire survey is necessary, of course, before any action is taken, but this done the duty of the Committee becomes clear. It must act without fear, favor, or regard for personalities. For one thing is certain. The town as a whole and the parents of school children in particular are not likely to condone any evading of the issues involved.

HAKANSON—WILSON

We view the writing of this narrative with some apprehension, not that it brings us into any new field of endeavor, for we have struggled through these weddings for the past 60-odd years, but when it's the youngest sprat and likewise a valuable assistant at the Star office for the past two years, it ill behooves us to delegate the writing to other hands and likewise puts us in the somewhat delicate position of handling our own social news. But the simple facts of the matter are that Bonney Wilson married Richard A. Hakanson on Saturday evening at eight o'clock, our good friend, Paul Harmon Chapman of the Winchester Unitarian Church performing the ceremony.

Richard is the son of Mr. and Mrs Gustav O. Hakanson of Lincoln Street. He is no stranger to the family, for during the past ten or twelve years he has been a frequent visitor at our home. Recently he has been more infrequent in his calls—since his enlistment in naval aviation nearly three years ago and subsequent movings about the country. During this period he had but one real leave, and Saturday night's wedding was more or less an unprepared event following a wait of some four or more weeks after he had completed his Florida studies and received "14 days" before reporting to Camp Barksdale at Shrevesport, La. At any rate, there was no waiting for the wedding after his arrival Friday night.

In our opinion the wedding went off very well. Bonney decided to be married in the living room, and while we were a little bit afraid the relatives and intimate friends called by telephone would swell to overflow proportions, the sixty spectators and principals all found sufficient room. Under expert care the tall white candles bouquets of white chrysanthemums one or two palms and several flower gifts, looked pretty well. In fact they were beyond our criticism.

It was a Wilson wedding in several ways, for J. Albert Wilson, organist and choir master at the First Congregational Church, played the wedding march on the organ, which Mr and Mrs Maurice B. Kerr kindly loaned, and Mrs. Bee Wilson and her daughter, Mary, saw that the guests received proper hospitality to assuage thirst and any pangs of hunger.

Bonney elected to have her sister Jane, Mrs. Carl H. Bolter, Jr., as her matron of honor, and Lt. (jg) B Thomas Preston was best man. It was a double ring ceremony and we personally gave the bride away. According to the feminine members of the wedding party Bonney wore a dress of white satin with an antique Brussells lace collar, and her veil was caught with antique lace and orange blossoms. To our own knowledge she wore also a dime in her shoe which someone found in the pocket change which we left in our dressing room. There were also rumors of something "old", and we heard mention of a blue bow or something. We cannot verify this. However, we were quite proud to escort Bonney and thought she made a very attractive bride with her shower bouquet of white rose buds bouvardia and sweet peas. Mrs. Bolter wore a melon colored crepe dress and carried talisman roses, white sweet peas and stephanotis. We thought she looked pretty good too. And we cannot leave out the "Little Woman", for it was the bride's mother, Mrs. T Prince Wilson, who was fully responsible for a nice wedding for her youngest daughter.

During the reception there was a recess for a short period while the groom took a congratulatory telephone call from his brother, Warren, in Tennessee. The wedding bouquet was thrown into the living room from our sleeping porch window, and Miss Mary McGrath made a very creditable catch as it came her way. The "Gob" who did most of the ushering was the bride's cousin, Machinist's Mate Edward Cram of Burlington, Vt. The Misses Polly Kimball and Grace Croughwell were, we suppose, the candle girls, for they lit the tall white candles which were placed about the rooms, and which we later blew out before we craved in and went to bed.

As we have already said, we feel a little diffident over writing this account, but as we have never written a wedding in this way before, it also has its points. So far as we can remember this is the whole story.

Richard and Bonney have what is left of fourteen days before the Corporal reports at Camp Barksdale, La. He is a top gunner on a B-26 bomber and at Barksdale he meets the rest of the crew and will work out with them until the team is perfected for active duty. Previous to his enlistment he attended Lowell Textile and had completed three years at Northeastern. At these institutions, as well as at Winchester High, he was quite a basketball player. Bonney's thumbnail sketch includes a graduation at Abbot Academy, attendance at Lasell and valuable assistance in the production of the Star

VOTES SHOULD BE CAREFULLY COUNTED

Editor of the STAR:

It is my considered opinion that the United States of America guarantees certain rights and privileges to the citizens of this country and perhaps one of the most sacred is that of the right to vote. In the recent presidential election Mrs. Nichols and myself of precinct No. 1 cast clearly marked ballots for Norman Thomas for President. The report of the election at the Selectmen's office shows no votes for Thomas in precinct No. 1 and only 2 votes in Winchester, one in precinct No. 3 and one in precinct No. 4.

May I suggest that in the interest of accurate and honest elections in Winchester that the citizens votes be carefully counted. It is getting late in America too if minorities don't count anymore, but I am sure this isn't true in Winchester.

Sincerely,
Kezar G. Nichols

SCHOOLS NOT SNOBBISH

Editor of the STAR:

I was very much pleased to read in your December 1 edition the survey report on our public schools submitted to the Winchester School Committee. I read carefully every word of it, and without going into details I may say that I consider it the best investment ever made by the Town of Winchester since I have lived there.

So many things pleased me, and so few that I did not understand, that I will not attempt to discuss them. But one thing I want particularly to commend, that especially pleases me, is that when the children from all parts of the town gather at the High School there is no snobbish division into classes, depending on the part of the town that they come from. There is real democratic spirit throughout. And inasmuch as the ability of the High School scholars, as a whole, is very much higher than the average, they ought to have the very best of instruction preceding the High School, to equip them for whatever course they may choose to follow.

After reading the article carefully I turned to your editorial, and here again I may say that I cannot remember reading an editorial in this paper that commended itself to me so highly as this does, and I felt so interested in it that I read it carefully a second time and came to the conclusion that I agreed with every sentence in it.

December 4, 1944

Sincerely yours,
Lewis Parkhurst

To the People of this Community

"Sad little personal belongings are strewn all over these bitter sands." Thus wrote Ernie Pyle from a beachhead in Normandy.

More than 2,000 bundles of these belongings, carefully collected and packed by the armed forces, are sent monthly from a Kansas City depot to homes throughout America. That's the current price of victory over enemies who forced this war upon you. These "souvenirs" are enveloped with heartaches and drenched with tears.

How long this tragic depot stays in business is up to You. Every second prolongs the slaughter. Every extra $100 War Bond in the Sixth War Loan helps to shorten the fighting. Can you do less than to lend your money for speedy victory?

THE EDITOR.

ACCENT ON JUDGEMENT

"If our foresight were as good as our handsight—," we would not be out on a limb. Therein lies the moral of exercising judgment in advance. How do your Automobile Liability Insurance limits compare with the trend of court awards in such cases? Don't trend on thin ice. It is unquestionably sound judgment to consider HIGH LIMITS AT LOW EXTRA COST.

GOOD FOOTBALL SEASON

Woburn game. No Woburn game passes at all are included.

Opponents made 57 first downs, 879 yards by rushing and completed 20 of 69 passes for another 217 yards, a total of 1096, with only approximate yards rushing for Woburn.

Bill West's team made 179 points, yielding 33, made 90 first downs and 1742 yards by rushing, completed 18 of 52 passes for 211 yards, or a total of 1935. Even without the Maynard game figures which are not included that isn't as good a record as this year's team. Opponents, without Maynard, made 63 first downs and 740 yards, completing 32 of 96 passes for 389 yards or a total of 1129.

This year's club was captained by Charlie "Surto" Walsh. Coach Knowlton was again assisted by Andy Webster and John Stevens of the faculty with "Butch" Whittemore, former high school lineman, also helping plenty. The regular lineup included Frank Faieta and Don Armstrong, ends; Rog Latham and Johnny Stevenson, tackles; Tony Bucci and Charlie Lovejoy, guards; and Sam Buzzotta, center. In the backfield starters were Capt. Walsh, quarterback; Chucker Roche and Jimmy Haggerty, halfbacks and Sam Tihaudo fullback. Seeing action in practically all games were Joe Errico and Tony Jacobellis, ends; Guy Washburn and "Red" Hannon, tackles; Johnny Rutherford and "Head" Herlihy, guards; Hal Berquist, center; and Mario Buzzotta, Sam Bellino, Ted O'Rourke and Johnny West, backs.

The season's record follows:

Christmas Edition
IS OUT TODAY

★ ★ ★

You will find in the pages of this issue a veritable shopping guide of Winchester, with advertisements from a number of friendly merchants in neighboring cities and towns.

These merchants have assembled their Christmas merchandise in anticipation of your wishes and are ready to serve you courteously and efficiently.

It will pay you to read their ads carefully. You will be surprised how many of your holiday needs you can satisfy right here in town.

Successful local merchants are an asset to the community, and loyal patronage is one of the keys to business success.

So patronize your local shops this year. Help yourself by avoiding the tedious trips to crowded city stores. Help the merchants who serve you faithfully through the year. And help the town by encouraging local business to provide even better opportunities to shop at home through the years to come!

Sunday services 11 a. m
Wednesday testimonial meeting 8 p. m.
Reading Room, 5 Winchester Terrace (off Thompson street). Open daily except Sundays and holidays from 11 a. m. to 4 p. m.

In The Mother Church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, and in all of its branches, a Lesson-Sermon will be read on Sunday, Dec. 10 on the subject, God the Preserver of Man.
The Golden Text, The Lord shall deliver me from every evil work and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom, is from II Timothy 4:18. Other Scriptural selections include, When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee; when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee. For I am the Lord thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour (Isaiah 43: 2, 3).
Also included in the Lesson-Sermon will be the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy. Nothing but the power of Truth can prevent the fear of error, and prove man's dominion over error. . . The understanding even in a degree, of the divine Allpower destroys fear, and plants the feet in the true path, the path which lends to the house built without hands eternal in the heavens (pp. 389, 454).

For five years the grade crossing involved in the accident shown here had been on the driver's route. He drove over it every day at almost exactly the same hour and minute. He never met a train there before, and that old monster familiarity bred contempt for possible accident hazards.

But we're in a war and far more trains are running than in peacetime. It's "train time" at crossings much more frequently. Just before he lost his life, this driver drove onto the crossing in the path of a freight train. The accident occurred in daylight and the view of the truck driver was unobstructed. The train was delayed two hours.

For safety's sake, figure that it's train time all the time at all grade crossings.

The National Safety Council is conducting a special campaign to stop these accidents, which every day delay 38 trains a total of 22 hours—a damaging blow to the nation's war transportation efforts. Driver-carelessness is the cause of almost all grade crossing accidents, according to the Council. To help win the war and to save yourself and others needless suffering, the Council asks you to be sure the track is clear before you start to cross.

B. P. O. ELKS HELP RECRUIT NURSES

Sponsoring a country-wide drive to recruit 1,000 nurses to serve in the ninety-four hospitals conducted by the Veterans' Administration, the national Elks War Commission of the B. P. O. Elks has set up Recruiting Committees in this and other communities throughout the nation in which Elk lodges are located. Full particulars regarding appointments may be obtained at the local Elk lodge.

Co-operating with the national Elks War Commission's concentrated campaign to help relieve the alarming national shortage of nurses in the country's 94 Veteran's Hospitals, Michael F. Grant, exalted ruler of Winchester Elks Lodge has announced the appointment of a six man committee to study the requirements necessary to be met by applicant nurses and to canvass the women of this community during the next few weeks to impress upon those among them who are registered nurses, the urgent need for their services in the other 1400 Elks lodges in every state of the Union.

An appeal will also be made to the many women who have not been following their nursing career, and will include those nurses who, because they are over-age or have slight physical defects, are ineligible for service with the Army or Navy.

Committees similar to that organized in Winchester Lodge are functioning in the other 1400 Elks lodges in every state of the Union.

Complete details of the requirements for service with the Veterans' Administration hospitals, together with information on salary, promotion opportunities, etc., may be obtained immediately by contacting Mr. Leo F. Garvey, P. E. R., of Winchester Elks Lodge, at 573 Main street, Winchester.

WINCHESTER ROTARY CLUB

The Winchester Rotary Club had a full meeting yesterday noon, the Winchester High School first football team attending in a body, together with several guests and outside Rotarians. Staff Sgt. Robert Donaghey, son of Sgt. James P. Donaghey of the Police Department, a veteran of four year's service and holder of the Presidential citation, was introduced, and W. Allan Wilde introduced his son, seaman "Bob" Wilde. Among visiting Rotarians was Roland Reed of Salem and the guests included Coach Henry Knowlton of the High School and Principal Samuel Graves.

The award of the weekly war bond went to Ralph H. Bonnell, Rev. Paul Harmon Chapman, pastor of the Unitarian Church, addressed the football men previous to the showing of the motion pictures of the Reading game, a hotly contested and highly controversial game. The pictures, shown by Coach Knowlton, were greatly enjoyed by all in attendance.

Mrs. Wallis Campbell of Copley street entertained at a dinner party on Tuesday evening for Miss Nancy Wyman, whose wedding to Mr. Max Franklin Homfeld took place at the Church of the Epiphany Saturday. On the previous Tuesday Miss Elizabeth Winship of Oxford street gave a kitchen shower to the bride-to-be.

PROMOTION

The Local Selective Service Board No. 161, serving Winchester and Stoneham, announces, that since the resignation of our Chief Clerk George W. Hayden, who has served the board in such capacity since February, the appointment of Miss June E. Doherty of 182 William street, Stoneham as Chief Clerk and Miss Helen A. Brownell as assistant clerk. Miss Doherty has been an assistant clerk with the board since February 1942.

Robert Bolivar, USAAF, of Upland road, is at home on a furlough of 15 days from the Army air base at Fleming, Neb. While at Winchester High he was greatly interested in aviation and made several model planes that were surprisingly good flyers.

THE STAR'S Christmas Edition IS OUT TODAY

★ ★ ★

You will find in the pages of this issue a veritable shopping guide of Winchester, with advertisements from a number of friendly merchants in neighboring cities and towns.

These merchants have assembled their Christmas merchandise in anticipation of your wishes and are ready to serve you courteously and efficiently.

It will pay you to read their ads carefully. You will be surprised how many of your holiday needs you can satisfy right here in town.

Successful local merchants are an asset to the community, and loyal patronage is one of the keys to business success.

So patronize your local shops this year. Help yourself by avoiding the tedious trips to crowded city stores. Help the merchants who serve you faithfully through the year. And help the town by encouraging local business to provide even better opportunities to shop at home through the years to come!

The town tree department worked the entire week on the huge tree which fell on a house at Symmes Corner. It is estimated that the tree brought a pressure of some twelve tons to bear on this house.

Our old friend, Samuel S. Symmes decided last week to remove an aged maple tree on his estate at Symmes Corner and called upon James A. Cullen to do the job. During the operation the power saw received quite a jolt when it encountered a horse shoe completely embedded in the tree trunk. Since Mr. Symmes' house was built 50 years ago this year, and according to him the tree appeared just as large at that time as it does today, the age of the horse shoe can only be surmized, but it is estimated at about 100 years. It was just as bright as though it was new.

HIGH SCHOOL SPORTS BANQUET

Tibaudo New Football Captain Cups to Miss Dickson and Bucci

Two hundred boys and girls, members of the football, field hockey, basketball, ice hockey, tennis, track and baseball squads, with their coaches, managers, the varsity cheer leaders, and invited guests, attended the annual All Sports Banquet of the Winchester High School in the school gymnasium last Saturday evening. Among the guests were Superintendent of Schools James J. Quinn, the press, members of the Auxiliary Police Force who assisted policing at the football games this fall and a group of men who have provided automobile transportation for the football squad during the past two seasons.

Ted O'Rourke, president of the Athletic Association welcomed the guests and introduced the toastmaster, John D. Stevens of the English Department, assistant football coach for the past two seasons. The speakers included Mrs. Lyman Matthews (Deborah Fenton) girls' coach, who awarded the field hockey letters, Henry Knowlton, athletic director, who made the football awards, and Principal Samuel M. Graves who awarded the Mansfield and Wheeler Sportsmanship Cups, given to the school in 1928 by the then Athletic Director Wendell D. Mansfield and his wife, the former Priscilla Wheeler, who was for several years coach of girls' sports and director of Physical Education at high school.

The Mansfield Cup was awarded to Tony Bucci, guard on the football team and baseball catcher. The Wheeler Cup went to Nathalie Dickson, left inner on the hockey eleven. Capt. Lucy Russo of the hockey team announced next year's leader as Virginia Lovejoy, the latter taking a bow. The hockey team's gift to Mrs. Matthews was a handsome silver candy dish. Jane Rawie was announced as next year's head cheer-leader.

Capt. "Sarto" Walsh, captain of the football team, announced next year's grid leader as Sam Tibaudo, star fullback, who though enthusiastically importuned, refused to make a speech. Capt. Walsh also presented his team's gift to Coach Knowlton, a handsome fountain pen set. Faculty Director of Athletics Ray V. Hayward was presented with a box of J. A. Cigars, rewarding the gathering with one of rare, but winning smiles!

After the short speaking program the athletes and their guests went into the auditorium where motion pictures of the Woburn game were shown and greatly enjoyed. Pictures of professional football, shots of the Boston Yankees in action, were also shown.

Nancy Nutter acted as chairman of the decorating committee and June Moffette was in charge of invitations, also doing the clever cover for the combination place card and souvenir program.

Coaches Knowlton and Matthews and Faculty Director Hayward were in general charge of arrangements. Emil Beauchamp catered.

AWARDED OAK LEAF CLUSTER

First Lt. William G. Cleaves, 26, has been awarded the first Oak Leaf Cluster to the Air Medal, equivalent to the second award of the medal, for "courage, coolness and skill" displayed on bombing attacks over Germany. The flyer is a pilot in the 8th Air Force B-17 Group commanded by Col. Frank P. Bostrom of Bangor, Me.

Lt. Cleaves' wife, Elizabeth, lives at 5 Penn road and he is the son of Mrs. Carl S. Cleaves of 110 Park avenue, Swarthmore, Pa.

The airman is a graduat of Dartmouth College and prior to entering the Army Air Forces in November, 1942, was a teacher at the Admiral Farragut Naval Prep School.

CHRISTMAS

to the boys at the front is the fond dream of a happy return to home and loved ones.

A pint of blood given by you in the true Christmas spirit may be the one thing necessary to save the life of some boy so that his Christmas dream may come true.

Nearly 400 Christmas packages, gayly wrapped, were donated by the generous citizens of our town.

These gifts were neatly arranged on a large table in the sewing room at headquarters where they were viewed by a number of enthusiastic spectators, after which they were forwarded to servicemen on the sea and Ports of Embarkation to add the home touch to their Christmas celebration.

EDWARD EVERETT THOMPSON

Former High School Teacher and Principal Died in Northampton

Edward Everett Thompson, former teacher of modern languages and principal of Winchester High School, died Saturday morning, Dec. 9, at his home, 542 Elm street, Northampton, after a brief illness. He left Winchester in 1922, going to Oak Park, Ill., where he taught languages at Oak Park and River Forest Township High School, retiring in 1943.

At that time he returned to Massachusetts and bought a home in Northampton, becoming soon afterward a member of the faulty of the Burnham School for Girls there.

Mr. Thompson was born April 13, 1875, in Fall River, the son of Daniel M. and Cynthia (Manchester) Thompson. He was graduated from Brown University in 1899, receiving his master's degree from Brown in 1901, later studying for a year in Germany. He came to Winchester in 1909 to teach modern languages at high school, being appointed acting principal to succeed Charles Curtis in 1920. He continued to head the school until 1922 when he went to Oak Park.

While in Winchester Mr. Thompson enjoyed a widespread popularity, beloved by his pupils at high school and held in general esteem throughout the town. He was a member of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity at college and while at Winchester High served as faculty advisor for the then local chapter of the Gamma Eta Kappa fraternity. He was a member of Mystic Valley Lodge of Masons, having been an honorary member at the time of his death, and was also actively identified with the First Baptist Church during his residence here. He last made his home in Winchester on Wildwood terrace.

While teaching here he married another high school teacher, Miss Mabel Hendrix, a member of the English Department. She survives with a son, Capt. Donald M. Thompson of the Army Air Forces engineering department at Wright Field, Dayton, Ohio; a brother, Robert O. Thompson and a sister, Mrs. Edgar Chandler, both of Fall River.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Ely Funeral Home in Northampton, with Rev. Basil D. Hall, pastor of the Florence Congregational Church officiating. Interment was in the family lot in Hillington Cemetery, Morris, N. Y.

COMPLETED 100 MISSIONS

Second Lt. Frederic B. Withington, Jr., 22, son of Mrs. Frederic B. Withington of 62 Church street,a pilot, serving with a B-24 Liberator heavy bomber group, has recently participated in the century-mark in missions for the group of which he is a member. Lt. Withington has participated in several missions over some of the most heavily defended German targets in Southern Europe, such as Vienna, Munich, Budapest, Bucharest and Wiener Neustadt.

Lt. Withington received his high school education at Punahou Academy, Honolulu Territory of Hawaii. At the time of his entry into the service, Jan. 30, 1943, he was a student at Harvard University. He received his wings at Columbus, Miss., and has been serving overseas since September of this year.

PARISH PLAYERS REHEARSING FOR CHRISTMAS PLAY

The Parish Players of the First Congregational Church have gone into rehearsal for the Christmas play "Bethlehem", which they will present on Christmas Sunday, Dec. 24, at 4:30 p. m. in the church auditorium.

This is always a popular and impressive feature of the Christmas services at First Church, and a capacity congregation is expected as usual.

GEORGE FRANKLIN WELLS

George Franklin Wells, a retired contractor who made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Daniel Roderick Delorey, at 22 Garfield avenue, died Friday evening, Dec. 8, at the Winchester Hospital. He had been in the hospital for nine weeks after being struck and injured by an automobile which was backing from a garage on upper Washington street.

Mr. Wells was 80 years old. He was a native of Elmore, Vt., the son of Schuyler Samuel, and Martha (Hoyt) Wells. His early life was spent in Vermont where he engaged in the contracting business and in teaming, occupations which he followed until his retirement.

From Vermont Mr. Wells went to Quincy, where he engaged in heavy teaming at the quarries there, having his own men and teams. Later he lived in Woburn before coming to make his home in Winchester 37 years ago. Until he retired 14 years ago he was in the contracting and teaming business here, building garages and cellars and doing landscaping and gardening.

Mr. Wells' wife, the former Sarah Hutchinson, died in 1911. He leaves, besides Mrs. Delorey, another daughter, Mrs. Fred Fisher of Laconia, N. H.; five sons, Schuyler and Ernest Wells, both of Stoneham, George F. Wells, Jr., of Winchester, Ralph Wells of Oakham, now a 2nd engineer in the Merchant Marine with the rank of ensign, and Clifford Wells of Milford, N. H. There are also three brothers, Clarence Wells of Dunstable, Lewis Wells of Woodsville, N. H., and Charles Wells of Middleboro; 27 grandchildren, one of whom, Ralph McGowan, was killed in action while serving with the United States Navy, and five great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the Moffett and McMullen Funeral Home with Rev. Harris E. Heverly, pastor of the Crawford Memorial Church, officiating. Interment was in Woodbrook Cemetery, Woburn.

STANDING IN SIXTH WAR LOAN DRIVE

While we are nearing the end of the Sixth War Loan Drive, it has been impossible to compile the results of the past several days during which volunteer solicitors have been most active.

As of Dec. 4, Winchester had reached and passed its total quota of $1,581,000. However, particular stress has been placed in this latest drive on sales to individuals and on E bond sales.

On Dec. 4 Winchester's showing on sales to individuals was 73 per cent of quota and only 49 per cent of quota on E bond sales.

The drive will end on Dec. 16 but any sales of E bonds made during the entire month of December will be credited. It is much to be hoped that many more E bond subscriptions will be made during the ensuing two weeks. Has it occurred to you that an E bond would make a perfect Christmas gift for someone you particularly want to remember?

TUCK ON EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Mr. Leon P. Tuck of Washington street, former Dartmouth hockey and football star, was elected a member of the executive committee of the Middlesex County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis at the annual meeting held Dec. 5 at the chanter headquarters on Brattle street in Cambridge. "Bill" Cunningham, Boston Herald columnist, is chapter chairman. Mr. Tuck is also chairman of the chapter's Finance Committee.

WINCHESTER SKIPPER'S STORY OF SINKING OF PRINCETON

From a Pacific Naval Base (By Air Mail) (NANA)—They may be home now—the several hundred survivors of the light carrier Princeton sunk in the second battle of the Philippine Sea. It is painful for a man to talk about the ship he has lost; more painful than the battle itself.

But this is what happened and if you meet a sailor from the Princeton you will know what his memory holds. Capt. William H. Buracker, the skipper, of 94 Church street, told us about it.

The day of the Princeton's death her combat air patrols shot down 36 of the more than 100 enemy planes which had attempted to attack the task group. It was early morning. The Princeton's planes returned to be serviced and re-loaded for another strike at 9 a. m. Ten had reached the deck.

Suddenly a gunner picked up a plane starting a gliding run on the ship. The anti-aircraft batteries let go into the murky ceiling, but the Jap pilot came on. He dropped a bomb, a 500-pounder, Capt. Buracker thought, and it hit on the flight deck.

"I wasn't too much concerned." The lines from his nose to his mouth deepened as he spoke. "I thought it was a small bomb and we could patch up the damage quickly. But unfortunately the bomb went through the flight deck into the hangar below, where the torpedo bombers were being gassed and loaded."

Fire-fighting controls were destroyed by the explosions, and it was a few moments before the manual controls could be operated. It was now 9:30 a. m., and Capt. Buracker, watching the fires spread, thought of the bombs stowed aft in an auxiliary compartment.

"About 10 o'clock the torpedoes on the hangar deck went up and the flight deck buckled. It seemed to me that if the auxiliary compartment was going up it would have to go then."

The Morrison, a destroyer, came alongside and put fire-fighting lines aboard, but these proved inadequate. The the Birmingham, a cruiser, brought her more effective equipment to the Princeton's aid. It looked as if it were going to be possible to save the wounded carrier.

Japs Drive Off Rescue Ships

At this point, it was about 1:15 in the afternoon. Japanese planes and submarines were converging on the task force and the Birmingham and Morrison had to cast off.

"We were only 150 miles from Manila," he said, "and the Jap planes could find us easily."

When the all-clear came, Capt. Buracker asked for a tow and the Reno, a cruiser, came alongside with the Birmingham when it returned to the stricken ship along with four destroyers.

It took some time to get the lines aboard as the Princeton was drifting to leeward," said the captain. "I had thought that if the auxiliary bomb storage was going to go up, it would have gone long before. My air officer, Comdr. Bruce Harwood of California, was in charge of the damage control parties and he and his men went aft to check on the compartment."

Fearful Blast Wounds All

He continued in a low voice.

"It was as surprising as it was terrifying—that explosion. It was the worst I have ever heard in my life. I can't describe it to you.

"I was on the flight deck with the captain who had come aboard a short time before as my relief, Capt. John Hoskins of Bethesda, Md. We were all wounded, more or less. I started forward and then looked back to see Capt. Hoskins lying on the deck, his leg hanging by a shred. I called for the doctor who was wounded himself. Capt. Hoskins found a piece of line where he had fallen and he applied his own tourniquet. Comdr. Sala, our medical officer, had some morphine, sulfa and a sheath knife and when he reached Capt. Hoskins, he severed the shred with that knife."

A search was made of the ship for living personnel and at 4:40 the captain went over the side, still hoping it would be possible to tow her home. But the task force group commanders decided to sink her with her still unexploded bombs and gasoline, for the storage tanks had not gone up yet.

Capt. Buracker took a muster of the crew at once and of the 1548 men aboard, he found that he had lost but 88 enlisted men and 10 officer. "We never saw Comdr. Harwood and his party after they had gone to the stowage compartment," he said.

"I can't reconcile myself to the fact that it was just one bomb that caused it all—but it was."

An American flag, battered and frayed by the breezes during the many months it was flown on the staff of the U. S. S. Princeton, hangs in the reception hall of the home of Capt. William Buracker at 94 Church street.

It was sent by Capt. Buracker, skipper of the naval aircraft carrier which went down in Philippine waters last October, to his young daughter for a birthday present last March. There is one other child.

Capt. Buracker has returned to this country and he was met in Washington last week by his wife, and he expects to be home on leave in about 10 days.—Boston Globe

MISSING IN FRANCE

Lt. Robert B. Blackler, a pilot in the USAAF has been reported missing over France since Oct. 30.

MISS SCOTT RESIGNS POSITION

With First Congregational Church

Miss Evelyn M. Scott, for 11 years director of Religious Education at the First Congregational Church, tendered her resignation last Sunday to take effect Jan. 20, 1945.

Illness in her family makes it imperative for her to be at home for a prolonged period, and she felt that, in justice to the church, she should sever her connections with it.

Miss Scott is one of the outstanding directors of Religious Education in the United States. She originated the Forum plan for High School students, which has worked so successfully in the First Church, and has been copied by many other churches. Other progressive methods of religious education introduced by her have made the First Congregational Church known in all denominations throughout this country and Canada.

She leaves the church with regret. The church parts with her with sincere reluctance. Her program in the Forum and other departments of the church school will be continued.

NEWTON OPENS HOOP SEASON HERE

Winchester High will open its current basketball season this Friday afternoon, playing Newton High in the local gymnasium commencing at 3 o'clock.

Coach Knowlton has had a good sized squad hard at work since the close of the football season, but isn't expecting too much of his boys in this first game. A year ago Newton took the locals something like 55-24, but little is known of the garden city outfit this season, and it may be that Winchester will do better. Coach Knowlton took his squad to Arlington and Medford this week for scrimmage duty, and admitted that the boys were not working as a cohesive unit right now, though he was by no means discouraged with the outlook.

Winchester will line up with Capt Joe Errico and Pat Patterson at the forwards; Spider Latham, towering football tackle at center and Ted O'Rourke and Chuckeer Roche at the guards. Roche was a member of the high school team two years ago and last season played on his high school team in Florida. Errico and Patterson are the only veteran players available for this year's team.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT CLUB ANNUAL EVERGREEN DANCE

A large attendance and a gay [illegible] is anticipated at the formal Christmas evergreen dance to be given at the First Congregational Church parish hall this Friday evening at 8:30 by the Wednesday Night Club. This affair will be preceded by dessert parties at 7:15 p. m., the arrangements having been made by Mrs. Wallace Snow.

The following are acting as hosts for the dessert parties: Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Mellenmott, Mr. and Mrs. Colver Dyer, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Connolly, Mr. and Mrs. William Rodgers, Mr. and Mrs. George Blackwood, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Hood, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Donald Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Pihl, Mr. and Mrs. Wendall Keith, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Palmer, Mrs. Wallace Snow and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wheeler.

The committe on decorations is Mr. William Rodgers, chairman; Mr. Harold Jones, Lt. Richard Gould, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ashenden, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Graves and Dr. Milne Blanchard.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown have charge of the refreshments for the dance. General chairman of the dance are: Mr. and Mrs. William Rodgers.

AWARDED DISTINGUISHED FLYING CROSS

Tech. Sgt. Gavin Brown has been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross for extraordinary achievement in aerial combat.

Tech. Sgt. Brown is a radio operator-gunner in Maj. Gen. William E. Kepner's 2nd Bombardment Division, on a B-24 Liberator heavy bomber. He has made 34 bombing missions over Germany and enemy-occupied Europe.

He is the son of Mrs. Mary A. Brown of 88 Bacon street.

In civilian life, Tech. Sgt. Brown was a salesman employed by Gentiles Baking Co. of Mattapan. He entered the Army on Oct. 19, 1942 and has been overseas since April 31, 1944.

Tech. Sgt. Brown also wears the Air Medal with three Oak Leaf Clusters awarded for "meritorious achievement in aerial combat" over Germany and enemy-occupied Europe.

SPAULDING—NUTE

Miss Anne Amelia Nute, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold H. Nute was married on Saturday, Dec. 9, in the home of her father and mother at Scarsdale, N. Y., to John Pearson Spaulding, Lt., Army of the United States, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Spaulding of this town. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Edward C. Boynton, pastor of the Scarsdale Congregational Church.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore an ivory satin gown with sweetheart neckline, sown with seed pearls, and a pearl necklace, the gift of the bridegroom. Her veil was of tulle with a wreath of bouvardia and her bouquet was of white roses and white snapdragons. The bride had no attendants. The bridegroom had for his best man his brother, Donald Trow Spaulding, paratrooper in the Army of the U. S. A reception was given following the ceremony for members of the two families and a few intimate friends.

The bride graduated from the Scarsdale High School and Wellesley College in the class of 1943. For the last year and a half she has been a chemist with the Hercules Powder Co. of Wilmington, Del.

Lt. Spaulding graduated from Williston Academy, Easthampton and Brown and Nichols School, Cambridge. He was a student at Harvard University when he entered the service. After a tour of overseas duty, Lt. Spaulding was returned on furlough to this country late in November.

CAMERON—WEBBER

At the First Church of Belmont at 9 o'clock on Thursday morning, Dec. 7, Miss Priscilla Chase Webber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. T. Webber of Leonard street, Belmont, became the bride of Lt. (jg) Fred Miller Cameron, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Cameron of Church street. Dr. Edwin F. Broome, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony which was followed by a wedding breakfast and reception at the Hotel Commander in Cambridge.

Miss Webber was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white wool crepe dress with orchids. Miss [illegible] Webber as [illegible] her sister's honor maid and only attendant. She wore a dress of light grey crepe with yellow roses. Fred M. Cameron was his son's best man.

Lt. Cameron and his bride went to Canada for their wedding journey.

The bride, who is now teaching art in the Winchester schools, is a graduate of Belmont High School and of the Mass. School of Art. Lt. Cameron graduated from Winchester High School and from the Holderness School. He is a member of the class of 1941 at the U. S. Naval Academy and is now in the U. S. Maritime Service.

QUITE A TREE

The huge elm tree which fell recently at Symmes Corner measured five feet through at the butt, stood some 90 feet tall, and weighed about 12 tons. It has been cut up into sections and will be removed shortly to the old freight yards on Swanton street where James A. Cullen will cut it up. The rings when counted showed that it was 150 years old and was considered to be the largest tree in Winchester.

HARRIS—FANCIE

There in Winchester entered into the marriage which took place in Pontiac, Mich., on Nov. 8, when Miss Virginia Alice Fancie, formerly of this town, became the bride of Capt. Daniel P. Harris, USA, son of Mrs. L. C. Harris of Valdosta, Ga., and the late Mr. Harris. Dr. Lloyd H. Nixon, pastor of the Central Methodist Church in Pontiac, performed the double-ring ceremony at the home of the bride's step-father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Bert S. Glougie, on Lincoln road.

The bride wore a gown of white satin with a full length veil of illusion and carried a bouquet of bride's roses and white snapdragons. She was attended by her step-sister, Miss Inez Glougie, who wore a yellow marquisette dress with a headdress of flowers and carried a bouquet of tea roses and yellow chrysanthemums. Stanley Glougie was Capt. Harris' best man.

A reception was held after the ceremony. Mrs. Glougie, the bride's mother assisted in receiving, wearing a gown of ice blue marquisette with a corsage of pink roses. The bride's going-away costume was a brown ensemble and an orchid corsage.

Capt. Harris, who recently returned from two years duty in Alaska, reported for duty in Sacramento, Cal. on Dec. 3.

NEW JERSEY WEDDING

First Lt. Robert D. Stuart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles James Stuart of 66 Yale street and Margaret Jayne Greene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett Greene, of 28 West Drive, Margate City, N. J., were married recently at the home of the bride's parents. The ceremony was performed by Chaplain William H. McKinney of the AAF Redistribution Station, Atlantic City, N. J.

Lt. Stuart is assistant chief of personnel at the Redistribution Station and is a graduate of Wesleyan University where he won his B. A. degree in psychology in 1942. Prior to his entering the Army he had been employed as personnel manager for WDRC, Hartford, Conn. He entered the service in April, 1942.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

A number of members of the Winchester League are entertaining in their homes on the evening of Dec. 16 in connection with the League sponsored lecture by Joseph C. Harsch, prominent radio commentator and news columnist.

Mr. Harsch is coming from Washington to speak to the League and friends on the occasion of the League's "Evening Meeting," an annual event which over a period of years has brought many fine speakers to Winchester.

Those entertaining are Mrs. George G. Brayley, Mrs. Henry M. Dellicker, Mrs. Georges Houle, Mrs. Rowland Patrick and Mrs. Philip Woodward.

Arrangements for the evening are in the hands of Mrs. Robert Cummins, who has selected the following ushers: Mrs. Henry M. Dellicker, Mrs. George Elwell, Mrs. H. W. Hall, Mrs. C. W. Linnell, Mrs. Robert G. Thomason, and Mrs. Donald T. Whittemore.

STYGLES AT AIR BASE

Sgt. Bernard F. Stygles, USAAF, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Stygles of Oak street, and former Winchester High School football star, is a plane mechanic at the great air transport tucked away in the lowlands of Scotland for most of the trans-Atlantic planes of the Army's Air Transport Command.

Within the past 18 months a fleet of silvery, sleek four-motored C-54s has been shuttling back and forth over the Atlantic with time-table regularity. The accident rate has been negligible and the hours of departure and arrival predictable within minutes.

FORTNIGHTLY CHRISTMAS MEETING

At the Christmas meeting of the Fortnightly last Monday, $10 was appropriated for the "adoption" of two Chinese orphans.

Following the business session a very lovely and much enjoyed program of Carols of many countries was rendered by the Fortnightly Singers directed by Mrs. Mary Ranton Witham.

Mrs. Henry A. Hill, as coach and director, then presented an unusual Christmas play, "Dust of the Road." The heart-searching theme and the admirable portrayal of the characters by the cast made a deep impression on the audience. Mrs. John B. Wills played the part of the aged uncle, Mrs. Stanley D. Howe, that of Prudence Steele, the farmer's wife; Mrs. William C. Haltgren, Peter Steele, the farmer; and Mrs. Warren C. Whitman, the Tramp "The Dust of the Road."

The holiday program concluded with a Christmas tea, with Mrs. Kenneth B. Hiscoe and Mrs. Clifton S. Hall pouring at the tea table whose attractive decorations bespoke Christmas.

RESOLUTIONS ON REJECTIONS OF UNIVERSALIST DENOMINATION BY FEDERAL COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

We, the undersigned ministers of the First Baptist Church, the New Hope Baptist Church, and the First Congregational Church of Winchester, Mass., whose denominations are members of the Federal Council of Churches, and therefore entitled to speak, hereby record our deep disappointment at the rejection of the application of the Universalist Denomination to become a member of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.

We hold that it is too late in the day for one body of Christians to exclude another from fellowship on a theological basis, especially since our Common Lord laid down a minimum of theological requirements for his followers, when he said, "Follow Me."

We hold that the action of the Council is doubly regrettable in the light of a world condition which demands the unity of all Christendom in its fight against the Powers of Darkness.

We further hold that such a spirit of intolerance between Protestants gives aid and comfort to all enemies of our common faith and practice.

We sincerely hope that the day may soon come when the prayer of our Lord "that they may all be one" will draw into a closer fellowship the members of all faiths, and that the unhappy divisions of our Protestant Communions, at least, will be healed.

Dear Dr. Chidley:

That you should have voluntarily called in Mr. Bailey and Mr. Miller and together drawn up so kindly a statement of your reaction to the recent vote of the Federal Council of Churches, touches me deeply.

I am sure the members of our national Board, our ministers over the country, and my spiritual kinsfolk everywhere would wish me to express to you their gratitude and their sincere good wishes.

That your expression is the heartfelt expression of a fellow-townsman, I am personally most gratified.

Faithfully yours,
Robert Cummins

JOINS BOMBARDMENT GROUP

Second Lt. James E. Farrell of 15 Appalachian road, recently joined the 467th Bombardment Group to fly and fight as a navigator in one of the B-24 Liberator bombers of this group.

Helping Lt. Farrell on his coming missions will be the experience this group has gained from dispatching bombers on over 150 combat missions during the past eight months.

The 467th Bomb Group is part of the Second Bombardment Division, commanded by Maj. Gen. William E. Kepner.

Before entering the service in April 1943, Lt. Farrell was a student at Winchester High School. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Farrell live at 15 Appalachian road.

UNITARIAN MEN'S CLUB

Christmas Party and Ladies' Night

Next Monday evening, the members of the Men's Club of the Unitarian Church are playing hosts to the ladies of the church and to the members of the church choir en masse.

Repeating last year's outstandingly successful social occasion in the form of a Christmas entertainment, the club has arranged a special musical program featuring songs by Helene Wiedemann, a lyric soprano of extraordinary charm and talent. Also [illegible] Sergei S. Krassovsky [illegible] Boston Pro Festival.

Accompanying will be H. Whipple Abbott [illegible] most [illegible] musical instrument which musicians [illegible] and it [illegible] possible to play.

The Men's Club is again, as last year, using this occasion to demonstrate the warm appreciation of the entire parish as well as the club's members for the work of the Unitarian Choir and expect to have all the choir members present as the honored guests of the evening.

The club's usual supper will precede the entertainment.

RALLO PROMOTED

Francis Rallo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Rallo of 24 Eaton street, has been promoted from the rank of sergeant to staff sergeant.

Sgt. Rallo is a platoon guide in a veteran jungle-fighting regiment.

Before entering the service Sgt. Rallo was a student at the Winchester High School where he took an active part in athletics, playing third base on the baseball team. He also played semi-pro baseball with the Winchester Cubs.

Sgt. Rallo has two brothers in the service, Pfc. Paul Rallo, Combat Engineers and Ensign Leonard Rallo, Naval Air Corps.

CANDLELIGHT CAROLS AT EPIPHANY

Announcing the second annual Candlelight Carols, the Young People's Fellowship of the Church of the Epiphany extends a cordial invitation to all members of the parish and their friends to join them in the parish hall at 8 o'clock this Sunday evening.

After a welcome by President William Shoemaker, those present will join in carol singing, specialty numbers appropriate for the Christmas season and will have an opportunity to chat with their friends while reviving the spirit of Christmas.

General chairman for the occasion is Norma Lewis. Parker Flagg will act as master of ceremonies and Rosanne Borden, Barbara Bowes, Dorothy Clarke, Anne Dubuis, Gillian Dubuis, June Moffette, Jane Rainie, Sally Ray, Jane Sharon and Joan Thomas will usher. Choirmaster Ray Grabhorn will lead the singing and Mrs. Arthur B. Corthell will be at the piano. The mothers will serve refreshments.

MARTIN AWARDED AIR MEDAL

First Lt. William W. Martin, 23, of 74 Wedgemere avenue, pilot of a 15th Air Force B-17 Flying Fortress has been awarded the Air Medal for meritorious achievement while participating in aerial combat in the Mediterranean Theater of Operations. On foreign duty since September 1943, Lt. Martin has flown on combat missions over Germany, Austria, Hungary, Italy and Yugoslavia.

Lt. Martin's wife, Mrs. Jacqueline W. Martin, resides in Winchester. He is a graduate of the Wichita Falls, Texas, High School, and of the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, N. Y.

We Are About To Close Our Third War Year In The Automobile Business

It has been a difficult year. Cars have needed more repairs than average. Many items of replacement parts have been difficult to obtain. We have been short of mechanics. In spite of these conditions, you have been patient and co-operative. For this, we want to "thank you."

Next Year

Replacement parts are coming through much better now, and we are assured by our factory that the improvement will continue. Let's hope that during the coming year the war will be over, our boys will be back, and our company is building cars again.

WILL GRADUATE FROM VASSAR

Miss Nancy Kelley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert W. Kelley of 3 Willow street, is a member of the senior class at Vassar College which will be graduated on Sunday, Dec. 17. She is majoring in religion.

During her senior year Miss Kelley has served as chairman of the Department of Study of the Vassar Community Church. Last September she headed a group of students who planned and carried out a Community Church conference under the title of "One World."

Miss Kelley was chairman of the student committee which arranged the baccalaureate service of the class held last Sunday Dec. 10. The music and text of the baccalaureate hymn were composed by this committee. Dr. Ralph W. Sockman, minister of Christ Church in New York City, delivered the sermon at the service, held in the Vassar Chapel.

BAPTIST YOUNG PEOPLE PLAN FEATURE PROGRAM

Young people of the First Baptist Church are anticipating Sunday, Dec. 17, and the program arranged for that occasion promises to be one of unusual interest.

Mr. Albert W. Sheckells, director of Christian Education and Young People's Work for the Mass. Baptist Convention, has planned the program which opens at 4:30 in the afternoon. At that time Mr. Sheckells will lead a discussion for the Junior High Group on the subject, "Say! What's the Big Idea?" From 5:15 to 6 o'clock both groups will join with Mr. Sheckells in "Pan-Jam," fun with games and group singing.

An informal supper will be served from 6 to 6:30 for both groups and will be followed by a Young People's panel discussion of the Baptist Youth Fellowship, outlined by Mr. Schekells.

WINCHESTER WELLESLEY CLUB

On Friday, Dec. 8, Mrs. Albert D. Swazey opened her home, 336 Main street for a meeting of the Wellesley College Club. The guest speaker was Miss Ruth H. Lindsay, new Dean of Residence at the college who told in informal manner of recent developments in the Curriculum and in Student Activities. All present felt that Wellesley was keeping step with the times.

Several new members received a cordial welcome. A short business meeting preceded the speaker. The tea which followed was served by Mrs. Edward R. Grosvenor and her committee. Pouring were Miss Mary L. Hodge and Mrs. Murray S. Moore.

WILLIAM PARKMAN LODGE A. F. AND A. M.

A large . . . of Masons enjoyed a roast beef dinner at the Masonic Apartments on Tuesday evening at the regular monthly meeting.

An interesting evening of entertainment and ritual was provided, with five candidates receiving the first degree. Official British Propaganda Ministry War Films were shown after the dinner.

There will be a special meeting on Monday, Dec. 18 at 7:30 p. m. at the apartments. Three candidates will receive the first degree and at the conclusion of the degree work a hot oyster stew will be served. All Masons in Winchester are cordially invited to attend this and all meetings of William Parkman Lodge.

WOMEN'S ALLIANCE

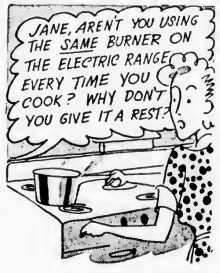

The Women's Alliance of the Unitarian Church met in Laurence Hall on Tuesday Dec. 12 at 2 p. m.

The devotional service was read by the president, Mrs. Arthur G. Robbins. A group of unusual Christmas songs was sung by Mrs. Muriel Thorley, our new contralto.

The reading of Harriet by Mrs. Mary M. Russell was a treat indeed and the entire program made one glad to have been a listener.

Tea was served in the ladies' parlor and the holiday spirit was evident in the table decorations and the exchange of greetings from one to another.

WAR VETERANS ADVISORY COMMITTEE

The committee appreciates the generosity of the En Ka Society in taking over the responsibility of the furnishings of the room in the Public Library which is to be used as an information center. This room will be used by the councellor group and the recently formed Family Advisory Committee. It is planned by En Ka Society to have this room furnished and ready for use by the end of this month.

Mrs. Robert S. (Esther C.) Clark has been appointed chairman of the Family Advisory Committee.

On Wednesday evening in the conference room at the Public Library a conference was held for the purpose of discussing methods of procedure and policies in handling problems coming under the jurisdiction of the War Veterans Advisory Committee.

The responsibilities of the Local Selective Service Board to the returned veteran was covered by its chairman, Mr. W. Allan Wilde. The responsibility of the U. S. Employment Service to the returned veterans was discussed by Mr. Stephen Flynn, manager of the U. S. Employment Bureau of Woburn.

The operation of the Information Center was covered by Mr. Samuel Graves and Mr. Erskine White, of the Educational and Councellor group.

Mr. Malcolm Nichols explained the services that are available through the Family Society which is a Red Feather agency of the Greater Boston Community Fund.

Mr. Joseph H. Gillis, Executive Secretary of Veterans Rehabilitation and Re-Employment Committee of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts attended the conference and made many helpful suggestions.

WINCHESTER BOYS RETURN FOR REASSIGNMENT

S-Sgt. Michael D. Saraco of 62 Water street, and Pfc. Howard E. Chase, Jr., 6 Ridgeway have arrived at the Asheville, N. C., Army Ground and Service Forces Redistribution Station, where they will spend approximately ten days awaiting reassignment to duty. These boys have returned to the States after having served over two and a half years in the China-Burma-India and South Pacific theatres.

S-Sgt. Saraco was a Merrill's Marauder, and Pfc. Chase was a member of the Americal Division. Both soldiers are Infantry fighters.

Mrs. Howard Chase is accompanying her husband while he is in Asheville.

DE MINICO CITED

Mrs. Marianna DeMinico of 38 Florence street has been notified that her son Frank, better known as Willie, has been awarded the Presidential Citation for service with the Marines in the battles of Saipan and Tinian Islands. His company was chosen from his division to be its honor guard, being inspected by Lt. Gen. Smith.

BRITISH WAR RELIEF

Dec. 20 will be the last work-room meeting of the Winchester Unit of British War Relief for 1944.

An interesting by-product now and then comes to the Winchester Unit, along with its main production, garments and wrappings, made or mended or knitted. This by-product is letters that come from some Britor in the armed services.

A Winchester tar and a Winchester name have been in the helmet or the socks that have comforted his winter days, and he more than repays the Unit by a letter.

He writes just what a knitter would like to know; bits about his work, his best friends, the company dog, his family, meeting his own vicar from his home village in Bagdad, a sick leave in Syria and Palestine, what he means to do when peace comes. The Unit is lucky enough to have two of these letter-friends now who are in the Paiforce, in Persia and Iraq.

"Banks and Binns, the inseparable twins," their fellows in the Royal Sussex Regiment call them. Clever, cheerful, stout-hearted lads their Winchester friends call them, just like our own in finding the cheerfullest things to put into a letter home. Dust, yes, when one is a despatch rider on dirt tracks in Iraq, but no dwelling on that. Instead there is "my first job after peace, to help Monty and Betty get married." And the quip about Bagdad, where he evidently met some company less desirable than the chaplain, his vicar from home, "Ali Baba's 40 seem to have multiplied!"

How we'd like to send this admirable human document on to Hitler and Himmler and their hangmen, with their silly mouthings about their "master race." They'd get no comfort out of it, any more than they could get from the jests that Gordon and Jack and Bud, born and bred in Winchester, U. S. A., write back from jungle and fox hole to make cheerful reading for the folks at home.

So thanks to you, R. H. Binns, Pte., for your contribution to our Christmas cheer. And by thought-wave we answer back to you and your comrades in the dust and the dirt tracks,

"God rest you merry, gentlemen,
Let nothing you dismay."

Miss Cynthia S. Newton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Newton of 24 Wedgemere avenue, is in charge of transportation for children from the Salvation Army at a Christmas party which was given Dec. 9 at Waterman Dormitory at Rhode Island School of Design in Providence, R. I., where she is a student.

INTER-CHURCH BOWLING POPULAR

With approximately 40 men participating, the first inter-church bowling round-robin of the Men's Clubs from the Baptist, Methodist, Unitarian, Episcopal and both the Congregational Churches was concluded last Friday night at the alleys in the Lakefield Building.

Seven matches were recorded and all the participants agreed that a good time was had in the doing of it. Started several weeks ago by Raymond Tebbets of the Unitarian Men's Club, the weekly contests have brought together the men from the different churches and has stimulated a fine spirit of fellowship and cooperation. It is hoped to be able to form a league for another short bowling schedule with even more players soon after the New Year holiday.

The high scoring team in the series just concluded was a five man aggregation of stalwarts from the Men's Club of the Unitarian Congregational Church with a total of 595 points. Their team was captained by Ed Grosvenor and he was also the highest individual scorer among all the players with a record of 116 points. Not far behind him was Dick Forno of the Unitarian squad. Other top markers were Arthur Hanson with 110, H. L. Caldwell with 109, Ray Smith with 108.

There is some talk, according to unconfirmed and unofficial sources, that if the present enthusiasm for bowling is maintained until spring they may be a switch to horse-shoes and a challenge made to the Palmer Beach immortals.

NEW FRUIT STORE TO OPEN

Scheduled to open during the first part of next week, Winchester is to have a new fruit and grocery store. The Converse Fruit Store is opening at the corner of Main street and Converse place near Barnes' Dry Goods Store. The new firm will carry "everything for the table." Fresh quality fruits, vegetables, nuts and groceries will be fully stocked. Winchester residents are invited to call and inspect this new store next week.

WINCHESTER WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

Extends Christmas Greetings to All Its Friends

1944—"The Hopes and Fears of All the Years are Met in Thee Tonight"

These are the words with which Phillips Brooks wrote of that "Little Town of Bethlehem," where was born in far-off Judea, nearly 2000 years ago, the Child whose birth gave us our Christmas. And still today the hopes and fears of all the years meet in Him as they did that night in the lowly manger where He lay.

Christmas comes, we say, but once a year. But He is ever coming — coming to the hearts of men with the divinest message humanity has ever heard.

No wonder Christmas Day is the Day of Days. Whatever it may bring us this year of joy or sorrow, it is our assurance that "Peace on Earth and Good Will toward Men" is still life's final goal.

Dear Santa, I have heard folks say
That every dog should have its day
And so I dip my paw in ink
To say the ideal gift, I think,
Would be a master who can run
From dawn until the setting sun.
Some one who's good at signal talk,
Who knows the woodlands like a hawk.
Some one who likes to feel a nose
Just slightly moist against his toes.
So Santa don't bring me a toy
But just give me an average boy!

WINCHESTER HOME NURSES

Thursday, Dec. 7 was a most appropriate anniversary date for the awarding of Red Cross Home Nursing certificates and pins to 12 Winchester women who had given time, thought and effort to help protect the Home Front.

The 24-hour Red Cross Home Nursing course, just completed by them, was conducted by Mrs. Florence Elliott, R. N., a volunteer instructor qualified by training and practical experience, who had been authorized by the Red Cross to teach Home Nursing.

This course provides useful, practical information on how to encourage good habits of health and to care for illness in one's own home.

The following are the proud wearers of the newly acquired Red Cross Nursing pins:

Miss Eleanor Barron, Mrs. Albert Buffum, Mrs. Charles Currier, Mrs. Susan DeAngelis, Mrs. Dorothy Grace, Mrs. Pauline R. Hamilton, Mrs. Stewart Lyford, Miss Elsie Lyons, Mrs. Claire Mullen, Miss Elizabeth Purcell, Mrs. Frederick Purcell, Miss Vincenza Vozzella.

If their example should inspire any friends, neighbors or other Winchester residents with a desire to help in meeting the nurse shortage at home, the Red Cross Home Nursing Committee will be glad to add their names to a waiting list for notification when a class is being formed. To enroll in this free home nursing course, call Mrs. Alfred J. Higgins (Win. 2202) or Red Cross Headquarters (Win. 2300).

"Me Worry about Smoke?"

I KNOW WHAT IT MEANS"

"Know what that smoke has meant to us the past three years?

"It's meant jobs . . . security . . . more money in our pockets and a chance to save some of it.

"Not only for workers in the plants, but for me, my husband, the milkman, the girl who sells movie tickets . . . everybody in town.

"My biggest worry is that those chimneys might STOP smoking!"

★ ★ ★ ★

Will they stop?

Will you let the industry which has made life better for you drift away?

You know what will happen if you do—fewer jobs . . . thinner pay envelopes . . . maybe even no job.

You don't want that and neither do we.

Certainly America and the rest of the world will need many things after the shooting stops . . . things those plants can produce as they have produced the weapons of war.

We must keep our mills and factories...and keep them humming with peacetime production.

★ ★ ★ ★

No one person or group can do this alone . . . you and your friends must help.

Help "sell" your community as a producer of goods.

Every one of us who shares in the fortunes of New England must take a hand—and that includes the New Haven Railroad.

It's a job for you local business men whose livelihood depends upon full employment . . . for you bankers, farmers, lawyers, doctors, school teachers, realtors, insurance agents, storekeepers, members of the Chamber of Commerce, Rotary, Kiwanis, Lions and other service clubs.

It's a job for municipal officials and your representatives in the Legislatures who should keep property productive and taxes down.

It's a job for the clergyman who has the welfare of his flock at heart.

It's a job for the homeowner and his wife who want to protect their investment.

And it's very much a job for those most directly concerned—labor and management.

★ ★ ★ ★

We of the New Haven believe in New England and in its industrial future.

No other part of America is more strategically located, has more manufacturing experience or as extensive a manufacturing establishment already in existence. No other section is nearer the great markets of the United States or has better rail, air and water facilities so vital to industry.

Among us—all of us—we can keep the chimneys smoking.

We will do our part.

Will you—in your own way—do yours?

1945 FOOTBOLL DATES ANNOUNCED

Watertown Back on Local Schedule

Faculty Director Ray V. Hayward has announced that after a long lapse Watertown High returns to Winchester's football schedule next fall, replacing Danvers.

Local fans will applaud this substitution, since there was a general feeling this past season that the local boys were playing too many soft teams. Winchester didn't sign Danvers as a soft touch, but aside from the first two years the onion-towners haven't proved especially potent, and after this fall's shellacking dropped themselves from Winchester's schedule, feeling the locals are too tough.

Winchester competed regularly with Watertown back in the Mystic League days, severing relations when entering the Middlesex League. There should be a lot more local interest in a Winchester-Watertown game than in a contest with Danvers.

Aside from the Watertown date, Winchester's schedule will be the same as this past year with Watertown, Framingham, Reading, Belmont and Woburn all playing here. Save that Reading date, Nov. 3. That's one you won't want to miss.

Following is the complete schedule:

Sept.
	22	at Sawmpscott
	29	Lexington
Oct.
	6	Watertown
	12	at Winthrop
	20	at Stoneham
	27	Framingham
Nov.
	3	Reading
	10	Belmont
	17	at Wakefield
	Thanks-giving	Woburn here

Miss Mary Lou Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Allen of 71 Church street, a member of the Mt. Holyoke College Glee Club, will take part in the 20th annual Christmas concert to be presented in Town Hall in New York City on Tuesday evening.

TIBAUDO PICKED FOR "ALL" HONORS

Announced as Next Year's Football Captain Day of Hadley Announcement

Jolting Sam Tibaudo, Winchester High School's pile-driving fullback, had himself quite an evening last Saturday. At 6:15 he was at the WBZ Studios as guest of "Bump" Hadley, radio sports announcer, who chose the Winchester boy as fullback on his first string all scholastic football team, announced that evening.

All the schoolboys chosen by Hadley were at the station and received all-scholastic certificates. With Tibaudo in the backfield, Hadley selected Walter Brennan of Marlboro and Francis Rooney of Somerville, quarterbacks; Walter Harwood of Boston Latin, right halfback and William Aumen of Braintree, left halfback.

Leaving the radio studio, Sammy hastened back to Winchester for the All Sports Banquet at high school, where during the evening he was announced as captain of next year's football team.

Those who have watched Tibaudo's play over the past three seasons will agree that both his selection for "all" honors and election to lead next year's eleven are richly deserved.

Jolting Sam ranks with the best line-bucking fullbacks Winchester has had. We can recall none who hit a line harder. Ficocello was a better spinner, Bill West more versatile and better once by the line of scrimmage. Neither of these great fullbacks, however, had anything on Tibaudo through the middle or inside or outside the tackles.

As a freshman, Sam had little chance to show his stuff, being a substitute for West, one of Winchester's all time football greats. When Sammy did get a chance in the lineup, however, he showed Coach Knowlton enough so that worthy did not lose too much sleep over the fact that West was through that year. He knew he had another fine fullback coming along.

As a sophomore at 160 pounds, Tibaudo was very much all right, better than West was in his second year, if we can be pardoned such "lese majestat." This past fall as a 171 lb. junior Sammy has ranked with the best in the opinion of every official with whom we have talked. Besides his bucking ability, Sam also passes very well, is a good tackler and reliable safetyman, as well as being very durable. Despite plenty of roughing from most of the big teams whom he played this year, Tibaudo has seldom displayed any signs, either of physical weariness or of the punishment he was absorbing.

Sam is the second of his family to be elected football captain at Winchester High, his older brother, Jim, having been originally elected to lead this past year's football team, relinquishing his captaincy to enter the Navy. Whether Sammy will be in the harness another fall depends upon the war as he reaches draft age this spring.

WON TOP TENNIS RANKING

Conrad Rosander, Jr. of Rangely, has broken a Winchester tennis record by being ranked No 1 boy in New England as a result of the 1944 tournaments. These were three, and Conrad won the singles in each of them. Next year he must compete in the older class but with his polished strokes and fine competitive spirit he should hang up another fine record.

In the younger class doubles Conrad with is partner Sheldon Caldwell are rated the No. 3 team.

Of the older boys Gordon McGovern has captured the No. 3 position in New England. James Ware, Jr., his partner is No. 10, together they are the No. 3 doubles team.

Among the older girls Ann Peniman of Everett avenue is the only one ranked from Winchester. She is No. 8.

The picture is brighter in the younger girls class, where Ruth Murray of Cross street is No. 2. Her partner in doubles Ann Allree of Stratford road is No. 6. As both will be within the lower age limit in 1945 much may be expected of them.

This winter they are both members of the Longwood Covered Courts and play there regularly.

BRITISH SCRIBE DESCRIBES FOOTBALL

The Star is indebted to its "Shellie" Hamilton, now a lieutenant in the QMC in England for the following account of an Army-Navy football game written this past fall for the "Daily Express", an English paper, by one of its reporters.

"Sixty thousand Americans and their girls swarmed into the White City Stadium Shepherd's Bush, to see the U. S. Army vs. the U. S. Navy in what General Doolittle described during the interval as a "real old-fashioned American football game."

Girl cheer leaders from the services pranced in front of the crowd waving megaphones, inciting yells like "Army, Army," or "Navy, Navy."

Meanwhile the face fight seemed to be going on in the center of the stadium. Twenty-two enormous young men in crash helmets were locked in deadly struggle for an oval football.

Strange Ginger Shorts

They wore spiked cleated is the word the Americans use—shoes, strange ginger shorts which cling closely to the thighs and end abruptly just below the knee, and padded jerseys.

They needed those pads. And the crash helmets.

The object of the game seems to be to pass the ball to some unfortunate player, and then for everyone else to fall on him.

The only thing that moves play towards the goalposts seems to be the instinct of self preservation of the man with the ball.

He runs as far as he can before he is maimed or killed by the other players.

The program seemed sinister. It gave the names of the 11 men of each team. It then gave a list of 15 "substitutes" for each team.

The "substitutes" did not have long to wait for their call to battle.

Not to Mop Up Blood

First casualty went to the Navy. Horrified, I watched a GI scamper across the field with two buckets in his hands. But not, as I thought, to mop up the blood.

The buckets held towels and water for the players still living.

Casualties are dealt with by a doctor who rushes out with a black bag—the umpire (splendid in white plus fours and striped shirt-), and stretcher bearers, if needed.

American football is played in four quarters, not two halves like ours. Each team has the ball for four "downs." If by that time they have not made enough ground the other side takes over.

Before each "down" the team which has the ball goes into a huddle while the captain decides who shall be the victim to receive the ball and the assaults.

Favorite method of assault yesterday seemed to be: (1) springing like a tiger at the man's throat, or (2) just shoving so that sheer weight bore him down.

The attacker must keep one foot on the ground as he tackles. After the tackle he is usually all on the ground.

The Navy lost, 20 points to nil.

During the interval (end of second quarter, as they say hands played, and the goat mascot of the Navy paraded with the donkey mascot of the Army."

CUB PACK 3 BAND CONCERT

The main event of the December meeting of Cub Pack 3, held last Tuesday evening in the First Congregational Church parish hall, was a concert by the all-Winchester Cub and Scout Band. Under the very able leadership of Mr. Evert Westcott, the whole band consisting of 15 Cubs and eight Scouts played a total of nine selections.

In addition, there was a trombone solo by Peter Hutchins, a trumpet solo by Phillip Nelson and a saxaphone solo by David Hutchins. Bugle calls to open and close the meeting were played by David Shiverick.

The Cubs of Pack 3 brought presents of toys to the meeting which will be distributed in Boston by the Salvation Army.

During the opening ceremony Cubmaster H. Royal Brown awarded the following badges:

Bob cat badges to Roddy MacCreery, Paul Leverette, Russell Hermann, Trevor Smith, Russell MacLeod, Carter Tollman.

Wolf Badges to: William Doughty, Marvin Wilson, Trevor Smith, Neil Godbold, Russell MacLeod.

Wolf Gold Arrows to: William Sipe, George DeCamp, David Snow, John Bodman.

Wolf Silver Arrows to: William Sipe, David Snow, John Bodman.

Bear Badge to: Robert Mirak.

Lion Badges to: Robert Burr, Bruce McGovern.

Lion Gold Arrows to: Charles Burnham, Thomas Joy, Bruce McGovern.

The Webelo Badge showing completion of three years service in Cubs and the passing of the Scout Tenderfoot test was awarded to: Thomas Joy, Charles Burnham, Bruce McGovern, David Hutchins, David Shiverick.

Mrs. Leslie J. Scott, with her sons Richard and Douglas, are visiting her home at Buckstown, Penn., where they will spend Christmas. Mr. Scott will join them at that time.

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL ASSOCIATES

The executive committee of the Junior High School Associates has announced that the first party for all Junior High School pupils will be held on the evening of Dec. 28, from 7 to 9:30 in the parish hall of the First Congregational Church.

Mr. Albert Haynes, who is employed by Henry Ford to teach and conduct square dances at the Wayside Inn in Sudbury, will be in charge of the fun of the evening. Mrs. Neil Borden, Mr. Percy Bugbee and Mr. Raymond Holdsworth will be in charge of refreshments and will be assisted by Mrs. Harvey Macaulay and Mrs. Robert Keeney.

Strict attendance will be limited to Junior High School pupils, ticket will be necessity, but th se may be procured during this next week at the Junior High School office by any of the members. If this new venture, sponsored by fathers and mothers of seventh and eighth graders proves successful, Mrs. John Chipman and her committee promises further parties for the group.

MR. MANN PRESIDED

Mr. Harvard L. Mann of 5 Myopia road acted as chairman Wednesday evening of a joint meeting of the Boston Chapter of the National Association of Cost Accountants, the Mass. Society of Certified Accountants and the Boston Control of the Controllers Institute of America at the Hotel Vendome in Boston.

Mr. Maxwell McDowell, head of the tax department of the Standard Oil Co. of New Jersey was the speaker, his address dealing with the outlook on corporation federal taxation.

CHRISTMAS WORKSHOP

The annual Christmas Workshop of the Winchester Better Homes Garden Club will be held Dec. 18, at the First Baptist Church at 10 a. m. This year the day is to be spent in making decorations for the wards of the Lovell General Hospital at Camp Devens and for our own library and Home for Aged People. Anyone wishing to aid in bringing this cheer to the boys in the hospital and to others is welcome.

GUILD OF THE INFANT SAVIOUR

On last Tuesday, Dec. 12, the annual bazaar of the Winchester Chapter took place in Lyceum Hall. A large committee under leadership of Mrs. Michael Hintlian, president, worked hard for many weeks to make it a brilliant success.

The large tables or booths which flanked the sides and front of the hall were literally weighed down with beautiful as well as useful articles for sale. These were presided over by the various chairmen and their committees. A feature of the afternoon's entertainment was a country fair by Mrs. Joseph McGaragle assisted by Mrs. Robert Cavanagh, auctioneer.

During the hours from 12 to 2, luncheon was served on small tables attractively set for four. These tables took up the center section of the floor and were arranged and rearranged many times during these hours and later from 3 until 5 for afternoon tea. Mrs. John Lennon and her committee worked unceasingly the entire day serving wholesome delicious food, all of it prepared by the committee.

An exhibition of beautiful layettes by Mrs. Thomas Higgins, sewing chairman, attracted much admiration. These lovely layettes, all hand finished, crocheted and beribboned, have been sent in to the Catholic Charities Bureau for distribution at Christmas time.

The hundreds of aprons, pearafores and holders made by Mrs. James Carr and Mrs. Owen J. Logue and their assistants, disappeared like the proverbial hot cakes. Practically every type and style of apron from the plain workaday one to the dainty lace trimmed dimity was on sale and out long before closing.

Among the many guests during the afternoon was Rev. John P. O'Riordan, pastor of St. Mary's Church. Fr. O'Riordan congratulated the members of the Guild for the grand work they are doing in the name of the Infant Jesus for His little ones.

The next meeting of the Guild will be Tuesday, Dec. 26, in Lyceum Hall, at 2:30. This will be a regular meeting followed by sewing and tea.

To all the members and friends of the Chapter, Guild of the Infant Saviour, Mrs. Hintlian extends our cordial and sincere wishes for a very Merry Christmas.

JUNIOR CHOIR ANNUAL PARTY

About 60 members of the Junior Choir of the First Congregational Church enjoyed their annual party in the social hall last Saturday afternoon.

Mr. W. Campbell Rice showed them movies which were loaned by Mr. W. B. Hersey after which everyone enjoyed ice cream, sandwiches, coco cola and all the homemade cookies they could devour.

As the young people left the hall, Hershey bars were given to them.

Mrs. Carl E. Morse, Junior Choir Mother was in charge of the party, assisted by Mrs. Donald True and Mrs. Harold N. Stevens.

OIL LOST

The Police were notified Wednesday afternoon shortly before 2:30 that two four year old boys living in the vicinity of Water street had been missing since 11 o'clock that forenoon. The youngsters were found in the cellar of the home of one of the boys where they had opened the faucets of two 50 gallon oil tanks, letting all the oil run out onto the cellar floor.

PHANEUF—MERROW

Only members of the immediate families attended the marriage of Miss Ruth Ann Merrow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar E. Merrow of Gilmanton, to Normand Paul Phaneuf, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand J. Phaneuf of Somerville, on Saturday, Dec. 9. Rev. Fr. John P. O'Riordan, pastor of St. Mary's Church, performed the ceremony at high noon in St. Mary's Rectory, after which the bridal party and their families went to the Town Line House in Lynnfield for luncheon.

Upon their return from a wedding trip to New York, Mr. and Mrs. Phaneuf will make their home at 65 Regent road in Malden. Both are graduates of Tufts College, Mr. Phaneuf in the class of 1942, and his bride, in the class of 1943. Until her marriage the bride was an histologist at the Harvard University Biology Laboratory. Mr. Phaneuf is a chemical engineer associated with the Monsanto Chemical Co. in Everett.

MULHAUPT EXHIBITION AT LIBRARY

The Winchester Art Association is sponsoring another excellent exhibition in the showing of oils by F. A. Mulhaupt, N. A., now on display at the gallery in the public library. The still cold of a Northern winter, the crackle and whiff of snow-gust, stark under the bulk of a covered bridge, the brooding stillness of snow-clad woods, the rich warmth of autumn sunshine on changing foliage and the universal appeal of sailing ships, long wharves and the non-descript buildings of the water front are all portrayed by this master painter with a realism that lacks no whit of the artistic and a color treatment that is a contributing part to the beauty of the whole study rather than a cloak for faulty draftsmanship.

There are many studies of ships and harbor scenes in the Library show, each beautifully done. White Schooner is one fine study of an ice draped two master, seen against lesser boats, in a small channel in the Gloucester Proper section, with spiles in the foreground and a covered wharf at the rear of the ships. The entire foreground is in shadow, contrasting with sun-lighted buildings and top-masts rising in the background.

Gloucester Harbor, Winter, is another fine and unusual study in blue grays and white, with the sails of the craft riding the leaden water touched with the light of a winter sun that is a mere dead red disk in the sky. Fog Bound Harbor is skillfully painted to show sailing ships looming spectral through heavy blue-gray mist.

Especially outstanding is Vermont Logging Camp, with its horse-drawn logs outside a low snow-covered building beside an ice-covered pond which narrows to a stream in a tree-rimmed valley with dark highlands in the background. The suggestion of still cold, the snow tones and the winter sky, cleverly lighted with the suggestion of sunset afterglow are masterfully portrayed.

New Hampshire Covered Bridge is another fine painting with an ox-sled and man clothing through rutted snow around a curve after passing through the long box-like structure.

Vermont Winter is another gem, with its turbulent eddying water, cold and gray-blue as it races under a covered bridge past yellow mill-like buildings nestling in tall leafless trees with a background of blue highlands, the whole cleverly lighted from the side.

Gloucester Street is full of interest. A view of Middle Street, it shows a two-horse pung coming up the winding snow-covered road past closely huddled buildings with the city hall spire looming through skeleton trees in the upper background. Hailing from Gloucester shows a typical wharf scene with waterfront buildings, shipping and a tall fish-smoking house.

New England Winter and Valley of Gold are two beautiful large landscapes, the first showing a snow-girt rocky banked brook under tall bare trees with rugged land sloping up and away into the background. Valley of Gold shows farm land and buildings in a river valley warmly lighted by the sun and viewed through an opening in tall trees clad in the oranges, reds, browns and yellows of autumn.

A beauty among the smaller pictures is Vermont Autumn, Mt. Mansfield, with its small stream winding peacefully past autumn trees with the bulky deep blue of the highlands at the background fading into the sky-line. The rich colors of this study are especially fine. Vermont Mill Pond is still another tranquil study with sleek shining water, two small row-boats and autumn trees.

There are many other fine studies in Mr. Mulhaupt's show, including a number of small dimensions, but all painted with the same mastery and skilled draftsmanship that characterizes the more spectacular larger pictures. The show will remain at the Library through the month and is one that most art lovers will want to see more than once. It is of course open to the public.

William H. Dale, Jr. of Salisbury street and James F. Dwinell, Jr. of Fernway, both from this town, and members of the board of directors of the Boston Life Underwriters Association, were honored guests at the Association's luncheon held Dec. 5 at the Hotel Statler in Boston.

NOT GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER

Henry D. vander Wyck of 63 High street was found not guilty of manslaughter by Judge Edward F. Hanify in Middlesex Superior Court Wednesday after being on trial for three days, facing charges arising from the death of his wife, Mrs. Rena vander Wyck, who was allegedly run over by an automobile at the rear of their home last March. In addition to the charge of manslaughter, Mr. vander Wyck was charged with operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor, driving so as to endanger the lives and safety of the public, and leaving the scene of an accident after causing injury.

He was found guilty of these last three charges and sentenced by Judge Hanify to serve six months in the House of Correction on each charge, the sentences to run concurrently.

We gluing the pros and cons on that personal social event which we reported last week when our youngest daughter got married, we have come to the conclusion that we are decidedly in the dog house. That being the case, we feel we may as well go the whole distance and let you know where the dog buries his bone. We have often wondered what becomes of the remainder of the big wedding cake after the guests are satisfied. It finally boiled down to the thought that perhaps it went to the old lass' home; they always like cake according to our youthful recollection. But we were wrong. We are still enjoying a big hunk each night with our bed-time glass of milk. And it goes pretty well. We don't know how Gus and Anna are making out with their portion, but if times were normal we know Dent Randall would have a standing order for ice cream and the Wilson social events would continue ad infinitum.

Considerable talk has been rife about town over a questionnaire reportedly sent to the school teachers by the Principal of the High School on orders of the Superintendent. According to this report, this questionnaire is very hush, hush. In substance it is reported to have contained questions regarding the opinion of the teachers on the Superintendent's methods of running the schools. The questionnaire, it is reported, was issued in the exact number corresponding to the number of teachers, all being ordered to return it to the High School Principal, so that no would be no leak. The School Committee, while admitting knowledge of the matter, deny any connection with it or ordering its issue. Rumor has it that the High School Principal has been ordered to poll the results. What use of it is to be made is not known. In substance it would appear that this is to be used in some way to refute certain criticism recently appearing in the school survey. As yet, it is reported, the School Committee has taken no action on the report, and it has not received any copy of the questionnaire.

The Star agrees with the numerous building owners reaching from the center to the Woburn line that it is a pity something cannot be done to stop the constant smashing of windows. This vandalism has reached proportions that building owners are threatening to take the matter into their own hands, claiming they can get no satisfaction from the police. They say this vandalism has been going on for some time. Thus far the Star office has escaped, but this week five wire glass windows, protected by heavy wire netting, were kicked out on the Park street side. Unless repairs can be speedily made, the sprinkling system is in danger of freezing. One merchant, besides smaller windows, had a plate glass show window smashed. The building owners, and their number is growing weekly, threaten to take the matter to the Selectmen. One owner, who has been trying to police his buildings and claims to have nearly caught the vandals on two occasions, threatens to hire his own police to stop the continuing damage to his property. If our local force is helpless, the Selectmen should step in and take the matter in hand.

We imagine that this season is as good a time as any that may be found to make a report of progress at the Star Office. Possibly we may receive a better hearing now, during the holiday season, when good will is the watch-word, than later, and since the time seems appropriate when the results of our endeavors may reach a culmination our information may be acceptable. We might open with the statement that the fact that you have not been receiving full attention in the publication of your church and society notices has been a point we have steadily striven to rectify for a long period. The first obstacle has been the lack of man power. As we have previously pointed out three of our staff have gone to war. One, Sherman Dodge, has been killed; the other two are still doing their part to protect us here at home. This situation has been a serious factor in handling your notices. On the other hand we undertook before the War to remedy the situation by enlarging the Star. Our first step in this direction was the purchase of a larger press, but before its installation the War opened. It took us altogether two years to get the press in and running, the difficulties met securing machinists, riggers, alternate parts and what-not at times being almost insurmountable. However, the press has now been running for over a year, giving us an even better appearing product as well as greatly increased speed. As soon as this press was installed and running a new Ludlow type setter and the latest type mat caster was added. These too, are in daily use now. Great difficulty has been found in collecting the necessary incidental material also, but with the receipt of the steel chases, due the first of the year after a wait of months, we expect to make the enlargement the size of our zip F. While throw-away sheets printed elsewhere appear to obtain as much paper as is needed to spread all at the streets and stores, after considerable correspondence and new requirements we have succeeded in receiving permission to increase our sheet size by two inches, and this feature, which for a time appeared to be a serious obstacle, seems overcome. So in the course of what now may be a few months, we expect to put on a larger sheet which will aid greatly in handling the constantly increasing volume of news in the social affairs of this town. For pre-event notices, and should note what we say, thus far experienced delays of every description are cannot set any specific date, but if our many friends will act accordingly, make their club and church news short and to the point as well as furnish it to us in good season, we hope the time will shortly arrive when the Star will give you better service than ever.

GOOD AMERICAN FOLKWAY

To the Editor of the Star:

I see by last week's paper that a neighbor on the opposite side of town is disturbed because his ballot and that of his spouse, cast in the cause of good Norman Thomas, were not recorded. Well, well! He knows little of American folkways. In my father's day "ballots were thrown out by the bushel." Today two ballots are cast." But Mr. Nichols says that two other such ballots were properly recorded and counted. Sir, that was very decent and fraye of the election officers. Looks as if the election was pretty clean in this town at that. Cheer up neighbor.

Merry Christmas

NO SCHOOL SIGNAL

To the Editor of the Star:

As a former member of the School Committee, it has long disturbed me that the "no school" signal is so often given at what seems the slightest provocation.

Last Tuesday is an outstanding example of what strikes me as an unfortunate decision on the part of the school authorities. When the first signal was given at 7 o'clock, or shortly thereafter, the storm was far from heavy. By the time the whistle blew at 7:45, the rain was slight, and by 8, the sky was partly blue. There was, it is submitted, no valid reason for declaring a school holiday.

It costs the taxpayers over $1000 a day to run the schools. There is no saving in suspending the sessions in the middle of the week. The children lose a day, and that lost day can never be made up. It is gone forever. The "no school" days are far from popular with the parents. They are not good for the morale of the children.

Every one knows that the day which the school authorities considered too forbidding to permit the children to go to school sees those same children immediately after breakfast roaming the streets, visiting each other, going to the movie theatre. Apparently the serious business of life is suspended by a stormy sky, which eases the lighter side of life goes on unimpeded.

It has been my view for more than 20 years,—and at that time there were children of my own in the public schools of this town that except on the rarest occasions, high school children should go to school every school day. As to the younger children, my view is that it is wise to leave the choice of school or no school to the parents. It will be found, I am sure, that many parents prefer to clad their children so as to resist the inclement weather, and send them to school.

I believe that taxpayers and parents are entitled to an explanation from the school committee as to the reasons which impel a "no school" signal on such a day as Tuesday of this week.

The business of life goes on, and has to go on, whatever the weather.

Are we properly preparing our children for the stern days ahead of them when we give them the idea that a rainy day is a valid excuse for not getting on with their daily business?

CORRECTION

In last week's Star it was announced that the basketball games arranged with Melrose High for the current season are not games in the Middlesex League schedule. This was an error, Melrose having been admitted to the league this year. This makes an eight team circuit, with Winchester, Wakefield, Stoneham, Reading, Belmont, Lexington, Concord and Melrose.

WOBURN GAMES ANNOUNCED

Winchester High will play its two basketball games with Woburn this year on Jan. 22, an afternoon game at home, and on Feb. 22, an evening game at Woburn.

The Newton game, which will open the current schedule today, will be played this afternoon at 3 o'clock and not in the evening as announced in last week's Star.

MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR LT. COMDR. MacADAMS

The Unitarian Church was taxed to capacity last Sunday afternoon as friends and former associates of Lt. Comdr. Richard W. MacAdams, USNR, gathered with representatives of naval, military, fraternal and civic organizations at a memorial service in his honor. Lt. Comdr. MacAdams, a former Selectman who made his home on Kenilworth road, was recently reported by the Navy Department as having lost his life in the sinking of the carrier, U. S. Liscome Bay, Nov. 24, 1943, during the capture of the Gilbert Islands.

The impressive service, which was arranged by Winchester Post, 97, American Legion, of which Lt. Comdr. MacAdams was a past commander, opened with an organ prelude, played by Kenneth Moffatt, former organist of the Unitarian Church. This was followed by a processional participated in by Naval personnel, Winchester Post, 97, under Commander Charles Watson; the Auxiliary to Post 97, under President Marion Arnell and Winchester Lodge, 1445, B. P. O. E., called by Exalted Ruler Michael F. Grant. Dr. R. Earl Dickson, USNR, of Wilson street, a close friend of Lt. Comdr. MacAdams, was in charge of local arrangements for the Navy. Several high ranking Navy officers, including an admiral, attended the service, and the town government was represented by the Board of Selectmen and many former members of the Board, including several who served with Lt. Comdr. MacAdams.

At the conclusion of the processional the Legion posted its Colors, Past Comdr. Kenneth S. Hall served as color sergeant, the bearers were George A. Donaghey and Neil J. McCarthy and the guards, Clifford W. Towner and George F. LeDuc.

Capt. Albert E. Stone, Chaplain, USN, made the invocation. Ranking officer in charge of chaplains for the First Naval District, Capt. Stone, after the invocation, paid tribute to Comdr. MacAdams, saying that he was one of whom the Navy could truthfully say "Well done."

Following the invocation, Comdr. Watson read excerpts from the new Legion Memorial Service for Veterans of World War 2. Jack Jenkins, bass soloist, sang an arrangement of Rudyard Kipling's "Recessional" and the "Ave Maria" by Schubert.

Rev. Paul Harmon Chapman, minister of the Unitarian Church, chaplain, of Winchester Post, A. L., offered prayer and paid his own personal tribute to Lt. Comdr. MacAdams, reading from the last will and testament of Rudyard Kipling and also a letter from his chaplain on the ill fated Liscome Bay. Harry A. McGrath, P. E. R., of Winchester Lodge of Elks, also paid tribute to Lt. Comdr. MacAdams, who had been a member and esquire of the lodge. Mr. McGrath also presented to Mrs. Gussie MacAdams, Lt. Comdr. MacAdams's wife, the Elks' Medal of Valor.

Rev. Mr. Chapman pronounced the benediction, after which the Colors were retired and the recessional from the church took place. During the services Lt. Comdr. MacAdams' Navy cross and Purple Hearts were displayed on a table in the chancel of the church.

Flowers for the service were arranged by Legionnaires Manlino G. Moffett and A. Allen Kimball. The Legion committee of general arrangements included Comdr. Watson, Chaplain Chapman, P. T. Foley and James O'Brien. Past Commanders of Winchester Post who served as ushers were John H. McCarthy, head usher, Reveley H. B. Smith, John J. Keefe, W. Allan Wilde, Arthur S. Harris, Marshall W. Symmes, James W. Blackham, William E. Ramsdell, Kingsman P. Cass and Richard Parkhurst.

Following the church service another largely attended service was held in Wildwood Cemetery where a handsome stone in memory of Lt. Comdr. MacAdams was dedicated. Comdr. Watson and the Legion Chaplain, Rev. Mr. Chapman, dedicated the stone, reading from the Memorial Service for Veterans of World War 2. Legionnaires P. T. Foley and James M. O'Brien unveiled the stone. Walter Shaughnessy, a lifelong friend of Lt. Comdr. MacAdams, read a personal tribute and biographical sketch of Capt. Storrs, Navy Chaplain, pronounced the benediction, after which taps was beautifully blown by a Navy bugler.

Upon the memorial stone are cut these lines, by Abraham Lincoln:

"I like to see a man
Proud of the place in which he lives.
And I like to see him live
So that the place he lives in
Will be proud of him."

Lt. Comdr. Richard W. MacAdams

Lt. Comdr. Richard W. MacAdams, USNR, was born in Winchester March 20, 1899, the son of James, and Margaret (Smith) MacAdams. He was educated in the Winchester schools, but was unable to complete his high school course because of the necessity for getting to work to assist his family. For a time he was employed in the then Whitney Machine Co. last located on Main street at the site of the Winchester Theatre.

During World War I, Lt. Comdr. MacAdams enlisted in the Navy, serving as a machinist's mate and coming out a chief petty officer. For seven years thereafter he was in the United States Merchant Marine, advancing to the rating of chief engineer. Meanwhile he had also remained a member of the Naval Reserve and had advanced to the rank of Lt. Commander before he was recalled to active duty Jan. 2, 1940.

At that time Lt. Comdr. MacAdams was assigned to duty at an East Boston Naval Base where he served for two years as officer in charge of naval repair and salvage operations. He was then ordered to sea with the Navy Tanker, Housatonic on which he participated in the African invasion.

When the U. S. S. Escort Carrier Liscome Bay was being commissioned on the west coast Lt. Comdr. MacAdams was assigned to her and sent to the shipyard to stay with the ship until she was completed. He put to sea with her in the fall of 1943 as chief engineer and third senior officer. The Liscome Bay was sunk by the Japanese on the day before Thanksgiving in 1943 during the successful invasion of the Gilbert Islands.

At the conclusion of Lt. Comdr. MacAdams' service with the Merchant Marine after World War I he became associated with the Ocean Accident and Guarantee Corporation, Ltd., a New York firm with an office at 33 Broad street in Boston. He first joined the firm in Detroit and later was transferred to other parts of the country, returning to Boston 13 years ago as supervising engineer for New England.

At that time he returned to make his home in his native Winchester, taking an active and constructive interest in everything pertaining to the betterment of the town. He served the town as Selectman from 1937-1939, being chairman during his final year on the Board. He was a member and past Commander of Winchester Post, 97, American Legion, and a member and at one time Esquire of Winchester Lodge, 1445, B. P. O. E.

On Aug. 31, 1918, he married Gussie Greene, in New York. She survives with five sisters, Mrs. Mary J. Foster of Boston, Mrs. John Murphy of Somerville, Miss Marion MacAdams of New York City, Mrs. Andrew Quinzani of Everett and Miss H. Theresa MacAdams of Wilmington, Del.; also two brothers, Donald T. MacAdams of Medford and Paul F. MacAdams of Lynn, now serving with the U. S. Navy in the South Pacific.

ACCENT ON JUDGMENT

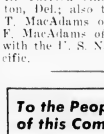

"If our foresight were as good as our hindsight—," we would not be out on a limb. Therein lies the moral of exercising judgment in advance. How do your Automobile Liability Insurance limits compare with the trend of court awards in such cases? Don't tread on thin ice. GI Joe in his Pacific foxhole—maybe he is your brother, husband, sweetheart or friend—is listening in on you today

He knows you have a date with a Victory Volunteer, a neighbor with a Victory Bond order in his or her hand. The two of you may talk it over at your war work bench, in your office or in your home. Will GI Joe pick up phrases like "I can't afford it." Who dies have to have more money?" "We'll lick Japan with one hand tied behind our back"?

GI Joe counts on you to have enough sense and knowledge of the facts about the Pacific war to back him up in his foxhole. The extra $100 War Bond you buy today is a War Bond with the most power. It gives GI Joe the support he must have at the time when he needs it most. It tells Tokyo you're in the fight to the finish.

RECEPTION AND TEA

A very pleasant interlude from Christmas shopping, war service work and the Sixth War Bond Drive, was enjoyed by the Republic women of Winchester and their guests at the reception and tea held by the Winchester Women's Republican Club on Wednesday, for the wives of the leading Massachusetts Republicans.

Mrs. Wm. Goodhue, president of the Winchester club, headed the receiving line with Mrs. Leverett Saltonstall, Mrs. Robert F. Bradford, Mrs. Clarence Barnes, Mrs. Frederic Cook, Mrs. Victor A. Friend, Mrs. Joseph H. McElroy, Mrs. Melvin Rogers, Mrs. Harris Richardson, Mrs. W. Eben Ramsdell, Mrs. Chas. Howard, Mrs. Addison Green, Mrs. Alfred Williams, Mrs. Joseph Roberts, Mrs. Raymond Wheeler and Mrs. Howard Claussen.

During the afternoon a very light and humorous talk was given on "Women's Place in the Sun," beginning actually with Adam and Eve and continuing down through the present day by Mrs. Raymond Wheeler, political director of the Women's Republican Club of Massachusetts.

Hostesses and ushers for the afternoon were: Mrs. Willard Hudson, chairman; Mrs. Arthur Harris, Mrs. Marshall R. Pihl, Mrs. Warren Whitman, Mrs. Walter Winship, Mrs. Wm. Cusack, Mrs. Herbert Wadsworth, Mrs. Theo. Elliott, Mrs. James McCormick, Mrs. James H. O'Connor, Miss Mildred Stone, Mrs. Ambrose Reasoner, Mrs. Chester Wolfe, Mrs. Harry D. Locke, Mrs. Herbert West, Mrs. Theo. Godwin and Mrs. David Choate.

Assisting Mrs. Geo. French and her committee at the tea table were the younger Misses Barbara Elliott, Jennie Lee Elliott, Doris Newton, Ellen Kenerson, Carolyn Reeves, Barbara Johnson, Libby Moses and Virginia Lovejoy

These young girls added a very lovely note to the entire party and who, as Mrs. Saltonstall said, as she admired them on being presented to them, "Such lovely young ladies, our future voters. We can be justly proud."

IRVING—FREYGANG

In an effective setting of white chrysanthemums and candles, at Ripley Memorial Chapel of the First Congregational Church, on Thursday afternoon, Dec. 14, Miss Kathryn Irene Freygang, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Freygang of Ardley place, became the bride of Gunnery Sgt. Wendell D. Irving, USMC, son of Dr. and Mrs. Allen R. Cunningham of Church street. Rev. Howard J. Chidley, D. D., performed the marriage ceremony at 4 o'clock and the bridal music was played by J. Albert Wilson, church organist and choirmaster.

Miss Freygang was given in marriage by her father. She wore a bridal gown of white moire taffeta, styled with a sweetheart neck, fitted bodice and full skirt extending to form a short train. Her fingertip-length veil of tulle was caught to a cap of Chantilly lace and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses and gardenias.

Miss Jean Freygang of this town was her sister's honor maid and only attendant. She wore an old fashioned flowered dress of mousseline de soie with a drop shoulder line and hoop skirt. She carried an old fashioned bouquet. Stanley Puffer, 2nd, of Arlington, formerly of Winchester, was Sgt. Irving's best man.

After a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Sgt. and Mrs. Irving left on a wedding journey to New Hampshire. Mrs. Irving plans to accompany her husband when he returns to duty with the Marines at the expiration of his furlough.

The bride is a graduate of Winchester High School and attended the Chamberlain School. Sgt. Irving, recently returned after 32 months active service in the South Pacific theater, is a graduate of Winchester High School and Hebron Academy.

Sunday services 11 a. m.
Wednesday testimonial meeting 8 p. m.
Reading Room, 6 Winchester Terrace (off Thompson street). Open daily except Sundays and holidays from 11 a. m. to 4 p. m.

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, and in all of its branches, on Sunday, Dec. 17, will be "The Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force."
The Golden Text, In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God . . . All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made, as from John 1:1, 3. Other Bible citations include, Ye are my witnesses, saith the Lord, and my servant whom I have chosen: that ye may know and believe me, and understand that I am he: before me there was no God formed, neither shall there be after me. I, even I, am the Lord; and beside me there is no saviour (Isaiah 43:10, 11).
The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, Science and Health with Key to the Scripture by Mary Baker Eddy, The universe reflects and expresses the divine substance of Mind, therefore God is seen only in the spiritual universe and spiritual man, as the sun is seen in the ray of light which goes out from it. God is revealed only in that which reflects Life, Truth, Love, Soul, which manifests. God's attributes and power, even as the human likeness thrown upon the mirror, repeats the color, form, and action of the person in front of the mirror (p. 300).

Hours: Monday through Saturday
8:30 A. M. - 5 P. M.
(Calls must be in by 2 P. M. if nurse is needed that day)

Charge for District Nurse's service (after Nov. 1) $1.25 for one hour (or any part thereof) plus 50 cents for each additional half hour. (Free and part-pay service to all who need it.) Contract care to policy holders of John Hancock and Metropolitan Life Insurance Companies.

At a meeting of the Winchester District Nursing Association held on Friday, Dec. 9, Mrs. Harlow Russell, presiding, the following directors were present: Mrs. John Coulson, Mrs. James Dwinell, Jr., Mrs. Alfred Higgins, Mrs Albert Huckins, Mrs. Richard Johnson, Mrs. Ralph Jope, Mrs. William Kugler, Mrs. Amy Pond, Mrs. James Russell, Mrs. Ben Snyder, Mrs. Erskine White, Mrs. James Willing, Mrs. Charles Young and Miss Alice Petersen, R. N., of the Nursing Staff.

Mrs. James Willing announced that the annual meeting is to be held on Friday, Jan. 26 under the auspices of the Education Committee and the Publicity Committee. There will be a round table discussion on "The Returning Veteran." As an introduction to that meeting, Mrs. Richard Johnson read a paper in which she spoke about our local organization, the War Veterans' Advisory Committee, under the direction of Mr. Donall Heath.

Nominating Committee: Mrs. Albert Huckins, chairman.

Mrs. Ralph Jope reported on the Family Advisory Committee and told about an Institute at the Statler Hotel on "Understanding the Returning Serviceman." She also told of a meeting at which Mr. Malcolm Nichols and Miss Polly D Weese of the Family Society of Boston, were the guest speakers.

Mrs. Erskine White, chairman of the Nominating Committee, read her report of officers and committee members for 1945, as follows:

President: Mrs. Harlow Russell
Vice Pres.: Mrs. Wayne Thompson
Secretary: Mrs. Alfred Higgins
Treasurer: Mrs. Amy Pond
Asst. Treas.: Mrs. William Spaulding

Finance Committee: Mrs. William Spaulding, chairman; Mrs. Edward Gallagher, Mrs. William Kugler, Mrs. Charles Young.

Nursing Committee: Mrs. James Dwinell, Jr., chairman; Mrs. Hazen Ayer, Mrs. John Coulson, Mrs. Richard Johnson.

Publicity Committee: Mrs. George Chatfield, chairman; Mrs. Everett Stone, Mrs. Erskine White.

Education Committee: Mrs. James Willing, chairman; Mrs. Everett Stone, Mrs. Erskine White.

Miss Alice B. Petersen, R. N., gave the Nurses' report for November:

New patients (Nov.) 48
Total new patients this year, 380
New patients same period last year, 455
Total nursing visits for November 298
Total visits to date this year, 2387
Visits same period last year, 2222
(It will be noted that there were more calls to fewer patients).

Miss Peterson supplemented her report given at the October meeting. The subject of the talk was, "Public Relations in the Public Health Nursing Field."

Mrs. Russell announced a meeting of the Executive Committee with the Advisory Committee at her home 18 Norwood street, on Friday, Dec. 15 at 9 p. m. The members of the Advisory Committee are Mr. Lafayette B. Chamberlin, Mr. Ben R. Schneider, Dr. Roger Bargoyne and Dr. Wilfred McKenzie.

Science Searches for Cure

Scientists hope some day to discover a drug that will cure tuberculosis. Christmas Seals provide funds for Prof Rudolph J Anderson (above) of the Sterling Chemistry Laboratory, Yale University, to study the chemistry of the tuberculosis germ. This is one phase of medical research financed by the sale of Seals.

To the People of this Community

The Victory Volunteer goes by many names in the Sixth War Loan. Sometimes he or she is called a Gallant, sometimes a Blue Star Brigadier or perhaps a Bondadier. Whatever the designation, he or she is performing a practical patriotic service. In this community in the next few weeks you will meet many of them at work, in the theatres, at your auction, in the banks and in your home.

Remember one thing you do not do them a favor when you buy an extra War Bond. You help your country, your fighting relatives and friends and yourself! The Victory Volunteer gives his time and his energy in a great cause. He or she makes it easy for you to do your duty by buying at least one extra $100 War Bond over and above your regular Bond purchases.

THE EDITOR.

Town of Winchester BOARD of SURVEY

Notice is hereby given that the BOARD OF SURVEY OF THE TOWN OF WINCHESTER will give a public hearing in the Selectmen's Room in the Town Hall Building on Monday, the eighteenth day of December 1944 at 8 o'clock p. m. upon the petition of A. Horace Weene, representing Suburban Hometeads for approval of certain plans filed with said petition, of a proposed street leading from Chardon Road to the Winchester-Medford Line and a proposed street from Sussex Road to the Winchester-Medford Line, which the petitioner proposes to open for public use.

After which hearing the board may alter said plans and may determine where such ways shall be located and the width and grades thereof.

Prior to the hearing the plans may be examined at the office of the Town Engineer.

By order of the Board of Survey, this sixth day of November, 1944

FLORENCE CRITTENTON MEETING

Mrs. Leon Sargent of 8 Central street, opened her charming home to the Winchester Circle on Friday afternoon, Dec. 8.

The president, Mrs. Walter Winship, opened the meeting by calling on the various committee chairmen for their reports.

Mrs. Harold Blanchard gave a lively report on the success of the annual bazaar, a detailed account.

Mrs. Woodford Wilcox urged everyone to come and enjoy their pleasant sewing meetings.

Mrs. Frederick W. Aseltine told us about the Christmas presents the Winchester Circle was sending out to both Welcome House and the Hospital and Mrs. Kingman Cass made an earnest appeal for more blood donors from the Circle.

The guest speaker for the afternoon was Nicholai P. Vakar, who gave a very informative talk on the tremendous changes which have taken place in Russia since 1929.

The meeting closed with several charming songs sung by Mrs. Kathryn Hall Sibley, contralto, accompanied by Mary Raelton Witham, after which a very delightful tea was served by the tea committee, under the able direction of the tea hostesses, Mrs. Clifford Williams and Mrs. William Martin. Mrs. Varl Blanchard and Mrs. Harold S. Myer poured.

WHITEWASHING DELUX

We of course do not know whether you could make a contract for their services, but if you could and you have any kalsomining to do, you couldn't go wrong to sign the crew of firemen we saw at work whitening the ceiling of the recreation room at the Central Station on Tuesday. You would get so much more, especially in the line of good clean entertainment, than you could possibly pay for.

The boys are good! Make no mistake about it! And the best part of it all is that they will admit it themselves without a bit of argument. And they work under the most modern formulae. All labor is highly divided and each man is a sepcialist.

On the job when your Star reporter happened to drop in were Doc Fitzgerald, "Pep" O'Melia, Walter Skerry, Bob Scanlon, "Biscuit" Kimball, "Red" Pearson and Bob McKee. As the division of labor tenet worked out "Doc" and Walter were wielding big kalsomine brushes from an improvised staging on the pool table, "Pep" was removing brush-hairs from the newly coated surface, Scanlon was head whitewash stir-er and the others at the moment could only be listed under the heading of kabitzers.

Not the least enjoyable feature of the job as the boys were doing it was the repartee, which at times could only be described as sparkling. Perhaps personalities were a thought more indulged in than a purist would wish for. The rugged individualists at the Firehouse are not too reticient about stating their views, let the chips fall where they may! And it could be that the old Master Painter, Carl Larson, who chanced to be downstairs talking to "Sandy" MacKenzie, on the desk, would have had a word to say about the manner in which the kalsomine was applied, though even he could have found no fault with the amount of splatters which the firemen were applying to their own persons and the surrounding terraine.

All in all, however, the job was a masterpiece and we personally are quite willing to believe the contention of "Doc" and "Pep" that, after all, the whitewash would "dry out swell" and be very very smooth.

NURSES' AIDE GRADUATION

With simplicity and dignity Mrs. Wayne Thompson, chairman of the Winchester Nurses' Aide Committee presided at the graduation of 12 aides in Laurence Hall of the Unitarian Church on Friday evening, Dec. 8.

This was the eighth class to be trained at the Winchester Hospital, making a total of 106 aides with 80 active, 13 of whom serve weekly at the Waltham Regional Hospital.

Mrs. Thompson paid tribute to the training and supervision of the aides which Mrs. Pearl Miller as an inspiring teacher and guide had contributed so largely to the success of the corps.

Mrs. Millner then gave the graduates their nurses' aide corps pins and Miss Rogers, superintendent of nurses of the hospital, capped them.

Mr. Harold Fuller, chairman of Winchester Civilian Defense, was introduced as the one responsible for starting in Winchester the training for nurses' aides.

He said originally it was planned nurses' aides would assist in civilian casualties expected from enemy bombs but it resulted in their serving as reinforcements for the thinning ranks of nurses at home. He administered the oath of Civilian Defense to the graduates.

As chairman of the Winchester Red Cross Chapter, Mr. James Allen welcomed the new members of the corps, honoring them for their response to the volunteer service. Mr. Edward Kenerson, chairman of the board of directors of the Winchester Hospital expressed appreciation of the invaluable work done by the corps which he said made it possible to maintain the high standard of the hospital.

Mrs. Thompson then introduced the guest speaker, Maj. George Marks, now stationed at the Waltham Regional Hospital. He paid tribute to the service of the aides by saying that history would record as the two outstanding achievements of Red Cross in this war blood plasma and nurses' aides. He told of the qualities necessary in nursing care, that of a clear head, deftness, gentleness, neatness and most important of all moral building. Morale he defined as the ability to endure pain, hardship and worry. So important is morale building that in this war nurses have been sent closer to the fighting lines than ever before. He advised them to guard against talking both in and out of the hospital about their work and congratulated them on their alliance with the magnificent nursing profession. It was a privilege to the graduating class to have such a doctor of achievement and high devotion to duty inspire and start them on their service.

Miss Margaret Copland played for the class to enter the hall.

Mrs. Thompson closed with a prayer which she said had become for her a prayer for the nurses' aides.

"Fix thou our steps Oh Lord, that we stagger not at the uneven motions of the world but go steadily on our way, neither censoring our journey by the weather we meet, nor turning aside for anything that may befall us."

The Winchester schools closed at the end of their regular sessions Wednesday for the Christmas vacation, reopening Jan. 2.

MISS ELIZABETH M. FITZGIBBONS

Miss Elizabeth M. Fitzgibbons of 30 Wedgemere avenue, sister of Rev. Fr. Joseph M. Fitzgibbons, pastor of St. Jerome's Arlington-Belmont Parish, and herself a former teacher in the Boston schools, died Saturday morning, Dec. 16, at her home after a brief illness. She had not been well since returning from her summer home, Dream Manse, at Jamestown, R. I., and had been unable to return to her teaching duties this fall.

Miss Fitzgibbons was the daughter of Patrick and Catherine (O'Neil) Fitzgibbons. She was born July 10, 1883, in East Boston, received her early education in the Boston schools and was graduated from Notre Dame Academy in Roxbury. For some years until her health became impaired, she taught sciences in the Dorchester district of the Boston school system. She had made her home in Winchester for the past nine years, coming here from Boston.

Besides Father Fitzgibbons, Miss Fitzgibbons leaves a sister, Miss Julia P. R. Fitzgibbons, and two brothers, Maurice F., and William A. Fitzgibbons, all of Winchester.

The funeral was held Wednesday morning from the late residence with solemn requiem high mass celebrated in St. Mary's Church.

Rev. Fr. Francis J. Sullivan was celebrant. Rev. Fr. George F. Wiseman was deacon and Rev. Fr. George Kileoyne, S. J., of Jamaica, B. W. I., subdeacon. In the sanctuary were Rev. Fr. John P. O'Riordan, pastor of St. Mary's; Rev. Fr. Myles McSweeney, pastor, St. Agnes, Reading; Rev. Fr. Maurice O'Connor, pastor, St. James Arlington Heights; Rev. Fr. William Shinnick, St. Jerome's, Arlington-Belmont; Rev. Fr. Michael Pierce, S. J., dean of freshmen, Boston College; Rev. Fr. Thomas Quinn, S. J., professor of classics, Boston College; and Rev. Fr. Michael Coffey, pastor, St. James, Salem.

Bearers were Daniel G. Lacy of Boston, Dr. Edward J. O'Brien of Boston, George J. Rick of Brookline, Capt. Charles Forrest Eldridge of Boston Police Headquarters, Joseph J. Driscoll of Boston and Lt. John Fallon, USN, of Brookline, a dirigible pilot just home from active duty.

Interment was in Holy Cross Cemetery, Malden, where the committal prayers were read by Rev. Fr. John Hogan of Malden, assisted by the priests attending the funeral.

WINCHESTER OVER THE TOP IN SIXTH WAR LOAN DRIVE

As the Sixth War Loan Drive closed on Dec. 16, Winchester had accounted for $1,837,007 in bond sales or 105 percent of total quota.

Sales to individuals (other than "E" Bond sales) amounted to $463,-862 or 83 per cent of quota. "E" Bond sales came to $160,175 or 70 per cent of quota, which figure may improve as all "E" Bond sales made up until the end of December will be counted in the final figures.

Thanks for the good showing, says Maurice Bird, chairman of the Winchester War Finance Committee, is due to more than 500 volunteer workers who gave their time and effort to make this drive a success.

HOLDS 8TH AIR FORCE RECORD

S-Sgt. Richard I. Thayer, of 1 Lakeview road, probably holds some sort of record for having flown with more different pilots than any other B-24 crewman in the 8th Air Force. He participated in 54 combat missions, and was a member of 34 different crews.

His total missions is unusual, too, for the average tour now with the 8th is only 30.

"I didn't want to sweat out that 30th mission," was Sgt. Thayer's explanation for his unusually high total of combat flights. "I figured if I kept going I wouldn't worry about that last mission so much."

But the Winchester sergeant finally had to call it quits, he admitted at the AAF Redistribution Station No. 1 at Atlantic City, N. J., where he is awaiting assignment.

"I flew nine days in a row," he recalled," and got so tired that the flight surgeon ordered me to quit."

Sgt. Thayer's unusual total of pilots came about accidentally. When he arrived in England with his crew, it was broken up, and he was "loaned out" as a spare in another crew. That happened several times, and he got to like it. Five of the 34 crews with which he flew didn't come back from missions. He figures that an unusually good average . . . "we were called a lucky outfit."

Sgt. Thayer's first mission was over France. It was rough, but "I didn't know enough to be scared." He was plenty frightened, however, on the third, fourth and fifth, all over Berlin. "What amazed me was the immense size of the city. We passed over dozens of blocks, and still we hadn't covered the entire city. And all the time the flak came smashing up at us, and we sure were eager to get back home."

Sgt. Thayer's 30th mission, which could have been his last had he so wanted, was on D-Day over Boulougne France. It was a rough flight, with the Germans' big 106's doing their best to knock his Liberator down.

Did he regret not going home after that one? No, seeing's he got home safely, anyhow.

The Winchester boy made several interesting trips ferrying beans, flour, chocolate and other supplies to Orleans.

"I didn't get a chance to see Paris, but Orleans is every bit as good as that town to me," the sergeant reports. "The people were gay, despite the fact the Germans had only left a couple of days before. They were healthy-looking, well dressed and seemed well-fed. The girls were pretty and quite intelligent to talk to. But not as attractive as American girls, of course."

When the war is over, Sgt. Thayer wants to be a chemist. He entered the AAF two years ago when only 18, has another year at Pawling Prep to go. When that's finished, he'd like to matriculate at M. I. T.

MAJOR FLAHERTY HOME

Maj. Joseph E. Flanerty, USQMC, dropped in at the Star Office yesterday having recently returned home after almost three years of active duty in the South Pacific, most of his time being spent in New Caledonia and the Russells.

"Gagen" is looking very fit after his long tour of duty and ready to go in and play a lot of guard in the line as he did at Winchester High and Norwich. His horseshoe game, he admitted, is not so good right now, but he still figured he could talk Teele out of at least one game in a series without any practice at all.

Arthur E. Butters, sometimes called the State of Maine Champ, dropped in at the office while the Major was on the premises and immediately tried to get up a game, despite the frigid temperaature and the snow-blanketed courts. The Secretary wasn't for it and in the absence of the President, McLaughlin, Pridham and "Garrulous" Gardner, nothing came of the Butters proposal, sporting as it was!

CHRISTMAS PARTY AT TOWN HALL

Twenty-six members of the town employee's group at the town hall gathered Wednesday in the Assessors rooms for a Christmas party, which proved a great success.

Miss Lillian Hardy put on a delicious chicken salad luncheon, the table was decorated with a Christmas centerpiece and there were Christmas greens on the mantle over the big fireplace. Chrysanthemums and carnations also added a festive note.

There were grab presents for every one and clever little identification verses of the guests by Mrs. Barstow. Mary Travers, water registrar, won the turkey draw, and the party closed on a timely note with the singing of Christmas Carols, led by Squire George Franklin.

The Red Cross, at this holiday season, equipped with an elaborate and efficient organization and backed by the generosity of the American people experiences a feeling of gratification for the substantial part it plays in adding to the Christmas cheer for the boys in service.

Whole blood and plasma have restored to health many who otherwise would have made the supreme sacrifice; surgical dressings have been instrumental in restoring and preserving those wounded in battle; clothing supplies, recreational facilities and Christmas packages have done their part to help make up in a slight degree for the disappointment in not being able to spend Christmas around the home fireside.

As supporters of the Red Cross you all have the right to share in the pleasure of adding a ray of sunshine to the otherwise dismal picture.

WAR PARENTS OF AMERICA, INC.

Winchester Chapter, No. 16, War Parents of America, held its regular meeting in K. of C. Hall on Wednesday evening, Dec. 13, which was conducted by President George A. Saltmarsh. The nominating committee's report was submitted by the chairman, Mr. Wm. Hodge. The list of officers for 1945 will be acted upon at the next regular meeting, Dec. 27 and all members are urged to attend this important meeting.

Mr. William Wood, who is doing a fine job in securing blood donors for the Red Cross, spoke on the necessity for more contributions to the blood bank, as Winchester has been lagging behind in its quota. It was voted that the local Chapter of War Parents publicly sponsor this effort and all members and friends are urged to give one hour of their time and one pint of blood at the earliest possible date. Anyone between the ages of 18 and 60 may qualify.

Mrs. Ruth Hilton, whose son recently entered the service, spoke in detail about the many Red Cross activities in which our chapter could assist the war effort.

PARISH PLAYERS TOUR HOSPITALS

The Parish Players of the First Congregational Church took their recent success play, "Ladies of the Jury," to the Station Hospital at Camp Myles Standish and to the Cushing General Hospital in Framingham. "The Citizen's Committee for Army and Navy" sent a chartered bus and the large cast and staff crew, properties, costumes, etc., were transported to these two hospitals.

The following two letters were received in appreciation:

"We wish to express our appreciation for the excellent show "Ladies of the Jury" that you sent to us on Sunday. We do not have plays here often, and this one was so very well presented and well acted that it scored a great success with the patients. They stayed on after the last curtain to applaud the performers, and several men have told us it was one of the best shows they have seen here. Thank you for sending it to us."

Sincerely yours,
(Mrs.) Florence E. Cyr,
Assistant Field Director
Station Hospital,
Camp Myles Standish, Mass.

"Ladies of the Jury" as presented by the Parish Players at Cushing General Hospital on Tuesday evening, Nov. 21, will long be remembered by patients and Red Cross as one of the out-standing entertainments on our calendar. The patients enjoyed every minute of the play which seemed to be a perfect choice for the occasion.

They appreciated, too, the fudge which you so thoughtfully served between the acts. Will you please extend our thanks to every member of the cast and crew for their excellent presentation.

We hope that "Ladies of the Jury" will not be the last play to be enacted at Cushing General by the Parish Players. It certainly was a pleasure to meet and work with you and them.

Very sincerely,
Dorothy A. Cole,
Head Recreational Worker
Cushing General Hospital,
Framingham, Mass.

MEN'S CLUB CHRISTMAS PARTY A NOTABLE OCCASION

The second annual Christmas party and ladies' night entertainment of the Unitarian Men's Club and Ring was remembered by all present as one of the most enjoyable events ever held at the Unitarian Church.

The party was held last Monday evening, Dec. 18, in Metcalf Hall with all the members of the women's choir as the club's special guests of honor.

Featuring the evening's entertainment program that followed a buffet supper meeting were faceted by President Dr. R. Krell with musical numbers by two artists new to Winchester.

Miss Helene Wodermann, a lyric soprano whom Serge Koussevitzky selected after a nation-wide search to sing at the Berkshire Music Center and who was awarded a Boston Symphony Orchestra scholarship, delighted her audience with a charming selection of songs which she called "Down Memory's Lane."

Equally enjoyed was H. Whipple Abbott playing a diversified selection of musical numbers on one of the most remarkable instruments we have ever seen and one of only a few in the entire world. Known as the Theremin, it is played without strings, reeds, or keys and with no actual bodily contact by the player.

He was accompanied at the piano by his sister, Miss Margaret E. Abbott, and demonstrated exceptional sensitivity and deep understanding of the instrument which defied the best efforts of several in the audience to play at the conclusion of the program.

Raymond Holdsworth added to the evening's pleasure by his explanation of the technique of choral work and led the audience in the singing of several selections of Bach.

The club's usual supper preceded the entertainment with 125 members and their lady guests and the choir members present at 6:30 p. m.

President Krocll announced that the next Men's Club event is to be its annual Fathers and Sons Night on Saturday, Jan. 22, when it will give a late afternoon entertainment and beanpot supper for the kids to be followed by a trip to the Boston Garden to witness the hockey game scheduled for that evening.

NEWTON 51—WINCHESTER 40

Locals Looked Promising Against Good Foe

Winchester High's hoop squad showed a lack of [illegible] good enough [illegible] to N[illegible] High, 51-40, on the [illegible] floor gym [illegible] last Friday afternoon. The [illegible] enjoyed [illegible] gym. Newton's [illegible] game against Belmont under [illegible], was [illegible] along than [illegible] and a bit better team than the N[illegible] fave that romped the [illegible] a 57-21. Winchester [illegible] meeting [illegible] will [illegible] be [illegible] Arlington [illegible] Thursday [illegible].

The local [illegible] getting going and were rather ragged and overeager at the start of the game. The local guards weren't fitting into the offense as well as Coach Knowlton wished, so shortly before half time he switched his lineup, sending the forwards into the back court and moving in the guards.

This switch worked much better and after the half Winchester actually outplayed the visitors. Newton's half time advantage, 34-19, was too big a handicap even for the rejuvenated local boys and they still trailed 11 points at the final gun.

Capt. Joe Errico was Winchester's high scorer with six floor goals and two from free tries for 14 points. Ryan, visiting center, racked up eight floor goals for 16 points to lead both teams in scoring.

A part of Ryan's success was due to the fact that Reg Latham, Winchester's towering center, had a tendency to over-run his man and as a consequence was many times too far off to cover properly. This fault corrected, the Spider will do a lot better.

Newton seconds won the preliminary game from the Winchester seconds, 29-17. The summary:

PLAYING IN IRISH DRAMA

Thomas J. Dunne of 63 Church street, is playing one of the leading roles in the production of the well known Dublin Abbey Theater drama of Irish religious life, "Shadow and Substance," under the auspices of the Eire Society of Boston in New England Mutual Hall on Jan. 3 and 4.

Mr. Dunne had been prominent in dramatics in New York City before removing to Winchester, his work in the famous Black Friars group attracting the attention of metropolitan cities.

Mrs. Dunne was also active on the professional stage before her marriage. This is Mr. Dunne's first appearance with the Eire Players who have specialized in the presentation of Irish plays from the Abbey repertoire under the direction of John P. McGrail.

However, Mr. Dunne's portrayal of Father Corr, the zealous young Irish curate in "Shadow and Substance," promises to be one of the outstanding bits of characterization in the performance.

WEEK-END FIRES

The first of several alarms over the past week-end came in at 3:48 Saturday afternoon for a grass fire off Wendall street. At 7:45 p. m. that evening there was a chimney fire at the home of Mr. George H. Peckham, 20 Euclid avenue.

Sunday's first alarm was at 2:05 p. m. for burning cord wood at Cullen's dump on upper Main street. In response to an alarm from Woburn Box 56, at 2:21 p. m. Engine 2 and a crew went to Woburn, to the vicinity of the box at the town line, finding the alarm had been false. Eighteen minutes later the same box came in and Engine 2 again responded, this time finding that a grass fire on Lake avenue had set fire to some clapboards of the house occupied by Mr. Joe McLaughlin, 13 Lake avenue.

At 3:15 Sunday afternoon there was a grass fire near the home of Mr. Charles Riordan, 34 Grove street and at 3:31 there was another grass fire in Wildwood Cemetery.

CHRISTMAS TREE A NOBLE FIR

You really can't prove it by us, but that ex-forest ranger, Elmer Fletcher, dropped in at the office Monday morning as the Park Department crew was putting up the Christmas tree on the Common, and allowed as how it was no native tree, even though it did come from the North Reservoir.

Of course anything in the line of trees is interesting to Elmer, and when he saw Tom McGowan and his bully boys putting up the tree as he was coming through the Common he ambled over for a look-see.

As a resultof his inspection he figured the tree was an exotic; a balsam rather than a spruce, and probably a "noble fir." He figured from the rings that the tree was about 40 years old and rather small for its years. At least he had seen some that old that were larger.

CHILD'S CANDLE FIRED BED

The alarm from Box 59 at 3:10 Monday afternoon was for a fire at the home of Mr. V. F. Babcock, 51 Salisbury road. The firemen say that the breeze from a window blew the flame of a candle, with which a child was playing, against a bed, setting the clothes afire.

The damage done was not extensive, the bed clothes and a feather mattress being burned and the bed scorched. There was also some damage done by smoke.

Rear Admiral Edward (Iceberg Ed) Smith of 75 Wildwood street has been cited by the Navy Department for his work in the far north where forces under his command have taken a number of German prisoners and broken up efforts to establish weather stations of vital interest to the Nazis.

GREETINGS FROM MYSTIC GLEE CLUB

The Star is pleased to acknowledge the receipt of a clever Christmas greeting card from the Mystic Glee Club, Winchester's favorite male chorus.

Of the four page folder type, the first page bears pen and ink sketches of a vocalist and a quartet, with the words, "Christmas Greetings, Not a solo, nor a quartet."

The two inside pages are given over to a spread sketch of the entire glee club, singing lustily, while a photographer takes their picture, a feminine accompanist being shown facing the club with a pleased smile on her lips and some knitting in her lap. The caption for this sketch is "But from the entire Mystic Glee Club." The back page is given over to fac-simile signatures of the club's entire membership.

Much thought and ingenity went in to the planning and execution of the card and the Star is happy to have one. Thank you boys, and the Season's Best to you with a holdover wish for 1945.

WINDOW BREAKER CAUGHT

Not long after the Star came out with an editorial complaining about breaking windows in business houses around the center, Officer Clarence Dunbury last Friday evening caught a Winchester boy who it is alleged broke a cellar window to the Star Building under the Thrift Shop at 1 Park street.

Officer Dunbury was keeping a watch out for window smashers and noticed the boy walking down Park street toward the center. As he passed the Thrift Shop he kicked two windows, breaking glass in the second.

Officer Dunbury took the boy to Headquarters where he was held until the arrival of his mother, into whose custody he was given.

Christmas Decorations at the Library

The library is indebted to Mrs. John Chipman for an attractive window arrangement of Christmas greens and pine cones in the Boys' and Girls' Library.

The artistic Christmas garland that decorates the balcony over the main desk in the Adult Department was made and hung by the Winchester Better Homes Garden Club. The Christmas arrangements on the main desk, the reference desk, and the children's library were made by Mrs. Norman Mitchell of the Better Homes Garden Club. Mrs. Samuel Kirkwood and Mrs. Clifton Hall also of the Better Homes Garden Club shared in the making of the terrarium on the circulation desk.

The display of Scandanavian Christmas seals was loaned by Mrs. Alonzo F. Woodside. This collection includes one of the original Christmas seals.

SCENE FROM LAURENCE HOUSMANN'S BETHLEHEM

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

The colorful Christmas play "Bethlehem", by Lawrence Housmann, will again be presented in the Chancel of the First Congregational Church on Sunday afternoon, at 4:30.

This traditional Christmas play is one of the most beautiful ever written. It depicts the story of the Shepherds watching their flocks on the hillside, with the moon shining down upon them, and the appearance of the Angel Gabriel telling them of the Holy Birth, with the Angel Choir singing from the rear of the Church and the arrival of the Wise Men and Shepherds at the humble stable in Bethlehem.

This play is a simple unforgettable way of telling the children the Christmas story, and is also an inspiration to adults who wish to get the feeling of the Christmas season.

The doors will be open at 4 p. m. and everyone is cordially invited. Children 12 years of age and over will enjoy this play. Children under 10 should be accompanied by an older person.

VICTORY DRAWING

Miss Kay Gilgun of Woodside road and David Wallace of Berkeley road, Medford, were the winners of the turkeys in the Victory Drawing, held by Aberjona Post, V. F. W., Tuesday night at its Post Headquarters on the Skillings estate. Mrs. Nora Flynn of Shepard court was the winner of the War Bond. Fred Mitchell, old "Black Watch" himself, did the drawing, which surely made it official.

Miss Letitia Burns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Burns of 22 Wedgemere avenue returned home Wednesday, to spend the Christmas holidays with her family. Miss Burns is a sophomore at Georgia Court College.

LANDING GASLESS SUPER-FORT QUITE A STUNT

The following clipped from one of the overseas service publications would seem to indicate that a Winchester pilot, Capt. Charles Joyce, USAAF, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Joyce of Webster street, performed a particularly difficult flying feat when he landed a super-fortress which had run out of gas. The Star has already mentioned the event, but reprints the following which is a much more complete account of what Army writers seem to feel was quite a stunt:

20th Bomber Command Base, India. When the huge B-29 Super-Forts run out of gas in flight, you fly 'em home on pure guts, plus a keen knowledge of the flying machine and its delicate operation.

At least that's the recipe Capt. Charles (Doc) Joyce and his flight engineer, Charles Passieu, used recently while bringing in their Super-Fortress "Raidin' Maiden," after giving Singapore its first aerial bombardment of the war.

Joyce and his crew had just put the finishing touches on the successful bombing of Singapore and were nearing their home base, when Passieu announced to his pilot that the gas supply was running alarmingly low. So low, in fact, that he doubted very much whether "Raidin' Maiden" could make the next 70 miles to its base.

Hearing this, the pilot, short in stature but long on intestinal fortitude, gave the only order he could: "Bail out." After this emergency bell had been sounded throughout the big ship, Joyce decided to stay with her, because he "kinda figured we might be able to make it." Passieu shared this opinion and stayed with his pilot.

About 10 miles from home, Joyce inquired: "How much gas left, Charlie?"

"Just about enough to fill your cigaret lighter," came the answer.

Almost within sight of base, Joyce realized his predicament and acted accordingly. At 10,000 feet, he cut the switch, feathered the props, nosed the giant plane into a steep dive, lowered the landing gear, and then began praying he might thus maintain enough air speed for a safe landing.

"Raidin' Maiden" touched ground just 40 feet short of the runway, but Joyce wrestled the plane onto the airstrip and rolled safely past an amazed and cheering crowd gathered around the control tower.

An anti-climax to the story occurred when Joyce and Passieu stepped out of the plane, so did five other crew members. They had been in the rear of the ship and had not heard the "bail out" alarm. When they realized what had happened, it was too late to jump. That's their story. The other four crewmen, who were in the front of the ship, bailed out at the pilot's command and landed safely several miles from the field.

Joyce's modest comment as he mopped the perspiration from his smiling face: "We were just lucky as hell, I guess."

ELKS SAW FOOTBALL PICTURES

Two hundred members of Winchester Lodge, B. P. O. E., enjoyed motion pictures of the controversial Winchester-Reading football game of the past fall after their meeting Tuesday evening in Lyceum Hall. Coach Henry Knowlton of the high school, a former gridiron star, showed the pictures which followed the exemplificaton of the initiatory degree, worked on a large class by the officers of the Lodge, headed by Exalted Ruler Michael F. Grant. The degree was worked in a manner reflecting much credit upon the officers.

Besides the football pictures, the entertainment program included legerdemain by Dallas Burrows, Winchester High School student who put on a clever show. Music was by the Manning Trio, composed of Al Lewis, mandolin; Jack Manning, guitar, and George Murphy, bass viol, who arrived at the meeting after playing at the Chelsea Naval Hospital for the Mass. Elks' Association and the Elks War Commission.

The impressive 11 o'clock toast was made by Past Exalted Ruler Charles A. Farrar. A lobster supper was furnished by the House Committee and put on by the Board of Stewards headed by Charles Meek.

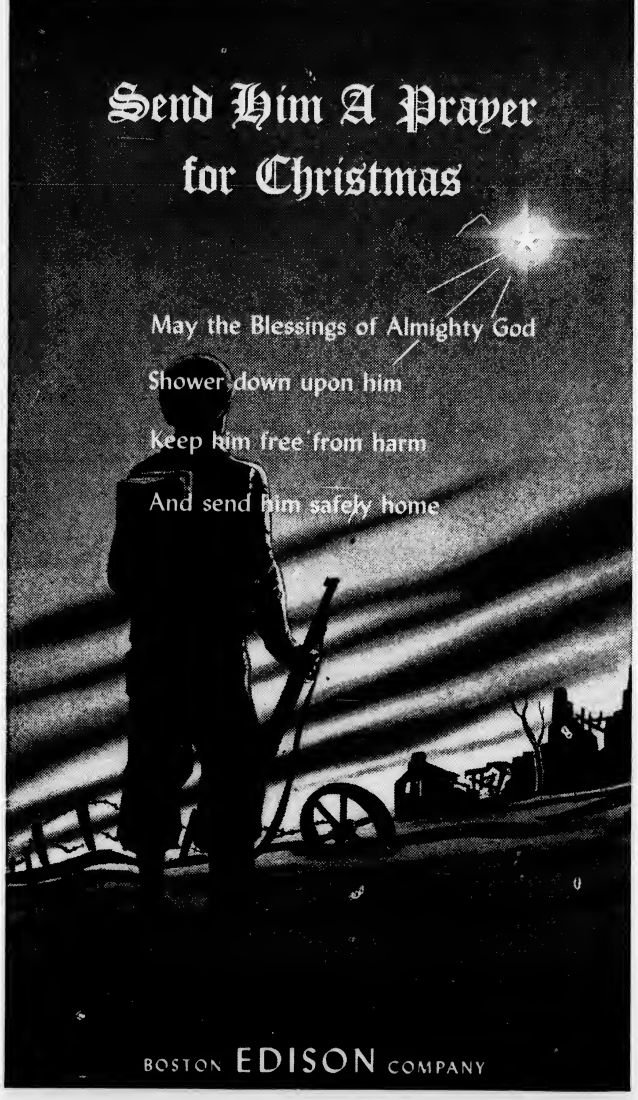

SALARY EXPERT ADDRESSED TEACHERS

Dr. Blair, consultant on salary schedules for the Mass. Teachers' Federation, addressed Winchester school teachers Wednesday afternoon at a meeting held in the library of the high school. F. Meredith Cooper of the high school faculty, presided.

Dr. Blair, a former professor of School Finance at Boston University discussed the many items that necessarily have to be considered in arriving at a salary schedule for teachers, and gave to those at the meeting copies of statistics, from which Winchester teachers could compare their own salaries and teaching conditions with those of other cities and towns.

Thus far this week we have heard of no more windows smashed along Main street, although T. Quigley, Jr., reports another in his building over the week-end. That this vandalism is being looked after is a relief to the numerous building owners who have been suffering from the epidemic. However, we have received a court summons in connection with the matter, for on Saturday night the police captured a man who they claim was actually kicking out one of our own windows. He will appear in Woburn on the 28th—as we expect to also.

Few of us can view the approach of Christmas this year with the old enthusiasm. For many the holidays will carry no poignant memories of loved ones cut off from life in the flush of youth on the far-flung battlefields of the world or resting forever in the sea. Others have even the worse anxiety of wondering where their children are and how they are faring. There is none of us but has some relative, friend or neighbor for whom to fear and pray as Christmas comes. If we as home things are far from pleasant. Many of us face very real problems which vitally affect us and those close to us and increase in intensity and portent as the chaos of world conditions mounts. It's all a grim show, as our British allies put it, yet grim as it is, and harrassed as we all may be, there will be relatively few of us who will not feel a bit of a lift, a warming glow, with the arrival of Christmas. It has always been so, and with good reason, for Christmas transcends in those values which make for lasting satisfaction all other holidays save Easter. In the realm of the spirit there are no days so joyous as Christmas, with its hope for mankind on earth, and Easter, with its promise of immortality. So it can be this Christmas, that though the old zest may be lacking, we can still be glad for a day that prompts us to be happy and help others to be happy. We can enjoy our friends and revive our spirits as we return their pledge of the hearty greetings of the season. As the warmth of friendship, given and received, drives out for a time the dank cold of pessimism and fear, we can all rejoice in Christmas and be doubly glad of its coming. And it is to that the Star is moved this year to extend once more to all our friends, old and new, our sincere good wishes for the holiday season.

The Star learns that no action has been taken up to the press at time by the School Committee on the matter of the School Survey. Latest report is that the Committee will wait until the latter part of January to allow the Superintendent to present a report on the survey. The Superintendent, it is also reported, working in close touch with Mr. Dana Cotton, former Director of Personnel and Guidance in the High School, desires this further time to compile his report. In the matter of printing a report by the Superintendent and having it distributed about town, the School Committee has refused to appropriate the necessary money, it is said. While the Committee has not yet received a copy of the mysterious questionnaire said to have been issued by the principal of the High School under the direction of the Superintendent, the Star is informed that the following is an authentic copy:

(1) Have elementary schools, in the first five grades, "far too few supplementary books?"
Yes ..... No .....

(2) Is it true, in elementary schools, that audio-visual aids are "generally conspicuous by their absence?"
(a) sound films. Yes..... No.....
(b) maps. Yes..... No.....
(c) charts. Yes..... No.....

(3) Do you subscribe to the statement that "there is a strange atmosphere of aloofness between..... the superintendent and the teachers?"
Yes..... No.....

(4) Is it true that the furnishing of books, supplies, and teaching equipment has been done on the basis of "personal discrimination?"
Yes..... No.....

It is difficult to see how the average teacher about town would be in a position to answer these questions, especially under a "yes" and "no" reply. Whether the results desired will be attained or the poll made public is not known, and any action on the survey by the Committee seems destined to wait in abeyance for the next six weeks.

AID IN CHEERING BOYS

The following letters may help in giving some idea of the service that the Garden Clubs are doing in cheering the boys forced to spend weary hours in the hospital. The Winchester Better Homes Garden Club is doing all in its power to add in this work.

Port of Embarkation:
Nov. 4, 1944

Dear Mrs. Twombley:

Before going overseas I wish to take this opportunity to thank you and your committee for the flowers that were supplied weekly to the chapel of Lovell General Hospital. My thanks also for the beautiful arrangements. Personally I like flowers and one of the things that I disliked giving up upon my re-entrance into the Chaplain's Corps of the Army was my garden. You can understand therefore what a pleasure it was to me to find fresh flowers for the altar each week. I believe I can speak for the Catholic group at Lovell and extend to you their thanks also.

Hoping that you and your committee continue your part as in the past. I remain

Sincerely yours,
Charles F. Gorman,

Mrs. Harold Twombley
Lawson Road, Winchester
My dear Mrs. Twombley:

I would prefer to write each club individually to thank them for their contribution throughout the past season to the patients of this hospital. Time and personnel are limited, so I am asking your help once again in conveying my message to the participating garden clubs.

First, tell them that the flowers sent by them are always very beautiful. Fridays have come to be known generally as flower day and, as such, anticipated from the lowliest private to our own Commanding Officer, who never failed to be around to admire the beautiful arrangements.

Secondly, the year-round service that "our" garden clubs are rendering is truly developing a love and appreciation of flowers, plus a greater knowledge and interest in them. That flowers can still arrive here during the dreary winter months is further tribute to the service that the clubs are rendering the patients here at Lovell General Hospital.

Thirdly, I would like especially to thank the ladies who have come regularly to the hospital to arrange these flowers, and to Mrs. Harold Twombley an especially fine honorable mention for her quiet, efficient manner of organizing the work of the garden service committee.

On behalf of the patients here who, I know, have appreciated and benefited by the flowers, the hospital personnel and the Red Cross staff, I extend our sincere appreciation and gratitude to the garden service committee for the valuable work they have done for the patient morale of this hospital.

Sincerely,
Mary Louise Burns
Field Director

"SEASON'S GREETINGS"

Dec. 19, 1944

To the Editor of the Star:

The members of the staff of the Winchester Public Library join me in extending the season's greetings to all of our townspeople.

At this time we wish to make an observation about the library, i.e. it is an impersonal place where all people are welcome and may pursue their individual library interests freely and without attention if they wish, and yet it is also a very personal place where the joys and sorrows and needs of our people, as individuals, come close to us and meet with sympathetic understanding.

The library staff and I are here to serve you all in every possible way and we want you to feel that we welcome opportunities to be of assistance.

We know that the library gives comfort to many of our town's folk and that books can be a great solace in times of stress. It is our hope that you will avail yourselves of all that your library has to offer.

Sincerely yours,
Corinne Mead,
Librarian

WYMAN SCHOOL CHRISTMAS ASSEMBLY

The theme of our Christmas assembly centers around Christmas customs in other lands.

The introduction is that of a small child who falls asleep and dreams of Christmas customs in other lands. Each part given by the children will represent a chapter in the book which the girl is reading, as she falls asleep.

Chapter 1, Norway, First Grades.
Chapter 2, France, Second Grades.
Chapter 3, England, Third Grades.
Chapter 4, Mexico, Fourth Grades.
Chapter 5, a Homestead Christmas Fifth Grade.
Chapter 6, The story of "Silent Night", Sixth Grades.
Christmas Carolers, representatives from all grades.

SONS OF ITALY NOTES

Ha hum, here we do again. It's very encouraging to have received some letters but very discouraging to hear that so many of you boys are not receiving the Star regularly. I hope to be able to get the column in each week now.

On the bowling, the match is over and Tofuri's Terrors ate heartily of a chicken dinner at the expense of Mahoff's Marauders. At our last meeting plans were formulated for a four team match about which I shall report further in the future. The pinfall and averages follow:

Tabulation for eight matches through Nov. 22:

L. Manoli, 24 strings, 2127 pinfall, 88.66 av.
C. Frongillo, 21 strings, 1881 pinfall, 89.71 av.
Phil Muraco 21 strings, 1739 pinfall, 82.81 av.
A. Jacobellis, 24 strings, 2203 pinfall, 91.79 av.
Sam Puma, 21 strings, 1887 pinfall, 89.86 av.
J. DiIorio, 9 strings, 737 pinfall, 81.88 av.
Team Totals: 120 strings, 10,577 pinfall, 88.14 av.
C. DeMinico, 21 strings, 1935 pinfall, 92.14 av.
F. Frongillo, 24 strings, 2042 pinfall, 85 av.
A. P. Tofuri, 24 strings, 2320 pinfall, 96.66 av.
F. Dattilio, 24 strings, 2134 pinfall, 88.91 av.
A. Vespucci, 24 strings, 2081 pinfall, 86.70 av.
A. Giliberti, 3 strings, 253 pinfall, 84.33 av.
Team Totals: 120 strings, 10,765 pinfall, 89.71 av.
A. P. Tofuri, highest av., 96.66.
Leo Manoli, highest single string, 132.
C. DeMinico, highest three strings, 397.

"Gay" Vespucci sent another letter from Paris which he especially says is not for publication. In fairness to Gay I think we should let you know how he really feels about the WACs.

He says they are no longer with him but they deserve a lot of credit. They were the first group to set foot on French soil (38 of them). Says Gay: "While fighting was only 15 miles away we G. I's worried about what we'd do with them in case of a rout, for, during those early days of the invasion of Normandy we held only a speck of France and were being stymied at Saint Lo. The gals tightened their belts and slushed in the mud, slept in tents and plugged along with the rest of us G. I's." It was there in Normandy that we G. I's learned to respect these girls. They were accompanied by Katherine Coyne of the Boston Herald. There you are Gay. You can always depend on your old pal Tony not to publish something you don't want. I was only kidding in my last remarks about you and the WAC's and I'm sure everybody else knew it.

Here's Mario Marrone in again and it sure is quite some time since we had heard from him. He says he's been kept pretty busy, and we can believe that. Jumbo says he hopes to hear from "Bucky" Rallo, Al DeMinico, Bud Stygles, Murphy and all the rest of the Cubs.

By the way he figures "Dead Horse" has made a hit by now as he'll have to if he wants to play for Jumbo. Here's hoping you can hold on to some of the good ball players you have now Jumbo. Speaking of Tony Chefalo a letter was received from him and even if he can't get a base hit he must have something on the ball as he has just earned another stripe. Everything is O. K. now as "Dead Horse" and "Willie" have finally made contact and received each others mail. Its kind of tough to get hell for not writing after receiving no answer to 10 letters.

A beautiful Christmas card has been received from Capt. Angelo L. Maietta. The card which was mailed from in the Province of Luxemburg expresses a mutual sentiment. The "Doc" takes this opportunity of sending his greetings to many of the boys whom he cannot reach. Here's hoping you can personally deliver your messages very soon.

ARMY PRAISE FOR "DUCKY" RALLO

Sgt. Francis P. Rallo of the United States Army Infantry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Rallo of 34 Eaton street, has received an official commendation from Headquarters of the American Division for meritorious service in connection with military operations against the enemy at Bougainville, Solomon Islands on March 12, 1944.

The commendation reads: "When his company was engaged in attacking enemy positions on Hill 260, Sgt. Rallo, a squad leader, showed great courage by moving forward under heavy enemy fire to within 15 feet of the tree observation post. Later during a withdrawal, he saw a severely wounded man to his flank and immediately proceeded to him and, under heavy enemy fire, brought him to safety. Sgt. Rallo's outstanding courage and leadership were inspiring to his fellow soldiers.

"This devotion to duty on the part of Sgt. Rallo reflects great credit on himself and is in keeping with the highest standards and traditions of our Army."

Sgt. Rallo will be remembered by local baseball fans as a great little third baseman both for the Winchester High School baseball team and for the Winchester Cubs. He has two brothers in the service, Leonard and Paul.

The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light; they that dwel lin the land of shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined." This passage from the Bible, Isaiah 9:2, comprises the Golden Text to be used in the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, and in all of its branches, on Sunday, Dec. 24.

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be, "Christ Jesus," and included in the Bible selections is, "I saw in the night visions, and, behold, one like the Son of Man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. . . And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed" (Daniel 7:13, 14).

The following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The prophets of old looked for something higher than the systems of their times; hence their foresight of the new dispensation of Truth. But they knew not what would be the precise nature of the touching and demonstration of God, divine Mind, in His more infinite meanings, the demonstration which was to destroy sin, sickness, and death, establish the definition of omnipotence, and maintain the Science of Spirit" (p. 270).

MARSHALL TO DIRECT GLEE CLUB

The Mystic Glee Club announces the selection of Mr. Donald Marshall as its conductor for this year. Mr. Marshall has a fine musical background and a pleasing personality (we'll say he must, him very popular with all the members. He is a graduate of Tufts College and has been choir director at the North Street Congregational Church in Medford for 12 years.

The club has been rehearsing for the past three months and is developing a program which it is believed will be equally as popular as any which has been presented in the past.

On Monday evening, Dec. 18, the club visited the Home for Aged People on Mt. Vernon street, and sang many of the familiar Christmas Carols.

Following this, the annual Christmas party was held at the home of the president, Carl W. Wood. The party committee, headed by Bob Carlson, did a wonderful job in planning an evening which proved to be very enjoyable. Every member had an opportunity of presenting his own particular talents for the entertainment of all the rest, and the result was a very amusing and interesting program.

The club extends an invitation to any man in Winchester who is interested in music to join with them.

Rehearsals are held on Monday nights at 7:45 at the Baptist Church, the next one being on Monday, Jan. 8. Further particulars may be had by calling Lindsay Caldwell, Win. 2089-R.

We Are About To Close Our Third War Year In The Automobile Business

It has b en a difficult year. Cars have needed more repairs thar average. Many items of replacement parts have been difficult to obtain. We have been short of mechanics. I spite of these conditions, you have been patient and co-operative. For this, we want to "thank you."

Next Year

Replacement parts are coming through much better now, and we are assured by our factory that the improvement will continue. Let's hope that during the coming year the war will be over, our boys will be back, and our company is building cars again.

W. H. S. STUDENTS ENJOY CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

Under the capable direction of Miss Alma Stoddard, director of vocal music in the Winchester schools and Mr. Robert M. Keeney, head of the English Department, an effective Christmas program was presented by members of the glee clubs and selected other students last Wednesday morning in the auditorium.

After the formal opening of the program by Principal Samuel Graves, Miss Stoddard led the entire assembly in singing "O, Come All Ye Faithful," "White Christmas" and "Hark! The Herald Angels Sing." This was followed by the Boys' Glee Club in a special arrangement of "Jingle Bells", accompanied by sleigh bells.

The second part of the program consisted of five tableaux, depicting the Christmas story, and dramatically presented by an unique employment of the moving picture screen and very effective lighting which gave each scene a dignity often lacking in tableaux. Each scene was accompanied by Christmas music, beautifully rendered by the Girls' Glee Club. They chose "O Holy Night", "Bring a Torch, Jeanette Isobella", "Gloria", "Silent Night" and "Seven-fold Amen."

Those in the tableaux were Patty Root as Mary, Don Armstrong as Joseph, William Knights and James Murray as Kings, Virginia Lovejoy as an Angel, Margaret Parkhurst, William Nichols, and John West as Shepherds. Priscilla Morrill was narrator.

Lights and staging were in charge of Mark Strawbridge and Thomas Kirwan.

The entire student body paid the highest possible tribute to the cast by their total silence and seemingly breathless attention.

CHRISTMAS CHEER

The Garden Clubs are performing a real service to the boys at the Lovell General Hospital at Camp Devens by supplying them with flowers. At Christmas time these are supplemented by Christmas decorations.

The Winchester Better Homes Garden Club Christmas Workshop was given over this year to making many of these decorations.

Among those working on Dec. 18 to bring this cheer to the boys in the hospital were the Misses Eleanor and Louise Bancroft, Miss Edith Caverly, Miss Helen Munroe, and Mesdames Barrett, Roger Burroyne, David Robert Baylies, Austin Bunker, G. R. Choate, W. W. Godhue, John C. Gilbert, C. S. Hall, R. W. Frazier, Willard Hudson, R. N. Hallowell, Samuel Kirkwood, Norman Mitchell, James Newman, Addison Pike, William Phippen, F. J. Robinson, R. E. Sexton, Harold Twombley, C. F. Wolfe, W. H. Wiechmann.

Time was taken for a short business meeting at which it was voted to omit the January meeting.

BENEFIT WHIST

Mrs. Edward Fleming of Pond street held a very successful whist at her home Thursday afternoon, Dec. 14 in aid of the Maryknoll Missions. Robert Clark of Woburn was the winner of a handsome silk bag.

Mrs. Fleming wishes, through the Star, to thank all those who aided in making the party such a social and financial secess.

Air mail paper and envelopes at Wilson the Stationers, Star Building.

Miss Ann Jennings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving E. Jennings of 127 Church street, is at home enjoying the Christmas recess from House in the Pines School, Norton. Ann took part in the Glee Club concert held recently at the school.

HEADS ARLINGTON GAS LIGHT COMPANY

Following a meeting of the board of directors of Arlington Gas Light Company this week at which Thomas G. Dignan was elected president, Irwin L. Moore, president of New England Power Association announced that Mr. Dignan is assuming responsibility for the management of the Arlington Company along with that of a number of other New England Power System companies operating in the territory north of Boston.

Since 1941 Mr. Dignan has been president of New England Power Service Company, the servicing company for the New England Power system. He will be succeeded as president of the Service Company by Edwin A. Dow who has been a vice president of the Service Company in charge of the Engineering and Construction Division.

Thomas G. Dignan was born in Wakefield May 1, 1899. He was educated in the public schools of that town, and later attended Holy Cross College where he received the degree of A. B. in 1921. Following his graduation from college he attended the Law School at Boston University, receiving his LLB degree in 1924. He was admitted to the bar shortly afterwards and engaged in the practice of law in Boston for three years. During 1925-1926 he was a member of the Board of Selectmen of Wakefield and later was a member of the Board of Appeals of that community.

In 1928 he entered the Legal Department of the Association at Boston and rose, within a short time, to the position of assistant general counsel. On Dec. 1, 1930, Mr. Dignan became manager of the Lowell Electric Light Corporation, which position he held until 1932 when he was elected secretary of New England Power Association. In October of 1934 Mr. Dignan was elected vice president and general manager of the Worcester Electric Light Company and became district manager of the Central District, comprising New England Power System companies in that area.

In 1941 Mr. Dignan was elected president of the Worcester Company. Later that year he was elected president of New England Power Service Company with offices in Boston. He has held this position up until his present appointments.

STAR OFFICE

Greetings:

Verily, times have changed; 40 years ago when I first started to sell Hardware, etc., women wore hoop skirts, cotton stockings, high buttoned shoes and frilled cotton underwear. They did the cleaning, washing and ironing, raised big families, went to church on Sunday, and were too busy to be sick.

Men wore whiskers, square hats, flannel underwear, chopped wood for the stove, bathed once a week, rode bicycles, buggies and sleighs, went in for politics, worked 12 hours a day and lived to a ripe old age.

Stores burned coal, used oil lamps, carried everything from a needle to a plough, trusted everybody, never took inventory, placed orders for goods a year in advance, and always made money.

Today women wear no stockings, no corsets, an ounce of underwear, dye their hair, smoke, paint, drink, play bridge, drive cars, have pet dogs and go in for politics.

Men have high blood pressure, wear no hats, have little hair, play golf, bathe twice a day, drink poison, ride in airplanes, never go to bed the same day they get up, are misunderstood at home, work 5 and play 10 hours a day and die young.

Stores have electric lights, cash registers, elevators, but never what the customer wants, trust nobody, take inventory daily, never buy in advance, have overhead, mark-ups, budgets, quotas, stock control and report hourly to OPA, WPB, WLB, and 50 or 60 other alphabetical nuisances—and never make any money.

But Christmas is still the same, a day set aside to praise the Lord, greet your friends and make merry, so we are taking this opportunity to wish you and yours a grand old-fashioned Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

Sincerely yours,

Central Hardware Co.

J. M. Donahue

SMASHED FENCE

Officer John H. Boyle, while on duty Saturday morning at 2:30, found that the fence surrounding the B. and M. Railroad bridge at the corner of Swanton and Main streets had been smashed, apparently by being struck by an automobile. Officer Boyle found skid marks leading to the fence and a piece of a broken headlight near the fence. Later he and Sgt. Thomas F. Cassidy found a local automobile on which they were able to fit the broken piece of metal found at the fence. A complaint will be sought charging the driver with leaving the scene of an accident after doing damage to property.

PICKED UP MISSING VETERAN

Monday night shortly before 10 o'clock Patrolman Irving Reardon noticed a man, without coat or hat walking along Bacon street.

Officer Reardon took the man to Headquarters where an investigation disclosed that his home was in Lynn and that he was a disabled veteran of World War I. Further investigation disclosed the fact that he had been missing from the Veterans' Hospital in Bedford since 6 o'clock that evening.

The hospital was notified and one of the supervisors came to Winchester to return the veteran to Bedford.

WILLIAM PARKMAN LODGE

A special meeting of William Parkman Lodge was held Monday, Dec. 18. Three candidates received the first degree and an oyster stew was served after the meeting.

It was announced that the 25th annual New Year's Day get-together will be on Monday, Jan. 1 at 11 a. m.

The Grand Master of Masons in Massachusetts is expected to address the meeting and many other Masonic dignatories will be present. There will be entertainment and every Mason in Winchester is invited to attend.

GIRL SCOUT NOTES

Brownie Troop 27 of the Mystic School had a very successful Christmas party Monday of this week.

Carols, poems, Christmas games were enjoyed by all. There was a gift for everyone under the gaily decorated Christmas tree and squeals of delight accompanied the opening of the presents. Ice cream sandwiches, cookies, pop corn balls, and stockings filled with candy were distributed to each girl. Mrs. Carl E. Morse, the Brownie leader, was assisted by Mrs. John Donovan, Mrs. Don Kroell, Mrs. Geo. Blair, Jr. and Cynthia Morse.

IN BROADCAST PROGRAM

BOY BROKE INTO NOONAN SCHOOL

Sgt. Thomas F. Cassidy on Friday located the boy who Police say is responsible for the recent break at the Noonan School, in which over $25 in war saving stamps belonging to pupils and a small sum of money were taken.

Police say the boy, aged 9, after considerable questioning, admitted the theft. He gained access to the building by breaking the glass over the catch of a window in the assembly hall of the school. He will be summonsed into court. The stamps were found in the yard of the Boggs and Cobb tannery.

WINCHESTER SEVENTH GRADE ASSEMBLY

The Christmas party of the Seventh Grade Assembly was held last Friday at the Town Hall with Mrs. Franklin J. Lane and Mrs. Ralph W. Hatch as hostesses.

Decorations appropriate to the season added to the festive scene. Formal teaching was omitted for the day by the instructor, Mr. Russell Curry of Arlington and his assistants. Thus the program conducted for fun and frolic consisted of an elimination dance won by Karen Lindblad and Francis Millett, Jr., a Portland Fancy, numerous waltzes and fox trots and dances with favors. Last but not least were the refreshments served from a beautifully decorated candle-lit table placed on the stage.

WINCHESTER WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

Extends Christmas Greetings to All Its Friends

1911—"The Hopes and Fears of All the Years are Met in Thee Tonight"

These are the words with which Phillips Brooks wrote of that "Little Town of Bethlehem," where was born in far-off Judea, nearly 2000 years ago, the Child whose birth gave us our Christmas. And still today the hopes and fears of all the years meet in Him as they did that night in the lowly manger where He lay.

Christmas comes, we say, but once a year. But He is ever coming — coming to the hearts of men with the divinest message humanity has ever heard.

No wonder Christmas Day is the Day of Days. Whatever it may bring us this year of joy or sorrow, it is our assurance that "Peace on Earth and Good Will toward Men" is still life's final goal.

Dear Santa, I have heard folks say
That every dog should have its day.
And so I dip my paw in ink
To say the ideal gift, I think,
Would be a master who can run
From dawn until the setting sun.
Some one who's good at signal talk,
Who knows the woodlands like a hawk.
Some one who likes to feel a nose
Just slightly moist against his toes.
So Santa—don't bring me a toy
But just give me an average boy!

d8-3t

THE FORTNIGHTLY

One night recently a little boy went to bed with a sparkle in his eyes.

"Mother, I feel good inside."

"Do you?"

"Yes. Do you know why I feel good inside? Because I gave the Christmas decoration I made all by myself to Grandmother."

Six or 60, we can all experience the feeling of spiritual well-being that comes from sharing, and many Winchester women are happier because of the cheer they have given to servicemen this holiday season. One hundred gifts were taken to the Port of Embarkation for boys who will be on their way overseas on Christmas Day, ten gift bags were assembled and sent to the Chelsea Naval Hospital, and a gift of money was sent to the Department of Co-operation with War Veterans of the State Federation.

One of the first Red Cross workers sent overseas, her assignment happened to be Iceland, wrote of the many times community singing had helped them to interest large groups of servicemen, strange to them perhaps, and often to each other. Always it proved a promoter of good will.

The townspeople are cordially invited to gather at the Community Tree on the Common at 7:15 this coming Saturday evening for Community Carol singing under the leadership of the Fortnightly Choral Group. Inspiration and comfort lie in familiar words echoed by our neighbors, and the friendly act of singing together will surely bring its full measure of blessing to us all.

NURSES' AIDE CLASS

The Waltham Red Cross Chapter is planning to conduct a Nurses' Aide Class at the Waltham Regional Hospital starting Jan. 8, 1945.

The class will be open to 25 members living within a radius of 25 miles of Waltham who will have to provide their own transportation and meet the usual requirements for nurses' aides.

The class will meet three days a week: Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 8 a. m. to 12 noon.

All Winchester women interested in joining this class should call Mrs. Wayne Thompson (Win. 2227) to file application or for further information.

That was quite a labor-saver Town Treasurer Don Heath thought up for Christmas. It has been the custom for the "family" at the hall to exchange greeting cards at Christmas, resulting in much duplication of effort and an unnecessary expenditure of time and postage. This year, Don made a big ply-board panel, on which each employee at the hall pinned his or her Christmas card, greeting his or her associates. The panel made a festive appearance in the foyer of the hall.

FIREMEN HAD CHRISTMAS CAROLS

While Engine 3 and its crew were at work at the Phillips Shoe Store fire in Woburn last Saturday night their mates at the Central Station with call men and auxiliaries sang Christmas carols to the accompaniment of Auxiliary Deputy Chief Parker Clark's mellow trombone.

Parker was on his way home from the Christmas Carol sing on the Common, where he played for that group, when Woburn Box 612 hit. In two shakes of a lamb's tail Parker was in the Central Station to see what went on. Naturally he stuck around, and when some one suggested that the boys tune up on a carol or two he obligingly unlimbered his slip-horn and led the way.

"Cubby" Carroll and "Pep" O'Melia led the actual singing, aided and abetted by C. Elliot Ward. The latter tried hard for a bit of close harmony, urging Parker to take the tenor while he chimed in on the bass. "Cubby" vetoed that one, figuring that the boys would do better with the trombone than without it, especially in competition with a tenor and a bass, singing as he put it "off the beam."

Everything considered, "Cubby" may have had something there. At all events Parker continued to toot and the boys to sing, until well along into the early Sunday morning. If Elliot sang bass, no one minded, unless it was Charlie Moran.

BELMONT HERE NEXT WEEK

With the resumption of school next Tuesday Coach Henry Knowlton will have his basketball team hard at it in preparation for the Middlesex League game with Belmont High in the local gymnasium Friday evening, Jan. 5.

Both Winchester and Belmont have played Newton and each lost to the Garden City outfit. While Belmont did a little better against Newton than Winchester there wasn't enough difference to mention.

Since then, however, Belmont has played in the recent schoolboy tripleheader at the Boston Garden, making an excellent showing in setting down Watertown.

Winchester always faces a distinct handicap in its first basketball games after the Christmas recess. Many of the teams the local boys face practice during the holidays and so are further along than the local players who are forbidden by the school authorities to have practice during the recess. Belmont is always a good early season club and Winchester will find no easy detail on Jan. 5.

LT. HANLEY WOUNDED

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Hanley of 987 Main street have been notified that their son, Lt. William J. Hanley, Jr., has been wounded for the second time while serving with the United States Army in the South Pacific Theatre.

Lt. Hanley was wounded for the first time last spring, but recovered rapidly and was soon back in action. He was wounded for the second time last month in the action on Leyte Island, and though complete details are not known, he has been able to write his parents, stating that he is all right. He has been awarded the Purple Heart Medal.

Lt. Hanley has been in the service for four years and has been overseas for more than a year, participating in the action at New Guinea, Saipan and Leyte.

THE 1945 BUDGET

is being tackled at this time by many of our forehanded citizens.

In making provisions for the various items of expenses, investments and benevolences for the coming year you will remember that the Red Cross Campaign to raise funds for its expanding program will take place early in the year.

You may consider your contribution an investment which will pay dividends in satisfaction received when you think of the lives that have been saved, the pain that has been relieved and the cheer which has been added in the lives of our boys in service.

If we all do our part it will hasten the day when we can all join in saying

"A Happy New Year"

DR. HITCHEN WATCH-NIGHT SPEAKER

Rev. Herbert Hitchen, minister of the First Unitarian Church of West Newton, will be the preacher at the Community Watch-Night Service at the Unitarian Church here at 11:15 p. m., Sunday, Dec. 31. The service will be conducted by the ministers of the local Methodist, Baptist, New Hope Baptist, Unitarian Churches.

The evening's program will begin at 9 p. m., when the Winchester Inter-Church League will conduct a New Year's Candle Light Service. One of the young people from each of the participating churches will take part in the service.

A talk on, "What Other People Do At Christmas" will be given by Miss Alfreda Mosher of the International Institute of Boston. Miss Mosher has been kept very busy giving this talk all over New England. Young and old are cordially invited to join in this candlelight service and have this opportunity to hear Miss Mosher.

At 10 p. m., the new sound movie, "From New Lands to Old" will be shown in Metcalf Hall, after which there will be a social hour and refreshments served by a committee of ladies of the several participating churches.

At 11:15, the gathering will reconvene in the church to see the old year out and the new year in, to hear Rev. Herbert Hitchen's sermon, and to join in prayer for the year 1945.

POLICE HELPED STORK

Leonard R. Hampton, a sailor, living at 44 Yale avenue, Melrose, arrived at Police Headquarters at 12.45 Thursday morning, anxiously inquiring the way to the Winchester Hospital. He vouchsafed the information that his wife, whom he had in a taxi outside, had an important date with the stork at the hospital.

Lt. Edward W. O'Connell, on the desk, took a sympathetic interest in the sailor's problem and sent Officers Irving Reardon and Archie O'Connell in a police cruiser to lead the way to the hospital. And it was just as well he did, for the taxi, in which the Hamptons were riding, was unable to negotiate the slippery slope of Mt. Vernon street, and the cruiser had to take over.

The Police made the trip in time!

CHRISTMAS SURPRISE

Mrs. Helen S. Brown of 4 Chesterford road had one especially pleasant Christmas surprise in the arrival on the holiday morning of her son, Capt. William Clay Brown, of the 1st Armored Division, home on a 30 day furlough.

Capt. Brown had been on duty in Italy for the past year and before that participated in the African campaign. He has been in the service for four and one-half years, having served for two years at Camp Knox before going overseas more than two years ago. He is a graduate of Winchester High School and of Mass. State College. His wife and son, William Clay Brown, 3rd, are living in Winchester with the Captain's mother.

NAMED TO WEST POINT

William T. Eaton of 2 Ridgeway, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Eaton, has been named by Congresswoman Edith Nourse Rogers of the 5th Massachusetts District as one of three principals for appointment to the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis. Ferdinand L. Manning of 28 Symmes road, son of Prof. and Mrs. George C. Manning, has been named eighth alternate for the same appointment.

Mrs. Arthur E. Butters of 16 Park avenue, wife of the head of the Mathematics Department at Winchester High School, while leaving the home of Mrs. Marion Waugh on Park avenue, after a visit Wednesday night, fell on the icy walk and broke her left leg between the ankle and knee. She was taken in the Police ambulance by Sgt. Donaghey and Officers Dunbury and MacDonald to the Winchester Hospital where she was attended by Dr. Philip H. McManus.

Pfc. Crosby "Bing" Grindle, son of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Wade L. Grindle of Lincoln street is home on leave from Camp Cook, Cal., until Jan. 9.

Frederick W. Fitzgerald, Jr., was soloist at the 11:50 mass Christmas morning at St. Mary's Church. He is the son of Mrs. Doris Moffett Fitzgerald of 2 Park avenue and the late Frederick W. Fitzgerald.

GILBERT—CLARK

There is Winchester interest in the marriage which took place at St. John's Episcopal Church in Saugus on Christmas Day when Miss Maude Jessie Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis H. Clark of Carson street, Saugus, became the bride of Bradbury Gilbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Gilbert of Stevens street. Rev. Frank Greene performed the double ring ceremony by candlelight at 5 o'clock in a setting of palms, white chrysanthemums and gladiolas. Dorothy Cornish McLellan, organist, played the bridal music.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Clark was attended by Miss Louise Vickers of Saugus as maid of honor, and by Miss Elaine MacLaren of Saugus and Miss Claire L. Dwyer of Medford as bridesmaids.

The bride's gown was styled with a satin bodice, having a sweetheart neckline and a marquisette skirt over net extending to form a train. With it she wore a fingertip-length veil caught to a tiara of orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations.

All the bridal attendants wore dresses with satin bodices and georgette skirts, the honor maid's being pink and the bridesmaids', aqua. All wore matching crowns of ostrich tips and carried bouquets of mixed flowers.

Dr. Samuel G. Blount of Providence, R. I., was Mr. Gilbert's best man, and the ushers were Arthur and William Twombly, both of Winchester.

After the ceremony a reception was held in Ashworth Hall, Saugus, the mothers of both the bride and bridegroom assisting in receiving.

Mr. Gilbert and his bride are living temporarily in Saugus. The bride is a graduate of Saugus High School. Mr. Gilbert, a practicing attorney in Boston, is a graduate of William and Mary College, class of 1939, and of Harvard Law School.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS GENERAL MEETING

The Department of Government and Education has arranged for J. Wendell Yeo to speak at the general meeting on Friday, Jan. 5 at 2:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Maxwell McCreery.

Dr. Yeo is associate professor of education at Boston University, where he teaches vocational guidance methods. He will bring a message concerning community responsibility, particularly during the years of post war readjustment in solving the problems of vocational guidance.

League members and friends welcome this opportunity to hear such a well qualified speaker on this important civic problem.

The Executive Board of the League will meet on Jan. 3 at 10 a. m. at the home of Mrs. Philip Woodward.

MISS LeDUC, MR. LEWIS ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. George F. LeDuc of Eaton court announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Eleanor Ruth LeDuc, to Philip A. Lewis, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett D. Lewis of Nahant.

Miss LeDuc is a graduate of Winchester High School, class of 1938. Mr. Lewis, who is now stationed in the Pacific Theatre, is a graduate of Lynn Classical High School. There are no immediate wedding plans.

INTER-CHURCH LEAGUE NEW YEAR'S EVE SERVICE

The Winchester Inter - Church League will hold a worship service conducted by young members of the Methodist, Episcopal, Baptist and Unitarian Churches at the Unitarian Church at 9 o'clock on New Year's Eve. A guest speaker will highlight the service and Miss Bessie Mae Jones will be featured soloist. An interesting movie will be shown after the service is over.

About 60 people turned out for the caroling on Christmas Eve. The Old Folks' Home and various shut-ins of the churches were made much happier by the wonderful singing of the young folks. Hot cocoa was enjoyed by all at the Unitarian Church after the caroling was finished.

WINCHESTER SOLDIER GETS PURPLE HEART

Pvt. Paul W. Connors, a signal corps lineman in the 7th Armored Division has been awarded the Purple Heart for wounds received in action in France.

Before the war, Pvt. Connors was in the employ of Dr. Milton J. Quinn of Winchester. He is a graduate of Winchester High School, class of 1939. His father, Timothy Connors, resides at 103 Loring avenue, where his son Paul also makes his home. He was inducted into the service May 29, 1942.

MISS HOLBROOK, MR. PARKER ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. Parker Holbrook of Mt. Pleasant street announce the engagement of their daughter, Shirley, to Mr. Earl W. Parker, Jr. son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Parker of Crescent road.

Both are graduates of Winchester High School, and Miss Holbrook is now attending Boston University. Mr. Parker is stationed at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station.

MISS PARKER, MR. HORNBERGER ENGAGED

At a tea at their home on Hillside avenue last Saturday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Parker announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Alice Stuart Parker, to Jay Carl Hornberger, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hornberger of Youngstown, Ohio.

Miss Parker is a member of the class of 1947 at Smith College. Mr. Hornberger was graduated from Harvard in the accelerated class of 1945. He is now serving as a research chemist at Merck and Company in New Jersey, but will enter Rochester Medical School in September.

Preceding the engagement tea Miss Parker had for luncheon a group of Winchester Smith girls with several Smith girls from out of town and other college friends home for the Christmas holidays.

The Smith girls included Ellen Jackson, Dorothea Richardson, Mary Moriarty, Joyce Pitman, Ruth and Elaire Tapley, Roberta Ray, Anne Penniman, Barbara J. Smith, Jane Coulson, Jean Drake, Louise Kelley, Barbara Bagbee, all of Winchester; Louise Boyer of Needham, Barbara Peabody of West Newton, Margo Loan of Concord and Miss Parker's room-mate, Ann Waldron of Portsmouth, N. H., who was the Parker's guest for the week-end.

The other college girls included Betsy and Marilyn Drake of Middlebury, Barbara A. Smith of Mt. Holyoke, Anne Murray, Carol Crandall and Nellie Rogan of Natick, all of Radcliffe; and Barberie Harmer of Wheaton.

Miss Parker's brother, Ens. Harrison Parker, USNR, now studying in the Oriental language school at the University of Colorado, arrived home on leave in time for the party and other guests were Lt. Gus Williams, USNR, and Kalman Novak of Harvard.

At the engagement tea the Smith girls assisted Mrs. Parker, Marilyn Drake and Barbara A. Smith poured.

DERBY—GARBY

At the Base Chapel at Lockbourne Army Air Base, Miss Kathleen M. Garby, daughter of Mr. Joseph A. Garby of Baltimore, Md., was married recently to Dexter Derby, USAAF, of this town. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Paul Small, chaplain at the base.

The bride wore a white satin princess styled gown with juliet cap and [illegible]. She carried a white bridal bouquet of white roses and babies breath. Her only attendant was Miss Frances Bernoski of New Haven, Conn., who was gowned in blue taffeta.

Sgt. Vincent Polite of New Jersey was best man.

Mr. Derby was graduated from the Winchester High School and prior to his enlistment in the Air Corps was associated with the Northeast Airlines.

Mr. and Mrs. Derby will reside at Columbus, Ohio, where both are stationed.

LEAVES TO JOIN WAVES

Miss Marjorie H. Clarke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Parker Clarke of Mt. Vernon street, left yesterday for Hunter College in New York to commence her basic training as a WAVE.

Miss Clarke, who enlisted in the WAVES some time ago, is a graduate of Winchester High School and of Westbrook Junior College. She has been serving as a medical secretary to Dr. Allan M. Butler, chief of the pediatric service at the Mass. General Hospital, who attained prominence by his success with the problem of making sea water drinkable.

Miss Clarke's brother, Lt. Norman Clarke, is also in the service, being at present in the European Theatre of Operations as a communications officer in the Signal Corps.

MISS NOLAN ENGAGED TO MR. OLES

Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Nolan of 72 Wildwood street announce the engagement of their daughter, Claire Ann, to Mr. Edmund M. Oles of West Hartford, Conn.

Miss Nolan is a graduate of Mt. St. Joseph Academy, West Hartford, Conn. and Burdett College.

Mr. Oles recently received a medical discharge from the Army after being wounded in France. He will continue his studies at the University of North Carolina in March.

WHY THE STAR IS DELAYED

We have received numerous complaints during the past two or three weeks of service men not receiving their copies of the Star. Up to this time the boys have been receiving their paper regularly. In investigating the sudden complaint we were led to believe that our wrappers were at fault since it has been almost impossible to purchase the customary craft stock. To remedy this we have been sending overseas papers in a special wrapper, and experimenting in placing the printed name directly on the paper itself, so that it may reach its destination even though the wrapper is destroyed. We have now been able to secure a lot of special craft stock which will be used from now on.

Meanwhile our former employee, Sheldon Hamilton, under a Dec. 17 date in England gives us a possible reason for the non-receipt of the Star. He writes that his Sept. 22 Star had just then been received, and suggests that papers have been more or less delayed by the volume of Christmas mail, which has taken all available space.

Every attention is being given to insure prompt and accurate delivery of the Star so far as this office can do so.

HERMAN EDWARD SHAW

Herman Edward Shaw of 42 Vine street, long identified with the automobile business in Winchester and Woburn, died at the Winchester Hospital Wednesday night, Dec. 27, following a two weeks' illness.

Mr. Shaw was born July 1, 1871, in Winchester, N. H. Before coming to this town more than 25 years ago he lived in Greenfield. For a time after coming here he made his home on Cutting street, but for the past few years had lived on Vine street.

Mr. Shaw was widely known in local automobile circles. He was long associated with the Woburn firm of John H. Bates and later was with Ungerman in both Woburn and Winchester. At the time he became ill he was running the Gulf Filling Station on Main street just to the north of the center.

Funeral services will be held this Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at the Kelley and Hawes Chapel with Rev. Dwight W. Hadley, rector of the Church of the Epiphany, officiating. Interment will be private.

MISS MEAD ROTARY SPEAKER

Miss Corinne Mead, head of the Winchester Public Library, was the speaker at the Winchester Rotary Club yesterday noon, giving the members a most interesting account of the doings and facilities of our Library. Miss Mead is completing her fifth anniversary as head of the Library Jan. 1, and it was of interest to record that she also appeared before the Rotarians just five years ago this time upon her assuming her duties. Under her guidance the Library has increased both in scope and attendance.

There was a full attendance at the meeting, a number of visitors and visiting Rotarians swelling the meeting sizably. A feature of the meeting was the distribution of a box of prime apples, the gift of the Harry F. Byrd Orchards, Winchester, Va. Fred Chamberlain was the winner of the War Bond which was awarded at this meeting. The singing was led by Ralph Bonnell and President Harry Bigelow presided, including in his opening remarks the reading of a letter of thanks from former secretary Frank H. Knight for a remembrance sent him by the club during his illness.

TRUCK SKIDDED

A big Mack B. M. tractor and G. M. C. trailer while headed north on Cambridge street near Thornton road yesterday skidded off the easterly side of the roadway and struck an Edison Light pole, damaging the pole and front of the tractor. The machine, owned by the Nashua Gummed and Coated Paper Company of 44 Franklin street, Nashua, N. H., and driven by Frank Askham of 16 Chautauqua avenue, that city, skidded as the driver applied his brakes to slow down as he was overhauling another truck. His own vehicle skidded to the westerly side of the road and jack-knifed across to go off on the easterly side. Askham was not injured.

LEGION TO BANQUET FOOTBALL TEAM

Winchester Post, 97, American Legion, is to be host to 88 members of the Winchester High School football squad, their coaches and managers, at a banquet to be held in the high school gymnasium on the evening of Jan. 13. Harry McGrath is chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements and complete that further details will be announced in next week's Star.

TAKES POSITION AT TRUST COMPANY

Mr. Albert W. Lundgren of Woburn has taken a position at the Winchester Trust Company as clerk. Mr. Lundgren has recently received his discharge from the U. S. Army after two and a half year's service.

The bank also announced the resignation of Miss Marjorie Chapin, who has moved with her family to Cambridge.

JOSEPH CARGILLE KENNEDY

Joseph Cargille Kennedy, a former widely known resident of Winchester, died Saturday morning, Dec. 23, at Miles Memorial Hospital in Damariscotta, Me. He had been living in that town, and the funeral was held there Tuesday afternoon at 2:30. Burial was in the family lot in the Damariscotta Cemetery.

Mr. Kennedy was 83 years old and a native of Damariscotta. He came to Winchester as a young man and engaged in the lumber business, first with Henry Emerson and afterward with the firm of Blanchard and Kendall. Later he was for many years associated with the Berlin Mills Lumber Company of Maine and New Hampshire, serving as sales representative and being well known to the trade.

During his residence in Winchester Mr. Kennedy built the house on Mt. Vernon street now occupied by Dr. Robert L. Emery and lived there until he left town. He was for many years a member of the Boston Athletic Association and was also a member of the former Calumet Club.

Mr. Kennedy was twice married. His first wife was Alice Shattuck, daughter of the late Joseph Shattuck, a well known local building contractor. She died Jan. 8, 1929.

On Nov. 18, 1929, Mr. Kennedy married the former Alice Skillings, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Skillings of Rangely. Following their marriage they lived in Washington for a time, but for the last 13 years they had been in Maine, living on Mr. Kennedy's farm in Wiscassett until a little more than a year ago when they took up residence in Damariscotta.

Mrs. Kennedy survives, with a brother, Frank Kennedy, also living in Maine.

MRS. ANGELA M. GARVEY

Mrs. Angela M. (O'Hara) Garvey, widow of John F. Garvey and mother of School Committeeman Leo F. Garvey of Allen road, died Friday morning, Dec. 22, at Du Tilly Hospital in Dover, N. H. She had made her home in Dover for the past 50 years, her late husband having died in that city last May.

Mrs. Garvey was 71 years old and a native of Prince Edward Island. Before taking up residence in Dover she lived in Durham, N. H., and was well known in both places, for her interest in the religious and social life of the community and for her charitable disposition.

She was also known throughout New Hampshire as a violinist and an authority on old fashioned dancing. Twenty years ago she came to Boston to meet Henry Ford and discuss old fashioned dancing with him, he being at that time interested in reviving the old time steps and figures.

Mrs. Garvey is survived by two sons, John A. Emerson of Dover, N. H., a son by a former marriage, and Leo F. Garvey of this town. There are also six grandchildren.

The funeral was held Sunday, Dec. 24, with interment in St. Mary's Cemetery, Dover. A pro-burial mass was celebrated Tuesday at St. Mary's Church in Dover.

JOSEPH J. NOLAN

Joseph J. Nolan, a resident of Winchester for nearly half a century, died Wednesday morning, Dec. 27, at his home, 9 Hancock street, after a brief illness.

Mr. Nolan was born Aug. 16, 1869, in County Fermanagh, Ireland. He came to Winchester in 1895 and for 49 years until his recent retirement was employed as a currier at the Beggs and Cobb Tannery in this town. He was a member of the Holy Name Society of St. Mary's Parish.

Mr. Nolan was a widower. He leaves a daughter, Miss Alice Nolan; a son, James Nolan, both of Winchester; and three sisters, Mrs. Arthur T. O'Leary and Mrs. Daniel Lydon, both of Winchester, and Mrs. Thomas Ambrose of Arlington.

The funeral will be held from the Moffett and McMullen Funeral Home on Washington street Saturday morning at 8:15 with solemn requiem high mass at St. Mary's Church at 9 o'clock. Interment will be in Calvary Cemetery.

JOHN DANIEL BLUNT

John Daniel Blunt of 59 Cross street, a long time resident of Winchester, died early Wednesday morning, Dec. 27 at the Winchester Hospital.

A native of North Carolina, Mr. Blunt was born April 16, 1882. He had made his home in Winchester for many years and was well known here, living on upper Main street before moving to his Cross street address. He was employed as a machinist at the Charlestown Navy Yard. Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Clara E. Blunt, and a daughter, Miss Rose M. Blunt, both of Winchester.

Funeral services will be held on this Saturday afternoon at 2:30 at the New Hope Baptist Church. Interment will be in Wildwood Cemetery.

SEVERAL AUTO ACCIDENTS OVER WEEK-END

Although only one automobile accident was reported to the Police during the slippery going of Christmas Day there were a number of collisions in town on the three days preceding the holiday. Most were only bumps, resulting in slight damage to the cars involved and on injuries.

One slight bump occurred shortly after 3 o'clock on the Main street bridge at the Mill Pond in the center. A Winchester car was involved with a machine, the owner of which wasn't learned. At 6:19 Friday evening a Buick sedan, driven south on Main street at the intersection of Highland avenue by Frank Perry of Chestnut street, Somerville, was in collision with a Nash sedan, being driven north on Main street by William Richardson of 339 Cambridge street.

Saturday evening, shortly before 8 o'clock George Chakmakis of 42a Prescott street, Somerville, phoned from Arlington to report that his Ford coupe had skidded off Cambridge street into a wall at Robinson park. The Police went to the reported scene of the accident and found there a typewriter and wrist watch which were later claimed by Chakmakis' father. Shortly after midnight the Police received a call from the Mass. General Hospital, reporting that Chakmakis and three companions had been treated there for injuries sustained in the accident in Winchester. The extent of their injuries was not reported.

Earlier Saturday, at 5:15 p. m. a Packard sedan, driven west on the Parkway by Jeremiah J. Moynihan of 61 Wildwood street, was in collision with an Eastern Mass. bus being driven south on Main street by Roger B. Hill of 50 Salem street.

At 8:10 Saturday evening a Pontiac sedan, being driven south on Washington street by Richard F. Fenno, Jr., of 24 Wildwood street collided with a Pontiac sedan, owned by Joseph T. Cussen of 88 Highland avenue and parked opposite St. Mary's Church.

Early Sunday morning shortly after midnight a Plymouth sedan, owned by A. Frank Maguire of 321 Salem street, Medford, and being driven south on Main street by James Cronin of 148 High street, Medford, struck a hydrant on Main street opposite Marshall road, damaging the machine and the hydrant.

A Ford sedan, driven by Elizabeth Winship of 49 Oxford street and an Olds sedan, driven by John Cummins of 1 Yale street were in collision at the intersection of Oxford street and Foxcroft road at 12:30 Sunday afternoon. The Winship car was headed north on Oxford street and the Cummins machine east on Foxcroft road.

The only accident reported to the Police Christmas Day took place sometime previous to 9:15 in the evening. At that time Sgt. James P. Donaghey discovered that a car headed south on Main street had skidded and gone over the curbing at the northern end of the traffic circle at Symmes Corner, breaking the steel upright holding the yellow flasher-beacon. Sgt. Donaghey placed a red lantern on the broken beacon as a warning.

FORMER MUSIC DIRECTOR IN TOWN

The Star had a pleasant visit Wednesday morning from Albert Edmund Brown, former director of music in the Winchester schools, in town to spend Christmas with his daughter.

Mr. Brown succeeded Ernst McKechnie as director of music, serving for several years, prior to 1910 when he went to Ithaca, N. Y., to join the faculty of Ithaca College, formerly the Ithaca Conservatory of Music. He now has a studio for the study of voice in Albany, N. Y., where he makes his home.

While in Winchester Mr. Brown taught voice and also was widely known in musical circles as a bass soloist, singing in concert and oratorio as well as making records for the Columbia Phonograph Company. Among the leading musical events, at which he was a soloist was the Worcester Musical Festival and he won the commendation of many critics for his singing of leading bass roles in the oratorio field.

Mr. Brown had many inquiries to make about teachers and school officials with whom he was associated here as well as asking about his former pupils. He is looking especially fit and reported himself as feeling first rate. He asked the Star to remember him to all his old friends in town

SCHOOL CHILDREN CONTRIBUTE CLOTHING

During the week prior to the Christmas holidays, pupils in the public schools of Winchester contributed enough wool clothing to fill 11 large bags for shipment to the Save the Children Federation in New York City.

This organization, founded in 1932, is a private, non-sectarian, non-partisan child welfare organization, serving children regardless of race or creed. The general purpose of the organization is to assist communities to develop programs for the health, education and general welfare of the children of the United States and other lands.

In America, it serves children in the lesser privileged rural areas of nine states, viz., Arizona, Kentucky, Missouri, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, and West Virginia. Overseas it functions principally through its membership in the Save the Children International Union in co-operation with sister organizations in Great Britain, Sweden, and other countries.

Last year this organization raised in cash $421,268.97 and in commodities, especially clothing, $1,423,680.32. Twenty thousand children in 600 sponsored schools benefitted by this charitable organization. Forty-three thousand Christmas presents were distributed, and a half million pounds of clothing primarily to aid school attendance. Besides those, school lunches, recreational facilities, vacation schools, and health clinics have been provided with the co-operation of local and county committees. Headquarters is 1 Madison avenue, New York City.

Miss Rachel A. Kimball, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew A. Kimball of 18 Cabot street, a senior at Jackson College, Department of Women at Tufts College, Medford, is spending the Christmas recess at home with her parents.

COMMITTEE OF SAFETY CHAPTER, D. A. R.

The Committee of Safety Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution held their December meeting in the parlor of the First Congregational Church, on Monday, Dec. 18 at 2 p. m.

Mrs. Nathaniel M. Nichols, Regent, presided and presented the guest speaker Miss Katherine R. Briggs, Past State Chairman of American Indians, and a member of the National Committee, who took as her subject, "Indians of Today."

Miss Briggs told of many interesting episodes in connection with her work among the Indians, and recommended the reading of two books; "Indians Are People Too," by Ruth Mu-krat Bronson, and "Speaking of Indians", by Ella Deloria.

An exhibition of Indian Crafts were on display.

Mrs. Nichols announced that an electric Hammond Pipe Organ was presented to the airplane carrier, Bon Homme Richard, at its commissioning, on Nov. 26, 1944, by Mrs. Julia Talmage, President General, in behalf of the National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution; and that the Mobile P X Unit for the Cushing General Hospital, a gift of the Mass. Chapters, D. A. R., would be presented to the hospital on Dec. 28.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. John B. Wills, chairman of the Chapter's American Indians Committee. Miss Mary Alice Fitch and Mrs. John G. Penniman poured at the tea table.

Miss Ellen M. Fitzgerald, sister of Mr. James J. Fitzgerald of 18 Oak street, while leaving his home Sunday morning to attend church, slipped on the icy pavement and fell, breaking her hip. She was taken in the Police ambulance to the Winchester Hospital and treated by Dr. Richard W. Sheehy.

BRITISH WAR RELIEF

The Winchester work-room unit of British War Relief brought a Christmas touch into its last 1944 meeting, at the lunch hour Dec. 20, by a tiny present to its founder, Mrs. William Weeks.

Not only founder but unwearying worker, who has continued in charge of work for babies and purchased materials, cut and directed the making of hundreds of fleecy, pretty garments. The unit realized again how long England has been enduring war when they thought that the babies who slept in the first things the unit made might now be singing a kindergarten carol.

The Winchester Unit proudly sent on to the shipping room in Boston a whole box of warm knitted things for which Mrs. Arthur B. Chapin of Holyoke had made the unit her agent. Each thing was as pretty as it was warm, beautifully knitted of wools deftly combined. Women, girls and babies will have the comfort of the bedsocks. And two babies will have mittens of the shell pink to go with the bootees, at whose exquisite stitches knitters with the real know-how looked with esteem. The unit thanks this ally in the west, and hopes that some Wednesday in 1945 will bring her for a visit.

The sewing department finished all the work it had on hand and sent in for shipping a dozen girls' dresses, 10-year old size, and two for 4 year olds. On Jan. 9 they will begin on a new consignment.

And in a new place. During January the unit has been invited by Mrs. James Riley to work at her home, 71 Church street. The hours will be as usual from 10 to 3. Mrs. Riley's invitation does the war effort a good turn, too, by saving fuel that would be needed to heat the Epiphany hall.

Knitters will find yarn for service men's helmets, and gloves and for baby things. Inquiries about knitting go to Mrs. Frank Madge, Win. 0554-J.

TO SHOW WINCHESTER SWIMMING PICTURES

Helen Jay Carroll, Red Cross swimming instructor and coach of the Winchester Swimming Association team, has arranged for the showing, to her local swimmers, at the Red and Black Canteen this Saturday morning at 10:30, of a series of colored motion pictures of swimming and life saving at both Palmer and Leonard Beaches.

The pictures were taken by Stephen Pitkowicz of Cambridge, a key worker at the Watertown Arsenal, whose avocation is photography. With the co-operation of Miss Carroll, Mr. Pitkowicz paid repeated visits to both local beaches during the past summer and took action pictures in sufficient numbers to secure a complete sequence showing the development of swimmers from their first instruction, some as mere babes of 15 months, to finished performers.

Miss Carroll had her skilled swimmers and beach lifeguards do the life saving sequences, doing the various carries first on land and then in the water. Besides the swimming and life-saving shots Mr. Pitkowicz will show other pictures of water sports and under-water swimming.

The use of the Canteen, or Association Hall, was made possible through the co-operation of the Waterfield Associates who have charge of the building.

DONAHUE'S UNIT CITED

The 773rd Amphibian Tractor Battalion, of which Lt. Fred J. Donahue, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Donahue of Mystic avenue, is a member, has received the Navy Presidential Citation for its heroic landings in the very first waves that hit Saipan and Tinian. It is considered quite an honor for an Army unit to receive a Navy citation.

Lt. Donahue's battalion formerly was the 773rd Medium Tank Battalion of the 6th Armored Division, which has made such an excellent record in France. It became an amphibious tractor battalion in the fall of 1943.

Lt. Donahue is stationed on Oahu, T. H. With a fellow officer he recently visited Hilo, where he was registered at the famed Volcano House.

MELARAGNI IN ITALY

Cpl. Frank J. Melaragni, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Melaragni, of 91 Loring avenue, has arrived safely at an American Airbase, somewhere in Italy.

Cpl. Melaragni is an aerial gunner and has been assigned to a veteran B-24 Liberator heavy bombardment group of the 15th Air Force which has flown more than 100 bombing missions against the Germans in Southern Europe.

Before entering the AAF June 29, 1943, Cpl. Melaragni was a student in the Winchester High School from which he would have graduated with the class of 1943.

WYMAN COMMENDED

First Lt. William T. Wyman has been awarded a Letter of Commendation for outstanding services in handling all native labor in the French Colony of New Caledonia used by the U. S. Army.

The Letter of Commendation by Major General Frederick Gilbreath, commanding general of the South Pacific Base Command, lauded his tact with representatives of the French Colony and his judgment in handling the workers despite the language difficulty.

The Commendation reads:

"You are highly commended for outstanding services in the South Pacific Area from Jan. 1, 1943, to Nov. 17, 1944. Assuming the command of all native labor for the U. S. Army troops at New Caledonia, you conducted a superior camp, with a minimum of equipment, for personnel entirely lacking in a knowledge of pidgin-English. Through your efforts the highest quality of relationship was maintained with representatives of the French Colony of New Caledonia through whom all the recruiting of natives was conducted; the natives were housed in barracks with screened mess halls, and the percentage of ineffectuals was materially reduced. Your judgment in disciplinary measures was dependable and fair, to the extent that you gained the high respect of all the natives under your jurisdiction, as well as that of the representatives of the Colony. Moreover, the marked improvement in living conditions in native villages can be traced directly to habits acquired under your leadership."

ELLIS WITH CRACK A. F. OUTFIT

Second Lt. Emmons S. Ellis, 21-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Russell Ellis of 9 Madison avenue, has arrived overseas to take up his duties as a pilot with the top scoring P-51 Mustang fighter group of the Mediterranean theater.

A graduate of Winchester High School in 1940, Ellis later entered Harvard College as a member of the class of 1945. On Feb. 25, 1943, he left his studies to enter the AAF as an aviation cadet, receiving his wings and commission at Foster Army Air Field, Victoria, Texas on April 15, 1944. After further training at the Bruning, Nebraska Army Air Base, he embarked to join his present organization at its Italian base.

In his new assignment, Lt. Ellis will fly with a group which has one of the most colorful histories among AAF fighter groups in the whole European theater. It was the first to go on operational status in England, as well as in Algeria, where its pilots shot down three enemy manned French fighters on D day, and in Sicily and Italy. Since being credited with the first German fighter downed by AAF fighters in this war, over Dieppe on Aug. 19, 1942, the group has run its total aerial victories over the 500 mark. In addition, it is credited with an untold number of planes, locomotives and other rail and road transport destroyed in ground strafing.

DOLLOFF HOME FOR CHRISTMAS

Chief Machinist's Mate Charles Dolloff, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Dolloff of Norwood street, arrived home Thursday, Dec. 21, on a 30-day leave, after participating in the various invasions on an LST.

Chief Dolloff is married to the former Vel Clement of Winchester, who with their son, Garry, makes her home in Quincy. Chief Dolloff's leave was his first in 21 months.

ELLIOT PROMOTED

Recently promoted from staff sergeant to technical sergeant is John H. Elliot, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Elliot of 35 Water street.

Sgt. Elliot is a platoon sergeant in his company and has been overseas 15 months with a veteran jungle fighting regiment. He has been awarded the Combat Infantryman's Badge for exemplary conduct in action against the Japanese.

He says his biggest thrill since being overseas was during the Guadalcanal campaign when the first patrol he was on made contact with the Japs. He was a bar (automatic rifle) man at the time and was being fired at by a Jap light machine gun; suddenly the two Japs who were operating the gun stuck their heads up and Sgt. Elliot killed them.

He has seen service in Australia, New Caledonia, New Hebrides, Fiji Islands and Bougainville.

Before entering the Army he was employed by the Beggs and Cobb Leather Company as an embosser.

RECEIVES OAK LEAF CLUSTER

First Lt. Joseph D. Garrison, 23, pilot of a B-17 Flying Fortress of the 95th Bombardment Group, has been awarded an Oak Leaf Cluster to the Air Medal for "meritorious achievement" while participating in 8th Air Force bombing attacks on vital German industrial targets, and on Nazi airfields, supply dumps and gun emplacements in support of advances by Allied ground forces on the Continent.

Lt. Garrison is a member of the Fortress group which led the first American bombing attack on targets in Berlin, and which was cited by the President for its outstanding bombing assault on railroad marshalling yards at Munster, in October, 1943.

The lieutenant, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Garrison of 97 Highland avenue, was formerly a student at the University of New Hampshire. The lieutenant's wife, Mrs. Shirley C. Garrison, lives at 58 Wellington street, Springfield.

BARNES NOW 1ST. LIEUTENANT

Announcement has been made of the promotion of Frank T. Barnes, Jr., son of Mr. Frank T. Barnes, 41 Wildwood road, Columbus, Ga., to the rank of 1st. lieutenant.

Lt. Barnes was graduated from Winchester High School and attended Wesleyan University and Boston University. He entered the military service in March 1941, and served with the 182nd Infantry and at the Replacement Training Center at Camp Wolters, Texas.

Since receiving his commission as second lieutenant in March 1944, he has been on duty as an instructor in the Weapons Section, Academic Department of the Infantry School.

Lt. and Mrs. Barnes are living at 2520 Wynnton road, Columbus, Ga.

FIRE DEPARTMENT AT WOBURN FIRE

Engine 3 and a crew of firemen from the Central Station answered the second alarm from Woburn Box 612 last Saturday evening for the big fire that badly damaged the building housing Phillips' Shoe Store on Main street opposite Walnut street. The engine covered in at Woburn Headquarters while its crew assisted the Woburn firemen at the fire, returning to their quarters here at 12:25 Sunday morning.

Christmas afternoon at 5.40 the firemen were called to the home of Mabel L. Smith, 9 Hillside avenue, to correct trouble caused by a short circuit in the wiring of an oil burner.

LT. ABBOTT ON LEAVE

First Lt. George A. Abbott, who flew from Persia on an important Government mission, left Teheran last week Wednesday arriving in Washington Friday morning. He is now on leave, his arrival in this country being a pleasant surprise for his mother, Mrs. Jame W. Seaver of Cambridge.

Upon the expiration of his leave, Lt. Abbott will return to Persia and the 19th Station Hospital, where he is serving as the hospital's personnel adjutant.

CHRISTMAS PARTY

Mrs. William R. Matthews and Mrs. Lyman R. Matthews entertained Sunday afternoon, Dec. 24, at a Christmas party at their home on Park avenue, evergreens and a lighted tree making an attractive setting for the affair.

Guests of honor were Mrs. Matthews' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Fenton of Wayne, Penn., who came on to spend the holiday in Winchester. Mr. Lyman Matthews was also able to be present, having received unexpected leave from his Navy duties. His brother, Mr. William Matthews is a lieutenant serving with the Army in the European theatre.

The Star extends to its readers, advertisers and friends its very best wishes for the coming year.

The Star dislikes continually finding fault, and it knows the handicaps under which town departments are operating. It does, however, seem that with Manchester Field now being more than ever used for organized athletics a better place for dumping snow and its attendant rubbish could be found than the battle-scarred surface of this playground. We can well imagine that the repeated passing of heavily loaded snow trucks across the gridiron at the southerly end of the field yesterday did that turf no particular good, and it is to be hoped that some other place can be found for snow disposal in the future.

SUWALKI TRIANGLE GUARDING EAST PRUSSIA

The eastward bulge which long remained in Russia's advancing battle line opposite East Prussia resulted from one of the wildest virgin forests of Europe, made up of almost impenetrable thickets, lakes and marshland, says the National Geographic Society. This is the region of the so-called Suwalki Triangle taken from Poland by Germany in 1939 and annexed to the eastern tip of East Prussia.

The region is so formidable that it stopped the Teutonic Knights in the Middle Ages. After conquering the lands along the sea, these armed missionaries were unable to extend Germanic sway to this wooded fastness of the Lithuanians.

The forest is 20 miles wide and extends 30 miles north, beyond the city of Suwalki. The road through Sejny to Suwalki is a causeway bordered by intricate chains of lakes.

Augustow, west of the forest, with 12,000 inhabitants before the war, is on the 65-mile canal which connects the Vistula and Niemen Rivers. It is situated at the crossing of some of this area's few good roads. From Augustow highways lead north to Suwalki and Raczki. In the first World War the Russian infantry advanced over these highways, and by paths through the swamps known only to the natives was able to pass beyond the German lines on both sides of Suwalki.

Suwalki is a thinly populated area, with many small villages of wooden huts with thatched roofs. Jewish merchants and craftsmen made up most of the 28,000 prewar population of the city of Suwalki.

ALENCON, NORMANDY'S SOUTHERNMOST TOWN

To the ladies, there is something familiar about the name of that French town, Alencon (its e pronounced like an s), which lies between captured Rennes and Paris.

The familiar something is lace, reminds the National Geographic Society. Point d'Alencon is a fine hexagonal mesh lace developed at Alencon by copying and slightly varying the needlepoint of Venice. Its heyday was the early 18th century, when lace collars, cuffs, garters and shoe rosettes were what the well-dressed gentleman was wearing.

Alencon, 57 air miles south and slightly east of long-embattled Caen, is the southernmost town of Normandy and the capital of Orne, Normandy's only inland Department. It had a prewar population of 18,000, and lies in the fertile plain where the Briante flows into the Sarthe. By rail it is 115 miles southwest of Paris and 36 miles north of LeMans.

Alencon diamonds (quartz) teamed with needlepoint as Alencon's important industries in the 17th and 18th centuries. Then those delicate and glamorous industries waned; and modern Alencon has made its living from such starkly useful products as bricks, vehicles, shoes, straw hats and woolen and linen cloth. In recent years Alencon citizens, by displaying lace samples in the town museum and by conducting a lace-making school, have endeavored to revive the Alencon needlepoint art.

Granite is quarried near the town. Horses and grain are the chief products of the fertile countryside.

Peacetime Alencon was one of the cleanest and brightest towns in France. Three towers, the only remnants of the castle of the counts and dukes of Alencon, built in William the Conqueror's time, were restored and were used as the court house and prison. The 15th century Church of Notre Dame has been known for its Gothic ornamentation and stained glass windows.

Look! Listen! Live!

Every month an average of 702 freight trains, most of them carrying vital war goods, are delayed an average of 460 hours because of carelessness by the men and women who drive automobiles.

The grade crossing accident illustrated here is an example:

At 1:32 a.m. (more than 1,900 grade crossing accidents occurred at night last year) a freight train passed through a city in accordance with the speed limit. The locomotive's headlight gleamed through the darkness and the regulation whistle warnings were sounded.

The engineman saw a gasoline tank truck crossing immediately in front of the engine and, realizing the imminence of the accident, applied the air brakes, but was unable to stop in time. The impact tore the gasoline tank open. Gasoline ignited and exploded, killing the engineman, fireman and a brakeman, as well as the oil truck driver.

The locomotive and 27 freight cars and their contents were damaged by flames. Three homes nearby caught fire and burned, as well as two parked automobiles and one express truck.

The National Safety Council is conducting a special campaign to stop these grade crossing accidents, which every day delay an average of 38 trains a total of 22 hours—a serious drain on the nation's war transportation effort.

Driver carelessness is the cause of almost all grade crossing accidents, according to the Council. To help win the war, to save yourself and others needless suffering, the Council asks you to be su the track is clear before you sta across.

DOG'S EXERCISE

Regular Walks Will Keep Him And Owner In Shape

Coordinate your own exercise with that of your dog and you'll both be the better off for it, advises the Gaines Dog Research Center, New York City.

The dog's health requires sunshine and fresh air as much as yours does. Swimming or jumming is wonderful for him if he enjoys it, but regular walk's will keep him in good condition. Regularity in exercising is most important. It is far better to take an half a dozen blocks each day than half a dozen miles on Sunday. Extended walks on Sunday must be undertaken immediately after meals, and he should always be taken out on his leash. If he tends to put on weight, reduce his food intake or step up his exercise. If it is impossible for you to give him daily walking exercise and one like that shown in the illustration will provide it for you in complete safety.

Not only your dog's size, but his temperament and his food consumption have a bearing on the amount of exercise he should have. In primeval days the dog was forced to take a tremendous amount of exercise merely in finding his food. Under today's domesticated conditions he cannot possibly digest either the quantity or quality of food that he could in his wild state. More and more authorities are leaning to the belief that today red meat alone is not a suitable diet for the dog. Far better for him are the prepared, well-balanced high quality dog meals, rich in all essential food elements, to be found on the shelves of the corner grocery. A dog fed on such food receives complete nourishment and requires nothing else save water.

"Christian Science" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, and in all of its branches, on Sunday, Dec. 31.

The Golden Text, "The prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost," is from II Peter 1:21. Other Bible citations include, "Bow down thine ear, and hear the words of the wise, and apply thine heart unto my knowledge. . . . That thy trust may be in the Lord, I have made known to thee this day, even to thee. That I might make thee know the certainty of the words of truth; that thou mightest answer the words of truth to them that send unto thee" (Proverbs 22:17, 19, 21).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, "Through Christian Science, religion and medicine are inspired with a diviner nature and essence; fresh pinions are given to faith and understanding, and thoughts acquaint themselves intelligently with God" (p. 107).

BRIGHTER WORLD FOR U.S. DOGS, TOO, PLANNED FOR END OF WAR

View of Ridgefield, Conn., research kennels of the Gaines Dog Research Center. Left: Closeup of exercise courts used in experimental work in the care of dogs.

A brighter post-war world for America's 15,000,000 dogs appeared sure today as the result of plans announced by the Gaines Dog Research Center.

The Center is a research and educational institution devoted to furthering the welfare of the dog, with its principal office at 250 Park Avenue, New York City, and extensive research kennels at Ridgefield, Connecticut. Aside from studies in nutrition and genetics and experiments in the management and care of dogs intended to be helpful to both dog and dog-owner carried on by its own staff, the Center cooperates in dog research work carried on by various private and public educational institutions and experiment stations throughout the country.

W. E. Armstrong

Chief among the projects planned for after the war is an educational exhibit dealing with the origin and function of the various breeds of dogs. For this purpose the central building of the Research Kennels at Ridgefield will probably be used, while the surrounding grounds may be developed into a dog zoological garden in which it is hoped to make available to public view prize specimens of all 167 known dog breeds in the world.

Other contemplated research projects include the creation of standards of perfection for each breed of dog and development of a medium-size, all-weather, super-intelligent farm dog who would be herd-dog, guard-dog and companion-dog in one. The need for such an animal has long been felt in rural areas.

Managing Director of the Gaines Dog Research Center is W. E. Armstrong, well known figure in dog circles throughout the nation, while the Executive Secretary is Harry Miller, dog publicist who was formerly editor of the national magazine "Dogs." For the past two years Mr. Miller has also served as secretary of National Dog Week.

WINCHESTER ART ASSOCIATION

Tuesday, Jan 2, the Winchester Art Association will gather at the Public Library Gallery for its January meeting.

The exhibitor for the month will be Mr. Frank W. Benson, nationally known for his etchings, and oil and water-color paintings. Mr. Benson was born in Salem, where he now lives. He studied in Boston's School of the Museum of Fine Arts and in Paris. He has received countless medals and prizes for his work and his etchings and paintings hang in galleries all over the country.

Two motion pictures will be shown at the meeting starting at 7:45, Frank Benson works in one of these "Demonstrating the Etchers' Art" and in the other "The Last of the Wood Engravers" Timothy Cole will demonstrate the technique of wood engraving.

The hostess for the evening will be Mrs. Richard Ashendon assisted by seven Association members. Mrs. Paul Howard and Mrs. George Nardin will pour and the centerpiece for the refreshment table will be arranged by Mrs. Harold Bowne.

MISS AVERY'S LECTURE

"India Reports on Herself" is the subject of the fourth lecture of the Winchester "Today as History" series to be given by Miss Eunice Harriet Avery, Jan. 3 at 3 o'clock in the Wyman School Hall for the benefit of the Winchester Smith College Club's scholarship fund. Miss Avery can give her enthusiastic audiences many interesting slants on the Indian question, since she has known and spoken with various members of the Indian goverment as well as business people who have been lifelong residents of India.

The ushers will be Mrs. Vincent Farnsworth, Jr. and Mrs. Geoffrey Neilly. Mrs. Benjamin T. Marshall, Jr. and Mrs. Robert Blackler will be at the ticket table.

WOMEN'S LEAGUE OF THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

The regular monthly meeting will be held Thursday, Jan. 4 with the Christian Friendliness Committee in charge. There will be White Cross sewing at 10 o'clock. Mrs. Paul E. Ward will be chairman of the luncheon which will be served at noon.

Miss Dorothy Shimp, State Secretary of Christian Friendliness, will be our guest speaker at the afternoon meeting and Mrs. J. H. Buzzell will have charge of devotions.

Be sure and bring your penny-a-meal banks.

COLD WEATHER HINTS FOR ANIMALS

Timely advice on the care of animal during the approaching winter months was issued this week by Dr. Erwin F. Schroeder, chief of staff of the Angell Memorial Hospital of the Mass. Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, 180 Longwood avenue, Boston.

Dr. Schroeder pointed out that animals, like human beings, suffered as a result of extreme cold weather, and should be given careful attention. "Horses in particular," he said, "require special consideraton during the winter."

"Since the shortage of tires and gasoline," continued Dr. Schroeder, "these animals have come back into daily use in greater numbers. In this respect, horses should not be forced to carry too heavy loads, especially when pavements are slippery, due to ice and snow. Furthermore, these creatures should be properly blanketed if they are required to stand longer than ten minutes in below-freezing temperature, though they should not be covered while in motion."

"It is equally important, in winter as in summer," declared the veterinarian, "that dogs be given the necessary amount of regular, outdoor exercise for their well-being, although such exercise periods should be shortened in the event of stormy weather."

If allowed to remain outdoors too long in the cold, Dr Schroeder, stated that long-haired dogs, particularly, were liable to suffer from serious frost bites as a result of snow and ice becoming impacted between their pads. "For this reason," he concluded, "all dog-owners are cautioned to examine carefully their pets' feet after exercising them in the snowy weather, in order to preclude the possibility of these painful frost bites."

A list of cold-weather "don'ts" was suggested by the Angell Memorial Animal Hospital for all animal-owners.

Don't overload work horses.

Don't race horses on slippery pavements.

Don't fail to blanket horses when standing longer than ten minutes in below-freezing temperature.

Don't blanket horses while in motion.

Don't give horses too cold water.

Don't allow dogs to chase automobiles.

Don't tie dogs outdoors without providing kennel or suitable shelter.

Don't permits cats or dogs to remain outdoors overnight.

HARRY McGRATH, JR., GOLFING IN AFRICA

Cpl. Harry A. McGrath, Jr., USAAF, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. McGrath of Rangely ridge, has always been an ardent golfer. At the Winchester Country Club he played a lot of golf as a schoolboy and collegian at Boston College, and he was rated well among the younger players. For 16 consecutive years he and his dad competed in the Father and Son tournament at the Winchester Country Club and on several occasions young Harry did pretty well in the Mass. Junior Championship play.

Harry didn't figure on too much golf after joining the Army, but apparently he didn't figure right, for today in Africa as a corporal with the Special Services of the Army Air Forces he has charge of a golf course near where he is stationed and plays himself, reporting that the royal and ancient Scottish pastime is high on the list of popular sports for servicemen, at least where he is stationed. (Perhaps Harry's own enthusiasm has something to do with this popularity.)

At that, Harry should know, for he is in charge of all sports at his base, and gets a lot of help as well as competition from another Winchester boy stationed with him, Cpl. E. Craig Greiner, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Craig Greiner, live on Myopia Hill road.

Both boys were reminded of the old home town when they read about last fall's charity golf match at the Winchester Country Club between Jug McSpaden, former pro in town, and Byron Nelson. As a result of the account Harry wrote the following letter to the Christian Science Monitor which that paper published Thursday, Dec. 21.

With his letter Harry included the results of the General Depot Tournament and a Match Play open, both held at his base. Both he and Craig participated in both, with serviceemen from practically everywhere. Harry's letter follows:

"Where I am stationed," he wrote, "I have charge of all sports on the base and we are fortunate in having two courses fairly handy. Consequently I have been running some tournaments and they have met with the approval of the men. Many men who never played golf before are taking up the ancient game, and I am going to try and have weekly tournaments.

"Howard Dupont, who used to run the scoreboard for Freddie (Freddie Corcoran of the P. G. A., Ed.) is here with me and between the two of us golf is high on the list . . .

Football High

"Besides the golf, football is in high gear and also basketball. I have a football league running now, and basketball starts next week . . .

"A Massachusetts boy won the Match Play Open, and incidentally this to my knowledge is the first time a tournament of this kind has ever been held. Dupont doesn't know of any others that were match play opens. Campbell, the winner, is an amateur, and Cirasella, the runner-up, a pro. In the final match Campbell had two eagles and six birdies. The course is not too long, but the fairways are all sand and the tees are sand. The greens are dirt and some are soft and others hard as a rock.

Clubs Scarce

"Clubs are very scarce and 12 sets are the only ones in the radius of 100 miles. As many as 150 play on Sunday and the course is crowded with anywhere from four to seven on one set of clubs. I have been trying to get some clubs and balls over and I hope to have something definite in the near future: The men are so anxious to play that they want to buy some clubs out of their own pockets.

"There is a Pasha's golf tournament coming up and it may make an interesting story. He has his own private golf course with watered greens, and they say that it compares to any course in the States."

The Star acknowledges the receipt of a Christmas card from Major Edward A. Bartlett, former teacher-coach at Winchester High School and now in the Army Air Forces in Italy.

DOWNES BROTHERS MET IN PARIS

Three Winchester brothers, Maj. James E. Downes, Capt. Philip G. Downes and Pvt. Richard H. Downes, sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. Edward Downes of High street and all serving with the United States Army in the European Theatre of Operations, had a most enjoyable reunion recently in Paris, spending a short leave together in the French capital before separating to return to their various posts.

Major Downes, who is in the field artillery, is a graduate of Harvard and of Harvard Law School. He was commissioned a second lieutenant in the Army reserve upon his graduation from Harvard in 1935 and was called to active service as a 1st lieutenant Feb. 1, 1941. His brother Philip, advanced from the ranks to Captain, entering the Army as a voluntary enlistee in Winchester in April, 1942. He too is a Harvard graduate, class of 1940, and is in the Intelligence Service. Richard, a Rivers School student, was inducted into the Army June 1, 1943, and is serving as a photographer with the Signal Corps.

Still another brother, Thomas, has recently been promoted to Major in the Marine Corps, of which he has been a member of the enlisted reserve for the past seven years. He was called to active duty in January of 1942 as a lieutenant and is now stationed is Hawaii. He too is a Harvard graduate.

Not to be outdone by her brothers, Miss Rose A. Downes enlisted in the Coast Guard SPARS in September, 1944, and is now doing public relations work for the corps in Washington. She is a graduate of Radcliffe and of Simmons with a year at Boston University Law School.

RED CROSS HOME SERVICE

The Red Cross Home Service wishes to remind those interested that the original application for furlough or discharge from military service must be made personally by the applicant through his commanding officer.

When requested by the Red Cross Field Director the Red Cross Home Service will ascertain the facts pertaining to the necessity of the requested furlough or disharge and report such information to the field director in the military unit of the applicant.

This service of the Red Cross does not include a recommendation as to the justice of the requested furlough or discharge although the advice of a doctor is often included in the report.

If an Army man becomes ill and needs medical care while home on furlough his family should get in touch with the Waltham Hospital. This contact is essential in case an extension of the furlough is requested.

Arrangements can be made through the Red Cross Home Service or directly with the hospital by telephone.

Men in the Navy may receive care at the Chelsea Naval Hospital and if able should report in person; but if not, transportation may be arranged by Home Service.

BOY SCOUTS

TROOP 3 NOTES

An impressive candle light investiture exercise was the highlight of the December 18 meeting. At this time Tenderfoots David Shiverick, David Hutchins, Elliott Hersey and James Loftus were welcomed into the troop.

Other awards were:

Life Scout to Burton Bailey

One year service stars to Willis Carrier, Todd Wyman, Burton Bailey, Mallory Smith, Fred Sawyer, Russell O'Day, Peter Flagg, John Allen, Harry Myers, Edward McDavitt, Phillip Nelson, Robert Horne.

Quartermaster emblem to Burton Bailey.

Bugler emblems to Elliott Hersey, David Shiverick.

Scribe emblem to John Davis.

Patrol Leaders to Burton Bailey, Phillip Nelson, Fred Sawyer.

Assistant Patrol Leader to David Hutchins.

Senior Patrol Leader to Mallory Smith.

Troop 3 started this fall with 15 members; since then, seven new scouts have been registered and one added by transfer, these with four new applications at hand will bring the membership roll to 27. Commissioner R. S. Whitten made the annual inspection of the troop. After the meeting the Scoutmaster A. G. Nelson and four committeemen met with E. W. Nelson, the District Executive.

Troop 3 has had two successful hikes this fall and is enjoying a healthful growth coupled with good leadership and co-operation of all concerned.

Keep up the good work Scouts of Troop 3.

VAUDEVILLE GOT ITS NAME FROM NORMAN TOWN OF VIRE

Vire, is the original home of vaudeville, says a bulletin from the National Geographic Society. It lies about 21 miles southeast of St. Lo, hilltop town which long held up the Yank advance. It is 65 miles southeast of Cherbourg and 35 miles southwest of Caen. It had a prewar population of about 6000.

Vaudeville was derived from Val or Vau de Vire (Valley of the Vire) which was later corrupted into the present form. In a wooded gorge of the Vire stood a mill which belonged to the ancestors of Olivier Basselin; to Olivier were ascribed the "Vaux de Vire," drinking songs first published in the 15th century, which sounded the keynote of early vaudeville entertainment.

Five roads converging on Vire made it locally famous as a cattle market and horse fair. Woolen mills in the town produced much of the poilu-blue cloth for French uniforms in the first World War. Near-by granite quarries were extensively worked.

Vire grew up outside the walls of the fortlike castle, now in ruins, built by Henry I of England in the 12th century. Three sides of the castle were inaccessible because of steep cliffs. The town trails down the fourth side of the hill toward the river.

NOTIONS ABOUT YOUR DOG THAT AREN'T SO

Three popular misconceptions about canines are here debunked by the Gaines Dog Research Center, New York City.

The country dog does not live longer than the city dog. As a matter of fact, the exact reverse is true. The lifespan of the average city dog is two to three years longer than that of his country cousin. Chief reason for this is the better care city dogs receive, particularly in the matter of feeding. City dogs, of course, are not exposed to the natural hazards encountered by country dogs.

A dog that bolts his food is not undernourished. It is natural for a dog to wolf or gulp his meals. The trait is believed a carry-over from primitive days when dogs ran in packs and each had to eat fast to get his share of cactured food. Another fact: The structure of the dog's mouth and throat is unlike that of most domesticated animals.

You cannot tell a purebred dog by his black-roofed mouth. The mouths of many cross-breds are black as midnight. The black tongue is peculiar to the Chow Chow, and some authorities hold that a black or partially black tongue is an indication of Chow blood somewhere along the line even though a given animal may have no other hint of Chow resemblance or characteristics.
